Several years after the events of A Link Between Worlds, Link leaves the kingdom of Hyrule and ventures to the kingdom of Hytopia. In order to hide his identity as a hero, Link dresses in the casual Bear Minimum Outfit. Despite this, he is recognized for bearing the traits of a hero in Hytopia: namely pointy ears and sideburns. Because of this, he is recruited by the Witch-Hunting Brigade to help defeat the evil witch, Lady Maud, who has cursed Hytopia's Princess Styla into wearing an irremovable, brown jumpsuit.

Golden Era

Following the recovery of the Triforce in A Link Between Worlds, Hyrule enters a Golden Era. Successive Kings of Hyrule govern the land with the strength of the united Triforce at their command. The Kingdom of Hyrule flourishes.

Era of Decline

When the last of the kings to use the Triforce anticipated his death, he hoped to find someone with the innate qualities that were fitting of a worthy possessor of the true Triforce; for if it were to fall in the wrong hands, evil would befall Hyrule. Unfortunately, he was unable to find any such person during his lifespan. Since his own son did not fit this archetype, the King elected to split the relic into its three component parts. Upon his death, the prince, instead of receiving the entire Triforce, inherited only the Triforces of Power and Wisdom. The prince frantically searched for the remaining Triforce of Courage, but in vain. Then, a wizard came to the prince and told him that his younger sister, Zelda, knew the location of the mystical object. The prince demanded that Zelda turn the information over to him, but Zelda refused and, in a rage, the wizard put Zelda into an eternal sleep, himself dying in the process. Overcome with grief, the prince sealed his sleeping sister in the North Castle and ordered that all female descendants of the Hylian monarchy were to be named Zelda. As Zelda was the only one who knew the location of the Triforce of Courage, the relic was lost and the royal family was no longer able to rule using the power of the unified Triforce. No one worthy of using the Triforce appeared and the kingdom was divided and reduced in size, thus marking the Era of Decline.

The Legend of Zelda

Many years later, an evil army attacked the little kingdom of Hyrule and stole the Triforce of Power. This army was led by the Demon King Ganon, who once again had been revived and sought to plunge the World into fear and darkness under his rule. Fearing his wicked rule, Zelda, the princess of this kingdom, split the Triforce of Wisdom into eight fragments and hid them throughout the realm. At the same time, she commanded her most trustworthy nursemaid, Impa, to secretly escape into the land and go find a man with enough courage to destroy the evil Ganon.

Braving forests and mountains, Impa fled for her life from her pursuers. As she reached the very limit of her energy she found herself surrounded by Ganon's evil henchmen, until a young lad appeared who skillfully drove off Ganon's henchmen. Hearing Impa's story, this young traveler, named Link, set out to recover the eight pieces of the Triforce of Wisdom. After doing so, he fought his way to Ganon's lair in Death Mountain. Link fought and destroyed the King of Evil, recovered the Triforce of Power and saved Princess Zelda.

The Adventure of Link

Although Link had defeated Ganon, his underlings remained. Waiting for the return of their master, they continued to cause chaos and disorder in Hyrule. The key to Ganon's resurrection was the blood of Link-the valiant lad that overthrew the King of Evil. The Demon King would be revived by sacrificing Link and sprinkling his blood on the ashes of Ganon.

Meanwhile, Link remained in the little kingdom of Hyrule and lent his hand to its restoration. One day, a strange mark resembling the crest of the kingdom appeared on the back of Link's hand as he approached his 16th birthday. Link went to Impa, Princess Zelda's nursemaid, who was shocked when she saw the birthmark. She took

Link to the North Castle and told him of the tragedy of the Princess Zelda of old. In order to revive the eternally sleeping Princess, Impa entrusted to Link six Crystals and a scroll so he could reunite the Triforce. The scroll revealed the location of the long-lost Triforce of Courage, which was hidden in the Great Palace in the Valley of Death. Link set out for the six palaces to defeat their Guardian Deities and, using each of the six crystals, dispelled the barrier around the Great Palace. After defeating the final Guardian, and his own shadow, Link retrieved the Triforce of Courage and awoke Princess Zelda from her sleep.

With the Triforce reunited for the first time since Zelda was put to sleep, the revival of Ganon was prevented and peace finally returned to the Kingdom of Hyrule.

Child Timeline

The Child Timeline, or Child Era, is the branch of the timeline that follows Link back in time at the end of Ocarina of Time. The young hero warns the Royal Family of Ganondorf's treachery, thus averting his rise to power and thwarting him from the start. Link leaves Hyrule on Epona to search for Navi. Years later, Ganondorf is sealed within the Twilight Realm.

This timeline contains the events of Majora's Mask, Twilight Princess, and Four Swords Adventures.

Majora's Mask

Several months into his search for Navi, Link becomes lost in a mysterious forest. He encounters the Skull Kid wearing Majora's Mask. Skull Kid steals Link's horse. Link chases after him into the parellel world of Termina.

The Skull Kid, corrupted by Majora's Mask, aims to destroy Termina by bringing the Moon down upon it. Link has only three days to stop the apocalypse, but he is able to return to the First Day by playing the Song of Time. He ventures to the four outer regions of Termina, using transformative masks to free the Four Giants. On the Final Day, the Four Giants hold up the Moon. Link thwarts Majora, the demon inhabiting the mask.

The Hero of Time leaves Termina to continue his search for Navi, and is not again seen alive. Upon his death, he becomes the Hero's Spirit.

The Failed Execution of Ganondorf

Several years after Ocarina of Time, Ganondorf is sentenced to death. The Sages attempt to carry out the execution but Ganondorf survives, blessed with the Triforce of Power by the gods. Instead, the Sages use the Mirror of Twilight to banish Ganondorf to the Twilight Realm, which had become inhabited by the Twili, descendants of the Interlopers.

Twilight Princess

In the Twilight Era, Ganon appears before Zant, a disgruntled servant of the Twili royal family. Ganon grants Zant his power, which he uses to usurp Midna, the Twilight Princess. Midna flees to the Light World. Zant invades Hyrule with an army of Shadow Beasts, who steal the light from the Spirits of Light, bringing Twilight to Hyrule. Princess Zelda is held captive in Hyrule Castle.

In Hyrule, Midna encounters Link, a ranch hand from Ordon Village. Link had been in pursuit of Bulblins who had kidnapped the children of the village. When he entered the Twilight, he was transformed into a wolf by the power of the Triforce of Courage, which he had inherited from his ancestor, the Hero of Time. Together Link and Midna restore light to Hyrule. In so doing, Link regains his original form. To defeat Zant, they gather the pieces of the Fused Shadow, which holds the dark power of the Interlopers. During their quest, Link receives sword training from the Hero's Spirit.

Zant curses Link back into wolf form with the Shadow Crystal, steals the completed Fused Shadow from Midna and injures her fatally. Link takes Midna to Princess Zelda, who pours her spirit into Midna to save her life. Link and Midna seek out the Master Sword in the Sacred Grove where the Temple of Time once stood. The sword dispels the curse on Link. Link and Midna gather the shards of the Mirror of Twilight, which Zant had broken. Link defeats the usurper in battle. Midna takes back the Fused Shadow and kills Zant with it. The duo returns to Hyrule Castle where they save Zelda from a resurrected Ganondorf. Link kills Ganondorf with the Master Sword. With his last breath, Ganondorf vows that one of his blood will succeed him.

Midna returns to the Twilight Realm. She shatters the Mirror of Twilight, severing the link between the two worlds.

Four Swords Adventures

Hundreds of years after Ganondorf's death, the people of Hyrule had reconciled with Ganondorf's tribe, the Gerudo, and it seemed for a while that peace would prevail in the land. However, a new Ganondorf was born to the Gerudo tribe who was the reincarnation of the King of Darkness that was defeated by the Hero Chosen by the Gods, and violated their taboo on the Ancient Pyramid. He stole the Trident from the pyramid and then stole the Dark Mirror from the Temple of Darkness. The mirror served as a prison for a dark tribe that, long ago, invaded the kingdom. It had the ability to reflect the evil heart of its bearer, giving birth to demonic creatures.

Ganondorf schemed to release the ancient sorcerer Vaati from his prison within the Four Sword, and created a dark copy of Link, Shadow Link, with the Mirror. The clouds of darkness covering the land made Zelda uneasy, so she gathered the six shrine maidens to renew the seal upon Vaati. At that moment, Shadow Link appeared and scattered the maidens with his powers. Link drew the sword from its pedestal, splitting into four just as in ancient times. However, this released Vaati from his prison to cause chaos. Ganon used Shadow Link to tear open rifts to the Dark World, pulling the four Knights of Hyrule into his sway and transforming them into Big Dark Stalfos.

The four Links journeyed throughout Hyrule to rescue the Shrine Maidens, and learned that Ganon was the mastermind behind the darkness plaguing Hyrule. They obtained the four jewels from the Knights, and made their way to the Tower of Winds, where they battled Vaati and Ganon himself, destroying Vaati and sealing Ganon inside the Four Sword forevermore.

Adult Timeline

The Adult Timeline, or Adult Era, is the branch of the timeline in which Link has disappeared from Hyrule after being sent back in time at the end of Ocarina of Time. In this timeline, Ganondorf is sealed within the void of the corrupted Sacred Realm along with the Triforce of Power. The Triforce of Wisdom remains in Zelda's possession. When Link goes back in time, the Triforce of Courage is left behind, shattered into eight shards scattered across Hyrule. Zelda returns the Master Sword to the Temple of Time.

This timeline contains the events of The Wind Waker, Phantom Hourglass, and Spirit Tracks.

Hyrule Submerged

Ages passed and the Hero of Time faded to legend. During the Era without a Hero, the seal of the Seven Sages broke. Ganon escaped from the Sacred Realm and used the Triforce of Power to bring darkness to Hyrule. When no hero appeared, King Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule and his people pleaded to the gods for deliverance.

The gods responded by bringing forth a deluge that would seal away all of Hyrule and Ganon with it. The gods chose those who would build a new world and commanded them to take refuge on the mountaintops, which became the islands of the new world known as the Great Sea. The Triforce of Wisdom was split in two: one part remained with King Daphnes beneath the waves, the other with his daughter the princess, who ascended to the new world. The Triforce fragment passed on to her namesakes, from daughter to daughter. Beneath the waves, Hyrule remained frozen in time.

The Wind Waker

Hundreds of years later, during the Era of the Great Sea, Ganondorf escapes to the surface world. Seeking to regain the Triforce of Wisdom, he commands the Helmaroc King to kidnap young girls, in the hopes of capturing Zelda. The Helmaroc King kidnaps Aryll, Link's sister. Link, a resident of Outset Island unrelated to the Hero of Time, sets out to rescue her. He is guided by the King of Red Lions, a boat sent forth by the gods.

Link proves his worth as a hero by gathering the Goddess Pearls and completing the goddesses' trial. A way opens to Hyrule beneath the waves. Link draws the Master Sword from a pedestal within Hyrule Castle. With the help of Tetra and her pirate crew, Link rescues his sister. However, he is unable to defeat Ganondorf. The Master Sword had lost the power to repel evil when Ganondorf killed the sages of Earth and Wind. Link and Tetra escape Ganondorf's grasp and return to Hyrule, where Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule reveals himself to be the King of Red Lions. He mends the Triforce of Wisdom-Tetra carries the other piece. She awakens as Princess Zelda.

Link restores the power to repel evil to the Master Sword. He gathers the shards of the Triforce of Courage to re-open the way to Hyrule. Upon returning to Hyrule, he discovers Zelda has been kidnapped by Ganondorf and taken atop Ganon's Tower. When Link purses them to the top of the tower, the full Triforce is reunited. Before Ganondorf is able to touch the Triforce and make his wish, Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule steps in and wishes for Hyrule to be washed away forever. Together, Link and Zelda defeat Ganondorf. They return to the surface, but Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule stays behind and vanishes along with his kingdom. Above the waves, Zelda becomes Tetra once again. Link and Tetra set sail in search of a new continent.

Phantom Hourglass

During the Era of the Great Voyage, Link and Tetra happen upon the World of the Ocean King. To investigate a rumor about disappearing ships in the area, Tetra boards the Ghost Ship and is taken away by it. Link falls into the ocean trying to rescue her and washes up on Mercay Island. There he meets the fairy Ciela and her so-called grandfather Oshus.

Link teams up with Ciela and steamboat captain Linebeck to find the Ghost Ship. He obtains clues from the Temple of the Ocean King, which he navigates using the Phantom Hourglass. Link finds the ship after rescuing the Spirits of Power, Wisdom, and Courage (Leaf, Neri, and as it turns out, Ciela). On the ship, Link finds Tetra turned to stone-her Life Force had been drained by a malevolent creature named Bellum. To defeat Bellum, Link searches the seas for three Pure Metals to forge the Phantom Sword. Oshus reveals himself to be the Ocean King and fuses the Phantom Hourglass into the Phantom Sword.

Phantom Sword in hand, Link defeats Bellum and frees Tetra. The Ocean King regains his true form. Link and Tetra return to their world and continue their search for a new continent.

Spirit Tracks

Link and Tetra's pirate crew eventually discovered a new continent. Spirit Tracks spanned the land, at the center of which stood the Tower of Spirits. These were created by the Lokomo to bind the Demon King Malladus.[citation needed] Tetra christened the land New Hyrule. Thus began the Era of Hyrule's Rebirth.

One hundred years later, the Spirit Tracks begin to disappear. Link, a Royal Engineer, and Princess Zelda, Tetra's descendant, head to the Tower of Spirits to investigate. Their train is derailed by Chancellor Cole and Byrne. Chancellor Cole, advisor to Princess Zelda, reveals himself to be a demon who aims to revive Malladus. Byrne, Cole's ally, separates Zelda's spirit from her body. Her body is carried off to the top of the Spirit Tower, to be used as a vessel for Malladus. The Spirit Tower is fragmented into floating pieces.

Link and Princess Zelda's ghost travel to four temples to restore the Spirit Tracks and the Tower of Spirits. They climb to the top of the tower, but are too late to stop Malladus from possessing Zelda's body. They pursue Malladus into the Dark Realm. Together, they defeat Malladus and Cole using the Bow of Light and the Lokomo Sword. Zelda regains her body and peace returns to Hyrule. Their protection no longer needed, the Lokomo return to the heavens.

Great Calamity

The events of Breath of the Wild take place during an era long after the events of earlier games have become myths. It is impossible to tell which myths are historical fact and which are mere fairy tale. Now referred to as the "Calamity Ganon", he was last known to return and be defeated 10,000 years ago, with him reviving again 100 years before the start of the game. Breath of the Wild takes place at the end of a timeline branch, but which timeline branch the events regarding Calamity Ganon take place in is up to the player's interpretation.

By the time of Ganon's appearance 10,000 years ago, the technology of the Sheikah tribe was highly advanced and Hyrule was flourishing. The Sheikah constructed the Guardians and Divine Beasts in preparation for Ganon's return. When Calamity Ganon eventually appeared, the then-present reincarnations of Zelda and Link were able to seal him away with the support of the Guardians and Divine Beasts. Despite this success, the King of Hyrule became paranoid fearing a possible betrayal by the Sheikah and began to subdue and banish them. On his orders, the Divine Beasts were buried underground in various locations across Hyrule. At some point, a militant faction of the Sheikah split off to become the Yiga clan, who swore allegiance to Ganon. With the Sheikah scattered across the land and many of them abandoning their technology, civilization in Hyrule declined to a primitive state over the next millennia. During this time, the Sheikah eventually settled in Kakariko Village and were no longer banished by the Royal Family.

About 10,000 years after the Calamity's defeat, a new princess is born and named Zelda in line with tradition. Around this same time, a prophecy warned of the return of Calamity Ganon. Hoping to prepare in the same fashion as their ancestors, the people of Hyrule began working to locate and excavate the Divine Beasts and Guardians, which they eventually managed to restore and activate. Subsequently, four warriors from each of Hyrule's races were selected to pilot the Divine Beasts. Around that time, the chosen bearer of the Master Sword was found to be a Hylian knight named Link, the only one who was able to pull the sword from its resting place in the Korok Forest. The four pilots and Link were then dubbed Champions.

A now 17-year-old Princess Zelda worked to awaken her sealing powers while being accompanied by Link, who had been appointed as her protector. Zelda was determined to awaken her power and prayed at the springs of the goddesses in Hyrule, but she was unsuccessful. Minutes after she had finished praying at the Spring of Wisdom, the Calamity broke its seal and rose up around the castle.

Immediately after, it managed to corrupt the entire Guardian army by possessing it with Malice and turned it against Hyrule. The Champions, who were with Zelda near the Spring of Wisdom at the time, then rushed to their respective Divine Beast hoping to still be able to defeat Calamity Ganon in time. By that point, Ganon had already sent four incarnations of Malice after the Divine Beasts and possessed them, killing the Champions inside. With their strongest weapons lost, Hyrule was laid to ruin and Link was fatally injured while protecting Zelda, who had awakened her sealing powers while fleeing from Guardians, requiring him to sleep in the Shrine of Resurrection for 100 years. Princess Zelda then went to confront Calamity Ganon alone and managed to seal it, though this required her to become imprisoned inside it in order to maintain the seal, as she could not completely seal Ganon away while he was undamaged by the Master Sword.

Breath of the Wild

One hundred years later, Princess Zelda's sealing power had weakened, and Calamity Ganon's return as well as Link's awakening were imminent. In response to both, the still possessed Divine Beasts began to wreak havoc around Hyrule. With the healing process complete, Link eventually awakened in the Shrine of Resurrection without his memories, and ventured foward with the Sheikah Slate left for him there by Zelda. Outside the Shrine of Resurrection, the spirit of King Rhoam explained to Link what happened in the past century. At some point, Link re-obtained the Master Sword from within Korok Forest, and is ultimately guided by Zelda's voice toward Hyrule Castle. Although he could have chosen to go entirely alone, Link instead takes back the Divine Beasts from Ganon's influence and frees the spirits of the deceased Champions, who also lend him their powers. With their help, Link is able to critically injure Calamity Ganon inside Hyrule Castle using the Master Sword, scattering the Malice covering him. Immediately after, the scattered Malice gathers outside of the castle and transforms into Dark Beast Ganon. Zelda, still imprisoned, summons the Bow of Light, and Link uses it to weaken Ganon enough to allow Zelda to free herself and seal him away.

After defeating the Calamity, Hyrule begins to slowly flourish again.

Princess Zelda focuses on rebuilding the Kingdom, while Link continues to support and protect her.

* * *

Me: Wow! The history of Hyrule is incredible.

Nico: No kidding.

Lincoln: It's incredible.

Laney: It sure is. I didn't know it was all so amazing.

Vince: Me neither.

?: Hey guys!

We turned and we saw the hero of Legends of Zelda, Link!

Me: Link!

Link: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you Link.

Mario: (Italian Accent) Link! It's-a good to see you again!

Link: It's good to see you again, Mario.

Luigi: (Italian Accent) Same-a to you Link.

Link: And you as well Luigi. Samus, Inkling, Fox, Falco, Donkey Kong, Diddy Kong, Kirby, Princess Peach, everyone. Wow! It's great to see you all again.

Samus: Same to you Link.

Pitt: You're looking awesome Link.

Donkey Kong: It's like a Super Smash Bros reunion.

Diddy Kong: You said it.

Celica: It sure is.

Palutena: Yep.

Kirby: This is awesome.

Fox: It's like the gang is all back together.

Maria: You heard about Bowser's sacrifice, didn't you?

Link: I did. It's hard to believe he would actually give up his life to save the universe. The whole time that we've been in the Super Smash Bros tournaments, I knew him to be a villain, especially in the Subspace Emissary. But now, I can consider him one of the universe's heroes.

Me: That's great Link. Also Bowser will forever be remembered in our hearts.

Bowser Jr.: That's right. Papa will always be with me and my family.

Larry Koopa: That's right.

Me: Yeah. Also we're gonna stop Ganondorf from taking Hyrule.

Link: And rescue Zelda from his clutches.

Me: Lets hurry. We haven't a moment to lose.

We were off to Ganondorf's castle! We arrived at his castle and it looked like a fortress of pure evil.

Me: Wow! What a fortress. And I thought that the fortresses we've seen on our adventures were this scary.

Link: I know.

We went into the fortress and we sensed Ganondorf's evil presence everywhere.

Me: Ganondorf is all over the place. I can sense his presence.

Varie: It's horrible.

Oceanus Shenron: It's ultimate evil.

Lily: Yeah.

?: That's a compliment in my opinion.

We then saw GANONDORF!

Me: Ganondorf. So we meet at last. For over 34 years you have caused so much pain and suffering to everyone in Hyrule.

Link: Your reign of terror is over Ganondorf!

Ganondorf: I didn't expect to see the mighty Team Loud Phoenix Storm with you boy. And I must admit that I didn't expect to see all of the Super Smash Bros recipients with you as well.

Me: We met a lot of characters from video games over the course of 37 years.

Ganondorf: So I see.

Webstor, Number 7 and Xaldin then appeared.

Me: Figured you all would show up.

Webstor: Well you got to have a challenge guys.

Number 7: That's right.

Xaldin: And it's gonna be a good one.

Donkey Kong: You will pay for your crimes Ganondorf.

Ganondorf: So, you all plan to stop me? Even after I plan to bring Bowser back to life after I use the Triforce to conquer the universe?

Samus: Bring Bowser back to life? I thought you didn't like him!

Ganondorf: That was before I found out about his sacrifice to destroy Thanos.

Webstor: (to Bowser Jr.) That part about bringing your dad back might not be a lie. Don't you want your dad back in your life?

Bowser Jr: (sighs) It's true. I do miss my dad. But if his sacrifice means he'll never be alive again, then I'm fine with that!

Me: We all are! Bowser was a hero and he saved all of the entire universe from total destruction and he even saved me from having to take Thanos with me. That's fine with me.

?: How touching.

A figure came out and it was TURTLEINI from episode 13 of Super Megaforce!

Turtlelini was a sea turtle-themed Armada Field Commander who was sent to Earth to distract the Rangers while Tranceferer continues his mission.

Troy Burrows: Turtleini!

Noah Carver: Not this guy again!

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Tranceferer to distract the rangers while he completed his mission.

Turtleini: That's right. You watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Laney: And I'll never forget seeing how you defended yourself against the rangers attacks with that powerful shell of yours. That was awesome!

Turtleini: Why thank you.

Me: Lets put your shell to the test. (Cups hands to side) KAAAAAAAA! MEEEEEEE! HAAAAAAA! MEEEEEEE! HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

I fired a powerful red Kamehameha wave at Turtleini and he formed his shell into a shield and the blast hit the shell and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared Turtleini was completely unscathed as the shield was intact. Turtlelini is using his hyper dense shell shield to protect himself.

Me: Whoa!

Turtlelini: Vypra upgraded my shield to withstand those energy blasts of yours. So do your worst!

Me: Very impressive. That was only 1% of my full power and that didn't even do squat to it.

Turtlelini: Glad you are amused.

?: I'll be amused as well.

A figured came out and it was DERELLA!

Shanan: Derella!

Derella: Glad to see that you remember me Shanan.

Qin: What is she?

Shanan: Derella is what's called a Cryobindite. Cryobindite's are a race of shape-shifting ice warriors that can assume any form just by touching their target. They come from the ice planet Hyobin XII. The farthest planet in it's solar system. It's 79,000 light-years away from Earth and it is a planet of extreme cold. They have the ability to freeze their targets with tendrils of ice and keep them in a state of suspended animation. And they can bind their targets by firing a rope like substance from their mouths.

Derella: That's right Shanan. I remember you identified what I was back when we fought the first time.

Shanan: How can I forget.

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh.

Carly Carmine then appeared.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Hey Carly.

Carly Carmine: Hey Jack.

Me: Looks like we have quite a challenge coming.

Troy: We stopped you once, Turtlelini. We can do it again!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Star Earth Five!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Earth Squadron Flashman.

But then in an explosion of light came Zelda!

Zelda: I'm done being the damsel in distress!

Link: Zelda!

Zelda: I'm glad you all came. Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here Zelda. Lets take these cretins down!

Koragg: And I've come to face you.

We saw KORAGG!

Nick Russell: Koragg!

Sarah Gunnerson: I'll face him.

We went at them.

Lori: I've had it with you Xaldin! WIND STYLE NINJA ART: FLOCK OF SNOW GEESE!

Lori fired a wave of wind and it formed into a massive flock of Arctic snow geese and they pecked and bit and blew Xaldin all over the place.

Beast Boy turned into a hummingbird and flew into the air and then he turned into an Argentinosaurus and fell onto Xaldin and crushed him all over with a tremendous crashing flop!

CRAAASSSSSSSSSSHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!

Lori: Oooooohhhh! That's gonna literally leave a mark.

Beast Boy: Nice one Lori.

Lori: Thanks Garfield.

Xaldin was as flat as a pancake.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Sarah Gunnerson: It'll be awesome having you as an archenemy Koragg. I'm still new at this.

Koragg: I understand.

Koragg summoned his wolf sword and shield and Sarah formed a sword of crystal.

Sarah Gunnerson: Lets dance.

Sarah and Koragg went at each other and they clashed powerfully as sparks were flying everywhere and they were setting much of the castle on fire. Sarah fired blasts of earth energy and they hit Koragg all over and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Sarah slashed him and kicked his sword out of his hands and knocked him down.

Koragg: You won this time.

Sarah picked up his sword and gave it back to him.

Sarah Gunnerson: I may be known as the ChaotiKween but even I too have a sense of honor. I have been taught how to fight with honor thanks to J.D. and Tom. I joined Team Loud Phoenix Storm to defend and protect everyone I love. And I fight for honor as well.

Koragg took his sword back.

Koragg: You have a good heart on you Sarah and it'll be an honor to fight as your arch nemesis in the Masters of Evil.

Sarah Gunnerson: I'm looking forward to it.

She and Koragg shook hands.

Battle 6: Turtleini

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Turtleini.

Nico: That shell of yours is amazing. And you could withstand only one percent of J.D.'s power? Awesome!

Turtleini: It is amazing huh? Watch this one.

He fired a massive blast of lightning from his shell and Nico fired a powerful blast of lightning from his hands and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico teleported and kicked him in the back of the head and knocked him down.

Nico: That shell has a big weakness however. It only protects you from the front and leaves you vulnerable from behind.

Turtleini: So you found one of my big weaknesses.

Nico: Yep.

Nico then went Super Saiyan 4.

Nico: Lets see if that shell protects you from a fully powered Super Saiyan 4 blast.

Turtleini: Bring it on!

Nico backed away and Turtleini had his shell ready. Nico then fired a massive Fire Energy blast with Nuova Shenron's fire powers and it slammed into the shell and with incredible heat it turned the shell red hot!

Turtleini: (SCREAMS) HOT HOT HOT HOT HOT!

He discarded his shell and was blowing his arms. The Megaforce Rangers blasted Turtleini all over the place and Nico fired a massive blast of energy and it slammed into Turtleini and exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Turtleini was defeated.

Turtleini: YOU WILL PAY FOR THIS!

Turtleini fell down and exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Turtleini, you have failed this world.

Troy Burrows: Yes he has.

Nico saw Turtleini's shell on the ground and he went over and picked it up.

Nico: I think I'll keep this as a trophy.

Battle 7: Derella

Shanan was facing Derella.

Shanan: I'm making this really quick.

Shanan fired a massive blast of fire and it hit Derella and melted her into nothing. She was dead.

Battle 8: GANONDORF!

We regrouped and we were facing Ganondorf.

Me: Ganondorf, you will pay for your crimes.

Ganondorf: Then come and get me.

He formed his swords.

Me: Ready Phoenix?

Phoenix: (Through my eyes) Ready J.D. Lets destroy this monster.

I then flared up a massive aura of fire and rainbow light and I went into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix Form!

Me: (Divine Fiery Voice) Your angel of death has come.

Ganandorf: Lets dance.

I unsheathed my sword and we went at each other and clashed violently. It was a massive and intense clash as sparks from our swords were flying all over the place and setting the entire castle all on fire at an incredible level. We were engulfing much of the whole castle in a massive and raging inferno of epic proportions. I kicked Ganondorf in the face and sent him crashing into the castle wall. He exploded out of the rubble and fired a massive blast of dark energy at me and I fired a massive blast of fire energy and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful that it completely destroyed his entire castle in a massive fiery explosion that shook much of Hyrule all over the place.

I bursted out of the smoke of the explosion and punched him in the face with devastating force and knocked out some of his teeth and then I kicked him in the chest and kicked him in the stomach with incredibly devastating force then I teleported and kicked him in the back of the head.

I landed in front of him!

Ganondorf: I've had it with you! BEAST GANON!

He used his Final Smash: BEAST GANON! When Ganondorf uses his Final Smash in Super Smash Bros. Ultimate, he transforms into his Legend of Zelda: Ocarina of Time incarnation where he has two swords and is bipedal. When he transforms, he slashes with his sword dealing 10% damage and either Meteor Smashing or stunning the opponent. He then dashes forward across the entire screen dealing 45% of damage to anybody caught in his range. After the charge, Ganondorf will reappear at the place where the Final Smash was activated. In total it deals 55% damage, 5% less than in Super Smash Bros. for Nintendo 3DS and Wii U. Depending on whether the target is offstage and lower down in comparison to Ganon's sword, the target will either be hit by Ganon during the slow motion effect, or be Meteor Smashed. The charge can be used as a ranged tool to take out recovering enemies next to the blast lines, as it has heavy knockback and a very large hitbox.

I flared up my aura to the max and went at Ganon with my sword ready and we collided and unleashed a massive fiery explosion of unbelievable power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so massive and so devastating that it engulfed everything within a 10 mile radius in a massive sea of fire! I then kicked Ganondorf in the face and he punched at me and I dodged it and kicked him in the stomach and then we clasped and locked hands and flared up powerful auras. Mine was red and had fire blazing in it and Ganondorf's was pitch black and overflowing with pure evil. Our auras mixed and clashed and the ground was shaking incredibly violently as our powers were clashing at an intensely powerful level! The sky stormed up and lightning struck everywhere at an incredible rate and tornadoes formed all over the place at a vicious rate. I punched Ganondorf in the face and kicked him in the stomach many times all over the place. I punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the back and slashed his back and he was bleeding out black blood. I kicked him in the face and slashed his chest and fired a massive blast of fire and it hit him and burned him all over. Nico and everyone else came to help and Nico punched him in the face and Lori summoned her spears and slashed him all over with incredible blades of wind and she slashed him all over with her spears in a massive tornado of wind. Leni fired massive blasts of gravity and Carol fired a massive blast of atomic energy and it hit Ganondorf and exploded all over in a massive inferno and Luna and Luan fired massive blast of light and water and drenched him and burned him and Lynn fired globs of lava and burned him all over the place with incredible fury and Donkey Kong smashed him all over with his fists and Samus and Janeen blasted him all over with laser and Phazon blasts and Varie and Vince fired blasts of water and crystal at Ganandorf and cut and slashed and drenched him all over the place. All the blasts combined and they all hit Ganondorf and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Lets finish him with our Final Smashes!

Zelda: You got it. TRIFORCE OF WISDOM!

Upon activation, Zelda will create a Triforce that sucks in all enemies in a huge range upon activation and traps them in there. Once an enemy is trapped, the Triforce will start shrinking, dealing considerable damage. If an enemy was inside the Triforce's range when the Final Smash started, they will take additional damage. This damage will not be there if they get caught later. Once the Triforce disappears, the sealed opponents will be returned to the stage, suffering severe knockback, although fairly low as Final Smashes are concerned. If the target is at 100% damage upon the end of this Final Smash, they will be instantly K.O.'d. If no enemy is trapped, Zelda will float there for a while. If no-one is trapped by the time these seconds end, the Final Smash will end and nothing will happen.

The Triforce of Wisdom severely hurt Ganondorf all over the place.

Link: Take this! ANCIENT BOW AND ARROW!

Similarly to Zelda and Sheik's Final Smash, Light Arrow, Link will shoot an Ancient Arrow straight in front of him. The arrow travels quickly along the whole stage, and enemies cannot move during that time like they can during Marth's Critical Hit. Unlike Light Arrow, however, the Ancient Arrow stops once it hits an opponent rather than going all the way across the stage. If an opponent is hit by it, they will take 30% damage as they are caught in a small explosion. This move deals mediocre knockback when the enemy is below 30% and is pretty useless in that situation, but at 30% or higher it can easily OHKO an enemy in a single hit no matter where they are in the stage.

The Ancient Bow and Arrow hit Ganondorf and really damaged him.

Me: Now it's my turn.

But then I saw a yellow glow form on the back of my left hand and I saw that I had the Triforce on the back of my left hand!

Me: Whoa! I have the Triforce!

Zelda: You have been chosen to be the holder of the Triforce of Power. It saw that Ganondorf's heart was full of darkness and evil and that it can only be used by someone who is pure. It chose you for this J.D.

Me: Wow. Lets see how he likes the power I have. PHOENIX TRIFORCE SLASH!

I unsheathed my sword and fired a massive blast of fire and it formed into the Phoenix carrying the Triforce of Power and it slammed into Ganondorf and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked Ganondorf down and he was defeated. After 34 years, the terror of Hyrule has been defeated.

We went up to him.

Me: It's over Ganondorf.

Ganondorf: Go ahead. Finish me.

William: No. The Super Smash Bros roster has suffered enough deaths.

Me: I agree. Instead you will be stripped of your powers and put into a containment card.

I removed all his powers and sent them into the River of Fire and trapped him in a Containment Card.

Me: Enjoy being in there for all time.

We powered down and absorbed the fire and Ganondorf was no more. The Masters of Evil all came.

Number 7: Congratulations on giving birth, Kairi.

Kairi: Thanks. (giggles) But I think I may have scared Sora.

Carly Carmine: What did you say to him?

Kairi: Well, I said I was going to rip Sora's head off and shove-

Xaldin: (pales) Forget it. We don't want to know!

Webstor: Anyway, have fun spending time with your kids.

Kairi: I will.

Carly Carmine: I'm so happy for you Kairi. Tell Sora I give my congratulations as well.

The Masters of Evil then teleported out.

Me: This was an epic fight.

Nico: It sure was. Ganondorf has failed this world and this universe.

Me: Yes he has.

Zelda: Thank you all so much for helping us defeat Ganondorf.

Link: We've all seen the last of him forever.

Me: Yes we have.

Link: (To the viewers) It was an awesome adventure. For over 34 years we at Legend of Zelda have brought so much fun into your homes. You continue to have fun with us all right?

Me: We always will have fun.

We went back home.

THE END

Another Awesome Nintendo Chapter done.

Legend of Zelda has been a very popular game series for over 34 years ever since 1986. It was awesome! I played Legend of Zelda: The Windwaker and it was awesome! It took a long time to beat it and it was awesome when I played it on Gamecube. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. ArchangelOfJustice12 is JediAvatarOfShinobi here. Next up is a chapter for the awesome series Ice Age. We're gonna travel thousands of years into the past to the time of the Great Ice Age and we're going to take down all of Manny, Sid, Diego and Scrat's enemies from Ice Age 1 to Ice Age 4. It's gonna be awesome!

See you all tomorrow.

Marvels of the Great Ice Age

We were over in Drake City in the middle of Gotham Royal York and we were walking around the city.

Me: Wow. It's so beautiful in Drake City.

Nico: It sure is.

Zarya: It's our home and it is beautiful.

?: Well well well.

We saw Mathus.

Killer B: (to Mathis) Back for more, punk?

Me: I don't appreciate what you were gonna do to Lynn you fuckwipe.

Namine: Yeah you monster!

Mathis: What are you going to do, you ugly bitch?

Lola: (smirks) Oh, he should've have said that.

But rather then get mad, Namine sobs and runs back home.

Stone Man: We expected her to get mad, not get sad!

POW!

Carol punched Mathus in the face with spiked knuckledusters and he screamed in excruciating pain!

G1 Tantrum: See what you've done, Mathis?! We've worked so hard to make Namine feel good about herself! She can't help it! She might not have much color in her clothes but she's still beautiful. And that's why Riku loves her! You're just an insensitive prick! (Runs after Namine)

Me: I oughta blow your fucking brains out of your fucking head you fucking piece of fucking shit! But that would be too quick.

Laney tazed him and put him in prison.

We later went back home.

Me: Namine?

Sora: Namine?

She came out crying and was wearing a duck mask.

Me: What's with the duck mask?

Namine: (hysterical with a duck mask on) LOOK AT ME! I'M AN UGLY DUCKLING! QUACK QUACK! (Sobs)

G1 Hot Spot: Why did we let you read the Ugly Duckling?

Me: Not good and not very smart. Namine take off that mask, you are not ugly.

Namine: Yes I am!

Nico: Namine don't listen to that fucker. You are not ugly.

Roxas: Yeah don't listen to that fucker. You are the most beautiful girl I know next to Xion.

Namine: (Sniffles) Really?

Roxas: Sure. You are the most beautiful and most compassionate girl I know next to Xion and you helped us beat Xehanort.

Me: You weren't with us when that happened Roxas.

Roxas: Actually I was. I was merged with Sora when the fight broke out.

Me: Oh right I remember that.

Roxas: Yeah. But you are still the most beautiful girl I know and don't ever forget that Namine.

Riku: That's right Namine. Don't listen to that prick. He doesn't know what he's talking about. He needs to get a better life.

Sora: That's right.

Namine: (Sniffles) Thank you Roxas. And you too Riku.

She took off the mask and we were happy for them.

Later we were getting ready for movie day. We were getting ready to watch the Ice Age Franchise. One of my favorite movie series. With us was Hunter's friend from the Ojibwe Tribe of Canada, and the North Central United States, Mitena, she is a Native American of Ojibwe origin. She has long raven black hair, heart shape face, square ears, straight eyebrows, roman nose, wears an Delina White dress, Ojibwe Pants, Ojibwe Moccasins, feathered headband, and has powers of Water, Earth, Wood, Forest, Wind, and Ice Release.

Me: It's such an honor to have you with us Mitena.

Mitena: It sure is J.D. We've heard so much about you all and it's an honor to join you all.

Lana: I've always been very fascinated with the Ojibwe Indians. Very amazing tribe.

Laney: They sure are. I love how they are amazing importers of copper and Maple Syrup.

Lily: That's right. They are really something.

Mitena: We sure are.

Rosa came and she had a huge plate full of different flavors of tamales.

Rosa: (Spanish Accent) I made you all different flavors of tamales for your special movie night.

Me: Muchas Gracia señora Rosa.

Rosa: Denada.

Lori: I've literally never had tamales before.

Ronnie Anne: I'll show you how to eat them Lori.

We got to eating and we started by watching Ice Age from 2002.

In the year 20,000 B.C., a Cronopio known as Scrat attempts to find a place to store his acorn for the winter. Eventually, as he tries to stomp it into the ground, he inadvertently causes a large crack to form in the ice that extends for miles before setting off a large avalanche which nearly crushes him. He barely escapes but finds himself getting stepped on by a herd of prehistoric animals migrating south in order to escape the forthcoming ice age. Sid, a clumsy ground sloth, is left behind by his family and decides to move on by himself, but is attacked by two Brontotheres after ruining their meal and making them angry. Sid is soon rescued by Manny, a gruff woolly mammoth heading north, who fights the rhinos off and continues on his path. Sid joins Manny, not wanting to be alone and unprotected. Manny is annoyed by Sid's outgoing demeanor and wishes to migrate on his own, but Sid nonetheless continues to follow Manny. Meanwhile, Soto, the leader of a Smilodon pack, wants revenge on a neanderthal tribe for killing half of his pack by eating the chief's infant son, Roshan, alive. Soto leads a raid on the neanderthal camp, during which Roshan's mother is separated from everyone else and jumps down a waterfall upon being cornered by Soto's lieutenant, Diego. As punishment for his failure to retrieve Roshan, Diego is sent to find and retrieve the him while the rest of the pack waits for him at a mountain known as Half-Peak.

Later, Sid and Manny encounter the mother struggling out of the lake, dying from her plunge. The mother only has enough strength to entrust Roshan to Manny before she dies and disappears into the water. After much persuasion by Sid, they decide to return the baby, but when they reach the neanderthal settlement, they find it deserted. They meet up with Diego, who convinces the pair to let him help by tracking the neanderthals. The four travel on, with Diego secretly leading them to Half-Peak where his pack is waiting to ambush them.

After encountering several misadventures on their way, the group reaches a cave with several cave paintings. There, Sid and Diego learn about Manny's past and his previous interactions with the neanderthal hunters, in which they slaughtered his family, consisting of his mate and child, leaving Manny a depressed loner. Later, the group almost reaches their destination, Half-Peak, only to encounter a forming river of lava. Manny and Sid, along with Roshan, make it across safely, but Diego ends up hanging on a cliff, about to fall into the lava. Manny saves him, narrowly missing certain death by falling into the lava himself. The herd takes a break for the night, and Roshan takes his first walking steps towards Diego, who starts to have a change of heart about his mission.

The next day, the herd approaches the ambush, causing Diego, now full of respect for Manny for saving his life to change his mind and confess to Manny and Sid about the ambush. As the pair turn hostile towards him, Diego asks for their trust and tries to foil the attack. The herd battles Soto's pack, but despite their efforts, Soto and his associates manage to corner Manny. As Soto closes in for the kill on Manny, Diego sacrifices himself by jumping in the way and is injured as a result. Manny then knocks a distracted Soto into a rock wall, causing several sharp icicles to fall onto Soto, impaling and instantly killing him. Horrified, the rest of the pack retreat. Manny and Sid mourn for Diego's injury, which they believe is fatal, and continue their journey without him. The two manage to successfully return Roshan to his tribe, and to their surprise, Diego manages to rejoin them, in time to see Roshan leave. The group then begin to head off to warmer climates.

20,000 years later, Scrat, frozen in a block of ice, ends up on the shores of a tropical island. As the ice slowly melts, an acorn that was also frozen in the same ice block is washed away. Scrat then finds a coconut and tries to stomp it into the ground, only to accidentally trigger a volcanic eruption.

Next from 2006 we watched the second movie. Ice Age 2: the Meltdown.

Manny, Sid, and Diego are currently living in a large valley surrounded by an enormously high ice wall on all sides. However, the trio discovers that the ice wall is actually a dam that is barely holding a massive body of water that could flood the valley to nearly a mile underwater. A vulture tells them that there is a boat at the other end of the valley that may save them all, but they only have three days to reach it or die. Manny is also having trouble fearing the fact that he may be the last mammoth left.

During the evacuation, a glacier that contains two sea reptiles from the Mesozoic era, Cretaceous a Cymbospondylus and Maelstrom a Pliosauroidea, breaks off. When Manny is briefly separated from them, Diego and Sid encounter two mischievous opossums named Crash and Eddie who drive them nuts by playing Whac-A-Mole with them. Manny is still worried about being the last mammoth alive and his family, who had been killed by humans, but is surprised when he encounters Ellie, a female woolly mammoth who believes she is an opossum and Crash and Eddie's adoptive sister. Sid invites her to tag along with the group to escape the flood, and she brings her brothers. After a dangerous encounter with Cretaceous and Maelstrom while crossing a pond, Sid prompts Diego to encourage him to admit and face his fears - Diego insists that "fear is for prey", so Sid points out that Diego is behaving as if he is the water's prey. They discover an area which Ellie recalls as the place where she was adopted. She finally realizes she is a mammoth and also expresses her suspicions about how different she was from other opossums. Despite this bonding moment with Manny, she distances herself from him when he suggests "saving their species". Ellie and Manny ultimately make up when they must co-operate to save the group when the ground cracks under their feet. Sid is kidnapped by a tribe of mini-sloths who believe Sid to be a god. Sid lights a fire for them, and believes that he has finally found respect, but they plan to sacrifice him by tossing him into a volcano; Sid narrowly escapes. The next morning, Sid tells the others his experience but none are convinced. After being harassed by vultures, the group finds the boat behind a field of hot geysers, which separates Manny, Sid and Diego from Ellie and her brothers when they argue about which way's safest to go through.

When the flood comes, Manny saves Ellie from drowning as she is caught in a cave (due to falling rocks), while Diego overcomes his fear of water to save Sid, Crash and Eddie from drowning. Cretaceous and Maelstrom arrive, but due to Manny's quick thinking, they are finished off by a rock which falls on them, killing them both. The other animals are at the mercy of the water currents. Meanwhile, Scrat climbs up the glacier and at the top sticks the acorn he has into the ice. This forms a crack in the glacier, which widens into a fissure, diverting the flood and saving the animals in the valley; Scrat is then washed away. In the final scene, a herd of mammoths show up, proving mammoths aren't extinct. But Manny and Ellie decide to remain together anyway, taking Sid, Diego and the opossum brothers along. Sid encounters the mini-sloths again - they believe Sid stopped the flood and invite him to be their leader. Diego, surprised to see the mini-sloths are real, convinces Sid to stay with the others, admitting that Sid is a vital part of their 'herd'.

The epilogue shows Scrat having a near death experience after falling into the fissure. He enters a heaven full of acorns. Suddenly, he finds himself torn away. He unhappily wakes up, having been resuscitated by Sid, who he proceeds to viciously attack.

Next from 2009 we watched the third movie. Ice Age 3: Dawn of the Dinosaurs.

---

Ellie and Manny, the two woolly mammoths, are expecting their first child, and Manny struggles to make life perfect and safe for the family. At the same time, Diego the saber-toothed cat decides to leave the herd because he thinks he's losing his edge and isn't meant for the family life. Sid the ground sloth begins to wish for a family of his own and takes three apparently abandoned eggs that he finds in an icy cavern and calls them Egbert, Shelly, and Yoko. Manny tells him to put them back, but Sid ignores him and looks after the eggs, which hatch into baby Tyrannosaurus rex the next morning. Meanwhile, Scrat encounters a female saber-tooth squirrel Scratte and battles with her for the acorn he desperately wants.

Although Sid tries his best to raise the three dinosaurs, their rambunctious behavior scares away all the younger animals and ruins a playground Manny built for his child, which angers Manny. Not long after, a female Tyrannosaurus rex, whose eggs Sid stole, returns and carries both Sid and her young underground, with Diego in pursuit. Manny, Ellie, Crash and Eddie the opossums follow as well and discover that the icy cavern leads to a vast subterranean jungle populated by dinosaurs thought to be extinct. Here, an angry Ankylosaurus threatens The Herd despite Diego's efforts to fend it off. Then they are saved from a further crowd of angry reptiles by a deranged, quick-witted, one-eyed weasel named Buck.

Buck has been living in this jungle for quite some time and is fighting Rudy, a huge albino Baryonyx, intending to avenge the eye he lost to it when he was young with a knife he carved from one of Rudy's teeth. He agrees to lead The Herd through the jungle's perils to Lava Falls, where the dinosaur has taken Sid and her babies. In the meantime, Sid and the mother T-Rex try to outdo each other in feeding the offspring; he loses this contest but is welcomed into the family regardless. The next day, however, Sid is separated from the family and attacked by Rudy. Sid is knocked onto a loose rock slab that is floating on a river of lava and about to plummet over the falls.

As The Herd moves toward Lava Falls, Ellie goes into labor and a Guanlong pack strikes, causing a rock slide that separates her from Manny and Diego. Manny doubles back to protect her and Diego fends off further attacks, while Buck takes Crash and Eddie ahead to rescue Sid. Just as he goes over the falls, the trio swoops in on a commandeered Harpactognathus only to be chased by a flock of Pterodactylus on the way and saves his life. Manny reaches Ellie just in time to hear the cry of a newborn baby girl. Manny initially wants to name the baby "Ellie" after her mother but Ellie suggests the name Peaches after the fruit and the code name her and Manny agreed to use to signal when the baby is coming. Sid is saddened at the fact that he never had a chance to say goodbye to "his" children as he returns to The Herd and learns of Peaches' birth.

Before they can leave the jungle, they are ambushed by Rudy, who begins to attack them at full force. Working together Manny, Sid, Diego, and Buck manage to trap Rudy by ensnaring him in vines. However, he quickly breaks free and resumes his onslaught. The Herd is saved by the timely arrival of the mother T-Rex, who charges at Rudy and knocks him off a cliff. As she and her children wish Sid well, Buck, now without a purpose in life since Rudy is gone, decides to join The Herd and live on the surface. However, a distant roar tells him that Rudy is still alive. Because of this he changes his mind and sends The Herd home, blocking off the path to the underground jungle at the same time. Manny and Ellie welcome Peaches into their frozen world and Manny admits to Sid that he did a good job looking after Momma's children. Diego decides to remain with The Herd, while Buck stays underground, happily battling it out with Rudy and riding him.

Meanwhile, Scrat and Scratte, who had fallen in love with one another, decide to stay down in the jungle together. Unfortunately, Scrat's greed for his precious acorn overcomes his newfound romance with Scratte, and he ultimately chooses the acorn over her. Subsequently, Scratte and Scrat battle once more for the acorn, resulting in Scrat being repelled to the surface while Scratte is left trapped in the jungle. Scrat celebrates with his acorn, however, once again, loses it, much to his frustration.

And lastly from 2012 we watched the fourth movie. Ice Age 4: Continental Drift.

Manny and Ellie are forced to deal with the trials and tribulations of their now teenage daughter Peaches, who has trouble fitting in with her peers. Ellie tries to support her daughter, but Manny becomes exceedingly overprotective. Meanwhile, Sid's family returns, but only to drop off the elderly Granny before promptly abandoning them both. Manny then catches Peaches hanging out with a group of mammoths he does not approve of, causing a fight between him and Peaches. Shortly after, a sudden continental break-up (caused by Scrat whilst trying to bury his acorn again) separates Manny from

The Herd. Trapped on a moving chunk of ice with Sid, Granny, and Diego, Manny has no choice but to ride out the current. At the same time, a giant land shift encroaches on Ellie, Peaches, and those remaining on land, forcing them to make their way towards a land bridge in order to get to safety.

After extremely violent weather pushes them further away from land, Manny's group is captured by a band of pirates sailing on a floating iceberg led by a Gigantopithecus, Captain Gutt, who attempts to press them into his crew. When they refuse, Gutt tries to execute them; this leads to their escape, which inadvertently causes the ship and food supplies to sink. Gutt's first mate, a female sabretooth named Shira, joins them after she is left for dead.

The Herd washes ashore on Switchback Cove, which gives a current back to their home. After learning that Gutt has enslaved a group of hyrax and is using them to build a new iceberg ship, Manny coordinates a plan with some more hyrax to free their comrades and steal the ship, and they are able to create a diversion. Just before they manage to escape aboard the ship, Diego tries to convince Shira to leave the pirates and join The Herd so she can live a better life, but Shira, while initially accepting, instead stays behind and slows Gutt down so The Herd can escape. Gutt forms yet another ship and plans to seek revenge on Manny.

Meanwhile, during the animals' trek to the land bridge back on the mainland, Peaches joins the group of mammoths from before, only to find out that they do not care about the ongoing danger and they look down on her for being friends with a molehog named Louis. When Louis overhears Peaches telling the other mammoths that they are not actually friends, Peaches has a change of heart about her new friends, berates them for their attitudes, and leaves them.

After narrowly escaping a pack of sirens, Manny, Sid, Diego, and Granny return home and find that not only has the land bridge been destroyed, but Gutt has beaten them and taken Ellie, Peaches, and the rest of The Herd hostage. A fight ensues, as Granny's pet whale, Precious, arrives and fends off Gutt's crew. Manny defeats Gutt in a final duel on an ice floe and reunites with his family and friends. Gutt subsequently encounters a siren that assumes the shape of a female Gigantopithecus, and is eaten alive. In the aftermath, Peaches happily reconciles with both Manny and Louis, and Shira joins The Herd and becomes a couple with Diego. With their home destroyed by the land shift, Precious takes the entire Herd to a lush island, where the hyraxes from earlier have already started rebuilding their civilization.

When the movies were done we cheered wildly and laughed hysterically.

Me: (Laughs) Oh these movies always crack me up!

Nico: They sure do.

Mitena: What year does Ice Age take place?

Me: It says in the year 20,000 B.C. So about 22,000 years ago.

Nico: That's a long time ago.

Naruto: No kidding.

Pixie: It sure is something.

Nico: So the reason we watched these movies is because we're going after the 4 villains we saw.

Me: Yep.

I pulled up the profiles for each of the villains.

Soto

Due to his immense strength, Soto was the leader of his pack, leading his pack in hunts for food. After several of his fellow pack members were murdered by a tribe of humans, he was taken over by the temptations of revenge, acting out on a perverted vision of justice, choosing to go after the humans instead of migrating down south like all the other animals.

Executing the Plan

Soto declared that they would kill off the humans' youngest, a baby named Roshan, as an act of revenge to strike back at the humans. Soto and his most trusted assistant, Diego, plan an attack on the human camp, so that while he and three other sabers would attack the humans as a distraction, Diego would slip in, stealthily, and take Roshan without being noticed, as a chance to put their plans into motion. Soto then ordered Diego to alert the others for an attack at dawn.

The Attack

The very next morning, Soto and his pack ambushed the camp, taking attention away from the tent in which Roshan was located in, and as planned, Diego took advantage of this and slipped in, undetected, to take Roshan, until the baby's mother Nadia hurried in and snatched him up before Diego could do so. Diego catches up to the woman, eventually cornering her at the edge of a cliff overlooking a huge waterfall. The woman grabs her baby and leaps into the raging river several meters below before Diego could attack. Thus, the plan failed and the pack is forced to retreat. Soto is angry at Diego's failure, but gives him another chance. He told the rest of his pack that they will go to Half Peak and orders Diego to meet them there with the baby, adding that the baby had better be alive or else.

Message

On the way to Half Peak, the pack stopped for the night, and Soto sent out two from the pack, Oscar and Zeke, to deliver a message to Diego, who was accompanied by Manny and Sid. Soto told his two pack members to deliver a message to Diego, informing him to either come back with Roshan or to not come back at all. Diego, in response, told them to inform Soto that he'd bring back the baby, along with a mammoth. He did, however, tell Oscar and Zeke to inform Soto and the rest of the group about the mammoth, and to get everybody else.

Battle

After getting closer to Half Peak with the mammoth, sloth and baby, Diego once again rejoined with his pack and met with Soto, who was beginning to get anxious about Diego, but expressed his approval at Diego's efforts. Unbeknownst to Soto, however, Diego had joined forces with Manny and Sid, in his own plan to save Roshan and escape unharmed. He had already admitted to his initial plans, and the three of them had come up with an alternative plan to overcome Soto and the other sabers.

The pack had lain in wait at Soto's orders, as they were ordered not to move until they saw the mammoth. Sid came into view first, carrying what the pack presumed to be Roshan. Diego, who was trying to sabotage the attack, convinced Zeke to jump out of hiding too early, essentially blowing the group's cover. Outraged by the group's betrayal, Soto got angry and chased after them, which caught Sid's attention. Sid, however, knew it would happen and sped away with a bundle in his paws on a pair of skis fashioned from two large pieces of bark, to be chased by Soto and the others until he lost his footing and dropped the bundle of clothing, which Soto pawed at, only to find that it was a decoy made of snow. Soto angrily ordered his pack to capture Sid instead. Lenny and Oscar indeed chased the sloth, only to get ambushed by Manny, who clobbered both of them with a log.

Soto then found Diego and Manny and invited Diego to help bring the mammoth down, only to find out about Diego's betrayal. Enraged, Soto fought with Diego while Lenny and Oscar cornered Manny. The fight between the two was evenly matched until Soto threw Diego into a rock, knocking him unconscious. With Diego out of the way, Soto turned his attention over to Manny.

Last Stand

Soto prepares to leap in for the kill on Manny, but Diego stands in the way by protecting Manny and refuses to let Soto harm the mammoth. Without any second thought or regrets, Soto strikes down and slashes Diego, severely wounding him. Before he can strike down Diego, Soto then hears Roshan's cries and notices Sid with the baby and, with an evil grin, closes in for the kill to have his revenge. However, Manny shoves Soto aside with his tusks, flinging him into a stone wall, the impact causing several sharp icicles from the top of the wall to fall onto the evil saber, impaling and instantly killing him. After Soto's death, the rest of his pack, now leaderless, flee in terror, never to return again.

Cretaceous and Maelstrom

Despite being the main antagonists, their role in the film is small. Cretaceous and Maelstrom were first seen thawing out in a melting pack of ice. Their first victim upon defrosting was Fast Tony's unintelligent Glyptodon sidekick named Stu, who was testing his snorkler too close to theme.

They made one scene in the film when they occasionally tried to eat Manny, Sid, Diego, Ellie, Crash, and Eddie when they were crossing a frozen area of water. Cretaceous just wanted to eat Manny because he was the biggest animal in the whole herd, while Maelstrom attacked Sid and Diego when they get separated from the others. Although they almost lost their lives, the heroes successfully managed to escape from the two villains.

They later appear again in the film when Ellie is trapped in a cave during the rising flood. When Manny and his friends went to rescue Ellie, Cretaceous and Maelstrom tried to eat them, starting with Manny, who was in the water trying to save Ellie. However, Manny tricks them into hitting a log wedged beside a large rock. Eventually, he causes the giant rock to fall down and crush the two vicious reptiles to death in the process.

Members

Cretaceous

Cretaceous is a slender purple Ichthyosaur. She is shown in the beginning frozen in a great block of ice that was jarred loose when the wall of ice began crumbling. The ice melted, releasing both her and Maelstrom into the lake which was all but abandoned by most animals. When they made it to the ice lake, the first animal that they had encountered and eaten was Stu, leaving behind only his shell. The two sea reptiles then swam further down the series of rivers where they eventually reached Manny's herd as well as Crash, Eddie, and Ellie. Cretaceous made a great lunge at Manny, but her jaws were caught on his tusks, only to be flung far off as he twisted his head to rid her of him, hitting a piece of ice and falling back into the water on her way.

Later, when the dam broke, the two reptiles went swimming on the wall of water that was slowly approaching towards the escaping masses and pulled down Manny when he was swimming to save Ellie. Manny devised a plan to rid himself of the two sea reptiles by having them try to chase him, he tricked them into hitting a log that was wedged under a large rock. The plan worked so well, freeing Ellie, and the boulder falls on Cretaceous and her partner Maelstrom, killing them both.

Maelstrom

Maelstrom is a muscular teal Pliosaur. During his first appearance, he is shown in the beginning frozen in a great block of ice that was jarred loose when the wall of ice began crumbling. The ice melted, releasing both Cretaceous and him into the lake which was all but abandoned by most animals. When they made it to the ice lake, the first animal that they had encountered and eaten was Stu, leaving behind only his shell. The two sea reptiles then swam further down the series of rivers where they eventually reached Manny's herd as well as Crash, Eddie, and Ellie. Maelstrom intended to eat Sid but could not catch him, as Sid was already escaping with Diego, and had only just escaped Maelstrom as he broke off a massive chunk of ice where the sloth and saber-tooth had stood only moments before, with the duo having tricked him.

Later, when the dam broke, the two reptiles went swimming on the wall of water that was slowly approaching towards the escaping masses and pulled down Manny when he was swimming to save Ellie. Manny devised a plan to rid himself of the two sea reptiles, by having them try to chase him, he tricked them into hitting a log that was wedged under a large rock. The plan worked so well, freeing Ellie and killing Cretaceous and Maelstrom.

Rudy the White Baryonyx

Ice Age: Dawn of the Dinosaurs

Before the film takes place, Rudy attacks Buck the weasel, scratching out his right eye. He then tries to eats Buck, but before he can swallow him, Buck manages to escape the dinosaur's throat, and rockets out of the dinosaur's mouth, knocking out one of his teeth.

During the movie until the climax, Rudy was only seen in the shadows to show his evilness and massive appearance. He follows the tracks of Buck and the herd, planning to ambush them at the right moment. Buck (as well as Momma) occasionally hear his loud roars coming from the forest. Rudy manages to catch up with Sid after he is accidentally left behind by Momma. The terrified sloth is able to make his escape from Rudy's wrath by running into an obsidian river. Before walking away, Rudy stomps on the ground, causing the lava underneath to reemerge and trap Sid, only for the sloth to be saved by Buck and the possums just after falling down a lava waterfall.

At the end of the movie, once Sid is saved, Rudy ambushes Buck, Sid, Manny, Ellie, Diego, the possums, and Ellie's newborn baby Peaches inside the cave entrance they used to travel to the dinosaur world and attempts to kill them all. Buck distracts Rudy while Manny, Diego, and Sid proceed to tie the dinosaur up with vines. However, Sid accidentally trips over a vine, allowing Rudy to get back up, break free from the vines and presume chase. Before Rudy is able to finish off Sid, Momma, in a timely arrival, charges into Rudy and pushes him off a nearby cliff, sending him plummeting down to his apparent death. Buck is shown to feel sorrow for Rudy, because the only challenge in his life was gone. However, it is later shown that Rudy survived the fall, and continues his feud with Buck, who starts to ride him (much to Rudy's chagrin and frustration).

Captain Gutt

Biography

Origin

During the Meltdown event, Captain Gutt and his crew conquered seas and formed a crew of pirates. He and his crew plundered as much as they could. Raz, a member of his crew, was the first to use weapons from the bones, starfish, shells and sticks that the crew had gathered. Gutt even commands certain sea creatures like Flynn and several Narwhals in the film, Shira was his pawn and later Squint takes over Shira's role.

In Continental Drift, he and his crew encounter Manny, Diego, Sid and Granny on a small, defenseless iceship. Threatening them to surrender their ship or face his fury, he destroys their vessel and captures them. Captain Gutt tries to recruit Manny to his crew because his size is useful and needs more help raiding other animals' food supplies.

His Crew from Different Locations

Shira: Taken in as the first mate.

Silas: Lost in France and founded by Gutt.

Raz: In Australia.

Squint: On a desert island.

Flynn: Lost in England oceans and picked up by Gutt.

Gupta: North America.

Dobson: Lost in South America, about to become a pork pie, and saved by Gutt.

Early Life

Gutt (having undergone a rough relationship with his own parents back home, who never showed him much love or affection) chose instead to live out on the seas on a massive ice floe that he fashioned into a ship with the use of trees, rocks, and vines. Having established his ship, the orangutan found a number of animals that he had rescued and brought them aboard his ship, where, out of for saving their lives, they pledged themselves as his crew, Shira being appointed as Gutt's first mate, with Flynn as his second.

Gutt's crew went on aiding him in scouring the world for whatever fruits and vegetables, deemed their "bounty", they could find. Gutt felt that, as the world was changing and "going under", the only means of survival was to loot whatever he and his crew could to live and thrive out at sea. These animals the ape deemed his own family, though, due to his own strained relationship with his family, his temper remained volatile and harsh.

At some point in his life, the ape began to use his claws as weapons to gut foes, which earned him the name "Gutt".

New Crew

At some point, Gutt and his crew captured Scrat, who was lost at sea, half-swallowed by a fish and had found a map of sorts, etched onto an acorn shell, which led to a land rife with acorns: Gutt and his crew forced the saber-tooth squirrel to board their ship as a captive. Later, the pirates forced Scrat to dance on the decks with the fish still attached.

Further on, while at sea, a member of Gutt's crew, a blue-footed booby named Silas, brought news of other animals out at sea stranded on an ice floe: a mammoth named Manny, two ground sloths and a saber-tooth tiger. Registering this, Gutt declared that the four mammals' marooning in his waters was a tragic event, which he loved greatly. Taking action, and with the intent to enlist the mammals into his crew, Gutt sets a course for the ice floe, where his crew latched onto the floe by flinging down skulls on vines so that they latched onto the ice floe.

Gutt climbed down the vines nonchalantly, so he called down to the animals on the ice floe that the waters they were in were swarming with pirates and that they were fortunate to have been found by Gutt and his crew first. Explaining his motives, Gutt was mocked by a small rat and flung the rodent into the water in annoyance before continuing. Manny called out that they only wished to reach the continent and his family, to which Gutt coldly replied that there was no way back. At that, Flynn chimed in, calling out that there was a means of returning to the continent: Switch-back Cove provided an ocean current that could take them back to the mainland, to Gutt's exasperation, who stomped on the seal's tail flipper to shut him up. Returning his attention to the herd, Gutt stated that out at sea, there was no land and that their "ship" belonged to him. With that, Gutt ordered his crew to attack the herd on the ice floe. Gutt himself managed to knock the largest of them, the mammoth named Manny, unconscious with a large boulder of ice.

Gutt had an unconscious Manny tied to a large tree that formed his ship's mast. As Manny was coming to, Gutt appeared and extended his foot as a "hand of friendship". The orangutan then explained his plans out at sea with the help of his crew in the form of a shanty: Gutt, proclaiming himself as the "master of the seas", had rescued all those "lost souls" in his cadre and recruited them as his own piratical crew, sailing through the seas, taking whatever foods they could find as they would treasure.

Loss of Ship

Manny derided Gutt's name, to which the ape explained that it was not based on his stomach, but rather his jagged sharp claws got him the name "Gutt". Sid piped in, stating that he did not get Gutt's moniker. Gutt slices through Sid's upper ropes, making him dangle upside down. Then he demonstrates the origin of his name by poking his clawed finger on Sid's belly (making Sid laugh from ticklishness), then moves his finger down to the sloth's chin, and Sid's laughter is promptly replaced with a gasp of horror. Sid states he still doesn't understand Gutt's name (though more likely, he is just so terrified that he pretends not to). Regardless of Gutt's offers, Manny turned the ape down, declaring that no one would stop his return to his family. Gutt's calm demeanor quickly disappears and is replaced with a look of pure evil as he tell Manny that his family will "be the death" of him.

Gutt then ordered his first mate Shira to prepare the plank for the castaways to be jettisoned off of, forcing them all to walk the plank off the ship and into the ocean, where angry narwhals awaited them. Sid is brought to the plank first. At that moment, Gutt halted the walk, to Sid's temporary relief, so that Granny, the older sloth, would go first, offering his hand in an oily and feigned-polite manner to help the old sloth move.

Just as the two sloths were about to walk the plank, Diego instructs Manny to get him to the vines hanging from the mast. Manny turns the mast, moving Diego on the boom. Reaching a taught vine, Diego bites through it, causing the mast to tilt and topple the ship to the side, preventing the sloths from falling into the waters. Manny breaks free of the ropes binding him. Gutt notices this and angrily leaped forward. He pulls out his sawfish skull blade and engages Manny in a duel, in which Manny fought using his tusks. Manny gains the upper hand and knocks over the mast, sending it crashing down on the ship's deck, splitting the iceberg in half and it starts to sink.

Gutt holds on with his claws as the ship was split in two, lamenting his lost bounty of food as it fell into the ocean. As the ape held on, he spotted Manny and the others on the other side of the iceberg and snarled angrily. The ape held onto a floe of ice that had once been his ship, along with the others in his crew. Gutt then angrily called out to Flynn, who thought he was drowning, that the seal was a sea creature and couldn't drown, before directing his ire towards Gupta, who suggested running himself as a white flag of peace, smacking the badger. Flynn then called out that Shira was lost, but Gutt dismissed this, instead ordering Flynn to swim them all towards land.

New Ship

Furious about the loss of his ship, Gutt and the remainder of his crew reached an island and stopped at Switch-Back Cove, where they found enough ice to carve a new ship and hyraxes, which they enslaved to build the new ship and to bring more food aboard, Gutt lashing out at the small mammals with a whip fashioned from bones and vine, calling out for them to finish the ship by sunset or suffer. His cruelty towards the hyraxes even shocked his crew.

Stolen Ship

The following day, Shira returned to her captain, having been kept as a captive by Manny and the others. Gutt put on a falsely relieved attitude at seeing her alive when she revealed that she washed ashore with Manny and his friends. Gutt then eagerly asked her whether she caused the mammoth pain and suffering for his actions, but Shira responded that Diego impeded her. Enraged at Shira's report, Gutt harshly branded his first mate a failure, calling out that he needed a real action-worthy crew, instead only having "kitty cats and bunny rabbits". Gutt then orders Shira to bring Diego down or die in the attempt. He then relieves Shira of her rank as first mate and gives the position to Squint.

Shira (attempting to explain what Manny and the others had planned to Gutt) was interrupted by the sound of a conch horn, and Gutt, leaping forward with a spyglass fashioned from a conch shell, spotted a number of free hyraxes in the distance, rallied up to fight. Gutt, however, laughed derisively upon seeing their tiny size in the distance, but quickly stopped laughing once he heard a second, louder trumpeting, which brought the silhouette of a mammoth: Manny. Gutt, filled with ire for what Manny had done, rallied his crew to action, rushing forward to do battle with them all, but calling Flynn out on his lack of a weapon, as the seal thought a spoon would be a useful weapon.

Gutt led his crew into battle, armed to the teeth, and the pirates reached the mammoth, stopping cold in their tracks as the hyraxes fled the scene, flying off on leaves. Squint, who eyed Manny's apparent silhouette, rushed in with his blades to tear the mammoth to pieces-instead of a mammoth falling, a large melon with branches tied to its sides fell down and Gutt crushes the melon in anger. Then he spots the real Manny quickly making off with the ship, thus making Gutt realize in fury he had been duped and he and his crew give chase.

Gutt and his crew rapidly chased the herd, but Manny and the gang outran them, reaching the ship first. Gutt whistled for his narwhals, who came quickly, and the ape jumped onto their backs, quick to resume the chase. Manny, however, tilted the ice floe on its side in the water, blocking the narwhals from reaching the herd. Gutt continued his chase, eventually reaching a long ledge where he ran after the ship, only to be tripped up as Shira, in a turncoat move, pushed large ice blocks in Gutt's path, causing him to lose his footing and be launched into the air towards the ship. Gutt nearly had the ship in his grasp, but instead plummeted to the ground, thudding hard on his back on a patch of ice. Gutt scowls furiously as he watches the herd float away on his ship and mock him as they sail into open water.

Sweet Revenge

Enraged at having lost his ship again, Gutt quickly turns his attention to a crevice in a glacier and he squeezes inside. With a tremendous roar, he dislodges a massive chunk of the glacier with his bare hands, which quickly fell into the ocean and resurfaced. Gutt harshly ordered his crew to board at once and whistled once more for his narwhals, who stuck their tusks into the back of the ship and pushed it on.

Shira stepped forward to apologize to Gutt, but Gutt would not hear of it. Grabbing the saber by the throat, Gutt declared that, once he caught the herd, he'd have a saber-tooth's skin hanging on his wall, regardless of whose it was (somewhat proving Diego's point to Shira that Gutt never had his back on her or anyone else). Gutt further declared that Manny had cost him his ship, along with his bounty and, to further it all, the loyalty of his crew. Setting a course for the continent, Gutt vows to destroy Manny and all he holds dear.

Herd vs. Pirates

Gutt reached the continent before the herd did, destroyed the land bridge and took Manny's family, consisting of his wife Ellie and their daughter Peaches hostage, along with all the other herds of animals that were led away from the continent by Ellie. Gutt held a shark-tooth dagger to Peaches' throat, introducing his new ship, the Sweet Revenge, on which Ellie was tied up and restrained by Gutt's crew. Manny calls out to Gutt that he would willingly turn himself in if Peaches was spared, which Gutt dismissed, but regardless allowed Manny to board the Sweet Revenge. Flynn and Razz throw vines to throw the other ship close, then lay down a plank bridge and Manny gets on board. Standing face to face with the pirate captain, Manny demands Gutt to release his family, but Gutt goes back on his word, stating that Manny took everything from him and the ruthless captain intended to do the same. Manny tried to charge at Gutt, but the crew rapidly lassoed him.

Just as everything seemed hopeless, at that moment, Peaches' friend, a molehog named Louis, stood up to the big ape, demanding that he release Peaches. Gutt, amused at Louis' imaginative gumption, accepts the challenge laughingly, and orders Gupta to let the molehog have his blade. Gutt and his crew openly laughed at Louis, who could barely pull the blade out of the ice where it stood, but stopped laughing once Louis managed to pull the blade out and pointed it fearlessly at Gutt. Calling for Louis to fight, Gutt stood by, watching as Louis flung the blade into the air. It lands point-down in the ice, with Louis nowhere to be seen. Confused, Gutt looks around for the molehog, when Louis pops out of the ground beside him and slams a heavy chunk of ice on the pirate's foot, causing him to bellow in pain and release Peaches. Gutt orders his crew to attack as Manny and Peaches escape their bonds, and the battle is on.

During the fight, Gutt chases Diego into the masts and gains the upper hand as he, Raz and Dobson corner Manny and the rest of the herd on the deck's edge. Gutt prepares to attack when Precious, Granny's pet whale, arises from the waters, and Sid positioning himself on her blowhole, directs the sprays of water to blast away Gutt's crew, one by one, with only Gutt dodging them, indifferent about his crew being decimated.

Ellie still remained tied up on the Sweet Revenge and Manny rushes in to save her, but Gutt slashes the ropes tethering the two ships, preventing Manny from reaching his wife. Manny gasps in horror as Gutt scrapes his gleaming claws against the icy surface of the ship as he moves closer to Ellie. Peaches, however, knows just what to do. Thinking quickly, she grabs a vine from the mast with her trunk and nimbly swings in a broad circle around the two ships. Just as Gutt prepares to deliver the killing blow on Ellie, Peaches swings in and gives the wicked ape a powerful and crushing kick, knocking him into an ice wall on the Revenge, saving her mother just in time. Manny stares in amazement, finally accepting that his daughter is all grown up.

Final Showdown

Manny knocks the mast over to use as a bridge to his family as Peaches unties Ellie. But the mammoths are still not safe, as the continent's cliffs are looming ominously above them. Manny rushes to the other ship to escape with his family. But Gutt, losing what's left of his sanity, blocks his path by holding the mammoth by his tusks. Just then, massive chunks of the continent's cliffs fell into the sea, launching a landmass upward that splits the Sweet Revenge in half, lifting Manny and Gutt hundreds of feet high.

As the ice hunk they fight on slides toward the sea, Gutt lunges at Manny with his bone sword. Manny defends himself with his tusks and a spear held in his trunk. Gutt knocks the spear out of Manny's trunk and swings his sword at the mammoth, barely missing his eye. Manny tries to stomp on Gutt, but the pirate grabs his foot and pushes him off. Manny charges, but Gutt leaps up and swings from vines overhead. Jumping down, he kicks Manny to the edge of the ice mass. Manny eyes the nearing sea, then turns back to Gutt as the fiendish pirate grabs a heavy log to finish him off. But Manny jumps onto the very back of the ice, acting like a seesaw, catapulting Gutt upwards. Manny catches the log and smacks Gutt with it, sending the evil ape flying far away into the distance.

Death

Inside a cave, Gutt resurfaces and weakly flings his body over a small ice floe, watching as a number of fins swam past him. At that moment, something shining caught Gutt's eye: in front of him was a massive seashell where a female ape with flowing blonde hair lay amidst a bounty of fruits inside. The female ape called out to Gutt that they could rule the seas together and Gutt, smitten happily, swam closer to the female ape, reaching the seashell. When Gutt got close to the shell, he realized too late that the female ape was, in fact, a siren casting an image and seized his face, pulling him into the shell as it snapped shut, trapping the captain inside as more sirens swam towards them. All that could be heard of Gutt were shouts of pain as the siren devours him alive. It is unknown whether or not Gutt survives his encounter, though it's most likely he doesn't.

We gasped in shock!

Nico: They are that evil! But Soto is the most evil of them all.

Me: I know. Nico, hand me my thinking grenades.

Nico handed me a wooden box and in them were a bunch of grenades.

Nico: Where'd you get these?

Me: Shh. Nico, I'm thinking.

I pulled the pin out of one and threw it out the window.

KRABBOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Me: Hmmm.

I pulled the pin out of a second one and threw it out the window and it exploded.

KRABBOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Me: Uh huh.

I pulled the pin out of a third grenade and threw it out the window and it exploded.

KRABBOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Man: (Offscreen) OH MY GOD! HE'S DEAD!

Me: That might work.

I pulled the pin out of a fourth grenade and threw it out the window and it exploded.

KRABBOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Man: (Offscreen) WHAT'S HAPPENING!?

Me: I got it!

Nico: Simulator right?

Me: Yep. I was just messing with you guys with the grenades and all that.

We laughed.

Vince: That was funny!

Lois (Family Guy): That is so funny!

Meg Griffin: Very funny!

Me: Lets head to the simulator!

We went to the simulator.

---

We got our fur parkas on and we were gonna be in for an awesome adventure in the Great Ice Age. We were ready and the simulator activated and we found ourselves in Pleistocene North America, 20,000 B.C.

Maria: Are we in prehistoric times?

Me: Yep. North America, 20,000 B.C.

Lana: It's amazing.

Lola: It's hard to imagine that we're in the Great Ice Age.

Laney: So amazing.

Nicole: It's awesome! It feels like we went back in time to the actual thing.

Me: It sure feels like it.

But then we saw a huge herd and it was being led by 2 wholly mammoths and it had numerous Pleistocene Creatures. We saw that he had a bunch of Smilodon's, a couple of Megalonyx and a couple of Cronopio's, Embolotherium, Homotherium, Brontops, Gliptodons, Opossoms, Molehogs and more.

Me: Whoa! Look at all the creatures.

Nicole: So awesome!

The Woolly Mammoth came up to us.

Manny: Wow! You're the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: You must be Manny. It's a pleasure to meet you from 22,000 years into the future.

Manny: Same to you J.D.

Diego: It's a pleasure to meet all of you.

Sid: Yes. You are widely known all over.

Nico: I can't believe we're talking to an actual mammoth!

Manny: I know. It's cool huh?

Nico: It sure is.

Manny: What brings you all here to the past?

Me: We're here to destroy Soto, Cretaceous, Maelstrom, Rudy and Captain Gutt and his crew.

Manny: I'm glad you all came. We're migrating again because of them.

Diego: Yeah they have been a major problem for us.

Scrat screeches.

He lost his acorn and Laney caught it and gave it back to him.

Laney: Don't lose that acorn all right?

Scrat coos.

Lana: That is so cute.

Me: We have to be ready for them.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und we will make them all pay for their crimes.

Nemo: That's right!

Rachel S.D.: We won't let them get away with the crimes they have done.

Bella (Ben 10): That's right!

Me: Those buttfaces have tormented you guys for the last time.

?: Then try saying that to our faces!

We turned and we saw Soto, Cretaceous, Maelstrom, Rudy and Captain Gutt!

Me: Just the freaks of nature we were looking for.

Diego: I will never go back to serving you Soto! You are a monster!

Soto: We may be different species. But we all have one thing in common.

Diego: And that is?

Soto: We want you fuckers dead!

Captain Gutt: And we will enjoy tearing you fuckers apart!

Cretaceous, Maelstrom and Rudy roared in ferocious fury. Then Captain Cold and Dark Laser appeared. Then numerous Yellow Blurs came at an incredible speed and we saw Cheese Ninjas and Cheese Shogun Roquefort. Nico was drooling uncontrollably.

Me: Figured you guys would be here.

Captain Cold: (to Manny) With me, there's a new Ice Age coming!

But then, Captain Cold sees Scrat crawling to get his acorn.

Captain Cold: Excuse me for a moment.

Snart walked over, picked up the acorn, and gave it to Scrat.

Captain Cold: (to Scrat) Take your acorn and get out of here!

Scrat crawled onto my shoulder and I formed vines for him to hold onto his acorn with and he tied it onto his back.

Me: Very kind thing for you to do Leonard.

Captain Cold: Goes against my code to harm little ones no matter what they are. Human or animal.

Me: Good morale.

But then a figure came out and it was CRUSH CRAWFISH!

Manny: Who are you supposed to be?

Crush Crawfish: Call me… Crush Crawfish! (fires a laser beam from his claws at Splash Woman)

Splash Woman deflected it back to him with her trident and it hit him and exploded.

See you all tomorrow

Chaotic Rogue Players Revenge

We were over at the Gotham Royal York Football Stadium in the Locker Room, we were getting ready for an awesome dodgeball game against the Masters of Evil. Once a month, I've arranged a special dodgeball championship against the Masters of Evil and it's gonna be awesome!

Me: This is gonna be awesome guys!

Lincoln: It sure is J.D. I don't think we've ever had a dodgeball match against the Masters of Evil.

Nico: First Times for everything.

Vince: Yep. This is gonna be huge.

My cell phone rang.

Me: Oh my phone.

I went to my gym bag and got my phone out.

Me: (Answers it) Yello?

To my surprise it was really Hawk who is in the Uranus Prison.

Hawk?: Is your refrigerator running fuckface?

Me: Nice try. I know this isn't Hawk or Hank because they aren't allowed to use the phone in the Uranus Prison.

I hung up.

Clawful: I wonder who's been prank calling you?

Me: No idea.

We were heading out onto the field and everyone cheered wildly for us!

Me: Wow! Look at everyone here.

Nico: So many people.

We saw the masters of evil dressed in all black and they had skulls and crossbones and the symbol of the Masters of Evil on their jerseys. It was a 9-Headed dragon over the Earth on fire and it had the Extinction Hourglass on the dragon.

Me: Looking good guys.

Vypra: Thanks.

Dark Spicer: (To us) Here's your warning: Your asses are gonna be kicked in this game!

Me: Bring it on!

Lincoln: Yeah!

Mei Terumi came out and she was the referee.

Mei Terumi: You all ready for some dodgeball?

Me: You bet we're ready Lady Mei.

Mei Terumi: All right lets play!

We were ready. We stood at both sides. It was best out of three games won wins the championship trophy. It was a gold trophy with a flaming kickball made of solid Burma Ruby with had a flaming tail made of Red, Orange and Yellow Swarovski Crystal attached to it on top and it had flames on the sides of the trophy and the grand prize is a check for $200,000,000,000,000,000,000.00.

Mei Terumi: All players ready?

We looked at each other growling ferociously.

Mei Terumi: (HONKS AIR HORN!) GO!

We went for the balls and I grabbed one and did some backflips and threw a ball and it hit the Cheese Shogun in his face and Nico and

Vince threw a bunch of balls at Vypra, Firefly and Zs'Skayr. The balls hit them and they were knocked out. Dark Spicer used Splitlife and threw many balls at us and we dodged them all. Vince threw a ball and it hit Dark Spicer.

Everyone was cheering wildly!

Rusty Spokes: SCORPION FORMATION! GO!

Rusty, Zach, Liam, Clyde, Lincoln and Stella got into a Scorpion formation and Stella threw a ball and it smashed into Hydro Man. They were also dodging balls like no tomorrow.

I threw a ball and it hit Lord Drakkon.

Nico threw a ball and it hit Myotismon.

In the stands were the Transformers and they were having fun.

Skywarp: Go guys go!

A man came and sat by Skywarp.

Man: This is awesome!

Homer: Wayne Slater! It's good to see you again.

Wayne Slater: Same to you Homer. How have you been?

Homer: Much better than I was in Springfield.

Wayne Slater: I'm glad.

Skywarp: It's nice to meet you, Wayne.

Wayne Slater: Same to you Skywarp.

Wayne revealed his Background.

Wayne once worked as a black operations agent until the shooting death of the wife of a Ukrainian mobster boss. He fled to America and got a job as a security guard at the Springfield Nuclear Power Plant, where he met Homer. Wayne kept to himself at first, but that changed when he stopped Snake Jailbird from robbing Moe's Tavern. The news crew meets up with him at work, where he is being rewarded for his heroism. Troubles from the past cost him his job when he attacks Mr. Burns after having a painful flashback as he is being awarded. After much talk, Wayne starts to open up about his past, and admits to the Mafia being on his case. Later, the widowed mobster finds the video of Wayne attacking Mr. Burns and goes to Springfield.

When the mobster arrives, he finds Homer washing the dogs' droppings on the lawn; he asks Homer about Wayne and ends up kidnapping Homer when they find out that Homer is Wayne's friend. When Homer gets kidnapped by the Ukrainian mob, Wayne knows he's the only one who can save him. Wayne tracks the group down in an ice hockey arena thanks to the GPS system Homer swallowed (since they were left out in a bowl). Wayne finds Homer trapped underneath the ice in the arena. After confronting the mob and taking out all the mobsters, Wayne freed Homer. Wayne decides to leave Springfield, claiming he can't stay in one place. However, Marge suggests a job where "a sadistic man with government experience can feel right at home": the DMV.

Skywarp: Wow! You're a former C.I.A. Agent?

Wayne Slater: Yep.

Bart: He also taught me how to use self defense.

Skywarp: Cool!

Skydive: I really liked how you tried to strangle Burns.

Wayne Slater: Thanks Skydive. That old buzzard had it coming to him.

Skywarp: Along with Mayor Quimby and he's the man that was responsible for sending the Ukrainian Mafia after you.

Skywarp revealed everything we found out.

Wayne Slater gasped in shock!

Wayne Slater: I should've known that man was up to no good.

Skywarp: Mayor Quimby and Burns are both dead. This time forever.

Wayne Slater: Good riddance.

Later it was down to the wire in the 3rd game and it was between me and Lord Drakkon.

Me: It's just you and me now Lord Drakkon.

Lord Drakkon: Yep. This is gonna be tough.

I threw a ball and he dodged it and Lord Drakkon threw a couple at me and I did a cartwheel and then I grabbed two more balls and threw them at him and he jumped and threw three more balls at me and I jumped to the sides and ducked and I threw two more balls and he ducked under one and then the second ball hit him in his helmet and knocked it off.

Mei Terumi: (Blows Whistle) TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM WINS!

Everyone cheered wildly for us and me! They picked me up in a mesh net and carried me.

Nico: Way to go J.D.!

We were presented the trophy and the check and it was awesome!

---

Later in the world of Perim, we were responding to an S.O.S. from Sarah and we found out that Simon and his cronies are back and they are causing trouble to the world of Perim.

---

Simon is a rogue player who destroys ultra rare locations with sonic charges so he and his partners in crime Bianca, Dimitri, and Bruno are the only ones who have them and sell them to the highest bidder. In the episode "A Rare Hazard," they demanded Tom to do an inside job in Bodal's arsenal shop and obtain more sonic charges for them where Tom was against this. Simon finds a way to frame him by showing Tom a doctored picture of him destroying a location and unless he helps, he will be known as an OverWorld traitor when the picture is shown to Maxxor.

This led to the final confrontation at Akarak Cavern (an area under Crystal Cave which has anti-gravity properties to it) when Simon and his group are setting up explosive charges. Tom, Sarah, and Peyton ended up going around deactivating the charges. When it came to the final one that is about to blow in 30 seconds, Simon and his followers tried to leave only for Kaz to arrive with Codemasters Imthor and Crellan with Codemaster Imthor stating that they deactivated their scanners until the plight is solved. Tom managed to deactivate the final explosive charge. It is unknown what happened to Simon and his followers afterwards.

Maria: So, where were Simon and his gang last spotted?

Maxxor: They are heading to the Crystal Cave to finish what they started.

Tom Majors: They are heading back to the Akarak Cavern to blow it up.

Me: We have to stop them.

Laney: What did they steal from the OverWorld Arsenal?

Maxxor: More Sonic Charges.

Me: Now they are in deep shit trouble.

We later arrived in the Crystal Cave and it was a magnificent cave full of Crystals. It was a breathtaking marvel!

---

Crystal Cave is located within Rock River Canyon, in the southwestern part of the OverWorld. The sharp, jutting crystals that give the cave its name can injure battling Creatures or deflect their attacks. Quick reflexes are essential here.

Background Information

The cave was discovered by Blazier, who was exploring the Riverlands in the aftermath of an earthquake. A section of the canyon wall had collapsed during the quake, revealing a cave entrance. Curious, Blazier entered the cave and was amazed by the incredible display of red crystals. Blazier was later attacked at Crystal Cave by Siado, who - while invisible - tracked the OverWorlder there. Though badly injured, Blazier luckily had a Song of Resurgence Mugic and restored himself to health.

Appearance

It is a cave full of red crystals that will reflect any attack or mugic that hits them.

---

Me: WOW!

Nico: It's magnificent.

Laney: Look at all the crystals. They are amazing.

Lana: It's incredible.

Lola: Very dazzling.

Lisa Loud: What magnificent geological specimens.

Nicole: Truly amazing. It must've taken millions of years and a lot of geothermal heat to form this cave.

Lucy Loud: I could get used to this.

Linka: It's breathtaking.

Sarah Gunnerson: It sure is amazing though.

Lily: Wait look.

Further into the cave we saw Simon and his friends Bianca, Dimitri and Bruno.

Me: There they are.

Tom Majors: And they are heading to the Akarak Cavern.

Me: Not on our watch.

I snapped my fingers and just as they were about to enter the tunnel, a force field formed, blocking their path!

Simon: What!? (Pounds on the Force Field) It's a force field.

Me: You douchebags are in really big trouble!

Simon and his followers saw us!

Simon: Well if it isn't Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I didn't expect to see Tom with you all.

Bruno: Now we can get our revenge on you!

Bianca (Chaotic): Yeah! Because of you we were forever banned from Chaotic!

Dimitri: And we'll enjoy killing you all.

Tom Majors: You brought all that on yourselves!

Maxxor: (to Simon and his gang) You 4 are in serious trouble for stealing from the OverWorld Arsenal!

Me: Big time trouble! We're going to make sure that you 4 are never welcome in the world of Perim again.

Nico: By taking you to prison.

Kaz: You just wait until we get the Codemasters here!

We saw all of the Masters of Evil come out!

Me: Are we fighting all of you this time?

Vypra: Nope. We're having you all fight the members of the team that didn't get to fight you the last time.

Me: Ah I get it.

?: And I'm fighting them too.

A figure came out and it was PHONEPANZEE from episode 16 of Ninja Steel!

---

Phonepanzee was first seen at school as he records the Yellow and White Rangers' voices, he later returns and now records the Red, Pink, Blue and Gold Rangers' voices, he attempted to sneak off, but he bumps into a bicycle and cause the Rangers to notice him, as they gave chase to him, he has an army of Basherbots to aid him, the Rangers morphed and does battle with the Basherbots, with the Rangers distracted, Phonepanzee was able to mimic the Rangers' voiced, and used it to get clean hits on the Rangers with his Sonic Boom, it worked on the Rangers, but the Red Ranger was about to make a beat down on Phonepanzee, knowing that his plan has succeeded, he runs away, Phonepanzee later returns to a school and reappears in Galvanax's ship to make calls in the Yellow Ranger, pretending to be the Gold Ranger saying that the White Ranger is cheating, he tells him to be at Frasier Plaza. For which Phonepanzee was able to ambush and capture him along with an army of Basherbots, and snatch his Power Star, he later does the same thing with the Red and Pink Ranger, for which he has the Basherbots tie up, he tries to do the same with the White, Blue and Gold Rangers, but it was foiled when he mimics the White Ranger's voice to call the Gold Ranger, for which he does not know that the White Ranger (along with the Blue Ranger) was right beside him, they morphed and battled Phonepanzee, they were able to get back the Power Stars by tricking the monster, he attempted to trike the White Ranger, but to no avail,with the Blue and Pink Rangers' Battle Morpher Arrow Blast, the Gold Ranger's Rock Storm Slash and the Red and White Rangers' Blade Slash Final Attack, Phonepanzee was destroyed, he was then gigantified by Galvanax's ship, the Rangers then summon the Ninja Steel Zords to battle the monster, he used his Super Sonic Boom to stun the Zords, but the Kodiac Zord used its Sonic Howl to weaken the Sonic Boom, destroying his Sonic Boom and freeing the Zords, the Rangers then combined to form the Ninja Steel Megazord and the Gold Ranger summons the Bullrider Megazord to aid the Ninja Steel Megazord in battle, with the Ninja Steel Megazord's Master Slash Final Attack and the Bullrider Megazord's Rodeo Rapid Blast Final Attack, Phonepanzee was destroyed once and for all.

Brody Romeno: Phonepanzee!

Phonepanzee: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to get the rangers Power Stars and you pretended to be the Gold Ranger and told Calvin that Hayley was cheating.

Phonepanzee: That's right. Good memory. You watched us on TV didn't you?

Me: Never missed an episode. But I got to admit, you are really crafty.

Phonepanzee: I appreciate the compliment.

William: Before we fight, is it okay if you help us make a prank call to Moe that'll get Rotwood's group in trouble?

Phonepanzee: Sure! I might as well get someone in hot water before I die.

Simon: Hey! You're here to help me get revenge on Tom and his friends, not to be friendly towards Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Master Frown: What do you want?

Moe: You have a phone call from Amanda Fuckntease!

Squidward: WHAT!?

Hans Rotwood: WHY YOU LITTLE!

They went at Moe and he shot them in the shoulders with his shotguns. But then an undercover cop arrested Rotwood, Frown, Squidward and Morton and to make sure they never escape, he put them in straitjackets with chains and locks on them.

Moe: Listen to me you little puke! When I catch you I'm gonna rip your heart out and shove it down your fucking throat and then I'm gonna rip your eyeballs out and shove them down your pants so you can watch me kick the fucking crap out of you! Then I'm gonna use your head for a bucket and paint my car with your brains! (Hangs up)

We laughed hysterically!

---

After demonstrating his plans to Queen Beryl, Jadeite summoned his Youma Kyurene to infect a broadcasting studio of a recording company (Jam Records) with dark energy from a cassette tape. The cassette tape will infect any music recorded in the broadcasting studio with subliminal high-frequency waves which would drain energy from anyone listening to the music. However, before she could play the tape, she was forced to hide after the head of the company's recording team, Akiko Yanagi, took the tape, mistaking it for a demo tape from the jazz pianist Yusuke Amade. Enraged, the Youma stalked the woman with the intent of killing her to recover the tape. The Touma, still in hiding, followed Akiko and saw her pass the tape to Yusuke, who was waiting for her in the lobby of the recording company. Kyurene followed Yusuke in an alleyway and attempted to attack him to retrieve the tape, but he managed to escape before she could act. Kyurene reported to Jadeite in a dumpsite on the progress of her mission, with Jadeite threatening her with death if the tape was not recovered. In desperation, she eventually succeeded in retrieving the tape, attacking Yusuke in the parking garage of the music clubs he works at. Before Kyurene could kill him, Usagi and Luna interrupted her, witnessing Kyurene transforms into her true Youma form before flying off back to the recording studio to complete her mission. Yusuke, Usagi, and Luna followed Kyurene back to the recording company, where she put Akiko and her crew to sleep before attempting to infect a broadcasting studio. She was once again interrupted by the arrival of the three. Luna lunged at her, forcing her to drop the tape which skidded across the floor right into Usagi's hands. Kyurene again transformed into her Youma form and grabbed Akiko Yanagi in exchange for the cassette tape. Usagi then threw the tape in the air giving Yusuke Amade the opportunity to rescue Akiko. The tape was then grabbed by Luna who crushed it with her right paw. Distraught, Kyurene fled once again to an outdoor concert hall where she was confronted by Sailor Moon. Immediately, Kyurene attacked her, blasting sound waves from her wings. Sailor Moon retaliated by hurling a microphone at Kyurene as she made her second attack. The microphone amplified the sound waves from her attack causing large subwoofer speakers to blast the attack back at the Youma. The attack which backfired on Kyurene incapacitated her long enough for Sailor Moon to finally destroy her with her Moon Tiara Action.

It orbits a Black Dwarf Star and the planet is a dark planet that has no light. They fight using sound emitted from their wings and the sound is powerful enough to shatter all the class within a 5 mile radius.

Qin: Whoa! That is lethal!

Kyurene: Indeed. I'm impressed that you were able to know about me the last time you fought me.

Shanan: I didn't fight you. Lucy here befriended an alternate version of you and saved her from herself.

Me: I like his persistence. Lets hit him with our final smashes all at once!

Nico: Simon, Bianca, Dimitri and Bruno, you all have failed this world!

Sarah: EARTHQUAKE MEGAFIST BLAST!

Sarah fired a wave of earth that formed into a fist.

Tom: WINDSTRIKE HURRICANE FIST!

Tom fired a fist made of pure wind.

Kaz: FIRESTORM INCINERATOR FIST!

Kaz fired a fist made of pure fire.

Peyton: MAELSTROM DELUGE FIST!

Peyton fired a fist made of pure water.

Nico: NUOVA DEATH RAY!

Nico formed a concave lens and fired a focused beam of sunlight.

Me: PHOENIX FIRESTORM BLAST!

I fired a wave of fire and it formed into a Phoenix.

Loud Kids: RAINBOW LOUD HOUSE BURST!

The Loud Kids fired a massive blast of rainbow energy.

Maxxor: OVERWORLD BLADEDANCE STRIKE!

Maxxor fired a barrage of energy blades.

Chaor: UNDERWORLD FIRESTORM BLAST!

Chaor fired a massive wave of fire. The blasts all slammed into Simon and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion really hurt Simon all over. When the smoke cleared, Simon was still standing and he was really weak and then Simon fell down battered and broken. We tied him and his friends up.

Me: What a battle!

Nico: No kidding.

The Masters of Evil all came.

Me: This was a good battle.

Ri'oha: But at least I am the only good M'arrillian left.

Me: That's true.

Vypra: Glad you all had fun.

Dark Spicer: Now we have seen the last of the M'arrillians.

Vince: Indeed we have.

Dr. Light: There's one good thing that came out today for our side.

Chaor: And that is?

Carly Carmine: We managed to get some crystal from the cave so we can study them.

Nico: (laughs) So you managed to get some crystal behind Simon's back? Clever.

Misty Tredwell: Glad you think so.

Me: Get home safe.

With that, the Masters of Evil teleported out.

Me: Well now that we've seen the last of the M'arrillians, what do we do with these four here?

Nico: I think I have an idea.

Nico decided to put Simon and his friends in the Neptune Prison for a long time and they each had the Curse of the Cobra on them. In 730 days, their lives will be sent to hell.

Laney: We still have more threats to Perim that we need to take care of.

Lana: Yep and they will be dealt with by us.

Kaz: (To the viewers) Never be a rogue player for the world of Chaotic or you will answer to us and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You said it Kaz.

The M'arillians were all made extinct and Ri'oha is now a member of the Redemption Squad.

THE END

---

Another awesome and epic Chaotic Chapter is done.

Simon and his friends were the worst Chaotic players I have ever seen and they were the ones that I remember the most from the entire series when I watched it back when I was in high school. They were awful. But now we have seen the last of them. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. I'm gonna put in Hunter's techniques he gave me tomorrow after I get the scenes for the next chapter. Next up is the funny episode of SpongeBob Squarepants Ink Lemonade and we're gonna see a funny flashback of how Lily and Patrick tortured Squidward and made his insanity worse than ever.

See you all tomorrow

Ink Lemonade

Note: The flashback in this chapter takes place before the events of Sportz.

---

At Lynn's Table everyone was having a great meal.

Maria: After destroying the M'arrillians, we needed this meal.

Kaz: We still have Van Bloot and his goons to deal with.

Tom: Plus Krystella and Klay.

Sarah Gunnerson: Yep.

Peyton: To the end of the M'arrillians!

Everyone: HERE HERE!

They got to eating.

Captain Cold: I agree.

But then they saw a bunch of customers hurling their guts out!

VOMITVILLE!

Captain Cold: Why are the customers puking?

Lori: (Groans) I don't feel so good! (VOMITS)

Leni: (Groans) Me neither Lori. (VOMITS)

Suddenly everyone was hurling their guts out.

The only ones not present were me and Nico because we were over in Africa, destroying a bunch of evil terrorists.

Later when me and Nico got back we saw that the whole city was a ghost town. There wasn't anyone on the streets and the shops were closed.

Me: My god. What the hell happened?

Nico: I don't know. But it looks like the whole city was turned into a Ghost Town.

Me: This is totally weird.

But then in an electronics store we saw a news report from Kent Brockman. He had an image of a volcano erupting projectile vomit and it said SPEWCANO on it.

Kent Brockman: Lynn's Table has had all of its food contaminated. The whole city has been infected with severe cases of bad food poisoning. Which is why all the shops are closed and everyone in the city is not walking around. They are all at home puking their guts out.

Me: Whoa! So the whole city is sick!

Kent Brockman: It's not just everyone in the city that's sick, Team Loud Phoenix Storm and the Masters of Evil are all sick. The food poisoning has been traced to a single ingredient: Contaminated Flour.

Me: Uh oh. We better go check this out. I smell a Rotwood Plot happening.

Nico: I feel it too.

Me and Nico went to Lynn's Table and we found it closed due to the Food Poisoning.

Me: Luckily, Mr. Lynn gave me one of his keys just for something like this.

I pulled out a key chain and it was a key in the shape of a burger with a lasagna.

Nico: Fancy Keys.

Me: Yep.

We went into the restaurant and looked around and we went into the kitchen and we looked for anything out of the ordinary.

We were looking high and low.

Nico: Find anything?

I looked under the mixer.

Me: Not yet. (Sees something) Wait a second.

I pulled out a tube and there was a label on it.

Me: What's this?

Nico: Looks like some kind of tube.

I looked at the label and it said Foodborne Illness bacteria.

Me: "Foodborne Illness Bacteria." Found it!

Nico: This is definitely Rotwood's Handiwork. We got to let everyone know.

Me: Right.

We went back to the estate and we saw everyone hurling their guts out and their were pale and were in a lot of pain.

Me: Man this is really bad.

Nico: No kidding.

May: Hey guys. (VOMITS INTO A BUCKET)

Nico: May!

He went over to her and pat her back.

Nico: You're gonna be all right.

Me: I'm gonna go talk to Mr. Lynn and Ms. Rita.

I went over to the parents room and knocked on the door.

Lynn Sr.: Come in.

I went in and saw Lynn Sr. and Rita on the bed.

Me: I hope I didn't interrupt anything.

Rita: You didn't J.D.

Me: I found the source of the food poisoning Mr. Lynn.

Lynn Sr.: You did? What is it?

Me: (Holds up tube) This. This tube contained foodborne illness bacteria and Hans Rotwood spiked all your flour with it to make everyone in the city sick. He was targeting us and the Masters of Evil and he caused the whole town to get sick as collateral damage.

Lynn Sr.: That disgusting freak!

Me: Now we will find him and make him pay for this. And when we do we'll have 21 months left on the curse.

Lynn Sr.: All right.

Lisa Loud then came in.

Lisa Loud: (Groans) J.D. is right. This security footage from your restaurant father, confirms his suspicions.

We saw on Lynn Sr.'s security footage at around 3:47 AM a figure sneek into the kitchen and it was Hans Rotwood and he pulled out a tube and poured it into the Flour and threw the tube away. But he missed the trashcan and made it easy for us to find it. He then held up a sign that said "Fuck Team Loud Phoenix Storm & the Masters of Evil."

Rita: That dirty bastard! Sorry J.D.

Me: No worries Ms. Rita. But we can't let this go on. I got to contact the Masters of Evil.

I went to the computer and called them and Dark Spicer answered.

Dark Spicer: Hello?

Me: Hey Dark Spicer.

Dark Spicer: Looks like I'm not the only one that didn't get sick.

Me: Yeah me, the Loud Parents and Nico didn't get poisoned. Are you the only one yourself?

Dark Spicer: I sure am. Well Carly is not sick as well.

Me: Wow. That's a relief though. I found out what the cause of the food poisoning is.

I revealed everything.

Dark Spicer: That fucking asshole!

Me: Me, Nico, the Loud Parents and you can find Rotwood and make him pay for this. I wish that curse would hurry up and kill him faster.

Dark Spicer: We all do J.D. We all do.

We went out to find Rotwood and his posse. We found them in a McDonalds in Indiana having breakfast.

Hans Rotwood: This is perfect! Now we can make Team Loud Phoenix Storm and the Masters of Evil suffer more.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the roof and a Phoenix Cry was heard and we landed on the table they were at and crushed their legs. I grabbed Han's Rotwood by his shirt.

Dark Spicer: (to Rotwood and his group) Here's your warning: Your asses are about to be kicked!

Me: Big time. You all are in big shit trouble for giving all of Gotham Royal York food poisoning.

Everyone in the McDonalds gasped.

Then Rotwood and his group were in excruciating pain as the curse reacted to us and was saw the snakes on their backs move. They were starting to slither up their backs.

Me: That's 21 months left.

Dark Spicer: I wish it would just hurry up and kill them.

Me: Yeah.

We then pulverized all four of them viciously and made them really regret poisoning all of the city.

We went back to the estate and we got to work taking care of everyone.

Me, Nico, Carly Carmine, Sakura, Fu, Naruto, Ino and Hinata were in nurse outfits and they were taking care of everyone.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Thanks Carly.

Carly Carmine: You're welcome Jack.

Me: How come you didn't get sick Carly?

Carly Carmine: I'm dead and I don't get sick anymore.

Me: Wow.

James M: Ohhh, Nick is not going to be happy when he learns of what happened.

James M. was watching my mothers favorite Soap Opera, The Bold and the Beautiful. Lori likes it too.

Lori: No he's not.

Me: Here you go Varie.

Varie: Thanks honey.

I handed her some water.

Cornelia: How many encounters with those jerks do we have left?

Me: 21 more times. I wish it would just hurry up and kill them.

Nico: Yeah, I'm really getting sick and tired of those douchebags.

Naruto: Yeah me too.

Laney: I know.

Homer: (Offscreen) WILL YOU SHUT THE FUCK UP YOU DUMB BIMBO!?

Marge: (Offscreen) HOW ABOUT YOU MAKE ME YOU FAT TUB OF LARD!

Me: Sounds like Homer and Marge are having an argument.

Marge: Sooner or later, you're gonna have to let me out of here!

Homer: Not gonna happen Marge! You never once cared about anything me and the kids did care about me you bossy blue haired bitch!

Marge: Well I cared for you just as much as anyone else!

Homer: LIES! (Imitating Marge) OOH I'M MARGE SIMPSON AND I HAVE A FLAT CHEST AND A TALL STACK OF BLUE HAIR!

Marge: You are the ugliest drunk I have ever seen!

Me: Hey what's going on up here?

Homer: Oh hey J.D. Me and Marge are arguing.

Me: We heard.

Marge: J.D. you let me out of here now!

Me: Why? So you can nag us and give us headaches the size of the planet? I don't fucking think so.

Marge: You watch your mouth young man!

Me: You are not the boss of me you blue-haired bitch.

Homer: Yeah you heard him! Also you never once cared about me ever!

Marge: I fed you and made you get a good life.

Homer: No you didn't! You would abuse Lisa by hating everything she did!

Me: It's freedom of choice Marge! Lisa has the right to change religions if she wants to and she also has the right to be what she chooses. It's the First Amendment of the United States Constitution: Freedom of Speech and Choice. And there's nothing you can do about it Marge Bouvier Simpson.

Homer: Actually the divorce was made final 3 weeks ago.

Me: Oh sorry.

Later in the living room we were watching TV. We were watching a funny cartoon.

We laughed hysterically.

Lily: This reminds me of the time when we tortured Squidward to get ink out of him.

Maria: I remember that.

---

[The flashback begins with Patrick riding on his chair at the lemonade stand until he stops.]

Patrick: [laughing] Lemonade! Lemonade for sale! [giggles]

The Neptune Crusaders all came.

Maria: Hey Patrick.

Lily: What ya doing?

Patrick: Having a Lemonade Stand. I want to buy something nice for Mindy.

Lana: Cool Patrick! Can we help out?

Patrick: Sure.

[Squidward comes out carrying a bag of trash and goes to put it near the curb. Patrick waves at Squidward in a goofy fashion.]

Squidward: Yuck.

POW!

Lily punched Squidward in the face and gave him a black eye.

[Patrick points on the pitcher and Squidward growls angrily. Patrick drinks the water and eats the glass.]

Squidward: [groans] What are you doing out here in the daylight? You should be hidden under your rock like the hideous freak you are. Do you even have a license to sell… [notices the glasses of water] just what are you selling?

Patrick: [yells through megaphone] LEMONADE!

Maria then kicked him in the crotch!

Squidward: [pulls his nose and eyes back out from his head] Thanks for reminding me why I hate you. Lemonade? I don't see any lemons.

Patrick: [silent] I need lemons?

Squidward: [takes out a rotten lemon and throws it in Patrick's eye] Here. Don't say I never gave you anything. [Patrick's eye burns] Sorry it's a little bruised. [laughs]

Sydney: Nice to see that you came through for us. For once.

Maria: I still hate him.

Cleo: Me too. Stupid Squidward.

[Patrick lifts up his left arm, pulls out a bandage from his armpit and puts it on the rotten lemon.]

Patrick: All better. [puts the rotten lemon in the pitcher full of water]

Squidward: Yuck.

KRABLAM!

Luna smashed his head with her Axe.

[The scene changes to Squidward shaving the hair out of his nostrils with the razor. Squidward had a nasty lump on his head from where Luna hit him. Patrick is still sitting outside at his lemonade stand with the rotten lemon in the pitcher.]

Patrick: [yells through two megaphones] LEMONADE!

[Patrick's loud outburst startles Squidward. The razor buzzes around in his nostrils and Squidward screams in all directions of his bathroom. The plug comes out and Squidward falls on the floor. Outside, Cara drinks the pitcher of Patrick's "lemonade".]

Cara: [after drinking the pitcher] Ahh! Thanks, buddy. I was thirsty. [gags and sticks his tongue out with the bandage on it]

Patrick: Oh! [removes the bandage from Cara's tongue]

Cara: Huh?

Patrick: [puts the bandage back on his armpit] Sorry, that's not included.

Cara: [gags] I'm gonna be sick! Where can I go? [covers his mouth]

Patrick: I always go in there.

[Cara runs up to the front door, opens it and throws up inside Squidward's house. Cara then closes the door and leaves.

Squidward comes out, slipping onto the path of his front door. He growls angrily and stomps over to Patrick, who is holding a firetruck toy.]

Squidward: What are you doing?

Patrick: Oh, I ran out of lemons, so I'm squeezing this.

Squidward: That won't work!

[Patrick squeezes the red paint out from the firetruck toy.]

Squidward: Hmm? Wha…

Lana: You were saying?

Patrick: It could use more fire hose.

SpongeBob: [sneaks up behind Squidward and screams through a megaphone] ONE FIRE TRUCK LEMONADE!

[Squidward screams and sprays ink out from his nose into the pitcher, kicking a megaphone into SpongeBob's face. Squidward panics and rushes into his house.]

Maria: That was funny!

Rikki: It sure was.

[SpongeBob pulls the megaphone off his face and Patrick gives him a cup of Squidward's ink.]

Patrick: Here you go.

SpongeBob: Yum!

[SpongeBob drinks the ink. He gasps and shrieks while distorting his face. He stops and stares in silence for a bit.]

Varie: You all right SpongeBob?

SpongeBob: [his mouth, tongue, and teeth are all black] That's delicious!

Lady: Hello! What are you selling?

Patrick: [yells through megaphone] LEMONADE!

SpongeBob: [yells through megaphone] BLACK LEMONADE!

[Patrick gives the lady a glass of black lemonade. She drinks it and, just like what happened to SpongeBob, she gasps and shrieks. She goes up and goes back down. She shrinks and disappears. She reappears blowing fire out from her mouth. She stops and exhales deeply until she calms down.]

Lady: [yells through megaphone] Black lemonade! A unique taste sensation! I'll have another. [slurps]

Horsea was drinking it.

Maria: Horsea, you're drinking the lemonade?!

Horsea: Yep. I spray ink, remember?

Maria: Oh right.

[Patrick goes to give some more to the lady, but the pitcher is empty.]

Patrick: Huh? SpongeBob, cover for me while I go get some more.

SpongeBob: Sure, buddy.

Maria: We'll help you.

[Patrick grabs the pitcher, goes to the front door of Squidward's house and knocks on it. Squidward answers it with his nose clogged up with tissues.]

Squidward: What do you want?

Patrick: Hi! Uh, yeah, I want you to do that scared thing you did and make more ink.

Squidward: I will not! [slams the door]

Patrick: Huh?

[Patrick groans as he thinks. Inside his body, a smaller version of himself goes up to his brain and rings the bell, giving him an idea.]

Patrick: I'll just have to scare the ink out of him! [rips his skin to show his jaw, trachea, heart, lungs, and intestines and knocks on the door]

Squidward: [answers the door] I said I will not-[gasps]

Patrick's intestine: May I borrow a cup of squid squeezings?

[Patrick's heart beats and his grotesque appearance scares Squidward out of his wits. As he screams, he sprays more ink from his nose and into the pitcher until it is full.]

They were laughing hysterically.

Patrick: [laughs] Thank you!

Cleo: (laughs) Yeah, Squidward. Thanks for the ink!

[Patrick runs back to the lemonade stand and gives SpongeBob the pitcher of Squidward's ink.]

SpongeBob: Ooh, I think you'd better get some more black lemonade, buddy. [gives Patrick two empty pitchers]

Patrick: Huh? Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. Uh, more.

[The scene changes to Patrick at Squidward's front door.]

Patrick: Here, kitty kitty. Oh, here, kitty kitty. Oh, who's a good kitty?

[A giant red sea spider comes crawling by.]

Varie: A Giant Red Sea Spider. Wow.

Lily: Thank Goodness Leni isn't here to see this.

Luna: Yeah.

[Patrick opens the door and makes it wide enough for the spider to enter. Squidward is sitting on the couch listening to music on the phonograph. He goes to put another record on the phonograph. While doing so, the spider takes the record and Squidward puts its claw on the other record. The spider's claw makes the record sound terrible.]

Squidward: Huh? Hmm? [looks up and sees the giant spider; he screams] I HATE SPIDERS!

[Squidward sprays ink out of his nose again. The ink sprays into Patrick's, Maria's and Lily's pitchers until they're full. Squidward climbs up the wall and crawls through the hole on the ceiling. He sprays more ink out from his nose and fills two more of Patrick's pitchers.]

Patrick: [on the spider's head; clicks his tongue] Hyah!

[Squidward cowers behind a chair and whimpers.]

Patrick: [slides off the spider's back] Boo.

[Squidward screams and sprays more ink out from his nose, filling two more of Patrick, Maria, Lily and Lana's pitchers.]

Lana: (Wears the Ooga Booga Booga Mask) OOGA BOOGA BOOGA!

[Squidward screams in fright and fills up huge buckets full of ink. Squidward hides on top of his kitchen cabinets. The spider looms in on Squidward and makes him spray more ink, filling up two more of Patrick's pitchers.]

Patrick: Thank you!

Squidward: Please! No!

[Patrick closes the door and goes to the lemonade stand. He gives the pitchers and buckets to SpongeBob.]

Patrick: Oh? [sees a long line of customers] Oh… What? I got to get more black lemonade!

Maria: Looks like we're gonna have to use more shenanigans to get it.

[The scene changes back inside Squidward's house. The kitchen is a complete mess from all of the ink. Squidward comes out from the sink drain and looks around. He hears a sound and hides again. This time, he comes out from the bottom cabinets.]

Squidward: Is it gone? [hears a clanging sound] What was that? Is someone there? [grabs a pan] Hello? Who is it? [hears the doorbell ring and hides under the rug]

[Squidward peeks out from under the rug. Patrick continues to ring the bell. Squidward tiptoes to the door and slowly answers the door.]

Squidward: Hello?

[The door slams itself shut, leaving Squidward locked outside. Squidward tries to open it to go back in, but it wouldn't budge. The lights turn on. Squidward turns around and finds himself in a haunted themed area made by Patrick and the Neptune Crusaders themselves.]

In the shadows the Neptune Crusaders were hiding.

Lana had a black book with her.

Lana: This book on ghost stories I borrowed from Lucy really came in handy for this.

Maria: It sure did.

Luna: Clever thinking Lans.

Squidward: [whimpering] I've lost it. I can't tell what's real anymore!

[Patrick scares Squidward with a toy worm and a toy snail under his feet. The toy snail makes Squidward flip over and fall on the ground.]

Patrick: Boo! I'm a haunted… [swings over Squidward with a tablecloth over his body] tablecloth!

Maria: BOO! We're haunted… [swings over Squidward dressed as an oven] Kitchen Appliances!

The Neptune Crusaders were dressed as appliances from a kitchen. They swung over Squidward.

[Squidward screams a sprays more ink out from his nose. The ink fills several buckets, cups, pitchers, bowls, and pails laid out by Patrick and the Neptune Crusaders. Patrick swings himself into a wall and laughs. The Neptune Crusaders landed on the ground. Squidward runs up the stairs while spraying ink in more buckets, cups and bowls laid out by Patrick. He runs into a spooky baby's room with creepy music playing in the background.]

Squidward: Not creepy nursery rhyme music!

[Squidward hears a creaking sound in the crib behind him. He looks in the crib and sees Patrick wearing a creepy baby costume while having a nose similar to Squidward's. He turned his head around in an "Exorcist" type fashion.]

Patrick: Dada!

Maria made Patrick vomit green slime and it splattered into Squidward's face with her water powers.

[Squidward screams and sprays more ink out from his nose into the crib. Squidward runs out through the window.]

Patrick: [puts the sucker back on the baby bottle filled with ink] Thank you, Daddy!

Maria: [From under the crib] Nice job Patrick.

Lana: [Pops out of a lamp] That was clever using a scene from The Exorcist for this.

Varie: It sure was.

[Squidward falls to the ground and sees a spooky but crudely created version of the Krusty Krab in front of him.]

Squidward: The Krusty Krab? How did I wind up here? I don't think I want to go in. [a newspaper falls on him; he gasps as he reads it] This newspaper is dated 60 years into the future.

It was dated from the year 2069.

[The conveyor belt underneath him moves and it takes him inside.]

Squidward: [covers his eyes] I can't look! I'm afraid to see. Please, no.

[Squidward looks up and sees a puppet version of his old futuristic self as a 100-year-old Squid in his workstation and then he saw puppet versions of SpongeBob, Lily, Pearl, Sandy, Karen, Mrs. Puff and Mr. Krabs there as well.]

The Puppet SpongeBob looked to be 90 years old. Puppet Lily looked to be 75 years old. Puppet Mr. Krabs looked to be over 1,000 years old. Puppet Sandy looked to be 85 years old. Puppet Karen was really a rusted computer box. Puppet Pearl looked to be 85 years old and Puppet Mrs. Puff looked to be 100 years old.

Puppet Squidward: May I help you, young man?

Puppet SpongeBob: Order Up Squidward.

Puppet Lily: One Krabby Patty coming right up.

Puppet Mr. Krabs: MONEY MONEY MONEY MONEY!

Puppet Mrs. Puff: Eugene Honey.

Puppet Karen sparks.

Puppet Sandy: Howdy Partner.

Puppet Pearl: Go team.

[Squidward's nose becomes a faucet and he screams the ink out of himself. Patrick, who is operating the old Squidward puppet and the Neptune Crusaders operating the other puppets, watches down happily. Squidward has had enough of the haunted area and goes to run away. He runs out of the haunted area and bumps into Don the Whale at the lemonade stand.]

SpongeBob: Squidward, if you want to buy some black lemonade, you'll have to get in the back of the line.

Patrick: [comes out with a boat load of Squidward's ink] Yeah, wait your turn like everybody else.

Squidward: What? Black lemonade? You've been selling this as a refreshment?

SpongeBob and Patrick: [yells through megaphones] YES!

Horsea: It's not that bad.

Maria: I'm starting to have second thoughts, though.

Don the Whale: [pushes Squidward] Hey, come on, buddy. No cutting. We've been waiting here all day.

[The crowd complain and Squidward sees a really long line of customers.]

Fish: Think they can just walk right up!

Squidward: You mean you people actually drink this?

[The crowd murmurs in agreement.]

Squidward: Huh? Huh? [smiles evilly and gets an idea] Huh! [grabs a megaphone and speaks into it] What if I told you you can buy black lemonade straight from the source?

Don the Whale: Source? We love the source!

[The crowd murmurs in agreement. Squidward takes out a really big fan and blows SpongeBob, Patrick, the boat load of ink, and the lemonade stand away.]

SpongeBob: Whoa!

[Squidward forms his own stand and calls it "Squidward's black lemonade". The customers line up.]

Don the Whale: Uh, okay. So where's our black lemonade?

Squidward: Yes, of course. Coming right up. [attempts to spray more ink out from his nose, but nothing happens] Huh? [pokes his nose and blows it; he chuckles] Don't worry. I'll-I'll make some more. I just need a little recovery time. [wrings out his nose and blows it, only to blow out the inside of his nostrils]

Dave: Say, uh, buddy, you all right?

Squidward: [chuckles] I'm fine!

Dave: Well, then, make with my black lemonade!

Squidward: Uh, can somebody please scare me?

Don the Whale: [grabs Squidward by the neck] Oh, I'll do better than that, jack! [goes to punch Squidward]

Lana: Punch his fucking brains out!

Cleo: Kill him!

[Squidward screams and sprays ink out from his nose onto Don's face. Squidward then sprays ink over the heads of the long line of customers. The customers gasp in shock and moan in disgust when they see that black lemonade was actually made out of Squidward's ink. Squidward stops spraying the ink and goes back to the his lemonade stand.]

Squidward: Black lemonade.

Cara: [grossed out] Oh… is that what black lemonade is? [gags]

Emma Gilbert: That's what it really is, folks!

[The customers are completely grossed out.]

Maria: Hurl on Squidward!

The customers all hurled their guts out on Squidward.

Horsea: (continues drinking the lemonade) Is there more black lemonade?

Maria: Horsea!

Horsea: I squirt Ink remember?

Maria: Oh right.

Then the customers got so angry that they pulverized the living shit out of Squidward and they pounded him into a pulpy pancake. Squidward is later seen wrapped in a full body cast and he was in a hospital bed moaning in pain as he was beaten to within an inch of his miserable life.

FLASHBACK ENDS

We all laughed hysterically.

Me: That is so funny!

Varie: It sure was.

Lily: Stupid Squidward deserved it.

Nico: He sure did.

We laughed some more.

THE END

---

Another awesome and funny SpongeBob chapter done.

Ink Lemonade was one of the funniest episodes of SpongeBob that I've ever seen. It aired on May 9th, 2018 and it was hysterically funny! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is the next Goosebumps book I Live In Your Basement. We're gonna deal with the Shapeshifting monster Keith and make him pay for his crimes. He was really gross and we're gonna vaporize that pile of slop.

See you all tomorrow

I Live in Your Basement!

In the mall, we were on an awesome shopping venture. With us were the Masters of Evil and we had them with us to show them our toys that we all have that were made. We went into the toy store at the mall and we saw a lot of people buying toys of us.

Fuse Man: These are toys of us?

Me: Yep. We have special companies that made us into action figures.

We looked at all the toys and we saw that they also had twin packs of one of us with our archenemies in the Masters of Evil and we also saw that they had the Legion of Doom as Action Figures.

Me: They have figures of the Masters of Evil now.

Dark Spicer: These are so awesome!

Shiv: It's so cool that we have toys that are made on us.

Tai Kamiya: (to Dark Spicer) They even made action figures of your aliens.

Dark Spicer: They sure do.

Me: It's so cool that we have so many toys made that are such a success.

Blast Off: It sure is.

Jerry Legume then appeared and it punched at me and I grabbed his fist.

Jerry Legume: You make me sick J.D.!

Blast Off: (to Jerry) Who the Hell are you?

Jerry Legume: You don't know who I am!? I was the owner of Legume Toys before I was forced out of business because of J.D. here!

Me: I didn't even do anything to him and I got blamed because my toys that were made were more popular than his. He hates me now because our toys are more awesome. Plus I looked up his history and discovered that he was deeply in debt by millions of dollars because a lot of people hated his toys. The reason is because he makes a lot of terrible toys and they didn't want them. But Jerry hates me for ruining his business. So when he couldn't get the money he needed, they repossessed everything and closed down his toy store. Permanently.

Fireflight: (to me) You put Jerry out of business?

Dark Spicer: (pats me on the back) I'm so proud of you, dude.

Me: Aww it was nothing.

Jerry Legume: You make me sick J.D.!

POW!

Nico punched him in the face and sent him crashing into a trashcan.

Nico: You stay away from us Legume! No one expected J.D.'s toys to be so popular and no one knew this was gonna happen to us.

Carly Carmine: I agree. They even have awesome toys of us and the Dark Signers. Which is so cool.

Laney: It sure is Carly.

Haiku: I think so too.

Maxxor: They sure are.

Jerry Legume then screamed in incredible rage! He ran at me armed with a knife and he was coming at me with the intent to kill me.

Me: You fuckwiping fucker!

I kicked Jerry in the face and knocked him out and the police came and arrested him for attempted murder. He was found guilty of attempted 1st degree murder and attempted aggravated assault. He was sentenced to spend 75 years in prison. But it goes much deeper than that. He was also arrested for possession and sale of stolen government property. The toys he had were all bugged toys with hidden chips inside them that were designed to monitor homes and stuff. But the chips were defective and they were to be destroyed. But Hans Rotwood found the chips and gave them to Legume for a good amount of cash. But because the chips were defective, Rotwood's plans for this backfired big time. Legume's toys exploded because the chips were defective and he had lost everything. He was convicted of these charges and he was sentenced to life in federal prison with no possibility of parole. He was also ordered to pay $200,000,000,000,000,000.00 in restitution. He now is spending the rest of his life in solitary confinement. Anybody affiliated with Hans Rotwood and his group will be sent to federal prison. Hans Rotwood and his group are now the most wanted fugitives in the world now.

Later at the estate we were watching TV and I was meditating. Nico was looking through all of his Goosebumps books.

Nico: Lets see. Which sounds like a good target for us to destroy?

Carly Beth: Hmm. How about The Abominable Snowman of Pasadena?

Nico: No lets save that one for later down the road.

Sarah Gunnerson: What are all these books for Nico?

Nico: Oh I have collected the Goosebumps books ever since I was little. I have loved them for a long time.

Lori Jimenez: Nico is also the leader of the Goosebumps Monster Busters. It's a branch team of Team Loud Phoenix Storm that specializes in destroying the monsters from the Goosebumps books.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow! That's incredible!

Nico: It sure is. So far we have destroyed over half of the monsters.

Sarah Gunnerson: Which monsters have you destroyed?

Nico: We destroyed a lot of them. Some of them were scary beyond all forms of imagination. We took down Slappy the Living Dummy. He was the one that scared me the most when I was growing up.

Molly Malloy: He also scared me too as well as a bunch of others.

Nico: Yeah. But it turns out that before we faced him, Dr. Strange sealed him in the Dark Dimension.

Lana: That's what we heard.

Nico: Yep.

Sarah Gunnerson: He was that dangerous?

Nico: Really dangerous. He was bad enough to give me nightmares for a long time. But I conquered my fear of him.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow.

Qin: The monster from Goosebumps that scared me the most was the Medieval Executioner from A Night In Terror Tower.

Lori Jimenez: That was a scary one.

Nico: Yeah. We faced an evil Medieval Executioner from over 1,000 years ago that was out to kill Sue and her younger brother Eddie. Turns out we found out that they were a prince and princess that were sent here into the future from 1,000 years ago.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow! That is really strange.

Nico: We all were surprised ourselves.

Sue: It's true Sarah. We are a medieval prince and princess from 1,000 years ago.

Sarah Gunnerson: Whoa! That is really something!

Nico: We were shocked ourselves. We had no idea that someone was out to kill them.

Eddie: Yeah.

Sarah Gunnerson: What was the most action packed battle in the Goosebumps books?

Nico: That's an easy one. Welcome to Dead House.

Amanda Benson: The whole town where we bought a house that I lived in was infected by a chemical that turned the whole town into zombies.

Sarah Gunnerson: Whoa!

Tom Majors: Zombies? How strange.

Laney: It was awful. Amanda lead a bunch of people into war against the people of the town and we helped them and destroyed the entire town.

Nico: Yeah.

Sarah Gunnerson: Whoa! That is terrible.

Amanda Benson: No kidding.

Sarah Gunnerson: What was the scariest place in all of the Goosebumps books?

Lizzy Morris: That's an easy one. One Day in Horrorland.

Sarah Gunnerson: That sure sounds like a scary one.

Nico: It was. It was the creepiest amusement park we have ever seen. Scary too.

Nico pulled out the map he had saved from Horrorland and it showed all the places we have seen at Horrorland.

Nico: J.D. killed an evil doctor there named Madison Storm. He was one fucked up piece of shit. You should've seen what he did. He beat him into a bloody pulp, tied him to a chair and blew him and the entirety of Horrorland to smithereens.

Lizzy Morris: He sure did. Now Horrorland is nothing but a crater.

Nico: And we found out that it was located on the border to the south of the Springfield Nuclear Crater.

Varie: Yeah it sure was.

Nico: These are all the monsters we took down.

Sarah Gunnerson: Whoa! You guys have destroyed a lot of them!

Chaor: That is a lot of monsters.

Lola: It sure is.

Qin: I know. But the Goosebumps Monster Busters are not done yet.

Nico: Nope. (Sees something) Wait a second. I think I found our next target.

Nico pulled out a book and it was called I Live In Your Basement.

Nico: I Live In Your Basement. This was a freaky one.

Laney: I read that one and it was really weird.

Nico: It sure was. And I feel bad for Marco in this one. He saw things in his head and they weren't really there and his mom thought he was crazy.

Lana: That was a creepy one.

Nico: Yep.

I came back in.

Me: Hey guys.

Nico: Hey J.D. I think I found our next target. I Live In Your Basement.

Me: That was a freaky one. I can't believe that Marco was thought to be crazy.

Laney: Me neither.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: Well the monster is really ugly.

Naruto: No kidding bro. But we need to destroy that freak.

Lily: And we will.

Me: Lets see here.

I pulled up the info for where I Live In Your Basement takes place and it showed that it takes place. It said that it takes place in northern California near Sacramento.

Me: Looks like we're heading to California.

We were then off to Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA

We arrived in the suburbs of Sacramento and it was a beautiful place.

Me: Nice place.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) It sure is lad.

Lana: Sacramento is a beautiful place.

Me: It sure is. Lets find Marco's house.

We walked around a neighborhood and we found Marco's house.

Me: This is it.

We saw Marco sitting on the porch in thought.

Me: Are you Marco?

Marco (Goosebumps): Yeah.

Me: We came here to help you. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Marco (Goosebumps) Wow! It's such an honor to meet you guys.

Me: Same to you Marco.

Nico: We came to help you with your little predicament.

Marco (Goosebumps): I see. Keith has been ruining my life. He is causing me to have everyone think that I'm crazy. Look, you guys won't believe me. But I really think something's in my basement!

Me: Lets check there first and if he isn't there, I have a really good idea of where he might be.

We went inside Marco's house and we went to his basement.

William: Alright, Keith. C'mon out! We know you're down here!

Me: Make any moves and we'll blast you!

We looked in the basement and we saw no one there.

Me: Weird. There's no one here.

Maria: I thought he would be here in the basement.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: But I think I know where Keith is. He's inside Marco's head.

Marco (Goosebumps): How do you know that?

Me: I sense another presence inside you Marco. It's an evil force.

Marco (Goosebumps): (Panics) (FRANTIC) GET IT OUT! GET IT OUT!

Maria: Whoa whoa! Marco calm down!

Me: We can get it out with the use of magic. But this is gonna be a big battle so we better do this outside.

Marco (Goosebumps): Got it.

We went outside and we had Marco stand in front of us.

Marco (Goosebumps): This won't hurt will it?

Me: No. Okay now stand still.

I fired a wave of magic at him and chanted the incantation and out came a blob of darkness and it formed into a young boy with brown hair, a blue t-shirt and he had grey pants. Keith was now on the outside!

Marco (Goosebumps): Whoa!

Marco saw Keith.

Keith: What the!? How am I out here!?

Marco (Goosebumps): That's him guys! That's Keith!

Me: You are in really big trouble Keith!

Nico: Prepare to die!

Keith: I won't die that easily!

He opened his mouth and turned into a living pile of slop and it was really disgusting!

Me: WHAT THE FUCKING HELL!?

Lori: That is literally disgusting!

Kate Lloyd: And I thought The Thing was scary!

Alicia Berricks: Same with the Necromorphs!

Suzie Berricks: Yeah!

Isaac Clarke: Just what I was about to say.

Brittney: Oh no! Not one of them!

Nico: What is it Brittney?

Brittney: I had a very strong feeling that one of them was behind all of this. Keith is really a Mental Doppelgänger. They are known as the Pond Scum of the Demons in Hell. They are shapeshifting demons from Hell that go into peoples minds and assume any form to cause misery, pain, dissension and suffering in order to rob that person of their sanity.

We gasped in shock and horror!

Me: I didn't know demons like these even existed.

Nico: Me neither.

Everyone else agreed.

Brittney: No one ever does dad. They are so low in rank in power down in Hell that they are often called the Forgotten Demons.

Nico: That's unusual.

Lincoln: Really freaky.

Lord Drakkon and Dr. Light appeared.

Me: Lord Drakkon and Dr. Light.

Lord Drakkon: We're back in action.

Dr. Light: Indeed we are.

Maria: How are you guys feeling?

Lord Drakkon: Pretty good. Considering that we got food poisoning the other day. Which is surprising considering how much power I have.

Nico: I guess that no matter how powerful we are, we're still only human.

Me: That's right. No Dark Signers coming with you guys this time?

Dr. Light: No not this time. They are taking a break after what happened with Rotwood. But they will be back in action tomorrow.

Me: Good.

Carly Carmine: And it's not my turn anyway so I took this day to help you all.

Nico: That's cool Carly.

A figure came out and it was VOLT CATFISH!

Fuse Man: And you are?

Volt Catfish: Call me… Volt Catfish!

Volt Catfish spits a sphere of electricity from his mouth, which travels across the ground at Fuse Man.

Lincoln stepped in front of the ball of electricity and absorbed it and it made him stronger.

Noah: Time to put this slimeball under arrest.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode S.P.D.!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the S.P.D. Rangers!

Keith: (Jellied Voice) Lets dance.

Star Butterfly: I hope we don't make a mess when we kill you!

Russ Cargill then appeared!

Me: Russ Cargill.

Girl Jordan: Now I can thrash you into pulp.

Russ Cargill: We'll see about that.

Bart: How about you go look for the town of Anita Girltofuck?

Russ Cargill: Anita Girltofuck?

We laughed hysterically!

Me: That is so funny!

Nico: Good one Bart!

Lincoln: Go to a brothel then!

Me: Lets power up and take them down!

We powered up and I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Glaren yet again.

Me: Didn't want to damage the neighborhood.

Dr. Light: Good thinking.

Me: Lets do this!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Lord Drakkon

---

I was facing Lord Drakkon.

Me: Glad you're feeling better Drakkon.

Lord Drakkon: Same here J.D.

Me: Just hang in there for 21 more times against Rotwood and his cronies and it'll be over shortly.

Lord Drakkon: I know.

Me: We're considering banishing them to that island in the Southern Atlantic where we banished Paul, the Amoeba Boys and the Toiletnator.

Lord Drakkon: That's a good place for them! I like it.

Me: We'll it's still in debate but we're thinking about it.

Lord Drakkon: Yeah.

Me: Lets do this.

We went at each other and I punched Lord Drakkon in the stomach and kicked him in the face and kicked him in the back of the head and elbowed him in the back and knocked him down. Lord Drakkon got up.

Lord Drakkon: Very good. You've gotten stronger since we fought the last time.

Me: I've gotten an incredible boost in power when we fought Moo on the planet Pangaea.

Lord Drakkon: That's what I heard. You have changed tremendously J.D.

Me: I know.

Lord Drakkon: I also have learned some shinobi techniques as well.

Me: Lets see what you have.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

The explosions knocked him out.

Kairi: Good fight.

---

Battle 3: Volt Catfish

---

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Volt Catfish.

Nico: Volt Catfish, you have failed this time!

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers fired massive energy blasts at Volt Catfish and they hit him and blew him into a million pieces and destroyed him.

Troy Burrows: Power Rangers, that's a Mega Win.

Nico: Yeah!

We got Volt Catfish's weapons and powers as a result.

Girl Jordan: Those who don't protect their crotches don't deserve them!

Russ Cargill fell to the ground foaming at the mouth!

Lord Drakkon: It sure was.

Dr. Light: (to Goosebumps Marco) I know that Keith's existence is now out in the open. But I think this will make it official. (gives flash drive to him)

Marco Diaz: What's in the flash drive?

Lord Drakkon: Keith made the mistake of sharing with us how he invaded Marco's dreams. That flash drive contains everything he told us as well as everything about his existence.

Maria: Thanks. This means a lot.

Dr. Light: Don't mention it.

The Masters of Evil then teleport out.

Me: Lets show this to your mom Marco. She's gonna want to know about this.

Me: It was our pleasure Marco. But thank goodness you're gonna be okay.

Laney: Lets hope that Keith didn't do any permanent damage to you.

Me: Yep. All will be well.

We laughed.

Star Butterfly: (To the viewers) Be careful who you have dreams about and you never know what could happen in them. It's a completely unpredictable world.

Marco Diaz: That's right Star.

We later went back home. Marco and Gwynnie are now members of the Goosebumps Monster Busters.

THE END

Another Awesome Goosebumps chapter done.

I Live In Your Basement was a freaky book. I never read the book but it was really freaky when I read the summary. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is another awesome Are You Afraid of The Dark? Chapter and we're gonna go after the ruthless Evil Executioner and it will be a battle that takes place over 1500 years in the making!

See you all tomorrow

Terror of the Evil Executioner

We were in the Headquarters of Chaotic. It was the central hub of going to the world of Perim and it was the only way to get from Earth to Perim for many people.

Me: Wow!

Jewel Man: So this is Chaotic?

Tom Majors: Yep. This is where we go to have fun and try out our skills as our favorite creatures from Perim.

Nico: It's amazing!

Me: It sure is.

Peyton was eating a lot of food.

Peyton: And the food is delicious.

Kaz: All you ever think about is food Peyton.

Shaggy: (Laughs) We have something in common.

Laney: (Laughs) You sure do.

We sat at a table and got some grub.

Me: (Eating a burger) Mmm! Delicious.

Nico: It sure is delicious.

Then we got a surprise and rude visit from Tom's rivals Klay and Krystella.

Tom Majors: Oh great.

Sarah: What do you two want?

Klay: We just want to thank you all for killing the M'arrillians before we even got the chance to scan them.

Sailor Venus: What do you mean by that?

Krystella: Oh, something like this!

Klay then proceeded to pour pig's blood onto Sarah.

SPLASH!

EEEEWWWWWWW!

Sarah Gunnerson: EW!

Everyone then laughed at Sarah and she broke down crying!

Carrie White: You heartless bastards!

Klay: Take that you losers!

Me: You shut the fuck up you shiteaters!

Nico then punched Klay in the face!

Klay: OW! MY FACE!

Nico: You know, Klay. You shouldn't be calling Tom, Sarah, Kaz, and Peyton losers at all. They've won way more matches then you. And let's not forget your humiliating loss at Codemaster Imthor's hands.

Me: That's right lardass!

Klay: WHY YOU FUCKING LITTLE!

Klay was punching Nico in the face relentlessly. But his punches weren't even scratching or denting him

Dirge: You know everyone is watching, right? Including the Port Court robots?

Klay: Say what?

The Port Court Security Robots grabbed him.

?: What's going on here?

We saw the Codemasters.

Me: Eddy, guard Klay and Krystella. We need to tell them what went down.

Eddy: Got it.

We went over to the Codemasters and we told them everything.

Me: And that's what happened.

Codemaster Imthor: This kind of behavior is not tolerated. Thank you all for telling me.

Then we heard a punch and a whoosh.

We came back with the Codemaster to the Port Court only to find Klay and Krystella gone and Eddy was on the ground.

G1 Blades: Dude, what happened?! We were only gone for half an hour!

Eddy: (gets up) The two dirtbags pulled a fast one on me. Mentioned something about going to Van Bloot in Gothos Tower.

Me: Looks like we have two more rogue players running amuck.

Codemaster Imthor: We'll seal off their transport back to make sure they don't come back.

Me: We'll go after them soon. And we will make those two fuckpots pay in blood.

Nico: They picked the wrong people to fuck around with.

Varie: And they will be sorry they fucked around with us.

Me: Yep. Lets get Sarah cleaned up. Codemaster Imthor, put everyone in Perim on high alert for two more rogue Chaotic Players.

Armed and extremely dangerous. Capture on Sight.

Codemaster Imthor: Right. I'll have them look out for them.

Me: If they do catch them, we'll deal with them. They are gonna soon be joining Simon and his cohorts in the Neptune prison. Now everyone knows their true colors.

Nico: Yep.

We got Sarah cleaned up and she was crying hard. Tom was comforting her as she was crying in her room. Carrie White was with her. We got her new clothes and put her old clothes in the wash.

Tom Majors: It's all right Sarah. Now we know the kinds of monsters that Klay and Krystella are.

Sarah Gunnerson: (Crying) I know! But they humiliated me!

Carrie White: Sarah I know exactly how you feel. This is the exact same thing that happened to me.

Sarah Gunnerson: What do you mean?

Carrie White: Have you ever heard about the Chamberlain Genocide?

Sarah Gunnerson: That terrible massacre that happened on that high school prom night in Maine?

Carrie White: That's the very one. Chris Hargenson and her evil boyfriend Billy Nolan hated my guts and when I was made Prom Queen, they dumped a bucket of pigs blood on me and humiliated me in front of the whole school. Because of that, I went into a blind rage and I slaughtered everyone in that whole building and burned the whole town down. 260 people died that night all because of me. It was actually because of my mother Margaret White. She and Chris made me do it. She was insane and she hated my guts because she thought I had the devil inside me. I was an outcast in that school and it was because of my mother that I was like that. But Team Loud Phoenix Storm saved me from loneliness and brought my mother and Chris to Justice. Chris is in the Moon Prison and is the most hated woman in all of the world. Margaret was executed by the federal court system and Billy got the death penalty. All for capital murder, arson, genocide and domestic terrorism.

Tom Majors: That's horrible!

Carrie White: It was. But it will forever scar me. I was the victim of around the clock abuse.

Sarah Gunnerson: I'm so sorry Carrie.

Carrie White: It's all right. But because of that, Chamberlain is no longer there. It's a ghost town. Everyone that lived there left and went somewhere else.

Sarah Gunnerson: Geez.

Tom Majors: That town deserved to be destroyed for ruining your life.

Carrie White: Blame Margaret White for that. My mother was insane and she was a Christian Fanatic and she hated me. But I've forgiven her.

But then the alarm went off.

Carrie White: Uh oh.

Sarah Gunnerson: We better go see what's up.

They went down to the computer and we were at the Computer ready for action. I looked it up and saw that there was a massacre going on over at the mall over in Tennessee.

Me: Whoa! We better get over there!

We went to the mall in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

We arrived at the mall in Nashville and we saw that the whole place was littered with butchered bodies all over the place. Over 340 people dead.

Me: My god.

Nico: What the hell happened here?

Me: I haven't seen this number of bodies ever since the time I killed Richard Fenton.

Qin: Richard Fenton? That escaped psycho killer that busted out of prison and massacred that whole prom?

Me: That's him.

Vince: I remember that. That was terrible.

Laney: No kidding.

Me: He was really fucked up to the core.

Lana: He sure was.

Then we heard a scream and we saw a Medieval Executioner chasing a man. It was the EVIL EXECUTIONER!

---

The Evil Executioner, also known as The Executioner is a ferocious medieval executioner and a villain in the episode "The Tale of the Pinball Wizard" of the horror/fantasy-themed anthology TV series Are You Afraid of the Dark?.

The Evil Executioner is a huge bulky man in ragged executioner clothing wearing a traditional, black, felt-like polyester hood with eyeholes, and black leather gloves, and he wields a spiky mace.

In his alternate form as the Evil Guard (also known as The Guard), he appears as a massively muscled wrestler in a medieval-themed, brown leather trimmed guard uniform and his mask shifts to a double leather hood with the lower half of his face visible.

Nothing is known about his origins, or whether or not he was trying to take the crown for himself. He was a strong, vicious and ruthless brute who always gives a roaring yell as he attacks his enemies without mercy.

Within the real world, the Evil Executioner was a dummy/mannequin on display inside the window at Mr. Olson's fix-it shop at the shopping mall. Then teenager Ross Campbell broke Mr. Olson's trust, by playing a certain pinball machine game when being told not to. Soon, the inside of the mall magically became the world inside the pinball device.

This dummy/mannequin was then chosen as a vessel to become the Executioner himself. The character was the a villain from Mr. Olson's medieval-themed pinball game. The strange pinball game however was a manifestation from Mr. Olson's wicked imagination.

He wailed a spiky mace which he soon lost not once but twice when Ross Campbell and the kidnapped Princess Sophie overpowered him while he keeps on chasing him.

Then a little while later after the Evil Sheriff's second capture of the good Princess and the eventual demise of the Evil Witch via the rapidly-moving, magic speed of the Throne, the Evil Executioner returned in a much more muscular form as the Evil Guard. It is quite possible that the Sheriff may have given him a power up boost and was elevated to this new and advanced form.

He was just about to crown the Sheriff as the king while the Sheriff himself was sitting on the Throne on the red carpet at the center of the mall's third floor, until Ross pulled out a water gun and squirted him with water. When he was squirted, he immediately got vaporized and vanished.

---

Eddie: Another executioner?

Sue: Wasn't the Lord High Executioner enough?

The Executioner slashed the man in half right down the middle and killed him instantly.

Me: This monster will die!

I flew and kicked the executioner in the face and knocked him down. He got back up.

Me: This guy is tough!

He went at me and I kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face and kicked him into a store through it's windows.

Evil Green Ranger, Technus and Ms. Cantwell appeared.

Me: Evil Green Ranger, Technus and Ms. Cantwell.

Lisa Simpson: You make me sick Cantwell!

Ms. Cantwell: I will always hate you stupid Lisa!

Lisa Simpson: You fucking Baboon Bitch!

Bart Simpson: You tell her Lis!

My Signer Mark glowed.

Me: Uh oh.

Me: Hey Carly. So the Dark Signers are back in action.

Carly Carmine: Yep.

Sarah Gunnerson: That blaster is really cool! That can be my weapon of choice.

Silverhead: (to Sarah) If you want my blaster, you'll have to defeat me first!

Evil Green Ranger: I have to admit. You getting Klay pissed off was pretty clever.

Nico: Thanks. The best part is that I didn't even have to fight back in order to expose his true colors.

Me: Come on guys. Lets send this medieval douchebag back to the dark ages!

We powered up and flared up our auras to full power! I snapped my fingers and we were on the ocean planet Ouwurkappa! We were standing on the waters of the planet and it was an amazing planet that had amazing landscapes as well as mysterious statues and buildings of incredible beauty and origin.

Z picked up the card and gave it to Sarah.

THE END

---

Another awesome Are You Afraid of The Dark chapter done.

The Evil Executioner was the worst monster in the series. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the 4th Secret Saturdays chapter and we're going to prove the existence of the legendary extraterrestrial Atmospheric Beasts. They are said to be creatures from another planet that are inhabiting the skies of the planets. We're going to face the evil counterparts of the Secret Saturday's - The Monday's and we're going to kill them.

See you all tomorrow.

Skies of the Atmospheric Beasts

In the middle of the city, we were in the famous house of Jake Long. It was also home to his grandfather Lao Shi. It was a beautiful house.

Raphael: So, this is your house, Jake?

Jake Long: It sure is. It's a nice house and it is home.

Laney: It sure is beautiful.

Me: It sure is.

We went into the shop and we saw that there were all kinds of magical and mystical artifacts.

Me: Wow. Look at all these mystical artifacts.

Jake Long: Yep. This is my grandfather's shop. It's where I learned how to become a dragon and how to master all sorts of magical artifacts.

Lana: Amazing.

?: (Oriental Accent) Indeed young one.

We saw Jake Long's grandfather Lao Shi.

Me: Master Lao Shi, (Kung Fu Bow) it's an honor to meet one of the famous dragon leaders.

Elec Man: (bows) It's an honor to meet you, Lao Shi.

Lao Shi: It's an honor to meet you all as well.

Nico: Same to you Master.

G1 Ransack: Bet you heard the news about Rotwood and Morton?

Lao Shi: Indeed I have. Most unpleasant what those two have become.

Lincoln: Yeah and they have humiliated both us and the Masters of Evil.

Me: It will be over with them in 21 months. All we can do is hold out till then.

Jake Long: Yeah. Grandpa do you still have those magic skulls?

Lao Shi: What do you need them for?

Me: We're going to use them on our latest mission that we just got. We need them to destroy the most dangerous enemies of the Secret Saturday's. Their evil counterparts, The Monday's.

I went over who and what they are.

---

The Monday Family (named by Zak Saturday, see above) are evil doppelgangers of the Saturday family from an anti-matter universe. The only one to be totally physically identical to her real world counterpart is Drew Monday, though the evil Drew has an extremely long snakelike tongue. The other family members all have external differences- Zak Monday's hair that is the inverted version of Zak Saturday's, Fiskerton's double has horns, Komodo has spots and the ability to turn into stone, Doc Monday has an eye patch over the opposite eye to Doc Saturday, and a fingerless version of the glove, and Zon's double is shown to have eyes on her wings.

Most of the Mondays' personalities and abilities are a reverse of the Saturdays. Zak Monday was cruel and vicious, and hated his parents - his power, instead of calming cryptids, drove them insane. Drew Monday pretends to be sweet and loving to Zak, but secretly hates him (as opposed to Drew Saturday who, though she acts tough, loves her son deeply). Doc Monday is very stupid and can barely string a sentence together, where Doc Saturday is brilliant and scientific. Komodo Monday is very civilized and intelligent and can speak perfect English in a slightly Mexican accent, though ruthless and sadistic. Similarly, Fiskerton Monday hates Zak and is very vicious and savage. The only one to seem the same is Zon, though it is clear she hates the Mondays.

The Monday family seems to be controlled or run by Komodo's evil doppelganger, and the family seems to have a love/hate relationship with Zak and Komodo Monday and each other. They are seen fighting over the Smoke Mirror while the Saturdays escape and Drew Monday seems to hate having to pretend to like Zak Saturday and has a love of hot chocolate, which is apparently nonexistent where they come from. At the end of the episode "Black Monday", in which the Monday family was introduced, Zak and Komodo Monday are shown escaping, leaving the rest of their family in the other world. After they walk off, you see the others yelling to let them out, and Drew Monday blatantly threatens her son, even though he's out of sight and doesn't hear her.

All of the Mondays reappear in Paris is Melting. Komodo and Zak try to destroy the Saturdays' reputation. At the end of the episode, all of them are back in the mirror and Komodo and Zak are probably getting beaten by the rest of the Mondays for leaving them.

Zak Monday is once again later released by the machinations of V.V. Argost. Captured by Munya, Argost used the flute of Gilgamesh to sap his Kur powers, and his life force, from him.

The Mondays have all of the same items that the Saturdays have only like themselves they are all reversed, the most powerful of which being their Airship, which is full of weapons, and runs on darkness rather than sunlight, causing its power to be drained when out in the sun. The Mondays' ship also shoots continuous streams of red smoke or smog, while the Saturdays' Airship produces no pollution.

So far, Anti-Doyle hasn't appeared yet. Since Doyle passed from bad to good, it is possible that Anti-Doyle turned from good to bad.

It is unknown if the dopplegangers are truly called the Mondays, as this is the name given to them by Zak Saturday. It is unlikely though as in Paris is Melting, when Zak calls his counterpart Zak Monday, he replies "Is that what you call us?" It is more likely they are also known as the Saturday family, though everyone in the anti-matter universe hates them, or possibly the Anti-Saturdays.

---

Lao Shi: I see.

Me: Yeah. They are trying to kill the Secret Saturdays.

Nico: We have to stop them at all costs.

Lao Shi: Wait here.

Lao Shi went to the vault and he got the Crystal Skulls. He told us that they have the power to Warp Reality and they are immensely powerful.

Nosecone: Those magic skulls really are powerful.

Nico: No kidding.

He gave us the skulls and we were later off to find the next Cryptid.

---

Over the Pacific Ocean, we were with the Secret Saturday's in an awesome flying fortress we built for them.

Drew Saturday: This new flying fortress you built for us is amazing!

Nico: Glad you all like it.

Maria: So what Cryptid are we going to find next?

Me: We're going to search for the legendary Atmospheric Beasts. They are said to be legendary creatures of Extraterrestrial Origin.

Lola: Like creatures from another planet.

Me: Yep.

I revealed what they are said to be.

Atmospheric Beasts are the strangest of the flying monsters from ufology, cryptozoology and astrobiology. According to eyewitness reports, they are things that seem like living creatures, but they break all the usual rules that we apply to living things. They fly without the need for wings and their bodies are only semi-solid, often partially invisible.

For those who believe, atmospheric beasts are very fragile and lightweight creatures who are either native to Earth or are aliens that came from elsewhere. If the latter view is taken, then atmospheric beasts are sometimes thought to have originated in the atmosphere of some other planet, but they can also be thought of as originating in interstellar gas clouds so that they are, in effect, aliens without a native planet, able to "swim" through space. Believers generally consider atmospheric beasts to be non-sapient, so that even if these creatures did originate somewhere other than earth, they still don't count as sapient extraterrestrials. They're just animals.

In various eyewitness accounts, atmospheric beasts can change their density, becoming smaller, harder masses that are usually metallic in color, or they can become larger and cloudlike, even to the point of invisibility. In some reports, they may glow. Atmospheric beasts may roughly resemble whales and are sometimes called air whales or cloud beasts. Believers think that the atmospheric beasts' normal habitat is high in the air, and they might die if they ever touch the ground. Atmospheric beasts that resemble clouds may engage in behavior that is thought to be impossible for a real cloud, such as squirting a stream of horizontal water at people through "lips" or being far too mobile and animate for witnesses to believe it was just a patch of fog. The more solid kinds of atmospheric beasts may have mouths, eyes, flippers and other features, but these body parts are generally arranged and shaped in a fashion that looks utterly alien, more like an ocean invertebrate's body plan than any animal we are used to seeing on a daily basis.

In the later decades of the twentieth century, the atmospheric beast theory had been almost forgotten. Serious investigators usually stayed away from it. But, today, interest in atmospheric beasts has been growing, mainly because they now seem more plausible after the recent discovery of what might be a related cryptozoological animal: air rods. People have begun to comb through older reports of miscellaneous random unexplained stuff, a place where a few atmospheric beasts often lurk, and they have also re-examined some of the weirdest UFO reports, which sometimes sound a great deal like the witnesses are actually describing atmospheric beasts.

Lincoln: Whoa!

Lucy Loud: That is amazing.

Carly Carmine: It sure is. I never even knew that creatures like that even existed.

Misty Tredwell: Me neither.

Laney was reading a book about them.

Laney: There have been numerous sightings of these creatures and the most famous of them all is the legendary Crawfordsville Monster from 1891.

Laney went over what the legendary Crawfordsville Monster was.

---

The Crawfordsville monster refers to an alleged creature reported by residents of Crawfordsville, Indiana, in 1891 and subsequently identified as a flock of killdeer. The story, "among the most fantastic of all UFO reports," contributed to early theories of UFOs as airborne organisms.

On September 5, 1891, the Crawfordsville Journal reported that two ice delivery men sighted "a strange phenomenon" that hovered in the air above their location, describing it as a "horrible apparition" that "filled them with dread." A similar sighting was reported by a Methodist pastor and his wife. The Crawfordsville Journal described it as "about eighteen feet long and eight feet wide and moved rapidly through the air by means of several pairs of side fins. It was pure white and had no definite shape or form, resembling somewhat a great white shroud fitted with propelling fins. There was no tail or head visible but there was one great flaming eye, and a sort of a wheezing plaintive sound was emitted from a mouth which was invisible. It flapped like a flag in the winds as it came on and frequently gave a great squirm as though suffering unutterable agony." According to interviews conducted years later by Crawfordsville reporter and Fortean Society member Vincent Gaddis, hundreds of residents observed the phenomenon on the following evening, with some claiming they could feel the monster's "hot breath" as it swooped over them.

The Indianapolis Journal repeated the September 5th sightings, as did other newspapers across the country, including the Brooklyn Eagle, whose article later attracted the attention of early paranormal investigator Charles Fort. The Crawfordsville Postmaster was deluged with mail, and reports of the sightings generated both ridicule and a number of believers. Two local men, John Hornbeck and Abe Hernley, "followed the wraith about town and finally discovered it to be a flock of many hundred killdeer." The Crawfordsville Journal suggested that Crawfordsville's newly installed electric lights disoriented the birds, which caused them to hover above the city. The birds' wings and white under-feathers likely resulted in misidentification.

Me: Whoa!

Lily: That is really strange!

Laney: It sure is.

Me: Yep. There have been numerous sightings of these mysterious creatures and they are also said to be creatures from another world.

Nico: That is amazing!

Naruto: It sure is.

Drew Saturday: You're about to get a chance to see one. Look up ahead.

We went to the front and we saw an Atmospheric Jellyfish! It was a huge creature and it looked like a jellyfish floating in the sky!

Nico: Whoa!

Laney: Wow! That's an Atmospheric Jellyfish!

She took a picture of it.

Maria: It's amazing!

Lana: Breathtaking!

But then a ship appeared above us and it was 20 times larger than the Flying Fortress and it pulled the fortress in and we were in the cargo bay. We got out and we saw that it was a huge fortress.

Me: Whoa! Whoever has this kind of technology is incredible!

?: That's a matter of opinion!

We turned and we saw THE MONDAY FAMILY!

Me: The Mondays!

Nico: They ARE from a parallel universe!

Me: Yep.

We saw that they also had WHITE TERRORSAURUS from episodes 22 and 27 of Dino Thunder with them!

---

In the episode "Triassic Triumph", Zeltrax uses his evil clone of the White Ranger to create the White Terrorsaurus, a humanoid pterodactyl-like beast, Mesogog was highly impressed and unleashed the monster on the Rangers. He (along with the White Ranger's Clone and Zeltrax) took on the Red, Yellow and Blue Rangers, but he was out matched, the clone then summons the White Terrorsaurus to go after the Rangers, but before the monster could do battle, he along with the Clone and Zeltrax are blasted by the real White Ranger, forcing them to retreat, he later returns enlarge in the woods outside of town, the Thundersaurus Megazord comes in and does battle with the monster, it was a trap however as the monster abducts the other two auilary Zords and later does battle with the Thundersaurus Megazord, the White Terrorsaurus was too powerful and took out the Megazord with multiple Quick Attacks, afterwords he was able to kidnap the Dinozords. with the Zords captured, the Rangers felt that they were in trouble, the White Terrorsaurus then shrunk back to the Rangers' size and did battle with all three Rangers. No matter what kind of weapon they used, they were all out matched. the White Terrorsaurus took out the three Rangers with his Lightning Vision attack, sending them off a cliff and into a near by river, thinking that they were gone for good, he desisted to destroy the city (thought little did he know that the Rangers survived), at the city he has all of the Zords in the air trapped in bubbles, the Red, Yellow and Blue Rangers appeared and did battle with the monster, they were still out matched by the Terrorsaurus' shear power, even in Super Dino Mode they were all out matched. After a long and heated battle, the White Terrorsaurus was about to end the Rangers until the Black Ranger appeared with the Shield of Triumph, it pushed back the monsters' lasers back at him. Shield of Triumph required the Rangers' powers too unlock it and the Red Ranger uses it to become the Triassic Ranger. The Triassic Ranger first used the shield to take the White Terrorsaurus to his dimension. No matter how much he tried, the White Terrorsaurus was no match for the Triassic Ranger and is destroyed by the Triassic Ranger's Sword of Triumph at it's full power.

The White Terrorsaurus was a very raggedy monster that loved to show off his powers.

White Terrorsaurus II

Later in the episode "Fighting Spirit", the evil clone of the White Ranger creates a new and improved version of his White Terrorsaurus called the White Terrorsaurus II. Elsa then uses a crystal that has the same energy as the Dino Gems to feed to him, giving him even more power than ever before. He then attacked the people around the city. The Red Ranger in his Raptor Cycle came in and tryed to battle this monster, but the White Terrorsaurus was to strong, the Yellow and Blue Rangers came in to aid the Red Ranger, but the Monster was still too much, even when the real White Ranger came into battle the White Terrorsaurus was still able to beat them sensless, When Conner, Ethan, Kira, and Trent morph to stop his attack on the city, the White Terrorsaurus uses his newfound power to absorb the Rangers' powers. With the Rangers out of battle, the monster escapes. The White Terrorsaurus then returned and wrecked havoc on the city. Left defenseless and wiling to save the city, the Rangers desisted to challenge the White Terrorsaurus II, but to no avail. The monster gave them a beat down and was about to make the final strike on the Rangers, That is until Tommy returns from a coma (by passing a test that had been given to him by three of his past three Ranger forms), kicks the monster aside and morphs into the Black Ranger. The Black Ranger uses Super Dino Mode and his Brachio Staff to destroy the White Terrorsaurus and releases the stolen Ranger powers. The White Terrorsaurus wasn't finished yet however and grew giant size. The Power Rangers formed the Thundersaurus Megazord to take on the White Terrorsaurus, although it was too powerful at first, but when the Rangers unleashed the power of Super Dino Mode, they are able to find the strength they needed to power up the Megazord. No matter how much he tried, the White Terrorsaurus was no match and is destroyed once and for all by the Thundersaurus Megazord's Dino Drill Attack.

Personality

His personality is the same as before if slightly more arrogant than last time due to the power boost.

---

Connor McKnight: White Terrorsaurus!

Nico: I remember him!

Me: Me too! He was the scariest monster that Mesogog created. He was sent to destroy the city and the rangers.

White Terrorsaurus: That's right. It has been a while hasn't it rangers.

Kira Ford: You are a disgusting monster.

Loki, Common Cold and Dark Spicer and the Springfield Mafia were with them!

Me: I figured you three would be here.

Dark Spicer: (To the Saturday's) Here's your warning: Your fucking asses are going to be kicked.

Me: Not if we kick your asses first.

Komodo: Apologies, Team Loud Phoenix Storm. But you all have reached the end of your quest.

Nico: You're right. I'm ending you Mondays right now. Lola, Lori, Lynn. Give me the magic skulls.

Nico reached for the skulls but Lori used a gust of wind to push him back. Then Lola made a line of fire that blocked our path.

Nico: Girls?

May: What are you doing?

Maria: Don't do this, guys. We're your friends.

Lola: Friends? Since when?

Drew Monday: They don't have friends. But they do have partners.

Doc Monday: So, what do you say? Partners?

May: Lola, you, Lori, and Lynn are better then this!

Zak Monday: No, actually, you're not. They may pretend to believe in you so that they can use you. But they'll just as soon let you die - same as they nearly did Spicer and Mcgee during the war with the Anti Fairies! (to Lynn) And let's not forget that Chan broke your arm before. Who know what else he could do?

Me: (In my head) Excellent, our plan is working perfectly.

Lynn: C'mon, Lincoln. Having these powers was fun and all. But with the magic skulls, we can have our normal lives back and not have to worry about villains or any of our own friends hurting us. You sure you don't want in?

Lincoln: Sorry, Lynn. I'm sticking with all of our friends.

Nico: (Lori, Lynn, and Lola walk over to the bad guys) Ben, go Big Chill and use your ice breath to stop them!

White Terrorsaurus: He does and I'll gladly kill the rest of you!

Me: FUCK YOU YOU FREAK!

Drew Monday: Either way, we get the Magic Skulls and the Atmospheric Beasts.

Zak Monday: And we're gonna use the skulls to make all kinds of fun changes to the universe, won't we?

Lori: (to Qin) Come with us, Qin. With the Magic Skulls, we can make sure you have your family back.

Qin: Sorry, but unlike you guys, I don't turn my back on my friends!

Me: That's right!

Darkspeed: I've gotta say. I wasn't expecting this outcome at all.

Drew Saturday: If you think we're going to let you walk out of here-

Loki: (sighs) Sorry, guys. But I guess we win this round.

Darkspeed then whisks the Springfield Mafia, White Terrorsaurus, and the Mondays away. Leaving Lori, Lynn, and Lola.

Common Cold: (laughs) Catch you later! (Darkspeed whisks him away)

Darkspeed then whisks the Springfield Mafia, White Terrorsaurus, and the Mondays away. Leaving Lori, Lynn, and Lola.

Lola: (looks at Lincoln with determination) We're going to fix this, Lincoln. We promise!

They were off.

Vert: We never should've set foot out in there!

Zak: We didn't have a choice.

Arkayna: That's not true. There was a choice, and we made the wrong one.

Dante Vale: And now the Atmospheric Beasts and the magic skulls are in the hands of a family of psychopaths.

Maria: Don't forget Lori, Lynn, Lola, and the Masters of Evil.

Aerrow: No kidding. I know the Masters of Evil don't do anything bad with the magic skulls. But we trusted Lori, Lynn, and Lola and they stabbed us in the back!

Lincoln: Lori, Lynn, and Lola didn't betray us.

Zick: Uh, were you somewhere else when it all went down?! They helped the Mondays get the Atmospheric Beasts and the magic skulls! They gave it to them!

Lincoln: They spoke to me right before it happened. The four of us knew that it was only a matter of time before a few villains went after the magic skulls. And when we found out about the Mondays, we knew they would try to turn some of us over to their side. The Mondays knew that me or J.D. wouldn't leave you all so easily. But Lori, Lynn, and Lola were known as the Trinity of Violence. And they have a bad habit of getting violent and clashing with you guys sometimes. The Mondays would believe them deciding that they wanted out of the team.

Yusei: So, they've gone undercover. They're trying to steal the magic skulls and the atmospheric beasts from right under the Mondays' noses.

Lincoln: Exactly.

Me: That's right. It was all Lincoln's plan. When I first moved to Michigan in 2016, Lincoln was known as "The Man With the Plan" and he had to cope with living it hard with 11 sisters. It was hard. But he lived through it.

Nico: Well, Zak Monday wasn't entirely wrong. Sometimes, we have a bad habit of treating Lori, Lynn, and Lola badly all because of how violent they were. (to Eddy and Spicer) And while we're talking about the treatment of teammates. Eddy, Jack, we're sorry that we almost left you to die at Anti Cosmo's hands.

Eddy: No worries man.

Jack Spicer: It was awful but I have forgiven you.

Me: But now we have a chance to stop this. Lets get them.

* * *

Later in the central part of the fortress, Drew, Doc and Zak Monday, Lori, Lynn and Lola were in a ritual circle.

Vypra: I have to say, well done. I've heard of the accomplishments of you Mondays but this takes them to a whole new level.

Misty Tredwell: Truly masterful. Getting three of them to steal the Atmospheric Beasts and the Magic Skulls for us.

Zak Monday: Well, it's not like they were ever really one of them. Were you, girls?

Lynn: N-no. No, we weren't. Ever since the battle with Kahmunrah, they've been throwing crap at us.

Lori: Well, who needs them? We're better off without them!

Drew Monday: All we need to do is put our hands around the skulls and they'll activate.

Zak Monday: (to Lori, Lynn, and Lola) You girls with us?

Lori: I think you all know our answer.

Vypra: (smirks knowingly) Oh, I think we do.

Lori throws several smoke pellets to the ground and the released knock out gas rendered the bad guys unconscious.

Lola: You know when we get back, the others are going to scold us.

Lynn: It's worth it. Now, let's get the Atmospheric Beasts and the Skulls out of here before they wake up!

But they were stopped by Komodo!

Komodo Monday: I have to admit. I didn't expect you three to pull of a plan like that. Subtlety and deception aren't reputed to be your style. There was just one thing you didn't count on: I'm a Cryptid. So the effects of human weapons are less effective on me.

A few minutes later, Lori, Lynn, and Lola were chained to the wall.

Drew Monday: Sorry these aren't comfortable. But we can't let you guys interrupt this moment. Again.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM

A massive fiery explosion blasted a hole through the door of the central part of the fortress and a phoenix cry was heard and we came in.

Komodo Monday: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! You're all just in time to see us create a world where the villains rule!

The Masters of Evil all exchanged uneasy looks at this.

Me: You're forgetting one thing Komodo.

Nico: There's one thing you didn't count on.

Drew Monday: And what's that?

Me: The skulls you have are just ordinary rocks! Release!

A genjutsu lifted and we saw that the "Skulls" were ordinary rocks.

Drew Monday: We were tricked!

Lori slashed the chains and broke out with a Tibetan Fire Sword.

Lori: Thanks for the weapons suckers!

The Mondays saw that they were duped and their weapons were stolen from them!

Lori, Lynn and Lola went back to us.

Me: Well done girls! Sorry Mondays, but your plans are never gonna happen! Ready Phoenix?

Phoenix: (Through my eyes) Lets take them down!

I flared up my power and in a massive blast of fire I transformed and I was in my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix form!

Me: (Divine Fiery Voice) Your crimes will never be forgiven Monday's.

Vypra: White Terrorsaurus, Loki, Common Cold, and the Springfield Mafia will have their usual battles with you. After that, we'll help you guys against the Mondays.

Me: Thanks Vypra. Lets take these monsters down for good.

Troy: When we get back home, we're gonna have a long talk about you three not telling us that plan of yours.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dino Charge!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dino Charge Rangers!

We went at them.

---

We regrouped and we were setting our sights on the Mondays.

She screamed in excruciating agony as she was being electrocuted. Drew Monday was killed in an instant and she was reduced to a pile of ashes in an instant!

Lincoln: Enjoy the fire of hell you bitch!

Doc Saturday: I think the Magic Skulls should be put in the vault.

Me: We plan to do that.

Loki: I never believed for a second that you all would join the Mondays.

Lori: What gave it away?

Common Cold: Your dark sides are still in prison, aren't they?

Lola: I guess that's true.

Fat Tony: We should be going now. Meanwhile, you three have a lot of explaining to do about your supposed betrayal.

Carly Carmine: See you around guys.

The Masters of Evil teleported out.

Then we heard beeping.

Me: Uh oh.

We went over to the Monday's and we saw that they all had Antimatter Bombs strapped to them and we had 5 minutes left on the timers!

Me: Antimatter Bombs! I thought these were theoretical!

Nico: We don't have time to defuse them! Lets get out of here!

I put the ship on a course for space and we went to the Saturday's ship and we got off the Monday's fortress and flew out of there.

5… 4… 3… 2… 1… 0

We got back to land just in time as the shockwave hit us and I had a powerful forcefield over the ship and we felt its enormous power! We were being blown around like ragdolls caught in a massive storm and when the explosion faded we saw the huge explosion.

Me: Whoa!

Laney: What power!

Nico: Unbelievable!

Ben: That was incredible!

Later we were back home and the Atmospheric Beasts were safe.

Homer: WHY YOU LITTLE!

Bart: WHY YOU LITTLE!

Lisa Simpson: WHY YOU LITTLE!

Homer strangled Lori.

Homer: I'll teach you to betray us!

Bart strangled Lynn.

Bart: I'll teach you to betray us!

Lisa Simpson strangled Lola.

Lisa Simpson: I'll teach you to betray us!

Nico: Homer, Bart, Lisa! Let them go!

Nico bashed them on their heads with a frying pan!

Lola: (To the viewers) Never betray the team even if it's fake or there will be consequences.

Lori: Yep.

We put the Magic Skulls in the vault.

THE END

---

Another awesome Secret Saturday's chapter done.

This was a very intense one. But I am never doing a fake betrayal scene ever again. The Atmospheric Beasts were the strangest creatures I have ever seen. The movie Altitude is centered around them and that is really creepy. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. The Next Secret Saturdays chapter is gonna center around finding the legendary Kraken from Scandinavian Folklore and we're gonna be in for one amazing adventure when we see it. Next up is the 4th Storm Hawks chapter and we're going to find the evil former Cyclonian violinist Ravess and we're going to throw her in prison forever.

Revenge of the Cyclonian Violinist

At the estate, there was a feeling of sadness in the air. Lori, Lynn and Lola were crying uncontrollably after the fake betrayal was a success.

Lori was crying and she had mascara and makeup dripping down her face and she was being comforted by Bobby and her kids.

Bobby: Babe it's gonna be okay.

Lori: (Crying) No it's not Boo-Boo-Bear! I feel like I threw away my love for you with that false betrayal! I'm so sorry!

Bobby: It was not a real betrayal Lori. Lincoln said it was all part of his plan and I'm proud of bro for helping you.

Roxy: Yeah mommy it was all part of his plan.

Ramon: Uncle Lincoln came through for you.

Lydia: That's right. It's not your fault.

Linda: That's right mommy. You literally did a performance worthy of an Oscar.

Lexi: Yeah!

Lori: Really?

Libby: You sure did.

Lori: (Sniffles) Thanks guys.

Lori hugged her kids.

In Lynn's room, Lynn was punching her punching bag to relieve her anger and Lightning was there consoling her.

Lightning: Lynn I know you're upset about the fake betrayal, but your little brother helped you plan it for the mission. You did it to save the world.

Lynn: (Grunts) I know Lightning but the false betrayal felt so real and it hurts my chest.

Lightning: I know but it wasn't a real betrayal. You helped save the world and you all did a great deal to help out. So in a way you should be very proud of what you did.

Lynn: Really?

Lightning: Really Lynn and you are a great hero and the most awesome girlfriend I know.

Lynn: Thanks Lightning.

In Lola's room, she was crying and Winston was comforting her.

Winston: Lola it's gonna be all right.

Lola: (Crying hard) It's not gonna be all right Winston! I hurt my family with that false betrayal!

Winston: I know Lola but you had to do it to destroy the Monday's and you saved the world as a result.

Lola: But it still hurts me so much!

Winston: I know but it was all part of Lincoln's plan for you girls. You did a great job and saved the world.

Lola: Really?

Winston: Sure. You saved the world and I couldn't be anymore prouder for you.

Lola: (Sniffles) Thank you Winston.

Winston: Anytime Lols.

---

Later we were flying over the ocean as we were on our way to Valencia Island to the home of Professor Philena Ivy. She was located in the Philippines and Professor Ivy is a really beautiful and a really voluptuous woman from what we were told.

---

Ash and Misty allowed Brock to study under Professor Ivy while they went on another Pokémon adventure through the Orange Islands. Over the time of Brock's absence, his character was replaced with Tracey Sketchit, a Pokémon artist and watcher. Tracey traveled with the team through the Orange League saga. Brock returned after Ash won the Orange League and said that he wanted to join the group again. Ash and Misty asked why he had left Professor Ivy, but once they did, Brock curled up into a ball and said "Don't mention that name…" This was a running gag throughout the next few episodes. It was never determined why he left her, but it can only be assumed that she rejected him and broke his heart like many of the other girls Brock has developed a crush on, though she may have done it more harshly than others.

---

Brock was shaking in fear because we were going to see Professor Ivy.

Lucy (Pokemon): (Rubs Brock's back and comforts him) It's gonna be fine Brock. I'm with you and will protect you.

Brock: Thanks Lucy.

Me: It's gonna be really cool to meet Professor Ivy. I heard so much about her.

Ash: She is a beautiful woman though.

Serena: She sure sounds like it.

Mewtwo: It would be nice to meet another Pokemon Professor.

Me: It sure would Mewtwo.

Laney: This is gonna be interesting.

We arrived at Valencia Island. It was beautiful.

Me: So this is Valencia Island. It's beautiful.

Brock: It sure is.

Laney: It sure is beautiful.

Ash: I know where her lab is. Follow me.

We followed Ash and we arrived at her lab and we saw that it was a beautiful white house.

Ash: Here we are.

We went in.

Me: Wow. Her house is beautiful.

Laney: It sure is.

Varie: And it has an incredible view of the ocean.

Nico: It sure does. I didn't think it would be this beautiful.

Lincoln: Me neither.

Then a trap door opened from the floor and we saw Professor Ivy's assistants. Triplet girls named Faith, Hope and Charity.

Hope: Oh wow!

Faith: Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Charity: It's an honor to meet all of you.

Me: Same to you three.

Ash: Faith, Hope and Charity it's been a while.

Faith: Ash it has been a while.

Me: You three are named after the holy trinity: Faith, Hope and Charity.

Charity: Pretty powerful huh?

Me: Yep. Do you three know where Professor Ivy is?

Hope: If you're looking for the Professor,

Faith: She's over in the bay.

Faith, Hope and Charity: Training the pokemon.

They lead us to the bay and it was beautiful.

Me: Beautiful bay.

We then saw a Gyarados, a Cloyster and a Polywhirl and with them was a beautiful woman with plum purple hair in a voluptuous swimsuit. It was professor Philina Ivy.

Liu Kang: Excuse me. Are you Professor Ivy?

Professor Ivy: Yes I am.

Me: Hello professor. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Professor Ivy: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet all of you.

Me: Same to you professor. We have heard a lot of good things about you.

Lincoln: Wow when Ash said you were beautiful, he wasn't kidding.

Professor Ivy blushed.

Professor Ivy: So what can I do for you all?

Me: Well we came to talk to you about something that happened between you and Brock a while back. We don't know the full extent of the story but something happened between the two of you that scarred Brock for life.

Professor Ivy: I see.

Me: I apologize if we're making you uncomfortable but it's something that we're concerned about.

Professor Ivy: Okay.

Lightspeed: What exactly did you say to Brock?

Professor Ivy: I really don't think-

Nico: C'mon! I want to hear it out in the open. I'm sure it's not that bad.

Professor Ivy's face turned atomic bright red and we knew that it was something too extreme.

Professor Ivy: Okay the reason Brock is like that is because I wanted to have children with him. So I asked him if I could have sex with him.

We gasped and some of our faces turned green and we threw up all over the place. Me, Nico and Vince had blood dripping from our noses and some of us were laughing.

Me: Oh man. Brock is not ready for something like that!

Brock: I know. I was half of Professor Ivy's age.

Me: Wow.

Crumplezone: (laughs) Are you happy you asked, Nico?

Nico: Yes.

Professor Ivy: And I'm so sorry I scarred you for life Brock. I didn't mean to do that to you.

Brock: It's all right Professor. I've forgiven you.

Professor Ivy: Thank you Brock.

Brock: Besides, I have an amazingly awesome girlfriend and she is with me now.

Lucy came up.

Lucy (Pokemon): I'm Lucy and I'm from the Hoenn Region Battle Frontier.

Professor Ivy: It's an honor to meet you.

Me: I apologize if we made you bring that up Professor but we were just concerned for Brock.

Professor Ivy: I understand. I see you all have Team Rocket with you.

Jessie (Pokemon): We're not with Team Rocket anymore.

Me: We destroyed all of Team Rocket to make sure they never terrorize the world of Pokemon ever again. Also you will not believe who their boss was.

Professor Ivy: And who is that?

Me: He was Giovanni, the Viridian City Gym Leader.

Professor Ivy: Oh man.

Laney: Yeah. Ash and his friends were looking at him the whole time without even realizing it.

We had a nice talk about our adventures with the professor and it was amazing.

---

Later the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying over the lands of Atmos.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2841.5: We are flying through the skies of Atmos because we got word of a disturbance in the skies near Terra Nostrus and we are on our way with the Storm Hawks to investigate.

Nico: What do you think is gonna happen when we get there?

Me: We'll find out.

Laney: This is gonna be interesting.

Aerrow: It sure is.

Piper (Storm Hawks): I have a feeling that we're gonna be facing the Cyclonians at Terra Nostrus.

Me: Yep.

Lana then picked up something on the radar.

Lana: J.D. I have numerous Cyclonian Signatures 500 kilometers ahead of us!

Lisa Loud: Scans show that there are over 500,000 signatures.

Me: On screen.

The view screen came on and it showed a massive army of Cyclonians up ahead and they had huge ships in their arsenal.

Me: Red Alert! Man your Battlestations!

The alarms sounded and we were ready for battle!

Me: Man your ships everyone! Any children with the Cyclonians, capture them.

Lincoln: Lets get them!

Me: Nathaniel, you have the con.

Nathaniel: Acknowledged Grandpa.

Me: Lock S-Foils in attack Position.

We had our ships ready for battle.

Me: May the Force be With us.

We were ready for battle.

Me: This is it boys.

?: So you've all come to fight us.

Piper (Storm Hawks): Its been a while since we saw you Ravess.

We saw a woman with purple hair and it was RAVESS!

---

Ravess is an uptight, perfectionist, prone to fits of rage if her orders are not adhered to precisely. She is a skilled flyer, a champion archer much like Finn, and a wicked violinist. Presiding over the conquered terra of Bluster, Ravess sends chills through the hearts of all who enter her airspace. Ravess is the older sister of Snipe.

Information

Ravess tends to try to make everything beautiful, one example is shown by the fact that she always brings a soldier under her command and makes him play her theme music on a violin in midair as well as her trying to mimic playing a violin with her weapon.

In battle, Ravess uses her crystal-enhanced energy bow and crystal-tipped arrows to take down targets from great distances. The crystal-enhanced bow allows her to fire at speeds and distances normally considered impossible, while the arrows are strong enough to grind through Finn's equivalent versions without losing momentum. Whilst not as deadly as her brother in melee combat, she is still very skilled, capable of matching Starling during their brief duel.

While she is several times smarter than her brother, Snipe, she has proven to be just as incompetent, evident whenever she is put in command of something. She will abuse the new authority and change and improvise the current plan, thinking that her ideas are better, regardless of who they came from (even Master Cyclonis) and will never admit when she is wrong. It is also shown that when someone under her command has disobeyed her or outright refused her orders, she will either kill, imprison, or humiliate them or all at once. Although that last part may just stem from her sibling rivalry with her brother, Snipe.

Ravess is only loyal to Master Cyclonis through fear and has no shame in groveling at her feet if it means she will gain more power in some way, but while not in MC's presence, Ravess thinks of MC as an arrogant child who does not know how to run an empire, while refusing to acknowledge that she is much worse at it than Master Cyclonis.

In the episode "Power Grab", she was left in charge of Cyclonia while Master Cyclonis went to Tropica to retrieve the doorway to the far side. After failing to run properly (Snipe, Repton and Lugey all held charge at one point) she was banished. She was last seen giving the Storm Hawks advice in "The Ultra Dudes" about the doorway when they went back to Tropica.

Me: Ravess? Weren't you banished from Cyclonia after you failed to keep the fort down after you were placed in charge?

Ravess: That's right J.D.

Ravess played on her violin a very sad song.

Maria: That's a really nice violin you have.

Ravess: Why, thank you.

Eddy: Once we defeat you, we'll let you keep it on your cell. You might even be able to give Ed some lessons in there.

Ravess: (smirks) And what makes you think you'll be able to defeat me? I'm not like those idiots Repton, Carver, or those Murk Raiders.

Me: We'll see about that. Lets get them.

We went at the Cyclonians and fired laser blasts and energy waves at them and blew a bunch of them apart.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Peter the Great, Peter I or Pyotr Alekseevich; 9 June [O.S. 30 May] 1672 - 8 February [O.S. 28 January] 1725) ruled the Tsardom of Russia and later the Russian Empire from 7 May [O.S. 27 April] 1682 until his death in 1725, jointly ruling before 1696 with his elder half-brother, Ivan V. Through a number of successful wars, he expanded the Tsardom into a much larger empire that became a major European power and also laid the groundwork for the Russian navy after capturing ports at Azov and the Baltic Sea. He led a cultural revolution that replaced some of the traditionalist and medieval social and political systems with ones that were modern, scientific, Westernised and based on the Enlightenment. Peter's reforms had a lasting impact on Russia, and many institutions of the Russian government trace their origins to his reign. He is also known for founding and developing the city of Saint Petersburg, which remained the capital of Russia until 1917.

Tyler recovered from the virus with the help of James and joined the fight against Ninja while Hunter retreated. Tyler used the purified T-Rex Super Charge to fight Ninja and defeat him. Upon Ninja being enlarged by the Magna Beam, the Plesio Charge Megazord Pachy-Rex Formation is formed as it destroyed Ninja with the Galactic Blast.

Nico: Well, (takes a deep breath) she asked Brock if he wanted to have sex with her.

Skinner, Koragg, and Kalin were shocked by this and Carly laughed.

Koragg: I see.

Kalin: I think I'm gonna be sick. (vomits)

Me: EEWWWWW!

Skinner: You know what? I think the three of us will be heading back to the hideout.

Koragg: For the next twenty years or something.

Me: Maybe not that long.

The Masters of Evil teleported out.

Ravess: I don't care what you do with Snipe. But if you do arrest him, can you put him in a seperate cell? I do not want him annoying me!

Piper (Storm Hawks): We'll see what we can do.

Me: But we can't make any promises that he will either be alive or dead.

Ravess: I know. Now, can you please take me to jail? I would like to clear my mind of what I just heard from you.

Irma: Yeah, sorry about that.

We beamed Ravess to the Neptune Prison and in her cell, she was curled up in a ball in a state of terror. Sarah Gunnerson took Ravess's bow and arrow weapons as another of her weapon of choice.

Me: I think you guys might've damaged her.

We all laughed.

Carly Carmine: That was funny though.

Jack Atlas: It was.

Piper (Storm Hawks): (To the viewers) Another set of Cyclonians and another one of our enemies defeated. Now we have Snipe to deal with.

Me: Yep. And he will be in the same prison as Ravess but in a higher level of security.

Nico: We only have 2 more enemies to go after before we take down Master Cyclonis.

Me: Yep. And when that time comes, Cyclonis better be ready to face us with everything she has. It's not gonna be pretty.

My eyes glowed red with righteous fury.

THE END

---

The 4th Storm Hawks chapter is done.

Ravess may have beauty, but she is evil to the core. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Surfs Up Dudes! Next we're gonna take down the evil surfer Frankie Dude from Totally Spies in an awesome battle that will shred the waves in Hawaii!

See you all tomorrow

Surfs Up with Frankie Dude

At the Chaotic Central Hub, we were there to watch Nico and May duke it out against Tom Majors and Sarah Gunnerson. This was gonna be so cool as we were gonna see them battle as Chaotic Monsters.

Roxas: This is my first time watching a Chaotic match.

Me: It's a first for all of us Roxas.

Peyton: This is gonna be cool seeing Nico and May face Sarah and Tom.

Laney: It sure is. I can't wait to see how this turns out.

Lincoln: Me too.

Me: Here we go guys.

We saw on the tv that Nico was turned into Enre Hep and May turned into Frafdo and we saw Tom turned into Maxxor and we saw Sarah turn into Tamikom.

Flora: I thought Sarah used mostly Danians.

Me: She does. But we told her to diversify her creatures.

Lori Jimenez: We told her that to keep her enemies guessing we have to use a variety of techniques and creatures to show that she is not that predictable.

Kaz: That's a good strategy.

Naruto: Yep. We have known about it for yeahs.

They were fighting in Ravenaugh Ridge and Nico fired blasts of energy at Tamikom and she dodged them and fired blasts of fire at Frafdo and May dodged them and fired energy blasts at Tamikom and they hit her and exploded! Tamikom was disintegrated.

Me: Whoa!

Thrust: You can do it, Nico!

Me: This is it guys.

Strafe: Nico's using Mugic!

He used Trills of Diminution and Maxxor lost his powers and abilities and Enre Hep blasted him and disintegrated Maxxor.

Nico and May won!

We cheered wildly for them!

Me: That was awesome!

Vince: Not bad for their first time!

Carol: That was really well done!

They came out and we cheered wildly for them.

Me: Way to go guys!

Nico: That was so cool!

May: It sure was. You did really well for your first time Nico.

Nico: Thanks May.

Lana: That was awesome though.

Lisa Loud: Indeed. A most entertaining battle.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Me: So how did it feel battling as Chaotic Creatures?

Nico: Amazing! It's like I was one with the world of Perim.

Lincoln: That is so cool!

Ash: It sure is.

But then the floor opened up underneath us and we were heading down a slide!

Stacy Bolton: We haven't had this happen to us in a while!

Me: No kidding!

Sam Simpson: Yeah!

Nico: WHHHEEEEE!

May: I forgot how much fun this is!

The WOOHP entrance dropped us off in an elevator.

William: An elevator? This is new.

Me: It sure is.

As the elevator was going to Jerry's office, we passed by some WOOHP agents.

Nico: Hey, guys. Working hard or hardly working?

WOOHP Agent 1: Working really hard.

We got to Jerry's office. We entered Jerry's office. The lights are off and everything is black.

Jerry: Shh! Quiet, Glados! They're coming!

The lights come on, revealing the room filled with balloons.

Jerry and GLADOS: Surprise!

GLADOS: Alright!

Me: Whoa!

Jerry: Happy 1000th mission, girls! (blows into kazoo)

Clover: Wow! 1000th Mission!?

Laney: Wow! That's a lot of missions.

Me: No kidding.

Jerry: Sorry we haven't seen each other in a while J.D.

Me: No worries Jerry. But you know how busy we are with saving the planet.

Jerry: I understand. And guys, I am so sorry about your loss at the hands of Thanos.

Me: We appreciate that Jerry.

Jerry: Yes. I see that you all have expanded since your last mission.

Me: Yes we have. We have expanded our forces quite significantly.

Zarya: We sure have.

Nico: Yep.

Jerry: I see.

Kim Possible: So what's the sitch?

Jerry: Right. I'm afraid we found out that Frankie Dude escaped from prison.

Me: Who is Frankie Dude?

Clover: He is a really rad surfer J.D.

Clover went over his history.

---

Frankie Dude appears in "I, Dude". He is an ex-surfer who once was a big time pro. In an accident he hit his foot on the pier of a newly built resort and ended up losing his pinky toe entirely. He sought revenge by using tsunamis to destroy beach resorts and restore the surfing areas. In the end, he was stopped by the spies and captured.

---

We gasped in shock!

Lola: He lost his pinky toe in an accident!?

Laney: Yikes!

Me: Ouch! That must've hurt.

Sam Simpson: It did. He was gonna use tsunami's to destroy beach resorts to restore surfing areas.

Nico: That's insane! Tsunami's will kill thousands of innocent people with it!

Me: It sure will. We'll take the case and return him to prison. After killing Violet Vanderfleet, we're not going to kill Frankie. But if we find a worse villain, their death will be assured.

Jerry: Understood. He is last reported being seen in Hawaii.

Me: Then it looks like we're headed to paradise.

We got our gadgets and we were off to the Aloha State!

---

HONOLULU, HAWAII

---

We were over in the capital city of Hawaii on the island of Oahu. With us was Gozcalmoc, a Skink from the Lizardmen faction. He wears blue, yellow, and red feathers, has red paint between his eyes and cheeks. A Aztecan style mask on his head. And carries a golden, bronze spear, with markings of the Lizardmen.

Me: We're back in Honolulu.

Lincoln: Paradise.

Gozcalmoc: It sure is beautiful here. I wouldn't mind coming here for some R&R.

Me: It's beautiful.

Laney: I love coming to Hawaii.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Me too.

Kanaloa: (Hawaiian Accent) It feels great to be back home in Hawaii.

Lana: It's beautiful here. I remember when we first came here.

Me: Me too.

Then the Tsunami Siren sounded.

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the beach and we saw a huge 50 foot tsunami coming towards the island.

Me: WHOA! Not on my watch!

I formed a huge barrier of energy and the wave hit it and the island was saved.

Me: That was a close one.

Everyone cheered for us.

Me: You're welcome folks.

We saw that a lot of people had their surfboards with them and they had flags with them.

Me: Wow you guys are ready to surf. Is the Big Kahuna of Hawaii contest back on again?

Local: Nope. We're gonna try to become surfing legends. An extremely rare event is coming to Hawaii.

Local girl: Humungadunga is coming.

Brock: Humungadunga!?

Local girl: It's a huge wave that hits the island only once every 20 years.

Local Man: We're trying to stick our flags on top of that rock out there.

We saw a huge pointy rock that stuck out of the water like a sore thumb and it had many flags stuck into it all over and only 2 of them were on the very top.

Me: Wow. That must be one incredible wave.

Ash: I remember that!

Me: Really Ash?

Ash: Yep. We were there to witness it. I was training for the Indigo Pokemon League back then. A lot of people wanted to be just like Jan and our friend Victor. Over 40 years ago, Jan was the greatest and best surfer of them all and Jan stuck his flag up on top of the rock 40 years ago. He was the first surfer ever to successfully stick his flag on the very top of that rock and become a surfing legend. For 40 years no one else did the same thing and ever since, surfers from all over the planet wanted to be like Jan.

Me: Whoa!

I pulled out my binoculars and I saw a pink flag that was worn out a bit with a letter J on it and there was a green flag with a yellow stripe and it had the letter V on it.

Me: Wow! That is amazing. Who has the flag with the V on it?

Misty: That's the flag of our friend Victor.

Ash: He has a Pikachu that he named Puka and he had a mysterious power that enabled him to feel the waves.

Me: That's REALLY mysterious.

Nico: No kidding but that is so cool!

Lincoln: Maybe I can do it too.

Laney: Go for it Lincoln!

Lana: Yeah go for it!

Lincoln used his powers and he made an Orange Flag with his Initials L.L. over a Thunderbird Symbol.

Me: This is gonna be so cool seeing a really rare wave like this.

Lily: It sure is.

Sam Simpson: Yeah!

Gabrielle: (British Accent) I can't wait to see if Lincoln does it.

Ash: Lets go find Victor. We'll show you where he lives.

Me: Okay.

We went to Victor's house. We got to his house and we met Victor.

Ash: Hey Victor.

Victor: Ash Ketchum, Misty, Brock. It's great to see you all again.

Misty: Same to you.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Victor.

Victor: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same to you. We saw your flag on the very top of the rock.

Victor: Yep. That flag is mine next to my hero Jan. I became the second person to successfully plant a flag on top of the rock next to my hero Jan. Jan became the first to ever plant his flag on top of the rock over 40 years ago.

Me: Wow. Humungadunga must be really big for a rare wave.

Victor: It is.

Lincoln: I want to try it myself. I want to be the third person ever to place a flag on the rock.

Me: We got word that Humungadunga is coming and Lincoln wants to become the youngest ever to place a flag on top of that rock.

Laney: Yep. That's our brother.

Victor: You definitely have it in you Lincoln. You can do it.

Lincoln: Thanks Victor.

Me: How big exactly is Humungadunga?

Victor: It's a big wave at 300 feet high.

We gasped in sheer amazement!

Me: 300 Feet!?

Sakura Haruno: That's a Megatsunami!

Naruto: That is gigantic!

Luna Loud: Unbelievable dudes.

Lori: That wave must literally be incredible.

Varie: No kidding.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) That wave must be one amazing wave lads.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. It would be a big wave laddies.

Vince: This is gonna be a really rare wave to see.

Me: The largest wave ever surfed was over 80 feet. This shatters the record by a mile.

Leni: No kidding.

Liberty: But this is gonna be so cool to see Lincoln surf it.

Me: Lets not give him too much pressure guys.

Then we heard the Tsunami Siren sound again.

Me: Uh oh.

Lincoln: Is that Humungadunga?

Me: No that's Frankie Dude. Lets go!

We went to the beach and we saw another tsunami and I formed an energy barrier and stopped the wave from slamming into the shore.

Me: That was a close one.

Nico: Yep.

Then we saw a surfer dude with long blond hair and it was FRANKIE DUDE!

Me: Frankie Dude, I presume?

Frankie Dude: That's right dudes. It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You are a really skilled surfer. I can tell.

Frankie Dude: Thanks dude. Are you all also intimidated by my good looks.

He does a handsome pose and Nico punched him in the face and hurt his hand?

CLANG!

Nico: OWWWWWW!

Nico broke his hand!

Me: Whoa! You have incredibly good looks that are indestructible.

Frankie Dude: Thanks.

Lincoln: Always a pleasure to meet a rad surfer.

Frankie Dude: So you are the famous L-Dog that I have heard about. The famous Lincoln Loud, the Big Kahuna of Hawaii.

Lincoln: That's me.

Frankie Dude: Radical dude! It's an honor to meet you. What brings you all here?

Me: What else? To stop you from destroying the beach resorts.

Maria: (to Frankie Dude) You know what? After the previous enemy of the Spies we fought tried to kill all the men in the world, it's nice to know that your scheme doesn't involve destroying a certain gender.

Frankie Dude: Hey, I may want to destroy all beaches but I'm not sexist towards any gender!

Me: And if there's one thing we never tolerate it's sexist misogynistic freaks. But we're also here to witness history in the making.

Lincoln: Yep. I'm going to become the 3rd person ever to become a legend by surfing Humungadunga.

Me: Yep. After we have our battle with you of course. We won't be seeing an event like this again for 20 more years. This day will forever be remembered in Team Loud Phoenix Storm history.

Frankie Dude: Cool dude!

I saw his foot missing his left pinky toe.

Me: Geez that must've really hurt for you to lose your pinky toe like that.

Frankie Dude: Yeah it did. It was the most painful thing I've ever felt.

Nico: No shit.

Laney: Yeah.

Lily: Yikes.

Hydro Man, Carly Carmine and Jimbo, Dolph & Kearney showed up.

Me: I had a feeling you guys would show up.

Carly Carmine: So you all are here to stop Frankie?

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) More than that Carly. We're gonna see Lincoln become the third person to become a surfing legend.

Me: Yep. But lets not give him too much pressure.

Lincoln: Thanks guys. But I can handle it.

Spiderman: (to Hydro Man) I kinda expected you to show up, Hydro Man.

Hydro Man: What can I say? I fit right well here.

Me: The ocean is practically your second home Morris.

Hydro Man: Yeah I guess it is.

?: This will also be an event you will never forget either.

We then saw a figure come out and it was SLOTSKY from episode 4 of Mighty Morphin Alien Rangers!

---

Slotsky was originally a re-generator device made by Billy that was designed to restore the entire Ranger team. However, Goldar and the Tengas arrived and smashed it. Billy was the only one to regain his original age and the Ninja Power Coins (which were required to power the device) were destroyed by Rita Repulsa and Lord Zedd's lightning. Zedd then created Slotsky out of the device and gave him the mission of killing the Alien Rangers. He wielded a magnet that took the Rangers' weapons from them. He used this to steal away the Aquitian Lasers and use them against the team. However, they vanished and Aurico turned the tide with his Aquitian Fist. Finding Slotsky completely useless, Rita and Zedd made him grow so the Rangers summoned their Battle Borgs. Slotsky was easily overpowered and killed by their Launch Sequence, not requiring the Shogun Megazord to defeat him.

---

Delphine: (Alien Voice) Slotsky!

Slotsky: It has been a while Aquitar rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were originally a regenerator device made by Billy designed to restore the Power Rangers! But after Goldar and his Tengu's smashed it, it only restored Billy to his right age and the Ninja Power coins were destroyed with it. You stole the Aquitar Rangers Aquitian Lasers to use against them! But Aurico turned the tide against you!

Slotsky: That's right. You are really smart J.D. You really have watched us on TV.

Me: Like I always say to your friends, I never missed an episode. Be it on Netflix or on TV.

Slotsky: Nice to know we have some fans.

Slotsky just stole Cestro and Tideus' Aquitian Lasers with his magnet hand.

Slotsky: It's deja vu all over again!

He then used his magnet to steal the spies gadgets.

Slotsky: Now what will you do!?

Luna fired a wave of water and shorted him out and then she took the Aquitian Lasers and the gadgets back and gave them to them.

Cestro: Thanks Luna.

Luna Loud: No problem dude.

Me: Lets dance. Shall we?

Frankie Dude: Lets dude.

I snapped my fingers and we were on an island in the middle of the eye of a massive hurricane on an alien planet. The planet was called Tropicyclonia.

Isabel: Whoa! I know this planet! It's Tropicyclonia.

Lana: Wow! It's amazing!

Lincoln: We're in the middle of a hurricane's eye that never dies.

Me: Yep. Lets dance!

Nico: Frankie Dude, you have failed this world.

Lincoln: Here I go guys.

Lincoln went out onto the ocean and we then saw Puka glow a bright blue.

Me: Whoa.

Victor: This is it guys.

Jerry: We'll stay to watch.

We looked out on the horizon of the ocean and we saw a massive ginormous wave heading right at us! It was the big wave HUMUNGADUNGA! It was a massive 300 foot high wave of water!

Victor: That's it guys.

Me: Holy shit!

Laney: So that's Humungadunga!

Linka: It's massive!

The Tsunami Siren sounded and we got to high ground.

We then saw that Lincoln was surfing on top of the wave!

Nico: You said it.

They took Frankie away and he was put in the space prisons. In the Uranus Prison he was given the same lifestyle as John Corben.

Sam Simpson: (To the Viewers) We not only busted a bad guy but we got to witness Lincoln take his place in history as a surfing legend during a rare event and it was one of the most incredible events ever.

Me: We sure did Sam. And we won't be seeing an event like this happen again for 20 years.

We saw Lincoln's flag wave proudly with Victor and Jan's Flags and it was awesome! This showed that it is never too late to make your dream become a reality.

THE END

Another Awesome Totally Spies Chapter done.

Frankie Dude was an awesome surfer. And I based the idea for this one from the Pokemon episode The Pi-Kahuna. That episode aired in October of 1999 and it was perfect for this. It was 20 years and 8 months ago and it was perfect for this. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Next up is the ultimate test of strength as we duke it out against the Teen Titans enemy Atlas, who Cyborg really had trouble with in order to save his friends.

See you all tomorrow.

Brute Strength of Atlas

In the Living Room at the estate, Aqua was watching one of my favorite TV shows. She was watching Hanna Barbera's version of Godzilla. It was a great show.

Aqua: This is a good version of Godzilla.

Me: It sure is Aqua.

But then I saw Aqua starting to shrink.

Me: Aqua are you feeling all right?

Aqua: Yeah why?

Me: Because you're getting smaller.

Killer Frost: Aqua, are you shrinking right now?

Aqua: Huh?

She saw that she was indeed shrinking. She then felt herself getting younger and was retaining her knowledge from her experiences. We saw that she was 10-Years-Old again.

Me: Whoa.

Aqua: (Younger Voice) I feel like I am a kid again.

Me: You are a kid again Aqua.

I formed a mirror and showed her.

Aqua: Whoa! I AM a kid again!

Me: You sure are Aqua. I have always wondered what you looked like when you were a kid.

Laney: We all have.

Lana: You look amazing like this Aqua.

Sora: You sure do.

Jack Skellington: Aqua, how does it feel to be 10 years old again?

Aqua: It feels incredible!

Onslaught: Aqua, what was your childhood like?

Aqua: It was full of adventure and excitement and I was a very adventurous girl.

G1 Scattershot: I guess Sora's your big brother this morning.

We laughed.

Lisa Loud: Indeed.

Me: Lisa did you have something to do with this?

Lucy Loud: Actually that was me.

Me: You did this Lucy?

Lucy Loud: It was what Aqua wanted. She wanted to show us what it was like for her as a kid till dinner.

Me: Ah. That makes sense.

Sora: Looks like I'm your big brother till dinner Aqua.

Aqua: It sure looks like it Sora.

We laughed.

Nico: This is gonna be cool.

We went to the park and Aqua got to play on the playground and we had her play on the swing set and more. She was reliving her youth. It was a good time for her. We went to a pizza restaurant and Aqua loved it. Later we went to the arcade and it was so much fun for her. But then we saw Robin and the Teen Titans arrive and they had a look of panic on their faces.

Me: Robin, guys what's wrong?

Robin: It's Cyborg. He snuck off to face Atlas at the abandoned football stadium!

We gasped.

Me: Atlas? That robot that held 4 of you prisoner!?

Lola: Who is Atlas?

I pulled up his information on my arm computer.

---

Atlas is a minor villain in the Teen Titans television series. He resembles a giant robot with super strength and a nemeisis of Cyborg.

He was voiced by Keith David.

Teen Titans

Atlas first appeared after Cyborg defeated him in a video game. Then he burst out of the video game screen and declared a rematch with Cyborg. After Atlas defeated Cyborg, he kidnapped the other Teen Titans, along with his minion, Spike. Later on, Robin convinced Spike to leave Atlas after the robot mistreated the minion harshly. Cyborg came to the rescue and once again battled Atlas, and defeated him once and for all. When Atlas asked for repairs, Spike furiously resigned from his service by saying "Do it yourself!".

Atlas later returned as a minion of the Brotherhood of Evil headquarters. He was sent along with Adonis to fight and capture Pantha, but was defeated by her. He later returned in the final battle. He got one of his legs severed by Bushido and was not flash-frozen along with the other villains. What happened to him is unknown.

We gasped again.

Me: His main power is his incredible brute strength.

Maria: Is Cyborg nuts?! What's he thinking, sneaking off to fight Atlas by himself?!

Me: Probably has an old score to settle with him for putting the other titans in prisons.

Nico: That could be the case.

Robin: That's probably it. But he is also one of the allies of the Brotherhood of Evil.

Me: Now we can stop him once and for all. Lets get him!

?: (Japanese Accent) Let me help you all out.

We turned and we saw a Japanese kid with a samurai outfit and he had a deadly katana. It was Ryuko Orsono A.K.A. Bushido and he is one of the Teen Titans from Japan.

Me: Ryuko Orsono A.K.A. Bushido. (Kung Fu Bow) It's an honor to meet you.

Bushido: Same to you J.D. It's an honor to meet the very famous leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: I read that you are the one that cut off Atlas's leg during the war with the Brotherhood of Evil.

Bushido: You read right.

Me: You really left your mark on him. We appreciate you helping us to take Atlas down.

Bushido: Domo Knudson-san. Domo.

Me: Lets do it.

Robin: It's good to see you again Ryuko. We owe you one for helping us.

Bushido: I had to help out whenever Robin-san.

We were off to the abandoned Football Stadium.

---

At the abandoned football stadium, Cyborg was facing the big robot that he defeated before, ATLAS!

Cyborg: It's been a long time Atlas.

Atlas: That it has Cyborg. You are doing really well for a robot.

Cyborg: I'm not just a robot, I'm a person.

Atlas: So I have heard. You defeated me with honor and that shows that you are a truly worthy adversary to me.

Cyborg: Glad I have a worthy opponent. Shall we see who is now the better robot like before?

Atlas: Lets.

Cyborg and Atlas went at each other and Cyborg punched him in the face.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion exploded in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard and we appeared and I punched Atlas in the face and knocked him down. We landed by Cyborg!

Me: Cyborg let us help you defeat him.

Cyborg: No J.D. This is my fight.

Maria: Cyborg what the hell were you thinking!?

Nico: Yeah Cyborg. You are gonna get yourself killed if you face him alone!

Me: That's right Cyborg. Like it or not, this is all a team effort. We are all in this together like it or not. We fight together as one.

Cyborg: You're right.

Atlas: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I have heard many good things about you.

Me: You are a really amazing robot Atlas. And your voice sounds a lot like Goliath, Tublat, and Dr. Fuciliar.

Lori: That's right.

Goliath: It is very similar.

Atlas: Very good observation. And I see you have that runt with you that cut off my leg!

Bushido: You deserved it for hurting my friends.

Me: We're impressed that you managed to escape after the Brotherhood of Evil was defeated.

Atlas: I crawled away after they were defeated.

Me: Now we're going to finish you for good.

Atlas: Do you all think you can defeat me? I almost defeated Pantha with Adonis' help during the Brotherhood's attack on the Titans!

William: How exactly did Pantha defeat you two back then?

Atlas: She defeated us with incredible strength and escaped our capture of her.

Me: That's very clever.

Vanitas, Ebon and Selma & Patty appeared.

Me: Vanitas, Ebon and Selma & Patty.

Vanitas: This stadium actually reminds me of the Mirage Arena.

Spiderman: It does?

Vanitas: Of course! (to Aqua) You remember the Mirage Arena.

Right, Aqua?

Aqua: How can I forget.

Vanitas: Why do you look like a kid Aqua?

Aqua: I wanted to be a kid again. So Lucy made a spell for me to turn into a kid again till dinner.

Vanitas: Ah. That makes sense.

?: And it will be the last time she is a kid.

See you all tomorrow

Mystery of the Crimson Cloak

It starts in the middle of the city and we found out a very surprise revelation.

Rotwood: We still have one last trick up our sleeves! (reaches for Batman's cowl)

Batman: What are you doing?

It was too late. Rotwood grabs Batman's cowl and removed it to reveal Bruce Wayne's face.

Frown (laughs): Smile for the cameras, Batman. Or should I say, Bruce Wayne?

Everyone gasped!

Me: (To the viewers) You're probably wondering how this all went down. Well, to help you understand what happened lets rewind the clock back to earlier today.

Me: (In my head) That glow. It can't be!

I kicked him in the face and punched him in the face and Nico kicked him in the back and punched him in the mouth. He flew away and grabbed local professor Leo Scarlett and I flew after him and punched the Crimson Cloak in the face and grabbed Professor Scarlett.

Lincoln: Take this one! MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: RED SKULL!

Lincoln fired a wave of red energy and it formed into Captain America's archenemy Johann Schmidt A.K.A. RED SKULL!

---

Johann Schmidt, also known as the Red Skull and later the Stonekeeper, is a major antagonist in the Marvel Cinematic Universe. He served as the main antagonist of Captain America: The First Avenger, a mentioned antagonist in both Captain America: The Winter Soldier and Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D., and a minor character in both Avengers: Infinity War and Avengers: Endgame.

He was the leader of Nazi Organization HYDRA during World War II and planned to take over the world, using the powers of the Space Stone, in the form of the Tesseract. However, in his final battle with Captain America, he was seemingly vaporized by the Tesseract when he came in contact with it. Since then, HYDRA continued on to evolve in leadership and power without him.

Though believed to be nothing more than history, the Red Skull was in fact alive this whole time, in which he was teleported on the planet, Vormir, the location of the Soul Stone. Due to his abusive ambitions for power, however, the Soul Stone rejected him and instead he was cursed to become the guardian of the Soul Stone. The Red Skull remained on the planet for decades until he was approached by Thanos, who was able to the obtain the Soul Stone by sacrificing his daughter, Gamora. With the Soul Stone now off of Vormir and eventually destroyed, the Red Skull was freed from his curse, allowing him to pursue his own goals once more.

After Hal Jordan's return, it is revealed that he had a son who is also named Mongul (or Mongul II or Jr.) whom the latter arrives to earth to punish the planet for his father's failures. Confronted by Sinestro himself during the Blackest Night, he was bested and soon defeated by having his rings overriden and stabbed by Sinestro with yellow Javelin constructs.

When he broke loose he sighted Reed Richards, who had been trapped in the Negative Zone as well and followed him and Triton back to Earth. He fought with the Sandman and Reed Richard's group of superheroes, the Fantastic Four, but was driven back to the Negative Zone by Mister Fantastic. Over the following years Blastaar would repeatedly return to Earth to attempt to conquer it and fight the Fantastic Four many times, as well as the Avengers, Thor and other superheroes. Blastaar went into a coma at one point, but was revived by Professor Paxton Pentacost and became an unwilling servant of Pentacost. Blastaar was forced to battle the Human Torch and the Hulk. He was defeated and imprisoned in adamantium and sunk into the Atlantic Ocean. Blastaar was later freed from his adamantium prison, and battled the Inhumans. Blastaar later made his first alliance with Annihilus, another conqueror living in the Negative Zone. Blastaar utilized the Super-Adaptoid in an attempt to regain the throne of Baluur. Luna: Watch this one. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: ANNIHILUS!

Luna fired a wave of black energy and it formed into ANNIHILUS, THE LIVING DEATH THAT WALKS!

The being later known as Annihilus was born from an incident involving a Group of tyrannian explorers on the planet Arthros in the Negative Zone. The tyrannians were forced to release the experimental spores they carried with them on the planet in order to save themselves.

Centuries later, the spores formed an insectoid being, smart but pretty weak. Luckily, the creature used the technology of the tyrannians to survive and build an exoskeleton for himself as well as discovering the powerful artifact known as the Cosmic Control Rod.

The creature, named himself Annihilus, soon became obsessed with Death and survival and that every sentient being is out to kill him or steal the Cosmic Control Rod from him. Driven by his paranoia, Annihilus conquered planet Arthros and many other planets in the Negative Zone.

Encounters with the Fantastic Four and other heroes

Annihilus first encountered the Fantastic Four when they entered the Negative Zone seeking anti-particles needed to treat Sue's cosmic ray-related pregnancy complications. Annihilus's minions captured the heroes, but they escaped, stealing his Control Rod. They returned it after siphoning off the needed anti-particles and returned to Earth.

Annihilus was challenged by Janus the Nega-Man, a research scientist, who developed a module capable of harnessing antimatter energy within the Negative Zone. Annihilus defeated Janus, forcing the Nega-Man to lead him to Earth, but Janus was instead seemingly killed in the exploding atmosphere where matter meets antimatter. Annihilus nearly crossed over to Earth through one of Mister Fantastic's portals, but was driven back by the Avengers. Annihilus battled the Frightful Four, and once again attempted to escape the Negative Zone, but was foiled by Spider-Man and the Human Torch.

Sensing great power within Franklin Richards, Annihilus abducted him, along with the Fantastic Four, Medusa, Wyatt Wingfoot, and Agatha Harkness into the Negative Zone. He used a machine to prematurely release the child's full power potential, hoping to transfer the expended energies into himself. The Four defeated Annihilus and escaped back to Earth. Annihilus later allied with Mr Fantastic against the Mad Thinker.

Blastaar, a fellow Negative Zone villain and warlord, stole the Control Rod and left Annihilus to die. Desperate, Annihilus tried to escape to Earth. He was defeated by the Avengers and Fantastic Four before returning to the Negative Zone. He was revived by Blastaar and regained his Control Rod.

Annihilus attacked the dimension of Asgard, home of the Norse Gods, but was repelled by Odin. Annihilus later kidnapped a sleeping Odin, transporting him to the Negative Zone to steal his power. Annihilus was defeated by Thunderstrike.

Annihilation

Annihilus began leading the Annihilation Wave, an enormous fleet of Negative Zone battleships, ostensibly claiming to have the goal of conquering the universe. He claims that the universe is expanding into areas of the Negative Zone, making the universe now rightfully his territory. His forces destroy the Kyln, an intergalactic power station and maximum security prison, and the planet Xandar, headquarters of the Nova Corps. He allies with Thanos and two beings that were trapped in the Kyln by Galactus, Tenebrous, and Aegis. Tenebrous and Aegis defeat Galactus and the Silver Surfer, and the two are connected to a giant mechanism in Annihilus' starship. Annihilus' goal is actually creating a massive Power Cosmic bomb that will destroy the Universe and the Negative Zone, leaving Annihilus the only survivor. Thanos betrays Annihilus and Drax and the Silver Surfer manage to free Galactus, who destroys the Annihilation Wave. Nova battles and kills Annihilus. Annihilus was later reborn as an infant with all of the original's memories.

Annihilus Junior

During the War of Kings, the Negative Zone is invaded by Darkhawk and his ally Talon. They discover the infant Annihilus and his Cosmic Control Rod have been placed under the care of a lesser lord of the Negative Zone, Catastrophus. Catastrophus had been using the Cosmic Control Rod to stunt the development of the infant Annihilus, hoping to prolong his own rule. Talon slew Catastrophus and seized the Control Rod, before calling out to the infant Annihilus and asking it to remember in the future that he had spared the creature's life.

During a later incursion into the Negative Zone, Johnny Storm discovers that Annihilus's forces have been rebuilt to "pre-Crunch assault levels," but are currently embroiled in a struggle with Blastaar's forces. Central to that struggle is a city built from the remains of the Negative Zone Prison Alpha. The war is further complicated by the involvement of the Universal Inhumans.

The Human Torch dies stopping a horde of aliens from the Negative Zone. Later, when Reed Richards opens a window to the Negative Zone and menaces Annihilus with the Ultimate Nullifier, Annihilus in return brandishes Johnny's uniform to Reed.

Annihilus uses regenerative surgery to revive the Human Torch, turning him into a gladiator when he refuses to reopen the portal from the Negative Zone.

Annihilus is contacted by an alternative version of Reed Richards (one of the last survivors of the Council of Reeds) via the Cult of the Negative Zone, a religious movement worshiping Annihilus. As part of a plan to orchestrate an event known as the "War of Four Cities", Richards offers to open a massive portal between the Negative Zone and Earth, allowing the Annihilation Wave to pass through. Annihilus agrees, and sends forces to attack the Baxter Building and secure its Negative Zone gateway. Johnny Storm learns of the plan and enlists the Inhumans Light Brigade in an uprising, attacking Annihilus' forces as they prepare to cross over. With the aid of Light Brigade member Kal Blackbane, Johnny wrests the Cosmic Control Rod away from Annihilus, and takes control of the Annihilation Wave armada, using it to battle the Kree fleet as well as the Mad Celestials. Annihilus is captured and a leash is placed around his neck and he's forced to live in Peter Parker's apartment.

After a rebellion breaks out for free elections in the Negative Zone, Annihilus wins as a write-in candidate for new leader of the Negative Zone, with 14,980,336,901,214 votes for him.

The Infinity Revelation

It is later revealed that Annihilus is still trapped in a child form, and has been using a mechanized stand-in for public appearances. Seeking to return to a more impressive size, he has his agents arrange the abduction of Bruce Banner. After his scientists study Banner's physiology and learn what allows him to transform into the Hulk, Annihilus is mutated into a gigantic, more monstrous form. With this new form, Annihilus and his army make another attempt to conquer the universe. They are successful, ravaging many worlds and killing most of Earth's heroes. However, with help from the One Above All, Thanos and Adam Warlock are able to travel back in time and prevent Annihilus' invasion from ever occurring. Warlock then uses his powers to devolve Annihilus into a primitive insect, which is then stepped on by Thanos.

Me: Well good riddance.

Leni: These are villains you might know.

Leni made 5 Shadow Clones!

Leni 1: DC STYLE NINJA ART: POISON IVY!

Leni 1 fired a wave of green energy that formed into a bunch of flowers and plants and they formed into Dr. Pamela Isley A.K.A. POISON IVY!

---

In her early life, Pamela Isley had a PhD in botany from Gotham University, She was once employed by Chez Gerard, a cosmetics firm, as a research chemist in charge of developing new perfumes. She also offered a weekly lecture series at the university on rare and extinct plant species. At some point, she became the meta-human known as Poison Ivy and who is now part-plant, able to communicate telepathically with plant life, and capable of synthesizing chemicals from her body at will, either as deadly poisons or antidotes.

Poison Ivy's first act was manipulating District Attorney Harvey Dent into having a date with her, because she had marked him as a "murderer" for his part in arranging the excavation of land for the future site of Stonegate Penitentiary. The excavation had involved in bulldozing a field of wildflowers, including a rare wild rose that would have gone extinct if she had not saved it first. Appropriately, she used extract from the rose to create a rare and deadly poison, which she administered to Dent through a deep kiss. He fell into a coma and was not expected to live.

But Dent's personal friend, Bruce Wayne (Batman) investigated the crime and discovered the origin of the poison, Batman confronted Isley, who now calls herself "Poison Ivy". In a ensuing struggle, Batman captured the rose as a "hostage", forcing Ivy to surrender the antidote she had developed. He managed to save Harvey's life, and Ivy was imprisoned in Stonegate. She was later transferred to Arkham.

A few months later, Ivy may have escaped or been released from Arkham, she opens an all-natural resort spa outside of Gotham, under the alias "Dr. Daphne Demeter". The "Eternal Youth Spa" was a bait through which Ivy attracted wealthy business men and women guilty of certain environmental crimes, and "treated" them with plant-derived toxins, which transformed the people into plants themselves.

By unfortunate coincidence, a greedy Wayne Enterprises executive had made a deal with a South American company to level a section of the Amazon rain forest, before Bruce aborted it. Ivy targeted Bruce for his perceived part in the deal, and Alfred Pennyworth attended in Bruce's place for a free spa getaway. When Alfred disappeared, Batman quickly deduced the doctor's true identity, and stopped Ivy's plan yet again.

Sometime later, during a heist at the Gotham Museum, Ivy meets Harley Quinn for the first time, who was recently evicted from the Joker's gang, and she helped Ivy escape the clutches of the Gotham Police Department. Though they seem to have completely opposite personalities, Ivy and Harley have (somewhat) common goals bonded them into a formidable duo. Harley seemed to thrive on the experience of an honestly affectionate partner, while Ivy admired Harley's streak of fun and ingenuity, though she was exasperated by Harley's unshakable devotion to the Joker. The girls become the very best of friends and sister-in-arms.

Shortly after uniting, they took Gotham by storm with a crime spree. Dubbed "The New Queens of Crime", their actions went unstopped for a long time. Despite Batman's best efforts, he was unable to capture the two girls. It was only after when their home was destroyed by the Joker, that Ivy and Harley were captured by Renee Montoya.

Leni 3: DC STYLE NINJA ART: LIVEWIRE!

Leni 3 fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the electrical villainess Leslie Willis A.K.A. LIVEWIRE!

---

Leslie Willis was a popular WLXL shock jock who ridiculing and insulting people around Metropolis, mostly Superman. People all over Metropolis listened to Leslie, even Superman, who is completed annoyed by her venomous words. Lex Luthor, in particular, enjoyed her radio show.

Leslie was interviewed by Lois Lane and Clark Kent about her views on Superman. Leslie explains 3 main reasons why she hates Superman: the first one is that Superman is never around when anyone needs him, the second one is that everyone is so easy for him to interfere, and the third one is that he cares about himself. These claims were disproven, when Kent secretly left the interview after hearing of a large crane falling from the top of a building, endangering a worker as well as a woman and her child; and despite his difficulty to stop the crane from falling, he manages to save the worker, the woman, and her child from being crushed. Following the end of the interview, Leslie announces the upcoming party in Centennial Park to celebrate the third anniversary of her show.

During the party, there was a thunderstorm, and Leslie's producer tried to convince her to close the party because of the arriving police's concerns for the risks of the concert during a thunderstorm and the crowd's safety. Leslie refuses to take note of her producer's warning and went so far as to incite the crowd against the police. The chaos continued until Superman arrived. But Superman couldn't convince her to stop the party. In fact, she took Superman's appearance as an opportunity to ridicule him in public. Then, suddenly, while verbally attacking Superman, a bolt of lightning simultaneously struck the stage, forcing everyone to evade from the bolts. Leslie, on the other hand, sees this amusing, forcing Superman to push her out of the way before being shocked by the electrical currents. Upon witnessing this, Leslie tries to escape, but she steps on a wire and gets shocked as well before falling unconscious.

Upon regaining his strength, Superman takes Leslie to Metropolis

Hospital, where she recovered and quickly learned that not only had her hair and skin changed color. She blamed Superman for her transformation, refusing to take the fact that she should've shut down the concert that caused it in the first place. She later finds out that she has the power to generate and manipulate electricity. Delighted, Leslie escapes from the hospital via electrical current, and the former radio personality renamed herself "Livewire" and started her life as a criminal.

Sometime later, when she was being transported through Gotham City, Livewire escaped again and escaped into the Gotham underworld. There, she met Harley Quinn and Poison Ivy.

Leni 4: DC STYLE NINJA ART: KILLER FROST!

Leni 4 fired a wave of ice and it formed into the frozen villainess Louise Lincoln A.K.A. KILLER FROST!

---

Killer Frost is the identity of a criminally insane supervillainess from DC Comics, who (as her name implies) has control over the cold - she is a mass murderer and very dangerous (even by supervillain standards): as well as appearing in comic books she has been involved in the DC animated universe and video-games such as Justice League Heroes.

Crystal Frost was the first, Louise Lincoln (voiced throughout the DC animated universe and other projects by Jennifer Hale) was the second, and Caitlin Snow was the third.

Transformation

Crystal Frost first appeared in Firestorm #3 (June 1978). While Crystal Frost was studying to be a scientist in Hudson University, she fell in love with her teacher, Martin Stein. While working on a project in the Arctic, Frost was upset to learn that Stein did not reciprocate her feelings. Frost accidentally locked herself in a thermafrost chamber, but somehow survived. She was transformed in a way that she was able to absorb heat from a living being and project cold and ice. Calling herself Killer Frost, she began her murderous crusade against men and clashed with Firestorm on many occasions. Frost eventually died after she absorbed too much energy from Firestorm.

Hall of Justice memorial

Crystal has been identified as one of the deceased entombed below the Hall of Justice. Her body was reanimated as a Black Lantern.

Dr. Louise Lincoln first appeared in Firestorm (Volume 2) # 21 (1984). She was a colleague and friend to Crystal Frost. After her friend died, she decided to repeat the experiment as a last respect to her former mentor, and became the new Killer Frost. She became just as ruthless as her predecessor and began her own personal vendetta against Firestorm, who she blamed for Frost's death. She briefly served as a member of the Suicide Squad and sold her soul to Neron for more power.

During the Underworld Unleashed event, Killer Frost attacked Hawaii, freezing part of the islands before being stopped by Superboy and Knockout.

Killer Frost was later freed by Effigy and the two had a brief flirtatious partnership before she was apprehended by Green Lantern.

All-Ice Team-Up

Killer Frost was one of many mega-villains seeking to earn a $1 billion reward offered by President Lex Luthor to sanction Superman and Batman, whom he considered treasonous. She teamed with Mister Freeze, Icicle, and Captain Cold in an attempt to ambush the two heroes, but all four were defeated. It was later discover that this ice-themed team of villains was being mind controlled by Gorilla Grodd.

Doctor Light (Arthur Light) hired Killer Frost and Mirror Master to attack Green Arrow and Black Lightning at a hospital in Chicago, Illinois where Kimiyo Hoshi was being held. Green Arrow stopped

Killer Frost by firing an arrow filled with Greek fire into her thigh. Unable to absorb the heat from the arrow, she was soundly defeated by Green Arrow.

One Year Later and Countdown

Killer Frost was later seen in the Justice League of America Wedding Special, battling the new Firestorm, until Lex Luthor, Joker and Cheetah arrived, subdued Firestorm, and invited her to join the new Injustice League.

Leni 5: DC STYLE NINJA ART: CHEETAH!

Leni 5 fired a wave of yellow energy and it went at incredible speed and formed into Barbara Ann Minerva A.K.A. CHEETAH!

---

Much like her Golden Age predecessor, Dr. Barbara Ann Minerva was driven by envy to become a villain. A selfish, spoiled heiress, Minerva received her Cheetah powers and form from the sacrifice of her partner to an African plant god. However, because the ceremony is meant for virgins (hint-hint), her powers are half curse, half blessing. Minerva decided to challenge Wonder Woman's powers upon hearing of her arrival to Man's World in order to steal her magic lasso. Since then, the Cheetah has proven to be one of Wonder Woman's greatest enemies, as well as her arch nemesis and has shown that women can be just as bad as men.

In the Justice League, she is one of the recurring enemies in both the original series and its sequel series. Press materials names her "A feline femme fatale who is scratching for a fight.

Leni 6: DC STYLE NINJA ART: HARLEY QUINN!

Leni 6 fired a wave of red and blue energy and it formed into Harleen Quinzell A.K.A. HARLEY QUINN!

Originally, Harleen Quinzel was an intern at Arkham Asylum; she did so because she thought the super criminals were interesting. While she was walking down a hallway with Joan Leland, Harley heard the Joker whistling and walked over to him, where he winked at her.

Later as she went into her office, she found a flower on her desk with a note from the Joker. When she came to confront him about him being out of his cell, he surprised her by saying he felt he could relate to and share his secrets with her.

She then worked 3 months, trying to set up a session with The Joker, and felt she had prepared herself. However, it became clear that she was not prepared at all (because The Joker was shown to be unpredictable). Joker told her that he was beaten by his father as a kid. He also told her a story of the only time he saw his father happy was at the circus remembering the clowns. He then added that he imitated the clowns with his father's best Sunday pants, but was given a broken nose because he tore them. He then explains the downside of comedy: "You always take shots from folks who just don't get the joke."

Harley begins to feel sympathy for the Joker, and eventually the sessions turn around with The Joker as the doctor and Harley as the patient, explaining how she had fallen in love with him.

Later Harley becomes frightened when the Joker escapes Arkham for a week before being brought in by Batman. Seeing Joker broken in his cell she decides to break him out and robs a joke store, stealing a harlequin costume, as well as various other items. Then, after breaking into Arkham and knocking out a few guards along the way, she reaches Joker's cell and wires the door with explosives; she breaks him out, saying "Knock knock, Pudding. Say hello to your new and improved Harley Quinn.". Finally, she and the Joker escaped Arkham in a car.

Harley's first act was to assist Joker in attempting to assassinate James Gordon by planting a bomb at his testimonial dinner. Batman subdued her after a brief fight. After that, she was an accomplice in virtually all of Joker's criminal schemes.

Sometimes, she would be kicked out of the gang when Joker's temper got the better of him. On one of these occasions, she teamed up with Poison Ivy, and the two became close friends and a successful crime duo.

During one of her solitary stints in Arkham, Batman offered her a pardon if she would help him track down Joker, who had stolen a nuclear bomb. She did so, though in a crazy, roundabout way that ended up being almost as dangerous to Batman and Robin.

After being pronounced rehabilitated by the doctors at Arkham, Harley was paroled, but her hyperactive personality and unfamiliarity with the "real" world (after being with the Joker and locked up in Arkham for so long) led to an avalanche of trouble that led to her unintentionally kidnapping Veronica Vreeland and being simultaneously pursued by Batman, Gotham gangsters, and the U.S. Army. She was returned to Arkham yet again, though Batman was more sympathetic to her, understanding how bad a day gone wrong could be.

The New Batman Adventures

Harley Quinn appeared in World's Finest: The Batman/Superman Movie as a rival and foil for Lex Luthor's assistant Mercy Graves; each takes an immediate dislike for the other. In the film's climax, Harley ties Graves as a human shield to a combat robot set to confront Superman and Batman, but Graves is rescued by the two heroes without suffering any harm.

Harley has hung out with her best friend Poison Ivy in many episodes such as; Holiday Knights and Girl's Night Out. Where they cause mayhem and chaos towards both Batman and Batgirl.

In The Batman Adventures: Mad Love, Harley Quinn led Gordon into a trap. After an incident involving Commissioner Gordon was botched, Harley began to re-examine her life. Realizing in a crazed manner that Batman was the cause of Joker's obsession and insanity, Harley devised a plan to capture him. Much to the surprise of Batman and the Joker, her plan not only worked, but according to Batman, was more likely to kill him than anything the Joker had ever devised before. However, Batman managed to escape by convincing Harley to call the Joker for approval, knowing the Joker would be furious at the idea of anyone other than him killing the Dark Knight. As expected, Joker was furious and threw Harley out of a window, nearly killing her and released Batman. Recovering in Arkham, Harley at last realized the Joker would never love truly her and was nothing more than an insane killer. However, she returned to her hapless devotion to him upon seeing a single rose in a vase from him by her bedside table with a note, wishing her well and a speedy recovery.

In the Batman Beyond movie, Harley's final act assisting Joker was in capturing and torturing Robin into insanity, then adopting him as their "son", J.J. While Batman pursued Joker, Harley fought with Batgirl in the ruins of Arkham. In the fight, both women toppled into a deep pit. Batgirl managed to grab hold of a ledge, and tried to pull Harley up, but her sleeve tore, and Harley seemingly fell to her death. With no body ever recovered, Barbara Gordon suspected that Harley may have survived, but she never resurfaced again. Without the Joker around, she apparently gave up her criminal career and, at some point, mothered or adopted at least one child, who in turn gave her at least two grandchildren, the Dee Dee twins, Delia and Deirdre Dennis. After getting arrested for assisting the returned Joker in his plan to control a weapons satellite, the twins were chastised for what disappointments they were by their "Nana Harley".

Harley makes an appearance in the Static Shock episode "Hard as Nails", where she and Poison Ivy trick a metahuman named Allie Langford (also known as Nails) into helping them in their plan to raid a ship carrying gold in exchange for a cure, but halfway through the heist, Allie felt remorse. She backed out of the deal, and demanded the cure. To her shock, Harley and Ivy revealed that the cure was a fake, and she had been lured into joining them. Harley knocks Allie off the ship, but Static and Batman were able to save her. Static makes his way down to deal with the duo. Harley proves herself a formidable foe, by easily avoiding his electric bolts. However, he sends electricity bolts over every inch of the deck, which eventually converge on Harley, taking her out, while Ivy was taken down by a angry and betrayed Allie. Harley and Ivy are taken back to Arkham by Batman afterwards.

Harley makes her final appearance in the 2-part Justice League episode "Wild Cards", assisting the Joker once again in their plan to destroy the Justice League.

Gotham Girls

Harley Quinn is Poison Ivy's roommate and partner-in-crime in committing various crimes and trying their best to get rid of Batgirl many times, but failed again and again. In many episodes centered on her, Harley does everything she can to get rich quick by any means necessary. Her greed and incompetence gets the best of her in many of her schemes as it lets Batgirl turn the tables on her and foil her plans.

---

All six villainess's smashed and blasted the Crimson Cloak all over. Harley Quinn smashed the Crimson Cloak with her hammer, Cheetah slashed him all over with incredible speed and her claws, Killer Frost froze him in a block of ice, Volcana burned him all over with incredible fire, Livewire electrocuted him all over with lightning and Poison Ivy tied him up in her vines.

Volcana: Whoa! That was awesome Leni.

Livewire: Well done Leni!

Killer Frost: We are honored that you used techniques named after us.

Leni: I'm glad Louise.

Ed: That's my awesome girlfriend for you.

Lori: Watch this one. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: HELA!

Lori fired a wave of dark energy and it formed into the Asgardian Goddess of Death, HELA!

---

Hela started out as the firstborn child and sole daughter to Odin and an unknown mother. She served her father as an executioner and leader of the Einherjar in Odin's plot to conquer the Nine Realms. She served as a loyal, faithful, and dutiful servant to her father, even being so pure as to wield Mjølnir. However, as the years went by, Hela start to develop her ambitions and powers to a degree that would grew beyond Odin's control. Having noticed his daughter's ambitions as well her new warmongering and bloodthirsty behavior, Odin, who had finally realized that peace is the true way to unite the Realms, was forced to fight Hela when she massacred anyone who tried to oppose her and attacked her own father. Able to defeat her but incapable of killing her, Odin decided to dispose of Hela by banishing her to a realm called Hel, where his life force would be the only lock to keep her from escaping.

Hela once tried to break free from Hel, which prompted Odin to send female Asgardian warriors called the Valkyries to stop her. Hela first send out Necroswords to kill some of the Valkyries and then engaged the remaining Valkyrior Warrior Maidens and overpowered them all,killing almost all of the Valkyries. Odin was ultimately convinced that he himself must personally intervene, having apparently been convinced after apparently waiting for the Valkyries to return that Hela is too much for them. Odin then personally entered Hel and was able to overpower Hela and re-imprison her, but save for Brunhilde, the leader, all the Valkyries perished in the battle.

Odin then proceeded to write out Hela from all of Asgardian history, even replacing the murals of her conquests with those of his other children.

Hela fired a wave of energy and it hit the Crimson Cloak and it slammed into him and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa! That was Hela, the Goddess of Death.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. She was tough.

Thor: And she is a very dangerous foe to me and my father Odin.

Me: I remember that Thor. She was tough.

Lori: Watch this one. This is the toughest enemy of the Justice League. DC STYLE NINJA ART: DARKSEID!

Lori fired a wave of lava and it formed into the Lord of the Planet Apokolips - DARKSEID!

---

Darkseid seeks to bring the entire universe under his control. To achieve this end, he seeks the cosmic power of the Anti-Life Equation, which theoretically will enable him to control any and all existing life in the universe. Darkseid's perpetual rival is Highfather, the leader of New Genesis - Apokolips's sister planet. For thousands of years, Apokolips and New Genesis waged war, claiming millions of lives until an truce was finally agreed upon. To seal their bond, Highfather and Darkseid exchanged their infant children: Highfather would look after Darkseid's son Orion and Darkseid would raise Highfather's son Scott Free. Scott, despite the influence of Darkseid and Granny Goodness, grew up to become a freedom fighter in opposition to his adopted father.

Orion took to the lessons of New Genesis and became an enemy to Darkseid as well. Though maintaining an uneasy peace, Darkseid still looked to acquire power without Highfather's interference. He soon took notice of the planet Earth, not only for its vast natural resources and vulnerable population, but also because a potential rival had appeared amongst the otherwise "unworthy" masses: Superman. In an effort to gauge Superman's power (as well as prepare Earth for his coming) Darkseid aided Intergang by supplying powerful weapons of his world to the greedy human criminals. Darkseid ordered his servant Desaad to destroy Superman, but his device failed. After his son Kalibak disobeyed orders by battling Superman, Darkseid made his presence known to the Man of Steel, injuring Superman with his Omega Beams before disappearing into a boom tube. Darkseid would later launch a full attack on Earth, beginning with the massive destruction of a nuclear facility in an effort to recreate the fire pits of Apokolips. Superman was again effortlessly defeated in personal combat and bound to the head of Darkseid's war machine.

The invasion would have succeeded if not for the timely intervention of Orion and the armies of New Genesis.

Orion declared that Earth was off-limits on decree of Highfather, and Darkseid grudgingly retreated (claiming he did not wish to spoil his reunion with his son Orion via bloodshed), but not before murdering Dan Turpin in front of all of Metropolis, then escaping through a boom tube before Superman could get to him. Darkseid would orchestrate several attacks against Superman, though keeping his word by avoiding a direct invasion of Earth. He dispatched Granny Goodness to build a device that would pull a comet to Earth, but was thwarted by Supergirl. His most crushing blow to Superman finally came when he brainwashed the hero into believing Darkseid had adopted him. He sent Superman to lead an invasion of Earth. Though Superman fought against the conditioning and eventually managed to break free of it, Darkseid had at least partially achieved a victory by shattering the public trust of Superman. Unfortunately for Darkseid, he had finally pushed Superman too far.

The Man of Steel invaded Apokolips, swatting aside the forces between him and Darkseid's palace, finally clashing directly with the Dread Lord of Apokolips. Darkseid gained the upper hand, telling Superman he would kill more humans, and was about to finish Superman with his Omega Beams when Superman clamped his hands over the overlord's eyes. The backlash of energy exploded against Darkseid's skull, wounding him grievously and knocking him unconscious. Superman threw Darkseid's prone form at the feet of his subjects and declared them free. However, the Lowlies respectfully carried their lord from the battlefield before an astonished Superman, with Darkseid reminding the hero, "I am many things, Kal-El… but here, I am God".

Justice League and Justice League Unlimited

In the quest for the Anti-Life Equation, Darkseid invaded a sector protected by New Genesis, thus violating the rivaling planets' ancient peace treaty. Orion's fleet was waiting for Apokolips's invasion force and shattered Darkseid's armada. Upon this, Highfather gave Darkseid an ultimatum assuring that the next breach of their treaty would result in his annihilation. While Apokolips was rebuilding its military forces, the villainous Kryptonian supercomputer Brainiac arrived with the intent of assimilating the planet.

Darkseid secretly approached Brainiac and offered him to hand over Superman and in return, Brainiac would spare Apokolips. So, Darkseid went to the Justice League and asked for their help to battle Brainiac, to which Superman reluctantly conceded. In Apokolips, Darkseid and Superman fought together until Brainiac's forces retreated. Darkseid told the League to follow and finish him off, which they did. Afterwards, Darkseid boom tubed inside Brainiac's headquarters just in time to vanquish the League, thus delivering his end of the bargain: Superman. When Brainiac started extracting living DNA from Superman, Darkseid implanted a device that overrode Brainiac's control circuits, turning him into his puppet. Darkseid intended to use Brainiac's program to collect the Anti-Life Equation and reorder the universe at his will. At that point, Orion, Batman, and Wonder Woman showed up to thwart him.

Orion and Darkseid exchanged punches, but Darkseid was victorious over his son. Darkseid attempted to leave the asteroid, however, he was intercepted by Superman, who was determined to hold him inside until its destruction. Darkseid fought with everything he had, but was overpowered by the Man of the Steel finally. Superman tried to finish him off but Batman intervened though Superman was intent on finishing the long awaited fight. Not wanting him to become his enemy, Batman opened a Boom Tube, that sent him, Superman, and the unconscious Orion to safety while Darkseid was left stranded within the exploding headquarters. Despite his circumstances, Darkseid rejoiced and scorned Superman as a "loser" with his last breath before being destroyed with the asteroid.

Resurrection

Darkseid returned thanks to Lex Luthor, who had been trying to resurrect Brainiac instead. Darkseid, now enhanced by Brainiac's power as well, showed his gratitude to Luthor by unleashing the Omega Beams upon Luthor's spacecraft, destroying it. He then returned to Apokolips, halting the power struggle between Granny

Goodness and Virman Vundabar in his absence. His return shocked his followers who immediately accepted him as their leader once more. Seething with hatred and vengeance for Superman, Darkseid declared war on Earth, implying that his treaty with Highfather would no longer apply as he was heading there afterwards.

He launched simultaneous attacks across the globe and set up magma-tappers to ignite Earth's core and generate fire pits, thus creating Apokolips on Earth. Darkseid found himself opposed not only by Earth's military and the Justice League, but by the surviving members of Luthor's Legion of Doom who had escaped death at Darkseid's hands only days earlier. With his flagship hovering above the Daily Planet, Darkseid was assaulted by the unlikely trio of Superman, Batman and Lex Luthor. Upon this, the Lord of Apokolips vows to kill the Man of Steel, but not before making him and everyone he loved suffer dearly.

The two engaged in battle, demolishing the Daily Planet along the way. Darkseid was repeatedly hindered by Batman, who was then targeted by his Omega Beam but evaded it after having one of Darkseid's pawns take the blast. Darkseid was impressed to see how Batman adroitly dodged it, remarking on him being the first person to do so. He turned to Luthor to see if he would be as lucky, but Luthor promptly fled, an act Darkseid remarked as wise strategy. Then, Superman thrashed Darkseid across the city with his full might, but the tyrant managed to gain the upper hand by using a hidden pain amplification weapon - the Agony Matrix. Darkseid gloated upon Superman's pain, but was impressed by his endurance and proclaimed how he was going to carve out his heart with a Kryptonite blade as a token of mercy. Darkseid would have succeeded, if not for Lex Luthor stepping in on time to bestow Darkseid with his greatest desire - the Anti-Life Equation. Superman was forgotten, as Darkseid was mesmerized and overwhelmed by the Equation's dazzling beauty. He took it on and complimented its beauty, something Luthor agreed with before they vanished into thin air. The Justice League suspects that both of them survived and will be back in the future. However, both Darkseid and Luthor were absorbed into the Source Wall, as such is the fate of those who gain the Anti-Life Equation, where they will remain likely for all eternity.

He was introduced as a peacekeeping program created by Tony Stark and co-created by Bruce Banner under experimentation of harnessing Loki Laufeyson's scepter containing the Mind Stone (supplied by Thanos), but upon gaining sentience, Ultron deemed humanity itself as the greatest threat to world peace and attempted to create a new age of technological singularity via humanity's extinction.

He was voiced by James Spader, who also played Steff McKee in Pretty in Pink, Stewart Swinton in Wolf, Rip in Less Than Zero, Mr. Black in Shorts, and portrayed by the late Neil Fingleton for motion capture.

Originally little more than an ape she was artificially evolved by Gorilla Grodd into a human female (both in appearance and mannerism): she in turn became very devoted to him and also gained the ability to grow to gigantic heights at will.

This served to make Giganta a formidable opponent to any hero in the DC universe and although she began her career as somewhat of a savage complete with leopard-skin clothing she would evolve into a much more refined woman, albeit still a dangerous criminal, as the series and comics went on.

It is worth noting that there are many variations of Giganta depending on the era or writer and her origin varied greatly as do her powers depending on who writes her - though modern writers tend to stick with the size-shifting hyper-evolved ape (this is also the version that was made popular in the cartoon series Justice League).

Another popular version of Giganta was in Superfriends, where she was shown as the rival to Apache Chief, and was present as his super heroic debut. She had been an ordinary woman horseback riding when she saw the effect of the magic powder, and desired to use it to become famous.

She stole the bag of powder from Apache Chief when he was busy. Although warned by Apache Chief's sachem to leave it alone as the effects multiply emotions, she ignored the warning. True to form, her selfishness was multiplied along with her size, and she became an evil giantess.

---

She grew 100 feet tall and stomped on the Crimson Cloak all over the place.

Giganta: Wow! Great job with me Lori.

Lori: Thanks Doris.

Me: That was well done.

Lori: Thanks J.D. Watch this one. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: MAGNETO!

Lori fired a wave of magnetic energy and it formed into Erik Lensherr A.K.A. MAGNETO!

---

Magneto appears as his younger self and is the protagonist villain of this film. He starts out as young Erik Lensherr who is a Holocaust survivor. When he is persuaded by Dr. Klaus Schmidt to use his power of controlling metal, he refuses to, and tries desperately to when the villain points a gun at his mother. After Schmidt kills his mother, Erik gets enraged and bursts into a rage thus enabling his powers; he turned a filing cabinet inside-out, squeezed two guard's helmets to crush their brains and send loads of metal equipment in the neighboring surgery room flying in a murderous frenzy. Schmidt says that he will unlock his power and gives him a German 5-cent coin that he was meant to move around moments before.

Years later, Erik searches for Schmidt and vows to kill him in his quest for revenge. First, he goes to a bank manager in Geneva, Switzerland and gets him to tell of Schmidt's location; Argentina. Next, Erik went to Argentina and killed three guys in a bar who knew where to find Schmidt. When he finds Schmidt (now calling himself Sebastian Shaw) aboard the ship Caspartina, he meets Charles Xavier, who assists him in the investigation of his plans of launching missiles onto Cuba thus triggering World War III. He starts a close friendship with Charles and a romantic relationship with his fostered sister Raven (Mystique). According to Charles, the two of them may have met earlier in life when they were 17.

When Erik (now dubbed Magneto) and Shaw finally come face to face in Shaw's submarine, Magneto destroys part of Shaw's telepathy shield, removes his helmet and allows Charles to paralyze him long enough to stop him. Unfortunately, Magneto dons the helmet to block Charles' mind. He reluctantly kills Shaw by placing a Nazi coin through his brain (while ignoring Charles' begging to stop).

Later on, the USSR and the US launched missiles at the mutants threatening to kill them and stopping World War III. Magneto takes control of the missiles thus turning them on their launchers. CIA agent Moria MacTaggert tries shooting at Magneto, but Magneto deflects the bullets accidentally paralyzing Charles' legs. He invites the rest of the mutants of the Hellfire Club and the other X-Men to join him in his quest to protect mutant-kind. The X-Men refuse but Mystique joins him and the rest of the Hellfire Club. At the climax of the film, Magneto and his newly formed Brotherhood of Mutants break Emma Frost out of her prison and asks her to join them.

Between X-Men: First Class and X-Men

Erik was falsely-charged with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in 1963 and was placed in a plastic prison with glass and concrete. The prison was right underneath the Pentagon, and was placed inside even though he had tried to bend the sniper-shot upwards and miss Kennedy. The reason he sought to save Kennedy was because he believed the President to be a mutant.

Sometime before or in 1986, Erik escaped or was let out and went with Xavier, treating each other as friends again, to meet the psychic mutant Jean Grey, who could actually lift up numerous cars in the neighborhood they were in to prove that she's a mutant. Later, Erik left Xavier again and launched forth his plan to arrange mutant prosperity.

X-Men (2000)

Magneto appears as the main antagonist of the first-made film in the series and so far the third chronologically. He believes that a war between mutants and humanity is fast approaching and must prepare for it. His Brotherhood of Mutants in this film include Mystique, Sabretooth and Toad. His first scene in the film is when he is leaving the Senate hall before he is stopped by Professor X and persuades him to stay out of his way and not to interfere with his plans for humanity.

He is next seen when Sabretooth informs him of the attack on Wolverine and Rogue and that Prof. X and the X-Men knew about their whereabouts in Alberta, Canada. Magneto sees a small dog tag around Sabretooth's neck and grabs it magnetically and examines a bit of what the Wolverine is capable of. He then informs that the time has come to put his plans into action by testing a machine that turns humans into mutants (unknown to Magneto that his machine kills them after their mutation). Magneto sends Mystique and Toad to kidnap Senator Robert Kelly and test his machine on him stating 'Let's just say that God works too slowly'. After Kelly falls to his apparent death, Magneto proceeds with kidnapping Rogue plans to use her as a pawn for his machine to mutate the World Leaders on Ellis Island. On Liberty Island at the climax, Wolverine attempts to save Rogue, but Magneto holds him hostage just as the machine starts expanding towards Ellis Island as he holds the other X-Men hostage. Cyclops blasts him and Magneto is therefore sent to a plastic prison. He is visited by Professor X as the two play chess. Just before Prof. X departs, Magneto states 'The war's still coming Charles. And I intend to fight it.'

X2: X-Men United (2003)

Magneto returns as one of the deuteragonist villains, no longer intent with changing humanity but destroying it.

He is visited by Col. William Stryker various times while he retrieves information on Prof. X's mansion and Cerebro, the machine that locates mutants around the world. While conversing with Prof. X, Magneto states that his war has already begun. Later, with help from his associate Mystique, Magneto escapes prison by using the metal in the blood of one of his prison guards.

Magneto is seen afterwards and rendezvous with the X-Men and their allies, giving them information about Stryker's plan to annihilate all mutants. The X-Men and the Brotherhood form an uneasy alliance to stop Stryker for the freedom of mutation. Once at Alkali Lake, Magneto along with Mystique, arrives at Cerebro and switches it around thus revealing his intentions to destroy all humans instead of mutants. Later on, he meets up with William Stryker and nearly chokes him to death. Just before a narrow escape, Magneto recruits young Pyro, who takes his advice (You're a god among insects).

X-Men: The Last Stand (2006)

Magneto returns again as the main antagonist of the third film, this time with a massive army of mutants ready to take down the scientists who created a supposed "cure" that erases the mutant X-gene "permanently".

In the movie, after learning of a special cure for mutations made with the blood of a mutant, Magneto declares an all-out war and expands the Brotherhood of Mutants with new members such as Juggernaut, Multiple Man, The Omegas (Callisto, Arclight, Kid Omega, Psylocke) and various others in addition to his old members Mystique and Pyro.

After a rescue attempt and recruitment, Magneto was to be stunned by the cure, but Mystique sacrificed herself and was abandoned to live amongst the humans. Just as Magneto starts to expand his new army, he learns that Jean Grey (now known as the Phoenix) has survived her death and attempts to recruit her with only Prof. X, Wolverine and Storm standing in his way. He sends for Juggernaut and the Omegas for back-up to distract Wolverine and Storm. Persuading Jean to think that Prof. X wants to control her power, Jean goes insane, destroys her house and kills Prof. X in her outrage. Feeling heartbroken, Magneto takes Jean with him back to his lair. As Magneto sets out to destroy the source of the mutant cure (a mutant as it turns out), he senses that Wolverine was in his midst and stops him from taking Jean away from the Brotherhood. On their way to Alcatraz, Magneto and his Brotherhood army use the Golden Gate bridge to destroy everything on Alcatraz to reach their goal of destroying the cure. After fighting the X-Men, he is cured by Beast from behind. In defeat, he says to Jean 'This is what they want for all of us'. Feeling regret on what he did to Jean, he flees the Dark Phoenix's final stand.

At the end of the film, Magneto, sitting in at a chessboard in a park, manages to move a chesspiece slighty, showing that he is slowly getting his powers back.

The Wolverine (2013)

At the film's post-credit scene, Magneto, having managed to fully regain his powers, appears before Wolverine in search of help to fight a new kind of war that could destroy every mutant in the world with a revived Professor X there as well.

X-Men: Days of Future Past

1973 timeline

In the past, he is a major antagonist. He is one of the characters necessary to help change the future from the dystopia filled with Sentinels created by Dr. Bolivar Trask. He first appears as a prisoner held in the 100th floor below the Pentagon in a specially made cell. However, he gets freed with the aid of Charles Xavier, Wolverine, Beast, and Quicksilver. Magneto later tries to kill Mystique in Paris by putting a bullet into her, specifically her ankle, to ensure the mutant's future and survival, but fails to do so. Afterwards, a public showcase of the Sentinels at the White House is made to make sure that people will be kept safe from mutants.

" You built these weapons to destroy us. Why? Because you are afraid of our gifts, because we are different. Humanity has always feared that which is different. Well, I am here to tell you, to tell the world, you are right to fear us. We are the future, we are the ones who will inherit this earth, and anyone who stands in our way will suffer the same fate as these men you see before you. Today was meant to be a display of your power, instead I give you a glimpse of the devastation my race can unleash upon yours. Let this be a warning to the world and my mutant brothers and sisters out there, I say this: No more hiding, no more suffering, you have lived in the shadows in shame and fear for too long. Come out, join me, fight together in a brotherhood of our kind. A new tomorrow that starts today. „

~ Magneto, in the past, convincing mutants around the world to join him in his revolution.

However, Magneto has commandeered the Sentinels by inserting metal into their polymer bodies and also uses a lifted up stadium to keep other humans out of the way. Announcing mutant supremacy on live television, Magneto is attacked by Beast and Wolverine but keeps them at bay. However, when threatening the President, Mystique disguised as Nixon shoots him. After Mystique spares Trask at Xavier's urging, the Professor allows Mystique and Magneto to leave, believing that there is hope for both of them to change for the better.

2023 timeline

In 2023, Magneto is a major character. Meanwhile in the future timeline, Magneto helps the X-Men fend off the Sentinels but is injured badly during the war of the sentinels. Right before the Sentinels can finish him off along with Xavier, Wolverine, and Kitty Pryde, the future is changed. What became of Magneto in the revised timeline, and how much of the original still occurred beyond X-Men: First Class, is unclear at the moment.

X-Men: Apocalypse (2016)

Magneto returns as the anti-hero once again. He tried to live like a normal human in Poland and worked in a factory under name Henryk. There he used his powers to save his colleague from a falling heavy metal bucket. However his colleague reported him to local police. When he was about to be arrested for his terrorist action one decade ago of the policemen accidentally shot his daughter and wife. Despaired Erik killed them all and returned to the factory to kill all his colleagues who ahd reported him to the police.

There Apocalypse appeared with his Horsemen, all killed all Magneto's former colleagues before he had the chance to do so. Apocalypse then recruited Magneto as a Horseman of the Apocalypse under name "War". Magneto is then sent to the ruins of Auschwitz where he destroys the camp after remembering horrors that he had experienced as a young boy. He then appears in Cairo where he and the Horsemen assist Apocalypse in destroying civilization to remake the world in the image of Apocalypse but the X-Men come to save Charles. During the battle, Mystique arrives and tells Erik that he hasn't lost everything, convincing Erik to have a change of heart and turn on Apocalypse. After a brutal battle, Jean unleashes her powers on Apocalypse and destroyers his armor which allows Magneto to impale him and Jean to finally finish him off. He then helps rebuild the X-Mansion but leaves still being distrusting of humanity.

X-Men: Dark Phoenix (2019)

Magneto returned in the film, where he took refuge in an uncharted island called Genosha, eventually using it as a haven for the remaining Brotherhood and other mutant refugees. When a young Jean Grey turns over to him for guidance after losing control of her Phoenix powers, Magneto was willing at first to help her out, but several soldiers arrive to the island to detain Jean, who almost tried to kill them. Knowing that putting the innocent soldiers in danger will put the other mutants in risk, Magneto angrily banishes Jean from the island.

Later on, Magneto and the other Brotherhood mutants conspired with Hank 'Beast' McCoy to kill Jean, since the latter's power killed Mystique, which left both Beast and Magneto very devastated. This leads to another battle between the X-Men and Brotherhood, though both factions (along with Jean) end up being arrested by the government. During a train transport to a secret mutant facility, Magneto was told that an alien warlord named Vuk has been manipulating Jean into using her powers for darker purposes as the former intends to drain it all to destroy all life on Earth (including the mutants) for her race the D'Bari. This was proven when Vuk sends her posse to attack the train and kill many of the soldiers so that she can drain all of Jean's powers for herself.

Deciding to put things aside, Magneto and the Brotherhood allied with the X-Men to take down the D'Bari soldiers, but they all end up being defeated by Vuk (who has previously obtained a portion of the Phoenix power); even when Magneto used his telepathy powers to fire all guns at Vuk, it proved to be in vain as Vuk was bulletproof thanks to the Phoenix power, much to Magneto's distraught. Eventually, Jean manages to kill Vuk by dragging her into outer space and using the Phoenix power to disintegrate her for good.

With Vuk and the D'Bari race gone, both the X-Men and Brotherhood put their feud aside, and Magneto reconciles his friendship with Xavier, who has retired and left Hank to become the new principal of Xavier's school. He is last seen playing with Xavier, unaware that Jean is still alive.

He fired a wave of magnetic energy and smashed a bunch of metal beams into the Crimson Cloak and knocked him around like a rag doll.

Me: Whoa! That was Magneto!

Qin: I know him. I heard that he's in a retirement home without his powers.

Scarlet Witch: That's right Qin. Our father has gotten to the point where he can't fight his former friend anymore.

Quicksilver: That's right.

Me: Yeah and I feel sad for him.

Nico: Me too.

Lori: I do too. Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: PENGUIN!

Lori fired a wave of ice and it formed into Oswald Chesterfield Cobblepot A.K.A. PENGUIN!

---

Oswald Chesterfield Cobblepot was a Gotham kingpin who used his affluent status for the various crimes he committed. He was known as a "gentleman of crime" executing them with class and elegance, along with bird-related themes. The Penguin later nestled himself down at the Iceberg Lounge, a legitimate club, but kept a shady business in the back room. He has had dealings with almost all of Batman's enemies.

Superman the Animated Series

In the episode "Knight Time" Batman (Superman in disguise) and Robin interrogate him about the whereabouts of the Mad Hatter.

Batman: Mystery of the Batwoman

The Penguin is the main antagonist in Batman: Mystery of the Batwoman. He would ally with Rupert Thorne to smuggle illegal weapons to Kaznia. As Batwoman interfered with one road shipment and his factory went up in a blaze, the Penguin knew that their muscle Carlton Duquesne was out of his league. As the Penguin and Thorne were discussing whom their new muscle would be, Batwoman snuck into the Penguin's file cabinet. The two caught her. But a fight was unleashed and Thorne agreed with the Penguin that they needed to bring someone better in as Batwoman escaped.

While at his lounge, the Penguin called up Bane. Bane agreed to meet him in the Penguin's frequently used back entrance. As soon as the Penguin got off the phone, Batwoman appeared and wrapped a metallic alloy around him. She squeezed and squeezed him until the Penguin gave in and said "Bane" very mildly. It didn't take long for the Penguin's henchwomen and Batwoman to fight. Their fight got taken out into the lounge and the Penguin shot motion-seeking missiles. As Penguin aimed the missile launching umbrella at Batwoman, Batman came in and the Penguin was pushed to the ground. As Batwoman escaped, Batman was pushed into the lounge's center arctic pool. As the Penguin shot homing missiles into the water, Batman set and detonated a bomb from inside the pool. It caused the lounge to flood. The Penguin sat whipped in the face by one of his seals.

The Penguin, Thorne, and Duquesne met with Bane at an isolated warehouse, for Bane could not come to the lounge due to the previous incident. The Penguin allowed him full control of the operation and showed him the ship and plans he was to be using. Later that night, as the Penguin and Thorne played cards, they got a call to come to the ship. To their surprise, Bane found out who Batwoman was; Kathy Duquesne, Carlton Duquesne's daughter. Batman soon came in and another fight was unleashed. After Batman and Kathy escaped, the Penguin and Thorne ran to Penguin's boat to retreat for the bomb Kathy had was missing. They ran into the other two Batwoman. As the ship exploded, Sonia was injured and Rocky went after the fleeing felons. She latched onto the boat and the sudden stop made the Penguin and Thorne fly into the water. They were caught, and the Penguin, after years of being "reformed," was finally punished for his crimes and sent back to Stonegate with Thorne.

Justice League Unlimited

In the episode "This Little Piggy" his famous club the Iceberg Lounge is shown. It is later mentioned that he kidnapped a celebrity and Batman had to go undercover for about a month to catch him.

---

He blasted the Crimson Cloak all over the place.

At the Iceberg Lounge, Penguin was watching the fight and he saw Lori use a technique based on him.

Penguin: I'm honored that Lori would use a technique based on me.

Thug 1: She sure does respect you boss.

Back in the fight we saw what happened.

Me: Nice one Lori! Penguin would really be proud.

Lori: Thanks J.D. Watch this one. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: MALEKITH THE ACCUSED!

Lori fired a wave of dark red energy and it formed into the evil MALEKITH THE ACCUSED!

Born on Svartalfheim, Malekith was a cruel and warmongering Chieftain of the Dark Elves. Although Malekith's soldiers expressed blind loyalty to their leader and he became worshiped as a god-like figure to the Dark Elves, Malekith's desire to restore the universe to a state of eternal darkness put him in conflict with the forces of Asgard and their king Bor.

Thor: The Dark World

Thousands of years later, during which Bor had died and Asgard was being ruled by his son Odin, the vengeful Malekith and his remaining army awakened when the Aether was absorbed into the body of a human woman named Jane Foster, signalling the beginning of the Convergence. The Aether's reactivity allowed Malekith to sense its location.

Malekith first traveled back to his home world of Svartalfheim, which had been all but destroyed during the great war between the Dark Elves and Asgardian Army, with hundreds of Dark Elf Flagships littered across the burnt wasteland. As Algrim attempted to comfort his leader by reminding him of all the Dark Elves still alive due to his actions, Malekith swore to avenge his fallen brothers by reclaiming the Aether and using its immense power to destroy Asgard and the rest of the universe.

Malekith and the Dark Elves started searching for the Aether. They soon discovered that Jane Foster had been transported from Earth to Asgard in order to have the Aether removed from her body as it was slowly killing her. Malekith sent his lieutenant Algrim into the city under the guise of a prisoner, and before he left Malekith stored a Cursed Stone inside Algrim's gut to make him indestructible and allow him to destroy Asgard's defenses from the inside.

Malekith sent his attack ships to fly into Asgard and invade the city. After Algrim transformed into a Cursed and freed the inmates, including Lorelei, he managed to lower Asgard's defenses. Malekith's own ship crashed into city and his soldiers attacked the guards. While the Dark Elves held back the Asgardian Soldiers, Malekith calmly walked through the room and destroyed Odin's throne with a Black Hole Grenade.

Malekith went to the palace room where he found Queen Frigga protecting Jane Foster. When Malekith attempted to capture Foster, Frigga defended her by attacking Malekith. Being taken off guard by Frigga's fighting ability, Malekith was defeated in single combat. Algrim eventually arrived and restrained her while Malekith went to grab Foster, only to discover that she was an illusion and the true Foster was hidden in another room of the palace.

Malekith called Frigga a witch and demanded to know where the Aether was. Realizing that Frigga would not talk, Malekith allowed Algrim to kill her by stabbing her through the heart. Thor, witnessing the death of his beloved mother, angrily struck Malekith's face with lightning, leaving a permanent burn on the right side of his face. Algrim carried his injured master and together they jumped on board a Dark Elf Harrow and escaped before Thor could kill them.

Malekith was taken back to the Dark Elf Flagship where his injuries were treated while his forces prepared to attack Asgard again. Algrim insisted that they must attack Asgard again while they were still weak after the last battle, however Malekith sensed that Thor and Loki had chosen to disobey Odin's orders and decided instead to move Jane Foster to Svartalfheim in order to draw Malekith out.

Malekith witnessed the Asgardian's arrival on their home world and was surprised when Loki suddenly betrayed his brother by seemingly stabbing him in the side before cutting off his hand and surrendering Foster to his forces. Loki then told Malekith that all he wanted in exchange for his partnership was a seat from where he could watch Asgard burn. Algrim recognized Loki as a fellow prisoner on Asgard who he had seen during his breakout from the dungeons and confirmed this to his superior. Malekith took Algrim's word and mocked Thor as he lay moaning in pain on the ground.

As the Dark Elf extracted the Aether from Jane, it was revealed that Loki cutting off his brother's hand was actually an illusion. Summoning his hammer, Mjølnir, Thor attempted to destroy the Aether while Loki protected Foster, only for the Aether to reconstitute itself almost instantly. Malekith explained that the Aether could not be destroyed and absorbed it, leaving his Dark Elves and Algrim to deal with his two Asgardian opponents. Malekith then made his way to Earth, where he would unleash the Aether into the Convergence and then obliterate the realms.

Arriving on Earth, Malekith and his forces witnessed portals in the sky opening up as the Convergence began. They were soon confronted once again by Thor, who had survived his battle with Algrim. With the Aether enhancing his power and abilities, Malekith battled Thor, absorbing the power of his lightning and throwing him through the air. Their fight quickly led to them being thrown through various portals left by the Convergence.

Their strength was equal, finding that neither could overpower the other as they were teleported over the Nine Realms, taking them to Svartalfheim where Thor lost Mjølnir through a portal, leaving him nearly defenseless. While on Jotunheim they were almost killed by a Jotunheim Beast. Eventually, the two were teleported away from each other and Malekith used the opportunity to begin unleashing the Aether on the Nine Realms, sucking all the light out of the Realms.

Thor returned and used a teleportation device Erik Selvig had created to send him to Svartalfheim. Malekith fell on his back, weakened by the battle, moments later, Erik Selvig used another device to teleport Malekith's Dark Elf Flagship to the Dark Elf's location, the ship continued to fall and Malekith, unable to move in time, was subsequently crushed and killed by his own ship.

He fired a blast of red energy and it hit the Crimson Cloak and exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Me: Whoa! That was Malekith the Accused!

Nico: We haven't faced him yet. But I do remember that he was the original owner of the Red Infinity Stone.

Thor: That's right Nico.

Me: And somehow Freakshow got that stone.

Luan: You guys will get a Marvel out of this. (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

Most of us laughed and Vypra laughed.

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one Luan!

Vypra: (Laughs) That was funny!

Luan: Thank you. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: DORMAMMU!

Luan fired a powerful blast of dark fire and it formed into the evil Dark Lord of the Dark Dimension himself, DORMAMMU!

Dormammu is a resident of the Dark Dimension, a place that exists beyond the passage of time, and wishes to merge all existing universes with it. Despite his sinister plans, a group of Zealots mistakenly believes that Dormammu should be allowed to merge Earth with the Dark Dimension, believing that this would eradicate time and death and would thus grant eternal life. The Zealots, led by Kaecilius, contact Dormammu who grants them strength through the powers of the Dark Dimension. He tasks Kaecilius with destroying the sanctums of magic in Hong Kong, London and New York to allow Dormammu to spread the Dark Dimension on Earth. Kaecilius succeeds to destroy the three Sanctums, creating a portal in Hong Kong through which Dormammu spreads the Dark Dimension on Earth.

However, Dr. Stephen Strange (a new member of the Masters of the Mystic Arts) reversed the time by the use of the Eye of Agamotto and the Infinity Stone inside it to undo the sanctum's destruction, and then flew into his dimension to negotiate with him. Dormammu immediately refused and quickly killed Strange by blasting him with energy, but to his confusion, Strange reappeared on the Dark Dimension surface, repeating himself confidently.

Perplexed, Dormammu killed Strange again, only to have him reappear again, repeating his intention. Stunned, Dormammu angrily demanded to know what was happening; the Doctor then revealed that he had used the Eye of Agamotto (containing the Time Stone) to create an infinite time loop, with them spending eternity together in a endless cycle, the only trap Dormammu could not escape from since the Dark Dimension was a place beyond time itself and therefore Dormammu had no power over it.

Eventually, after killing Doctor Strange multiple times to no avail, Dormammu demands to be freed from the time loop and reluctantly gives in to bargain with Strange. At this point, Strange offers a deal: Dormammu must banish himself and the Zealots from the Earth forever and never return, and Strange will break the loop to return the favor. Having no other choice, Dormammu accepted the deal, turning the Zealots and Kaecilius into Mindless Ones and dragging them into the Dark Dimension forever, and kept his own word for now, sealing the portal between the dimensions. While not confirmed, it can be implied that Dormammu honored his promise to Strange and never returned to the Earth, remaining in his own realm for all eternity.

He fired a massive blast of fire and it hit the Crimson Cloak and burned him all over.

Me: Whoa! That was Dormammu, the Lord of the Dark Dimension.

Dr. Strange: It sure was.

Me: He's also your number 1 archenemy from what I remember Stephen.

Dr. Strange: That's right. You guys haven't faced him yet. But he is a dangerous force.

Me: I can tell.

Luan: Watch this one. He'll Klaw him out of existence! (LAUGHS) MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: KLAW!

Luan fired a wave of red energy and it formed into Ulysses Klaue A.K.A. KLAW!

---

Nothing is known about Klaue's early life other than that he was born in South Africa. It is, however, known that before the events of Age of Ultron, he successfully stole a large quantity of vibranium from Wakanda. He escapes alive but scarred, becoming one of the few people outside of Wakanda who knows the truth of the country's wealth and technological advancement.

Avengers: Age of Ultron

In the film, Klaue is first shown talking with an associate, whom he threatens to kill. As he takes a second call, the lights go out and Klaue, who has picked up a gun, is disarmed by Quicksilver. Klaue recognizes the Maximoffs and, after toying with them dismissively, demands to speak to "the man in charge."

The one in charge is Ultron, who pays Klaue several billion dollars for vibranium. But this relationship quickly sours: Ultron says something Klaue recognizes from Tony Stark and accuses Ultron of being "one of his." This enrages Ultron, who cuts of Klaue's arm, then apologizes while kicking Klaw down a flight of stairs. Klaue manages to escape with his life when the Avengers interrupt Ultron's monologuing before engaging into a fight against him and his army of Sentinels. As Klaue escapes, he angrily orders his mercenaries to fight back against both Ultron and the Avengers. It is unknown what happened to Klaue after the Avengers defeated Ultron in Sokovia.

Black Panther

Some time later, Klaue reappears working with Erik Killmonger to steal artifacts from a museum in London. He gleefully kills multiple people during the heist and reveals what he calls "just a taste" of the power of his prosthetic hand, which he has implanted himself following Ultron's death.

In Wakanda, T'Challa and the Wakandan Council discuss the theft and Klaue's history with Wakanda. We find out that the last time Klaue was in Wakanda-some 30 years prior-he killed many people, including the family of W'Kabi (the head of Wakanda's Border Tribe and best friend to T'Challa). T'Challa plans to apprehend Klaue at an underground gambling establishment in Korea, where Klaue will be selling vibranium to an unknown buyer. W'Kabi blames T'Challa's father T'Chaka for not bringing Klaue to justice long ago and exacts a promise from T'Challa: kill Klaue on sight or bring him back to Wakanda as his father failed to do.

T'challa, Nakia, and Okoye (with Shuri assisting remotely) arrive at the club and find that the mysterious buyer is CIA agent Everett Ross. A chaotic firefight ensues, Klaue and his henchmen escape with T'Challa and the others in pursuit. After a road chase in which the powerful sonic cannon in Klaue's prosthesis temporarily gives him the upper hand, Klaue is eventually taken into Ross's custody.

Klaue glibly mocks Ross during his interrogation and reveals the true nature of Wakanda. Before Ross has much of a chance to question T'Challa about Klaue's claims, Nakia runs in with a warning that something is up out back. Just then, Killmonger, Linbani and Linda blow through the wall and free Klaue. But this relationship also sours quickly: Killmonger wants to go to Wakanda after killing Linbani, so Klaue takes Linda hostage, using her as a human shield. Killmonger assures Linda that everything will be fine, but kills her with no hesitation or remorse. After a bit of a gunfight, Killmonger manages to shoot Klaue, who was at a disadvantage with only one arm.

Klaue sneers at Killmonger's supposed stupidity for wanting to go to Wakanda, showing him a brand they gave him while he was there as a sign of what happens to outsiders and asks Killmonger what makes him think he can get in. Killmonger shows him the hidden markings under his lips (his true name, N'Jadaka), revealing that he is the son of Prince N'Jobu, the very same Wakandan who was in league with Klaue before his death. Realizing this, Klaue simply finds it amusing to be played by someone he thought to be "… just some crazy American", and laughs maniacally before Killmonger kills him with another shot. Killmonger brings Klaue's body to Wakanda and delivers it to W'Kabi in order to be allowed to enter the country as part of his plan to overthrow T'Challa.

Luan fired a wave of light and it formed into George Tarelton A.K.A. M.O.D.O.K.!

---

M.O.D.O.K., or M.O.D.O.C, is a supervillain from Marvel comics whose name stands for Mental Organism Designed Only for Killing (or Conquest in some versions).

A creation of the villainous society known as A.I.M., he used to be a A.I.M. scientist named George Tarleton but was forcibly mutated into a grotesque and horrific monster/machine both in appearance and attitude. A.I.M. origanally wanted to use him as their weapon but he took over them instead. As his name suggests, he is a cruel, ruthless and treacherous killer and is also a brilliant but short-sighted megalomaniac who is forever scheming up new ways to seize more power for himself and cause problems for those who oppose him. He also teams up with other villains as well.

He was thought to be the villain of Iron Man 3, due to the appearance of some A.I.M. trucks, but it turned out to be Aldrich Killian.

He blasted the Crimson Cloak all over with energy lasers and they hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM

Me: Whoa! That was M.O.D.O.K.

Qin: Wow! That was awesome!

Captain America: It sure was and we put him in prison for his crimes.

Luan: Here's one we haven't faced yet. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: KANG THE CONQUEROR!

Luan fired a wave of purple light and it formed into Nathaniel Richards A.K.A. KANG THE CONQUEROR!

The history of the time-traveling supervillain known as Kang the Conqueror is a complex one. He began as Nathanial Richards, hundreds of years after the mainstream Marvel Universe takes place. The technology in his day was extremely advanced, giving him time traveling capabilities.

After meeting his ancestor Doctor Doom, Nathanial was inspired to make for himself a suit of powered armor, calling himself the Scarlet Centurion. He then used that alternate Earth to his advantage, manipulating the original Avengers into capturing every other superhuman in their world. After this was accomplished, he brought the mainstream Avengers to that world, and forced them to fight, planning that he would defeat whichever team lost and thus be free to conquer that world. The mainstream Avengers won, but also defeated Centurion, sending him back to his own time.

Humiliated at his defeat, Nathanial crafted a new persona for himself as Kang the Conqueror. He then proceeded to completely take over his world, as well as several other alien worlds, including the Shi'ar. Kang then went back in time to get his revenge on the Avengers who had defeated him. He met them in direct combat, but was once again defeated. Shortly after, he decided to use trickery to beat them, making a robot version of Spider-Man to catch them off guard. Kang then defeated the Avengers, but not before the real Spider-Man came, destroying his robot duplicate and freeing his fellow superheroes. Kang then retreated back to his own time, to conquer and plan more before his next return.

Lily: Check this one out. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLACK MANTA!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into the arch enemy of Aquaman, David Kane A.K.A. BLACK MANTA!

---

David Kane was a pirate just like his father, Jesse Kane who helped him steal a military stealth sub. At some point, they were hired by King Orm Marius to take over a Russian nuclear submarine to help unite the kingdoms of Atlantis and declare war on the surface world, but they are foiled by Aquaman. After a brief battle, Aquaman deflects a rocket from Jesse, which caused a torpedo to topple over, trapping him as the submarine became flooded. David begged Aquaman for help but was told that they kill innocents and should not expect mercy from the ocean. David was forced to flee and started to bear a deep grudge against Aquaman.

David later targets Atlantis at the behest of Orm, who uses the attack as an excuse to declare war on the surface, which he was eventually paid for, but David instead he wants weapons to kill Aquaman. Orm later provides David with a high-tech prototype suit of Atlantean armor and plasma rifle, which David uses and modifies them into a high-tech suit. Using this suit and a squad of elite Men-of-War soldiers.

Now calling himself "Black Manta", Manta confronts Arthur and Mera in Sicily, Italy, with Murk and elite Men-of-War soldiers. Manta mostly manages to match and even dominate Arthur as Arthur not only has to contend with his new-found Atlantean weapons and superhuman armor but also has to protect the civilians. However, in the end, Manta was ultimately overpowered by Arthur's combat prowess and own tremendous superhuman physical abilities, as he was slammed away several feet with enough force to damage his jetpack after just having been stabbed by Black Manta's Atlantean blades and Aquaman proceeded to throw a pair of chained balls at him, successfully heavily damaging his armor by the reflection of his blast and the subsequent fall. Manta is rescued by Dr. Stephen Shin, a scientist obsessed with finding Atlantis, and agrees to lead Shin there in exchange for his help in his revenge on Aquaman.

He blasted the Crimson Cloak all over with powerful skills and lasers and it really hurt him.

Me: Whoa! That was David Kane A.K.A. Black Manta!

Nico: We haven't faced him yet. We took down the Superfriends version of him but not the one here.

Me: We sure did. But that will be a battle to remember.

Aquaman: It sure will.

Lily: Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: OCEAN MASTER!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into Aquaman's evil and traitorous brother Orm Marius A.K.A. OCEAN MASTER!

Orm Marius was born in the kingdom of Atlantis at least a few years after his older half-brother Arthur Curry, also known as Aquaman, to King Orvax Marius and Queen Atlanna. Guided by Nuidis Vulko to be a magnificent warrior, Orm has never known defeat when he grew up but became known more and more to the surface world and the human race as well as the great damages they cause to the Seven Seas and Atlantis by polluting the water, the air and the land with factories and trash. At some point during Orm's childhood, Orvax learned that Atlanna bore a half-human son sometime before having Orm and sacrificed her to the Trench.

Rise to Power

It is unknown if Orm became King after the death of his mother or father since the latter seems to have been a consort rather than a regnant. Sometime after becoming King, Orm plotted to wage a war against the surface dwellers, causing him to become a powerful tyrant as well as to devise a wide master plan to destroy the surface and the humanity as one by uniting all the seven kingdoms in the Seven Seas into a grand war.

War for Atlantis

In order to carry out his plan and become "Ocean Master", first he must obtain the support of at least four kingdoms. He also employed David Kane, Jesse Kane, and a group of high-sea hijackers to steal a Russian Nuclear Submarine which David Kane used as a seemingly unprovoked attack by surface dwellers, while Orm was meeting with Nereus, the mighty king of Xebel, and his men. Nereus begins to show support toward Orm, after some of his men had died, and is ready to join forces with him despite the anger of his daughter, Mera, who has been betrothed to Orm, refuses to aide them and journeys to the surface to ask Arthur for help, earning his trust by saving his father Thomas from a tidal wave sent by Orm as a warning.

Orm then sends commando guards to David Kane with a holographic message from Orm himself, paying David for his services. Orm would later send Murk and his Men-of-War soldiers to capture and bring Aquaman to him. Orm would arrive to visit Aquaman who was chained up and announces that Atlanna was executed for the crime of having a half-breed son, blaming Arthur and the surface for her death. He offers him an opportunity to leave forever but instead challenges him to a duel in a ring of underwater lava for the throne of Atlantis. In the Duel, Orm gains the upper hand when he breaks his trident and nearly kills Arthur before Mera rescues him. He then attempts to chase them down, but they get away thinking that they drowned in lava.

Using a tracker Orm put on Mera, Murk is able to track them down and Orm sends out a search for her and Aquaman, while Nereus threatens to end their alliance if Mera is killed instead of captured, which Orm gives his word. Meanwhile, Orm provides David with Atlantean armor, weaponry, and Men-of-War commandos in order to kill them, giving David the name "Black Manta."

During meeting with King Ricou, Queen Rina, and Princess Scales of the Kingdom of the Fisherman, Orm tries to convince them to join their alliance in uniting the Kingdoms and declaring war on the surface world. Ricou, however, rebukes his proposal for an alliance by stating when they finally make contact with the surface, they should educate them, not destroy them. This goes poorly with Orm who provokes him into attacking and kills him, threatening his heir, Scales, into cooperating. Orm also imprisons Vulko upon learning of his betrayal.

Final Battle and Defeat

Orm and his allies then begin to lead an army against the crustacean forces of the Kingdom of the Brine with the intent of completing Orm's surface battle preparations by coercing the remaining four kingdoms of Atlantis to pledge allegiance to him and his campaign against the surface, titling himself as "Ocean Master". Just as he is about to kill the Brine King for resisting, Aquaman, Mera, and Atlanna, with the assistance of Karathen, intervene and lead an army of marine creatures, including the Trench, in the battle against Ocean Master and his allies, who renounce their obedience to Ocean Master and embrace Aquaman as the true king upon learning he wields the trident. Aquaman then fights against Ocean Master and defeats him, destroying his trident. Ocean Master then orders Aquaman to kill him as mercy is not part of Atlantean philosophy. However, Aquaman tells Ocean Master that he is not full-blooded Atlantean and chooses to spare his life. Ocean Master then discovers Aquaman has found and rescued their mother. After Atlanna tells Ocean Master that she loves them both equally as her sons, Orm accepts his fate, renounces his title, and is taken prisoner by Atlantean guards. Aquaman then tells him whenever he is ready, they can have a talk. Orm gives a last glance at his brother before returning to the ocean. It is unknown what will happen to him later on.

Aquaman: You all haven't faced him yet.

Lily: You guys might know this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: KING SHARK!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into the shark humanoid mutant Nanaue A.K.A. KING SHARK!

---

King shark is a friend of Clayface and helped him with social network problems. He is called by Clayface to help with Harley problems of finding nemesis. King Shark stuck around Ivy's apartment to continue helping, keeping an eye on the media response to Harley's escapades. He also live streamed Harley's attempt to fight Supermn, which resulted in failure. He also objected to Harley's desire to kill Robin, as it would make her a "child killer". Harley then came up with another idea to have King Shark swim in a tank to scare Robin into admitting his lie on live TV. Although King Shark initially objected, Clayface's offer to transform into "the violent type of shark" with an "unpredictable nature" bothered King Shark, so he decided to go along with it after all - provided that he not be around any blood. He then began swimming around a tank below Robin, occasionally jumping out to deliberately fail to bite him. Eventually Robin was outed as a liar, causing him to have a nosebleed that fell into the water below, which King Shark immediately smelled. This drove him into a frenzy, and he immediately, uncontrollably tried to eat Robin in earnest, forcing Harley to save Robin. Seeing this, King Shark smashed out of the tank and proceeded to rush after Robin in a rage, and was only stopped by the arrival of Batman who subdued him with shark repellent.

Season 2

King Shark languished in the Gotham Mall for three weeks with his crew following the Joker's defeat, tending to a llama he found somewhere. When goons from The Penguin arrived to take over the mall, King Shark bit one of their heads off and offered the rest of the corpse to Takashi to make into sushi. He went around tending to his animals until Harley received an invitation to the Injustice League, piquing his interest.

In "Bachelorette", King Shark is forced take part in an arranged marriage back home, solely for the sake of keeping two shark clans from going to war. He eventually stands up to his father, but ends up getting married anyway, while promising that he hopes to find true love someday.

Lily: Watch this one. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: NAMOR!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into the redeemed monarch Namor McKenzie A.K.A. NAMOR THE SUB-MARINER!

---

In 1915, Ernest Shackleton was sent by Winston Churchill to seek out vibranium in the Antarctic. His ship, the Endurance, was lost. Later, Leonard McKenzie, with the telepath Paul Destine as a passenger, attempted to recover the Vibranium. Princess Fen was sent to investigate explosions near the surface by her father, King Thakorr. McKenzie met and impregnated Princess Fen with the child who became Namor. Soldiers commanded by General Krang attacked McKenzie's crew. McKenzie himself did not die, though he did not recognize Namor later when he first learned of his son's rampages in New York.

Namor spent his boyhood taunting his cousin Dorma, as well playing with his other cousins Namora and Byrrah as well as his friend Merrano. An oil spill in 1936 attracted the attention of Namor, who began a relationship with a young woman named Sandy. Namor grew up distrusting surface dwellers.

1940s

He was sent to New York after divers were found near Atlantis. However, it was revealed that the divers were Nazis, and Namor joined the Invaders, fighting in World War II alongside men such as Captain America and the android Human Torch (in addition to his solo missions), and later the All-Winners Squad to oppose the Axis. Namor would at times battle, then befriend the democratic societies of the surface; the explanation for this later discovered to be temporary insanity as a result of too much time spent away from the sea. For the most part, however, the Sub-Mariner set his sights on Nazi Germany and Imperial Japan. The Atlanteans became involved with the Axis-created Human Torch duplicates the Firebrand Squadron. One Atlantean, his friend Merrano, became an Axis agent as the U-Man.

1950s

In the 1950's Namor attempted to gain recognition for Atlantis, only for bigots to cause the death of a man named Truffaut. Namor disappeared in 1958 after Destiny, the same Paul Destine who had voyaged with his father, attacked Atlantis.

Atlantis was relatively unharmed during the war but soon greatly damaged by powerful earthquakes. Princess Fen and King Thakorr were killed. Paul Destine, who had ordered the explorers on McKenzie's ship to find the 'Helmet of Power' (actually Set's Serpent Crown), was causing them. He used the crown to turn Namor into an amnesiac, living as a derelict in various flophouses. Coincidentally his former teammate Bucky was also briefly sleeping in the same flophouse. As both men had amnesia, neither man recognized the other.

Modern Age

Namor remained as derelict until Johnny Storm, the third Human Torch, happened to find him in a flophouse and saw him use his super-strength. Johnny felt bad for the amnesiac and offered to help him get back on his feet. He shaved the "bum" with his flame, revealing Namor's true features. Johnny then dumped Namor into the river, successfully restoring Namor's memory. Unfortunately, Namor tried to return to Atlantis, but found an outpost that had been destroyed by nuclear testing during the years he was an amnesiac. He assumed that all his people were scattered where he would never find them.

He immediately vowed vengeance on the surface world and attacked it, using the giant sea monster Giganto. The Fantastic Four were able to stop the Sub-Mariner. During the fight, he became instantly enamored of Sue Storm, and offered to make her his bride, and after that, his queen, wife and lover. Namor carried the romantic crush with him for years and she even reciprocated the feelings for awhile, which first became apparent when Namor teamed up with Doctor Doom to destroy the fantastic Four.

Namor also joined The Hulk in an attack on the Avengers, but was repulsed when the temperamental Hulk left the fight. After the battle, Namor stumbled across the still-frozen body of his wartime comrade, Captain America. which was being worshiped by a far-flung Inuit tribe. Enraged, the Sub-Mariner threw the ice block into the ocean. The Avengers happened upon Rogers' thawing body, and soon revived the legendary hero. Even though he had been their enemy, he had won the Avengers' respect: When the team's original members took a leave of absence, they approached Namor to offer him a place with the Avengers, but he refused.

Shortly thereafter, Magneto approached Namor and asked him to join his first Brotherhood of Evil Mutants. Namor fought against the X-Men in a battle alongside Magneto, but refused to kowtow to the Master of Magnetism and ultimately rejected the offer.

Hellfire Club

Once Sebastian Shaw was in search for a new person for the title of the White King of the Hellfire Club. He made a party to which he invited the most influential men in the world and trying to decide who is better fit for this position. Rejecting the candidacy of Tony Stark, he choose Namor, and invited him to join the Club. But Namor contemptuously rejected the proposal, saying that if Sebastian once again dare to waste his time on such a minor thing, he will kill him. This led Shaw into a frenzy, so he ordered Emma to force Namor to join the Club, no matter what the cost. A few days later, she acted out a suicide by jumping overboard yacht to attract Namor's attention. He rescued her and they spent together two weeks in the Atlantis. Shaw, however, tired of waiting for news from Emma, thinking that Namor killed or captured her, he decided to sent the Sentinels for her. Sentinels attacked Namor and Emma and caused damage to the Atlantis, and Namor took this as a declaration of war. Finding where the Sentinels came from, Namor, along with Emma, went there and clashed with Shaw, Pierce and Selene. Selene mind-wiped Emma, to erase the memories of her betrayal and make her loyal to the Club again. Surrounded by two telepaths, Shaw explained to Namor that he would never get close enough to kill him. Namor left, but vowed to take revenge one day.

Namor returned to Atlantis and became king of Atlantis again, clashing with the surface world on several occasions as well as fighting off undersea threats to Atlantis like the rebel leader Attuma. He was supposed to marry his cousin Dorma, with whom he had fallen in love. However, Llyra, an evil princess of Lemuria, another submarine culture, kidnapped and replaced Dorma at the wedding hoping to usurp Namor's kingdom in that way. Legally, though, Dorma was the one Namor had married, but he still had to find his wife. Unfortunately, Llyra had taken Dorma to the surface world in a tank as bait, and when Namor arrived, she smashed the tank to distract him. Namor was unable to save Dorma, and nearly went insane from grief.

Later on, Namor, flying near the Savage Land, spotted Magneto lying unconscious near a volcanic eruption. He picked Magneto up and brought him to Atlantis to recuperate. Namor then left Atlantis to join the Fantastic Four on a mission, and returned to find that Magneto had usurped his throne. The Fantastic Four and Namor made short work of Magneto, and Namor regained his kingdom.

Unfortunately, trouble brewed often for the Avenging Son of Atlantis, and his lost his kingdom a number of times. He also married the Alpha Flight member named Marrina, another sea-dweller, but lost her when she turned evil and was killed. During some of his exiles from Atlantis, he joined his former rivals, the Avengers, and helped to found the Defenders. He also was a member of the short-lived undersea team, Deep Six. During his active membership as an Avenger, his hubris was an obstacle towards teamwork, and his rivalry with Hercules was particularly notable. His respect for his old comrade Captain America helped to keep this from becoming a major problem. The Defenders, with their looser organizational approach, allowed the Sub-Mariner the "space" he required. It was during his tenure with the Avengers that Namor helped recover the cocoon in which the Phoenix Force had placed Jean Grey, thought to be dead, years earlier. He also fought against Magneto when Magnus tried to rescue his students from Emma Frost, then White Queen of the Hellfire Club, and recovered his lost giant horn, which was found by the X-Terminators. Not long afterward, rogue elements of Atlantean society led by Attuma declared war on the surface, and Namor was presumed killed in the battle, though the Atlantean barbarians were defeated.

However, Namor had actually survived, and surfaced months later in the South Pacific. Nearly mad from his ordeal, he was found by Caleb and Carrie Alexander, a father-daughter team who quickly nursed Namor back to health. It was Caleb who revealed to Namor the truth about his blood chemistry and his "rages," and who equipped him with a monitor that warned him when he had to seek air or water. This allowed Namor to control his metabolism for the first time in his life. Determined to continue to preserve the oceans and his people, but without revealing himself, Namor raided sunken treasures to finance his purchase of an international company he renamed Oracle, Inc., using the Alexanders as proxy buyers. Shortly thereafter, however, Namor was forced to reveal his survival when a terrorist bomb detonated on an Oracle submarine supertanker, threatening the lives of everyone in New York. Then, Namor lost his ankle wings when he unleashed a mutagenic scrambler inside the animated garbage dump called "Sluj" in order to stop the monster. He dealt with the world of high finance thereafter, though it brought him into conflict with the Super Skrull, and then to the dimension of K'un-Lun, where he found the hero Iron Fist, who had been presumed dead for many months.

Returning to Earth and investigating the apparent invasion of Earth by the K'un-Lun sentient plant race called the H'lythri, Namor was forced to fight Wolverine, who had been captured by the H'lythri and their associate Plant Man days before. The battle was fierce, but it was interrupted by the sorcerer Master Khan, who destroyed the plant people and returned Wolverine to his place. Khan then wiped Namor's memory and dumped him in the American Midwest, as punishment for interfering in his plans for Iron Fist. Namor was "missing" for almost a year, and was known as "Rex," until his cousin Namorita was able to track him down using a psychic link to him that she had recently discovered. However, Namor didn't recognize her and rejected her. He didn't regain his memory until a while afterwards, when he and the apparently-resurrected Princess Fen (his mother, who had saved him when he was thrown into the ocean by an explosion) were captured by Dr. Doom's new sonic ram fishing vessel. The boat itself was then magically imprisoned in a bottle by Master Khan, and Khan assumed Namor's form and sold off much of Oracle's holdings. Namor soon broke the bottle and the spell, and then ripped Khan's head off.

Immediately thereafter, Namor was called to Atlantis to deal with attacks by the ancient Faceless Ones on Atlantis's borders. Fen attempted to usurp the throne, and it was soon revealed that she was really the witch-queen Artys Gran, who had stolen Fen's body in order to release her husband Suma-Ket, a pagan sorcerer-king who had been banished by Namor's ancestor thousands of years earlier. Namor soon confronted Ket and was killed, impaled on Ket's spear. Fortunately, Father Neptune, the deity worshiped by Atlantis, appeared to resurrect Namor to fight Suma-Ket, whose religion threatened Neptune's existence. In the process, Namor's ankle wings were restored and he was given the sacred golden armor of his ancestor in which to fight. With the help of his people and comrades, Namor defeated Suma-Ket and his forces, though the real Fen, trapped in Artys Gran's body, died defending her son from a final attack from Socus, the villains' servant. Namor eventually returned to both ruling Atlantis and running Oracle, but has remained generally out of the surface world in recent days. Oracle, Inc. was also funding the charitable super-group Heroes for Hire, and the team used an Oracle facility as its headquarters.

Afterwards, Namor was involved in an international dispute with Wakanda and its King T'Challa (a.k.a. Black Panther), and had to deal with Attuma's uprisings again.

A mystical curse from an old foe, the sorcerer Yandroth, bound Namor and the three other senior members of the Defenders-Doctor Strange, the Hulk and the Silver Surfer-to be transported to scenes of danger and trouble around the world, forcing them into the midst of one deadly crisis after another. Namor and his fellow Defenders eventually freed themselves from this curse, but not before they attempted to take over the world as "The Order," figuring that if they ran the world there would be no crises. The world's heroes tried to stop them, and eventually the curse was lifted.

Namor allied himself with the New Invaders team, bringing the full might of his Atlantean army to bear wherever needed.

Namor was briefly reunited with his father with the help of Stingray, although the villainous Tiger Shark and Llyra later had Leonard killed.

Llyra also posed as the Invisible Woman to seduce Namor during a time when Mister Fantastic was believed dead. She gave birth to a son, Llyron, and aged him through forbidden magic and technology. Llyron confronted his father over the control of Atlantis, but he and his mother were eventually defeated.

When the Scarlet Witch altered reality in the event known as the House of M, Namor was idolized by the general public as the first super hero. He was also classified as a super human mutant (homo superior). After M-Day, the event when 90% of the world's mutants were de-mutated or decimated, Namor retained his powers.

Namor was a a member of the clandestine policy group the Illuminati, with Mister Fantastic, Iron Man, Doctor Strange, Professor X, and Black Bolt, although he appeared to be very hostile and arrogant in his opinions and decisions of the group. He violently opposed the the group's decision to send the Hulk into outer-space exile, and eventually left the group.

Civil War

His cousin Namorita was killed with the rest of the New Warriors in the Stamford explosion caused by the super-villain Nitro, which led to the Superhuman Registration Act. The Illuminati asked Namor back in this light, to consider the Act, but Namor refused this as well. For vengeance of his cousin's death, Namor activated sleeper agents of the Atlantean Royal Guard to search for Nitro, who was instead found and captured by X-Man Wolverine. After his ambassadors were attacked on U.S. soil, Atlantis rebuffed diplomatic overtures. Namor brought an army of Atlanteans to aid the Captain America's forces in the climactic battle between the pro and anti- registration heroes, but they returned to the sea after Captain America surrendered.

Post Civil War, Namor discovered he had a long lost son, Kamar, who attempted to usurp the throne of Atlantis by forcing war with the United States. Because most of his former allies had refused to help him during this crisis, Namor was forced to evacuate the entire civilization of Atlantis; ordering his people to emigrate to the surface world to live within sleeper cells, leaving an overcharged Nitro to explode within the empty city-state, assassinating the then captured Kamar.

Dark Reign

Namor then formed an alliance with the supervillain and European monarch Doctor Doom due to him being the only former ally who offered any assistance after Namor's crisis. This eventually led to an alliance consisting of Emma Frost, Doctor Doom, Norman Osborn, Loki, and the Hood, known as the Cabal.

As Emma and Namor meet again, she finally restoring her memories about their first meeting and Shaw's betrayal, so she offered Namor a deal: she will help him kill Shaw, and in response he will protect and defend mutants as his own people. Namor agreed, so Emma telepathically called Shaw to the Club's mansion. When he arrived she blinded and immobilized him in illusion, and in the same time showed Namor another illusion, in which she kills Sebastian. After convincing Namor that Shaw is dead and enlisting his support for mutants, Emma took Sebastian to the Graymalkin Industries and locked him in Brig for crimes against the mutantkind.

When an Atlantean sleeper cell launched a terrorist attack on California, Osborn ordered Namor to publicly denounce the rogues, and execute them, leaving one alive to parade before the media. Namor vehemently refused, and walked out on the Cabal. Along with Emma, Cloak and Dagger, Namor left the Dark Avengers after helping his lover, Frost, betray the Dark X-Men and Osborn.

Not long after the X-Men relocated to Utopia, the island base began to slowly sink. To permanently fix the problem Magneto approached Namor with a plan to build a support pillar to serve the double purpose of preventing the sinking of Utopia and housing the scattered Atlanteans. Namor agreed and New Atlantis was constructed just beneath Utopia. Soon hundreds of Atlanteans came to their new home. Namor later fought alongside the X-Men during Bastion's massive assault on Utopia.

Curse of the Mutants

When Xarus led his united vampire nation to San Francisco to convert the X-Men, Namor was sent to reclaim the head of Dracula from the Aqueos. This provoked the long forgotten horrors into attacking New Atlantis. During the fighting Alani Ryan, the X-Man known as Loa, almost drowned but was saved by an Atlantean Amulet which gave her the ability to breath underwater. After the Aqueos were defeated Namor was praised as a hero by his people.

After studying Loa, Dr. Nemesis concluded that the Atlantean Amulet had permanently changed Alani's physiology due to the way it reacted with her X-Gene; even without it she could breath underwater. However, the transformation had not ceased when the Amulet was removed. Within four to five hours, she would be unable to breath air. Namor himself broke the news to Alani, who took it badly. Inexplicably, specters emerged from the Amulet and dragged Namor back inside to hell. Wolverine's recent escape from Hell had softened the borders between realms, allowing the spirits to use the Amulet as a channel to kidnap Namor.

In Hell, Namor found himself in a desert, taunted by skeleton-headed creatures. Any water he found retreated from him. He then came across the disembodied heads of dead Atlanteans, including General Kadar. Namor finally found his way to an ocean. Upon diving in, he was assailed by a giant skull-headed octopus and was surprised that the water hadn't restored his strength. The ocean was revealed to be an illusion, and the skeleton-headed creatures revealed their identities to Namor; they were the dead Kings of Ancient Atlantis.

Back in New Atlantis, the options to rescue Namor proved to be few and difficult. However, an unexpected guest arrived to offer assistance: Doctor Doom. However, Doom eventually abandoned Namor in Hell and departed alone, leaving Namor and his remaining allies to fend for themselves. They eventually returned, only to find a rebellion led by Krang and his ally Selach. Krang eventually defected and Selach was defeated, but to do so Abira, Namor's latest love, had to become the new Logomancer to replace the old one, losing her emotions in the process.

Fear Itself

After Skadi released the malevolent Serpent, he summoned the seven hammers of the Worthy to Earth. One of those hammers transformed Attuma into Nerkkod, Breaker of Oceans. He devastated Namor's kingdom, forcing him to turn to Stephen Strange for assistance. The Defenders were reformed, consisting of Namor, Strange, Loa and Lyra, daughter of the Hulk and a She-Hulk herself.

Avengers vs X-Men

Namor stands with his fellow X-Men against the Avengers. He fights both Luke Cage and the Thing. After a short battle, the X-Men feign a surrender and teleport out of Utopia to give them a head start in searching for Hope. The X-Men eventually locate Hope on the Moon and Namor, Cyclops, Emma Frost, Colossus and Magik teleport to the Moon in order to find her. They are confronted by the Avengers who are also there to find Hope. Before a fight can break out, Thor falls from the skies followed closely by the Phoenix.

A fight then broke out between the X-Men and the Avengers while Iron Man built a weapon to fight the Phoenix. Iron Man attacked the Phoenix but instead of destroying it, the Phoenix turned all five of the X-Men into avatars. Namor and the rest of the avatars took Hope back to Earth in order to prepare her.

The Phoenix Five built a grand new Utopia, a floating fortress, for mutantkind. They began working to provide power, food and water for all the Earth. Not content with just that, they outlawed war altogether. The Avengers, however, mistrusted the Five. Wishing to prepare for the day when the Five would lose control and become destructive, they tried to retrieve Hope from Utopia. Cyclops and Emma alone defeated the Avengers, but they were saved by the timely intervention of the Scarlet Witch, who teleported the Avengers, and Hope, to safety.

Scott realized they needed to hunt down the Avengers, imprisoning some of their members, while the rest were outlaws. Against Cyclops' will, Namor sought to finish the Avengers. So he headed to Wakanda and raised a massive wall of water from a nearby lake, to drown them. Destroying almost the entire kingdom and killing an untold number of innocents in the process. Following this, was his defeat by the combined forces of all the Avengers present in Wakanda. After Namor fell, his portion of the Phoenix Force was bequeathed to the rest of the Phoenix Five.

Namor returned to Atlantis after his de-powering and remained there for the rest of the battles. He was then approached by Hope who came seeking files belonging to Cable. Hope asked him if he was okay after his possession and Namor initially defended his actions as a Phoenix, but then remarked on how being possessed made him feel like a single krill lost in endless oceans and departed.

Collision of Alternate Universes

After an event in Wakanda, Black Panther reconvened the Illuminati, Namor included. They were worried by the threat of colliding multiverses brought to their attention by Black Swan. They were eventually able to defeat this threat by destroying the other Earth nearly crashing into their Earth. After this devastating turn of events the teams tension built with Wakanda and Atlantis on the brink of war. Namor proposed a peace treaty with T'Challa, but the Queen of Wakanda, Shuri, denied, and while Namor was away discussing the possible peace with T'Challa, his city was attacked by Wakandans and destroyed, leaving Namor to vow revenge.

Moments after discovering the ruins of his city, Namor was approached by Proxima Midnight and Thanos' invading army. Proxima had come to kill Namor, raze Atlantis and take his Infinity Gem, but upon seeing the ruins of Atlantis, she realised that Namor did not have a gem in his possession. She offered to spare Namor and Atlantis in return for the location of the gems. Namor pledged his and Atlantis' allegiance to her and told her that the gem was in Wakanda.

He blasted the Crimson Cloak all over the place with energy blasts from his trident and they hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMMMM!

Me: Whoa! That was Namor McKenzie the Sub-mariner!

Nico: Wow! We never faced him before.

Black Panther: He's a redeemed monarch and he helped protect all of Wakanda when needed.

Me: Looks like we have another potential hero for the Redemption Squad.

Nico: We sure do.

Lily: Watch this. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: ELECTRO!

Lily fired a wave of lightning and it formed into ELECTRO! He fired waves of lightning and it electrocuted the Crimson Cloak all over.

Lincoln: That was Electro.

Spiderman: It sure was.

Lily: You might know this one. MARVEL STYLE NINJA ART: THE LIZARD!

Lily fired a wave of earth and it formed into Dr. Curtis Connors

A.K.A. THE LIZARD!

---

One of the leading scientific minds, Dr. Connors attempts to engineer a revolutionary regeneration serum to help re-grow limbs and human tissue. He worked with Richard Parker on the cross-species genetics theory, but when Richard disappeared, all seemed lost until Connors met Peter Parker, Richard's son.

Their first meeting occured when Peter and his friends are having tour in OsCorp tower, where Peter learned that Connors is used to be a friend of his father. Later, Peter visited him again, where Connor thought that he came for autograph. Instead, Peter introduces himself as Richard Parker's son and gives Connors his father's "decay rate algorithm", the missing piece in Connors' experiments on regenerating limbs, which is especially important to Connors since he is missing his right arm.

Afterwards, with Peter's help, he managed to complete the formula and tries it on the guinea pigs, two white mouses named Fred and Wilma.

Fired and Test the Formula to Himself

The news of his success comes to Ratha's ear, where he then comes and demand him to use the formula on human trials as the dying Norman Osborn requires it for fully healed from his sickness. Connors refuses, as he doubt it's success as so far, he only tests it on the lab rats. Infuriated, Ratha coldly fires him.

In response, Connors instead did the test on himself, and as the formula runs through his veins and affect his DNA, he passed out over the excrutiating pain during the process. When he awoke hours later, he notice that his missing arm now regenerated, covered by scaly cocoon-like layer. He then slowly tear the layer, revealing that not just his arms growing back, his fingers also did the same, albeit yet to grow nails. Though he did regrow his arm, the serum had an unfortunate side-effect which resulted in him slowly becoming turning into a man - lizard hybrid.

The Lizard's Birth

Horrified by what would happened to him, Connors immediately after Ratha in case of him to learned whether he learned about the formula yet. As he entered a taxi, his newly regenerated arm shifts into reptilian form, with the taxi driver unaware with this. Connors demanded him to drive the taxi just as his face covered by scales. Then He becomes a giant lizard monster, and breaks out of taxi after arriving at the bridge. Connors begins walks to the Williamsburg Bridge and begins throwing cars off the bridge, until Ratha's car and throws it off the bridge, but Ratha, along with the people in the other cars thrown off the bridge, is saved by Peter, calling himself Spider-Man. Connors then awakens in the sewers where he sets up a underground lab for his experiments.

Escape and Suspected as The Lizard by Peter

" (In the sewers, The Lizard reads the name tag on a camera. The label reads "Property of Peter Parker". The Lizard realizes that Peter Parker is Spider-Man) Peter Parker. (The Lizard growls and crushes the camera in his fist.) „

~ The Lizard discovers Spider-Man's secret identity.

After his transformation, the next day at Oscorp Connors finds Peter there, and Peter asks how predator would catch a reptile, Connors tells him that they can't since most reptiles are predators at the top of there food chain. Connors then dismisses Peter telling him that he is working on a secret project, not knowing that Peter figured out that Connors is the Lizard after he finds that Fred has mutated into reptilian hybrid and has eaten Wilma. He then is pursued by Peter as Spiderman and fought with him in the sewers. After the fight, Peter escapes injured. The Lizard however, discovers that Peter is Spider-Man when he finds Peter's camera, that he intended to use to get a picture of him. Later that night Connors begins thinking about to after learning Peter is Spider-Man, he takes the serum and decides not let Peter stop with his plans.

Confronting Peter in School

The next day, The Lizard enters Peter's high school, Midtown

Science High School, through the bathrooms. Then he enters the halls of the school, where almost everyone runs out of the building terrified. He then confronts Peter and tries to attack him, then explains how he make sure there are no more outcasts in the world, and there no need to stop him. Peter gets into his Spider-Man costume and tries to convince The Lizard to stop what he is doing, telling The Lizard it isn't him, but he does not listen. The two begin to fight in the school, before the Lizard manages to subdue Spider-Man. However, Gwen Stacy, Peter's girlfriend and Dr. Connors' intern at Oscorp, helps Spider-Man by hitting the Lizard with a trophy. When The Lizard tries to attack her too, Spider-Man traps him in his webs. After Spider-Man gets Gwen to safety, The Lizard breaks free from the webs and then hears police sirens coming toward the school. After the two continue to fight in the school library, The Lizard overpowers Spider-Man and then escapes back into the sewers. After Peter follows him into the sewers and finds the underground lab, he learns from a video that Connors believes there is no perfect human being and that he plans to infect the city with the serum with the Ganali disbursement device from top of Oscorp tower, and turn everyone into reptilian hybrids like him.

The Lizard's Attack and Stealing Ganali Device

After The Lizard begins to walk towards Oscorp with the serum, he is confronted by members of the NYPD SWAT team who begin shooting at him rapidly. But The Lizard quickly heals and defeats the SWAT team members and infects them with the serum. He then begins continues toward to Oscorp, and infecting more people with the serum. Upon arriving at Oscorp, The Lizard begins climbing up the tower, then goes into his lab for the Ganali device, but he finds it missing. The Lizard then finds Gwen, who was making antidote for the serum, hiding with Ganali device. He then takes the device and Gwen uses a blowtorch to burn him but it does not affect him and The Lizard for the top of Oscorp Tower.

Battle on the Oscorp Tower and Defeat

On top of Oscorp Tower, the Lizard and Spider-Man get into a fight. Lizard then chokes Spider-Man until Captain George Stacy arrives and shoots the Lizard multiple times, buying Spider-Man time to get free and retrieve the cure to Connors' mutagen from Stacy. The Lizard recovers and fatally wounds Stacy. He then attempts to stop Spider-Man stopping the Ganali device from unleashing his lizard formula but fails as Peter loads the antidote into the machine. Once exposed to the antidote, the Lizard transforms back into Connors, who saves Peter from falling off the building, and everyone who infected with serum reverts back to normal. Connors is then arrested.

During the credits of the film, Connors is in prison. He then meets a character credited as "The Man in the Shadows," asking him if Connors told Peter the truth about his father, Dr. Richard Parker. Connors replies "no" while the darkened figure says "Well, that's very good." Before returning to the credits of the film, Connors gives out his last words by stating "You should leave him alone!"

---

He smashed the Crimson Cloak all over with his tail at an incredible level of strength and knocked him down all over.

Me: Whoa! That was Dr. Curtis Connors A.K.A. The Lizard!

Nico: Wow! I remember you all faced him before I joined you guys.

Me: We sure did.

Qin: How did he become The Lizard?

Me: It was an unexpected side effect he got when he was working with reptile DNA. Dr. Curtis Connors is a very well known scientist that Peter Parker knows really well and he lost his right arm in an accident. He worked with Reptile DNA as a way to help Humanity regrow their limbs after they lost them. He tested it on a mouse and it worked! He used the serum he made on himself and he got his arm back. But as a result it had a very dangerous and unexpected side effect. It made him into the reptilian humanoid called THE LIZARD! It warps his mind every time he transforms and he wants to turn the world into reptilian monsters like him and Killer Croc.

Nico: I remember that.

Qin: That's insane!

Me: It was. But thankfully we helped him and I gave him a brand new arm without the need for Reptile DNA. I also cured him.

Nico: Wow.

Qin: That's incredible.

Lincoln: I remember that!

Me: Yep.

Bowser Jr.: Watch this one. This is for you papa. NINTENDO STYLE NINJA ART: GIGA BOWSER SMASH!

Bowser Jr. fired a massive blast of fire and it formed into GIGA BOWSER! He used GIGA BOWSER SMASH!

When the move is used, Bowser turns into Giga Bowser from Super Smash Bros. Melee, gaining immense strength. While in this form, he is immune to knockback, but can still receive Hitstun and damage, which may leave Bowser severely weakened and open to KOs after the Final Smash. The transformation lasts about 10 seconds. He gains no new abilities while as Giga Bowser, though his existing abilities become more powerful, and most gain elemental side effects. In Super Smash Bros. Ultimate, He can launch a single punch that deals massive damage and knockback. If it goes over a certain limit, it can cause a one-hit Screen KO; thus, the move can also be called "Giga Bowser Punch".

He smashed the Crimson Cloak all over with devastating fury and knocked him all over the place.

KRABBOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMM!

The Crimson Cloak was knocked down and we tied him up.

Me: Now lets see if the Crimson Cloak is who I think it is!

I took off his mask and to our shock, it was HANS ROTWOOD!

Everyone: HANS ROTWOOD!?

At the Masters of Evil headquarters, Dark Spicer was watching the fight and when he saw the reveal of Hans Rotwood he spit out his milkshake on Vexen!

Vexen: (Sarcastically) Thanks a lot.

Dark Spicer: Sorry but I did not see that coming!

The masters saw this and THEY. WERE. PISSED! We unveiled that Rotwood was stealing radioactive isotopes for a device that would've destroyed the city. It was a powerful 20 megaton nuke and we disabled it and stopped the bomb from destroying the city.

Vypra: Batman, the Curse of the Cobra is the only thing that will kill Rotwood and his goons. You can kill them as many times as you want!

Rich Texan: You got some nerve tricking us into working with you!

Larxene: I feel sick right now!

Morton: (laughs) What bothers you more? That we tricked you guys? Or that Knudson was unable to figure out it was us because of his vigilante complex?

I punched Morton in the face.

Rotwood: We still have one last trick up our sleeves! (reaches for Batman's cowl)

Batman: What are you doing?

It was too late. Rotwood grabs Batman's cowl and removed it to reveal Bruce Wayne's face.

Frown: (laughs) Smile for the cameras, Batman. Or should I say, Bruce Wayne?

Me: (To the viewers) And now you are fully caught up. Get ready for a surprising shock.

Everyone gasped in sheer shock and they couldn't believe what they were seeing! Batman, the Dark Knight and the Caped Crusader of Gotham City was really world famous playboy and billionaire entrepreneur BRUCE WAYNE!

Dark Spicer gasped!

Dark Spicer: Firefly, you and Bane need to see the news!

Bane: (he and Firefly look at the TV screen) Me and Firefly already know that Batman is Bruce Wayne. This is nothing new to us.

Dark Spicer: But now, the whole world knows.

Firefly: Say what?!

Penguin saw this and he gasped in shock! But he smiled knowing that Bruce Wayne was Batman. Commissioner Gordon, all of Batman's enemies and Harvey Bullock were surprised too!

Morton: Looks like the secret's out, Bats. Now, here's a knuckle sandwich with your name on it! (punches Batman in the stomach)

Lily: YOU BEASTS!

Squidward (smugly): What's it going to be, Lily? Go after us? Or support poor Batman over there? Either way, we win! And for good measure… (shoots Lily in the abdomen)

Lincoln: LILY!

Lily: Nice try Squidward!

Lily grabbed the bullet in mid air before it hit her. She then fired an energy blast and blew Squidward's legs off and the Police fired at Squidward and blew him to pieces. Killing him instantly! But because of the Curse, it bounded him to the rest of his group until it kills ALL of them and they ran away. Vypra took 16 months off of the curse as they ran away.

Me: Now we have to tell everyone. Yes people of Gotham and Gotham Royal York, Bruce Wayne is also Batman.

Batman: That's right.

Me: But there's a reason why he became Batman to begin with. You all know about Thomas and Martha Wayne right?

Everyone nodded.

Me: They were also Bruce's parents. They were murdered in cold blood by the evil mugger Joe Chill. The motive was revenge. Lew Moxon, local mob boss of Gotham was thrown in prison because Thomas Wayne and Lew swore to get revenge on him. He hired Joe Chill to kill Thomas and Martha Wayne and make it look like a robbery. This traumatized Bruce and he was trained into turning into the legendary Caped Crusader, Batman. He has become the defender that you all know all over the city.

Bruce Wayne: That's right folks. I was scarred by the deaths of my parents.

Lana: I helped Bruce Wayne get justice for his parents by killing the monster that killed his parents.

Me: And we sentenced Joe Chill to death for the murders of Gotham's most well known citizens: Thomas and Martha Wayne. He is now burning in the fire of hell for all eternity.

Nico: Good riddance.

Me: And we also killed some of the enemies that Bruce busted and threw into Arkham. And we also helped him bring them to justice. He also is one of the founders of the Justice League and is also the builder of the Justice League Watchtower in orbit.

Batman 2039: And he's not just Bruce Wayne, he's also my father.

Robin, Batgirl, Commissioner Gordon and Harvey Bullock gasped.

We revealed how that happened.

Everyone then clapped and then it erupted into applause and then wild cheering for Batman.

Commissioner Gordon: I had a strong feeling you were Batman, Bruce.

Harvey Bullock: We owe you for helping us Bruce.

Harvey Dent: You are a magnificent man Bruce. And you are a true friend.

Bruce: Thanks guys. And thank you for helping support me J.D.

Me: You're welcome Bruce.

Larxene: I can't believe Rotwood used us like that!

Rich Texan: At least we shortened the time they have left.

Sarah Gunnerson: And we managed to foil his plot and save Leo Scarlett.

Calamitous: We apologize for even helping Rotwood to begin with.

Maria: It's not your fault. You guys didn't know.

Vypra: (to Batman) I know things might be difficult for you at first. But trust me. They'll get better.

Batman: Thank you, Vypra. I appreciate that.

The Masters of Evil teleport out.

Me: They already are starting to get better.

Batman: (To the viewers) Now everyone knows that I am Batman. But I will still defend the city regardless.

Me: And you have our support as well Bruce. I'm sorry Rotwood did this to you.

Batman: It's all right J.D. But Rotwood and his crew would've gotten away with it if it weren't for you meddling kids.

We laughed.

THE END

Another Awesome mystery complete.

Scooby Doo and Batman the Brave and the Bold is an awesome movie. I loved it! NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. I'm gonna take a break till Wednesday. Next after my break is where we take down the evil villains Jigsaw and Michael Morbius from Marvel Comics. It's gonna be interesting. Don't worry folks, Rotwood and his crew will get what's coming to them.

See you all on Wednesday

Ruthlessness of Jigsaw

At the estate we were moping over how Rotwood and his fucking posse exposed Batman's identity as Bruce Wayne.

Me: The sooner that goddamn curse kills Rotwood and his posse the better.

Kevin Levin: Look, guys. So what if Batman's secret is out? At least the more dangerous baddies out there aren't alive to take advantage of it.

Me: That's true. But we're not upset that Batman's secret identity is out, Kevin. We're upset because we couldn't prevent Rotwood from revealing it in the first place.

Robin: Look, guys. I know what it's like to be angry and obsessed with taking a villain down. I don't want any of you to make the same mistakes as I did.

Lola: (bitterly) That's easy for you to say, Boy Wonder. Slade's wiped out from existence forever! But Rotwood and his goons are still out there doing God knows what!

Me: And the sooner they die the better.

Iron Man: You guys seriously can't be considering moping out this forever! The Masters of Evil might be understanding. But the other bad guys are still on the loose.

Lincoln: (angrily) Oh yeah? Well, we've got news for you guys. They're your problem now!

Lynn: Lincoln's right. How do you expect us to still fight bad guys when we couldn't even prevent Batman's identity from being revealed?!

Me: Guys come on!

Lori: I think we should search the entire planet for Rotwood's group and take them out permanently! Like wiping them out of existence with the Infinity Stones!

Lola: I've got a better idea. How about we fire the superlaser at their location?

Apeface: And accidentally kill any innocent people that mgiht be near Rotwood and his group?!

Lynn: Hey, if any civilians get killed in the crossfire, then it's their own fault for getting in the way!

Lincoln: I say that we evacuate the entire planet except for Rotwood and his Posse and destroy the entire planet and take those fuckwads with it!

We gasped at what Lincoln is saying!

Me: Lincoln are you out of your mind!?

Nico: How can you say something like that!?

Me: Yeah that is too drastic! If you blow up Earth, you kill our home.

Nico: (to the Loud Kids) You know you guys have done an awful lot of winning ever since J.D. met you guys.

Lincoln: Of course. The good guys always win, after all.

Me: That's right.

Nico: Well, you guys are going to bite my head off for saying this. But you don't learn anything from winning all the time. Rotwood pulling off a win by revealing Batman's secret identity was devastating for you guys, wasn't it?

Me: Of course it was. We're not used to losing.

Nico: Well, you can let this one loss define you guys from now on. Or, you can learn from it. (leaves the room)

G1 Chase: I really hope you guys feel better soon. (leaves the room as well)

The doorbell rang.

Nico: I'll get that.

Nico went to the door and saw that it was Carly Carmine and Misty Tredwell.

Nico: Carly, Misty.

Misty Tredwell: Hey Nico.

Carly Carmine: Are J.D. and the Loud Kids in here?

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Of course they are, Carly.

Nico: Misty, I gave J.D. and the Loud's a pep talk earlier. But now, you and Carly should have a turn at comforting them.

Misty Tredwell: Don't worry. We will.

They came in and we saw them.

Me: Oh hey Carly, hey Misty.

Carly Carmine: I heard about what happened with the revealing of Batman.

Me: Yeah and because of those assholes, Rotwood and his fucking posse, everyone knows about Bruce Wayne being Batman. But the truth was bound to come out sooner or later. Also the Joker knew that Bruce Wayne was Batman. Thank God we killed the Joker before he could kill Bruce.

Carly Carmine: Yeah thank goodness.

Misty Tredwell: But you guys did win that battle against the Crimson Cloak.

Lincoln: True but it still…

Misty Tredwell: Lincoln! Rotwood and his group will pay for their crimes. That curse is gonna kill them in the next couple of weeks.

Laney: Yeah and I can't wait till they die.

Carly Carmine: Just because you had one loss doesn't make it the end of the world. You can learn from this defeat and make sure it doesn't happen again.

I was in deep thought.

Then the alarm went off.

May: Uh oh.

They went to the computer and they saw that Michael Morbius A.K.A. Morbius the Living Vampire was causing trouble. He was killing people at an alarming rate by sucking out all of their blood.

Blade: Michael Morbius!

Nico: I know him! He is a tragic soul.

Nico went over his history.

---

Dr. Michael Morbius, Ph.D., M.D. is a character from Marvel Comics, serving as an enemy to Spider-Man, Blade, and Ghost Rider. He was a biogenetic scientist who was dying of a blood-destroying disease. He injected himself with radioactively altered vampire bat DNA, and it transformed him into a living vampire. Morbius developed a craving and need for human blood, especially the radioactive blood of Spider-Man, which he thought would cure his never-ending hunger.

Morbius's only screen appearances to date were in Spider-Man Animated series where he was voiced by Nick Jameson (who also voiced Richard Fisk in this series). He was the main antagonist in season 2. Morbius first appeared in his human form in "Insidious Six" two-part episode. In these episodes, he has a romance with Felicia Hardy (a.k.a. the Black Cat). In the episode entitled

"Morbius", he stole a vial of Peter Parker's blood in the belief that this was part of Parker's entry in a science competition they were both competing in. While examining the blood in his laboratory, one of the vampire bats he was experimenting on escaped, and began to lap it up. When Morbius tried to scare the bat away, it bit him. The bite infected him with Parker's irradiated blood, transforming him into a living vampire.

He appeared as a villain in the following four episodes, Enter the Punisher, Duel of the Hunters, Blade the Vampire Hunter and The Immortal Vampire, along with "The Awakening" and "The Vampire Queen" in Season #4. In his earlier appearances, he goes on a rampage to turn everyone into Vampires. However, he was stopped by Spider-Man and Blade in The Immortal Vampire. At the end of "The Vampire Queen", Morbius stopped becoming an evil blood sucker thanks to a serum created by Abraham Whistler which suppresses anyone who has a vampiric urge for human blood, but only if they wanted to be human and joined forces with vampire hunter Blade and superhuman Black Cat, who was Felicia's alter ego that Morbius figured out in The Awakening, to stop Blade's evil mother, Mirium. Morbius made a cameo at the beginning and end of the second episode of the animated version of "Secret Wars," along with Blade, who were not only concerned about stopping Mirium but curious where Black Cat went (she was transported from Earth to the Secret Wars planet to fight alongside with Spider-Man as one of the heroes to help him). That was the last appearance of Morbius in the show.

A notable thing about Morbius is that the censorship for the show did not allow vampires to appear. So to allow the use of Morbius, he could not bite victims to drink their blood. Despite having fangs, and evidently being a vampire, he instead had to drain victims through blood suckers on his hands. And blood is only referred to as "plasma". The word "blood" is commonly used in non-vampire episodes. Though, the words "blood-bath","blood sample" and so on are used throughout the series (including vampire episodes). Also, in "The Immortal vampire", Morbius says to Peter: "I need a sample of the neogenic blood you created".

Ultimate Spider-Man

Morbius makes his appearance in Ultimate Spider-Man vs the Sinister Six. He was voiced by Ben Diskin. Morbius is a Hydra Scientist tasked by Arnim Zola to work on an experiment using a venom sample with Doctor Octopus. They succeeded as they made a chemically enhanced version of venom known as Anti-Venom that possessed Harry Osborn and began to annihilate Agent Venom. Anti-Venom nearly destroys Agent Venom until Spider-Man managed to defeat it after he interrogated Morbius.

Morbius later appeared in Symbiote Saga, where he assaulted Spider-Man and Agent Venom in a Warmachine Armor to collect a sample of Venom from Flash. He succeeds and retreats to a research building, where he begins to experiment on it with Doctor Octopus, who is now a captive of Hydra after his deception. This time, they created Carnage, and once they succeeded, Morbius calls upon two Hydra Agents to dispatch Doctor Octopus. However, once Spider-Man and Flash Thompson showed up, Doctor Octopus injects Morbius with bat DNA, turning him into a vampire humanoid. In retribution, Morbius throws the Carnage symbiote at Doc Ock that soon possesses him. Once Morbius transformed into a humanoid bat, he flies away from the building, leaving Spider-Man and Agent Venom to deal with the Carnage possessed Doctor Octopus.

After Spider-Man managed to stop the Carnage infection upon the city with the help with Anti-Venom, the Carnage entrails upon the streets form together into a giant that made its way to Horizon High, where it then spreads itself upon the entire school, infecting Mary Jane Watson there and transforming her into the Carnage Queen. Morbius had evolved closer to his human form and arrives at the school and begins his search for the Carnage Queen. Once he found her fighting Spider-Man, Agent Venom, and Iron Patriot, Morbius places a device upon her head and mind controls her. Spider-Man, Agent Venom, and Iron Patriot are then subdued and are taken to the Shield Academy, where Morbius reveals his plan is to infect the world with Hydra missiles armed with Carnage symbiotes. As Morbius then orders Carnage Queen to destroy Spider-Man, Spider-Man manages to destroy the device on her, freeing her from Morbius' control. Carnage Queen soon assaults Morbius. Morbius tried to absorb the life energy from Carnage Queen, but had no luck at it and had his life energy drained instead.

They gasped.

May: Poor guy.

Laney: I can't believe he's dying because of that.

Ghost Rider: I feel sorry for him.

May: Me too.

Nico: What do you say guys? Shall we stop him?

I wouldn't answer.

May: Looks like it's up to us to get Morbius to calm down.

Blade: Shouldn't we wait for J.D. and the Loud's first?

Maria: Blade, right now, I don't think they're in any mood for missions. We're on our own.

Nico: Lets go.

They were off.

I was thinking hard and I began to realize that one little defeat is not gonna hurt. Same with the Loud Kids.

Me: Guys lets go help them.

Lincoln: Yeah! We can't sit here and mope. Lets do it!

Me: That's the spirit.

Stan Lee then appeared.

Stan Lee: That's the spirit of the true believers that I know.

Me: Thanks Stan. Lets do it!

Stan Lee: EXCELSIOR!

We were off.

---

In the middle of the city we saw MICHAEL MORBIUS! We landed and we were facing him.

Me: Michael Morbius.

Morbius: It's an honor to meet you all J.D. Knudson and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: We read about what happened to you because of your blood disease.

Lucy Loud: But you don't have to go through something like this again.

Me: That's right. I can cure you and get rid of that disease for you.

Morbius: Do you really plan to cure me, J.D.?

Me: Of course I am. What makes you ask that question?

Morbius: I know for a fact that you and the Loud children are still upset about Hans Rotwood and his followers. For all I know, you could be planning to keep me this way just so I can eventually go after them.

Davis Motomiya: C'mon! J.D. would never keep you this way just to get even with Rotwood. (to you and the Loud Kids) Right, guys?

Aqua: Davis, they're willing to endanger civilians just to get even with Rotwood. Who knows what they might do now?

Me: Davis is right Aqua. We just have to wait for nature to take its course. I'm never gonna forgive Rotwood and his posse for this. But lets focus on what is at hand. Michael, I can sense that someone put you up to this. Who was it?

Morbius: It was Jigsaw.

We gasped.

Me: William Russo A.K.A. Jigsaw the Beaut?

Spiderman: He's one of my enemies. Same with the Punisher.

Me: He is a ruthless hitman.

I went over his history.

---

William "Billy" Russo is the main antagonist of the Netflix series Marvel's The Punisher. He serves as one of the two main antagonists (along with Agent Orange) of its first season and the secondary antagonist of its second season.

He was the best friend and squad mate of Frank Castle during their time in the U.S. Special Forces. He also leads Anvil, a private military contractor in New York City. Despite their friendship, Billy would be revealed to have betrayed Frank to his boss Agent Orange during an operation overseas called Cerberus, which results in Frank not only losing his family but also setting him on the path to become the vigilante known as Punisher. By doing so, he becomes one of Castle's main targets. Russo also sets out to kill Castle before Castle can do the same to him. Upon recovering from his injuries sustained from his fight with Castle, he starts his own gang, earns the nickname Jigsaw and becomes his archenemy.

He was portrayed by Ben Barnes, who also played Logan Delos in Westworld and Dorian Gray in The Picture of Dorian Gray.

Russo had a difficult childhood in New York City. Growing up, he was very poor. His mother was a meth addict who emotionally neglected her children. Later, he was put in foster care and lived in a group home. Russo was also a victim of attempted child molestation; luckily, he was able to defend himself, but not without being severely injured by the perpetrator.

Billy became a lieutenant in the U.S. Special Forces and befriended Frank Castle. During one mission, Russo and Castle became trapped in house in Basra and saved each other's lives multiple times. Russo and Castle joined several other soldiers for a briefing by Agent Orange, who explained they were helping to end the war, as Major Ray Schoonover explained they had joined Operation Cerberus, although Russo continued joking. Cornered by Frank Castle at the carousel where Frank's family was killed, a plot that Billy (who had been Frank's closest friend in the military) knew about, the suave former special-ops soldier pleads for Frank to kill him, only to be denied an easy way out. Instead, Frank smashes Billy's face into a mirror, scraping it against shards, leaving him with a scarred face and brain injuries resulting in memory loss.

Season 2

While being unconscious for months, Russo begins to have constant nightmares of Frank Castle torturing him on the same night where his face was mutilated.

As the nightmares continued, a psychotherapist named Krista Dumont arrived to help with his fear. Two police guards come inside the room to subdue him; however, Russo manages to fight back with complete resilience and is able to take down the guards. He is able to run away since Krista decides not tell anyone about this.

As Frank aproaches him, Russo tries to apologize but Frank shoots him multiple times before he can finish his sentence.

---

Laney: He's ruthless!

Me: Looks like we're gonna have to kill him.

Nico: Yep.

Shocker: I'll get Jigsaw out into the open for us to face him. He and I have an old score to settle.

Me: Go get him.

Shocker then called forth his Zapdos and flew out.

Then we saw 5 beams of light shine down in front of us. It was the Lantern Corps Leaders, Larfleeze, Hal Jordan, Saint Walker, Indigo 1 and Carol Ferris.

Me: Whoa! The Lantern Leaders.

Saint Walker: It is good to see you all again.

Me: Same to you Walker.

Qin: Wow! You guys are some of my favorites.

Larfleeze: Glad we have some fans.

Hal Jordan: You guys have expanded your forces the last time we saw you.

Me: We sure have Hal.

Carol Ferris: I can see that.

Brittney: It's like we have a reunion of the members of the Emotional Spectrum.

Sinestro: It sure feels like it.

Indigo 1: Nok. It sure does.

Carol Ferris: Yeah.

Maggie: That is amazing.

Swamp Thing: It sure is.

Me: Yep.

Hal Jordan: I'm glad we're all together now. We have a bigger problem looming on the horizon.

Me: What's wrong Hal?

Hal Jordan: The Ultraviolet Lantern Corps is coming to Earth.

We gasped.

Nico: I never heard of the Ultraviolet Lanterns.

Sinestro: They are a really terrible force that is out to enslave the Universe.

The lantern leaders told us what they were and what they are going to do.

---

Umbrax moves unseen through space, drawn toward planets where self-destructive forces are strongest. It surrounds these places, animating them with its energy, and then pulls them into its galaxy, adding it and it's inhabitants to the Ultraviolet Lantern Corps.

The very first recruit of the new corps would be John Stewart of Earth. Knowing John, Sinestro believed he would have an affinity for the darker aspects of the unseen light. Sinestro used John to draw Umbrax to the Sol star system and Stewart's home planet: Earth. Inhabits, as the ultraviolet entity is drawn to the most self-destructive populaces which inhabit reality at the time.

The Corps is controlled by Umbrax, rather than each individual member controlling their own emotions; however this is not always the case. Sinestro found a way to bind and isolate the Ultraviolet power into himself, using his original costume with linen fibers that can distill the energy of Umbrax without succumbing to its thrall and now helms the Ultraviolet Corps. John Stewart was also able to overcome the influence of Umbrax and wield the Ultraviolet energy through his own force of will and confronting the negative emotions he held deep down.

We gasped in shock!

Me: They feed on the negative emotions of the most hostile of races?

Laney: And their home planet is really an invisible sentient black star that moves unseen through space?

Saint Walker: That's right.

Nico: That's terrible!

Me: How much time do we have till they get to Earth?

Larfleeze: Months, years, decades, we don't know.

Lynn: What is the star called?

Sinestro: Umbrax.

Me: This is really bad. Can the star be destroyed with conventional means?

Saint Walker: It can. But it would take a tremendous amount of power.

Nico: Enough power to destroy 1,000 planets.

Me: Leave that to me. I'll handle doing that.

Nico: Okay. But lets focus on the matters at hand.

* * *

Later at Jigsaw's hideout, Shocker was sneaking through it and he saw JIGSAW! He held up his hand to his head.

Jigsaw: (points gun to Shocker's head) You're that punk, Shocker! Who put you up to this shit? Did Kingpin send you to take me out? I'm gonna mess you up real bad! (gestures to Shocker's Zapdos) And then it's your pet's turn!

Shocker: Actually, I was sent by someone else. Now you will pay for your crimes against Morbius!

He kicked Jigsaw and sent him crashing through the roof and sent him flying.

Shocker: Time to go to J.D. and the others.

He left.

---

Shocker then came back to us.

Shocker: Jigsaw is coming right about…

He crashed into the ground.

Everyone: OOOHHH!

Me: That's gonna leave a mark.

Jigsaw got up and he saw us.

Jigsaw: Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: William Russo A.K.A. Jigsaw. Now you will pay for your crimes.

Batman: You are going down!

Jigsaw: (to Batman) Why bother with the mask, Dark Knight? You've got nothing worth hiding now!

Batman: It's my mark of honor. I won't let the reveal of who I am get me down.

Me: Same with us.

Jake Holling: By the time we're done with you, more then just your face is gonna be messed up!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Nova Flashteam!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Supernova Flashman Rangers.

Vypra, Bane and Comic Book Guy came out.

Me: Vypra, Bane and Comic Book Guy.

Vypra: How are you guys feeling?

Luan: We're feeling a lot better.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) I just want you all to know that I knew Batman was Bruce Wayne long before my first fight with you all.

Laney: How did you figure it out?

Comic Book Guy: Probably beause Bruce Wayne is usually never around whenever Batman shows up. Or the fact that Batman doesn't disguise his voice.

Me: See? Even Comic Book Guy knew about you being Batman, Bruce. He knows because he ran a comic book store before we destroyed Springfield.

Comic Book Guy: It's true.

Laney: Yep.

Vypra: I didn't expect the Lantern Corps leaders to show up here as well.

Me: They are good friends of ours. We helped them and they helped us.

Nico: Yep.

?: Very interesting.

We saw a figure come out and it was FRIGHTWING from episodes 29 & 30 of In Space!

* * *

Frightwing was a condor monster used by Astronema. Frightwing mistook Bulk, Skull and Professor Phenomenus for the Power Rangers, who he was sent to destroy by Astronema. He was capable of flight, he was enlarged and destroyed by Mega Voyager.

Andros: Frightwing!

Frightwing: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You mistook Bulk, Skull and Professor Phenomenus for the Power Rangers and you were sent to destroy them.

Frightwing: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Watched all of you on TV and never missed an episode.

Frightwing: I can see that.

Laney: You are one ugly bird.

Frightwing: (to Bulk and Skull) I guess you two weren't Rangers after all!

Bulk: No we weren't!

Me: They weren't you overgrown chicken. Lets get these clods!

We powered up and went at them.

Vypra: Good. Lets dance!

Luan formed a sword of light.

Luan: Lets Light this up! (Laughs to rimshot) Get it?

Vypra: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Luan: Thanks. Lets do this.

They went at each other and clashed powerfully and sparks were flying all over the place. Luan kicked her in the stomach and knocked her down and she was knocked down.

I flew at him and punched him in the face and grabbed him by his shirt and headbutt him and kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach and punched him in the nose and kicked him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth. Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted him all over the place.

Linka: Lets see how you like this one! DC STYLE NINJA ART: RED LANTERN ATROCITUS!

Linka fired a blast of red energy and it formed into the former leader of the Red Lantern Corps, ATROCITUS!

---

Atrocitus, originally known as Atros, was an native to the planet Ryut in Space Sector 0666. Countless years ago, by the time he reached adulthood, he had worked to become a psychologist and was married with his wife who had a young daughter. Their peaceful life came to an end when the renegade Oan Krona induced a programming malfunction in the Manhunters. This led to them exterminating all life in Space Sector 666 bringing about the devastating period known as the Massacre of Sector 666. Atros' home world was ravaged in this time and he saw his wife as well as his child ruthlessly incinerated by the android Manhunters which left Atrocitus as one of the few survivors. In fact, Atros became one of only five beings in the entire sector to escape death. He and the other four survivors formed a terrorist cabal known as the Five Inversions, bent on the destruction of the Guardians of the Universe and all who served them, and with Atrocitus serving as their leader. The Five Inversions performed a ritual which allowed them to peer into the future and discover the prophecy of the Blackest Night, which decreed that all life in the universe would end. They ruled a massive domain known as the Empire of Tears, until the Guardians of the Universe defeated the Five Inversions and imprisoned them on their capital, Ysmault.

After Abin Sur arrived, trying to locate survivors of a crash, he went to the imprisoned demons and asked for their assistance. Atrocitus refused to help him, but his comrade Qull offered to answer three questions: the location of the survivors, the fate of Abin Sur, and the prophecy of the Blackest Night. Sur told this to the Guardians of the Universe, and in turn kept the Five Inversions on Ysmault instead of transferring them to Oan sciencells. Following this, Sur began to make periodic visits to Ysmault, to learn how to prevent the Blackest Night. Sur even went so far as to free Atrocitus from his imprisonment so he could lead the Green Lantern to Earth, the birthplace of "the black" that would end the universe. Caged in Sur's star ship, Atrocitus instilled fear in Sur, allowing the yellow impurity to seep into his willpower constructs and weakening them enough to escape. After slashing the Green Lantern in the chest, mortally wounding him, Atrocitus jumped from a point high Earth's atmosphere to escape Sur's failing ship.

Atrocitus continued his violent rampage on the planet Earth. After killing an unspecified number of Air Force troopers, Atrocitus recited an oath that will possibly become the battle cry of the Red Lanterns and performed a ritual which gave him the name of the herald of the Blackest Night: William Hand. Atrocitus created a device using gun parts which acted as a cosmic divining rod, and used it to lead him to Hand (the device eventually became Hand's criminal weapon). Once he tracked down the human who, it was said, would play a prominent role in the coming of the Blackest Night, he attacked, planning to take Hand's innards back to Ysmault. But Sinestro and rookie Green Lantern Hal Jordan intercepted him, spiriting William Hand to safety. Atrocitus used his newly constructed device to sap the power from their rings, leaving them with only their wits to defend themselves from the master of the Five Inversions. Sinestro was able to restore their rings' powers through his power battery, but Atrocitus still had the upper hand, until, just as he was about to crush Sinestro with a power shovel, Hal used his ring to blow up the yellow vehicle, surprising Atrocitus, who had believed Green Lantern Rings could not work on yellow. Defeated, Atrocitus was contained by Sinestro, and taken to Oa. Later after Sinestro dropped Atrocitus back on Ysmault, Atrocitus and the other Inversions imparted a prophecy of the eventual rebellion of Sinestro's homeworld of Korugar. Sinestro didn't believe his lies and told him that unlike Abin Sur, he would not fall to fear.

Atrocitus blasted Jigsaw all over the place with blasts of red energy and they hit him all over and exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

She attempted an escape when Sinestro's battle with the Green Lantern Corps devastated Ranx, but the Sinestro Corpsman of Space Sector 0465 caught her. And just as she was ready to die in the vacuum of space, a Red Lantern Power Ring approached her. She accepted thanks to the great rage boiling in her heart and murdered the Sinestro Corpsman before heading out into the cosmos. He blasted Jigsaw with napalmic energy from his mouth and burned him all over.

Once as a kitten in a litter of five, Dexter was abandoned at and later adopted from the Brooklyn Animal Shelter. His new owner loved Dexter because he was always there to keep her company. She even said that Dexter made her life a lot better, and that he would say the same thing too if he could speak. One night, a burglar broke into their apartment and Dexter scratched him. As the burglar screamed in pain, Dexter's owner woke up and called for help, but unfortunately help never arrived. The next day, when the police came to investigate the murder, one of the cops kicked Dexter out saying that the cat could contaminate the crime scene (apparently unaware that Dexter was a resident of the apartment). Dexter was left homeless for an unknown amount of time, living in a box on the street when two thugs called him out and bagged him. For their amusement, they decided to throw Dexter (while still inside the bag) off the Brooklyn Bridge to see him drown. Just as they did, a Red Lantern Power Ring flew in, detecting the rage within Dexter's heart and turned him into a Red Lantern, and thus embraced his new identity as Dex-Starr. After he killed the thugs, Dex-Starr, remembering his owner's kind words and having the ring express his rage in coherent thoughts, vowed to find and kill her murderer.

He slashed and clawed Jigsaw all over and it really hurt him!

Lana: That was Dex-Starr!

Me: It's really interesting that there is a cat in the ranks of the Red Lantern Corps.

Linka fired a wave of red energy and it formed into the Red Lantern Entity's host, JAMES KIM!

---

James Kim was a male Human born on the planet Earth by the modern age where he had a single child who was a girl by the name of Elizabeth. At some unspecified time, his daughter was abducted and killed by the serial killer Joshua Hayes who claimed that she "liked it". He was later apprehended by the authorities and sent to prison where a trial was held on his guilt. During this time, Mr Kim did not attend these events as he was greatly distraught over the loss of his daughter who he said was his baby girl as well as his "everything". Hayes for his crimes was convicted by the state and sentenced to death. This was the one event that Mr Kim attended in order to see the person responsible for his daughters death to die himself. As he stood in the observation lounge, the saddened James Kim watched as Hayes was given his final rites. The serial killer asked the warden to be allowed to say his final words to which he asked if the girls father was here. He later stated that he was informed by his lawyer that Mr Kim did not want to know the full details of his daughters demise. As the warden told Hayes to get to the point, Joshua stated he wanted to let the father know that his daughter "liked it". This sent Mr Kim to furious rage who slammed the windows of the observation lounge stating that Joshua Hayes was going to pay for what he did to Elizabeth and that he was going to hell for what he put her through. As his friends and the warden attempted to calm him down, James Kim commented that Joshua Hayes was a monster and that he wished he could kill the criminal himself to which a smug Hayes said he would like to see the old man try.

The anger felt by Mr Kim, however, attracted the avatar of rage in the Emotional Spectrum which was the Butcher Entity. This fearsome beast had previously massacred the inmates of a prison in its search for a host and broke into the facility where James Kim stood. The creature commented that he had great rage in his heart and that it was hungry for a new host to feed it.

He ruthlessly smashed and blasted Jigsaw all over with incredible fury.

She was trained by her father Kentor Omoto to take over his role as a soldier of the Guardians of the Universe as Green Lantern of her sector. Her training was also one strict with tradition and honor. During her training she became exceptionally adept at her native martial arts. Throughout his time with his daughter he never hid the fact that the ruling council of his planet were not doing things the way he would, he saw their rule as weak and disreputable. After the disappearance of her father during the Crisis on Infinite Earths and the proclamation by the Guardians that he was dead, she was considered for the post of ring bearer and Green Lantern of her sector. Her instructor turned out to be Ke'Haan of Varva, Kilowog's second in command. Most would have thought her doomed to fail as Ke'Haan was renowned for his tough as nails training. More Green Lantern recruits flunked out or quit under him than anyone else. Eager to please and finding a kindred spirit of honor within her teacher she became his prized pupil.

Linka: And lastly, the entity of the Red Lantern Corps. LANTERN ENTITY STYLE NINJA ART: THE BUTCHER!

Linka fired a wave of red energy and it formed into the Red Lantern Entity - THE BUTCHER!

---

The Butcher is a creature of the Emotional Spectrum and serves as the embodiment of the power of Rage which is the color Red in that energy field. It was formed after the Life Entity entered into the universe and manifested on the planet Earth where it influenced the worlds in order to bring about the rise of sentient life. As it did so, numerous embodiments of the Emotional Spectrum formed, with The Rage Entity being the fifth to be born. It was created after the first act of murder was made, which led to its formation. At some point in the past, The Spectre sought to eliminate the emotional embodiments of the emotional electromagnetic spectrum as he believed them to have too much influence on mortals and that they were too dangerous. Liberty: Here's where we go into the Orange Lanterns. DC STYLE NINJA ART: ORANGE LANTERN LARFLEEZE/AGENT ORANGE!

Liberty fired a wave of orange energy and it formed into the leader of the Orange Lanterns, LARFLEEZE!

The origins of Larfleeze, also known as Agent Orange, remain shrouded in mystery, largely due to the actions of the Guardians of the Universe. According to his own account, Larfleeze was one part of a group of five thieves who wanted to pull off the greatest heist in the history of their guild. They raided the planet Maltus, where one of their own was lost, and stole several treasures, mainly a box and a map. The box was supposedly worth more than an entire star system, for it contained Parallax, the sentient embodiment of fear. The other thing they stole was a map made by the fallen Maltusian Krona, said to contain something very valuable.

Making their way to Okaara, they entered the Forbidden Forest of Weeds. Another of their group was killed by the forest, and the others fell into a temple. Inside was an Orange Lantern Power Battery. Mesmerized by it, the three remaining thieves started fighting among themselves of the Lantern. The Guardians then arrived with a force of Manhunters. However, their power was drained by the orange light, and several Guardians were killed, along with a third member of the thieves, leaving only Larfleeze and Blooch remained. The Guardians then said that all they wanted was the box containing Parallax. If the two would give it up, they would be allowed to keep the Orange Battery, as long as it stayed buried in the temple. Additionally, only one could own the battery. Larfleeze and Blooch accepted the deal, and then fought to the death. Larfleeze won, and became the sole wielder of the Orange Battery, then known as Agent Orange.

Larfleeze fired blasts of orange lightning and electrocuted Jigsaw all over and blasted him all over the place and it really hurt.

Larfleeze: Very well done! I am honored that you would use me as a technique.

Liberty: Thank you Larfleeze. I am sorry that you have to be on the planet Okaara all by yourself.

Qin: Yeah and don't you ever get lonesome there?

Larfleeze: All the time. But my shiny keeps me company.

Me: The Orange Lantern Battery keeps him company. It uses the light of Avarice or Greed.

The Green Lantern of Uxor, known as the Green Man, had come to close the hole and save the travelers. Although they could not save themselves, the people of the caravan refused the Green Lantern's help. In accordance with the ways of their ancestors, no one outside of the group was allowed to aid the caravan. The gods had placed the evil in their ancient path, and they must meet it bravely and alone. In order to help the caravan, the Green Lantern gave Gretti a power ring. The young man was arrogant and impatient, but after the Green Lantern showed him what to do, Gretti closed the hole and saved his people. They returned to the caravan, with the young man regarded as a hero. The Green Lantern of Uxor left Gretti under the watchful eye of his grandmother.

Wanting to look more like them, she altered her appearance by sharpening her teeth into fangs. One day, Karu-Sil and her pack found a village by a river. There, she saw a boy, who approached her. She attacked him, and together with the beasts, killed him. They were found by Blish, the sector's Green Lantern, who killed the beasts, thinking that they had also been trying to attack Karu-Sil. She was sent to an institution on Graxos IV, where she killed one of her psychologists. Karu-Sil was freed from the institution when she was chosen to represent her sector in the Sinestro Corps. Harold 'Hal' Jordan was born in Coast City to parents Martin Jordan and Jessica Jordan, the middle of three children with older brother Jack and a younger brother Jim. As a young child, he idolized his father, a test pilot who worked for Ferris Aircraft. At a very young age, he had to face his greatest fears when his father died in a plane crash. Despite his family's wishes, he followed in his father's footsteps and eventually joined the United States Air Force as soon as he was eligible. Many years later, a dying alien named Abin Sur who had been a member of the Green Lantern Corps crash-landed his ship in the Californian desert. Selecting a replacement officer for his position as a Green Lantern, the Green Lantern Power Ring chose Hal Jordan for his ability to overcome great fear. The ring and its abilities were explained to him, and he inherited the mantle of Green Lantern. Acting as a galactic police officer, it was his job to serve and protect all life in Space Sector 2814. He would soon learn that there were another 3600 Green Lanterns across the universe, all monitored and empowered by mystical creatures called the Guardians. Hal received training from some of the best The Corps had to offer, including drill sergeant Kilowog, and his mentor Sinestro. While training, he learned that Sinestro had been subjugating Korugar using the ring. He reported these acts to the Guardians. Hal then battled Sinestro and was victorious. Sinestro then got expelled from the Corps and banished to the Anti-Matter Universe, finally becoming a sworn enemy of the Corps and then got a new Qward power ring, beginning his revenge. As Green Lantern, Hal patrolled the galaxy and went on many missions in space. He continued to spend his time at home working at Ferris Aircraft, where he romantically pursued his boss, the lovely Carol Ferris. He would entrust his secrets to a young Eskimo lad who worked as his mechanic, Tom Kalmaku.

She was part of a large group of Green Lanterns who went to thwart Krona and Nekron while the Guardians of the Universe attempted valiantly to try and halt Nekron's influence on the Universe, and try to seal the portal Nekron was attempting to pass through. She was one of the Green Lanterns, along with Katma Tui, Salaak, Ch'p (who referred to her as the "big cutie") and Kilowog, who relocated to Earth after the battle against the Anti-Monitor.

Guy Gardner was from Baltimore, where he was raised by his parents, Rolly and Peggy Gardner. Rolly was an abusive alcoholic who beat Gardner repeatedly. Gardner worked very hard in school to try to win his father's approval, yet all his achievements were dismissed out of hand. Instead, Rolly lavished attention and compliments upon Gardner's older brother Mace, who, it seemed to Gardner, could do no wrong in their father's eyes. Gardner's only escape at this time was General Glory comic books, even modeling his bowl haircut on Glory's sidekick, Ernie. During his mid teens, Gardner finally decided that nothing he ever did was going to be good enough to win his father's affection, and the young boy became a juvenile delinquent. Gardner was straightened out from his downward spiral by his older brother, who had become a police officer. Mace's pressure and advice knocked some sense into Gardner, and Gardner then went to college, working his way through to support himself, and emerging from University of Michigan with bachelor's degrees in education and psychology. During his time at University of Michigan, he also became a nationally renowned football hero, but had to abandon that career due to injuries. After college, Gardner worked as a social welfare caseworker, dealing with prison inmates and their rehabilitation. He abandoned this line of work, however, fearing it brought out his innate more aggressive nature. Moving on, he became a teacher for children with disabilities.

Although Jordan objected after seeing that Stewart had a belligerent attitude to authority figures, the Guardians stood by their selection. Jordan complied and recruited and equipped Stewart with the standard uniform and power ring. To Jordan, Stewart's first mission began badly with the assignment of protecting a racist politician and Stewart took advantage of averting an accident to embarrass him in the process. However, Stewart soon proved his worth when an apparent African American assassin shot at the politician, but Stewart refused to intervene with Jordan to move in response to the attack. However, Stewart had good reasons for this apparent dereliction of duty when he stopped a gunman from killing a police officer in the outside parking lot at the event while Jordan was pursuing a decoy. When Jordan confronted Stewart for his actions, Stewart effectively explained the situation of the ruse and the fact the politician staged it for political advantage. With that adventure, Jordan concluded that Stewart was an excellent recruit after all.

Jade's mother Rose Canton was briefly married to Alan Scott, but fled upon conceiving their children, fearing she would harm them. She gave them up for adoption and they were separated. Jennie-Lynn was adopted by a couple in the Milwaukee suburbs. Jennie did not learn she had a twin brother until she was in her late teens. Shortly after she and Todd met, surmising they were the children of Alan Scott, they attempted to join the Justice Society. They were rejected, but joined with other children and proteges of JSA members to form Infinity, Inc.. Due to her father's exposure to magical energies, she and her brother were born with metahuman powers, although Jade's only manifested themselves when she was defending herself from being sexually assaulted as a child. Jade's powers greatly resemble those of the Green Lantern Corps: she is able to generate green energy and shape it into constructs according to her will. She once lost those powers when she fought the Starheart, the source of her powers, but they were restored by Kyle Rayner during his first, short tenure as the god-like Ion. She later discovered that she had her mother's plant manipulation powers, when she caused roses to attack a mugger. While on a date with Kyle on an alien world, she told him that her skin actually contains chlorophyll (the source of its green hue), and she can photosynthesize sunlight like a plant. While she was without her powers, Kyle gave her a power ring and she briefly served as Earth's Green Lantern.

She fired waves of green energy and they hit Jigsaw all over the place.

Me: Whoa! That was Jennifer-Lynn Hayden A.K.A. Jade. We haven't met her yet.

Nico: No we haven't. But she was awesome!

Lincoln: And here's the funniest member of the Green Lantern Corps. DC STYLE NINJA ART: GREEN LANTERN B'DG!

Lincoln fired a wave of green energy and it formed into the H'lven Green Lantern, B'DG!

---

B'dg was recruited by the Guardians of Oa to be a Green Lantern, replacing Ch'p as Green Lantern of Space Sector 1014. B'dg (pronounced like "Badge") was one of several thousand beings recruited by the Guardians to reform the Green Lantern Corps. He began his training under Kilowog and met Hal Jordan, although like many of the rookie Lanterns, he had no idea of Jordan's checkered history. B'dg and several of his fellow trainees were surprised that someone from a backward planet like Earth had become a member of the Corps. Ironically, B'dg had some knowledge of Earth's geography, since he found Kilowog's comment that Jordan was not only pathetically human-but also an American-extremely funny.

---

He fired a blast of green energy and it formed into a green whoopee cushion and farted in Jigsaw's face.

FFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRRTTTT

We laughed hysterically!

Me: (LAUGHS) THAT WAS SO FUNNY!

Nico: (LAUGHS) OH THAT IS A RIOT!

Lincoln: (LAUGHS) OH THAT IS SO FUNNY!

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Lincoln!

Me: Way to go buddy.

Lincoln: Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: GREEN LANTERN JACK T. CHANCE!

Lincoln fired a wave of Green Energy and it formed into the meanest Green Lantern of them all from the planet Garnet, JACK T. CHANCE!

---

The Green Lantern Pathavim Seth-Ottarak traveled to the planet Garnet (known as "Hellhole" to its inhabitants), seeking to quell the lawlessness rampant there. Shortly after arriving, however, he was killed by Trosk, a self-titled "anti-lawman" and infamous murderer. As his last act, Pavathim sent his ring to find a suitable replacement, and the ring chose Jack T. Chance. Jack accepted his new role as Green Lantern, and confronted Trosk, out to succeed where his predecessor failed. Trosk's custom golden bullets, paired with his unwillingness to stop fighting while still alive, proved to be too much for Chance, who resorted to shooting and killing Trosk.

Chance was recalled to Oa for punishment for killing another sentient, but, due to the lack of suitable alternative candidates to serve as Garnet's Green Lantern, Chance and the Guardians of the Universe brokered a deal whereby he is able to stay with the Corps, but his ring worked only on Garnet. Thereafter, he served as Garnet's resident Green Lantern.

He blasted Jigsaw all over with his ring and it really hurt him all over.

Me: Whoa! That was Jack T. Chance!

Nico: The meanest Green Lantern of them all. He was brutal.

Me: Yep.

Lincoln: And here's the entity of the Green Lanterns. LANTERN ENTITY STYLE NINJA ART: ION THE WILL!

Lincoln fired a massive wave of green energy and it formed into the entity of the Green Lanterns, ION!

---

Once thought to be merely an honorary title in the Green Lantern Corps, Ion is in fact the symbiotic willpower entity birthed from the green of the Emotional Spectrum. Its existence was kept a secret from the Green Lantern Corps since their inception, and it resided in the central power battery to keep Parallax in check. Only after the destruction of the Central Power Battery were both Ion and Parallax set free. Ion wandered the cosmos for a time, and eventually was reined in by what was then the only surviving Green Lantern ring, that of Kyle Rayner. Kyle Rayner served as its host briefly, and noted that his power base was so greatly expanded, he didn't need a power battery or power ring to manifest the emerald energy. Unlike Parallax, Ion does not influence the user's actions.

---

He smashed Jigsaw with his tail fin and smashed him into the ground.

Me: Whoa! That was Ion, the Green Lantern Entity.

Qin: Wow!

Laney: That is so cool!

Me: Yep.

Lily: Now for Blue Lanterns. Saint Walker, this one is for you. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN SAINT WALKER!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern Leader from the planet Astonia, SAINT WALKER!

---

A highly religious man on the world Astonia, Bro'Dee "Saint" Walker and his people faced a dying sun, which resulted in terror and panicked violence in his streets. He took his family on a journey of enlightenment atop a nearby mountain prophesied to present a messiah who Walker believed would guide them to salvation. Along the way, Walker witnessed his family die one by one as dangers along the journey became fiercer. Even still, Walker's hope never wavered, and when he reached the top, finding it empty, he refused to give up hope, and realized he was the savior spoken of. Walker delivered a message of hope back to his people before Ganthet and Sayd helped replenish his dying sun and presented him with a Blue Lantern power ring, so he could share his capacity for hope throughout the galaxy.

Saint Walker is the first member of the Blue Lantern Corps. The being given the title of "Saint" Bro'Dee Walker on his home world located in Space Sector 0001, is the very first being to be initiated into the Blue Lantern Corps. He is sought out by Ganthet and Sayd, the Guardians of Hope, and brought back to the Blue Lantern Corps home world of Odym. While on Odym Bro'Dee Walker spent several days with the Guardians to be evaluated so they can truly judge whether he is worthy of becoming a member of their Blue Lantern Corps or not. They explained to him what it truly means to be a Blue Lantern wielding the power of hope and to join their cause. Each Blue Lantern is responsible for choosing the next Blue Lantern from the next sector where upon they are brought to Odym to be evaluated by Ganthet and Sayd. After his acceptance into the Blue Lantern Corps Saint Walker then brought Brother Warth of Space Sector 0002 to Odym.

He blasted Jigsaw all over with a firehose of energy and it hit him and drenched him.

Saint Walker: Very well done Sister Lily.

Lily: Thank you Saint Walker.

Saint Walker: I am honored that you would do a technique in honor of me.

Lily: You're welcome. Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN SAYD!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern and former Guardian of the Universe from Oa, SAYD!

---

Sayd was one of the reborn members of the Guardians of the Universe, and one of the few female members of the organization. Sayd's sensibilities were more in line with those of Ganthet, himself, a Guardian known for his non-traditional mindset.

---

Sayd fired waves of blue energy and they hit Jigsaw and knocked him all over the place.

Me: Wow! That was Sayd. One of the former Guardians of the Universe.

Hal Jordan: That's right J.D. Now he is one of the members of the Blue Lantern Corps.

Laney: Cool!

Lily: Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN ADARA ENTITY!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into the Entity of Hope, ADARA!

---

The Adara Entity is the embodiment of Hope of the Emotional Spectrum and thus represented the combined feeling of hope felt by the sentient of the cosmos. It was born when the Entity entered into the early universe and settled on the planet Earth which sparked the creation of life among countless worlds. The Adara Entity was one of the last entities to be created of the Emotional Spectrum and is similar to its counterparts namely the Ion, Parallax, Predator, Ophidian, Butcher and Proselyte entities. However, following its emergence, its existence was seemingly forgotten by the cosmos and it remained hidden until later years.

---

Adara looked like a beautiful bird and she fired a wave of blue energy and it hit Jigsaw and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Me: Whoa! That was Adara, the Embodiment of Hope.

Lori: She was literally beautiful.

Becky: She sure was.

Me: And she's also the very being that represents the hope of everything all over the universe. The Blue Lantern Corps are based on her.

I showed my Blue Lantern Ring.

Qin: Wow! I didn't know you were a Blue Lantern, J.D.

Me: You never asked Qin.

Qin: Touche.

Me: It's a big responsibility.

Lily: It sure is. Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN NICOLE MORRISON!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern of Earth and the Host of Adara, NICOLE MORRISON!

---

Nicole Morrison was a female Human born on the planet Earth who was looked after by her parents that resided in Livonia in Michigan. Her mother had raised her to forgive others even when they had done wrong things. When she was fourteen years old, she was leaving Bates Hamburger when she was abducted by Winston Woods leaving only her backpack by the dumpster in a warren. Taking the child to his place, he kept her captive whilst being nice to her as he had done so with other children in the past. The loss of the child led to a search being conducted with Nicole's parents being worried and giving a speech to the public on the second day of the search. Woods attempted to force feed her when she claimed to him that she forgave him to which he confused. When she asked him to forgive her, she threw the food into his face and temporarily blinded him whereupon she attempted to flee outside the apartment. But he stopped her and became angry as well as aggressive with her at which point the Adara Entity manifested declaring that "All will be well" after which it took her as a host. After possessing her, the Hope Entity told Winston Woods that he had ripped out the hope of others during his evil acts but Adara forgave him which led to a flash of light and Woods screaming whereupon Nicole said that the whole world would know of it.

She fired waves of blue energy from Adara's wings that sprouted from her back and they hit Jigsaw and exploded all over!

Me: Whoa!

Lori: (Gasp) That was Nicole Morrison!

Laney: How do you know her Lori?

Lori: She and I go to school together. She is literally one of my best friends.

Me: Wow! I didn't know that Lori.

Nico: Big surprise.

Laney: Wow!

Lily: Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN BROTHER WARTH!

Lily fired a wave of Blue Energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern, BROTHER WARTH!

---

Warth was from Space Sector 0002 and became the second person to be initiated into the Blue Lantern Corps. Each Blue Lantern was chosen by the Blue Lantern of the previous sector and brought to the Guardians of the Blue Lantern Corps, Ganthet and Sayd to be evaluated so they can truly judge whether they are worthy to become a member of their Corps or not. He was brought to the Odym, home planet of the Blue Lantern Corps, by its first member, Saint Bro'Dee Walker of Space Sector 0001. Warth spent several days with the Guardians while they evaluated and judged him for themselves. They explained to him what it truly means to be a Blue Lantern and join their cause.

---

He blasted Jigsaw all over with blasts of blue energy.

Me: Whoa! That was Brother Warth.

Nico: From what I remember, he was the 2nd person to be initiated into the Blue Lantern Corps.

Qin: Wow!

Lily: Here's this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN BROTHER HYMN!

Lily fired a wave of energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern, BROTHER HYMN!

---

Brother Hymn is the third being inducted into the Blue Lantern Corps. As is Blue Lantern protocol, Brother Hymn was selected by Warth to bring hope to his sector of space. Hymn was taken to Odym to be inducted into the corps by Ganthet and Sayd. Hymn then went on to select Sister Sercy to be the Blue Lantern of her sector. Brother Hymn had just returned to Odym with Sister Sercy when Larfleeze and his Orange Lantern Corps attacked Odym, seeking a blue ring of his own.

---

He blasted Jigsaw all over with blasts of energy and hurt him all over.

Me: Whoa! That was Brother Hymn.

Nico: He's the 3rd Member to be initiated into the Blue Lantern Corps.

Me: Yep.

Qin: Wow!

Lily: Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN SISTER SERCY!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern, SISTER SERCY!

---

Sercy was a religious figure of her home world, located in space sector 4, who was recruited by Brother Hymn and taken to Odym to be instructed by Ganthet and Sayd. Her homeworld had long been oppressed by Evil Star, an old foe of Green Lantern Hal Jordan, and she was eager to use the blue light to stop him. During her induction, however, Agent Orange, the wielder of the orange light of avarice, sent his Orange Lantern Corps upon Odym to seize a Blue Lantern Power Ring for himself.

---

She fired waves of energy and they formed into water balloons and they hit Jigsaw and splattered him with water.

SPLAT SPLAT SPLAT!

Me: That was Sister Sercy.

Nico: Cool!

Hal Jordan: Her homeworld was oppressed by Evil Star, an old foe of mine.

Me: Whoa!

Lily: And here's this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN BROTHER PHRÄM!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern BROTHER PHRÄM!

---

Phräm was a member of the Blue Lantern Corps that unexpectedly lost his Blue Lantern Power Ring when it was taken from him and sought out Kyle Rayner to create a Hybrid Lantern. As a result of this event, Saint Walker decided to investigate why it happened. While searching for answers, Saint Walker teamed up with Kyle Rayner to continue the investigation. The two quickly found it wasn't a unique event and had happened to members other Lantern Corps as well and the two were soon joined by Munk, Bleez, Fatality, Arkillo and Glomulus to try and solve the problem.

---

He fired waves of blue energy and they splashed all over Jigsaw and got him wet.

Me: Whoa! That was Brother Phräm.

Nico: Cool!

Qin: Wow!

Lily: Watch this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: BLUE LANTERN BROTHER SHON!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into the Blue Lantern, BROTHER SHON!

---

Brother Shon was a member of the Blue Lantern Corps. When

Odym was attacked by Reach, Saint Walker tasked Shon with hiding and then finding help. In Shon's journey he encounters the Scarabs that encase the worlds they are sent to and he lost all hope. His ring deeming him hopeless, it left his hand and let him fall to his death.

---

He fired blasts of energy and they hit Jigsaw all over the place.

Me: Whoa! That was Brother Shon!

Nico: Cool!

Laney: Wow!

Lily: And here's this one. DC STYLE NINJA ART: GANTHET!

Lily fired a wave of blue energy and it formed into one of the Guardians of the Universe and member of the Blue Lanterns, GANTHET!

---

Ganthet is one of the Guardians of the Universe. However, where most of the Guardians are very stern 'by the book' characters, Ganthet has a personality that is more human-like, including displays of empathy and concern for an individual, instead of only thinking of the Green Lantern Corps. In various DC crossover limited series, Ganthet is shown as being part of the Quintessence, a group of near-omnipotent beings who oversee the results of what happens on Earth. Although he has been portrayed as looking alike to the other Guardians, Ganthet is often distinguished by tying his hair into a long ponytail, as the other male Guardians have shorter, unkempt hair.

---

He blasted Jigsaw all over the place with incredible power!

Me: Whoa! That was Ganthet, one of the Guardians of the Universe.

Nico: It sure was.

Me: Now lets hit him with the techniques all at once!

Lyra: Right! It's my turn now with the Indigo Tribe!

Abin Sur

Abin Sur was born on the planet Ungara where he was one of two siblings with the other being his sister Arin Sur in the years prior to the 19th Century. As a child, he grew up with his best friend Ruch Ehr and later, by association, his girlfriend Munni Jah. Though Sur was secretly in love with Munni, he never spoke about this matter overtly and instead left his feelings unspoken. During his time on his home world, he became a history professor and quite skilled as being a teacher as well as a philosopher. In the mid 1860's, his homeworld of Ungara came under the threat from a powerful tyrant known as Devos Ungol who went by the name of Traitor. This warlord gathered a large armada which he intended to conquer the stars with Sur's home world being one of the many planets within its path. However, the Green Lantern Starkaðr of Space Sector 2814 battled the villain which turned the course of the tyrants conquest but was mortally wounded as a result. His Green Lantern Power Ring managed to take his shattered body to the planet Ungara where he intended to choose his successor when he died. This event led to him meeting with Abin Sur and Starkaor's final act before perishing was choosing him as his replacement by providing him with his own Power Ring who deemed Sur as a worthy wielder of the weapon. With the final act done, the former Green Lantern of Space Sector 2814 died and Sur took over his duties by becoming a new member of the Green Lantern Corps who were charged as intergalactic protectors of the cosmos. After becoming a Green Lantern, Abin Sur vowed to seek out the tyrant Traitor and bring the supervillain to justice.

Natromo

Natromo was a male sapient being that was native to the planet Nok. Centuries ago, his world came under attack from alien invaders that attempted to enslave the populace who were to be shipped away from their planet. During this time, the people of Nok discovered a wellspring within a cavern that tapped into the Indigo Light of Compassion within the Emotional Spectrum. They coated their weapons with the light which led to their enemies temporarily feeling remorse for their actions. At this time, Abin Sur of the Green Lantern Corps arrived on Nok where he helped defeat the invaders. Afterwards, the people of Nok returned to the Forbidden Jungles whilst Natromo worked alongside Abin Sur. Together, they went into the caverns where the Indigo Light was shown and Sur revealed the future dangers as stated in the Blackest Night Prophecy. Thus, Natromo worked to forge the first Indigo Lantern Power Ring which Sur took from Nok and placed on the hand of the criminal Iroque. She experienced true regret at her actions in killing Abin Sur's daughter and thus she became the first of the Indigo Tribe. This Corps consisted of the universes worst killers and sadists who were converted into peaceful beings so long as the Indigo Light shined. Natromo became their leader and the Keeper of the Indigo Light where he was told by Abin Sur that they needed an army for a War of Light in the future where the Tribe was needed to battle the threat following the Blackest Night. This threat was the Guardians of the Universe and the Ungaran intended to use the power of Compassion to infect the Oans in order to stop them from their mad scheme in the future. Afterwards, he departed and left Natromo to serve as custodian and protector of the Indigo Tribe Central Power Battery. The Indigo Tribe later put Natromo's name within their Lantern Oath though he himself did not like its inclusion.

Indigo 1

Iroque also known as Indigo-1 is the name of a mysterious woman who became the leader of the Indigo Tribe; a group that harnessed the Indigo Light of Compassion of the Emotional Spectrum. At some point in the past, she claimed she was self-centered and self-important until she met Abin Sur. After which, she became devoted to completing his mission in stopping The Blackest Night. Unlike the other Corps Indigo doesn't have a traditional uniform. Instead she has tattooed the symbol of her Tribe all over her body. The other members of the Tribe do so as well. The Indigo Lanterns do seem to bear rings, though they appear to wield their light via Power Staffs, giving them the look of Shamans. Though the other Corps all made their presence fairly well known, the Indigo Tribe remained reclusive, and were apparently unknown even to the Guardians of the Universe, though Scar knew that someone wielded it, just not who.

Munk

Munk, also known as Indigo-2, at some point became a member of the Indigo Tribe where he became the second in command of the Indigo Tribe.

Kreaven

Kreaven was one of the members of the Indigo Tribe who travelled to Oa to recruit the Green Lanterns in helping to defeat the Black Lantern Corps by combining all the lights from the Emotional Spectrum which in turn severs the Black Power Ring's tie to its host.

Kreaven was one of the many Indigo Lanterns on the planet Nok who tried to convert Sinestro into a member of their Tribe, and was also one of the many Indigo Lanterns who chased after Hal Jordan and Sinestro when they were, at one point, freed from their indigo rings.

Slog the Slayer

Slog the Slayer is one of the several Indigo Tribe members who capture SInestro in order to convert him to the Indigo Tribe. Later, he is freed from his indigo ring, along with the rest of the Tribe, and chases after Hal and Sinestro, but is later restored with his indigo ring.

Shane Thompson

Shane Thompson was an inhabitant of the planet Earth where he grew to adulthood and became a medic in North America. Following The Blackest Night, he was on duty in an ambulance that was dispatched to a location in Hollywood, California where he was to treat two wounded men. He along with his colleague were in the back of the ambulance treating two men that had suffered from gunshot wounds where he asked his co-worker to help him with the patient who was treating. When his colleague said that his patient had insurance, Shane argued his patient only suffered from a gunshot wound to the shoulder whilst his own had two bullets lodged in the abdomen. Just as he was telling his co-worker to help him with his patient, a truck arrived and collided with the ambulance causing it to fall upside down which sent Thompson flying out as well as pinned beneath the vehicle.

Though alive, he was badly wounded and bleeding as a result. He called out in a weak voice for someone to save him whereupon he saw a bright light near him along with a voice saying "nok". There, he saw Indigo, Black Hand and the Indigo Tribe before him where he asked who they were. William Hand only replied initially, saying that he was a friend who touched his forehead whereupon the symbol of the Tribe was placed on the Human's forehead. Afterwhich, Indigo declared that Shane Thompson of the planet

Earth had been chosen by the Proselyte Entity; the Embodiment of Compassion in the Emotional Spectrum.

Proselyte Entity

Proselyte was formed after the Life Entity entered into the Universe with that act bringing about the creation of sentient life throughout the barren cosmos. After interning itself on Earth, the various lifeforms generated by the Entity led to the birth of the Emotional Spectrum. One of the last emotions to be formed was Compassion which in turn led to the creation of Proselyte who serves as the Emotional Embodiment of Compassion in the Emotional Electromagnetic Spectrum.

---

They blasted and hit him all over with blasts of Indigo Light all over and it really hurt him.

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Lyra: Thank you J.D.

Qin: I'm confused. The planet Nok is a prison planet right?

Nico: It is. Nok is a planet that was used to house the universes most dangerous criminals that don't have a single shred of compassion. The Indigo Light of Compassion changed those criminals into people that have been rehabilitated.

Indigo 1: Nok. It's a very dangerous and very painful process.

Me: I found out some very interesting things about the Indigo Tribe. They have a unique way of lobotomizing criminals. When a criminal has no remorse, guilt or anything like that, the Indigo Tribe puts them in a catatonic state and drains them of all other emotions except for compassion.

Qin: Geez! I would call that a fate worse than death!

Me: That was my first reaction when I heard about that.

Naruto: Yeah and it's not pretty.

Sakura Haruno: Yep.

Nico: Wow.

Landon: Here's my turn for the Violet Lanterns!

Landon made 11 clones.

Carol Ferris

Carol Ferris is the boss and on-off love interest of Hal Jordan. Her family owns the Ferris Aircraft company, she acts as an executive, and occasionally as a pilot. She is also Star Sapphire, a once villainous role occupying another part of her personality entirely. In the Star Sapphire Corps, where she fights for love across the universe, she has taken on a more heroic role. Carl Ferris, owner of the Ferris Aircraft Company, decided to retire early and travel the world, leaving his daughter Carol president of the company. Carol hired Hal Jordan and quickly found herself attracted to the fearless test pilot, but would not date him because he was her employee. Carol Ferris fell in love with the hero Green Lantern, unaware that he was her test pilot Hal Jordan. Coincidentally, Ferris was selected to become the queen of an immortal race of extraterrestrial women warriors known as Zamarons, but did not desire to leave Earth because of her love for Green Lantern. Desperate for their queen, the Zamarons hypnotized Ferris into thinking Green Lantern was her enemy. When she was defeated by the emerald gladiator, the Zamarons deemed Ferris unworthy of leadership and removed her memory of being Star Sapphire, although they left behind both the gem and a subconscious knowledge of her powers. Over the years, Star Sapphire and Green Lantern would duel again and again, but each time Jordan would defeat Ferris and revert her to normal.

Miri Riam of the planet Lartnec

Kered and Miri Riam were newlyweds from the planet Lartnec, traveling through space and heading for their honeymoon. Kered was portrayed as a loving and poetic young man who was very much in love with his young bride. While the couple playfully discussed their upcoming vacation and future together, Kered noticed a yellow beam of light heading towards their craft. While Miri suggested that they might be in a shipping lane, Kered was suspicious. As the ships warning systems blared out a call for evasive maneuvers, Kered pulled the ship hard left hoping to avoid a collision with the strange light. When the light matched their maneuvers, Kered knew that they were dealing with something serious.

Miss Bloss

Miss Bloss was chosen to champion love as a member of the Star Sapphires Corps.

Queen Aga'po of the planet Maltus

Queen Aga'po was a member of the Maltusian offshoot race known as the Zamarons where she served as the ruler of her species.

Dela Pharon of the planet Xanador

Dela Pharon first appeared when a group of Zamarons chose her to be their new queen and gifted her with the Star Sapphire Crystal. However, another group of Zamarons felt that Carol Ferris would serve as a better queen to their people. Angered by this dissension, Pharon went to Earth and attacked Ferris to be rid of the competition. Ferris, herself, reverted to her own Star Sapphire persona and the two women entered into a super-powered duel. Ferris appeared to come out the winner and set out to challenge Green Lantern Hal Jordan. Ferris defeated Jordan, as well, and took him to Zamaron where she planned to force him to marry her. However, Jordan discovered that Carol was actually Dela in disguise and that Carol was on Xanador living Dela's life. Hal Jordan found Carol and, having brought her back to Zamaron, defeated Dela and returned with Carol to Earth.

Fatality of the planet Xanshi

Yrra Cynril is originally from the planet Xanshi a member of one of the quasi-human races among the numerous forms of sentient beings living there. Her claim to fame was that, as the eldest child of a royal family with a gift for warfare, she was the first of her kind to be educated off world. She was sent to become a student for the Warlords of Okaara, apparently during the same period of time as Starfire. During her scholarship, however, Xanshii was destroyed in a tremendous explosion. Bereaved, Yrra, eventually learned that the destruction was due to an error by a Green Lantern. Leaving Okaara in defiance of the Warlords, Cynril became Fatality and finished her education in the arts of fighting, before starting to track down every sentient who was, or once had been, a member of the Green Lantern Corps. Her sole goal became to eradicated the GLs just as the GLs had been responsible for the eradication of her entire world; among other GLs she managed to kill Stel. During her crusade, the Corps went through several crises and great upheaval, pretty much leaving her solely with former Green Lanterns. On Earth, she eventually located the last bearer of a ring Kyle Rayner. She started fighting him using her usual tactics, but retreated when she realized

Rayner's ring didn't work as the previous GL rings did.

Prixiam Nol-Anj

Prixiam Nol-Anj is one of the newest members of the Star Sapphires and Former Prisoner of Oa's Sciencells. She was imprisoned by the Green Lantern Corps for various amounts of different crimes such as for example racketeering, smuggling, extortion, murder for hire, abduction, trafficking in organisms, larceny, grand theft of a star ship and assault with an energy weapon. Over time in prison she persuades, manipulates and seduces various Green Lantern Corps Guards mainly Green Lantern Cossite. Over time Cossite falls in love with her and she convinces she is in love with as well but that would soon change.

Race

Race was chosen to champion love as a member of the Star Sapphires Corps.

Abraham Pointe - Host of the Predator Entity

Abraham Pointe was a Human born on the planet Earth who lived past the events of the Sinestro Corps War and The Blackest Night. At the time, he lived in the city of Las Vegas where he developed an infatuation with a woman who worked at the casino called Lisa. However, he never introduced himself to her nor was she ever aware of his existence as he was too afraid to speak to her. Instead, he stayed at a distance and took regular photographs of her which he would hang at his home residence. This pattern of events lasted everyday across two years as Pointe constantly saw Lisa being nice to the various customers of the casino. As a result, Abraham constantly watched her from afar where he had a deep longing for her to be nice to him and for Lisa to love him.

The Predator Entity

The Predator is the sentient embodiment of all of the love in the universe and was most likely born at the beginning of sentience, similar to the Ion Entity and Parallax. Its creation came at the beginning of time when the universe was devoid of sentient life, until the arrival of the Life Entity. After entering into Earth and bringing about the rise of living beings, the Emotional Entities were formed with each developing as its respective emotion was felt. Love was the third field of energy that was born in the Emotional Spectrum and signaled the rise of the Predator Entity. However, its origin was at a time clouded when it became associated with a Maltusian demon which sprang from the blood of the creator Daalon after he was slain by his children the Triarch. Vowing not to harm the innocent, the demon was banished and instead pledged to get revenge against the true inheritors of the Triarch; the Guardians of the Universe. In the Anti-Matter Universe, it was said that the Predator was in fact a member of a race of Qwardian demons from one of their deepest hell which plagued their race.

For a time, the Predator attached itself to Carol Ferris who was known as the supervillain Star Sapphire. In that time, she was led to believe that the entity was simply the more aggressive masculine side of her personality which came out to protect her from harm and showed great love to her. The Predator Entity in its guise as a man courted Carol Ferris and later battled Hal Jordan for her love; after defeating it, the creature merged with Star Sapphire. It was eventually revealed that it was a parasitic creature which was later separated from Carol Ferris and that the Star Sapphire was also an energy based being that inhabited her body. At some point manifested into the material universe from the body of Half Life during a spell to restore his deceased body parts but he managed to force it back to its realm. Afterwards, the evil Kindred Grim used his augmented powers to create a portal to the home realm of the Predators which allowed an army of such demons to invade Qward. The deal the Predators made with Kindred Grim was that they would feast on all the souls on Qward whereupon they would empower him to merge the Anti-Matter Universe with the Positive Matter counterpart. However, they were defeated by Superboy and the Ravers when they managed to shut the portal to their hellish realm and Sparx used her Qwa-Angel enhanced powers to destroy the demons but at the cost of her superpowers. At some point, the Predator had also mated with the Star Sapphire and seemingly gave birth to a child but were both killed by the demon Neron who spirited the offspring away.

They blasted and hit Jigsaw all over with powerful pink energy blasts and more and they really hurt him.

Me: Wow! That was awesome!

Carol Ferris: Well done Landon.

Landon: Thanks Carol.

Girl Jordan: It was awesome how you did that Landon.

Landon: (Blushes) Thanks G.J.

Lincoln: That's my cousin.

Nekron

Nekron was an ancient cosmic being who was formed when the Emotional Spectrum was initially shattered and harnessed by sentient beings such as the Guardians of the Universe who claimed the embodiment of the emerald light of willpower. Before this time, there was said to had been peace in the darkness of death but the shattering of The White Light and rise of life led to an imbalance in the universe. Thus, it sought to create its own "Guardians" which manifested in the form of Nekron who sought to return all of existence to its original state.

Eventually, Nekron came to be the ruler of a dimension that adjoined Hell and also seemed to border between Limbo and Purgatory. This Realm of the Dead was the location where souls of the deceased awaited passage for their final resting place as well as residence in either the Silver City or in Hell. Due to his nature, the Lord of the Unliving drew his power from the souls and the spirits of all those who had died which were subservient to his will. Despite his mastery over the dead, this Realm of the Dead served as a form of imprisonment for Nekron who sought to free himself from the shackles that tied him to that dimension as he sought to claim more souls.

Thousands of years ago, the Five Inversions learned of the prophecy regarding The Blackest Night which foretold the destruction of the Guardians of the Universe. Though not known to many and not even mentioned as one of the forces to bring down the Guardians, Nekron was actually deeply rooted in it where he would make the dead rise in a final conflict to end all of existence. As the years went by, the Lord of The Unliving kept his attention on William Hand of Earth who would become an important part within the War of Light as he would become the manifestation of death within the Emotional Spectrum similar to the Parallax Entity and the Predator Entity. When Atrocitus sought to claim the "Black" within William Hand, the dark presence of Nekron whispered in the human's mind and told him to claim The Cosmic Divining Rod as well as influencing his actions as the super villain Black Hand.

Black Hand

The man who would one day be known as Black Hand was born an inventive genius, with a penchant for speaking in extremely old cliches. William's family, the Hands, were renowned in Coastville, a suburb of Coast City, California. He, however, grew to dislike them early in life. He felt the best way to distance himself from them, especially his three brothers (David, Peter and Joe), was by starting a life of crime. After extensive study, he became an expert criminal and evaded police at every turn. Eventually, he progressed into a costumed super villain, dubbed himself "Black Hand".

David Hand

Wealthy and respectable, he looks down on his brother as the "black sheep" of the family. David has been described as a great financier and a good christian.

Joseph Hand

Wealthy and respectable, he looks down on his brother as the "black sheep" of the family. Joe has been described as a renowned scientist and a good christian.

Arin Sur of Ungara

Arin Sur was a female inhabitant of the planet Ungara and was the sister of the famous Green Lantern Corps member Abin Sur. During her brothers time as a Green Lantern, she met and fell in love with Sinestro. During the War of Light, when Sinestro took loyal Sinestro Corpsmen to attack Zamaron to free the female members of their group. These women were being placed in conversion crystals that was brainwashing them to become new recruits of the Star Sapphire Corps. At the time, Sinestro battled against Carol Ferris and she imprisoned him within a conversion crystal which brought back memories of Arin Sur. However, he managed to break free from the crystal and continued with his attack.

Deathstorm

The origins of the entity known as Deathstorm were traced to the events highlighted in the Blackest Night Prophecy which stated that a great calamity would befall the cosmos that would bring about the end of the Guardians of the Universe as well as their great work. Over the years, this time slowly came to pass as Nekron, Lord of the Unliving set about his plans to bring about The Black onto the universe in order to purge it of all life in order to return it to its original state before The White Light emerged. Following the War of Light as the various aspects of the Emotional Spectrum were harnessed, The Blackest Night came to pass with Black Lantern Power Ring's being let loose onto the known worlds. These Power Ring's sought out the dead and reanimating them in order to turn them into undead members of the Black Lantern Corps who served only Nekron. Those that were resurrected included both heroes and villains who swelled the ranks of the Black Lanterns with Ronnie Raymond who was formerly known as Firestorm being one of the many recipients of the Black Power Ring.

Raymond's reanimated body later attacked Jason Rusch who was the current host of the Firestorm Matrix along with his girlfriend Gehenna. During the fight, Jason forcibly absorbed the Firestorm Matrix through his unique abilities and killed Gehenna by turning her into table salt thus forcibly turning Firestorm into a Black Lantern. The anger created by Jason Rusch over Gehenna's death was used by the Black Lanterns as emotional energy used to empower the Black Lantern Central Power Battery. Afterwards, the Black Lantern Firestorm attacked the Justice League satellite and confronted Barry Allen but Jason Rusch who was still alive within the Firestorm Matrix managed to briefly take control in order to allow the heroes to escape. This was only temporary as the undead Ronnie managed to absorb Jason's willpower and used wisecracks and other stereotypical teenage behavior that was characistic of Raymond.

During the final battle against Nekron, the White Lantern Corps was unleashed by Hal Jordan who had harnessed the power of the Life Entity which created a beam of pure White Light that defeated the Lord of the Unliving. This act also led to Ronnie Raymond being restored to life in the act and being the co-host of the Firestorm Matrix. The resurrected Raymond later asked the Atom the location of Professor Stein but faced numerous problems from the grieving Jason Rusch who held Ronnie responsible for killing his girlfriend Gehenna. Despite this being the case, Raymond denied remembering committing the deed but this left the two hosts of the Firestorm Matrix in a tense relationship with one another.

Relic

Relic is a Cosmic Villain who is a threat to all of The Universe's Lantern Corps. For an unknown amount of time Relic was held prisoner in a prison known as The Anomaly. He was a being from another existence, who warned its Lanterns to halt their use of their rings, because of the fact that it drains the Emotional Spectrum. No one believed him, and his existence was destroyed. For some reason, Relic was reformed into a new existence, where he could warn its inhabitants about the tragic event in the other existence.

Black Lantern Corphans

The Black Lantern Corphans are the deceased children kidnapped by the Sinestro Corps member Kryb. It is unknown whether all of the children taken by her were from Green Lanterns she had killed, and this is unlikely as she only managed to kill a few as a member of the Sinestro Corps., and there were hundreds, if not an entire planet full of the captured children. All of these children were kept within rib cage-like prisons on a planet in Space Sector 3599, where she cared for them as though they were her own. She seemed to have some demented idea that she was the only one truly capable of caring for the children, and seemed to sincerely love them, as she was seen crying when they psychically cried out to her when she was imprisoned on Zamaron, unable to help them.

Life Entity

The Life Entity, also known as The Entity and as the White Entity, was a living sentient entity that was formed at the beginning of the universe and is the embodiment of life. It is not known whether the Entity was brought into the universe either by accident or by design with such a question not even being known to the likes of Krona. This Entity's existence came on the planet Earth which became the source of all life. After arriving on the barren world, it sealed itself beneath the magma of the world in order to hide where its entry into the universe began to affect the cosmos around it.

The being's existence bestowed life across space and gave birth to living beings itself. This meant that it retained a link to all life and any harm to it would fall upon the living. Through its influence, it led to the development of the Emotional Spectrum as well as numerous organisms. Of these first lifeforms, the Entity's power touched them and transformed them into different Embodiments of the Emotional Spectrum. This saw the birth of the Ion Entity from Willpower, the Parallax Entity from Fear, the Predator Entity from Love, the Ophidian Entity from Avarice, the Butcher Entity from Rage, the Adara Entity from Hope and the Proselyte Entity from Compassion.

In their early history, the Guardians of the Universe began to harness the Glow and eventually discovered the Entity. In order to protect it from being harmed, the Oans decided to hide the Entity and orchestrated their greatest lie on the universe. They claimed that all life began on Oa and hid the existence of the Entity as well as the importance of the planet Earth. As well as justifying their authority, it diverted attention from the Earth to Maltus and Oa, thus making sure any speculation towards the origin of life was directed at the Guardians themselves, and all dangers associated with it as well. This went as far as preventing Humans from joining their Green Lantern Corps as they intended to hide their secret from the rest of the universe.

Jigsaw was dead.

Me: Good job Michael.

Morbius: Thank you J.D.

Naruto: Way to go bro!

Me: Thanks guys.

The Masters of Evil came.

Me: Good battle like always.

Bane: (to me and the Loud Kids) Do you all, by any chance, have any countermeasures for the event where you all snap and turn on humanity thanks to someone like Rotwood?

Lincoln: We actually haven't thought of any.

Comic Book Guy: With all that unchecked power, are you all so overconfident that you haven't even bothered coming up with plans to stop yourselves? I mean, Batman always has Kryptonite in the event that Superman goes rogue!

Nico: Well, we do have one plan. It's called the Masters of Evil.

Comic Book Guy: Say what?

Nico: (to Vypra) Vypra, in the event where J.D. and the Loud Kids go rogue, we're trusting you and the Masters of Evil to neutralize them.

Vypra: (smiles) We'll take that into consideration.

The Masters of Evil teleport out.

Me: Good plan man.

Nico: Thanks J.D. Glad you all are back.

Me: Yep. My confidence is restored.

Lincoln: Yep. All our confidence is restored.

Shocker: (To the viewers) We're back in business after what Rotwood did folks.

Me: And he had better watch out.

We went back home.

LET THERE BE LIGHT!

We were over at the docs of the Los Angeles wharf. We were there to look at the ocean and admire the sea.

Me: Look at the ocean.

Varie: It's so beautiful.

Laney: It sure is.

Lana: Yeah.

Sam Simpson: It's so amazing coming here.

Lincoln: Yep.

Nico: It sure is pretty. Just as beautiful as the sunsets.

Linka: Yep.

Ring Man: Guys, there are a couple of other Horsea coming right this way.

We saw that Ring Man was right and we saw that they had 8 little Horsea with them.

Horsea: Those are my parents! I thought I would never see them again.

Jesse Anderson: So these are your parents, Horsea?

Horsea: Yep.

The Horsea family came up to us and Horsea jumped into the water and they were reunited with her.

Maria: So cute!

Lady Rainicorn: (Speaking Korean) 그들은 확실히 훌륭한 가족입니

Horsea: Mom, dad, sisters. I missed you.

Horsea dad: (Speaking Pokemon)

Horsea mom: (Speaking Pokemon)

Nico: What are they saying?

Meowth: They are saying that they missed her so much and thought that they would never see her again.

Lisa Loud: I made this Pokemon Translator to help us understand.

She turned it on and we understood.

Horsea dad: We were so afraid that we would never see you again.

Horsea: I know dad.

Horsea sibling 1: Yeah sis.

Freeway: You have some siblings too?

Horsea: Yep.

Snapdragon: Your daughter's been an important part to the team.

Horsea mom: Thank you all so much for looking out for our daughter.

Maria: It was no trouble at all. Horsea is the best friend I have next to my awesome boyfriend William.

William: Aww.

Leni: Totes adorable.

Zekmu: And I'm Zekmu.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Maria: Same here.

Nico: It's awesome meeting your family Horsea.

Lady Rainicorn: 그것은 확실하다. (It sure is.)

Horsea had her mom and dad and sisters come with us and we all went back home to the estate.

---

At the estate, we were watching TV and playing card games.

Me: Sure is quiet.

Nico: Yep.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that Superman's archenemy Luminus was up to no good by robbing a bank.

---

Luminus (real name: Edward "Eddie" Lytener) is a supervillain who is an enemy of Superman in Superman: The Animated Series.

Edward Lytener was a former LexCorp worker working under Lex Luthor but revealed some dirty secrets about Lexcorp to Lois which resulted in Luthor firing Edward Lytener. Edward did it for Lois but she did not notice.

Since then, he began trying to kill Lois Lane, only to be foiled by Superman. Edward Lytener than finally fought Superman in heated hand-to-hand combat using his favorite invention, a suit of armor powered by the solar spectrum energy of a red sun. Lytener was able to match Superman's strength but he managed to defeat him and save the captured Lois Lane.

Lytener later escaped jail through a helicopter and becomes the new supervillain named Luminus with his mind focusing on killing Superman. He kidnaps Lois Lane and Jimmy Olsen to lure Superman. In the end, Superman rescued them both and defeated Luminus.

Luminus made an appearance in the episode of "Only a Dream" of Justice League. He was part of an attempted jailbreak (with Copperhead, Firefly, Solomon Grundy, and Volcana acting as his cohorts) from Stryker's Island. Using his newfound powers with hard light duplicates, Luminus deals a nasty beating to the Flash using solid holograms. Still, in the end, he is defeated by Superman soon after he found the real one.

---

Me: Edward Lytener A.K.A. Luminus.

Nico: He looks dangerous.

Superman: He is Nico. He was once a whistleblower that revealed some dirty secrets about Lex Luthor. Luthor fired him and now he is hellbent on getting revenge on Lois. By killing her.

Me: Bad news.

Volcana: I remember him all too well. He helped us bust out of Stryker's Island. Copperhead, Firefly, Solomon Grundy and myself were busted out thanks to him.

Me: Looks like we have a disgruntled employee to face. Lets roll!

We were off to face Luminus!

---

We arrived at the bank and we busted in and we were facing LUMINUS!

Luminus: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. How nice to meet you.

Me: Edward Lytener A.K.A. Luminus. How interesting of you to show your face after all this time.

Batman: But how can I forget what you did to Superman.

Luminous: (to Batman) You know, before I even met Superman, I used to be afraid of you, Batman.

Batman: You still should.

Luminous: (chuckles) No one's afraid of Bruce Wayne!

Batman: And I have come to accept that!

Nico: Now we're going to kick your brains all over the place.

Me: Big time.

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh.

Dark Spicer, Rex Goodwin and Chief Wiggum then appeared.

Me: Dark Spicer, Rex Goodwin and Chief Wiggum.

Chief Wiggum: Yep.

Dark Spicer: I watched what happened with Rotwood and I'm sorry he did that to you all.

Me: It's all water under the bridge. But Rotwood and his fucking cronies will get what's coming to him.

Dark Spicer: Ain't that the truth. (to Superman) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Superman: Not if I kick yours first.

Rex Goodwin: And it will be good.

Carly Carmine then appeared.

Me: Hey Carly.

Carly Carmine: Hey guys. It's not my turn so I want to help you guys out.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Right on!

Me: (To Dark Spicer) And I bet you also have two aliens to show us.

Dark Spicer: Yep. Watch this one.

Dark Spicer then turned into a Clockwork Alien and instead of being gold color, it was green with black stripes and he had clock hands on his arms and legs.

Timedoom: (Swedish Accent) Meet Timedoom! (fires a time ray that ages me into an old man)

I looked like I was 95-years-old. I had a long beard and a bald head and I was covered in wrinkles and sagging skin and I had liverspots and I had an awesome cane with a fiery jewel on it.

Flash Man: So that's what J.D. looks like as an old man.

Timedoom: This is probably the only time you'll see him this way. (fires a few time rays at Flash Man)

Clyde blocked the blast and sent it away.

Me: (Elderly Voice) I always wondered what it was like to be an old man.

Isabelle, Heidi and Nathaniel came to me and hugged me.

Heidi: This is how you should've looked grandpa.

Isabelle: Yeah.

Nathaniel: You are now officially our grandpa.

Me: Aww thank you kids.

Heidi took a picture of us and it was so cute. They took so many good pictures of me and them as a family of grandpa and grandchildren.

Jared: That is so cute!

Allenby: So adorable.

People: Awww.

Man 1: That is so cute.

Man 2: Yeah.

I then glowed and reverted back to 16-years-old.

Me: (Normal Voice) Whoa! That was interesting turning into an old man.

I still had my cane.

Me: (Laughs) That was funny.

Nico: But it was cool seeing you like that J.D.

Me: It sure was.

Jared: But that is normally how parents should look dad.

Me: That's true.

Then Dark Spicer turned into a version of Feedback. He had yellow lightning bolts all over him and he had 5 extra plug antennae and had a tail that looked like a tesla coil.

Joltzap: I call this form… Joltzap!

Shanan: A Conductoid Mutant. Nice.

Me: Lets see what he can do.

I fired an energy blast at Joltzap but he absorbed it through the plug-like conductors on his antennae.

Joltzap: (chuckles) I can handle any energy attacks you guys send at me now. (fires energy blast back at me)

Shocker fired a blast from his gauntlets at Joltzap but the latter created a short-range sphere of crackling energy around himself. This not only neutralized the blast but also zapped Shocker.

ZAAAAAAAAPPPPPPPPPPPP!

Shocker: Ouch.

?: That must've hurt.

A figure came out and it was TOXIC SEAHORSE!

Splash Woman: And you are?

Toxic Seahorse: Call me… Toxic Seahorse! (spits out a glob of acid at Splash Woman)

Splash Woman blocked it and sent it back at him and burned him.

Me: Lets get them guys! First lets get everyone out of the bank so they don't get caught in the crossfire.

Superman: Good idea.

We got the people in the bank out of there.

Troy: It's lights out for you!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lightmask Squad!

Battle 1: Dark Spicer

---

Eddy was facing Dark Spicer.

Eddy: That was funny that you turned J.D. into an old man. It reminded me of the time where I was knocked unconscious and I imagined myself and everyone I know as old people.

Dark Spicer: That is funny. How did that happen to you?

Eddy: We were trying to get Jawbreakers out of a desk and I fell down a hole made by Jonny and I got hit in the head by 2 bowling balls and a bowling pin and got buried under a bunch of junk. I imagined we all were about 95 to 105 years old.

Laney: This will hurt you all over the place! TARZAN STYLE NINJA ART: TWO WORLDS, ONE FAMILY!

Laney floated in the air and the beautiful jungles of Africa formed behind her as she sang Two Worlds by Phil Collins.

Put your faith in what you most believe in

Two worlds, one family

Trust your heart

Let fate decide

To guide these lies we see

A paradise untouched by man

Within this worlds blessed with love

A simple life, they live in peace

Softly tread the sand below your feed now

Two worlds, one family

Trust your heart

Let fate decide

To guide these lives we see

Beneath the shelter of the trees

Only love can enter here

A simple life, they live in peace

Raise your head up

Lift high the load

Take strength from those that need you

Build high the walls

Build strong the beams

A new life is waiting

But danger's no stranger here

No words describe a mother's tears

No words can heal a broken heart

A dream is gone, but where there's hope

Somewhere something is calling for you

Two worlds, one family

Trust your heart

Let fate decide

To guide these lives we see

Thunder and Lightning crashed behind her as a wave of leaves fired and they formed into a massive family of gorillas as well as Tarzan and Jane and they smashed and cut and speared Luminus all over and threw fruit and an elephant trampled Luminus all over with incredible force.

Me: Nice one Laney!

Lincoln: Way to go!

Brittney: It's time for you to face the darkness.

Goths of Darkness: DARKNESS STYLE NINJA ART: FLEUR DU MAL!

The Goths of Darkness floated in the air as the area turned into the darkness of a dark storm with an evil castle in the background as they sang Fleur Du Mal by Sarah Brightman.

Is it you I keep thinking of?

Should I feel like I do?
I've come to know that I miss your love
While I'm not missing you
We run 'til it's gone
Et les fleurs du mal
Won't let you be
You hold the key to an open door
Will I ever be free?
Les fleurs du mal unfold
Comme les fleurs du mal
Dark demons of my soul
Un amour fatal
Been tryin' hard to fight
Comme les fleurs du mal
Les fleurs du mal inside
Un amour fatal
All my life I've been waiting for
In this perfume of pain
To forget when I needed more
Of love's endlessain
We live and we pray
Pour les fleurs du mal

I've lost my way

What is done will return again

Will I ever be free?

Les fleurs du mal

Comme les fleurs du mal

Un amour fatal

Comme les fleurs du mal

Lightning and thunder crashed and a massive swarm of black vampire bats appeared, ghosts appeared, black flower petals, black lightning and waves of black fire and fireballs all fired at Luminus and they all hit him and burned him all over in a massive explosion!

Waiting to be filled

A heart that's hopeful

A head that's full of dreams

But this becoming

Is harder than it seems

Feels like I'm

Looking for a reason

Roaming through the night to find

My place in this world

My place in this world

Not a lot to lean on

I need Your light to help me find

My place in this world

My place in this world

If there are millions

Down on their knees

Among the many

Can you still hear me?

Hear me asking

Where do I belong?

Is there a vision

That I can call my own?

Show me I'm

Looking for a reason

Roaming through the night to find

My place in this world

My place in this world

Not a lot to lean on

I need Your light to help me find

My place in this world

My place in this world

Looking for a reason

Roaming through the night to find

My place in this world

My place in this world

Not a lot to lean on

I need Your light to help me find

My place in this world

My place in this world

Me: That song is over 200 years old.

Natilee: Yep. Really famous song.

Takinom: Very interesting.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) Here's one from my land of Sweden. FULL MOON STYLE NINJA ART: VARULVEN THE WEREWOLF!

Axel floated in the air as the beautiful night of the full moon over in Sweden appeared and he sang the sone Varulven by Garmarna.

Jungfrun hon skulle åt stugan gå

Linden darrar i lunden

Så tog hon den vägen åt skogen blå

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Och när som hon kom till skogen blå

Linden darrar i lunden

Där mötte henne en ulv så grå

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Kära ulver du bit inte mig

Dig vill jag giva min silversärk

Silversärk jag passar ej på

Ditt unga liv och blod måst gå

Kära du ulver bit inte mig

Linden darrar i lunden

Dig vill jag giva min silversko

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Silversko jag passar ej på

Linden darrar i lunden

Ditt unga liv och blod måst gå

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Kära du ulver du bit inte mig

Dig vill jag giva min guldkrona

Guldkrona jag passar ej på

Ditt unga liv och blod måst gå

Jungfrun hon steg sig så högt i ek

Linden darrar i lunden

Och ulven han gick ner på backen och skrek

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Ulven han grafte den ek till rot

Linden darrar i lunden

Jungfrun gav upp ett så hiskeligt rop

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Och ungersven han sadlar sin gångare grå

Linden darrar i lunden

Han red litet fortare än fågeln flög

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Och när som han kom till platsen fram

Linden darrar i lunden

Så fann han ej mer än en blodiger arm

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

Gud trösta Gud bättra mig ungersven

Linden darrar i lunden

Min jungfru är borta min häst är förränd

Ty hon var vid älskogen bunden

The Masters of Evil teleport out.

Get ready for a dangerous fight of Gastrointestinal Proportions as we face our third Grossology Villain and we're going to kill that parasitic freak of nature.

See you all tomorrow.

Into the Bowels of a Colon Madman

At the estate, everyone was having fun. But the door open and we see Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag and Horsea coming out. We saw them heading to Vanzilla.

Poromon: This is gonna be so fun.

Manaphy: Yeah!

They got into Vanzilla.

Plant Man: What are you 4 doing?

Poromon: We're taking Vanzilla out for a joyride.

Poliwag: (puppy eyes) Please don't tell anyone!

Plant Man: Okay. Have fun.

Poromon: We will.

Plant Man left.

Manaphy: Let me drive.

Manaphy started the car and they were off on an awesome joyride.

Poliwag: This is awesome!

Bart Simpson was in there with them.

Bart: It sure is.

Poliwag: Bart? What are you doing here?

Bart: I have a special surprise I want to do.

Horsea: What is it?

Bart: You'll see.

Bart saw something.

Bart: And here it is now.

He saw Hans Rotwood walking down the sidewalk.

Bart: Watch this.

He climbed onto the roof of the car.

Bart: Hey asswipe!

Rotwood saw him.

Bart: There's a full moon out tonight!

Bart pulled down his pants and mooned him with his butt!

Rotwood: [his eyes flare up] Oh! My eyes! Ahh! [pulls his burning eyes out of his sockets as he screams in excruciating pain and his innards flare up as well] The pain!

Bart snapped a photo of it with his phone and Rotwood was rendered permanently blind because of Bart.

Bart: (Laughs Evilly) Take that Rotwood! (Laughs)

Poromon, Poliwag, Horsea and Manaphy were laughing hysterically!

Back at the estate we saw that Vanzilla was gone.

Hay Lin: Has anyone seen Vanzilla?

Me: Looks like Lori went shopping.

Lori: I'm right here.

Me: Let me do a headcount.

I counted everyone and saw that the only ones missing were Bart, Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy and Horsea.

Me: The only ones missing are Bart, Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy and Horsea.

Vanzilla came back and we saw them in the van.

Bonecrusher: Are Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag, and Horsea driving Vanzilla?!

Me: Oh man!

They pulled up and came out.

Bart: That was fun!

Poliwag: It sure was!

Rollbar: Why did you 4 drive Vanzilla?!

Poromon: We went on a joyride.

Bart: And look at this.

He showed us the photo of Rotwood ripping his eyes out as they were on fire and fire was coming out of his eye sockets as his innards were burning.

We laughed hysterically!

Me: (Laughs Hysterically) OH THAT IS SO FUNNY!

Nico: (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY) SO FUNNY!

Bart: I mooned him.

We all dropped to the ground and we were laughing hysterically. We were rolling on the ground laughing hysterically!

Eddy: (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY) CALL A DOCTOR!

Luan: (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY) SO FUNNY!

Luna Loud: (LAUGHS) THAT IS SO FUNNY!

We stopped 20 minutes later and Bart sent the photo to the Masters of Evil and they too were laughing hysterically.

May: I guess there is no harm done. Were you guys out just doing a joyride.

Manaphy: Yeah I wanted to see what it's like to drive a car.

May: Oh yeah.

Laney: But this was a funny joyride.

Lincoln: Yep.

Later we went back into the estate and we were watching TV and playing card games. Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that Abby and Ty's enemy Dr. Cornelius Colon was up to no good! He was attacking the Gotham Royal York sewage plant!

---

Dr. Cornelius Colon (voiced by Peter Keleghan) - A mad proctologist, who plots to engulf the world in a gigantic colon, starting with Ringworm Junior High School (on the last day before its Summer vacation), to take revenge on people for unsympathetically making fun of him for his unfortunate surname. He has giant tapeworms as henchmen.

---

Me: Dr. Cornelius Colon?

Lola: EW!

Lori: This guy literally looks disgusting!

Nico: No kidding.

Abby: You guys would hate this guy. He wants to take revenge on the entire world for making fun of him because of his name. He wants to turn the whole world into a ginormous colon!

Me: Oh that is disgusting!

Lana: Cool!

Lily: I don't think it's cool at all.

Lucy Loud: And he has giant tapeworms for henchmen? Disgusting.

Me: Looks like we're gonna have to kill this guy. Lets get him!

We were off to the Sewage Plant.

---

At the Sewage Plant, Dr. Colon and his Tapeworms were destroying everything in it.

Dr. Colon: Soon this whole world will be one giant festering Colon and it will all be mine!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the ceiling and a phoenix cry was heard as we landed in front of him.

Me: Dr. Cornelius Colon. So we meet at last.

Dr. Colon: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: You are probably the most disgusting and most shit-filled villain we have ever faced next to Fartor.

Me: And Fartor REALLY smelled like shit!

Dr. Colon: (laughs) What bothers you more? That Fartor wasn't really a bad guy? Or that instead of helping him, you all killed him?!

Me: For your information you fuckfaced shitsucker, Fartor wanted to be put out of his misery because of all the pain he went through because of his brother and it ended up turning him into fartsack that only lives on farts. His death was what we call a mercy killing.

Nico: That's right! You are gonna die a horrible and extremely painful death.

Me: Yeah!

Lincoln: So start praying.

Vexen, Whiteout and Krusty came out.

Me: Vexen, Whiteout and Krusty.

Whiteout: That's right.

Krusty: Hey hey kiddies! (Clown laugh)

Bart: Hey Krusty.

Sophie Krustovsky: Hey daddy.

Krusty: Hey sweetie.

Vexen: Quite frankly with all of you I can never go along with this monsters plans. For the record, I am a much more cleaner scientist then Colon over here.

Me: I don't blame you.

Vexen: By the way, we got your photo that Bart sent and it was really funny!

Whiteout: I don't think I've ever laughed so hard before in my life.

Nico: I can tell.

A figure came out and it was MAGMA DRAGOON!

Fire Man: Who are you.

Magma Dragoon: Allow me to introduce myself. I am… Magma Dragoon! (launches a sphere of fire at Fire Man)

Lola absorbed it and it made her stronger.

Me: Lets get him guys!

Emma: Time to take to the skies!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Hyperjet Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jetman Rangers!

We went at them!

Squirrel Girl and Lola were facing Whiteout!

Whiteout: So you both want to face me.

Lola: You bet we do!

Squirrel Girl: Don't hold back you hear?

Whiteout: Oh I won't.

Whiteout fired a blast of white energy and Lola fired a wave of fire and the blasts collided and exploded!

KRABBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM

Squirrel Girl: The energy blasts are new.

Whiteout: Vypra gave them to me. Figured it would do me much better if I focused my powers in a more concentrated manner.

Lola: Good thinking.

Lola fired a blast of fire and it hit Whiteout and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Lola kicked Whiteout in the face and knocked out down and Squirrel

Girl chittered and out came a massive scurry of squirrels and they bit and chomped Whiteout all over the place. Squirrel Girl fired nuts at Whiteout and they hit her and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Squirrel Girl: Yeah!

Battle 2: Vexen

Lana was facing Vexen.

Vexen: This is gonna be most enjoyable.

Lana: Yep.

Lana went Super Angel 20,000 Subzero Ice Owl.

Lana: (Older Voice) Shall we dance?

Vexen: Lets.

Lana formed a sword of pure ice and she went at Vexen. Vexen fired icicles and Lana slashed them with her ice sword and deflected them back to Vexen and they slashed him and she kicked him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and slashed him in forehead and cut him good. She kicked him and knocked him down.

Lana: Nice.

---

Battle 3: Krusty

---

Jackie was facing Krusty.

Jackie: This is gonna be good Krusty.

Krusty: I know. But go easy on me.

Jackie: Oh I plan to.

Jackie spread her wings of fire and she punched Krusty in the face and honked his nose.

HONK HONK!

She kicked him in the stomach and leg swept him and knocked him down.

Jackie: If you were Pennywise, I would've killed you. But you aren't.

Battle 4: Magma Dragoon

---

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Magma Dragoon.

Nico: Lets get ready to burn!

Troy Burrows: Yeah!

They fired blasts and energy waves at Magma Dragoon and they hit him all over the place with incredible power and Magma Dragoon fell down and exploded with incredible power in a massive fireball!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Yeah!

Troy Burrows: Awesome!

Battle 5: DR. CORNELIUS COLON!

---

We regrouped and we were facing Dr. Colon.

Me: You are going down Dr. Shitface!

I went at him and kicked him in the face.

Me: You belong in a toilet you shitfucker.

Dr. Colon sent his tapeworms at me and I slashed their heads off.

Me: Get real pets you shitsucking fuckwad!

Dr. Colon went at me and he punched and kicked at me and I dodged his attacks and kicked him in the face.

Me: My grandmother farts louder than you do you shiteating pukepot!

Dr. Colon then went ballistic and he screamed at the top of his lungs roaring in incredible rage!

Me: Uh oh.

Nico: I think J.D. REALLY made him mad!

Abby: That is an understatement!

Dr. Colon came at me and he attacked me all over the place in a massive and relentless explosion of ballistic and insane anger! He punched and kicked at me and I dodged his attacks with incredible speed! I kicked him in the face with incredible force and knocked him down and he got back up and went at me and I dodged his punch and kicked him in the back and sent him crashing into a pile of shit. He got up and he was incredibly enraged.

Dr. Colon: (Enraged Screaming) I HATE YOU!

My aura flared up with incredible fury and I went at him and punched him in the stomach with devastating force and he belched up a tremendous amount of blood and I kicked him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and kneed him in the nose and broke it. I then kicked him in the crotch and punched him in the face and kicked him in the chest and stomach multiple times and sent him crashing into a wall. He got up and he was extremely enraged as he was looking at me with incredible hatred and the arteries and veins were showing in his eyes and this showed that he was completely out of his mind with incredible hatred and fury!

Dr. Colon: YOU WRETCHED SHITSUCKER! HOW DARE YOU!? HOW DARE YOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He came at me and was really infuriated and he punched and kicked at me and I dodged his attacks and kicked him in the face and punched him all over with incredible fury!

Me: If this is all you're made of, it's really pathetic!

I punched him in the mouth and knocked out some more of his teeth and kicked him in the stomach and he belched up even more blood.

Dheena: This monster must die! LIGHT STYLE NINJA ART: THE BEAST FROM 20,000 FATHOMS!

Dheena fired a wave of light and it turned into the Rhedosaurus from the 1953 movie The Beast From 20,000 Fathoms.

---

The Rhedosaurus is the main antagonist of the 1953 black-and-white science fiction monster film The Beast from 20,000 Fathoms.

It's a 100 million-year-old, 200-foot long, 500-ton giant man-eating monster and one of the last surviving members of its species, awakened during hibernation by a nuclear test in the Arctic. It made its way down the North American coast, destroying everything in its path and ending up in New York, its original home. Attempts to kill it were complicated by an ancient disease it carried; spilling its blood freed the virus, which was almost as deadly as the reptile itself.

It served as one of the main inspirations for Godzilla alongside King Kong (who also influenced Rhedosaurus) and is one of the most iconic movie monsters of all time along with them.

The Rhedosaurus is the scientific name given to a carnivorous dinosaur that was frozen in ice in the Arctic during the Ice Age, where it had been held in suspended animation for millions of years. The last surviving member of its species, it was only released from its hibernated state when it was thawed by an atomic bomb test in the Arctic Circle. Making its way alongside the East Coast of North America towards its original home, where New York City is located, the Rhedosaurus destroys everything that stands in its path.

It sinks a fishing ketch off the Grand Banks, destroys another near Marquette, Canada, wrecks a lighthouse in Maine, and destroys buildings in Massachusetts. Its enemies, the soldiers who attempted to kill it were complicated, because of the ancient disease it carried; spilling its blood that can make people sick and die with an ill feeling while the plague from its blood has freed, which was almost as deadly as a dangerous venomous creature itself. It bleeds all over the streets of New York, unleashing a horrible, virulent prehistoric contagion, which begins to infect the populace, causing even more fatalities. The infection precludes blowing it up or even setting it ablaze, lest the contagion spread further. It is then decided to shoot a radioactive isotope into the Rhedosaurus' neck wound with hopes of burning it from the inside, killing it without releasing the contagion.

When it comes ashore and reaches Coney Island's amusement park, the military sharpshooter by the name of Corporal Stone takes a rifle grenade loaded with a potent radioactive isotope and climbs on board a roller coaster. Riding the roller coaster to the top of the tracks to get eye-level with the beast, he fires the isotope into its open neck wound. The beast thrashes about in pain, causing the roller coaster to spark when it collapses to the ground, setting the amusement park completely ablaze. Letting out one last roar, the Rhedosaurus perishes from the poisoning and heat.

The Rhedosaurus crushed Dr. Colon all over with incredible fury.

Aqua: Nice one!

Me: Wow! That was the Rhedosaurus from the 1953 movie The Beast From 20,000 Fathoms!

Lincoln: Really cool!

Nico: That is awesome!

Me: It's one of my dad's favorite movies from his past.

Aqua: Cool. Watch this one. WATER STYLE NINJA ART: IT CAME FROM BENEATH THE SEA!

Aqua fired a wave of water and it formed into the Giant Octopus from the 1955 movie It Came From Beneath The Sea!

---

A nuclear submarine on maneuvers in the Pacific Ocean, captained by Commander Pete Mathews (Kenneth Tobey), comes into contact with a massive sonar return. The commander attempts to outrun and outmaneuver the sonar object, but cannot. The boat is disabled but manages to free itself and return to Pearl Harbor. Tissue from a huge sea creature is discovered jammed in the submarine's dive planes.

A co-ed team of marine biologists, Professor Lesley Joyce (Faith Domergue) and John Carter (Donald Curtis) of Harvard University, is called in; they identify the tissue as being a small part of a gigantic octopus. The military authorities scoff, but are finally persuaded after receiving reports of missing swimmers and ships at sea being pulled under by a large animal. Both scientists conclude that the creature is from the Mindanao Deep, having been forced from its natural habitat by hydrogen bomb testing in the area, which has made the giant octopus radioactive, driving off its natural food supply.

The scientists suggest the disappearances of a Japanese fishing fleet and a Siberian seal boat may be the work of the foraging giant. Both Pete and the Navy representatives express doubt and demand further proof. Later, as Pete assists John and Lesley, a report comes in of an attack on a French shipping boat; several men escaped in a raft. The French survivors are questioned by psychiatrists, and when the first sailor's description of a creature with giant tentacles is met with skepticism, the other sailors refuse to testify. Lesley is able to convince the first sailor to repeat his story for government officials, who then have the evidence they need. The U.S. government halts all sea traffic in the North Pacific without revealing the reason. John flies out to sea to trace a missing ship, while Pete and Lesley follow up on a report of three missing people off the coast of Oregon.

The local sheriff, Bill Nash (Harry Lauter), takes Pete and Lesley to the site of the attack, where they find a giant suction cup imprint in the beach sand. (At this point, the two have become physically intimate.) They then request that John join them. Bill is later attacked along the beach by the giant octopus, right in front of the two scientists. They escape, and together they hastily arrange for all Pacific coast waters to be mined before departing for San Francisco and the Navy's headquarters.

An electrified safety net is strung underwater across the entrance to San Francisco Bay to protect the Golden Gate Bridge, which has also been electrified. John takes a helicopter along the shoreline and baits the sea with dead sharks in an effort to lure the creature inland. Lesley demonstrates to reporters a special jet-propelled atomic torpedo, which they hope to fire at the giant octopus, while driving it back to the open sea before detonating the weapon. Later that day, the creature demolishes the underwater net, irritated by the electrical voltage, and heads toward San Francisco.

The navy orders the Golden Gate Bridge abandoned, but when John learns that the electric circuit there has been left on, he races to the bridge to shut it off. The creature, however, catches sight of the bridge and attacks it, the electrical voltage irritating it even more. Pete is able to rescue John just before a bridge section is brought down by a giant tentacle.

The residents of San Francisco panic and begin a mass exodus down the peninsula. The navy struggles to evacuate the Embarcadero and the Ferry Building, which is battered by the creature's giant tentacles. When more people are attacked and killed, the Defense Department authorizes Pete to take out the submarine and fire the torpedo; John joins Pete while Lesley remains at the base.

Flamethrowers push the giant tentacles back into the sea, but when Pete fires the jet torpedo into the creature, it grabs the submarine. Using an aqualung, Pete swims up to the massive body and places explosive charges before being knocked out by the creature's flailing tentacles. John then swims out and shoots at one of its eyes, forcing the giant octopus to release the submarine; he then pulls Pete to safety. Back at the base, as the creature turns toward the open sea, the torpedo is detonated, completely destroying the giant cephalopod. The trio celebrate at a restaurant, where Pete makes an impromptu proposal, and Lesley accepts.

A severely deformed man stumbles through the Arizona desert, falls and dies. Dr. Matt Hastings, a doctor from the nearby town of Desert Rock, is called in by the sheriff to examine the body. Asked the cause of death, he finds himself perplexed: the deceased, biological research scientist Eric Jacobs, was someone he knew and had recently seen. He appears to have acromegaly, a distortion which takes years to reach its current state. Puzzled, Dr. Hastings asks to perform an autopsy. The sheriff refuses, judging it unnecessary since there is no indication of foul play. Hastings approaches Jacobs' colleague, Dr. Gerald Deemer, who bluntly refuses permission. He signs Jacobs' death certificate, with "heart disease" listed as the cause of death.

Still bothered, Hastings drives to Deemer's combined home and research lab in an isolated desert mansion. Deemer apologizes for his earlier hostility, blaming it on grief, and insisting that Jacobs developed acromegaly rapidly, over just four days. He cannot offer an explanation but attempts to convince Hastings this was an anomaly, not a result of anything sinister. Hastings appears to accept his apology.

Deemer goes to his closed lab, which contain huge cages with white rabbits and rats of enormous size. Deemer examines each, noting when each last received an "injection", and how many each has had. He turns to a glass-front inset in a back wall, as a different specimen crawls into view: a tarantula with a body the size of a large dog, plus its legs.

As Deemer finishes his observations, a second deformed man appears, attacks Deemer, and begins destroying the lab. During his rampage the lab catches fire and the glass covering the tarantula's cage is shattered. The man grabs the hypodermic that Deemer was preparing, knocks him out, and injects him with the contents. As flames engulf the lab, the arachnid escapes, and the deformed man collapses and dies. Deemer regains consciousness, grabs a fire extinguisher, and puts out the fire. That night, Deemer calmly buries the body of his other assailant, Paul Lund, in the desert.

The intercity bus brings a newcomer to town, a young, beautiful woman who is expecting to be met by Dr. Deemer. Told by the hotel clerk that she will have to wait until the only taxi returns, she accepts a ride from Dr. Hastings, who is going back to Deemer's lab. She introduces herself as Stephanie Clayton, nicknamed "Steve", who has signed on to assist in the lab.

At the mansion, Dr. Deemer tells them that the fire was caused by an equipment malfunction. He indicates that all the test animals were killed and explains that Lund has already left his employment. Since Steve's contract stipulates that she live at the residence, Hastings leaves her and her suitcases there.

Days later, the sheriff calls and asks Dr. Hastings for help. Hasting's finds a mystery involving picked-clean cattle carcasses and large pools of a thick white liquid. The tarantula, now the size of Deemer's mansion, is the cause. The next night, a horse-rancher is killed outside his stable, and later a pickup truck is flipped over to get at the two men inside. Two hoboes, trying to enjoy a meal on the open range, are chased and killed.

Hastings pays a call on Steve at the lab. Dr. Deemer has been acting and looking ill recently and has gone to bed, so she shows Hastings what they are working on: the use of radioactive elements to produce an artificial super-nutrient which, once perfected, could provide an unlimited food supply for humanity. She shows Matt some of the giant lab animals created as an unintended side-effect. Dr. Deemer suddenly appears, furious. He chews out Steve for revealing "secret" work and orders Hastings to leave. Before he goes, he notices there are some subtle changes in Deemer's physical appearance and demeanor.

At the destroyed horse ranch, Hastings again appears at the request of the sheriff and, once again, finds pools of the strange, thick liquid. He decides an analysis could solve the mystery, so he takes samples and flies them to the university in Phoenix. The substance is determined to be tarantula venom, but in such a quantity that only a monster arachnid could produce. After being shown a film demonstrating the predatory ferocity of a normal tarantula, he calls Dr. Deemer, but is told by Steve that he is sick in bed. Deemer suddenly appears behind her and hangs up the phone abruptly. Hastings immediately flies back to Desert Rock.

Upon arriving, he drives to the mansion, where he finds Dr. Deemer near death, suffering from severe acromegalic deformities and under Steve's care. Deemer divulges all that he knows about the nutrient's effects on humans and animals and tells of Lund's death. Hastings returns to town to brief the sheriff on what he has learned.

As night falls, the giant tarantula comes to the mansion. Deemer is killed, but Steve is able to escape when Hastings returns for her in his car. The tarantula pursues them down the highway toward the town. The sheriff and his men intercept, but their guns have no effect. Dynamite is gathered from town, but a blast large enough to blow up the highway does not faze the monster arachnid. As they complete a hasty evacuation of the town, an Air Force fighter jet squadron, summoned by the sheriff, arrives and launches a napalm attack, successfully incinerating the tarantula at the town's edge.

A small crew led by Commander Harold Roberts and reporter Maggie Hathaway are on an expedition into Antarctica for the United States Navy. During a helicopter flight, they are called back to their ship via radio because of an unexpected storm approaching. At first they try to fly around the storm, but low on fuel, they fly into the storm, where they almost collide in mid-air with a man-sized pterosaur. Their rotor breaks and unable to stay in the air they start to descend, and are surprised when they end up landing well below sea-level in a warm volcanic crater. Inside, they discover a steamy tropical jungle populated by living dinosaurs, giant flesh-eating plants, and fresh human footprints. The crew encounter many dangers and perils in the jungle in a fight for survival.

The crew meet Hunter, the lone survivor of a plane crash from the 1947 expedition. He has learned to survive in this land with the aid of a conch that drives off the animals and by raiding the dinosaurs' nests. He offers the remains of his airplane to repair the helicopter, but only if the crew agree to leave Maggie with him. The crew refuses, but they also know that after 25 days their ship will have to leave before the Antarctic winter sets in. Unsuccessful in finding the remains of the plane, hidden by Hunter, the crew debate leaving Maggie, or forcing the information out of Hunter by torture. Commander Roberts refuses to sink to either low. Maggie is later attacked by an Elasmosaurus, but Hunter rescues her. After a fight and learning that the crew refuse to torture him for the location of the plane, Hunter gives them the map to its location.

After repairing the helicopter, the crew take off in a hurry as a Tyrannosaurus rex attacks their base. They fly to pick up Maggie, who is with Hunter at the time. Hunter is ambushed by the Elasmosaurus, and the crew come to his rescue. They fly out of the lost world with him. Once clear of the crater, the crew are able to communicate again by radio with their ship; however, the helicopter runs out of fuel and crashes into the ocean before it reaches the vessel. The crew are rescued, and once safely on the ship Harold and Maggie declare their love for one another.

The animals featured in this film include a Tyrannosaurus, Elasmosaurus, Stegosaurus live acted by monitor lizards, a pair of Pterosaurs and a giant flesh-consuming plant. The mammal found by the crew then later eaten by the carnivorous plant is referred to as a tarsier but is actually a loris.

The Tyrannosaurus bit and chomped Dr. Colon and spit him out and crushed him.

Me: Wow! The Tyrannosaurus from the 1957 movie The Land Unknown!

Me: Cool! It's another one of my dad's favorite movies from his past.

Nico: Neat.

Lana: Here's one you haven't seen yet. ICE STYLE NINJA ART: THE SNOW CREATURE!

Lana fired a wave of ice and it formed into The Yeti from the 1954 movie The Snow Creature!

---

The film has a two-act structure, the first act taking place in the exotic locale of the Himalayas and the second occurring in Los Angeles, California. While the first act takes place in an undisclosed Himalayan country (presumably bordering India) the actors portraying the locals speak Japanese. The movie starts with a scientific expedition intent on collecting botanical samples, led by Dr. Frank Parrish (Paul Langton) and encounters difficulties when the wife of the expedition's chief guide is kidnapped. The guide, a sherpa named Subra (played by Teru Shimada), seizes the expedition's guns and takes control of the team when he is unable to convince Parrish to pursue the Yeti and save his wife. Parrish, a man of science, is skeptical of the Yeti's existence, but is forced to participate in Subra's march. Along with his fellow westerner (a photographer named Peter Wells, played by Leslie Denison), Parrish awaits his opportunity to overthrow the renegade sherpa. However, as the team draws closer to the Yeti, evidence emerges that begins to change Parrish's opinion regarding the creature's existence (such as the tell-tale "giant footprints"). Finally, the team makes contact with the snow creature, who hurls stones at them from atop his mountain refuge. The expedition tracks the creature to his cave, where they encounter the creature, along with two other Yetis - a female and young one. The team also discover Subra's wife, who is guarded jealously by the snow creature. Parrish forcibly prevents the enraged Subra from shooting the Yeti, reasoning that the creature is more valuable for science alive. This delays the capture long enough to enable the creature to create a cave-in (presumably to keep his family safe from the humans). However, the cave-in works against the Yeti, killing the female and young Yetis and knocking the snow creature himself unconscious. The cave-in also enables Parrish and Wells to take control of the sherpa's guns. Having regained control over the expedition, and successfully capturing a live Yeti, Parrish declares that he is intent upon bringing the creature to the U.S. where it will be studied.

The Yeti is eventually sedated and placed in a telephone booth-sized freezer for transport. Locked inside this freezer, the Yeti is transported to Bombay and thence to California. In an odd geographic twist, the return flight heads west from India to California (via TWA) - beginning the second act. Upon reaching Los Angeles, Parrish is greeted by reporters who have been made aware of the creature's existence. A U.S. Customs official informs Parrish that the admission of this creature to the U.S. has been made difficult by a newspaper article published by Peter Wells that refers to the creature using the term "man". The issue is raised whether the snow-creature is actually human and the officials decide to keep the creature in quarantine until an anthropologist can determine the question of the creature's humanity. It is during this delay at the airport's customs station that the snow creature manages to escape the ice box (which was apparently meant to confine him temporarily only). The snow creature roams the city, terrorizing a woman and finding refuge in the cool temperature of the city's sewers as well as meat-lockers (where it can also feed). The police, aided by Parrish, manage to track the Yeti through the sewer system to where the creature is caught in a net and grabbed by 5 men. As the creature resists it starts to choke one of the men through the mesh. One of the men shoots the creature once who then stops choking the man. There's a pause after the choked man had been released and then the man with the gun decides to shoot the rare creature with three more slugs just for good measure. Thus, one of the greatest finds of all time is dead.

In Anchorage, journalist Ned Scott (Douglas Spencer), looking for a story, visits the Air Force officer's club, where he meets Captain Pat Hendry (Kenneth Tobey), his co-pilot Lieutenant Eddie Dykes, (a friend of Scott's), and flight navigator Ken "Mac" MacPherson. General Fogarty orders Hendry to fly to Polar Expedition Six at the North Pole, per a request from its lead scientist, Nobel laureate Dr. Arthur Carrington (Robert Cornthwaite); Carrington has radioed that an unusual aircraft has crashed nearby. With Scott, Corporal Barnes, crew chief Bob, and a pack of sled dogs, Hendry pilots a Douglas C-47 transport to the remote outpost.

Upon arrival, Scott and the airmen meet radio operator Tex, Mrs. Chapman, Lee, one of two cooks, and the Inuit dog handlers. Also present are scientists Vorhees, Stern, Redding, Stone, Laurence, Wilson, Ambrose, Auerbach, Olson, Mrs. Chapman's husband Dr. Chapman, and Carrington. Hendry later rekindles his romance with Nikki Nicholson (Margaret Sheridan), Carrington's secretary. Several scientists fly with the airmen to the crash site, finding a large object buried beneath ice. As they spread out to determine its shape, they realize they are standing in a circle; they have discovered a flying saucer. The team attempts to melt the ice covering the saucer with thermite, but a violent reaction with the craft's metal alloy completely destroys it. Their Geiger counter, however, detects something, a frozen body, buried nearby; it is excavated in a large block of ice and loaded aboard the transport. They fly out as an Arctic storm closes in on the site.

Hendry assumes command of the outpost and, pending instruction from General Fogarty, denies Scott permission to send out his story; he also denies the scientists' demands to examine the body. Tex sends an update to Fogarty, and the airmen settle in as the storm arrives. A watch is posted; Barnes relieves McPherson and, disturbed by the creature's appearance in the clearing ice, covers it with an electric blanket, which he does not realize is plugged in. The block slowly thaws and the creature, still alive, escapes into the storm and is attacked by the sled dogs. The airmen recover the creature's severed arm after the attack.

The scientists examine the arm, concluding that the alien is an advanced form of plant life. Carrington is convinced of its superiority to humans and becomes intent on communicating with it. The airmen begin a search, which leads to the outpost's greenhouse. Carrington stays behind with Vorhees, Stern, and Laurence, having noticed evidence of alien activity. They discover a third sled dog hidden away, which has had all of its blood drained; the creature feeds on blood. Carrington and the scientists post a secret watch of their own, hoping to encounter the alien before the airmen find it.

The next morning, the airmen continue their search. Tex informs them that Fogarty is aware of their discovery and demands further information, now prevented by the fierce storm. Stern appears, badly injured, and tells the group that the creature has killed Auerbach and Olson. When the airmen investigate, the alien attacks them; they manage to barricade it inside the greenhouse. Hendry confronts Carrington and orders him to remain in his lab and quarters.

Carrington, obsessed with the alien, shows Nicholson and the other scientists his experiment: Using seeds taken from the severed arm, he has been growing small alien plants by feeding them from their blood plasma supply. Hendry finds the plasma missing when it is needed to treat Stern, which ultimately leads him back to Carrington. Fogarty transmits orders to keep the creature alive, but it escapes from the greenhouse and attacks the airmen in their quarters. They douse it with buckets of kerosene and set it afire, forcing it to retreat into the storm. After regrouping, they realize that their building's temperature is falling rapidly; the furnaces have stopped working, sabotaged by the alien. They retreat to the station's generator room to keep warm, and rig an electrical "fly trap". The alien continues to stalk them, but at the last moment, Carrington attempts to communicate, pleading with the creature. It knocks him aside, walks into the set trap, and is electrocuted and reduced to just a pile of ash on Hendry's direct order.

When the weather clears, Scotty is finally able to file his "story of a lifetime" by radio to a roomful of reporters in Anchorage. He begins his broadcast with a warning: "Tell the world. Tell this to everybody, wherever they are. Watch the skies everywhere. Keep looking. Keep watching the skies".

The creature grabbed Dr. Colon and started draining his blood and kicked him away and he slashed him all over the place.

A rocket-ship carrying astronaut John Corcoran (Michael Emmet) launches and orbits the Earth, marking the United States' first manned space launch. Shortly after taking off, the ship is struck by an unknown object, forcing Corcoran to abort the mission and land. However, the equipment cannot handle the fast descent back into the atmosphere and the ship crash lands in the woods, killing Corcoran. Dave Randall (Ed Nelson) and Donna Bixby (Georgianna Carter), two technicians from a nearby space agency tracking station, locate the crashed ship and recover Corcoran's body. They are baffled, however, by what appears to be a giant tear in the side of the destroyed spacecraft and a mud-like substance covering some of the wreckage. Randall and Bixby are joined by lead scientist Dr. Alex Wyman (Tyler McVey), technician Steve Dunlap (John Baer) and physician Julie Benson (Angela Greene), who was also Corcoran's fiancee. Wyman observes that Corcoran's body exhibits no signs of rigor mortis, and that the blood pooling beside him is not livid as it should be. The team brings the corpse back to their lab to run tests and find further irregularities. Although the body lacks a heartbeat or pulse, it maintains the blood pressure of a living human being. After looking at his blood in a microscope, they find unusual, unidentifiable cells that seem resistant to destruction from human white blood cells.

The team tries to call for further assistance, but find the radio is no longer working. Randall heads outside to check the power transformers, and is attacked by a large creature (Ross Sturlin) hiding in the underbrush around the station. Randall fires a few shots at the creature with his pistol and escapes unscathed. Although he did not get a good look at the creature, he describes it to the rest of the team as similar in size to a bear. Later, the team finds the infirmary has been trashed and Corcoran's body is gone. They initially believe the creature has broken in and stole the corpse, but are shocked to instead find Corcoran has mysteriously regained consciousness. Upon checking his blood again, there is no trace of the mysterious cells from before, but after investigating Corcoran's body, they find the cells have changed into lizard-like fetuses and entered into his abdominal cavity. The creature later breaks into the lab again, this time beheading Dr. Wyman. Randall and Dunlap are initially suspicious that Corcoran was involved in the death, which he denies, but it appears he has some sort of telepathic connection with the creature. Despite Wyman's death, Corcoran does not believe the creature is evil, but rather simply misunderstood. He implores the others to give the creature a chance to explain its actions, and asks that they not condemn it as a monster simply because it is different.

As the others plot to destroy the creature with improvised gas bombs and flares, Corcoran flees the station and finds the creature in a nearby cave. After consuming Wyman's brain, the creature is now able to speak with the scientist's voice and has absorbed his knowledge. Corcoran asks whether Wyman's death was needed, but the creature insists it was a necessary sacrifice. The others arrive to destroy the creature, but hesitate because Corcoran will not step aside and let them throw their bombs. The creature insists it is not an evil monster, but an intelligent alien who has come to Earth to save the human race from its own self-destructive tendencies. It explains that Corcoran's body has been implanted with its embryos, which will allow the alien species to multiply and take over the human race, which the creature claims is the only way to truly save humanity. Upon realizing the creature is forcing the will of its species on the human race, Corcoran concludes the creature is evil after all and commits suicide so its embryos cannot come to fruition. The others then throw their explosives and kill the creature, which in its dying breaths warns that others from his species are waiting in space and will return one day to conquer humanity.

On January 5, 1900, four friends arrive for a dinner at the London home of their inventor friend George, but he is absent. He arrives suddenly, bedraggled and exhausted, and tells what has happened to him.

At their earlier dinner on New Year's Eve, George says that time is "the fourth dimension". He shows David Filby, Dr. Philip Hillyer, Anthony Bridewell, and Walter Kemp a small model time machine and has one of them press a tiny lever on the model. The device disappears, but his friends are skeptical.

George has a full-size time machine which he uses to travel ahead to September 13, 1917. He meets Filby's son, James, who tells him of Filby's death in a war. He then stops on June 19, 1940, during the Blitz, finding himself in the midst of "a new war". George resumes his journey and stops on August 19, 1966. People hurry into a fallout shelter amid the blare of air raid sirens. An elderly James Filby urges George to take cover. Moments later, a nuclear satellite explodes, causing a volcanic eruption. George narrowly makes it back to his machine ahead of the approaching lava, which rises, cools, and hardens, trapping him inside, as he travels far into the future. Eventually the lava wears away, revealing a lush, unspoiled landscape.

George stops at October 12, 802,701, near the base of a sphinx. He finds a group of delicate young men and women wearing simple clothing gathered at a stream. One woman, carried off by the current, screams for help, but her companions show no concern. George rescues her. She says her name is Weena and her people are the Eloi; they do not operate machines, work, or read, and know little of history. One of them takes George to a library, but when he tries to read a book, it crumbles to dust. Outraged, he decides to leave, but discovers that his machine has been dragged into the closed sphinx. Weena follows, telling him Morlocks, who only come out at night, are responsible. A hideous Morlock jumps out and tries to drag her away, but is blinded by George's torch.

The next day, Weena shows George domed structures that dot the landscape: air shafts that lead down to the Morlocks' home. She takes him to an ancient museum where "talking rings" tell of a war in the distant past between east and west that lasted 326 years. The atmosphere became so contaminated that it could no longer be safely breathed. Another ring describes humanity's struggle for survival; many decided to move underground, while some returned to the surface. George realizes this was the beginning of the speciation that resulted in the Morlocks and Eloi. He starts to climb down a shaft, but stops when sirens emerge from the sphinx and blare. The Eloi, in a trance-like state, head for the now-open doors at the sphinx's base. The sirens stop and the doors close, trapping Weena and others inside.

George enters the caverns and discovers that the Eloi are food for the Morlocks. He finds Weena and fights off the creatures, finally inspiring the Eloi to defend themselves. George sets fires and urges the Eloi to climb back to the surface. He directs them to gather tree branches and drop them down the shafts. The resulting fires cause the caverns to collapse.

The next morning, George finds the sphinx's doors open. His time machine is inside. He enters, the doors close, and he is attacked in the dark by Morlocks. He escapes in his machine, sees a Morlock's body decompose rapidly, realizes he's moving forward in time, reverses direction, and returns to 1900.

After George recounts his story, his friends remain skeptical. He produces a flower Weena gave him, and Filby, an amateur botanist, says it is of no known species. George bids his guests a good evening. Filby leaves, but returns to find George and his time machine gone. His housekeeper notes that nothing is missing except three books that she cannot identify. When the housekeeper wonders if George will ever return, Filby remarks that "he has all the time in the world".

In 1630 Moldavia, Asa Vajda, a witch, and her paramour, Javutich, are sentenced to death for sorcery by Asa's brother. Asa vows revenge and puts a curse on her brother's descendants. Metal masks with sharp spikes on the inside are placed over Asa and Javutich's faces and hammered into their flesh, but a sudden storm prevents the villagers from burning them at the stake.

Two centuries later, Dr. Choma Kruvajan and his assistant, Dr. Andrej Gorobec, are traveling through Moldavia en route to a medical conference when one of the wheels of their carriage is broken. While waiting for their coachman to fix it, the two wander into a nearby ancient crypt and discover Asa's tomb. Observing her death mask through a glass panel, Kruvajan breaks the panel (and the cross above it) by accident while striking a bat. He then removes Asa's death mask, revealing a partially preserved corpse. He cuts his hand on the broken glass. Some of his blood drips onto Asa.

Returning outside, Kruvajan and Gorobec meet Katia Vajda. She tells them that she lives with her father and brother Constantine in a nearby castle that the villagers believe is haunted. Struck by her haunting beauty and sadness, Gorobec becomes smitten with Katia. The two men leave her and drive to an inn. Meanwhile Asa is brought back to life by Kruvajan's blood. She contacts Javutich telepathically. He rises from his grave and goes to Prince Vajda's castle, where Vajda holds up a crucifix to ward the reanimated corpse away. However, Vajda is so terrified by the visit that he becomes paralyzed with fear. Constantine sends a servant to fetch Dr. Kruvajan, but the servant is killed before he can reach the inn. Javutich brings Kruvajan to the castle under the pretext that his services are needed. Javutich leads Kruvajan to Asa's crypt. The witch hypnotizes Kruvajan and says she needs the rest of his blood. Asa then kisses him, turning him into her servant. By Asa's command, Kruvajan follows up on the request to tend to Vajda. He orders the crucifix removed from the room, ostensibly so it won't upset Vajda; this allows Javutich to return later and murder him.

Asa's plan is to revive herself by draining Katia of her life, since Katia is physically Asa reincarnated. Puzzled to hear that Kruvajan abandoned his patient shortly before he died, Gorobec questions a little girl who saw Javutich take Kruvajan to the castle. She identifies Kruvajan's escort with a painting of Javutich. A priest and Gorobec go to Javutich's grave and find Kruvajan's body inside the coffin. Realizing he is now one of the undead, they kill him by ramming a small piece of wood through one of his eye sockets.

Javutich throws Constantine into a death pit and takes Katia to Asa. Asa drains Katia of her youth. When the witch goes to take her blood, she is thwarted by the crucifix around Katia's neck. Gorobec enters the crypt to save Katia but is attacked by Javutich, who pushes him to the edge of the death pit. Constantine uses the last of his strength to pull Javutich into the pit and push Gorobec to safety. Gorobec finds Asa and Katia. Asa pretends to be Katia and tells Gorobec that Katia is the witch. He accordingly goes to kill Katia but notices the crucifix she is wearing has no effect on her. He turns to Asa and opens her robe, revealing a fleshless skeletal frame. The priest then arrives with numerous torch-carrying villagers, and they burn Asa to death. Katia awakens from her stupor, her life and beauty restored, and is reunited with Gorobec.

Injured American reporter Steve Martin is brought from the ruins of Tokyo to a hospital filled with maimed and wounded citizens. A recent acquaintance, Emiko, discovers him by chance among the victims and attempts to find a doctor for him. Martin recalls in flashback stopping over in Tokyo, where a series of inexplicable ship disasters catches his attention. When a victim of those disasters washes up on Odo Island, Martin flies there for the story, along with security officer Tomo Iwanaga. There he learns of the island inhabitants' long-held belief in a sea monster god known as "Godzilla", which they believe is causing the disasters. That night, a storm strikes the island, destroying many houses and killing some villagers. The islanders believe that Godzilla is responsible for the destruction.

Martin returns to the island with Dr. Yamane, who is leading a team to investigate its ruins. Huge radioactive footprints and a prehistoric trilobite are discovered. An alarm rings and Martin, the villagers, and Dr. Yamane's team head up a hill for safety. Near the summit, they encounter Godzilla and quickly flee downhill. Dr. Yamane later returns to Tokyo and deduces that Godzilla is 400 feet (122 m) tall and was resurrected by repeated H-bomb tests in the Pacific. To Yamane's dismay, the military responds by attempting to kill the creature with depth charges. Martin contacts his old friend, Dr. Daisuke Serizawa, for dinner, but Serizawa declines due to planned commitments with his fiancé and Dr. Yamane's daughter, Emiko.

Emiko goes to Serizawa's home to break off her arranged engagement to him because she is actually in love with Hideo Ogata, a salvage ship captain. Dr. Serizawa, however, gives her a demonstration of his secret project, which horrifies her. She is sworn to secrecy and unable to bring herself to break off the engagement. Godzilla surfaces from Tokyo Bay, unharmed by the depth charges, and attacks the city, destroying a train before returning to the bay. The next morning, the JSDF supercharges the tall electrical towers along Tokyo's coast to repel the monster.

Godzilla resurfaces that night and breaks through the electrical towers and JSDF defense line using his atomic heat breath. Martin documents Godzilla's rampage via tape recorder and is injured during the attack. Godzilla returns to the sea and the flashback ends. Martin wakes up in the hospital with Emiko and Ogata. Horrified by the destruction, Emiko reveals to them the existence of Dr. Serizawa's Oxygen Destroyer, which disintegrates oxygen atoms in salt water and causes all marine organisms to die of acidic asphyxiation. Emiko and Ogata go to Dr. Serizawa to convince him to use his weapon on Godzilla, but he initially refuses. After watching a television broadcast showing the nation's plight, Serizawa finally gives in to their pleas.

A Navy ship takes Ogata, Serizawa, Yamame, Martin, and Emiko out to the deepest part of Tokyo Bay. Ogata and Serizawa are lowered down by lifelines near Godzilla to plant the weapon. Ogata is pulled up, but Serizawa delays his ascent and activates the device. He radios the surface of its success and wishes Emiko and Ogata happiness together. Serizawa cuts his lifeline, taking the secret of his invention to the grave. Godzilla succumbs to the Oxygen Destroyer, dissolving his body and bones. All aboard the ship mourn the loss of Dr. Serizawa. Martin reflects that the world can "live again" due to Serizawa's sacrifice.

When a flying saucer lands in Washington, D.C., the Army quickly surrounds it. A humanoid (Michael Rennie) emerges from the spacecraft and announces that he comes "in peace and with good will". When he unexpectedly removes and opens a small device, he is shot and wounded by a nervous soldier. A tall robot emerges from the saucer and quickly disintegrates the Army's weapons. The alien orders the robot, Gort, to desist. He explains that the now-broken device was a gift for the president of the United States that would have enabled him "to study life on the other planets".

The alien, Klaatu, is taken to Walter Reed Hospital. After surgery, he uses a salve to quickly heal his wound. Meanwhile, the Army tries but is unable to enter the saucer; Gort stands outside, silent and unmoving.

Klaatu tells the President's secretary, Mr. Harley (Frank Conroy), that he has a message that must be delivered to all of the world's leaders simultaneously. Harley tells him that such a meeting in the current political climate is impossible. Klaatu suggests that he be allowed to go among humans to better understand their "unreasoning suspicions and attitudes". Harley rejects the proposal, and Klaatu remains under guard.

Klaatu escapes and lodges at a boarding house as "Mr. Carpenter", the name ("Maj. Carpenter") on the dry cleaner's tag on a suit he acquired. Among the residents are young widow Helen Benson (Patricia Neal) and her son Bobby (Billy Gray). The following morning, Klaatu listens to the boarders speculate about the alien's motivations.

While Helen and her boyfriend Tom Stevens (Hugh Marlowe) are not at home, Klaatu is a babysitter for Bobby. The boy takes Klaatu on a tour of the city, including a visit to his father's grave in Arlington National Cemetery; Klaatu learns that most of the deceased are former military servicemen killed in wars. They visit the Lincoln Memorial, and at the heavily guarded spaceship Klaatu asks Bobby who the greatest living person is; Bobby suggests Professor Barnhardt (Sam Jaffe). Bobby takes Klaatu to Barnhardt's home, but the professor is not home. Klaatu enters the professor's locked study from outside and adds a mathematical equation on a blackboard to assist Barnhardt in solving a celestial mechanics problem; he leaves his contact information with the suspicious housekeeper.

During the evening, a government agent accompanies Klaatu to Barnhardt. Klaatu explains that the people of other planets are concerned now that humanity has developed rockets and a rudimentary form of atomic power. Klaatu declares that if his message is ignored, "Earth will be eliminated". Barnhardt asks Klaatu if such power really exists. Klaatu assures him that it does. Barnhardt agrees to gather scientists from around the world at the saucer; he then suggests that Klaatu give a harmless demonstration of his power. Klaatu returns to his spaceship that night, unaware that Bobby has followed him. Bobby sees Gort render two soldiers unconscious and Klaatu enter the saucer.

Bobby tells Helen and Tom what he saw, but they do not believe him until Tom takes a diamond he found in Klaatu's room to a jeweler and learns it is "unlike any other on Earth". Klaatu finds Helen at her workplace, and they take an empty service elevator, which stops precisely at noon. He has neutralized all electricity everywhere for 30 minutes, except for such essential services as hospitals and airplanes in flight. Klaatu reveals his true identity to Helen, asks for her help, and explains his mission.

After Tom informs the authorities of his suspicions, Helen breaks up with him. She and Klaatu decide to visit Barnhardt's home. On the way there, he tells her that if anything happens to him, she must say to Gort, "Klaatu barada nikto". Their taxi is spotted and hemmed in. Klaatu makes a break for it and is shot dead. Helen quickly heads to the saucer. After killing two soldiers standing watch, Gort advances on her, and Helen utters Klaatu's words. Gort carries her into the spaceship and leaves to retrieve Klaatu's body. Back in the saucer, Gort revives Klaatu, and he explains to Helen that his revival is only temporary.

Klaatu addresses Barnhardt's assembled scientists, informing them that he represents an interplanetary organization that created a police force of invincible robots like Gort. "In matters of aggression, we have given them absolute power over us". Klaatu concludes, "Your choice is simple: join us and live in peace, or pursue your present course and face obliteration. We shall be waiting for your answer". Klaatu and Gort re-enter the saucer and depart.

Scientist Steve Karnes delivers a speech to a British scientific society, led by Professor James Bickford, about the dangers to marine life posed by nuclear testing. Before Karnes can return to the United States, a real-life example of his concern materializes when a fisherman in Looe, Cornwall is killed on the beach, and his dying word is "behemoth". Later, thousands of dead fish are washed ashore.

Karnes and Bickford travel to Cornwall to investigate the fisherman's death and, although his injuries seem to include radiation burns, they find no evidence of radiation on the beach. Then, Karnes goes to inspect a passenger ship found wrecked and badly damaged, with the loss of all on board. Back in London, the two scientists discover that samples of the dead fish contain large amounts of radioactive contamination. Karnes begins to suspect that the "behemoth" that the fisherman described seeing is some kind of large marine mammal that has mutated as a result of being contaminated by nuclear testing.

The next attack is on a farm near the coast in Essex. A photo of the area reveals a huge footprint and paleontologist Dr. Sampson identifies the creature as a Paleosaurus, an aquatic dinosaur that emits an electric pulse, like an electric eel. Karnes believes that the dinosaur is saturated by radiation, which is transmitted by the electric pulse, resulting in the burns seen on the fisherman and other victims. The radiation is also slowly killing the dinosaur. According to Dr. Samson, the dying creature will leave the ocean depths to head upstream, seeking out the shallow waters where it was born, but death by radiation may not come soon enough to prevent the creature from wreaking havoc on London along the way.

Karnes and Bickford try to persuade authorities to close the River Thames, but the military officer believes that their radar tracking systems will be enough to detect the behemoth and prevent it from getting near the city. Unfortunately, the dinosaur appears to be invisible to radar. Dr. Sampson and some other scientists spot it from a Royal Navy helicopter, but the radar equipment tracking the helicopter sees no sign of the beast, which destroys the helicopter when it gets too close. Soon, the behemoth surfaces in the Thames and capsizes the Woolwich Ferry.

Rising from the river, the creature rampages through the city, flattening cars and destroying buildings. Bickford and Karnes advise the military that the best way to kill the beast will be to administer a dose of radium, hoping to accelerate the radiation sickness that is already slowly killing it. While they prepare the dose, the behemoth continues its rampage, eventually plummeting through London Bridge back into the Thames.

Karnes and Bickford set their plan into action. A mini-sub with Karnes carries a torpedo filled with radium into the Thames in pursuit of the monster. During an initial pass, the behemoth takes a bite out of the mini-sub, but Karnes convinces the submarine captain to have another go. This time, they succeed in firing the torpedo into the monster's mouth, and the behemoth roars in pain. Observers in helicopters later confirm the monster's demise.

As Karnes and Bickford climb into a car to leave the area, they hear a radio report of dead fish washing up on the eastern shores of the United States.

As the film opens, mission control personnel on Earth are monitoring the rocketship MR-1 ("Mars Rocket 1") as it approaches Earth orbit following the first manned expedition to Mars. Personnel are surprised to see the ship on their monitors, for they believed that the vehicle had become lost or destroyed in space. Ground technicians are unable, though, to make contact with anyone on MR-1, so they guide the rocket by remote control to a safe Earth landing. Only two survivors of the original four-person crew are found in the ship: Dr. Iris Ryan (Naura Hayden) and Col. Tom O'Bannion (Gerald Mohr), whose entire right arm is covered with a strange green alien growth. The MR-1's mission to Mars is then recounted by Dr. Ryan as she also helps to find a cure for Col. O'Bannion's badly infected arm. In her debriefing, she reports in detail the crew's experiences while traveling to the Red Planet and exploring its surface. She describes their expedition in retrospect, as if it were currently happening.

After MR-1 reaches Mars and its crew explores the planet's surface, Dr. Ryan is attacked by a carnivorous plant, which Chief Warrant Officer Jacobs kills with his freeze-ray, which he calls "Cleo". The crew then encounters an immense bat-rat-spider-crab creature, at first mistaking its legs for trees. That creature is blinded and repelled as well by Jacobs, who again uses his ray gun. When the crew returns to their ship, they realize that their radio signals are being blocked and the MR-1 is unable to leave Mars due to a mysterious force field. O'Bannion next leads the crew to a Martian lake, where a city with high, impressive structures is visible on the other side, far in the distance. Crossing the water in an inflatable raft, they are stopped by a giant amoeba-like creature with a single spinning eye. The creature kills Jacobs and infects O'Bannion's arm. The three survivors then return to the MR-1 and manage to lift off from the planet since the force field has somehow been deactivated. Unfortunately, Professor Gettell, the MR-1's designer, dies of an apparent heart attack caused by the extreme stresses of the ascent.

Once the MR-1 returns to Earth, O'Bannion's infected arm is cured by medical staff using electric shocks. Mission control technicians also examine the MR-1's data recorders from the expedition and find a recording of an alien voice, which announces that the ship's crew were allowed to leave Mars so that they could deliver a message to their home planet. The voice then states that "we of Mars" have been observing human development on Earth for many thousands of years and have determined that humanity's technology has far outpaced progress in cultural advancement. The alien then accuses humankind of invading Mars, warning that if future expeditions ever return to the Red Planet, then the Earth would be destroyed in retaliation.

In Hill's prologue, a scientist, Dr. Eric Zinthrop (Michael Mark), is fired from his job at a honey farm for experimenting with wasps.

The founder and owner of a large cosmetics company, Janice Starlin (Susan Cabot), is disturbed when her firm's sales begin to drop after it becomes apparent to her customer base that she is aging. Zinthrop has been able to extract enzymes from the royal jelly of the queen wasp that can reverse the aging process. Janice agrees to fund further research, at great cost, provided she can serve as his human subject. Displeased with the slowness of the results, she breaks into the scientist's laboratory after hours and injects herself with extra doses of the formula. Zinthrop becomes aware that some of the test creatures are becoming violent and goes to warn Janice, but before he can reach anyone, he gets into a car accident. He is thus temporarily missing and Janice goes through great trouble to find him, eventually taking over his care.

Janice continues her clandestine use of the serum and sheds 20 years in a single weekend, but soon discovers that she is periodically transformed into a murderous, wasp-like creature. Eventually, Zinthrop throws a jar of carbolic acid at her face, and another character, using a chair, pushes her out of a high window, the impact killing her.

In a small rural Pennsylvania town in July 1957, teenager Steve Andrews (Steve McQueen) and his girlfriend, Jane Martin (Aneta Corsaut), are kissing at a lovers' lane when they see a meteorite crash beyond the next hill; Steve decides to look for it. An old man (Olin Howland) living nearby finds it first. When he pokes the meteorite with a stick, it breaks open, and a small jelly-like globule inside attaches itself to his hand. In pain and unable to scrape or shake it loose, the old man runs onto the road, where he is nearly struck by Steve's car; Steve and Jane take him to Doctor Hallen (Stephen Chase).

Doctor Hallen anesthetizes the man and sends Steve and Jane back to locate the impact site and gather information. Hallen decides he must amputate the man's arm since it is being consumed. Before he can, the Blob completely consumes the old man, then Hallen's nurse, and finally the doctor himself, all the while continuing to grow. Steve and Jane return in time for Steve to witness the doctor trying to get out the window with the creature on his head. They leave and go to the police station and return with Lieutenant Dave (Earl Rowe) and Sergeant Bert (John Benson). There is no sign, however, of the Blob or its victims, and Bert dismisses Steve's story as a teenage prank. Steve and Jane are taken home by their parents, but they later sneak out.

In the meantime, the creature consumes a mechanic at a repair shop and grows in size every time it consumes something. At the Colonial Theater, which is showing a midnight screening of Daughter of Horror, Steve recruits Tony (Robert Fields) and some of his friends to warn people about the Blob. When Steve notices that his father's grocery store is unlocked, he and Jane go inside. The janitor is nowhere to be seen, and when the couple is quickly cornered by the creature, they seek refuge in the walk-in freezer. The Blob oozes in under the door, but quickly retreats. Steve and Jane gather their friends and set off the town's fire and air-raid alarms. The townspeople and police still refuse to believe Steve. Meanwhile, the creature enters the Colonial Theater and engulfs and devours the projectionist before oozing into the auditorium. Steve is finally vindicated when screaming people leave the theater in blind panic.

Jane, Danny, and Steve become trapped in the diner, along with the manager and a waitress. The Blob, now enormous and blood red from the people it has consumed, has engulfed the building. Dave has a connection made from his police radio to the diner's telephone, telling those in the diner to get into the cellar before they bring down a live power line onto the diner.

When the live wire lands, it discharges a massive electrical current into the Blob, but it is unaffected and the diner is set ablaze. When the diner manager uses a carbon dioxide extinguisher on the fire, Steve notices that this causes the creature to recoil. Steve remembers that it also retreated from the freezer, saying "That's why it didn't come in the ice box after us. It can't stand cold!" Shouting in hopes of being picked up on the open phone line, Steve tells Dave about the Blob's vulnerability to cold. Jane's father, Mr. Martin (Elbert Smith), leads Steve's friends to the high school to retrieve the twenty fire extinguishers there. Returning, the brigade of fire extinguisher-armed students and police first drive the creature away from the diner, then freeze it, saving Steve, Jane, and the others.

Dave requests authorities send an Air Force heavy-lift cargo aircraft to transport the Blob to the Arctic, where it is later parachuted down to the ice and snow pack. Dave says that while the creature is not dead, at least it has been stopped. To this, Steve Andrews replies, "Yeah, as long as the Arctic stays cold".

The film ends with the words "The End" which then morph into a question mark.

The Blob covered Dr. Colon's leg and ate it off and he screamed in excruciating pain!

Me: Whoa! The Blob from 1958!

Nico: Awful and the one from 1988 was just as scary if not scarier.

Sam S.L.: Yeah. Watch this one. PLASMA STYLE NINJA ART: THE WAR OF THE WORLDS!

Sam fired a wave of plasma fire and it formed into the Martians from the 1953 version of the epic movie The War Of The Worlds!

---

In southern California, Dr. Clayton Forrester (Gene Barry), a well-known atomic scientist, is fishing with colleagues when a large object crashes near the town of Linda Rosa. At the impact site, he meets USC library science instructor Sylvia Van Buren (Ann Robinson) and her uncle, Pastor Matthew Collins (Lewis Martin). Later that night, a round hatch on the object unscrews and opens; a Martian weapon disintegrates the three men standing guard at the site. The United States Marine Corps surround the crash site, as reports pour in of identical "cylinders" landing all over the world and destroying cities. Pastor Collins attempts to make contact with the Martians but is disintegrated. The Martian war machines emerge and effortlessly defeat the military with their "Heat-Ray" and "skeleton beam" weapons.

Attempting to escape in a military spotter plane, Forrester and Sylvia crash land and hide in an abandoned farm house. They begin to develop closer feelings for each other just before the house is buried by yet another crashing cylinder. They encounter and dismember a Martian electronic eye on a long cable and collect a Martian blood sample when Forrester defends Sylvia with an axe. They escape just before the farm house is obliterated. Forrester takes the camera housing and blood sample to his team at Pacific Tech in the hope of finding a way to defeat the invaders.

Many of the major world capitals are destroyed by the Martians, and the United States government makes the decision to drop an atomic bomb. The Martians' force shield, however, proves impenetrable.

As the Martians advance on Los Angeles, the city is evacuated. Forrester, Sylvia, and the Pacific Tech team become separated in the chaos, and their scientific equipment is stolen or destroyed. Forrester searches for Sylvia in the city. Based on a story she had told him earlier, he guesses that she would take refuge in a church. After searching through several, he finds Sylvia among many praying survivors. Just as the Martians strike the church, their machines suddenly lose power and crash, one after another. Forrester sees one Martian expire as it tries to leave its machine.

In voice-over, the film's narrator observes that while the Martians were impervious to humanity's weapons, they had "… no resistance to the bacteria in our atmosphere to which we have long since become immune.… After all that men could do had failed, the Martians were destroyed and humanity was saved by the littlest things, which God, in His wisdom, had put upon this Earth…"

The Martians blasted Dr. Colon all over with incredible fury.

Me: Whoa! The Martians from the 1953 version of The War of The Worlds!

Laney: That's one of my favorite books by H.G. Wells.

Me: But Mars doesn't have Martians. Never has and never well. Uh no offense Sailor Mars.

Sailor Mars: None taken J.D. But yes I know what you mean.

Nico: But those Martians in the 2005 version were ugly!

Me: They sure were.

Psychiatrist Dr. Hill is called to the emergency room of a California hospital, where a screaming man is being held in custody. Dr. Hill agrees to listen to his story. The man identifies himself as a doctor, and recounts, in flashback, the events leading up to his arrest and arrival at the hospital.

In the nearby town of Santa Mira, Dr. Miles Bennell sees a number of patients apparently suffering from Capgras delusion - the belief that their relatives have somehow been replaced with identical-looking impostors. Returning from a trip, Miles meets his former girlfriend, Becky Driscoll, who has recently come back to town after a divorce. Becky's cousin Wilma expresses the same fear about her Uncle Ira, with whom she lives. Psychiatrist Dr. Dan Kauffman assures Bennell that these cases are merely an "epidemic of mass hysteria".

That evening, Bennell's friend, Jack Belicec, finds a body with his exact physical features, though it appears not fully developed; later, another body is found in Becky's basement that is her exact duplicate. When Bennell calls Kauffman to the scene, the bodies have mysteriously disappeared, and Kauffman tells Bennell that he is falling for the same hysteria.

The following night, Bennell, Becky, Jack, and Jack's wife Teddy again find duplicates of themselves, emerging from giant seed pods in Bennell's greenhouse. They conclude that the townspeople are being replaced while asleep with exact physical copies. Miles tries to make a long-distance call to federal authorities for help, but the phone operator claims that all long-distance lines are busy. Jack and Teddy drive off to seek help in the next town. Bennell and Becky soon realize that all of the town's inhabitants have been replaced and are devoid of humanity. They hide at Bennell's office for the night, vowing to stay awake.

The next morning, from the office window, Bennell and Becky watch as truckloads of the giant pods arrive in the town center. They listen as Dumke directs the others to take them to neighboring towns to be planted and used to replace their populations. Kauffman and Jack, both of whom are now also "pod people", arrive at Bennell's office with new pods for Becky and Bennell. They reveal that an extraterrestrial life form is responsible for the invasion; the pods, capable of replicating any life form, traveled through space and landed in a field. After their takeover, they explain, humanity will lose all emotions and sense of individuality, creating a simplistic, stressless world.

After scuffling with and knocking out Kauffman, Jack and Dumke, Bennell and Becky escape the office. Outside, they pretend to be pod people, but Becky screams at a dog that is about to be hit by a car, exposing their humanity. A town alarm is sounded and they flee on foot, pursued by a mob of "pod people".

Exhausted, they manage to escape and hide in an abandoned mine outside town. Later, they hear music and Bennell leaves Becky briefly to investigate. Over a hill, he sees a large greenhouse farm with giant seed pods, being grown by the thousands and loaded onto trucks. Bennell returns to tell Becky, and upon kissing her he realizes, to his horror, that she fell asleep and is now one of them. Becky sounds the alarm as he runs away. He is again chased by the mob, and eventually finds himself on a crowded highway. After seeing a transport truck bound for San Francisco and Los Angeles filled with the pods, he frantically screams at the passing motorists, "They're here already! You're next! You're next!"

The flashback ends, and back at the hospital, Dr. Hill and the on-duty doctor dismiss Bennell's story as a lunatic rambling. As the doctors step into the hall to discuss, a truck driver is wheeled into the emergency room after being badly injured in an accident. The orderly tells the doctors that the man had to be dug out from under a load of giant seed pods. Finally believing Bennell's story, Dr. Hill calls for all roads in and out of Santa Mira to be barricaded, and alerts the FBI.

Liberty: Watch this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: EARTH VS. THE FLYING SAUCERS!

Liberty fired waves of energy and they formed into the Flying Saucers from the 1956 movie Earth VS. The Flying Saucers!

---

Scientist Dr. Russell Marvin (Hugh Marlowe) and his new bride Carol (Joan Taylor) are driving to work when a flying saucer appears overhead. Without proof of the encounter, other than a tape recording of the ship's sound, Dr. Marvin is hesitant to notify his superiors. He is in charge of Project Skyhook, an American space program that has already launched 10 research satellites into orbit. General Hanley (Morris Ankrum), Carol's father, informs Marvin that many of the satellites have since fallen back to Earth. Marvin admits that he has lost contact with all of them and privately suspects alien involvement. The Marvins then witness the 11th falling from the sky shortly after launch.

When a saucer lands at Skyhook the next day, a group of aliens in metallic suits exit, and the infantry guards open fire, resulting in the death of one alien, while others and the saucer are protected by a force field. The aliens proceed to kill everyone at the facility but the Marvins; General Hanley is captured and taken away in the saucer. Too late, Russell discovers and decodes a message on his tape recorder: the aliens wanted to meet with Dr. Marvin and landed in peace at Skyhook for that purpose, but instead, they were met with violence. Impatient to conduct that meeting after everything has gone sideways, Marvin contacts the aliens and steals away to meet them, followed closely by Carol and Major Huglin (Donald Curtis). They and a pursuing motorcycle patrol officer are taken aboard a saucer, where the aliens extract knowledge directly from the General's brain. The aliens explain they are last of their species, having fled from their destroyed solar system. They have shot down all the launched satellites, fearing them as weapons. As proof of their power, the aliens give Dr. Marvin the coordinates of a naval destroyer that opened fire on them, and which they have since destroyed. Horrified by the cold, unempathic nature of the aliens, Carol begins to break down, and the patrol officer, despite an attempt by Marvin to stop him, pulls his revolver and fires on the aliens; he is subjected to the same mind control process as General Hanley. The aliens explain that they will eventually return General Hanley and the patrol officer. As the interaction continues, Carol becomes increasingly irrational, while Marvin tries to remain calm. Major Huglin and the Marvins are released with the message that the aliens want to meet with the world's leaders in 56 days in Washington, D.C. to negotiate an occupation of Earth.

Dr. Marvin's later observations discover that the aliens' protective suits are made of solidified electricity, and grant them advanced auditory perception. From other observations, Marvin develops a counter-weapon against their flying saucers, which he later successfully tests against a single saucer. As they escape, the aliens jettison Gen. Hanley and the patrol officer, both falling to their deaths. Groups of alien saucers then attack Washington, Paris, London, and Moscow, but are destroyed by Dr. Marvin's sonic weapon. The defenders also discover that the aliens can be easily killed by simple small arms gunfire once they are outside the force fields of their saucers.

With the alien threat eliminated, Dr. Marvin and Carol quietly celebrate the victory by going back to their favorite beach, resuming their lives as newlyweds.

The Flying Saucers blasted Dr. Colon with incredible blasts of energy from the ships and they hit him all over and smashed him.

Me: Whoa! The Flying Saucers from Earth VS. The Flying Saucers. That was one of my favorite movies from mine and dad's youths.

Laney: Really scary but cool.

Tshibangu: (Congo Accent) Watch this one. EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: THEM!

Tshibangu fired a wave of earth and they formed into the giant mutated ants from the 1954 movie Them!

New Mexico State Police Sgt. Ben Peterson and Trooper Ed Blackburn discover a little girl wandering the desert, near Alamogordo, in shock and in a catatonic state. They take her to a nearby vacation trailer, located by a spotter aircraft, where they find evidence that the little girl had been there when it was attacked and nearly destroyed. It is later discovered that the trailer was owned by an FBI Special Agent named Ellinson, on vacation with his wife, son, and daughter; the other members of the girl's family remain missing. Now in an ambulance, the child briefly reacts to a pulsating high-pitched sound from the desert by sitting up in the stretcher. No one else notices her reaction, and she lies back down when the noise stops.

At a general store owned by "Gramps" Johnson, Peterson and Blackburn find him dead and a wall of the store partially torn out. After a quick look-around, Peterson leaves Blackburn behind to secure the crime scene. Blackburn later goes outside to investigate a strange, pulsating sound. Gun shots are fired, the sound grows faster and louder, and Blackburn goes missing. Peterson's chief later points out that both Johnson and Blackburn had fired their weapons at their attacker. More puzzling is the coroner's report on Johnson's brutal death, which includes a huge amount of formic acid found in his body.

The FBI sends Special Agent Robert Graham to New Mexico to investigate. After a strange footprint is found near the Ellisons' trailer, the Department of Agriculture sends myrmecologists Dr. Harold Medford (Edmund Gwenn) and his daughter, Dr. Pat Medford, to assist in the investigation. The elder Medford exposes the Ellinson girl to formic acid fumes, which rips her from her catatonia into a state of panic from "Them!" Medford's suspicions of camponotus vicinus are validated by her reaction, but he will not reveal his theory prematurely.

At the Ellinson campsite, Pat encounters a giant, eight-foot-long foraging ant. Following instructions from the elder Medford, Peterson and Graham shoot off the ant's antennae, blinding it, and kill it using a Thompson submachine gun. Medford reveals his theory: a colony of giant ants, mutated by radiation from the first atomic bomb test near Alamogordo, is responsible for the deaths. General O'Brien orders an Army helicopter search, and the ants' nest is found. Cyanide gas bombs are tossed inside, and Graham, Peterson, and Pat descend into the nest to check for survivors. Deep inside, Pat finds evidence that two queen ants have hatched and escaped to establish new colonies.

Peterson, Graham, and the Medfords join a government task force which covertly begins to investigate reports of unusual activity. In one a civilian pilot (Fess Parker) has been committed to a mental hospital after claiming that he was forced down by UFOs shaped like giant ants. Next, the Coast Guard receives a report of a giant queen hatching her brood in the hold of a freighter at sea in the Pacific; giant ants attack the ship's crew, and there are few survivors. The freighter is later sunk by U.S. Navy gunfire.

A third report about a large sugar theft at a rail yard leads Peterson, Graham, and Major Kibbee to Los Angeles. An alcoholic (Olin Howland) in a hospital "drunk tank" claims he has seen giant ants outside his window. The mutilated body of a father is recovered, but his two young sons are missing. Peterson, Graham, and Kibbee find evidence that they were flying a model airplane in the Los Angeles River drainage channel near the hospital. Martial law is declared in Los Angeles, and troops are assigned to find the ant nest in the vast storm drain system under the city.

Peterson finds the two missing boys alive, trapped by the ants near the nest. He calls for reinforcements and lifts both boys to safety, just before being attacked and grabbed by an ant in its mandibles. Graham arrives with reinforcements and kills the ant, but Peterson dies from his injuries as others swarm to protect the nearby nest. Graham and the soldiers fight off the ants, but a tunnel collapse traps Graham. Several ants charge, but he is able to hold them off with his submachine gun just long enough for troops to break through. The queen and her hatchlings are discovered and quickly destroyed with flamethrowers. Dr. Medford offers a philosophic observation: "When Man entered the Atomic Age, he opened the door to a new world. What we may eventually find in that new world, nobody can predict".

The ants bit and chomped Dr. Colon all over.

Me: The Ants from the movie Them. That is one of my dad's favorite movies.

In the 1950s, Robert Scott Carey, known as "Scott", is on vacation with his wife, Louise, when a strange mist covers him. Six months later, Scott notices his clothes are too large. Scott finds himself continuing to shrink, and seeks medical advice. At first dismissive, Scott's doctor confirms his shrinking with an x-ray. Scott is referred to a medical research institute where it is determined Scott's exposure to the mist, combined with his later exposure to a pesticide, rearranged his molecular structure causing him to shrink. Scott tells Louise in light of his predicament she is free to leave him. Louise promises to stay as Scott's wedding ring falls off his finger.

Scott's condition makes him a national curiosity. Media attention forces Scott into seclusion inside his home. Scott is advised to sell his story and he begins keeping a journal of his experiences. Scott feels humiliated and lashes out at Louise. An antidote is found to arrest Scott's shrinking, but doctors advise he will never return to his former size. Emotionally broken, Scott leaves home and meets a dwarf named Clarice who is in town working in a carnival sideshow. Clarice encourages Scott and he is inspired to continue his journal. Later, Scott notices he has become shorter than Clarice, and runs home.

Scott shrinks small enough to live in a doll house and becomes more tyrannical. When Louise leaves home on an errand, Scott is forced to escape to his basement after Butch, the family cat, attacks him. Louise returns and assumes Butch ate Scott after she finds a bloody scrap of Scott's clothing. Louise prepares to move out and asks her brother, Charlie, to help.

Scott encounters much hardship navigating his basement. The water heater bursts, but when Charlie and Louise come to investigate, Scott is too small for them to hear his screams for help. Scott next battles a large spider while finding food and shelter for himself. He ultimately kills the spider with a straight pin, and collapses in exhaustion. He awakens small enough to escape the basement through the squares in a screen. Scott accepts his fate of shrinking to atomic size. However, he is no longer afraid, concluding that no matter how small he becomes, he will still matter in the universe because God will know he exists.

---

He shrank down to atomic size and went into Dr. Colon and started ripping his genetic information apart!

Me: Wow! That was The Incredible Shrinking Man.

Mitch MacAfee (Morrow), a civil aeronautical engineer, while engaged in a radar test flight near the North Pole, spots an unidentified flying object. Three jet fighter aircraft are scrambled to pursue and identify the object but one aircraft goes missing. Officials are initially angry at MacAfee over the loss of a pilot and jet over what they believe to be a hoax.

When MacAfee and mathematician Sally Caldwell (Corday) fly back to New York, their aircraft also comes under attack by a UFO. With their pilot dead, they crash-land in the Adirondacks, where Pierre Broussard (Lou Merrill), a French-Canadian farmer, comes to their rescue. MacAfee's report is met with bewilderment and skepticism, but the military authorities are forced to take his story seriously after several more aircraft disappear. They discover that a gigantic bird "as big as a battleship", purported to come from an antimatter galaxy, is responsible for all the incidents. MacAfee, Caldwell, Dr. Karol Noymann (Edgar Barrier), Gen. Considine (Morris Ankrum), and Gen. Van Buskirk (Robert Shayne) work feverishly to develop a way to defeat the seemingly invincible creature.

The climactic showdown takes place in Manhattan, when the gigantic bird attacks both the Empire State Building and United Nations building. It is defeated by a special type of isotope, deployed from the tail gun position of a B-25 bomber aircraft, which successfully collapses the creature's antimatter shield and allows missiles to hit and kill the monster. The giant bird plummets into the Atlantic Ocean outside New York, and the last sight of it is a claw sinking beneath the ocean.

See you all tomorrow.

Wrath of The Evil Cat Girl

At the estate we were watching TV and playing card games. Suddenly, we got a rather unpleasant surprise when we saw that Aqua, Kairi, Namine and Xion were drunk as loons and they had bottles of curacao in their hands. They were really drunk!

Lea: (to Kairi, Aqua, Xion, and Namine) Don't tell me you girls are drunk!

Aqua: (Slurred speech) We aren't drunk. We're just (Hiccup) excited.

Me: You girls are drunk.

Kairi was being hoisted up by Lincoln, Clyde and Rusty in her pink bra and panties.

Kairi: (Slurred speech) Hey everybody! I'm Peter Pantsless! (Laughs)

Rusty: This is so funny!

Lincoln: It sure is!

Homer: (Laughs) That is funny!

Namine: (Slurred speech) YOU! STINK! (Barney Gumble Belch)

Barney: Boy this group is always full of drunks. (BELCH)

Xion: (Slurred Speech) You take that back Barney!

Lana (Pokemon): I think you girls need to lie down.

Me: I agree.

Aqua: Maybe it's the beer talking Marge but you got a butt that won't quit and they got these big chewy pretzels here (Mumbles) Five Dollars?! Get outta here.

Xion: Stupid Marge tell me to shut up.

Homer: (Laughs) That is so funny!

Barney: Boy I always wondered what these girls looked like drunk. (BELCH!)

Me: I think you guys have had enough.

I snapped my fingers and the girls reverted back and they had headaches the size of Texas.

Runabout: Are you 4 ok now?

Aqua: I think so. But man my head hurts!

Kairi: Why am I in my underwear?

Xion: What happened?

Namine: Yeah.

Me: You four were as drunk as loons.

Searchlight: I think we should put a security lock on the beer.

Me: Yeah we should. But Kairi you were so funny and you were being hoisted up by Clyde, Lincoln and Rusty and make-believing you were flying as Peter Pan. You were funny.

Lincoln: It was fun.

Laney: Yeah.

Nico: It was pretty funny.

Xion: Oh my head!

Nico: You guys should've seen yourselves.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: That does it.

We went downstairs with the alcohol and put it in a special vault fridge that Lisa built and it had a retina scanner, handprint scanner and a laser blaster system. It's only programmed to open to my eye and hand.

Me: Well that's all of it.

Nico: Yep.

We locked the beer and alcohol up and threw away the key.

---

Later we were over in the Drake City portion of the city as we were looking for the second member of the Vexicons: Kasha.

---

An orange cat-girl on roller blades who is the Vexicon counterpart of Zarya. Her battle phrase is "Shadow Panther, Pounce!" from her bright orange Panther Bracer. Her weapon is "Energy Claws" and can hover in the air on skates.

---

Me: Keep your eyes pealed for Kasha.

Zarya: She is a dangerous cat-girl.

Intress: She sure is dangerous from the looks of it.

Tigra: She sure does.

Lana: All the reason why we should kill her.

Me: We're not gonna kill her. We're gonna put her in prison with Willa.

Zarya: Good idea.

Me: After we strip her of her powers first.

Nico: Yep.

We were walking all over the city looking for Kasha.

Nico: Look sharp guys. She could be anywhere.

Laney: But she's close.

Kairi: I can feel it.

We heard some garbage cans rattling.

Me: Hm?

We looked in an alley and we saw a figure digging through the garbage! I fired an energy blast and it hit the trash cans and blew them apart in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Out of the explosion came KASHA THE CAT GIRL OF THE VEXICONS!

Laney: Kasha of the Vexicons.

Nico: You are under arrest!

Me: Kasha, you are in a lot of trouble.

Zarya: What he said!

Kasha: (laughs) J.D.'s your boyfriend, Zarya? Did things between you and Kitty Boon not work out so well?

Zarya: For your information, Kasha, me and Kitty are just friends! And that's all we'll ever be!

Me: Yeah! You never care about anyone Kasha and that shows that you are nothing but a glorified unsanitary old snake in the grass!

Kasha: SHUT YOUR FUCKING TRAP!

Me: Make me!

Roman Goodwin, Zs'Skayr and Snake Jailbird came out.

Me: Roman, Zs'Skayr and Snake.

Snake: Sup dudes.

Nico: Not much Snake.

Roman Goodwin: This is gonna be a good fight.

A figure came out and it was CYBER PEACOCK!

Laney: Who are you?

Cyber Peacock: Allow me to introduce myself. I am… Cyber Peacock! (starts shooting seeking feather-liked energy projectiles at Air Man)

Laney fired waves of energy and blew the blasts away.

Me: This is gonna be awesome.

Roman Goodwin: (I'm about to snap my fingers) There's no need to snap your fingers this time, J.D.

Me: Why's that?

Zs'Skayr: Because this time, I'm picking the planet we're battling on.

Me: Okay.

Zs'Skayr snapped his fingers and we were on his home planet ANUR PHAETOS!

---

Anur Phaetos is a planet from the Anur System. The perpetually dark world of the ghost-like species, the Ectonurites. It was ruled by the High Ecto-Lord, Zs'Skayr.

---

Zs'Skayr: Welcome to Anur Phaetos!

Me: Whoa!

Nico: (to me) Well, you did want the battle to be away from civilians.

Me: True. Wow! So this is the planet Anur Phaetos.

Lincoln: This planet gives me the creeps.

Laney: It sure is a creepy planet.

Lucy Loud: This is my version of heaven! It's amazing!

Nico: I think Lucy found a new form of paradise.

Me: She sure did. I always wondered what your home planet is like Zs'Skayr.

Zs'Skayr: I am the High Ecto-Lord of Anur Phaetos.

Nico: Wow!

Shanan: We're located near the very galactic center 49,000 light-years away from Earth and from what I remember, Anur Phaetos is one of the planets that acts as the barrier for the Null Void.

Me: Wow! I didn't know about that.

Kasha: And this planet will be the perfect place for your final resting place!

Me: We shall see about that!

Orion: Time to run circles around this kitty!

Roman Goodwin: Indeed. Lets do it. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL URU!

Roman summoned the Spider Earthbound Immortal Uru!

Bertrand: I have monsters of the Lightsworn Archtype. I summon GRAGONITH, LIGHTSWORN DRAGON, LUMINA, LIGHTSWORN SUMMONER, LYLA, LIGHTSWORN SORCERESS, JENIS, LIGHTSWORN MENDER, AURKUS, LIGHTSWORN DRUID, WULF, LIGHTSWORN BEAST, CELESTIA, LIGHTSWORN ANGEL, SHIRE, LIGHTSWORD SPIRIT, EHREN, LIGHTSWORN MONK, JAIN, LIGHTSWORN PALADIN, GAROTH, LIGHTSWORN WARRIOR, MICHAEL, THE ARCH-LIGHTSWORN, RAIDEN, HAND OF THE LIGHTSWORN, MINERVA, LIGHTSWORN MAIDEN, RINYAN, LIGHTSWORN ROGUE, RYKO, LIGHTSWORN HUNTER and JUDGEMENT DRAGON!

Bertrand summoned said monsters.

Roman: Very interesting selection.

Bertrand: It's amazing using these monsters. The Lightsworn Monsters are amazing and there's a huge story behind them.

Roman Goodwin: Can I hear it?

Bertrand: Sure.

He told him the story of the Lightsworn Monsters.

---

The "Lightsworns" are a group who seek to save those who pray for help, crossing time and space in order to help them. By consuming vast quantities of magical energy, they appear on the material plane and challenge those evildoers who threaten the era they appear in. Once their job is done and the evil has been stopped, they return to their home plane, disappearing without a trace.

Their founder, "Michael, the Arch-Lightsworn", is responsible for enlisting the souls of heroes worthy of joining the "Lightsworns". As they travel in order to fight evil, they also recruit the heroes of that time.

---

Roman was amazed.

Roman: Wow. I didn't know that. The Lightsworn Monsters are a powerful force of good.

Bertrand: Indeed they are. They are also very similar to how we travel in Team Loud Phoenix Storm in our endless quest for justice. Shall we dance?

Roman Goodwin: Lets.

Bertrand flared up a red aura and Roman flared up a dark red aura and they went at each other and the Lightsworn Monsters went at Uru. Bertrand punched Roman in the face and kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the back. He flipped back and fired a wave of dark red energy and Roman fired a wave of dark energy and the blasts collided and exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Bertrand kicked him in the face and Ehren kicked Roman in the face and the Lightsworn monsters blasted and hit Uru and destroyed him in a powerful explosion of red fire!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Roman was knocked down.

Ehren: He was a good opponent.

Bertrand: Indeed.

Battle 5: KASHA

We regrouped and we were ready to face Kasha!

Me: You have been a very bad kitty!

Kasha: I will claw you to death!

Me: You'll have to get passed my friends first.

I pulled out the Sword of Omens and the jewel glowed.

Me: THUNDER! THUNDER THUNDER! THUNDERCATS HOOOOOO!

The blade grew and glowed and the jewel turned into the Thundercats symbol and fired a red beam of energy into the sky and formed into the symbol of the THUNDERCATS! It roared ferociously!

ROOOOOOOOOOAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRR

(THUNDERCLAP!)

Out of the symbol came THE THUNDERCATS!

Chorus: THUNDERCATS ARE ON THE MOVE! THUNDERCATS ARE LOOSE! FEEL THE MAGIC, HEAR THE ROAR! THUNDERCATS ARE LOOSE!

Lion-O: Looks like we have a bad cat to take down.

Me: We sure do Lion-O. Lets get this bad cat.

We went at Kasha and I kicked her in the face and Lion-O slashed her with his sword and Panthro bashed her all over with his nunchucks. Cheetara went at her with incredible speed and bashed her all over with her staff and the Thunderkittens blasted her all over with bombs and Tygra lashed her with his whip and Nico blasted her all over with blasts of fire and energy and they hit her all over and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted her all over. Laney fired blasts of fire and Carol fired blasts of atomic energy and blew her around all over the place. Zarya fired waves of blue fire and they formed into a powerful pack of wolves and they slammed into Kasha and exploded! Misty Tredwell appeared and helped out and fired powerful blasts of green fire and burned Kasha all over the place and Tigra slashed her all over with her claws.

Lincoln and Lola fired blasts of lightning and fire and burned and electrocuted her all over.

Aszil: Lets see how she likes this one. MONOLITH STYLE NINJA ART: THE MONOLITH MONSTERS!

Aszil punched the ground and black crystals grew out of the ground very fast and they trapped Kasha. They were the black crystals of the 1957 movie THE MONOLITH MONSTERS!

---

In the desert outside of San Angelo, California, a huge meteorite crashes and explodes, scattering hundreds of black fragments over a wide area. The next day, Federal geologist Ben Gilbert (Phil Harvey) brings one of the fragments to his office, where he and local newspaper publisher Martin Cochrane (Les Tremayne) examine it. That night, a strong wind blows over a full water container onto the black rock, starting a chemical reaction.

When Dave Miller (Grant Williams), the head of San Angelo's district geological office, returns from a business trip, he finds Ben's corpse in a rock-hard, petrified state and the office's lab damaged by large rock fragments. Dave's girlfriend, teacher Cathy Barrett (Lola Albright), takes her students on a desert field trip; young Ginny Simpson (Linda Scheley) pockets a piece of the black meteorite rock, later washing it in a large tub outside her family's farmhouse. In town Dr. E. J. Reynolds (Richard H. Cutting) performs Ben's autopsy and cannot explain the body's condition; he informs Dave and Police Chief Dan Corey (William Flaherty) the body is being sent to a specialist. Martin returns to the wrecked office with Dave where he recognizes the large fragments as the same type of black rock Ben had been examining.

Cathy joins them, also recognizing the fragments. She goes with the two men to the Simpson farm; they find the farmhouse in ruins under a large pile of black rocks and Ginny's parents dead. The girl is still alive but in a catatonic state. At Dr. Reynolds' request, they rush her to Dr. Steve Hendricks (Harry Jackson) at the California Medical Research Institute in Los Angeles. He later reports that Ginny is slowly turning to stone; her only hope lies with identifying the black rock within eight hours. Dave brings a fragment to his old college professor, Arthur Flanders (Trevor Bardette), who determines that it came from a meteorite. Back at the Simpson farm, both men notice a discoloration in the ground: The black rock is draining something from everything it touches, including people. Later, tests show that silicon is that substance; in humans it is normally just a trace element. Dr. Reynolds explains that research indicates that one possible function of silicon in the human body is to maintain human tissue flexibility. They suddenly realize that the meteorite's absorption of silicon was the cause of Ben's death, Ginny's condition, and the death of her parents; Steve then prepares and administers a silicon solution injection to the girl.

Returning to the desert, Dave and Arthur trace the fragments to the crashed meteor. Arthur deduces that the meteorite's atomic structure has been radically altered by the intense heat of atmospheric friction. Back in the lab, a rainstorm blows up while Dave and Arthur continue their investigation. A piece of black rock falls into the sink and begins to react when hot coffee is poured on it; the men then realize that water is the culprit. With it raining outside, they hurriedly return to the desert and see the black fragments now growing into stories-tall monoliths that rise up and then crash back to Earth, breaking into hundreds more fragments, each fragment then repeating that cycle. Dave quickly realizes that the monoliths' advancing path will take them directly through San Angelo, and from there the monoliths could spread and possibly threaten all life on Earth.

They report and explain the threat to Dan, who then makes plans to evacuate San Angelo. The governor is notified, and declares a state of emergency in the San Angelo area. At the hospital, Ginny finally revives, and Dave deduces that something in the silicon solution will check the fragments' growth. More locals are soon rushed to Dr. Reynolds' office in various stages of petrification. With little time left, and the telephone and electricity cut off, the monoliths continue to multiply and advance, soaking up water from the rain-soaked soil. Dave and Arthur struggle to find the correct formula; they finally realize the monoliths can be stopped with a simple saline solution, a part of Steve's silicon formula.

Dave plans to dynamite the local dam and flood the nearby salt flats, creating a large supply of salt water. Because the dam is private property, however, Dan attempts to contact the governor for permission to blow up the dam. Knowing they must halt the monoliths at the canyon's edge, Dave acts without waiting for the governor's approval and the dynamite is detonated. The group watches as a huge torrent of water flows over the salt deposits at the canyon's edge, reaching the monoliths; their growth is finally halted when the last huge formation of monoliths crashes down into the salty water. Dan reveals to the group that he had finally reached the governor who told him not to blow up the dam, pauses, and adds unless Dave was absolutely certain of success. As they all laugh, Dave then comments, first repeating Martin's earlier assertion that the region's salt flat was "Mother Nature's worst mistake", then pointing out, ironically, that this near-disaster has just proved otherwise.

A geology expedition in the Amazon uncovers fossilized evidence (a skeletal hand with webbed fingers) from the Devonian period that provides a direct link between land and sea animals. Expedition leader Dr. Carl Maia orders his two assistants to stay in camp while he visits the marine biology institute.

Carl reunites with his friend and former student, ichthyologist Dr. David Reed. David works at an aquarium in California, but more recently he has been a guest at Carl's institute in Brazil to study lungfish. David persuades his boss, the financially minded Dr. Mark Williams, to fund a return expedition to the Amazon to look for the remainder of the skeleton.

Soon after Carl leaves camp, a piscine amphibious humanoid, a living member of the same species from which the fossil originated, becomes curious about the expedition's camp. When its sudden appearance frightens the assistants, they panic and attack, and, in response, the enraged Creature kills them both.

The group goes aboard the tramp steamer Rita, captained by crusty Lucas. The expedition consists of David, Carl, Mark, as well as David's girlfriend and colleague, Kay Lawrence, and another scientist, Dr. Edwin Thompson. When they arrive at the camp, they discover Carl's assistants have been killed while he was away. Lucas suggests it was likely done by a jaguar, but the others are unsure.

A further excavation of the area where Carl found the fossil turns up nothing. Mark is ready to give up the search, but David suggests that perhaps thousands of years ago the part of the embankment containing the rest of the skeleton fell into the water and was washed downriver, broken up by the current. Carl says the tributary empties into a lagoon. Lucas calls it the "Black Lagoon", a paradise from which no one has ever returned. The scientists decide to risk it, unaware that the amphibious "Gill-man" that killed Carl's assistants has been watching them. Taking notice of the beautiful Kay, the creature follows the Rita all the way downriver to the Black Lagoon. Once the expedition arrives, David and Mark go diving to collect rock samples from the lagoon floor. After they return, Kay goes swimming and is stalked underwater by the Gill-man, who then gets briefly caught in one of the ship's drag lines. Although it escapes, the creature leaves a claw behind in the net, revealing its existence.

Subsequent encounters with the Gill-man claim the lives of Lucas's crew members, before the Creature is captured and locked in a cage aboard the Rita. It escapes during the night, attacking Edwin, who was guarding it. Kay smashes the Creature with a lantern, driving it off, but Edwin is severely injured. Following this incident, David decides they should return to civilization. Mark, obsessed with capturing (or killing) the Creature, objects. As the Rita tries to leave, they find the Gill-man has blocked the lagoon's entrance with fallen logs. While the others attempt to remove the logs, Mark is mauled to death while trying to capture the Creature single-handedly underwater. The Gill-man then abducts Kay and takes her to its cavern lair. David, Lucas and Carl chase after the Creature and Kay is ultimately rescued. The Creature is riddled with bullets before retreating to the lagoon, where its body sinks into the watery depths.

Laarina: Watch this one. WIND STYLE NINJA ART: THE DEADLY MANTIS!

Laarina fired a wave of wind and it formed into the Giant Mantis from the 1957 movie THE DEADLY MANTIS!

---

In the South Seas, a volcano explodes, eventually causing North Pole icebergs to shift. Below the melting polar ice caps, a 200-foot-long praying mantis, trapped in the ice for millions of years, begins to stir. Soon after, the military personnel at Red Eagle One, a military station in northern Canada that monitors information gathered from the Distant Early Warning Line, realize that the men at one of their outposts are not responding to calls. Commanding officer Col. Joe Parkman (Craig Stevens) flies there to investigate, and finds the post destroyed, its men gone, and giant slashes left in the snow outside.

When a radar blip is sighted, Joe sends his pilots out to investigate, but their intended target disappears. Soon an Air Force plane is attacked by the deadly mantis. He searches the wreckage, and this time, in addition to the huge slashes, finds a five-foot-long pointed object in the snow. He takes it to General Mark Ford (Donald Randolph) at the Continental Air Defense (CONAD) in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Ford gathers top scientists, including Professor Anton Gunther (Florenz Ames ), to examine the object, but when they cannot identify it, Gunther recommends calling in Dr. Nedrick Jackson (William Hopper), a paleontologist at the Museum of Natural History.

When Ned gets the call from Ford, he is helping museum magazine editor Marge Blaine (Alix Talton) plan her next issue, and dodges her questions as she begs him for a big scoop. Later, after examining the object, Ned recognizes it as a torn-off spur from an insect's leg, and soon guesses, from evidence that the creature ate human flesh, that it must be a gigantic praying mantis. Meanwhile, in the Arctic, the people of an Inuit village spot the mantis in the sky, and although they hurry to their boats to escape, it swoops down and kills several men.

Ned is sent to Red Eagle One to investigate further, and upon leaving, discovers that Marge has managed to get permission to accompany him as his photographer. They reach the base, where all the men, including Joe, are smitten by Marge.

That night, Marge and Joe join Ned in his office and discuss the creature, not realizing that it is drawing close to the office window. Marge suddenly catches sight of it and screams, and the bug attacks the building. Although the full unit opens fire on the mantis with automatic rifles and a flame-thrower, it is unscathed and moves away only after aircraft encircle it.

Hours later, the base remains on red alert, but they finally hear that the bug has attacked a boat off the Canadian coast, which means, Ned calculates, that it is flying at a speed of 200 miles an hour. Ford calls a press conference to announce the bug's existence, and asks the Ground Observer Corps to track its whereabouts.

Over the next few days, Ned, Marge and Joe track the bug's progress with the help of military and civilian observers. Late one night, Joe drives Marge home, stopping briefly to ask for, and receive, a kiss. They are distracted by a report of a nearby train wreck, and although they assume it to be an ordinary accident, soon after, a woman leaving a bus sees the mantis, and all emergency personnel are put on alert. The mantis is then sighted in Washington, D.C., atop the Washington Monument.

Joe is one of the pilots who attempt to drive the mantis toward the sea, but a dense fog throws him off course, and he flies directly into it. As the wounded mantis drops to the ground and crawls into the Manhattan Tunnel, Joe safely parachutes to the ground.

Ford leads a team that seals off the tunnel, filling it with smoke to provide cover for Joe and his special unit of men, who enter the tunnel armed with rifles and three chemical bombs. They creep past wrecked cars until suddenly the bug appears in the fog only a few yards ahead of them. They shoot at it, but it lumbers on, forcing them backward. The mantis seems immune to the ammunition and the first chemical bombs until, only feet from the tunnel entrance, Joe throws a bomb in its face, and it collapses, dead.

Later, Ford, Ned, Joe and Marge enter the tunnel to examine the bug. Marge photographs its face while the men walk around its side, but Joe suddenly sees the mantis' arm move, and runs to protect Marge. Although Ned explains that the bug's movement was merely an autonomic reflex, Joe takes the opportunity to pull Marge into an embrace.

Riggan: Here's a good one. EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: THE MOLE PEOPLE!

Riggan fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ruthless Mole People from the 1956 movie THE MOLE PEOPLE!

---

A narration by Dr. Frank Baxter, an English professor at the University of Southern California, explains the premise of the movie and its basis in reality. He briefly discusses the hollow earth theories of John Symmes and Cyrus Teed among others, and says that the movie is a fictionalized representation of these unorthodox theories.

Archaeologists Dr. Roger Bentley and Dr. Jud Bellamin find a race of Sumerian albinos living deep under the Earth. They keep mutant humanoid mole men as their slaves to harvest mushrooms, which serve as their primary food source. The Sumerian albinos' ancestors relocated into the subterranean after cataclysmic floods in ancient Mesopotamia. They believe the men are messengers of Ishtar, their goddess. Whenever their population increases, they sacrifice old people to the Eye of Ishtar. These people have lived underground for so long that they are weakened by bright light which the archaeologists brought in the form of a flashlight. However, there is one girl named Adad who has natural Caucasian skin who is disdained by the others since she has the "mark of darkness."

When one of the archaeologists is killed by a mole person, Elinu, the High Priest, realizes they are not gods. He orders their capture and takes the flashlight to control the Mole People, not knowing it is depleted. The archaeologists are then sent to the Eye of Ishtar just as the Mole People rebel. Adad goes to the Eye only to realize it is really natural light coming from the surface and that the men had survived. They then climb to the surface. Unfortunately, Adad dies after reaching the surface when an earthquake causes a column to fall over and crush her.

Arthoa: Watch this one. DARK STYLE NINJA ART: VILLAGE OF THE DAMNED!

Arthoa fired a wave of dark energy and it formed into the evil children from the 1960 movie VILLAGE OF THE DAMNED!

---

The inhabitants of the British village of Midwich suddenly fall unconscious, as does anyone entering the village. The military establishes a cordon around Midwich and sends in a man wearing a gas mask, but he, too, falls unconscious and is pulled back with rope. The man awakens and reports experiencing a cold sensation just before passing out. The pilot of a military reconnaissance plane is contacted and asked to investigate. When he flies below 5,000 feet, he loses consciousness and the plane crashes. A five-mile exclusion zone around the village is established for all aircraft. After approximately four hours, the villagers regain consciousness, and all are apparently unaffected.

Two months later, all women and girls of child-bearing age in the affected area are discovered to be pregnant, sparking many accusations of both infidelity and extramarital sex. The accusations fade as the extraordinary nature of the pregnancies is discovered, with seven-month fetuses appearing after only five months. All the women give birth on the same day. Their children have an unusual appearance, including "arresting" eyes, odd scalp hair construction and colour (platinum blonde), and unusually narrow fingernails. As the children grow and develop at a rapid rate, it becomes clear they also have a powerful telepathic bond with one another. They can communicate with each other over great distances, and as one learns something, so do the others.

Three years later, Professor Gordon Zellaby (Sanders), whose wife Anthea (Shelley) gave birth to one of the children, attends a meeting with British Intelligence to discuss the children. There he learns Midwich was not the only place affected; follow-up investigations have revealed similar phenomena in other areas of the world.

At age three, the children are precocious, physically and mentally the equivalent of children four times their age. Their behaviour has become even more unusual and striking. They dress impeccably, always walk as a group, speak in an adult manner, and behave maturely, but they show no conscience or love, and demonstrate a coldness to others, causing the villagers to fear and be repulsed by them.

The children begin to exhibit the power to read minds and to force people to do things against their will. There have been a number of villagers' deaths since the children were born, many of which are considered unusual, and some citizens believe the children are responsible. This is confirmed when the children are seen killing a man by making him crash his car into a wall, and again when they force his suspicious brother to shoot himself.

Zellaby, whose "son" David is one of the children, is at first eager to work with them, trying to teach them while hoping to learn more about them. The children are placed in a separate building where they will learn and live. While the children continue to exert their will, Zellaby is informed that the Soviet government has fired a nuclear shell and destroyed the Russian village that was the only other location on Earth where mutant children still lived.

Zellaby compares the children's resistance to reasoning with a brick wall and uses this motif as self-protection against their mind reading after the children's inhuman nature becomes clear to him. He takes a hidden time-bomb to a session with the children and tries to block their awareness of the bomb by visualizing a brick wall. David scans his mind, showing an emotion (astonishment) for the first time. The children try to break down Zellaby's mental wall and discover the truth a moment before the bomb detonates, consuming the building in flames and killing them all.

The children's eyes glowed red and they caused Kasha to go nuts and she smashed her head all over the place.

The first U.S. spaceship to Venus, the XY-21, crashes into the Mediterranean sea off the coast of Sicily, Italy as fishermen watch. They row to the spacecraft, enter through a hole in the spacecraft and pull two spacemen from the nose-down craft before it completely sinks.

In Washington, D.C., Major General A.D. McIntosh discovers that the missing spaceship, piloted by Colonel Bob Calder, has been located. As McIntosh flies to the site, Pepe, a little boy, finds and opens a translucent cylinder marked "USAF" on the beach. It contains a gelatinous mass, which he sells to Dr. Leonardo, a zoologist studying sea creatures. Meanwhile, Leonardo's granddaughter Marisa, a third-year medical student, is summoned to take care of the injured spacemen. When Calder regains consciousness, he finds his crewmate, Dr. Sharman, in the last throes of the fatal disease that killed his other eight crewmen.

After Marisa returns to the trailer shared with her grandfather, a small creature hatches from the mass, and Leonardo locks it in a cage. By morning, the creature has tripled in size. McIntosh arrives, accompanied by scientist Dr. Justin Uhl, and meets with two representatives of the Italian government, informing them the spaceship has returned from Venus. Leonardo and Marisa hitch the trailer to their truck and head for Rome. Calder's spacecraft carried a sealed metal container bearing an unborn Venusians species. As police divers begin to search for it, McIntosh offers a half-million lira reward for the capsule's recovery, prompting Pepe to lead them to the empty container. When Pepe tells them that he sold the mass to Dr. Leonardo, McIntosh and Calder pursue him.

That night, Leonardo discovers that the creature has grown to human size. Soon after, it breaks out of the cage and heads to a nearby farm, terrorizing the animals. The creature eats sulfur and rips open several bags it discovers in a barn. While feeding, the creature is attacked by the farmer's dog, and the creature kills the dog, alerting the farmer. Calder and the others reach the barn, trapping the creature inside. Calder explains that the creature is not dangerous unless provoked. However, he provokes it by trying to prod the creature with a pole into a cage-like cart, and the creature injures the farmer after he stabs the creature with a pitchfork. After the creature breaks out of the barn and disappears into the countryside, the police commissioner insists that it must be destroyed.

After the Italian government grants Calder permission to capture the creature alive, he devises a plan to ensnare it in a giant electric net dropped from a helicopter. The Italian police conduct their own pursuit, shooting at it with flamethrowers. Gunfire has little effect on the creature, as it has no heart or lungs. Aware that sulfur is the creature's food of choice, Calder uses bags of sulfur as bait, luring the creature to a secluded site and subduing it with an electric jolt from the net. Later, at the American Embassy in Rome, McIntosh briefs the press corps and allows three reporters to view the creature, which has been placed in the Rome zoo. There, Calder explains that the creature is being sedated with a continuous electric shock so it can be studied. Marisa, who is aiding her uncle, begins flirting with Calder. Suddenly, electrical equipment shorts out and the creature awakens.

The creature battles a zoo elephant and sends the panicked patrons scurrying. Taking their fight to the streets of Rome, the two beasts destroy cars and damage buildings. The creature finally kill the elephant and continues its rampage. Calder rams the creature with his car and tracks the creature to the River Tiber, where it submerges. Soldiers lob grenades into the river, and the creature surfaces, now gargantuan in size. It heads for the Colosseum and destroys an ancient temple, killing a few soldiers. As the creature disappears into the ruins, Calder charges after it with a group of bazooka-carrying soldiers, driving it to the top of the structure. Calder scores a direct bazooka hit. Direct fire from a tank then destroys the ledge the creature is clinging to, and it plunges to its death. A relieved Marisa runs into Calder's arms.

The scientific team of Dr. David Conway (William Leslie), Dr. Ellis Morton (Tristram Coffin) and Laura Hutchinson (Kathryn Grant) has built a machine that can predict earthquakes. After predicting one will hit California within the next 24 hours to a uniformly skeptical Gov. Cheney (Raymond Greenleaf) and state-level political and civil defense officials, the earthquake does materialize and does immense damage to northern parts of the state. Now with the support and funding necessary from the reformed skeptics, the team works on further predictions and comes to the conclusion that a wave of earthquakes are pending in and around the southwestern United States. They trace the epicenter of the pending disaster to an area beneath the Carlsbad Caverns and descend to a hitherto unexplored level.

Here they find a strange ore which, when removed from contact with water, becomes highly explosive, and realize that this element, somehow working its way from deep in the Earth, is responsible for the earthquakes. Although the material is not analyzed for specific atomic traits, it is named Element 112 just because so far, 111 chemical elements had been discovered. A computer determines that in approximately one month, enough of Element 112 will emerge from the deep earth to cause the entire planet to explode. A desperate operation ensues worldwide to blast and trench the ground to let water in and cover Element 112, keeping it from drying out and expanding.

Captain Thorne Sherman (James Best) and first mate Rook Griswold ("Judge" Henry Dupree) deliver supplies by boat to a group on a remote island. The group, consisting of scientist Marlowe

Cragis (Baruch Lumet), his research assistant Radford Baines (Gordon McLendon), the scientist's daughter Ann (Ingrid Goude), her recent fiancee Jerry Farrel (Ken Curtis), and a servant Mario (Alfred DeSoto), welcome the captain and his first mate. They also subtly resist the visitors staying overnight, even though a hurricane is approaching. Thorne goes with them to their compound, and Griswold stays with the boat, saying that he will come ashore later.

The situation in the compound is less than safe. During cocktails, Thorne becomes aware of a life-threatening situation to all of them: Marlowe Cragis has been performing well-meaning research on serums and uses shrews as test animals. The doctor's purpose is to shrink humans to half their size in order to reduce world hunger because (he reasons) being smaller, humans will consume less food in a world with a limited food supply. Unfortunately, the doctor's experiments have created mutant giant shrews that have escaped and are now reproducing in the wild, growing larger and more voracious by the day. The group must now barricade themselves inside their compound every evening before the sun sets, so that the shrews will kill each other once they have eaten every other living animal on the island.

Thorne and Ann begin to be attracted to each other, causing Jerry to become jealous, despite ruining his relationship with Ann. The giant shrews have run out of smaller animals to hunt and devour. When Griswald comes ashore, the mutants attack and kill him. After closing in on the compound and killing the available livestock, one of the mutant shrews breaks a window and hides in the basement. Mario and Thorne go downstairs when they hear the noise. Mario discovers the mutant and shoots at it, but not before it bites him. The giant shrew is immediately killed by Thorne. Mario quickly expires from the mutant's bite. Radford later discovers a highly toxic venom in the dead shrew's saliva, the result, it turns out, of the poisoned bait he had placed in the wild to kill them off. Another mutant shrew is able to get in, and it bites Radford. As he dies, Radford records the symptoms on his typewriter, right up to the moment of his death.

As the giant shrews begin to chew through the compound walls, the group makes impromptu armor by lashing together empty 50 gallon oil drums. Now crouched down inside them, they duckwalk towards the beach shoreline. Due to his claustrophobia, Jerry remains behind, isolating himself on the roof before watching the mutants chase after the lashed-together drums. He attempts to flee but is cut off and killed by another group of shrews. Thorne, Ann, and Marlowe manage to reach the shoreline and swim out to the boat. Safely aboard and confident that the giant shrews will eventually die out from consuming one another, Thorne and Ann share a long kiss.

---

The Shrews bit and chomped Kasha all over the place with incredible fury.

Misty Tredwell: Nice one! Watch this. LIZARD STYLE NINJA ART: THE GIANT GILA MONSTER!

Misty fired a wave of green fire and it formed into the Giant Gila Monster from the 1959 movie THE GIANT GILA MONSTER!

---

The movie opens with a young couple, Pat Wheeler (Grady Vaughn) and Liz Humphries (Yolanda Salas), parked in a bleak, rural locale overlooking a ravine. A giant Gila monster attacks the car, sending it into the ravine and killing the couple. Later, some friends of the couple decide to assist the local sheriff (Fred Graham) in his search for the missing teens. Chase Winstead (Sullivan), a young mechanic and hot rod racer, locates the crashed car in the ravine and finds evidence of the giant lizard. However, it is only when the hungry reptile attacks a train (a model train set substituted as a low-budget effect) that the authorities realize they are dealing with a (roughly) 70-foot long venomous lizard. By this time, emboldened by its attacks and hungry for prey, the creature attacks the town. It heads for the local dance hall, where the town's teenagers are gathered for a sock hop. However, Chase packs his prized hot rod with nitroglycerin and rigs it to speed straight into the Gila monster, terminating the lizard in a fiery explosion and heroically saving the town.

---

It bit and poisoned Kasha.

Part 1: Battle with Hiei of the Jagan.

---

I was in the training simulator doing an exercise where I face the evil version of Hiei of the Jagan as I see what he was like when Yusuke Urameshi fought him the first time. It was gonna be a battle between a Human that has the powers of a god and a demon out to cause mayhem. The simulator activated and I found myself in wharfs of Tokyo Bay.

Me: I'm in Japan. Cool.

I then sensed a small energy signal coming from a warehouse.

Me: There's a small power coming from that warehouse. Better hide my energy just in case.

I hid my energy and ran over to the warehouse and went in and sensed for it.

Me: Hmm.

I then saw Keiko Yukimura on the floor!

Me: Keiko!

Evil Hiei: I had a feeling you would come.

I then saw HIEI OF THE JAGAN!

---

The Ice Maidens reproduce every 100 years asexually, always giving birth to a female. A male child is born only if the Maiden had sex with a male, which is forbidden in their society. Hiei who is once known as Imiko" ("cursed child"), was born as one of the twin children of the Ice Maiden Hina. As her children were born, Hina wept two tears which crystallized and were given to the babies. Hiei was thrown from the floating Ice Domain by Hina's closest friend Rie, to his supposed doom. He managed to survive, though, and grew up in the wilderness where he developed a thirst for killing. The only times he found peace were while looking at the tear-gem from his mother. He later decided to find the ice domain in order to take revenge on the women who cast him out. He loses his tear-gem during a battle and, realizing he must now find the stone as well as the Ice Domain, went to the Osteopath Shigure and has the Evil Eye (Jagan in Japanese, referred to as the Jagan Eye in the English anime dub) implanted in his forehead which gives him many powers, including hypnosis, telepathy, and clairvoyance or remote viewing.

Even with the Jagan Hiei cannot find his tear stone, though he easily finds the Ice Maidens' glacier home. When he gets there he finds his mother's grave and his lust for revenge fades. He is told his twin sister has run away and decides to search for her as well. Hiei is an expert with a Katana due to the environment in which he grew up. He also has superhuman speed and can produce and control fire. During the Dark Tournament he taps into the unruly fires of hell, known as the Dark Flame of the Overlord, or in the English dub, "Dragon of the Darkness Flame", which he eventually masters. At the end of the manga, he is assigned as one of the guardians of the portals between the human and demons realms.

Me: Hiei of the Jagan. I had a feeling you would be here.

Evil Hiei: Yes and now I will have the pleasure of killing you.

Me: Not if I kill you first.

Evil Hiei: Now the game will be more exciting this way?

Me: What game? One where I can kill you?

Evil Hiei: (Holds up his sword) This hilt of this sword is hollow. Contained inside is the only antidote to stop the swords effect. If you get the sword, the girl will live. Fun right? Think of it as a little game of tag.

Me: Bring it.

I teleported and kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into a bunch of crates with incredible force.

Evil Hiei then got up.

Me: If this is all you're made of, it's pathetic.

Evil Hiei: You are very fast for a human.

Me: This isn't a game you fuckhead and you are playing with dangerous forces no one can even comprehend.

Evil Hiei: Now I see. You're a decent fighter on your own. But when your friend's on the line your strength and power increases greatly.

Me: Ha. You think you have me all figured out.

Evil Hiei: You're a team player, a save the day superhero. I hate people like you.

Me: Ha. Fuck you.

What he didn't know is that his hate made me more powerful.

Evil Hiei: And yes J.D., I'll admit you surprised me. But like a true amateur you failed to take advantage of the situation. You didn't get back the sword. A mistake that will prove fatal. Because now that I know it, I won't be dropping my guard any longer. The world doesn't give many chances. You've just missed yours.

Me: Are you done shooting your fucking mouth off yet?

Evil Hiei: Not quite!

The sclera of his Jagan Eye glowed red and he was teleporting. I knew what he was trying to do. He was using his powers to confuse me. He was laughing as he was teleporting around.

Evil Hiei: (Laughs) Can you keep up? Human eyes are so slow. Come now. Where am I? (Laughing) What's wrong? Do I confuse you?

He was right behind me.

Evil Hiei: Do I!?

I knew where he was and I punched him in the face with incredible force and sent him crashing into a bunch of crates again.

Evil Hiei: NOW! YOU'RE DEAD!

Me: If this is all you're made of Hiei, it's really pathetic. This is what I'm talking about. All you are is nothing but a bunch of talk. Yap, yap, yap. Like you're some kind of fucked up lunatic. You're just as pathetic as all those evil Sasuke's that I killed.

Evil Hiei growled.

Evil Hiei: Consider this a compliment. (Takes off his shirt) I've never transformed for a human.

Me: All right then. Lets see it.

He started to glow in a neon green aura and his skin turned green and his eyes turned yellow and the sclera of his Jagan Eye glowed red and I sensed his energy increasing. I then saw eyes appear and open all over his body.

Evil Hiei: (Laughs) Now that I'm in my full demon form Keiko will join me any minute.

Me: Impressive. So this is your demon form.

I jumped down and landed in front of him.

Me: But you aren't the only one with the power to transform.

Evil Hiei: What do you mean?

I then flared up my aura of fire and spread my wings of fire and I transformed into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix form!

Evil Hiei saw me at my full power and he was shocked.

Me: (Divine Fiery Voice) You had no idea what you were up against.

Evil Hiei: What the hell are you!?

Me: Your worst nightmare!

I flew at him with incredible speed and punched him in the stomach with incredible force and kicked him in the face and sent him spinning and kicked him in the back and punched him in the mouth and knocked out some of his teeth and kicked him in the face and then I unsheathed my sword and slashed his Jagan Eye! Evil Hiei screamed in excruciating pain as his precious Jagan Eye was destroyed!

Me: That eye of yours is nothing but a glorified crutch and you don't deserve it.

I fired a wave of fire and it hit him in his face and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was badly burned all over.

Me: Try this one on. FIST OF THE MORTAL FLAME! 邪王炎殺煉獄焦

---

Fist of the Mortal Flame (邪王炎殺煉獄焦, Jaō Ensatsu Rengoku Shō, translated as Wicked King Immolation Purgatory Scorch; VIZ translation, Purgatory Scorch): Hiei can channel the less-powerful flames of Human World into one or both of his hands to enhance his hand-to-hand combat abilities. Hiei first uses this technique during semi-finals of the Dark Tournament in his fight against Kuro Momotaro to damge his Armor of the Ape. He also uses the two-handed Double Fist of the Mortal Flame to fight Kuro's Armor of the Phoenix, but it proves ineffective. Later on, after his self-training, Hiei manage to master the Fist of the Mortal Flame, punch clear through stone tiles, project it as waves of flame, and disintegrate objects merely by touch, as shown during his battle with Bui In other media such as the video games, Hiei can channel either flames (human-realm or demon-realm) into this attack, and like when he first used it, the attack is often used as a rushing flurry of rapid punches engulfed with flame, with varying degrees of effect.

Flamethrower: The flame of the human world can also be used as a flamethrower to create a ranged attack. It is used on Bui, but it is proved ineffective. Strangely Hiei uses this technique in the final opening, while Kurama and Kuwabara use their most powerful techniques (Yoko Kurama and Dimension Blade respectively), though it may have been an error in the coloration.

My hands glowed with incredibly powerful fire and I punched him all over with incredible powerful fury and it was burning him with indiscriminate fury as he screamed in pain all over. My new transformation enhanced my powers ∞-fold.

When it was done, Evil Hiei was down.

Me: This is for all the pain and suffering you've caused. SWORD OF THE DARKNESS FLAME! 邪王炎殺剣

I formed a sword out of the black fire of hell and stabbed Evil Hiei in his black heart through his back and he bursted into flames and was incinerated in an instant. Evil Hiei was dead.

Me: Burn in eternal Hell.

I powered down and took the Shadow Sword, the Orb of Baast and the Forlorned Hope as trophies and I used my powers to cure Keiko and in the process I gave her some unique powers to help Yusuke.

The Simulation ended and everyone cheered wildly.

Nico: Awesome job J.D.

Me: Thanks man.

Hiei: I can't believe I was like that.

Yusuke: Yeah I know.

Lincoln: But that evil version of you deserved it Hiei.

Hiei: Indeed.

Laney: Yeah.

Part 2: Search for Lurleen Lumpkin

---

We were in the middle of the city and we were trying to find a woman that Homer knows and Marge hates with a merciless vengeance. The woman's name was Lurleen Lumpkin and she used to be managed by Homer a while back.

Me: So we're going to find this Lurleen?

Homer: Yeah she is hated by Marge but Lisa, Bart and Maggie love her.

Nico: wow.

Lincoln: Where does she live?

Homer: I don't really know.

Laney: I think I know. (Points to something) Look.

We saw Lurleen and she was with a bunch of homeless people in the gutter,

Me: Oh no.

We went over.

Lurleen saw us and Homer.

Lurleen: Homer?

Homer: Hi Lurleen.

Me: Are you all right?

Lurleen: I'll make it.

Me: You need to come to our home for some food and a place to call home.

Lurleen: Marge won't like it.

Me: She's not with Homer anymore.

Laney: And there's a reason why.

We told her everything about what happened in Springfield, Oregon and what happened with Marge, Mr. Burns and Mayor Quimby and she was horrified!

Lurleen: That town was a cesspool of evil and villainy!

Bart: It sure was. It was a town that was doomed from the very start.

Nico: Yep and it deserved to be completely destroyed.

Lurleen: I will gladly come back with you.

We took her home to the estate and got her some new clothes and got her some food and she was watching TV with us. She told us how she was an aspiring Country Western Singer that went downhill and lost everything and more. We couldn't help but feel sorry for her and we made her feel right at home. Homer allowed her to stay in his bed in his room and Marge was infuriated when she saw her. She was gnashing her teeth and her eyes were turning red with pure rage and steam and smoke was coming out of her nose and ears.

She wanted nothing more than to strangle Lurleen and kill her. But because she was trapped in a portrait she couldn't do anything about it except yell.

Part 3: FATHERS DAY

---

It was June 21st, 2020 and it was Fathers Day and it was a beautiful day. We were making breakfast for our fathers and we got them great pancakes, eggs and bacon.

Manaphy, Poromon, Horsea and Poliwag: HAPPY FATHERS DAY!

Nico: Thanks guys.

Lynn Sr.: This is amazing! Thank you kids.

Laney: You're welcome dad.

Lincoln: J.D. and May made the breakfast for you.

Lynn Sr.: Thank you guys so much.

We had a great fathers day with our fathers and spent the day with them.

---

Part 4: ROTWOOD'S ENDGAME!

---

May and Max were walking around in the mall.

May: I'm glad we had a nice Father's Day yesterday, Max.

Max: I'm glad we invited our Dad over as well. (smirks) So, when do you think is Nico going to propose to you.

May: C'mon! Nico will propose when he's ready!

Max: If you say so, sis.

But that's when Max is knocked out from behind, revealing Squidward as the culprit.

Rotwood: (he, Morton, and Frown come out) Hello, May. We've been looking for you!

May screamed.

We heard her scream.

Me: May!

Nico: We got to find her!

We went out to find her and we had a strong suspicion that Rotwood was behind it.

Nico: I swear, if Rotwood harms May in any way, I'll fucking slaughter him!

Nico: Nico, calm down. We'll find her.

Dante Vale: Alright, everyone split up. Search the entire city for any signs of Rotwood.

Aerrow: Got it. The minute any of us see him, we'll contact you guys.

We split up and we covered more ground and we looked high and low. Nico then sensed something coming from an old abandoned nuclear power plant and he busted in and he saw May beaten to within an inch of her life and he saw Rotwood and everyone there.

Nico: End of the line, Rotwood!

Rotwood: (smirks) So it would seem.

Nico: (sees May) May, what did they do to-

Suddenly, the hideout was sprayed with fear gas. Since Rotwood and his crew were wearing gas masks, they weren't affected. But I was. And then, I saw someone I didn't expect to see again.

Nico: It can't be! Kimeramon!

Nico then started punching May all over.

We busted in with a massive fiery explosion and a phoenix cry was heard as we landed in front of them.

Rotwood: (to Dark Spicer) Not going to say that you're going to kick our asses?

Dark Spicer: (pissed) If you don't tell us where May is, your asses are gonna be kicked so hard!

Frown: (sees me getting out of Vert's Saber) Wait. Did you just get out of Vert Wheeler's Saber? (laughs) It must be embarrassing for you to have your friends drive you around!

Dante Vale: (sees Fear Toxin in the building) Is that Fear Toxin?

Firefly: It is. Good thing my helmet's on.

Me: Where's May, Rotwood?

Kalin: (smirks) Let me beat it out of him, JD.

Yusei: Don't bother, Kalin. I don't think he'll tell you anyway.

Squidward: (laughs) It doesn't matter what you morons do. In a few minutes, our plan will come to fruition. If only Spongebob were with you all to watch the fireworks!

Vypra: What are you talking about?

Morton: (to me) You're too driven by your vigilante complex that you can't even see what we've done!

Lincoln: You better start making some sense!

Rotwood: You know what we did. We operated her. She's the trigger.

Squidward: And it just so happens that we had a nuke in the hideout.

Vert: I'll check to see if it's still there.

Frown: Don't bother. It isn't. And when May's heart stops, every heart in Gotham Royal York is going to stop as well.

Morton: (laughs) I don't personally know what Kimeramon is. But Chan was really scared of it!

Me: You're out of your fucking minds!

Dark Spicer: (to you) Me and the others will keep Rotwood and his goons occupied. You stop Nico from killing May!

Me: Got it!

I then flew over and grabbed Nico and held him in an armlock.

Me: Nico stop!

Nico: No! That's Kimeramon! He returned!

Me: Nico that's not Kimeramon, he was destroyed remember? Rotwood and his gang poisoned you with fear gas!

We tied up Rotwood and his posse and then they screamed in excruciating pain and we saw their cobra marks move and they were close to their necks and I looked on my device and saw that they had 2 hours left to live.

Dante Vale: First, you kidnap May and sync her heart to that nuke. Then you spray Nico with fear gas. And finally, you had the nerve to make him attempt to murder her!

Lincoln: It was always us that you 4 had a grudge on. We were the ones who made you guys go on the run! So, what in God's name possessed you to try and hurt him?

Rotwood: It's because we wanted to win. (to me) Every time we have crossed paths, you and your friends have always defeated us. Your spirit is too strong for us to break. But Mr. Chan… ah! He was an easy soul to manipulate and crush his dreams. That's why we took his mate and implanted the trigger to that warhead we stole. And with the Dark Orb combined with Scarecrow's fear gas, we made it so he thought he was fighting that digital monstrosity the entire time. And he ended up putting his girlfriend in your infirmatary. As I said, Knudson, you are too strong to break. But Mr. Chan finally knows what true pain feels like. He now knows the true harsh reality of the world.

Me: You guys are fucked up!

Later I got a call from Yusei.

Yusei: J.D. it's Yusei.

Me: Report.

Yusei: Nico's been in the medbay at May's side for an hour now. Not that I blame him.

Vert: Dammit! Not even Zemereik, Kalus, or even Krytus would do something like this!

Yusei: Well, at least May's still alive. But do you really think Nico's going to be ok?

Vert: To be honest, I actually don't know.

Me: I know. But keep your eyes on him.

Yusei: Okay.

Nico was crying incredibly hard.

Arkayna: Nico's, it's going to be ok.

Nico: (cries) Arkayna, I did this! I injured her!

Arkayna: (hugs him) No! You're not responsible for this, Nico! Rotwood and his group orchestrated this whole thing!

Nico: (considers her words) You're right. Arkayna, will you please watch over May? There's something I need to do.

Arkayna: Ok. (chuckles) You know, you act like a brother to me then Gawayne ever does.

Nico: (laughs) That's true. (leaves the infirmary)

Yusei: Nico-

Nico: Rotwood and his group, Yusei. Where did they take him?

Yusei: J.D. and the others took them to the edge of the city. But I don't think you should- (He walked past him) Hey!

Yusei summons Stardust Dragon and had it restrained him.

Nico: Let me go, Yusei!

Yusei: Nico, you're hurt and angry about this. Just take some time to calm down. I don't want you to-

Nico used Xiao Fung's winds to push Yusei and Stardust Dragon back.

Nico: How do you plan on stopping me, Yusei? With the most powerful of the Signer Dragons at your command?!

Yusei: Nico, I'll fight you if I have to!

Nico used Justice Lord Superman's heat vision to destroy Stardust Dragon.

Yusei: (tries to contact me): J.D., it's Nico! He's-

Nico: No! (uses Soundwave's powers to disable Yusei's communicator)

Yusei: My communicator. How did you-?

Nico: Soundwave may be on our side but I still have his abilities from his first death.

Yusei: Nico, please! Don't do anything that you'll regret!

Nico: (sadly) I already have, Yusei. (flies off)

Yusei: That Fear Gas really destroyed him.

We had Rotwood and his posse tied to some poles and the entire city was there and they were armed with pitchforks and torches and they had a bunch of protest signs with a lot of hateful phrases on them directed at them.

Me: You guys have tormented us all for the last time!

Xaldin: Yeah!

Rotwood: (to Xaldin) You should be impressed, Xaldin. After all, you were the one who tried to hurt Belle and the Beast through their relationship with each other.

Xaldin: But at least I never tried to trick Beast into killing Belle!

Larxene: I'm starting to see why my Somebody quit Organization XIII.

Squidward: (to Lily) Still think I'm stupid, Lily? Because I doubt a stupid person would be able to pull off what we've accomplished!

Maria: You're not even stupid anymore, Squidward. You and your pals are fucking sociopaths now!

Me: More like a bunch of Nihilistic Sadomasochists and we found the nuke and disarmed it!

Frown: (laughs) You all merely allowed us to find our true selves. Just like we've helped Chan find HIS true self.

William: What does that mean?

Morton: (smirks) When you all witnessed firsthand the Joker kill people, it pushed you to become thugs who either violently pummel or kill villains in your way. But Chan was optimistic. He was the one who always helped you guys stay true to yourselves and kept you all together. Now that he's nearly killed the one he loves, what do you think he'll become now?

Aerrow: It won't work, Morton! Yeah, Nico will be upset about this for a while. But he won't break! He'll still be that same hero that we've always known him to be.

Zick: Aerrow's right! There are just some things even you guys can't corrupt!

Nico then appeared and he was coming up to us.

Me: Nico you need to stand down!

Nico: Get away from them!

Vypra: Nico, please. We're handling this.

Greiger: Vypra, maybe we should do what he says. I know the look in his eyes all too well.

The rest of us and the Masters of Evil allowed Nico to pass as he walked up to Rotwood and grabbed him by the collar.

Nico: YOU DRUGGED ME! NEARLY MADE ME… (cries) May, I'm so sorry.

Rotwood: (smirks) First, you kill Ken Ichijouji the first time. And now, you nearly killed your own girlfriend. You really have a habit of hurting the people around you.

Dark Spicer: (Nico is about to punch Rotwood) Nico, don't!

But then, Nico dropped Rotwood to the ground.

Squidward: (Rotwood gets back up) That's why we like you, Chan. (gestures to the Neptune Crusaders) You're much more gullible then certain morons that I know.

Irma: Hey! We resent that!

Maria: Shut your fucking trap!

Frown: (ignores Irma) You think you can have a family? That locking us up will magically reform us. And then they'll be safe.

Morton: (laughs) So big. Yet so dumb. Now, how about you and your buddies run along now? We've got a lot of planning to top this scheme!

Nico: I don't care! I will kill these monsters and then I will take over the entire government and eliminate all evil by enforcing my will on this world!

Me: Are you out of your fucking mind Nico!?

Vypra: Nico, it's not worth it becoming a monster over what Rotwood's done.

Nico: Oh, please! We all know that the four of them are going to die anyway!

Eddy: Hey, man! Killing those jerks is one thing. But becoming a dictator is probably crossing a line.

Dark Spicer: Nico, please let Vypra kill Rotwood and his goons through the Curse of the Cobra. Don't lose sight of who you are!

Me: Dark Spicer is right man. If you do this, it will show that Justice Lord Superman was right and we'll be just as bad as they are.

Myotismon: Agreed!

Nico then realized that we were right and then he broke down crying hard.

I went over and hugged him and comforted him.

Me: It's all right man. It's all right.

Nico: (sobs) It's funny. I'm usually focused on keeping you guys in check. But I didn't even consider the fact that I might go rogue myself.

Me: I know man. We have 2 minutes left. Want to watch?

Nico: (Sniffles) Okay.

We looked at my device and saw that there were 10 seconds left.

Me: Michael, get ready.

Michael Morbius: Right!

Me: 3… 2… 1… 0.

The cobras on their backs appeared and they saw them and they bit their necks and they screamed in excruciating pain as their bodies completely disintegrated into dust in an instant.

Me: Enjoy the fire of hell you fuckshitting shitsuckers!

Their evil spirits appeared.

Rotwood: You will pay for this!

Frown: You all will die for this!

Morton: We will be back!

Squidward: And we will have our revenge!

Michael Morbius: I don't think so you fuckers! You are never going to be welcome here!

He held up his hand to their faces.

Michael Morbius: HAKAI!

They glowed purple and screamed in excruciating pain as they were being completely obliterated! They were erased from existence for all eternity as if they were never born at all.

Me: Enjoy the darkness of oblivion.

Nico: Squidward Tentacles, Hans Rotwood, Brad Morton and Master Frown, all 4 of you have failed this universe.

Me: Now we have seen the last of the Coalition of the Cobra.

Part 5: Burger Hype

Later at Lynn's Table we were having a lunch over there. But because of Rotwood and his group, nobody came because they were too scared of Nico.

It was a long day. Inside, it is dirty and covered in cobwebs. Lori is seen covered in dust and cobwebs. She blows the dust off herself. Lincoln dusts off a cobweb off a table with a feather duster. A spider comes down and makes a new web. Lincoln dusts it off again, but the spider comes back and makes another one. Lynn Sr. is seen covered in dust against the wall. He sneezes the dust off.

Me: Bless you Mr. Lynn.

Nico: Geez. No one is coming.

Laney: Yeah.

Lynn Sr.: [sighs] 36 days without a customer.

Lana: Wow.

Lynn Sr: It's like the restaurant has become a ghost town.

Nico: (sadly) Maybe it's because people scared of me because of what I almost did. And who can blame them?

Me: I know but it was because of Rotwood and his group. Vince called the President and told him what went down and everyone now is showing sympathies for you.

Nico: Good.

Dave: [slowly crawls towards Lynn's Table] So… hungry…

Lincoln: Ah! Dad, a customer!

Lynn Sr.: Ah! [Lynn Sr. squeals in delight, revealing a spider web growing in his mouth. A spider crawls all over it]

Me: Yuck.

Dave: No food… 3 days…

Lynn Sr.: Hold on, my bucko! Food's on the way! [He is about to call into the kitchen, but then has a second thought] Uhh… You got money, right?

Dave: Yeah…

Lynn: Lincoln! Bring this guy some grub before he keels over!

Lincoln: [offers him food] Here you go, sir.

Dave: Oh. Po-boys, huh?

Lynn Sr.: Finest in the city Gotham Royal York.

Dave: Yeah, yeah, sure. But where's the pizzazz?

Lynn Sr.: Huh?

Me: Pizzazz? What are you talking about? The whole city went through hell because of…

Dave: I know J.D. I know. And I'm sorry you went through this Nico.

Nico: I appreciate that.

Dave: Look at this place. [the inside of the Lynn's Table is all old and worn out] I mean, what is the theme here? Creole? It's boring! (To Nico) But give May my regards Nico. [He turns and crawls away] Food! Water! Atmosphere!

Me: We need to fix this place up.

Laney: This place has really gone downhill fast.

Lincoln: Yeah. [he looks out the door as Fred and Tom see each other on the street]

Fred: Hey, Tom!

Tom: Fred! Hey, you wanna eat at Lynn's Table?

Fred: Nah, let's go to the Sushi Shack. They've got a talking dog!

Tom: [runs off with Fred] Great!

Me: That talking dog at the Sushi Shack is a really huge success.

Lynn Sr.: [Gasps] Hungry people walking! I need to think up a gimmick like that to bring people back in here!

Vince: We'll think of something Mr. Lynn.

Lily: [peeks over Lynn Sr.'s head] I have an idea!

Lynn Sr.: Wait! I've got an idea!

Me: Lets hear it.

[Cut to outside Lynn's Table, where a marching band plays, and a crowd gathers around Lynn Sr.]

Lynn Sr.: And so ladies and gentlemen, be sure to buy plenty of food as I bury myself alive! [Everyone cheers and confetti shoots up from the ground as Lynn Sr. wields a shovel. He digs a hole, and then hops into it] Enjoy. [scene cuts. Then, he pats the dirt in around him, leaving himself underground with no trace of him. Fred runs up to on top of where Lynn Sr. was buried]

Fred: Hey, everyone, listen! [the music stops] The talking dog at the Sushi Shack is singing! Come on!

[He motions for everyone to follow, and they do, leaving Lynn Sr. and us alone, under the ground.]

Me: (Sighs) I'll get him out.

[Cut to the inside of Lynn's Table, where it has been cleaned out]

Lily: Daddy, I have an idea!

Lynn Sr.: What am I going to do? If I don't find an idea, I'll go out of business!

Me: Lily has an idea Mr. Lynn.

Lynn Sr.: Why can't someone give me an idea?

Varie: Mr. Lynn can you listen to Lily?

Lynn Sr.: [looks above] Great Lord in Heaven, I need an idea!

[A divine light hits Lynn Sr., and Lily comes down, playing the harp and dressed like an angel with her wings spread]

Lily: [sings] Daddy, I have an idea!

Me: Wow.

Lynn Sr.: What is it sweety?

Lily: OK. Daddy, Prepare yourself. Don't bother sitting down, because you'll just stand up when you see this! [makes a Pretty burger] Ta-da! [Shows Lynn Sr. a green Pretty Burger]

Lynn Sr. SWEET UNCLE JOSEPH! That burger's spoiled!

[He knocks it off of the plate and onto the ground, where he burns it with a flamethrower. Once the fire is gone, Lily appears in a fire-retardant suit]

Lily: [laughs] Daddy, it's not tainted meat. It's painted meat. [Fire once again overcomes her, and she emerges in regular clothing, with an artist's pallet in hand. On the palette is 7 Burgers that were in different colors] Pretty Burgers! Available in 7 designer colors.

Me: Ooh those are beautiful Lily.

Lana: And in all 7 colors of the rainbow.

Nico: Pretty Burgers? (smiles) You know what? I think that might brighten my day after what Rotwood almost made me do.

Me: Lets all try one.

Vexen: Lily, if you don't mind, I'd like to take a Pretty Burger back to our hideout so I can analyze it for side effects.

Lily: Sure.

Dark Spicer: Ok. We just need to use one of our Dark Orbs to remove the side effects and the burger will be safe to eat. I mean, what's the worst that can happen?

Vexen took a Pretty Burger back to the Masters of Evil headquarters for analysis.

Harold then came and Clyde was with him.

Me: Hey Mr. McBride.

Lincoln: Hey Clyde.

Harold: Hey guys. How has Nico been doing? He is really shaken up.

Me: He blames himself for what happened. But Lily has a great idea.

Lily: Yep Mr. McBride, we sell Pretty Burgers! [holds out a green Pretty Burger]

Harold: That thing's green! [starts laughing hysterically] Green! [laughs some more]

Me: But there's other colors besides Green.

She showed him.

Harold: [Stops laughing] Hey, is that one purple? Purple is my favorite color! [He tries it] This isn't half bad! Hey, world! "Pretty Burgers" is the best idea ever! [All of us are elated]

[Cut to Nanette in her office at the restaurant where Carly and Jack had their first date. She was eating popcorn and watching a movie, crying. A spider dangling from its web was crying as well]

Nanette had tears streaming down her face and more as she was eating popcorn.

Rick's Wife: [On TV] Oh, Rick, how could you? Together we were one.

Rick: [On TV] That was before. But now, I'm splitting us up.

Poor Rick and his wife.

[Onscreen, a man and a woman were acting in a soap opera and he took off his ring and gave it to her. All of a sudden, it turns to a Gotham Royal York News emergency broadcast. Johnny talks at a desk. Behind him is a Burger screen showing a crowd of Gotham Royal York Citizens cheering]

Johnny: We interrupt this program to bring you a special news announcement! This wild crowd behind me is screaming for Gotham Royal York's latest culinary sensation. Let's take a listen.

All: [Chanting] Pretty Burgers! Pretty Burgers!

Nanette: Pretty Burgers? That's a new one. [The spider comes down and steals her popcorn]

Johnny: It's easy to see Pretty Burgers are popular, but what is it about them that drives Gotham Royal York feeders wild?

Millie, Sadie [has hair], and Evelyn: They match our purses! [show their purses]

Their purses were purple, red and orange.

Scottish Man: [with Scottish accent, kilt, and bagpipes] They remind me of home. [holds up a plaid Pretty Burger]

Larry: [runs up] Pretty Burgers rule! [flexes his muscles]

Johnny: Ms. Lily Loud, how do you explain all this success?

Lily: It was just an idea that came to me.

Nanette: How in the world did Lily think this up? Very genius and successful.

Johnny: [the TV background has money falling] And how can you not make money with such a brilliant idea?

Lily: [laughs] At first we didn't know what to do with all the money for dad's restaurant. We tried burying it, shredding it, and burning it. But in the end, we decided just to give it all away and keep some for our vault.

[Lynn is at another stand that now has a bamboo "$" and says "FREE MONEY." She hands a filled paper sack to Nathiel]

Lynn: Come again, sir!

Nathiel: Thanks Lynn. I'm getting back in line! [runs off]

Nanette: I don't believe it! [runs out of her chair and across the dining area] I've got to see this for myself! [runs out the door and into Sandals]

BONK!

Sandals: Hey Watch it, buddy. I don't care how much you want your Pretty Burger. You're gonna have to wait in line [shows Nanette the very long line] like the rest of us.

Nanette: That is a REALLY long line!

[At Lynn's Table, the "Now Serving" sign flips to 43,294,926]

Lily: Who's #43,294,926?

[An enormous amount of people surround them and they simultaneously declare themselves as #43,294,926. Nanette makes her way to the front of the line]

Nanette: [surprised] I've never seen any restaurant that had 43,294,926 customers.

We saw Nanette.

Me: Nanette?

Nanette: Hey guys. How in the world did you guys get so many customers in one day?

Lily: It was just that popular.

Me: This has to be the biggest record in the history of the world for the most customers at 1 restaurant in 1 day.

Nanette: It sure is.

Nico: No kidding. I'm amazed even myself.

Carly Carmine: Same here.

Misty Tredwell: Yeah.

I tried a Blue Pretty Burger and it was delicious.

Me: Mmm! Delicious!

Nanette: Mind if I help you guys and hold down the fort for you Lily?

Lily: Sure.

Muscle Man: You know who else loves Pretty Burgers? My Mom!

We laughed hysterically!

Nanette had the stand operated by her. Later the next day we were ready for another successful day.

Nanette: We're ready! We're ready! We're ready. [the crowd gathers around her, all looking angry] Welcome to Lynn's Table. May I take your orders?

Franco: [high-pitched voice] We want a refund, Nanette. [crowd yelling in agreement]

Me: Uh oh.

Nanette: [confused and scared as she turns her head three times] Who, huh, What? What's wrong?

Gus: Your dumb Pretty Burgers turned my [shows his purple face] face purple!

Me: It's as purple as a grape!

Luna Loud: Cool dudes.

Scottish Man: [Scottish accent] Look what I got under my kilt! [raises his kilt to reveal a plaid body, and white underwear]

Me: Plaid? Wow.

Laney: I didn't think that was possible.

Clay, John, and Frank: And look at our tongues! [they show us their respective tongues: a yellow tongue, an orange speckled tongue with green spots, and a normal-looking pink tongue]

Me: How come your tongue looks normal?

Nanette: [confused as she refers to Frank's tongue while sweating] Yeah. What's wrong with you?

Frank: [turns off a light to reveal his tongue is glow-in-the-dark, and is pulsing green]

Me: A Glow-In-The-Dark tongue? That is cool!

Frank: It really is cool isn't it? We want our money back. All 43,294,926 of us. [turns the light back on]

Nanette: (nervously) Guys, a little help here?!

Me: But look at my tongue.

I showed that my tongue was neon blue.

Nanette: Your tongue is neon blue.

Lori: That's not all. Look at our tongues.

The Loud Kids and Nico showed their tongues.

Nico's was neon apple green.

Lori's was sky blue.

Leni's was sea-foam green.

Luna's was purple.

Luan's was yellow.

Lynn's was strawberry red.

Lincoln & Linka's were orange.

Liberty's was golden yellow.

Lyra's was Wolf Grey.

Lee's was Ocean Blue.

Lucy's was pitch black.

Laney's was brown.

Lana's was periwinkle blue.

Lola's was neon pink.

Lisa's was green.

And Lily's was lavender purple.

Lori: (Laughs) Our tongues are literally our favorite colors.

Me: That is pretty funny.

We showed our tongues and they were various colors.

Vexen: And it will only last for 24 hours. We ran some tests and they show that the Pretty Burgers are colored with food coloring chemicals and it's not permanent. It's like what happens when you lick suckers and your tongue changes color. It'll only last for 24 hours.

Me: That's a relief.

Nico: It's funny though.

Harold: I guess no harm done.

Everyone agreed.

We laughed and everyone had normal food and had Pretty Burgers the next day. Lily had to go to work at the Krusty Krab and she told everyone what happened and they were shocked. But they got a good laugh out of what happened with her and the Pretty Burgers and how it was a sense of Deja Vu with her and SpongeBob.

Lily: (To the Viewers) Be careful with food and it's good to have fun with food. But have fun with food and have a good cooking recipe.

THE END

In Nico's room, Nico was packing a suitcase full of his stuff. Sandman came in and he saw this.

Sandman: (sees Nico packing up): Hey, Nico. Where are you going?

Nico: I'm leaving.

Lynn: (sees this as well) Leaving where?

Nico: I'm leaving the estate. And I'm never coming back.

Sandman: Why?!

Nico: First, I break Lynn's arm. And now, I almost killed May. Well, I'm leaving the team before I hurt anymore of you guys.

Lynn: C'mon, Nico! You can't leave. We need you!

Nico: No, you don't! If you guys were able to defeat bad guys before I joined up, you'll do fine without me!

With that, Nico leaves the room and the estate for what might be the last time.

Sandman: We got to tell everyone!

We were told everything.

Dark Spicer: So, Nico's gone. For real?

Bloom: I guess so. He's still traumatized over Rotwood nearly tricking him into killing May.

Carly Carmine: He can't leave! For God's sake, he's part of your team!

Lincoln: (guilty) He is. But do we really treat him that way?

Lola: What do you mean?

Lincoln: Well, we have a habit of sometimes ignoring his suggestions because of us wanting to take down villains that aren't our frenemies. And now look! He might be gone from our lives forever!

Naruto: We got to cheer him up!

Me: We got to find him and back him up. Come on!

We were off and we went to find Nico.

* * *

At the hill where me and the Loud kids went to do some soul searching, Nico was sitting there looking up at the sky and he was in a huge fit of sadness.

Nico: (Crying) It's all my fault!

Me: Nico!

He saw us and we arrived.

Rumble: I figured we'd find you here.

Nico: Ok. So I don't really have a destination in mind. But I still think you guys are better off without me!

Me: Nico that's not true!

Lori: Nico, Lynn breaking her arm and May nearly getting killed wasn't your fault. Both times, it was Rotwood that caused it!

Nico: I don't see why you, Lola, and Lynn would want me back in the first place, Lori. Now that I'm out of the way, there's nothing stopping you from recklessly going after Cyclonis and all the other villains out there that aren't our frenemies! So what's stopping you now?!

Me: You man. You taught me that acting recklessly was stupid and that's why I made you my chief enforcer.

Lori: That's right Nico. You are literally the glue that holds the team together!

Lynn: And you prevent us from going down the same path as the Justice Lords did.

Lola: Yeah and you helped me become a better person!

Eject: Nico, all of us each have something nice to say about you! (sheepishly) But not me and Rumble. The two of us didn't have time to prepare anything to say.

Me: That's right man. When we first met you, you became like a brother to all of us ever since you joined us.

Vince: You are a very strong hearted and very powerful man.

Lincoln: You helped us take down some of our most dangerous enemies with amazing teamwork and skills.

Lori: You are literally a kind-hearted man that has always helped us in our times of need.

Leni: You are totes amazing when you helped me get my job back.

Luna: You have a rockin singing voice in the worlds of rock dude!

Sam S.L.: Yeah dude!

Luan: You are amazingly funny and you laugh at all my jokes.

Eddy: It's true.

Lynn: And you are very skilled in Tennis and all the sports I like.

Lincoln: You are really good at Video Games and you are a very good supporter for us.

Lucy Loud: You love helping me with my poems.

Laney: You are smart and very skilled.

Lana: And you like playing in the mud.

Lola: Rooting me on in my pagaents.

Lisa: A very skilled man in the fields of science.

Lily: And you are a wonderful man in helping your family.

We told him all kinds of awesome things that really touched his heart.

Nico: Do you guys mean all that?

Me: We do.

?: That's right Bokrua.

We turned and looked in the sky and we saw storm clouds and in the clouds we saw numerous figures. We saw that it was all the Saiyans that were all killed by Frieza. We saw King Vegeta, Bordos, Fasha, Shugesh, Tora, and many others.

Me: King Vegeta!

Vegeta: Father!

King Vegeta: It is good to see you again my son. You have grown so much.

Vegeta: I never forgot everything you taught me father.

Nico: (Kneels) It is an honor to meet you sire.

King Vegeta: Same to you. We have seen everything you did and we couldn't be anymore prouder of you than we already are.

Shugesh: That's right.

Tora: You are a very skilled and powerful man that has done many wonderful things.

Fasha: You have surpassed all of us in strength and power than any of us in our history and you have become a very skilled and pure warrior that fights to protect his friends.

Bordos: That's right. You have done so much and achieved great things that others could not.

King Vegeta: You are a true Saiyan, Bokrua and you have the strength and power of all of our people flowing through your blood. You have done many great things that helped redeem the name of the Saiyans.

Nico: But sire, weren't the Saiyans known as the most feared race in the entire galaxy?

King Vegeta: Yes we were. But that was because of Frieza. He made us that way and we were widely hated and feared because of him. But because of you, Kakarot, Vegeta, Nikiya, and all of your friends, you helped redeem the Saiyan name and have saved so many all over the universe and you have made us all very proud.

Nico had tears streaming down his face and then he had heard a voice that he thought that he would never here ever.

?: That's right my son.

A figure appeared behind him and it was the spirit of his biological Saiyan father Keshum.

Keshum: Hello my son.

Nico: Father? Father!

He went over and hugged his biological father for the first time ever in his life!

Nico: (Crying) Father! It's so nice to meet you.

Keshum: Same to you my son. I was told everything and I am so proud of you.

Nico: I know dad. Mom helped me get away from planet Vegeta and I never stopped thinking about you and everything that happened. I sometimes wish that I could rewind the clock and save you all from Frieza.

Keshum: I know son. But you have all of your friends and adoptive parents as your family. Never forget that they are all there for you and always will be there for you no matter what.

Nico: (Sniffles) I know father. But thank you for being (Touches his chest) Here with me and I will never forget the strength and pride of my people.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI BY JO BLANKENBURG PLAYS AT 1:30)

Nico stood in confidence and looked at King Vegeta with a smile.

Nico: Sire, I am not just Bokrua of the planet Vegeta. (Goes Super Saiyan) I am Nicolas "Nico" Chan, proud Super Saiyan of both Earth and the Planet Vegeta! And with the strength and pride of my people and the love and power of my friends and my awesome girlfriend May, I am not just a member of Earth, I am a member of the all powerful TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM!

His power flared up with incredible power as his aura had lightning in it and energy blasts flew into the sky and formed into a dazzling display of fireworks! His power had been enhanced 100 billion fold because of it!

Me: WHOA!

Naruto: Holy mackeral!

Lincoln: What power!

Laney: Incredible!

Me: That was powerful!

May: Nico.

Prince Vegeta: That is true Saiyan Pride.

Vegeta: Bokrua is a true Saiyan.

Me: And he's also one of my best friends.

Nico: Everyone thank you. I am not going to make the same mistakes I did with Rotwood and all of you guys.

Me: So you are staying?

Nico: I'm staying!

We cheered wildly for him!

May: Oh Nico!

May went up to Nico and she hugged him and he hugged her back and she felt an amazing strength from Nico's aura. It fell pure and warm to her and empowering. The Saiyans were joyous and filled with pride for him and they were so glad that Nico was leading the Saiyans on the Road to Redemption.

---

Later in the Antarctica Prison, we were there to visit the enemy of George Beard and Harold Hutchins and Mr. Krupp: MELVIN SNEEDLY!

---

Melvin Richard Sneedly, also temporarily known as the Bionic Booger Boy, is the secondary antagonist-turned-anti-hero in the Captain Underpants book series, the secondary antagonist of DreamWorks' 35th full-length animated feature film Captain Underpants: The First Epic Movie, the main antagonist of The Epic Tales of Captain Underpants series and its series finale film Captain Underpants Epic Choice-O-Rama, and one of the two main antagonists turned anti-hero in The Spooky Tales of Captain Underpants.

He is perhaps the smartest student currently attending Jerome Horwitz Elementary School, but is also the school's biggest tattletale/sellout and is greatly disliked by lots of the students for this reason. He is also George and Harold's arch-nemesis.

In the film, he was voiced by Jordan Peele of MADtv fame, who also voiced Beta Wolf in the 2016 Warner Bros. animated film Storks. In The Epic Tales of Captain Underpants, he is voiced by Jorge Diaz.

Melvin debuts in the second book as the local nerd and snitch, who created the PATSY 2000 (a device similar to a 3D printer) as part of a science convention. He tells George and Harold it can bring images to life. They aren't impressed, however. Melvin agrees not to mention that he saw the two ruining the science fair but later he changes his mind when he decides to tattle on George and Harold after the science convention is cancelled because of George and Harold's pranks. When George and Harold tamper with the PATSY 2000, it spawns the Talking Toilets and the Turbo-Toilet 2000, who ruin the school. Later, Melvin is placed in detention (since he tattled) when George and Harold become Principals of the Day and is forced to write "I will not be a tattletale" multiple times.

Melvin is one of the students who get brainwashed in the third book. In the fifth book, he bears witness to the robotic George and Harold's attack.

Melvin serves as the main antagonist of the sixth and seventh books. In the sixth book, Melvin debuts his latest invention, the Combine-o-Tron 2000, and showcases it to his classmates by combining his pet hamster Sulu with a robotic hamster body. He tries to get the newly-transformed bionic hamster to showcase his powers, but when Sulu refuses, Melvin threatens Sulu with violence, resulting in Sulu beating up Melvin. Melvin leaves the school in humiliation, leaving George and Harold to adopt Sulu as their own.

Soon after, Melvin falls victim to George and Harold's prank, the Squishy, and gets them into detention by tattling on them. The duo write a slanderous Captain Underpants comic about Melvin, much to Melvin's anger. Wishing to get revenge on George and Harold, Melvin creates a robotic human body with the intention of becoming a bionic boy and thus the most popular student at school. Due to his cat allergies, he sneezes and covers himself in his own mucus during the transformation, causing him to become the Bionic Booger Boy.

Melvin initially enjoys the benefits of his transformation, such as being the star football and volleyball player and having his personal water fountain. However, when flu season hits, Melvin begins to behave strangely. When the class visits a tissue factory, Melvin becomes a gigantic and evil monster as a reaction to the tissues, forcing George and Harold to turn Mr. Krupp into Captain Underpants to fight him. Though Captain Underpants manages to rescue Ms. Edith Anthrope during the attack, her sloppy, wet kisses revert him back to Mr. Krupp, and Melvin devours him. Melvin then goes for George and Harold, but Sulu arrives and battles Melvin. Melvin's parents soon arrive, and under George's suggestion, recalibrate the Combine-o-Tron and restore Melvin and Mr. Krupp to normal. However, Mr. Krupp and Melvin begin to act like each other, and the remnants of the Bionic Booger Boy become the Robo-Boogers and give chase to the group, destroying the Combine-o-Tron in the process.

In the seventh book, after Sulu subdues the three Robo-Boogers, George and Harold realize that Mr. Krupp and Melvin have switched brains. Mr. Krupp (now Kruppy the Kid) orders Melvin (now Mr. Melvin) to rebuild the Combine-O-Tron, but when Mr. Melvin claims the process could take six months, George suggests that Mr. Melvin build a time machine and acquire the Combine-O-Tron. Mr. Melvin, stricken with the idea, inadvertently transforms Kruppy the Kid into Captain Underpants and decides to get his original body back and gain Captain Underpants's powers. He orders George and Harold to make a comic that depicts him as cool.

The next day, after finding out that the comic George and Harold wrote about him does not fit his expectations, Mr. Melvin reveals his time machine, warning them of its side effects, and equips them with a mind eraser and a fake Combine-o-Tron. After some mishaps involving the librarian, Miss Singerbrains, and a pterodactyl they named Crackers, the duo retrieve the original Combine-o-Tron and give it to Mr. Melvin. Mr. Melvin tracks down Kruppy the Kid, who is still Captain Underpants, and gets their brains back in their original bodies. Meanwhile, the Robo-Boogers arrive at Uranus, latch on to a spaceship that was examining Uranus, and return to Earth. Captain Underpants, back in his original body, attempts to help, but finds that Melvin now has his powers. Melvin refuses to help unless George and Harold change the comic they wrote about him.

The trio vanquish the Robo-Boogers with Vitamin C, with Captain Underpants using a Squishy to finish the Robo-Boogers off. They are questioned by Eyewitness Crew, but Melvin dubs himself "Big Melvin" and begins to claim responsibility for subduing the Robo-Boogers. George and Harold reacquire the Combine-o-Tron and restore Captain Underpants's superpowers. Melvin wails in despair, but he is soon confronted and chased by an angry mob of people Captain Underpants disturbed while in Melvin's body.

As revealed in the eleventh book, shortly after the events of the eighth book, the Turbo-Toilet returns from Uranus and disturbs Melvin's experiments. Melvin finds one of Mr. Krupp's toenails, uses it to acquire Captain Underpants's abilities (since the toenail has Mr. Krupp's DNA), and subdues the Turbo-Toilet. Once again known as Big Melvin, he basks in the fame of being a superhero, but he eventually becomes tired because citizens were calling him for minute problems. He tracks down George and Harold using a GPS in Sulu's robotic body, leading to him finding them in the tenth book and sending them back to the present in the eleventh book. He then warns them of the Toilet's return before disappearing. Melvin can be seen watching the teachers go crazy.

In book 12 Melvin was sitting next to Yesterday George and Harold who had been sprayed to behave Melvin admitted he was starting to like them now. It's unknown if Melvin was sprayed but if he was it's assumed after the story ended the effets wore off as they only last 24 hours. In a Dog-man book Melvin and Mr. Krupp end up chasing George and Harold who win an award.

In the Animated Series

Melvin appears an a major antagonist and sometimes an anti-hero in the TV show. In episode 12 of The Epic Tales of Captain Underpants, George and Harold are told by sentient gas cloud Smartsy Fartsy to steal Mr. Krupp's rule book, deliver it to school superintendent Vil Endenemys, and get Krupp fired.

in episode 13 Endenemys reveals that he is Melvin from the future. He fires Krupp, and expels George and Harold.

In the first episode of season 2, Melvin and Endenemys (who has become Melvin-Borg) succeeded in taking over Jerome Horwitz Elementary School (which has been renamed Melvin Sneedly Elementary) and replaced all the teachers with robots.

In episode 3 of season 2, Melvin-Borg uses bee DNA to turn the teachers into a hive-mind, but he injects too much into one teacher (Ms. Ribble), turning her into Queen Zombee.

In the film

In the film, Melvin appears as the secondary antagonist and the minion of Professor Poopypants. He first appears in the class room where tells George and Harold he told on them since someone has to stand up for Mr Krupp. During the Invention Convention, he debuts many inventions, concluding with the Turbo Toilet 2000. However, things go awry when George and Harold tamper with the Turbo Toilet 2000, reprogramming it to shoot out toilet papers. However, Melvin is able to catch them in the act thanks to another invention of his, the Tattle Turtle (a toy turtle with a nanny cam hidden inside). In order to get extra credit, Melvin turns over the Tattle Turtle's footage to Mr. Krupp, who then decides to put George and Harold in separate classes for the rest of the school year as punishment for their pranks and to annihilate their friendship.

Later, after Professor Poopypants is hired as the new science teacher, he notices that Melvin is the only student who never laughed at his silly name. After studying his brain, Poopypants discovers that Melvin's brain lacks a Haha-Guffaw-Chucklotamus, the gland that causes laughter, which is why he has no sense of humor. Upon making this discovery, Poopypants recruits Melvin to help rid the world of laughter. To do this, they turn the Turbo-Toilet into a giant mech, fueling it with rotten leftovers from the cafeteria and equipping it with a ray gun linked to Melvin's brain that erases humor.

Poopypants and Melvin attack the school and transform all the students (except George and Harold) into humorless zombies. Captain Underpants tries to stop them, but is quickly subdued due to not having any actual superpowers. While the Turbo Toilet is busy beating up Captain Underpants, George and Harold climb on top of the robot and try to reason with Melvin to get him to stop Poopypants. Melvin simply alerts Poopypants, who eventually manages to rob George and Harold of their humor. However, Poopypants accidentally restores their sarcastic sense of humor by saying "Uranus", which was the first thing that they had laughed at together. Meanwhile, Captain Underpants, having been swallowed whole by the Turbo Toilet, gains superpowers from the leftovers and defeats the Turbo-Toilet. Also, the ray gun explodes because Poopypants overloaded it with power, which restores everyone's sense of humor and sending Melvin falling to the ground. Though Melvin survives the fall, he is then crushed by toilet paper however he also survived that but then is accidentally rolled away by the kids. His fate is unknown, though since he survived it's possible he was punished for his actions. However, considering the kids rolled him away, the cops arrived after the chaos ended and were scared away by the bird and George and Harold never tell what happened to any adults not to mention a probable lack of evidence it's also likely Melvin got away scot-free.

With us was Jimbo Jones, Dolph Starbeam and Kearney Zzyzwicz.

The camera zoomed in on George and Harold.

Captain Underpants Narrator: See these two? Meet George Beard and Harold Hutchins. George is the kid on the left with the tie and flattop. Harold is the kid on the right with the t-shirt and the bad haircut. Remember that now.

Jimbo: So this Melvin kid is a much better nerd than Martin?

Me: Oh yeah. And he is a much better target to pick on than Martin because he's a nerd.

Dolph: We'll have to see it for ourselves.

Kearney: But something tells me that you all hate this guy.

George Beard: You bet we do Kearney. He is our arch-nemesis and he hates us with a vengeance and he is also the monster that destroyed our education and cost Mr. Krupp his job.

Harold Hutchins: Yeah.

Luan: He called me a bad comedian and I nearly went ballistic on him.

Me: I remember that.

Nico: That's awful.

Me: It was.

Krupp: George. Harold. Be honest with me. Would I have turned out like Rotwood if I hadn't changed my ways?

George Beard: Not at all.

Me: Nico wouldn't have either.

Harold Hutchins: Nico's heart is too strong to be corrupted like that.

May: That's right.

Nico: Yeah.

We arrived at Melvin's cell and we saw that he was watching TV.

Melvin: Well, well if it isn't the loser patrol.

Me: Melvin Sneedly the future evil genius.

I unlocked his cell door and we went in.

Me: I have some new friends for you to play with.

Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney then walked up to him and Melvin gulped and they beat the living shit out of him and Nico, George, Harold, Luan and Bart joined in and pulverized him.

When it was done, Melvin was in the prison infirmary wrapped in a full body cast beaten to within an inch of his life.

Bart: And Melvin, this is for you.

Bart pulled down his pants and mooned him and shoved his bare-naked butt in his face and we laughed hysterically at him.

Me: OH THAT IS SO FUNNY!

Nico: YEAH!

We later went back home. Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney got jobs at the prison working as prison guards and so they could torment Melvin.

---

At Gotham Royal York High School, I was getting ready for Gym Class. I was putting my gym clothes on.

Me: This is gonna be awesome! I heard we're trying out the High School's new indoor swimming pool for the first time.

Nico: I can't wait to see how big it is.

We went to the pool and we saw a huge swimming pool that was 200 feet long, 75 feet wide and the deepest part was 12 feet deep.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: What a swimming pool!

Vince: This is an Olympic Size swimming pool.

Carol: Try out for the olympics in this one.

Laney: You sure can.

Lincoln: Yep.

But then we smelled a nasty odor in the air.

Me: P.U.!

Sam S.L.: Is it that corpse we killed?

Lynn: I don't think so. I know this smell all too well. It's stinky used gym socks.

Laney: It smells horrible.

Then we saw numerous stinky gym socks crawl out of the locker rooms and they smelled really horrible and the socks went into the pool and they formed into a huge and giant octopus made entirely of stinky socks! It was the SMELLY SOCKTOPUS! It roared ferociously!

Maria: Is that an octopus made out of socks?!

Me: It sure is! And it smells horrible!

Smelly Socktopus: I will eat your socks and destroy you all!

Me: He can talk!?

Smelly Socktopus: You are gonna be a special death soufflé when I'm done with you!

Nico: Not if I have anything to say about it!

Myotismon, Captain Cold and Chalmers appeared.

Me: Myotismon, Captain Cold and Chalmers.

Chalmers: Yep.

Myotismon: How are you feeling, Nico?

Nico: I'm feeling fine. Thanks for asking.

Captain Cold: That's good. But I don't blame you if you really aren't. Especially after what Rotwood did.

Nico: Trust me. I'm fine now.

Chalmers: Glad to hear it.

A figure came flying in and it was STORM OWL!

Storm Owl: Storm Owl at your service!

Storm Owl fires two homing bullets of wind at Air Man.

Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and blew them away.

Me: This is gonna be good!

George Beard: Ready Mr. Krupp?

Krupp: Yep.

SNAP!

George snapped his fingers and Mr. Krupp turned into CAPTAIN UNDERPANTS! He went down to his underwear and got a red picnic blanket for a cape.

Captain Underpants: TRA LA LA! So the Stinky Socktopus is back huh?

Harold Hutchins: Yep he's back.

But then I got my face slashed with a black rose that cut me across my face as it went into the ground!

Me: A rose? Where did that come from?

Akiza: It's not mine.

We saw a figure standing in the shadows and we saw that it was TUXEDO MASK! But this Tuxedo Mask was the one that was poisoned with evil from Queen Beryl before Shanan killed her.

Me: Prince Endymion. What are you doing here?

Tuxedo Mask: I am not the Prince Endymion you know. I have come here for the Imperium Silver Crystal.

Shanan gasped.

Shanan: Dad! This is the Tuxedo Mask that fought me when he was corrupted with Queen Beryl's evil.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: So he is now against us!

Shanan: I will face him.

Troy: Time to take out the trash!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Electronic Brigade!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Denziman rangers.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them!

Shanan kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into the wall. He got up.

Evil Tuxedo Mash: For that I will kill you!

Shanan: I'm not the same as I was when I faced you. I am far more powerful than ever before.

Evil Tuxedo Mask: It doesn't matter how strong you are! I will kill you!

Shanan then flared up her power and punched him in the face and knocked him back and he spit up some blood and he unsheathed his sword and Shanan did the same with her sword.

Shanan: You will pay for your crimes.

They went at each other and clashed violently in a massive clash of incredible fury. Sparks were flying everywhere with each clash and setting much of the entire pool on fire and it was unbelievable. The Masters of Evil came.

Captain Cold: Good. If that curse didn't kill them, I would've done so myself.

Me: We all would.

May: Now that Nico's himself again, do you want to celebrate Rotwood and his group's deaths with a cookout in a few days.

Chalmers: (smiles) We'd like that.

Me: A cookout is a great idea.

Maria: Great! See you there!

The masters teleported out.

We got back to gym class.

Krupp: Me too Luan.

Me: But this was awesome facing a funny monster that you guys faced before.

Harold Hutchins: It sure was.

Luan: (To the viewers) Always take care of your clothes and make sure that they don't wind up like the Smelly Socktopus.

Me: Yep.

We laughed.

THE END

See you all tomorrow.

Power of the Tree of Beginning

At the estate we were having an awesome party. It was a swimming party. We were all in our swim clothes and we were having an awesomely fun time. The Masters of Evil were with us and they too were in their swim clothes. Vypra was in a smoking hot purple bikini. Carly was in an orange bikini and Misty Tredwell was in a green bikini. They were so smoking hot that Jack Atlas and me melted at their beauty. May was in an awesome blue bikini and Nico had steam coming out of his ears when he saw her. Lori, Carol, Becky, and Nazz were soaking up some sun and more. Akiza was in a smoking hot red bikini with roses on it.

Most of us had smoking hot swim clothes. Lincoln and Laney were cooking by the grill.

Nico: This is an awesome party!

Dark Spicer: It sure is! I love swimming and it's awesome!

Sailor Neptune: It sure is. It's one of my favorite sports.

Me: It's perfect for you Michelle. And Neptune is named after the Roman God of the Seas and you and Sailor Mercury move very swiftly in the water.

Sailor Mercury: That's true.

Nico: That is so cool.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Lily: Yeah!

Clawful: I'm glad you're in a better mood now, Nico.

Nico: Thanks Clawful.

Ed: Swimming is really fun!

Sophocles: (sees Horsea and Poliwag making out in the water) Well, they're really having a nice time in the water.

Me: Aww. So cute.

Vypra: This is an awesome party.

Me: It sure is.

Carly Carmine: Yeah!

I fired a water gun blast at Vypra.

Vypra: (Laughs) Nice shot!

Me: Thanks. Hey May!

May: Yeah!

I fired a water gun blast at her and she laughed.

May: (Mischievous Smirk) Oh now you're gonna get it!

Me: In your dreams May!

I fired more blasts of water at her.

I flew into the air and fired blasts of water at Carol and Lori.

Lori: HEY! (Playful) Oh now you're gonna get it J.D.!

Me: Come and get me!

Lincoln then pushed Lori into the pool and she was all wet!

We laughed at that.

Nico: (Laughs) That is so funny!

Bobby: (Laughs) J.D. and bro got you good babe!

Ronnie Anne: (Laughs) That is so funny!

Dark Spicer: (Laughs) Your asses got squirted!

We laughed some more!

Max: So, when are you going to propose to my sister?

Nico: What makes you ask that question?

Max: (laughs) Oh, c'mon! Me and May were discussing that before Squidward knocked me out.

Nico: Look, Max. I'll propose to May when I'm good and ready.

Frenzy: Look, Nico. We don't mean to rush you. But if you don't propose to May soon, you may never get the chance.

Nico: You're right.

Lincoln: Lunch is ready!

We had burgers and beans and fries and more.

Me: (Eats a burger) Mmm! Good burger Lincoln.

Kevin (EENE): (Eats a hot dog) You make a good dog L-Surfer.

Lincoln: L-Surfer?

Kevin (EENE): It's what some kids are calling you now after you surfed Humungadunga and became a legend.

Luan: You are awesome for that bro.

Edd: "Swimming certainly is an invigorating way to have fun! Don't you agree, Eddy?"

Eddy: You said it Double D. You having fun Luan?

Luan: You know it Eddy.

Eddy: [A bucket hits him.] "Hey watch it, Ahab! Trying to have some fun here!"

We saw that Ed is guzzling gravy from various containers.

Edd: [worried] "Ed! Is that-gravy you're consuming?"

Me: It sure is Gravy.

Varie: That's a lot of gravy for one person to handle.

Eddy: You should see what he had in his room Varie. He has a bathtub full of gravy in his bathroom.

Varie: Geez!

Me: I remember seeing that. That is a lot of gravy.

Lana: I'll say.

We all line up to dive from the low diving board. Ed brings up the rear, still guzzling gravy.

Ed: "My turn!"

Ed does a horribly clumsy dive, landing in the pool awkwardly. As he dives, a box falls out of his underwear.

Me: Ed you are a funny guy.

Ed: [picking it up] "Oh, silly me. I dropped my ready-instant gravy mix. Good thing it didn't open up, huh guys?"

The box splits along the bottom and powdered gravy pours out of it, turning the pool brown.

Edd: "Ed! You've contaminated the pool with the thickened gelatin of meat drippings!"

Ed: "There's plenty for everyone! Who needs a ladle?" [He holds up several in between his toes.]

All of us look at the gravy filled pool.

Eddy: Are you kidding me, Lumpy?!

Me: Now all we need is a massive truckload of mashed potatoes.

Rewind: Well, I guess that's the end of the pool party.

Me: I got this.

I snapped my fingers and the pool was all clean and fresh and I had the gravy moved onto a giant hot tub full of mashed potatoes and there was enough for Ed.

Ed: Oh boy!

We laughed as Ed went over and ate the potatoes and gravy.

Me: Boy Ed is so funny!

Eddy: That's lumpy for you. But it was because of Ed's love of gravy that we formed that bet.

Mary Knudson: I remember that. Some of you guys couldn't go 1 whole day without your favorite things. Rolf couldn't eat any meat, Ed couldn't eat any gravy, Jonny couldn't have Plank tell him what to do, Kevin couldn't call the Eds dorks, Eddy couldn't yell with a voice that's as loud as an air horn and Double D couldn't say words that have more than one syllable.

Kevin (EENE): Yeah I remember that. You guys should've seen what was happening to Ed.

Mary Knudson: I know. Ed looked like he was suffering from extreme Heroin Withdrawal. I called what he was suffering from Gravy Withdrawal Syndrome. And Rolf looked like an anorexic. He was all skin and bones and he couldn't even open the cafeteria door.

Rolf: Rolf remembers that.

Mary Knudson: Yeah he looked like he was about to die from starvation.

Jared: I remember that. I can't even begin to imagine going 7 days without fruit and vegetables let alone 1 day.

Nico: No kidding. That sounds crazy.

Eddy: Yeah and during that time we found out that Ed is allergic to Butterscotch Pudding.

Vypra: (Skeptical) Seriously?

Mary Knudson: Yeah he told me himself. It's so unusual. I was skeptical but I didn't know it was possible.

Laney: No kidding.

Me: Boy, Ed is allergic to rabbits, eels and butterscotch pudding.

Luna: I'm allergic to rabbits too. No offense Warren.

Warren: None taken.

Betty: We understand.

We laughed.

Hydro Man: How did you guys find out that he was allergic to all that stuff?

Mary Knudson: We found out that Ed was allergic to Butterscotch pudding when he mistook a pot full of butterscotch pudding for gravy and dove into it. We found out that it was Fun With Butterscotch Pudding Tuesday and we found out about it from that.

Shiv: Very strange.

Mary Knudson: Yeah.

Akiza: And how did you guys find out he was allergic to rabbits?

Eddy: We were doing a pet cleaning scam and we were washing and cleaning all of Rolf's farm animals. Ed was charged with washing his rabbits and he then swelled up like a blimp and he had ugly purple spots and hives on him.

Edd: We did some tests on him and found out about it through them.

Eddy: And we found out that Ed was allergic to eels after we were given the Eels of Forgiveness from Rolf after I was in a duel with him.

Kevin (EENE): Oh yeah! I remember that.

Vypra: Geez.

Carly Carmine: Thank goodness he's not allergic to everything.

Misty Tredwell: That would be catastrophic.

Me: No kidding.

Laney: Luckily me and Lisa made epinephrine shots for all the allergies we have.

Vince: That's a relief.

Lana: Thank goodness.

Me: But this is one of the best pool parties we've ever had. And it was for the defeat of Rotwood and his group. (Holds up a glass full of soda) DEATH TO ROTWOOD!

Everyone: DEATH TO ROTWOOD!

We clinked our glasses and we cheered.

We talked about all kinds of good things and had an awesome party.

* * *

Later the next day we were watching TV and having fun.

Me: Boy that pool party was awesome!

Nico: It sure was.

Laney: The best ever.

Me: Yep.

Ash and his friends came in.

Ash: Hey guys! I have a special place for you all to see.

Me: What is it Ash?

Ash: You guys will love it.

We followed ash. He was taking us to a really amazing place that he, May, Max and Brock went to a while back.

---

CANADIAN ROCKIES, SASKATCHEWAN, CANADA

---

We were over in the Canadian Rockies in Saskatchewan, Canada and we saw a beautiful forested mountain region.

Me: So what is this place you want us to see Ash?

Ash: It is amazing.

We walked over a hill and we saw an unbelievable sight! We saw a mountain and in the middle of it was an awesome and ginormous tree!

It was a beautiful place called THE TREE OF BEGINNING!

---

The Tree of Beginning is an anime exclusive location that first appeared in Lucario and the Mystery of Mew. Mew's supposed "home". Although an anime exclusive, it is canon in the Pokémon universe. It is known as the tree that created all Pokémon that dwell on the earth, including the Legendaries. It's unknown if Mew or the tree came first, and it seems that will always remain a mystery.

Overview

Although it looks like a tree, it is actually a rock formation. At the start of the movie, there was a battle between a green side and a red side. Aaron goes to the Tree of Beginning to meet with Mew so that he could give Mew his own aura to stop the fighting. Once his aura went to Mew, Mew directed it to the tree of beginning. The tree of beginning connects all the crystals in the land, and once the aura was transferred to the tree, all the crystals glowed green, and the battle stopped. However, Aaron's life was sacrificed.

Long after that, Ash and his friends arrive at Cameran Palace. Later into the movie, Mew takes Ash's Pikachu and Team Rocket's Meowth to the Tree of Beginning. Ash, his friends, Lucario, and Team Rocket go looking for them at the tree of beginning. Once there, they find that the tree is actually alive even though the tree is a rock formation. They also find that there are white blood cells shaped like Pokémon that eat anything that are considered threats to the tree and that Regirock, Regice, and Registeel also protect the tree from threats as it's guardians. Ash finds Pikachu, but the tree's white blood cells attack him and his friends. He then tells Pikachu that he loves him, and then the tree's white bloods cells eat and kill him and his friends. Mew then tells the tree that Ash is a friend so that Ash and his friends are resurrected, but then the ecosystem began to start breaking down due the transfer of energy being disrupted with the system's immune response being too strong which lead to an out of balance causing the tree to go into shock, causing Mew to become sick. The green crystals begin turning red because of Mew's sickness, and the crystals. Luckily however, Lucario sacrificed himself to make the tree healthy again.

Mew and the tree are connected as one. Together, Mew and the Tree of Beginning created all Pokémon including Legendaries and the Sinnoh region Legendaries Arceus, Dialga, Palkia, and Giratina. No Pokémon except Mew is as powerful as the tree of beginning and the only life form the tree cannot eat or kill is Mew. Mew and the tree have vast knowledge of the entire world. The tree and Mew work together to create peace and prosperity for the Pokémon world and all who dwell on it.

---

We gasped.

Ash: There it is guys. The Tree of Beginning.

Me: WHOA!

Laney: It's amazing!

Maria: So this is the Tree of Beginning?

Ash: Yep. And this is where we helped the legendary Pokemon Lucario.

Me: Lucario the Aura Pokemon?

Ash: Yep.

Ash told us how he and his friends saw this tree and it was a story they will never forget! We gasped in shock!

Me: Whoa! So you were killed by the tree's immune system?

Ash: Yep.

Nico: That is awful!

Me: You guys have had brushes with death on several occasions.

Ash: Yes we have.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) That's incredible.

Me: Yeah.

Ash: Lets show you the castle we stayed at.

We followed Ash and we were at a beautiful castle called Cameran Palace.

---

Cameran Palace (Japanese: オルドラン Oldoran) is an anime-exclusive place in Kanto.

Info

The current ruler of this palace is Lady Ilene and her Pokémon, Mime Jr. at her side. It is located in the center of Rota, a kingdom on the Northside of Kanto. In the past, Lady Rin, Sir Aaron, and Lucario used to reside in this palace. Ash and friends traveled there for a Pokémon battle competition, and whoever wins will be crowned Guardian of the Aura for the year. Cameran Palace was featured in the movie Lucario and the Mystery of Mew.

---

Me: Wow! This castle is amazing.

Ash: This is Cameran Castle. It was home to Sir Aaron, who saved the entire kingdom from a big war between the green side and the red side. He went to the Tree of Beginning and gave his aura to a Mew that is bonded with the tree and he brought an end to the fighting at the very cost of his own life.

We gasped.

Me: He was a true hero.

We went into the castle and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow!

Ash: It's just as beautiful as I remember it.

Me: Wow.

?: Ash Ketchum, it's great to see you again.

We then saw 2 familiar faces that Ash and team have met at the castle. It was Kidd Summers and Lady Irene.

Ash: Lady Ilene, Kidd Summers!

Kidd: It's great to see you again Ash.

Lady Ilene: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome to Cameran Castle.

Me: It's an honor to be here and it's a pleasure to meet you Lady

Ilene.

Nico: Same here.

Lady Ilene: Your adventures are widely known all over the world and you have my most sincerest of apologies for what happened to you all with Rotwood and his group.

Me: We appreciate that milady.

Lady Ilene: No need for formalities. Just call me Ilene.

Me: Sorry. I have a tendency to show people of such high power respect and formalities when in their presence.

Lady Ilene: I understand.

Kidd: So you're all here to see the Tree of Beginning?

Me: We sure are.

Nico: We were told about what happened with Ash and the tree and how he and Lucario saved it.

Kidd: That was a daring adventure and ever since then I vowed to keep the tree a secret.

Me: That's a big responsibility. And I heard that Lucario sacrificed himself to save Mew and the Tree.

Lady Ilene: That's right. He and Sir Aaron are now up in heaven.

Me: Wow. Just like his best friend, Lucario is now with Sir Aaron.

Nico: Yep.

Lady Ilene: Let me show you a picture of Sir Aaron.

We followed her and we saw a picture of Sir Aaron and Lucario.

We gasped in shock.

Me: Wow! Wait a second.

I began to see a strong resemblance between Ash and Sir Aaron.

Me: Is it my imagination or does Sir Aaron look like Ash?

Ash: He does look like me.

Me: Maybe there are some ancestral ties to you and Sir Aaron, Ash.

Ash: That could be.

Me: Lisa?

Lisa Loud: Let me see here.

Lisa pulled a hair out of Ash's head.

Ash: OW!

Lisa Loud: Apologies Ash. But it will help determine if you and Sir Aaron of Camaran are related.

Ash: Oh.

Lisa pulled out her DNA scanner and she put the hair in and it came up with the results in Ash's family tree.

Lisa Loud: Hmm. Fascinating. Ash is indeed a direct descendent of Sir Aaron of Camaran.

We gasped in surprise.

Me: Wow! Ash you have some knighthood in your blood.

Serena: That's amazing!

Max: I didn't know about that!

Me: I don't think any of us did.

May: That is an amazing revelation.

Brock: No kidding. I didn't know you were related to the famous Sir Aaron, Ash.

Ash: Me neither.

Jessie (Pokemon): That explains how you have incredible bravery and courage when you faced us when we were on Team Rocket.

Meowth: That's amazing!

Jessie's Wobbuffet: Wobbuffet!

Me: Some of us all have family ancestries all across the board.

Bonnie: We sure do.

Nico: That is amazing though.

Ash: But I don't know Aura like Sir Aaron and Lucario do.

Fu: I know how to use Aura Style Jutsu and that is just as powerful.

Laney: Cool!

Me: Maybe we can bring Sir Aaron and Lucario back and have them teach you Ash.

Ash: I would like that.

Me: Here we go.

I snapped my fingers and out of a flash of energy and light came Sir Aaron and Lucario!

Lucario: Ash.

Sir Aaron: So you are my descendent.

Ash: It's an honor to meet you Sir Aaron.

Sir Aaron: Same to you Ash.

Me: Sir Aaron, Lucario, it's an honor to meet you both. We were told so much about what happened. You two are true heroes.

Sir Aaron: I thank you.

Me: Sorry we should introduce ourselves. I am J.D. Knudson and we are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Sir Aaron: It's an honor to meet you all.

Lucario: Same here.

Ash: Sir Aaron, can you and Lucario teach me how to use Aura?

Fu: Same with me? I know how to use Aura Style Jutsu.

Sir Aaron: I would be honored.

Serena, May, Max, Bonnie, Clemont, Misty, Brock, Dawn, Cilan, Iris, Tracie and Gary Oak and all of Ash's friends wanted to learn Aura as well.

They got to work and we saw them learn fast and more and it was awesome! They could now use the power of Spiritual Energy in its pure form as a method of power and a weapon. It was awesome. We later went to the Tree of Beginning and when we got inside it we saw what could only be described as an amazing and unforgettable sight! It was a massive hollow rock formation and it was a gigantic terrarium home to thousands and thousands of species of Pokemon all across the board and it was incredible!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! This is unbelievable!

Laney: Incredible! Look at all the Pokemon!

Lincoln: I've never seen so many of them!

Me: This whole tree reminds me of the legendary Yggdrasil the World Tree from Norse Myth. This is amazing that it is home to this many Pokemon.

Varie: It's an incredible sight!

Kidd: It sure is. I will never forget all this.

Ash: Me neither.

Vince: This is incredible! It's like a huge terrarium in here.

Me: Just what I was gonna say partner.

Carly Carmine: It sure is breathtaking.

Me: I think that this tree shouldn't harm anyone human or Pokemon. When we take the Regis and the Antibodies down, we're gonna ask Mew if the tree can let anyone with a pure heart and anything in.

Ash: Good idea.

Me: I think the Antibodies and the Regis are a cancer to the Tree of Beginning.

Nico: Yeah.

Ash: I'll catch the Regice.

Serena: I can catch the Regirock.

Brock: And I can catch the Registeel.

Me: Good idea guys.

Then we saw Katnappe, Misty Tredwell and Snake appear.

Me: Katnappe, Misty and Snake.

Misty Tredwell: Yep.

Me: Glad you guys had a lot of fun at our swimming party.

Snake: It was awesome dude.

Katnappe: We had a lot of fun with you guys.

Me: We're glad.

Kidd: So you guys are part of the Masters of Evil?

Misty Tredwell: That's right.

William: You sure we should be battling here?

Katnappe: Relax. You guys just focus on fighting us.

Misty Tredwell: Then, when the antibodies and Regis get here, we'll handle the rest.

Me: I get it. It's part of a trap you have planned.

Katnappe: That's right. But this place is really something!

Misty Tredwell: It sure is. It's incredible that this is here in Canada.

Me: It sure is. We were amazed at what we saw here.

?: Let me help too.

We saw a figure come out and it was SPLIT MUSHROOM!

Split Mushroom: Call me… Split Mushroom! (performs a somersault rolling attack on Plant Man)

Plant Man kicked him back.

Me: Nice. Okay. Starfire, Persephone, Fiona, Nico, you all know what to do.

Nico: Got it!

Me: But be careful in here guys. This whole place is very important to the world of Pokemon and we don't want to damage it.

Starfire: Okay.

They went at them.

---

Battle 1: Katnappe

---

Starfire was facing Katnappe.

Starfire: Lets make this fight enjoyable.

Katnappe: You got it.

Starfire kicked Katnappe in the face and punched her all over and kicked her in the stomach and knocked her down.

Starfire: That was fun.

---

Battle 2: Misty Tredwell

---

Persephone was facing Misty Tredwell.

Misty Tredwell: No Duel Monsters this time. It's part of a trap.

Persephone: I know. Lets do it.

Persephone punched Misty in the stomach and kicked her in the back of the head and knocked her down.

Persephone: Nice.

---

Fiona was facing Snake.

Snake: Lets do this dudette.

Fiona: Lets.

Fiona punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and knocked him down.

Fiona: Nice!

---

Battle 4: Split Mushroom

---

Nico was facing Split Mushroom.

Nico: This is gonna be fun.

Split Mushroom: Yep. Lets dance.

Nico kicked him in the face and knocked him down.

Nico: Fun.

---

They were knocked down and then we saw REGICE, REGIROCK, REGISTEEL and the Tree of Beginning ANTIBODIES APPEAR!

Me: Now!

Misty Tredwell snapped her fingers and we were on the fiery volcano planet and home of the Pyronite's, Heatblast's species, PYROS!

---

Pyros is a wide-open landscape of endless natural wonders: Infernal plumes erupt miles into the atmosphere and raging rivers of molten lava cut massive swaths across the fire-filled tundra. On the world of Pyros, rivers of molten lava cut through the endless fire-singed tundra. The planet is covered in active volcanoes. The intense heat makes the planet uninhabitable for most other species, such as humans. The largest mountain on Pyros is Mount Helios, though it is also an active volcano. Dropping an Ice Egg into it will cause a chain reaction that freezes the surface of the entire planet and prevents Pyros from overheating.

---

Me: Whoa!

Nico: Wow! Look at this planet!

Misty Tredwell: This is the Planet Pyros. It's Heatblast's home planet and it is home to the Pyronites.

Me: Wow! So this is the planet Pyros. It's a volcano planet.

Ben: I've always wondered what Heatblast's home planet was like.

Riley: This place is really infernal!

Nico: It's really hot here.

Alan Albright: This is amazing! I've always wondered what the home of my Pyronite heritage is like.

Misty Tredwell: You're part Pyronite?

Alan Albright: That's right. I'm half human and half Pyronite. My mother is human and my father is a Pyronite.

Me: But this is amazing how we're here on Pyros.

Shanan: It sure is and we are also 3,820 light-years away from Earth.

Nico: Wow.

Me: We can sightsee later. Lets take them down.

Katnappe: I'll take the Regice.

Misty Tredwell: I'll face the Regirock.

Snake: And I'll face the Registeel dudes.

Split Mushroom: And that leaves me with the Antibody.

Then we saw the Antibody grab him!

Split Mushroom: Hasta la vista, assholes!

He glowed and then exploded with incredible power in a massive explosion of fire!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We shielded ourselves from the blast!

Me: WHOA!

When the smoke cleared we saw that the Antibody was badly discombobulated and melted all over from the power of the blast and really mangled up.

Me: WHOA! That was awesome!

Laney: He blew himself up to slow down the antibody.

Piccolo: This is like what happened with the battle with Majin Buu.

Nico: No kidding!

Me: Lets power up and get them guys!

Gia: I can't believe I'm saying this. But we're not gonna let Split Mushroom's sacrifice be in vain!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Jungle Fury!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jungle Fury Rangers.

We went at them!

---

Battle 5: REGICE

---

Starfire and Katnappe were facing the Iceberg Pokemon, Regice.

Starfire: This is gonna burn him!

Starfire blasted Regice all over with powerful blasts of energy and

Katnappe blasted him with cat blasts and more and the blasts hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Katnappe: Meet my Pokemon!

Katnappe called out her Pokemon. She had a Persian, Liepard, Purugly, Mega Liepard, and Absol.

Starfire: Wow! Awesome Pokemon choices. I never saw a Mega Liepard before.

Katnappe: Just had my second Liepard turn into a Mega Liepard.

Starfire: Cool!

Katnappe had her Pokemon fire their attacks and they hit Regice and explode!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Regice was down and Ash threw a Pokeball and it caught him!

Ash: Yeah!

Starfire: Awesome job Ash!

Ash: Thanks Starfire.

Katnappe: Well done.

---

Battle 6: REGIROCK

---

Persephone and Misty Tredwell were facing the Rock Peak Pokemon, Regirock.

Persephone: Lets do this!

Misty Tredwell: Lets! I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CCARAYHUA!

She summoned the Lizard Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua!

Persephone and Misty fired waves of green energy and they hit Regirock and Ccarayhua fired blasts of green fire and the blast hit Regirock and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Misty Tredwell: Meet my Pokemon.

She called out her Pokemon. She had a Serperior, Salazzle and a Mega Seviper!

Persephone: Wow! A Mega Seviper.

Misty Tredwell: Yep. I figured it would be perfect for me as a user of reptiles.

Persephone: Nice!

They fired energy blasts and her pokemon fired blasts of power and they hit Regirock and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Regirock was knocked down and Serena threw a Pokeball and she caught the Regirock!

Serena: Yeah!

Misty Tredwell: Well done Serena.

Snake: Meet my Pokemon dudes.

Snake called out his Pokemon. He had a Mega Tentacruel, Mega Heatmor, Mega Chandelure, Mega Lunatone and Mega Solrock!

Fiona: Wow! You have a Mega Tentacruel, Mega Heatmore, Mega Chandelure, Mega Lunatone and Mega Solrock? That is awesome!

Snake: Thanks Fiona.

Fiona: Awesome!

They fired blasts of energy and more and they hit Registeel and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Registeel was knocked down and Brock threw a Pokeball and he caught it. He caught his first Legendary Pokemon.

Fiona: Nice one Brock.

Snake: Ha ha! Way to go dude.

Brock: Thanks guys.

Battle 8: ANTIBODY!

We regrouped and we were facing the Tree of Beginning Antibody!

Me: Lets get this ugly blob!

Laney: Yeah!

We went at it and I fired waves of fire and burned it all over and Nico and Vince fired waves of lightning and crystal and burned and electrocuted it all over the place.

Wrath of Ivan Ooze!

We were over in the world of Perim and we were exploring the ominous canyon of Prexxor Chasm.

---

Prexxor Chasm is one of the most dangerous locations in all of Perim. Many large cracks appear on the mantle of Prexxor Chasm, hence its name. The danger here lies not only in the location, but also the creatures. Prexxor Chasm is not densely populated, and appears to be ancient, as seen by the lack of technology or culture.

A huge, goo-like disease, known as the Blight, took residence here, until resident Creature Smildon, Chaotic Player MajorTom, and Caretaker Garv were able to destroy the Blight.

Despite the Blight's dissapearance, the reputation of Prexxor Chasm continued for many years, with Creatures still avoiding and fearing this Location to this day.

The few Creatures that do live here are plagued with constant earthquakes.

---

William: So this is Prexxor Chasm?

Tom Majors: Yep. It's pretty ominous place huh?

Me: It sure is.

Teen Titans Bumblebee: What kind of creatures live here?

Sarah Gunnerson: All kinds. Ursis, Cromaxx, Smildon, Proboscar, Ariak and Glektod.

Kaz: And there was also a terrifying green goo monster called The Blight.

Tom Marors: Yeah it was awful.

Tom told us all about it and we were shocked.

Sixshot: That Blight thing is probably like a monstrous version of Goop.

Ben: It sure does.

Me: Hey look.

We saw a bunch of creatures and they were Smildon, Proboscar, Ariak and the others that Sarah told us about.

Wideload: Hi there! You must be Smildon.

Smildon: I sure am. Team Loud Phoenix Storm, it's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here.

Glektod: We heard that you all destroyed the M'arrillians and defeated that rogue monster Simon and his friends.

Me: Yep. They got what they deserved.

Nico: They sure did.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: And it's sad that you all aren't part of a tribe.

But we were more than happy to get them into a tribe and we put the Ursis, Cromaxx, Smildon, Proboscar, Ariak and Glektod into the Overworld Tribe.

---

Later back at the estate, we were watching TV and playing card games.

Me: Hey Tommy, I heard that your most dangerous enemy was Ivan Ooze right?

Tommy Oliver: That's right. He was awful.

Tommy went over his history and it was awful.

---

Ivan Ooze is the main antagonist of the 1995 Power Rangers film Mighty Morphin Power Rangers: The Movie.

He was portrayed by Paul Freeman, who also played René Belloq in Indiana Jones and Raiders of the Lost Ark, James Moriarty in Without a Clue and Reverend Philip Shooter in Hot Fuzz.

Despite having been trapped, Ivan was somehow aware of what was going on outside of his prison; he would later complain about having missed the Black Plague, the Spanish Inquisition, and the Brady Bunch reunion. By the time of the Renaissance, he was suffering from a Charley horse.

Ivan's hyperlock chamber was unearthed 6,000 years later by an Angel Grove construction crew. Zordon sent the Rangers to hide the chamber once more, but they were beaten to the scene by the evil galactic spellcaster duo Rita Repulsa and Lord Zedd. Zedd released Ooze, and asked for Zordon's destruction in return. Ooze enthusiastically agreed, and breached the Command Center's security with ease. He demolished the Command Center, severely weakened Alpha 5, and destroyed Zordon's time warp, causing him to age rapidly. With the destruction of the Command Center, the Rangers lost their powers, forcing them to go on a quest for a new power source.

Ooze traveled to the Moon Palace on the planet Earth's moon, and once there easily deposed both Lord Zedd and Rita Repulsa, trapping them within a snowglobe. Their henchmen Goldar and Mordant swore allegiance to Ivan rather than join Rita and Zedd in captivity. Ivan then began brainwashing the parents of Angel Grove into digging up the parts of his Ecto-Morphicons. Once the Ecto-Morphicons were restored fully, he reanimates them and sent them out to destroy the city while ordering the parents to leap to their doom back at the construction site. Ivan then spent his time in the observatory with Goldar, watching the destruction his machines wrecked upon the city.

After the Rangers managed to restore their powers on Phados, they returned to Angel Grove and battled Ivan's machines with their new Ninja Zords. Using these Zords, they were able to destroy one of the Morphicons, Scorpitron. Ivan combined with the other Morphicon, Hornitor, and took on the Rangers himself. The battle progressed into outer space, and though Ivan consistently had the upper hand, he and Hornitor were destroyed when the Ninja Mega Falconzord kicked him in the groin and knocked him into the path of Ryan's Comet, which happened to be passing. The comet destroyed Ivan on impact. Ivan's death also resulted in the brainwashed parents returning back to normal and Zedd and Rita being freed from their snowglobe prison.

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: I remember all that. That was intensely terrifying.

Nico: Yeah.

Lana: No kidding.

Lola: Yuck!

Kimberly Ann Hart: That was my first reaction when we met him.

Naruto: Looks like we found our next target.

Maria: Are we going to use the simulator to track down Ooze?

Me: Yep. We're gonna all take him down.

Saïx, Shiv and Skinner appeared.

Me: Saïx, Shiv and Skinner.

Skinner: We heard you guys were going after Ivan Ooze.

Shiv: Cool! He was a dangerous foe from what I remember.

Me: So you guys are here to fight us?

Saix: Ivan Ooze sent us to slow you all down while he completes his plan.

Stanford: You're not really going to do what he says, are you?

Shiv: (laughs) Nope! We'll have our usual battles against you guys. And then, we'll help you guys waste him. He's not on our list of Power Rangers Monsters to be revived anyway.

Me: I see. So we'll use this as a warmup fight like with the battle with the Negamoon Clan.

Shiv: Exactly.

?: It'll be fun to face you guys too.

A figure came out and it was SONIMAX from episode 23 of Jungle Fury!

---

Sonimax was a member of Phantom Beast Warriors. He used the style of the boar and was the master of sound based attacks. Sonimax fought in the first Beast War and battled against Dai Shi Clan and Pai Zhuq academy and was destroyed along with his allies. However, the Crystal Eyes were left behind and held the power to resurrect them. In the twenty-third episode Jellica used the Crystal Eyes and resurrected them and ordered her to have them help her destroy Dai Shi. However Scorch, Snapper and Whiger betrayed her and destroyed and then joined Dai Shi. Sonimax and other Phantom Beast Warriors were summoned by Scorch. Sonimax and other warriors promised to serve Dai Shi. Then Sonimax was sent by Scorch and Snapper to attack Ocean Bluff. Sonimax attacked the city and encountered the Jungle Fury Rangers. He fought Casey, Theo, Dominic and RJ. He was winning. Then Lily arrived after her defeat at the hands of Snapper. Together the Rangers defeated him by combining their powers into a massive energy ball and firing it at him, vaporising him. Then Sonimax enlarged himself. Power Rangers formed the Jungle Master Megazord combined with Elephant Power and took him down. Sonimax was nearly defeated by the Rhino Pride Megazord, but Snapper appeared and disabled Megazords with his gravity attack. Sonimax left.

In the twenty-fifth episode Camille approached Sonimax, Lepus and Osiris and asked them to give her some of them Rinzin Power. They thought she was joking and declined her offer.

In the thirtieth episode Scorch and Snapper sent Sonimax, Lepus and Osiris to destroy Camille, as they decided she was the last tie in Jarrod's humanity and must be eliminated for Dai Shi's sake. They attacked and overwhelmed her, but Jarrod arrived, who temporarily took control over his body, and destroyed Sonimax and Osiris, saving Camille. Lepus escaped but was soon destroyed by the Power Rangers.

In the final battle Sonimax was revived by Dai Shi, but was finally destroyed by Jungle Fury Elephant Ranger.

---

Casey Rhodes: Sonimax!

Sonimax: Its been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You fought in the first Beast War and were resurrected by Jellica with the Crystal Eyes and she ordered you to help her destroy Dai Shi. But you betrayed her and joined Dai Shi and became one of the Phantom Beast Warriors.

Sonimax: Good memory on you J.D. Mistress Vypra told us that you watched us all on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode and we dealt with 4 of Sigma's robots in a row. Nice to face one of the Power Rangers enemies for a change.

Sonimax: Indeed.

Me: And not only that but you're the first of the Phantom Beast Warriors that we have to face.

Sonimax: That's right.

Casey Rhodes: You might have gotten lucky against us last time, Sonimax. But this time, we're ready for you!

Sonimax: (laughs) We'll see about that! (to Jarrod) And I still remember how you killed me the first time.

Jarrod: How can I forget.

Me: All right lets fight outside in the training yards.

Saïx: Good idea.

We went outside to the training yards and we were ready to face them.

Carol: Lets do it!

---

Battle 1: Saïx

---

Carol: This is gonna be a good warmup.

Saïx: Indeed. Shall we dance?

Carol formed a claymore sword of atomic energy.

Carol: Lets dance.

Saïx summoned his Lunatic Claymore and they went at each other and clashed powerfully in a massive clash of power. Sparks were flying all over and setting some of the grounds on fire. But then a violent electrical storm was forming above us. Lightning flashed in the skies above us and it struck Carol all over as she was using King Kong's powers from the 1962 movie King Kong VS Godzilla. Lightning hit Carol 10 times and her power was enhanced and amplified 1,000-fold!

Carol: Wow! King Kong's powers of electricity making me stronger is really working!

Carol went at Saïx and grabbed him and lightning was surging from her hands as it was electrocuting him all over!

Carol fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted Saïx all over with billions of volts of electricity and she was really shocking him all over the place with incredible power! She zapped him all over and knocked him down.

Carol: That was electrifying.

---

Battle 2: Shiv

---

Lynn was facing Shiv.

Lynn: This is gonna be good Shiv.

Shiv: You know it Lynn.

Lynn formed a sword of lava and Shiv formed his arms into blades of light. They went and clashed with incredible power and sparks and fire were igniting much of the training yards all over and she kicked him in the face and knocked him down.

Lynn: Yeah!

---

Battle 3: Seymour Skinner

---

Dana was facing Seymour Skinner.

Dana: Lets make this interesting.

Dana then was enveloped in a vortex of snow and ice and she turned into DANA ICE!

Skinner: You look like Ice!

Dana: I do don't I? But I got powers similar to hers and I transformed into this.

Skinner: I see.

Dana: Lets do it!

Dana went at Skinner and kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the face again and knocked him down.

Dana: Yeah!

---

Vypra: What's up Nico?

Nico: (to Vypra via communicator) Look, Vypra. It might not be your turn today. But we need all the help we can get against Ooze. So, can you and some of the others please help us out?

Tommy Oliver: I like it.

Jason Lee Scott: Good idea.

Clayface fired a wave of mud and clay and it drenched Ivan Ooze in mud.

Kughar: SIMPSONS STYLE NINJA ART: FIRE KABOB!

Kughar fired a wave of energy and it hit Ivan Ooze and fire exploded out of his mouth as he screamed in excruciating pain.

Vinta: VOLCANO STYLE NINJA ART: KILAUEA LAVA BATH!

Vinta fired a wave of lava and it covered Ivan Ooze and burned him all over.

Riggan: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: SWEDISH PAGANS!

Riggan fired a wave of ice and it formed into the vikings of the 1st Millennium from Swedish History and they slashed and hacked and froze Ivan Ooze all over.

Tassanil: Nice! Watch this one! TWILIGHT STYLE NINJA ART: WALPURGISNACHT!

Tassanil fired a wave of light and darkness and it formed into the spirits of the German Holiday Walpurgisnacht and they smashed and burned Ivan Ooze all over the place.

Ivan Ooze was down but not defeated!

Ivan Ooze: Go ahead and kill me! It's still not going to change the fact that Zordon is dead where you come from!

Tommy Oliver: He sacrificed himself to save us from the United Alliance of Evil. And you know what? We're fine with that!

Ivan Ooze: Good luck trying to kill me!

He turned giant and he grew powerful wings and went into the sky and he was heading into space.

Me: Lets go after him! I have an awesome plan for that. Watch this. I CALL ON THE POWER OF THE ULTRA DRAGON SERPENTERA!

The skies clouded up and out of the storm clouds came the huge colossal Dragon Zord, SERPENTERA!

I was piloting the personal zord of Lord Zedd.

Tommy Oliver: Is that Serpentera!?

Me: That's right Tommy. After you guys destroyed Rita and Lord Zedd when Zordon sacrificed himself, I made Serpentera my own zord.

Billy Cranston: That is genius J.D.!

Trini Kwan: You sure came through.

Me: Yep. Now I have a special surprise for all of you.

Nico: What is it?

Me: Watch this one.

I took a necklace off and it was a key and it had the symbols of the Power Rangers Teams from over the course of 26+ years on it in a circle.

Me: This is to show that the Power Rangers are always there for Earth! UNITED LEGACY SUPERZORD SEQUENCE ENGAGE!

I put the key in a console and the zords of all the Power Rangers from over the course of 26+ years including the Ultrazords and the new zords that we acquired all appeared and they all merged and combined with Serpentera and formed into a whole new Ultrazord. It looked a like a much cooler version of Cybertron Starscream in his plane mode and it was about 3/4 the size of our starship the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix! When the zords all finished combining I beamed everyone in.

Me: UNITED LEGACY SUPERZORD!

Nico: WHOA!

Tommy Oliver: This is awesome J.D.!

Kimberly Ann Hart: Wow! I've never seen a Superzord before!

Jason Lee Scott: Wow! This is awesome!

Trini Kwan: Wow! J.D. how did you manage to build a massive zord like this?

Me: It wasn't easy but during the entire course of our adventures even long before we became Team Loud Phoenix Storm, I had to work tirelessly around the clock. It took 4 years but it works perfectly. I took every zord from throughout the entire show franchise and worked on adjustments and more to form the ultimate megazord. And thus the Legacy Superzord was born.

Nico: Wow!

Vince: Unbelievable!

Carly Carmine: This is awesome!

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) This is amazing! Way to come through!

Naruto: Awesome job bro.

Me: Thanks guys. This is the first ever Superzord ever created. Now lets show Ivan Ooze no mercy.

Nico: Yeah!

We manned our battlestations and we went after Ivan Ooze.

Me: This is awesome!

Billy Cranston: You made an awesome Superzord J.D.

Me: Thanks Billy.

Nico: Lets not give him a swollen head Billy.

Me: Lets get him! Fire at will!

We fired our weapons and fired blasts and energy waves and they all hit Ivan Ooze all over the place and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Back on Earth minutes earlier, Dark Spicer, half the members of the Masters of Evil and the kids of Angel Grove arrived at the construction sight and they saw the parents heading to the edge.

Dark Spicer: We have to slow them down until J.D. and everyone destroys Ooze.

Hydro Man: That's easier said than done.

Dark Spicer: Lets do it!

Dark Spicer turned into Furi and he kids and the masters helped push the parents back and they were still moving. Hydro Man used high power water to push them back and the rangers friend and ally Fred Kelman had a powerful power washer and Bulk and Skull turned it on and fired it. Suddenly a massive flash of light appeared in the skies and the parents were returned to normal.

We landed in Angel Grove and later we were all viewed as heroes for destroying Ivan Ooze and sending him into the River of Fire.

We all regrouped.

Me: Wow. This was awesome!

Nico: It sure was.

The Masters of Evil came.

Dark Spicer: All the parents are safe.

Me: Thank goodness.

Saïx: That new Superzord you made is incredible!

Hydro Man: Awesome marvel of work.

Me: Thanks guys. This was the best battle we've had. One of them.

Saïx: You're not seriously going to let Zordon stay dead, will you?

Jason Lee Scott: Of course not. We'll bring him back when we get home.

Shiv: That's good! But where's he going to stay?

Troy: You just let us worry about that.

Skinner: (shrugs) Alright. I guess that's fair.

All of the Masters of Evil then teleport out.

Me: This was awesome guys.

Nico: It sure was.

Me: Lets head to the Command Center.

We left the Simulator and went to where the Command Center once stood.

Me: Here we go guys.

I snapped my fingers and the whole command center was fixed and rebuilt as good as new and we went in and we saw Zordon back from the dead.

Tommy Oliver: ZORDON!

Rangers: Zordon!

Zordon: Rangers. It's good to see all of you. (Sees me) J.D. Knudson and everyone of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you all.

We beamed the Command Center over to the Team Loud Phoenix Storm Estate and it was awesome having Zordon back.

Tommy Oliver: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure and it's even more awesome now that Zordon is back. We stopped Ivan Ooze and made sure that Rita and Lord Zedd is gone forever. But our battles with evil will never be done forever.

Me: That's right. Our job is never done.

We had a good reunion and adventure.

THE END

Another Awesome chapter done.

Mighty Morphin Power Rangers The Movie from 1995 has been one of my favorite movies that I've known since I was a kid and it was awesome! Paul Freeman did an awesome job as Ivan Ooze and it was amazing that he was that dangerous and evil and he was one of the most dangerous enemies of the Power Rangers. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is our first chapter for the awesome and funny series FUTURAMA! We're gonna go after the evil disembodied head of America's 37th President, Richard Nixon and we're gonna make sure he stays dead and never comes back.

See you all tomorrow.

Exploration of The Year 3000

NEW YORK CITY, YEAR 3002

---

The chapter opens up on the sight of an awesome city in the 31st Century. It was the city of New New York and it was set in the year 3002.

---

New New York is a major city on the Planet Earth located in the State of New New York, which is built directly on top of the ruins of Old New York, which is still accessible via the New New York Sewer System. However, residents consider the older city dangerous, as it is populated by mysterious and repulsive Mutants. It is where the Planet Express building is located.

Old New York was heavily damaged or destroyed in 2308 by Bender while working for the Nude people in "Bender's Big Score". This destruction was first seen as part of the first episode, "Space Pilot 3000".

Madison Cube Garden

By 3000, New New York had become a cosmopolitan place rife with crime, vices, and corruption. Similar to the cultural melting pot of Old New York, New New York is home to a number of alien minorities, such as Little Neptune.

Geography

New New York is located in the northeastern United States on Earth, approximately halfway between Washington, D.C. and Boston. The location at the Hudson River delta, which feeds into a naturally sheltered harbor and then into the Atlantic Ocean, has helped the city grow in significance as a trading city. Much of the city is built on the three islands of Manhattan, Staten Island, and Long Long Island, which are built above the Old New York, making land scarce and encouraging a high population density. The city's land has been changed considerably by human intervention, with substantial land reclamation along the waterfronts.

Government

The government of New New York is very centralized. It is responsible for public education, correctional institutions, libraries, public safety, recreational facilities, sanitation, water supply and welfare services. Mayor C. Randall Poopenmeyer is the elected mayor of New New York and has filled this function since at least the year 3000.

Places of Interest

The Head Museum, a showcase of history's most influential heads. It is free on Tuesdays.

Madison Cube Garden is a venue where a wide range of events are held ranging from sporting events to opera.

Monument Beach is a beach featuring many monuments including Mount Rushmore and the White House.

The Sewers of New New York are home to the mutants.

Applied Cryogenics building

Applied Cryogenics

Applied Cryogenics is a facility that freezes people in Cryogenic tubes. Leela worked there when she first met Fry.

Cookieville Minimum-Security Orphanarium is where Leela grew up.

Elzar's Fine Cuisine, an upscale restaurant

O'Zorgnax's Pub, a pub, which is often patronized by the Planet Express crew.

Cavern on the Green, a very upscale restaurant owned by Elzar.

Central Bureaucracy is the organization that Hermes works for while serving as Planet Express's accountant.

---

It was a highly advanced place unlike anything anyone has ever seen. Suddenly in the middle of a busy sidewalk, a portal opened up and out came us. We were all in the year 3002!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow!

Wes Collins: This is it guys. The year 3002.

Naruto: We travelled 982 years into the future.

Leanbow: So this is the year 3002?

Jen Scotts: Yep.

Me: Wow! This is incredible!

Vince: It sure is.

Luan: Wow! It's amazing!

Luna Loud: This is amazing dudes!

Me: It sure is. It's hard to imagine that the people of Earth would become this advanced.

Lynn: It sure is.

Lightning: This is amazing.

Me: Lets take a look around.

We walked around and we saw that we were in the city of New York City. But it was now called New New York and it was awesome! The humans were not just living there but there were also hundreds of different alien creatures from all over the galaxy and it was awesome!

Me: This is incredible!

Homer: Let me show you where our friends are here.

Me: Okay.

We followed Homer and we were at the Planet Express Building.

---

The Planet Express building, owned by Professor Hubert J. Farnsworth, is located in New New York Planet Express District. It was built above a limestone cavern and is the headquarters for Planet Express. The Professor and presumably Dr. John A. Zoidberg, are the only members of staff that actually live in the building, though Philip J. Fry I initially lived there for a month in the year 3000.

The building is divided into two sections. The smaller part comprises multiple floors and houses the offices and laboratories of the Professor. The larger section of the building is a hangar containing Planet Express ship and has an automatic opening roof for takeoff and landing.

The Angry Dome

Angry dome, a soundproof glass dome on the roof of the building. The Professor goes there when he is angry and paces around shouting and making angry gestures.

Basement and sub-basement

In "Benderama" the Professor refers to as the situation room.

Calamatorium

Chart Room: Appears in "Viva Mars Vegas". Amy Kroker: "I've summoned you all to the Chart Room to explain how we're going to pull of a daring and complex casino heist, questions?" Bender Bending Rodríguez: "Um, how come we've never been in this room before?" Amy: "I think this chart will explain that"

Conference room

The chamber of understanding, a glass dome with a mirror ball in it, where Professor Farnsworth goes to think is located in the conference room.

Control tower where the crew uses the Smell-O-Scope.

Downstairs walrus tank in which Dwight Conrad and Cubert J. Farnsworth found the Anti-Backwards Crystal.

Homer: Here we are guys. The Planet Express Building.

Me: Wow!

Bart: It's just as amazing as I remember it.

Nico: You guys have been here before?

Lisa Simpson: We sure have.

Me: Wow.

We went in and we saw Phillip J. Fry and his team Leela, Fry's girlfriend Michelle Jenkins, Professor Farnsworth, Bender and Amy Wong.

Bender: Hey guys!

Homer: Hey Bender!

They hugged.

Bender: It's great to see you all again.

Leela: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Amy Wong: It's such an honor to meet you all.

Fry: Same here. I love all your adventures.

Me: It's an honor to be here. And it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Tori Hanson: It's nice to meet you, Bender.

Bender: You too.

Michelle Jenkins: Yeah.

Me: Homer told us a lot about you and how you and he became good friends.

Homer: That's right.

Bender: It's a long and weird story.

Nico: We'll have to hear about it later.

Bender: So, how's Marge doing? (our faces get serious) Did I say something wrong?

Scavenger: You're gonna want to sit down for this one.

Me: Yeah it's a long and complicated story.

We told them all about what happened with Springfield and everything that happened to it over the course of 234 years and how it went downhill because of Mayor Quimby and Mr. Burns and everything that happened to the country and more because of Springfield and more.

Sureshot: And that's why Homer and Marge aren't together anymore.

Bender: How come my sensors never picked this up?!

Me: They were very good at covering their tracks. Until we picked it up. Thanks to hard detective work and powerful investigations we uncovered everything about Springfield, Oregon.

Nico: Yep.

Bender: And you all destroyed Springfield when the kids went into war against the entire town?

Me: Yep. It's now nothing more than a radioactive crater.

I went to a holographic map and pulled up a map of the United States.

Fry: It sounds like you know this kind of technology.

Me: Well we use highly advanced cutting edge technology to monitor the entire universe for evil and which planets and people are in trouble.

I showed them a picture of the Springfield Radioactive Crater.

Bender: Wow! It really is now a crater.

Me: Yep. 250 megaton nuke destroyed it courtesy of us.

Nico: Yep.

Fry: Wow.

Michelle Jenkins: That's amazing. But good riddance to a bad town like Springfield.

Me: Springfield totally deserved it.

Bender: I never liked that town anyway.

Me: No one does and ever will. Springfield is now designated as the worst ever town in history. Even after 982 years here.

Professor Farnsworth: That's amazing!

Nico: Yep.

Then the alarm went off and it showed that Richard Nixon was causing trouble!

---

Richard Nixon is a major antagonist in the animated comedy series Futurama. Nixon is frequently, though not always, an antagonist in his appearances.

He was voiced by Billy West, who also played Fry, Professor Farnsworth, and Zapp Brannigan in the same series.

Richard Milhous Nixon (January 9, 1913 - April 22, 1994) is the current 30th President of Earth and formerly the 37th President of the United States (1969-1974). By 2999, was a living head that was preserved after his death in 1994, and was formally on display at the Head Museum in New New York City.

During Futurama there are several occasions upon which Nixon or another character will quote or make reference to his past. During "A Head in the Polls", Bender, Fry, and Leela blackmail Nixon by use of audiotape. This is a reference to the famous Nixon tapes. He also says "You're all going to jail, and don't expect me to grant a pardon like that sissy Ford". This is a clear reference to the 38th President of the United States, Gerald Ford, who pardoned Nixon following Watergate.

Also, in "A Head in the Polls", Nixon stays at the Watergate, a reference to the scandal which caused Nixon to resign. While confronting Bender, he says "I'm about to go Cambodia on your ass!", a reference to the US invasion of Cambodia. Nixon is very tyrannical, and often abuses his power while in office, but the people do not seem to care about this, and it largely goes unnoticed.

In the episode "In-A-Gadda-Da-Leela", the censorship death sphere, V-Giny, erases a planet and Nixon comments on it saying "It erased that planet like 18 minutes of incriminating tape." This references the 18 and a half minutes of the Nixon tapes that were missing under controversial circumstances.

In the movie "Into the Wild Green Yonder, he claims he staged the Moon Landing on Venus.

In the episode "Decision 3012" Nixon states that he and Bender need to "McGovern him up" when discussing how to defeat opposing candidate for President of Earth Chris Z. Travers. This is a reference to 1972 Presidential candidate George McGovern, whose campaign offices were broken into by men with connections to President Nixon, leading to the Watergate Scandal and Nixon's eventual resignation.

In the episode, "A Taste of Freedom", when Dr. Zoidberg is on trial, Nixon says, "Sock it to him!" This is a reference to the real Richard Nixon's appearance on a 1960's sketch comedy show, "Laugh-In". The show had several popular catchphrases, one of which was "Sock it to me!" which was delievered by a comedian and followed by a sight gag such as the comedian getting hit with a bucket of water or a giant hammer. 1968 was an election year in the U.S.A., and the producers of the show tried to get all the presidential candidates to appear on the show. Only Nixon eventually agreed, and he made a brief cameo saying stiffly, "Sock it to me?" The clip is on YouTube.

Nixon first appeared in the episode "A Head in the Polls". With Earth's elections drawing near Nixon buys the body of the robot Bender, one of the show's main cast members, after Bender recently pawns it for cash. Bender eventually gets buyer's remorse and attempts to re-buy his body only to find Nixon already bought it from the broker. Nixon uses Bender's body as a loop-hole to run again as the law states "no body can run for a third term" but as Nixon but it he had "a shiny new body". In addition to the legal loop-hole Nixon also used the body to appeal to the robot voters, giving him a huge advantage over the other underwhelming candidates. Eventually Bender, and his co-workers Fry and Leela, manage to get a recording of Nixon revealing his true character and use it as blackmail for the body. All three forget to vote the next day, ironic because Nixon won by a single vote, and Nixon takes the White House as Earth's new President. At his press conference Nixon not only reveals that he just bought another robotic body, a giant death machine, but that he is even more psychotic and murderous than his critics joked.

Series progression

Since "A Head in the Polls" Nixon's robotic death body has not been used but his character remains just as morally dubious the audience is lead to believe at the end of the episode. Nixon lies, cheats, kills, instigates wars and hires shady characters like Ogden Wernstrom and Zapp Brannigan as his advisers. Nixon is willing to sell out his constituents if need be and seems to have next to no principals of any kind, save perhaps that he refuses to be talked down to or bullied. While Nixon is entirely self-serving he will appeal to the voter-base when it is convenient doing things like giving everyone in the country a tax refund in the form of a 300 dollar bill, which has his face on it. Nixon's overall character is based on a popular American stereotype of the real world leader and is played upon for laughs.

He was responsible for the Watergate Scandal back in his presidency.

His head is on the $1000 bill and $300 bill as well as the Tricky Dick Fun Bill.

He is the "original Gerber baby" according to Zapp Brannigan.

He claims to have staged the Moon Landing, on Venus.

Nixon appears with the Headless Body of Spiro Agnew, his Vice President between 1968 and 1973

He still has Checkers' head in a jar during his election campaign.

He is a fan of Ultimate Robot Fighting.

Due to their similar personalities, he is a friend of Morbo.

In the episode "Time Keeps on Slippin'", he gives Professor Farnsworth all the money in the world to make a Gravity Pump.

Me: Richard Nixon, America's 37th President!?

Leela: Yep and he is also the 30th President of Earth.

Me: President of Earth? I didn't think a title like that was even possible.

Laney: Me neither.

Nico: Yeah. How does that happen?

Leela went over how it's possible.

---

Unlike its predecessor, the President of the U.S., the President of Earth was elected in a purely democratic process: which is to say that the system of the electoral college was eliminated at some point. Every citizen of Earth votes for their favored candidate and whomever has the most votes at the end gains the office.

It is unknown what, if any, qualifications have been set for the eligibility for the office, save that no "body" can hold the office longer than two terms.

Authority

Here again it is difficult to determine what, if any changes were made during the conversion from the President of the United States to the President of Earth. But the President seems to retain their rank of commander-in-chief of the armed forces, enforces the law, as well as is responsible for defending the actions of the government and its laws in the Supreme Court.

---

Me: Wow. So it's like our President of the United States of America except it's for the entire planet.

Fry: That's right.

Me: He was about to be impeached long ago. Not only that but he should be dead. He died in 1994 of a stroke and a lot of people in America don't like him because of what he did during his Presidency with the Watergate Scandal and the Invasion of Cambodia back in the 1970s.

Leela: That was over 1,000 years ago.

Me: Almost 50 years in the 21st century.

Homer: Yeah.

Me: Lets get him guys!

We headed out and we went into the middle of the city in Central Park and we were facing our former 37th President, RICHARD NIXON!

Richard Nixon: So you are the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: President Richard Nixon. It's weird seeing you here as a disembodied head. You being here in the 31st Century is weird but back in the 20th century, we've had enough of you just like here!

Nixon: Is your vigilante complex that big that you'd attack your own president?!

Maria: Your presidency ended a long time ago!

Me: Back in the 1970s when you caused the Invasion of Cambodia and the Watergate Scandal. I don't know what President Gerald Ford was thinking when he pardoned you. You are a traitor to the United States and to everyone here. You abused your power and so many people suffered all because of you!

Nico: That's right! Richard Milhous Nixon, you have failed this country!

Me: YEAH!

Greiger, Skinner and Webstor came out.

Me: Greiger, Webstor and Skinner.

Greiger: Yep.

Skinner: I see you're all here to fight Nixon.

Me: Yep. Wait a second. Skinner you were a Vietnam War veteran right?

Skinner: That's right J.D.

Me: Then you know about everything that Nixon did in his presidency.

Skinner: Yep.

Bender: (to Greiger) Hey, buddy. Your Earthbound Immortal can bite my shiny metal ass!

Greiger: Ok, that sounds just wrong.

Webstor: (laughs) Now that's funny!

Me: Bender's really mad about what happened in Springfield.

Skinner: I see.

Bender: Skinner was Springfield, Oregon really that corrupt?

Skinner: Yes it was. It was an awful place to call home for many people.

Bender: Wow.

?: Let me help you out.

A figure came out and it was SHADOW SERPENT from episode 10 of Megaforce!

---

The Shadow Serpent is first seen in a beach-like wast land and is hired by the Toxic Beasts and Vrak to deal with Robo Knight and the Mega Rangers. He first takes the shadows from a construction worker and a hot dog maker, and final the shadows of a young boy's parents, he confronts Robo Knight, the two fought and the Mega Rangers came in to take on Shadow Serpent, but he is a formidable opponent, and he easily tooked out the Rangers with ease, the sun was setting, and as such, he was force to retreat, after a conversation with Bigs, Bluefue and Vrak at his place, Shadow Serpent realised that the Rangers are clever, so he will outsmart them. The next day, Shadow Serpent came by a train bridge, and was about to take the shadow's of the train and a whole crowed of people, but the Mega Rangers use their Mega Blasters to blast Shadow Serpent's tongue, they were outmatched, and Robo Knight returns to take on this monster, the Rangers attempted to block off the sun by creating a large cloud, but Shadow Serpent easily took it out with an energy blast. Robo Knight attempted to take on Shadow Serpent himself, but he was quickly outmatched, so the Rangers came in to take on this monster, they were out match, they attempted to use the Dynamic Victory Charge on him, but he easily blocks it, the Rangers then went head on, but that was a huge mistake, as Shadow Serpent had manage to take their shadows, but it was revealed to be a trick for Robo Knight to get a clean hit on Shadow Serpent, give the Rangers back their shadows. With Shadow Serpent weakened, Robo Knight was easily able to out match Shadow Serpent and he finally defeats him with the Vulcan Cannon's Knight Dynamic. However, Shadow Serpent survives and calls for Vrak to aid him. He is then enlarged by the Zombats, so Robo Knight transforms into the Gosei Grand Megazord and the Rangers unleashed the Gosei Great Megazord. they battle with Shadow Serpent, they had the upper hand at first, but Shadow Serpent used his Head Bash attack to startle the Megazords, and he takes them out with an extremely power Super Heated Flame Breath, dispatching them back into their Zord forms, however though, the Zord were able to fight back, and the Rangers had gain a card that lets the all eight of the Zords combine into a new Megazord, the Gosei Great Grand Megazord, as much a he tries, Shadow Serpent was no match and was beating down by first the Gosei Great Grand Megazord's Land Lance Attack, then the Sea Spike Attack, and final the Sky Spear Attack. Shadow Serpent wasn't finished yet, but with the Victory Charge Dual Strike, Shadow Serpent is destroyed once and for all.

Troy Burrows: Shadow Serpent!

Shadow Serpent: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were hired by the Toxic Beasts and Vrak to deal with Robo Knight and the Mega Rangers!

Shadow Serpent: That's right J.D. Mistress Vypra was right about you. You have watched all of us on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode. But you were one of my favorite monsters in Power Rangers Megaforce.

Shadow Serpent: I'm honored. Then you know I can do this!

Shadow Serpent just took my shadow with his tongue.

Shadow Serpent: Now, let's see how long you'll freeze in place.

Me: Nice try!

Shadow Serpent: What!?

My shadow went back to me.

Me: My powers cannot be stolen and neither can a body part of mine. Including my shadow.

Troy: We stopped you before, Shadow Serpent. And we can do it again!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Starforce Pentasquad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the 5-Star Squadron Great Rangers from 1994.

Shadow Serpent: What!? What is this!?

Me: The Megaforce Rangers have the ability to transform into the Power Rangers from over the course of 45+ years. You didn't know about this kind of power did you? Lets get them!

We powered up and transformed and went at them!

I fired a wave of metal and it formed into the Tree Monster from the 1957 movie FROM HELL IT CAME!

---

A South Seas island prince is wrongly convicted of murder and executed by having a knife driven into his heart, the result of a plot by a witch doctor (the true murderer) who resented the prince's friendly relations with American scientists stationed on a field laboratory on the island. The prince is buried in a hollow tree trunk and forgotten about until nuclear radiation reanimates him in the form of the "Tabonga", a scowling tree stump. The monster escapes from the laboratory and kills several people, including the witch doctor, whom the Tabonga pushes down a hill to be impaled on his own crown of shark teeth. The creature cannot be stopped, burned, or trapped. Only when a crack rifle shot from one of the scientists drives the knife (which still protrudes from the creature's chest) all the way through its heart does it finally die and sink into the swamp.

---

Nixon fired waves of lasers at the Tree Monster and the lasers did nothing. They bounced off the creature and the Tree Monsters pulverized Nixon all over the place.

Lucy Loud: How about this one? DARKNESS STYLE NINJA ART: THE ASTOUNDING SHE-MONSTER!

Lucy fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the She-Monster from the 1958 movie THE ASTOUNDING SHE-MONSTER!

---

Gangsters Nat Burdell (Kenne Duncan) and Brad Conley (Ewing Miles Brown) kidnap wealthy socialite Margaret Chaffee (Marilyn Harvey) and, joined by gun moll Esther Malone (Jeanne Tatum), head for the San Gabriel Mountains to await the ransom they've demanded from Chaffee's father. That night, geologist Dick Cutler (Robert Clarke) sees what he thinks is a meteor crash into the forest. But he doesn't see that out of the smoke from the impact emerges a beautiful glowing blonde female extraterrestrial (Shirley Kilpatrick) in a skintight leotard who can kill by touch.

The gangsters hole up at Cutler's cabin. When the alien peeks through a window, Burdell orders Conley to go after her, but the alien kills Conley, his gunshots having no effect on her whatsoever. Burdell then goes out and runs into the alien himself. Although his gunshots are also ineffective, the alien walks away backwards, allowing Burdell to retrieve Conley's body. Back at the cabin, Cutler says that Conley died of "radium poisoning" and that by carrying his body, Burdell has taken a potentially lethal dose of radium and needs to get to a doctor before he dies.

Burdell decides they should flee that night, even though they'll have to navigate a dangerous mountain road in Cutler's headlight-less Jeep. But before they can leave, the alien smashes through the cabin's window. Everyone runs outside. The alien catches Malone and kills her. When the alien tries to grab Burdell, he quickly sidesteps and she tumbles down an embankment. Burdell wrongly thinks she's dead. Cutler and Chaffee have already run back to the cabin. Burdell demands that they leave at once. But as they drive off, the extraterrestrial stops them and kills Burdell.

With all the gangsters dead, Cutler and Chaffee run to the cabin again. Cutler speculates that the alien's body is made of radium and platinum, which protect her from the Earth's atmosphere. He mixes an acid solution that will kill her. When she comes into the cabin, he throws the bottle of acid at her. She is killed and disintegrates.

However, a locket she was wearing is undamaged. Cutler finds in it a note, written in English, from the "Master of the Council of Planets of the Galaxy." It's an invitation to Earth to join the Council. Cutler now realizes that the alien was a peaceful emissary who killed only in self-defense. Chaffee says that the Council, with its "superior wisdom," will surely understand that their human nature caused them to fear the alien and that another emissary will no doubt be sent. Cutler agrees, although he asks rhetorically, "But will it come to bring us good will or simply avenge her death?"

Riku: Watch this one. FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: CAT-WOMEN OF THE MOON!

Riku fired a wave of fire and it formed into the beautiful Cat-Women from the 1953 movie CAT-WOMEN OF THE MOON!

---

A scientific expedition to the Moon encounters a race of cat-women, the last survivors of a two-million-year-old lunar civilization. Residing deep within a Moon cavern, where they have managed to maintain not only the remnants of a breathable atmosphere and Earth-like gravity, but also a pair of gigantic Moonspiders, the cat-women wear black unitards, have beehive hairstyles, and wear elaborate cosmetics. Realizing that their remaining atmosphere will soon be exhausted, the cat-women plan to steal the expedition's spaceship, migrate to Earth, and in the words of the cat-women's queen, Alpha (Carol Brewster), "We will get their women under our power, and soon we will rule the whole world"!

Through the use of their telepathic abilities, the cat-women have been subliminally controlling Helen Salinger (Marie Windsor), the mission navigator and only female member of the Earth expedition. Once on the Moon, the cat-women take control of Helen's mind, after which she leads the entire crew (clad in spacesuits and equipped with matches, cigarettes, and a gun) to the cat-women's cavern. Although unable to directly control male minds, the cat-women are able to influence the male crew through Helen, using their own superior intellectual abilities and feminine wiles. As explained to Helen by the cat-woman Beta (Suzanne Alexander), "Show us their weak points. We'll take care of the rest".

Along with telepathy, the cat-women can transport themselves, unseen and instantly, from place-to-place within the cavern. They use this ability to steal the crew's unguarded spacesuits. This forces the crew deeper into the cavern and into violent confrontations with the two moon-spiders and the cat-women. Failing to exterminate the men, the cat-women approach them openly, using Helen. Kip (Victor Jory), who has always been suspicious of the cat-women, confronts Alpha about the missing spacesuits. She promises to return them in the morning. Food and drink are then brought, and private conversations between both groups begin. As these progress ("You're too smart for me, baby. I like 'em stupid"), the gun-wielding Kip sits alone, unable to intervene, while the cat-women successfully manipulate expedition commander Laird (Sonny Tufts) and the other men.

By that evening, the cat-women have learned how to pilot the spaceship. Walt (Douglas Fowley) is stabbed to death by Beta. Lambda (Susan Morrow) has fallen in love with crew member Doug (William Phipps) and tells him of the cat-woman plot, saying, "I love you Doug, and I must kill you". The male crew now realizes that they are in danger. Carrying three spacesuits, Alpha, Beta, and Helen make a break for the spaceship. Lambda teleports ahead to delay them and is bludgeoned to death by Beta. Kip catches up, and fires several shots, killing Alpha and Beta, but leaving Helen uninjured. The surviving expedition members escape the cavern, reach their spaceship, and return to Earth.

Demona: How about this one? SCALE STYLE NINJA ART: THE ALLIGATOR PEOPLE!

Demona fired a wave of scales and they formed into the scary alligator people from the 1959 movie THE ALLIGATOR PEOPLE!

---

After nurse Jane Marvin (Beverly Garland) is administered the drug sodium pentothal by psychiatrists Erik Lorimer (Bennett) and Wayne McGregor (Douglas Kennedy), she recalls a series of events from her forgotten past when she was known as Joyce Webster.

Joyce has just married a young man named Paul Webster (Richard Crane). Aboard their honeymoon train, Paul receives a telegram, and in a panic, immediately leaves the train to make a phone call. When the train pulls out, Paul is missing, having vanished without a word. Throughout the following months, Joyce employs private detectives and conducts her own search for her husband, to no avail, until one day she discovers the address of the Cypresses Plantation that Paul entered on his college enrollment forms.

Joyce takes the next train to the desolate whistle-stop town of Bayou Landing in the heart of Louisiana swamp country. While waiting at the rail station, she notices a large crate, marked as containing radioactive cobalt, and meets Manon (Chaney Jr.), a hermit handyman at the Cypresses, when he comes to pick up the crate. She asks him to drive her there and he obliges. As they proceed deeper in the swamps, Joyce is horrified when Manon tries to run over an alligator and then exhibits the hook where a gator bit off his hand, explaining his hatred for the reptiles. At the plantation, Joyce introduces herself to Lavinia Hawthorne (Frieda Inescort), the Cypresses' stern mistress. When Joyce suggests that Paul once lived at the plantation, Lavinia calls her a liar and tries to have her thrown out. However, when her manservant Toby (Vince Townsend Jr.) points out that Joyce has missed the last train back to town, Lavinia reluctantly invites her to stay the night under the proviso that she not leave her room.

That night, in a drunken craze, Manon is in the swamps attempting to shoot several alligators. Joyce is disquieted by the sound of gunshots, but when she tries to open the door to her room, she discovers it is locked. When the maid Lou Ann (Ruby Goodwin) delivers Joyce's dinner tray, she warns that the house is deeply troubled and advises her to leave as soon as possible. Later, Lavinia notifies Mark Sinclair (George Macready), a self-proclaimed "Swamp Doctor" who operates a clinic on the plantation, that Paul's wife is there. At the clinic, Mark administers an injection to an agitated patient who is swathed in bandages. Soon after, Lavinia arrives to confer about how to deal with Joyce.

Meanwhile, at the house, Joyce hears the strings of a piano and slips out of her room to investigate. As she descends the stairs, she sees a man in a trench coat, his face in shadows, seated at the piano and fails to recognize the shadowy figure as mutated Paul. When Joyce enters the room, Paul flees, leaving behind a trail of muddy, clawed footprints. Paul, his face terribly disfigured, stops Lavinia's car and in a distorted voice, insists that Joyce leave as soon as possible. The next morning, Mark comes to the house to question Joyce, and sensing that he is withholding information about Paul, she refuses to leave. Later that day, when Joyce demands that Lavinia tell her what she did to Paul, the older woman breaks down and confesses that Paul is her son.

That night, as a storm rages, thinking that Joyce has gone, Paul returns to the house. When Joyce sees him, he runs away and she follows him into the swamps. After being menaced by several alligators and a giant snake blocking her path, Manon rescues and carries her to his shack. After trying to get her to strip, Manon assaults her. When Joyce screams and tries to resist, Manon angrily knocks her unconscious. An outraged, reptilian-looking Paul then bursts in and fights Manon. After a struggle, Paul manages to incapacitate Manon and takes Joyce back to the house. Manon recovers and screams out in rage into the storm, vowing to kill Paul just like he would kill any alligator no matter what. Back at the house, Lou Ann is caring for Joyce as Lavinia confronts her son. After his mother insists that Joyce be told the truth, Paul presses Mark to give him an untested cobalt treatment in hopes of curing his condition. Mark reluctantly agrees to give him the treatment the following evening after Joyce has been informed of the situation.

The next morning, Mark summons Joyce to his lab and tells her about his experiments with reptilian hormones that are capable of regenerating limbs. He continues that after Paul was horribly mangled in a plane crash, Mark administered the serum to him and several other accident victims. The treatment appeared to be a great success, until his patients began to increasingly take on reptilian traits. Mark explains that after Paul received the telegram notifying him that his tests were positive, he hurriedly left the train and came home in hopes of reversing his condition. When Joyce learns of Paul's scheduled radical cobalt treatment, she insists on being present.

That night, Paul encounters Joyce at the clinic and turns away from her in shame. After seeing Joyce clasping her son's hands and reassuring him of her love, Lavinia apologizes to her for her brusqueness. As Paul climbs onto the table and Mark aims the ray at him, Manon bursts into the lab and destroys the control panel, shooting powerful rays at Paul that transform him into a bipedal, reptilian monster with an alligator-like head. After trying to attack Manon, Paul looks on as Manon's hook gets caught on some cords and is electrocuted while trying to kill Paul. Confused, Paul stumbles over to the other room and tries to communicate, but his voice has been replaced with a reptilian snarl. Hearing his wife and mother scream in horror, Paul flees into the swamps and sadly peering into the water, sees his reflection. Joyce scrambles after him, as the cobalt machine, short circuiting due to Manon's body, self-destructs and destroys the lab. Scrambling away from his wife, Paul is attacked by an alligator and wrestles it while Joyce screams at the sight. Managing to fight off the reptile and hurl it away, Paul stumbles into quicksand and slowly sinks out of sight to the sound of Joyce's shrieks, seemingly meeting his demise.

Back in the present, the psychiatrists review the tapes of Joyce's ordeal, and concluding that her amnesia has allowed her to suppress the horror and resume a normal life, they decide not to tell her about her life as Joyce Webster.

The Alligator People chomped and bit Nixon all over the place.

Enre Hep: Watch this one. LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: KRONOS!

Enre Hep fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the monster from the 1957 movie KRONOS!

---

A huge, blinking flying saucer from deep space emits a glowing object, which races to Earth. It intercepts a man who's driving his car down an isolated road. The object takes over the man's body and directs it to LabCentral, a U.S. research facility that's been tracking the saucer, thinking it was an asteroid.

The man's possessed body forces its way into the lab and the entity inside takes control of the chief scientist, who directs three nuclear missiles to be fired at the saucer. Everyone is shocked when the explosion fails to destroy the object. The saucer crashes into the Pacific Ocean off the coast of Mexico. Impatient with the delay in getting a formal expedition to the crash scene, two of the lab's scientists (one with his photographer girlfriend in tow) head down to Mexico. After their arrival, they see the saucer appear on the ocean's surface. Terrified, they flee back to their lodging for the rest of the night.

The next morning the scientists (and a photographer/girlfriend) see a large, stories-tall machine that has appeared on the beach. Its four-legged body features two mobile antennae that resemble the terminals of a capacitor. They use a small helicopter to land atop the strange machine, glimpsing its complex inner workings before being forced to leave.

Under the direction of the possessed chief scientist, who now has lists of power stations and atom-bomb arsenals around the world, the machine, which has since been named Kronos, methodically attacks power plants in Mexico, draining all their energy. In doing so Kronos grows larger with every energy-absorption episode, consuming more and more power as it moves, unhindered, from one power source to the next. Four Mexican Air Force fighter planes attack, but the ever-growing alien machine easily destroys them and continues on its energy-draining rampage.

In a lucid, unpossessed moment, the chief scientist tells his returned colleagues that Kronos is an energy accumulator, sent by an alien race that has exhausted its own natural resources; they have sent their giant machine to drain all the Earth's available power and then return it to their dying world.

The United States Air Force sends a B-47 bomber to drop an atomic bomb, but one of the scientists warns the Pentagon that an atomic explosion will simply supply Kronos with massive amounts of energy. The Pentagon attempts to abort the bombing mission, but Kronos causes the jet to crash into it, absorbing the bomb's nuclear blast. The alien machine, now grown to an immense size, appears unstoppable, harvesting all forms of energy at will.

As Kronos draws near Los Angeles, scientists devise an ingenious plan that reverses the monster machine's polarity, forcing it to feed upon itself, until being obliterated by a gigantic implosion. But the question remains: Will mankind suffer another onslaught by the desperate aliens?

Laarina: Try this one! WIND STYLE NINJA ART: THE DEADLY MANTIS!

Laarina fired a wave of wind and it formed into the giant Preying Mantis from the 1957 movie THE DEADLY MANTIS!

---

In the South Seas, a volcano explodes, eventually causing North Pole icebergs to shift. Below the melting polar ice caps, a 200-foot-long praying mantis, trapped in the ice for millions of years, begins to stir. Soon after, the military personnel at Red Eagle One, a military station in northern Canada that monitors information gathered from the Distant Early Warning Line, realize that the men at one of their outposts are not responding to calls. Commanding officer Col. Joe Parkman (Craig Stevens) flies there to investigate, and finds the post destroyed, its men gone, and giant slashes left in the snow outside.

When a radar blip is sighted, Joe sends his pilots out to investigate, but their intended target disappears. Soon an Air Force plane is attacked by the deadly mantis. He searches the wreckage, and this time, in addition to the huge slashes, finds a five-foot-long pointed object in the snow. He takes it to General Mark Ford (Donald Randolph) at the Continental Air Defense (CONAD) in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Ford gathers top scientists, including Professor Anton Gunther (Florenz Ames ), to examine the object, but when they cannot identify it, Gunther recommends calling in Dr. Nedrick Jackson (William Hopper), a paleontologist at the Museum of Natural History.

When Ned gets the call from Ford, he is helping museum magazine editor Marge Blaine (Alix Talton) plan her next issue, and dodges her questions as she begs him for a big scoop. Later, after examining the object, Ned recognizes it as a torn-off spur from an insect's leg, and soon guesses, from evidence that the creature ate human flesh, that it must be a gigantic praying mantis. Meanwhile, in the Arctic, the people of an Inuit village spot the mantis in the sky, and although they hurry to their boats to escape, it swoops down and kills several men.

Ned is sent to Red Eagle One to investigate further, and upon leaving, discovers that Marge has managed to get permission to accompany him as his photographer. They reach the base, where all the men, including Joe, are smitten by Marge.

That night, Marge and Joe join Ned in his office and discuss the creature, not realizing that it is drawing close to the office window. Marge suddenly catches sight of it and screams, and the bug attacks the building. Although the full unit opens fire on the mantis with automatic rifles and a flame-thrower, it is unscathed and moves away only after aircraft encircle it.

Hours later, the base remains on red alert, but they finally hear that the bug has attacked a boat off the Canadian coast, which means, Ned calculates, that it is flying at a speed of 200 miles an hour. Ford calls a press conference to announce the bug's existence, and asks the Ground Observer Corps to track its whereabouts.

Over the next few days, Ned, Marge and Joe track the bug's progress with the help of military and civilian observers. Late one night, Joe drives Marge home, stopping briefly to ask for, and receive, a kiss. They are distracted by a report of a nearby train wreck, and although they assume it to be an ordinary accident, soon after, a woman leaving a bus sees the mantis, and all emergency personnel are put on alert. The mantis is then sighted in Washington, D.C., atop the Washington Monument.

Joe is one of the pilots who attempt to drive the mantis toward the sea, but a dense fog throws him off course, and he flies directly into it. As the wounded mantis drops to the ground and crawls into the Manhattan Tunnel, Joe safely parachutes to the ground.

Ford leads a team that seals off the tunnel, filling it with smoke to provide cover for Joe and his special unit of men, who enter the tunnel armed with rifles and three chemical bombs. They creep past wrecked cars until suddenly the bug appears in the fog only a few yards ahead of them. They shoot at it, but it lumbers on, forcing them backward. The mantis seems immune to the ammunition and the first chemical bombs until, only feet from the tunnel entrance, Joe throws a bomb in its face, and it collapses, dead.

Later, Ford, Ned, Joe and Marge enter the tunnel to examine the bug. Marge photographs its face while the men walk around its side, but Joe suddenly sees the mantis' arm move, and runs to protect Marge. Although Ned explains that the bug's movement was merely an autonomic reflex, Joe takes the opportunity to pull Marge into an embrace.

Lincoln: Nice! But don't feed these monsters after midnight! LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: GREMLINS!

Lincoln fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the evil Gremlins from the 1984 movie GREMLINS!

Randall Peltzer, a struggling inventor, visits a Chinatown antique store in the hope of finding a Christmas present for his son Billy. In the store, Randall encounters a small, furry creature called a mogwai (Cantonese: 魔怪, "devil"). The owner, Mr. Wing, refuses to sell the creature to Randall. However, his grandson secretly sells the mogwai to Randall, warning him to remember three important rules that must never be broken: do not expose the mogwai to light, especially sunlight, which will kill it, do not let it come in contact with water, and above all, never feed it after midnight.

Randall returns home to Kingston Falls where he gives the mogwai to Billy as a pet. Billy works in the local bank, where he fears his dog Barney will be captured and killed by the elderly miser Mrs. Deagle. Randall names the mogwai "Gizmo" and Billy makes sure to treat him well. When Billy's friend Pete accidentally spills a glass of water over Gizmo, five more mogwai spawn from his back, a more troublemaking sort led by the aggressive Stripe (distinguishable from the other mogwai by the patch of white fur on his head). Billy shows one of the mogwai to his former science teacher, Mr. Hanson, spawning another mogwai, on whom Hanson experiments. Back at home, Stripe's gang tricks Billy into feeding them after midnight by severing the power cord to his bedside clock. They make cocoons, as does Hanson's mogwai. Shortly after, the cocoons hatch and they emerge as mischievous, reptilian monsters referred to as 'gremlins', who then torture Gizmo and try to murder Billy's mother, while Hanson is killed by his gremlin.

All of the Gremlins are killed except Stripe, who escapes the house to a local YMCA and jumps into a swimming pool, spawning a new army of gremlins who wreak chaos around Kingston Falls. Billy tries to warn the police, but they don't believe him. Many people are injured or outright killed by the gremlins' rampage, including Mrs. Deagle, who is launched out of her house on a stair lift that has been sabotaged by the creatures. At the local bar, the gremlins have fun until the barmaid Kate Beringer, Billy's girlfriend, flashes them with a camera and escapes into the bank with Billy and Gizmo. While hiding, Kate reveals her father died in a chimney while dressed as Santa Claus, which made her hate Christmas since. Billy and Kate discover the town has fallen silent and the Gremlins are watching Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs in the local theater. They set off an explosion, killing all the Gremlins except Stripe, who left the theater to get more candy at a Montgomery Ward store across the street.

As morning approaches, Billy chases Stripe into the store, where Stripe attempts to use a water fountain to spawn more gremlins. Gizmo arrives in a toy car and opens a skylight, exposing Stripe to sunlight and killing him. In the aftermath of the rampage, Mr. Wing arrives to collect Gizmo, scolding the Peltzers for their carelessness, thinking the Western world is not ready for the gift of the mogwai, but comments that Billy might some day be ready to care for Gizmo properly. Gizmo likewise believes so, having become attached to Billy. Mr. Wing then departs with Gizmo.

The commercial space tug Nostromo is on a return trip back to Earth with a seven-member crew in stasis: Captain Dallas, Executive Officer Kane, Warrant Officer Ripley, Navigator Lambert, Science Officer Ash, and two engineers, Parker and Brett. Detecting a transmission from nearby moon LV-426, the ship's computer, Mother, awakens the crew. Company policy requires any potential distress signal be investigated, so they land on the moon, sustaining damage from its atmosphere and rocky landscape. Parker and Brett repair the ship while Dallas, Kane, and Lambert head out to investigate. They discover the signal comes from a derelict alien ship and enter it, losing communication with the Nostromo. Ripley deciphers part of the transmission, determining it to be a warning, but cannot relay this information to those on the derelict ship.

Meanwhile, Kane discovers a chamber containing hundreds of large, egg-like objects. When he touches one, a creature springs out, breaks through his helmet, and attaches itself to his face. Dallas and Lambert carry the unconscious Kane back to the Nostromo. As acting senior officer, Ripley refuses to let them aboard, citing quarantine regulations, but Ash overrides her decision and lets them inside. Ash attempts to remove the creature from Kane's face, but stops when he discovers that its blood is an extremely corrosive acid. It later detaches on its own and is found dead. The ship is partly repaired, and the crew lifts off. Kane awakens with some memory loss, but is otherwise unharmed. During a final crew meal before returning to stasis, he chokes and convulses. A small alien creature bursts from Kane's chest, killing him, and escapes into the ship.

The crew attempts to locate it with tracking devices and capture or kill it with nets, electric prods, and flamethrowers. Brett follows the crew's cat Jones into a landing leg compartment, where the now-fully-grown alien attacks Brett and disappears with his body. After a heated discussion, the crew decide the creature must be in the air ducts. Dallas enters the ducts, intending to force the alien into an airlock, but it ambushes and kills him. Lambert implores the others to abandon ship and escape in its small shuttle, but Ripley, now in command, explains it will not support four people and says they will continue the plan of flushing out the alien.

Now with access to Mother, Ripley discovers Ash has been secretly ordered by the company to bring the alien back, with the crew deemed expendable. She confronts Ash, who tries to choke her to death. Parker intervenes and clubs Ash, knocking his head loose and revealing him to be an android. Ash's head is reactivated, and they learn he was assigned to ensure the creature's survival. He expresses admiration for the creature's psychology, unhindered by conscience or morality, and taunts them about their chances of survival. Ripley cuts off his power; as they leave, Parker incinerates him.

The remaining crew decides to self-destruct the Nostromo and escape in the shuttle. Parker and Lambert are killed by the creature as they gather supplies. Ripley initiates the self-destruct sequence, but finds the alien blocking her path to the shuttle. She retreats and attempts unsuccessfully to abort the self-destruct. With no further options, she makes her way to the shuttle and barely escapes as the Nostromo explodes.

As Ripley prepares for stasis, she discovers that the alien is aboard, having wedged itself into a narrow space. She puts on a spacesuit and uses gas to flush the creature out. It approaches Ripley, but before it can attack, she opens an airlock door, almost blowing the creature into space. It manages to hang on by gripping the frame. Ripley shoots it with a grappling hook, but the gun catches as the airlock door closes, tethering the alien to the shuttle. It pulls itself into an engine exhaust but Ripley fires the engines, blasting the creature away. After recording the final log entry, she places Jones the cat and herself into stasis for the trip home to Earth.

Syd Chang: This will hurt him and this gorilla means business! EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: APE!

Syd fired a wave of earth and it formed into the giant gorilla from the 1976 movie APE!

---

A 36-foot-gorilla escapes from an oil tanker off the coast of South Korea. After battling with a giant great white shark, the ape reaches land. Shortly after, actress Marilyn Baker arrives in Korea to shoot a film, followed by her lover and journalist Tom. As the United States Military begins receiving reports of sightings of an unknown creature, the commanding officers initially dismiss them as nonsense. They rationalize the evidence, such as giant footprints, as being the work of the film production, joking someone should ask the creature if its name is "King Kong". The ape fights a giant python before a confrontation with archers, who attack but are unable to kill the massive primate. The U.S. military, consulting with Captain Kim of the South Korean Police, become convinced the reports are genuine. However, the officers cover up the truth from the media as

Tom prods for answers.

Tom drops by the film set as Marilyn is filming a rape scene; he warns her after a cut that the ape is still at large and has killed people. Though she is skeptical of their relationship and his seriousness, they kiss. As the ape destroys entire villages, the military forcibly evacuates rural areas, and refugees flood the cities. The ape then emerges onto the filming location, where Marilyn, running as part of her performance, unwittingly lands into its paw. It carries her into the mountains, and the army gives Colonel Davis orders to capture the beast alive.

While the prehistoric creature battles helicopters, destroying a handful and giving the others the middle finger, Tom rescues Marilyn. The monster then enters Seoul, following Tom and Marilyn, and begins damaging buildings. After the creature kidnaps Marilyn again, tanks and increased firepower bring the beast down, and Tom and Marilyn are reunited.

Lynn: That must've hurt. Watch this one! EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: THE BEAST MUST DIE!

Lynn fired a wave of earth and it formed into the werewolf from the 1974 movie THE BEAST MUST DIE!

---

Millionaire Tom Newcliffe (Calvin Lockhart) invites a group of people to spend some time in his rural English mansion, along with his wife Caroline (Marlene Clark) where he reveals that one of them is a werewolf, and therefore must be killed. The group is composed of:

Arthur Bennington (Charles Gray) - a diplomat.

Jan and Davina Gilmore (Michael Gambon and Ciaran Madden) - a pianist and his ex-student, now his wife.

Paul Foote (Tom Chadbon) - an artist recently released from prison.

Prof. Lundgren (Peter Cushing) an archaeologist and a lycanthropy enthusiast.

They all stay in the mansion where they are submitted to various tests to detect whether they might be a werewolf. The entire house is under surveillance by CCTV cameras as well as motion sensors in the grounds around the mansion set up and overseen by Tom's associate Pavel (Anton Diffring), who does not believe in werewolves.

The only way to determine the identity of the werewolf is by for a certain combination of elements to occur all at once. These include the full moon, and pollen being present in the air from a wolfsbane flower. When this fails to produce any lycanthropic reactions, Tom makes each of the potential werewolves grab silver objects to provoke allergic reactions, but this too proves unsuccessful. Later that same night, Pavel is killed by the werewolf, which makes Tom even more obsessive in his hunt, to his wife's increasing annoyance. Tom gradually focuses his suspicions on Paul Foote, who was reportedly arrested after eating human flesh. Foote denies being the werewolf as the creature continues killing, with the helicopter pilot, Arthur Bennington, and Caroline's dog all falling victim.

Tom subjects the remaining group to one final test: to place a silver bullet in their mouth. As Caroline submits to the test, her hairy, clawed hand is shown before she immediately transforms into the werewolf. She (fully transformed) attacks Tom and he kills her by shooting her with a silver bullet, leaving him very distraught and confused because Caroline was alongside him when the werewolf killed her dog. Prof. Lundgren deduces that Caroline must have contracted the werewolf disease while taking care of her dog's wounds due to an open cut on her hand she sustained from a broken wineglass at dinner. Tom becomes enraged, convinced that Foote is the werewolf. When he attempts to confront him, however, he finds that Foote has also been killed. To avenge his wife, he enters the woods surrounding the mansion to hunt the werewolf. He finds the beast and finally shoots and kills it. Once dead, the werewolf reverts to its human form and it is revealed to be Jan, the pianist.

Tom returns to Prof. Lundgren and Davina, and he realizes that he was bitten by the werewolf during the scuffle, thus condemning him to inherit the creature's curse. Not wanting to be a monster, Tom locks himself in the mansion and shoots himself in the head with a silver bullet, ending the werewolf's bloodline.

Stella (Loud House): This doctor is insane! BLOOD STYLE NINJA ART: THE MAD DOCTOR OF BLOOD ISLAND!

Stella fired a wave of blood and it formed into the fucked up mad scientist of the 1969 movie THE MAD DOCTOR OF BLOOD ISLAND!

---

A woman running naked through the jungle on Blood Island is killed by a green-skinned beast that resembles a man. At the same time, a ship arrives at the island carrying American pathologist Bill Foster, who is investigating a strange chlorophyll disease among the islanders; Sheila Willard, who has come to Blood Island seeking to reunite with her father; and Carlos Lopez (Ronaldo Valdez), who wants to get his mother, Mrs. Lopez, to move off the island. The captain of the ship claims that the island is cursed and tells a story of a man they picked up on a raft who bled green blood before he escaped into the sea.

Sheila discovers that her father is a hopeless alcoholic. Mrs. Lopez does not want to leave the island, even though her husband, Don Ramon Lopez, died there recently under mysterious circumstances. The suspicious Dr. Lorca will not reveal any details about Don Ramon's death to anyone. When Foster and Lopez exhume the grave of Don Ramon, it is empty.

Rumors abound about a green-skinned monster with chlorophyll blood that has been killing the local natives. One night, a native with green sores on his body tries to break into the government house, but runs off into the jungle when he is confronted. Sheila is attacked in the jungle by the chlorophyll monster, but manages to escape when an unfortunate native who comes to her rescue is gruesomely mutilated by the creature. Sheila and Dr. Foster fall in love during their stay on the island.

It is revealed that Dr. Lorca has been experimenting on the natives, including the unfortunate Don Ramon, who had sought Dr. Lorca's serum as a treatment for his cancer, but was turned into a monster instead. They learn that Don Ramon is actually the green-blooded beast that has been killing people on the island. Don Ramon kills his wife, and almost kills his son Carlos, but at the last moment a glimmer of humanity returns to the creature and realizing what a monster he has become, he attacks Dr. Lorca in his hidden lab instead. A fire breaks out in Lorca's lab, resulting in a huge explosion, killing Dr. Lorca, his assistant and the monster.

Sheila, her father, Dr. Foster and Carlos all return to the ship, glad to finally leave Blood Island. But as the ship leaves port, a grisly hand appears from underneath a boat tarp, dripping green blood.

Qin: This monster is out for you! BLOOD STYLE NINJA ART: BEAST OF BLOOD!

Qin fired a wave of blood and it formed into the monster from the sequel to the 1969 movie The Mad Doctor of Blood Island. The monster from the 1970 movie BEAST OF BLOOD!

---

The plot of this film picks up where The Mad Doctor of Blood Island leaves off. Upon leaving Blood Island, the ship carrying Dr. Bill Foster (John Ashley), Sheila Willard, her father and Carlos Lopez explodes and sinks after mutated "chlorophyll creature" Don Ramon Lopez (the titular "Beast") is found secreted on board and goes on a rampage, destroying the ship. The monstrous Don Ramon washes up back on Blood Island and heads into the jungle. Dr. Foster is the only other survivor, and after a few months recovering in a hospital, he heads back to Blood Island on another ship. On board is reporter Myra Russell (Celeste Yarnall), who is investigating the explosion of the ship.

When Foster and Russell arrive on the island, they find the natives in a state of fear, believing that the old Lopez mansion is cursed. With the village headman Ramu (Alfonso Carvajal) and the ship's captain (played by co-producer Beverly Miller), they search the house and find Razak (Bruno Punzalan) alive. The "green men" return and after a fight, Myra is captured and taken to the evil Dr. Lorca (Eddie Garcia), who is still alive, but horribly scarred from his seeming demise in the earlier film.

Dr. Foster and Laida (Liza Belmonte) search the mountains and find Dr. Lorca's hidden lab. Laida goes back to the village for help and Lorca shows Foster his latest experiments. He has removed Don Ramon's head and has attached it to machines, while the decapitated body remains strapped to a table. Lorca knows the head can speak, but it refuses to say anything.

The captain, Laida and Ramu lead an attack on Lorca's headquarters and fight with his men. Laida finds her father, who shows signs of the chlorophyll poisoning, and rescues him. Foster shoots Razak. Don Ramon's head controls his body from afar and wills it to attack and apparently kill Dr. Lorca, crushing his head with a piece of machinery. Lorca's lab explodes, killing all inside, and Foster and the group leave with a box of Dr. Lorca's papers and notes.

Fast-talking Jasper B. Hawks drives through the forest in his car, along with his sidekick Elmer Briggs. At the same time, pilot Joi Landis pilots a single engine aircraft over the same area. Joi's engine conks out, and she is forced to parachute to safety. On the ground, she suddenly encounters a Bigfoot creature that emerges from the woods and attacks her.

Laconic biker Rick rolls into the woods with his girlfriend Chris. She stumbles onto a Bigfoot burial ground and is also attacked by a Bigfoot.

A skeptical Sheriff's department and the ranger's station are notified of the women's disappearance, but to no avail; the authorities make a half-hearted search for the missing women and give up. Rick seeks help elsewhere, but only Jasper B. Hawks believes his story, offering aid only because he plans on capturing a Bigfoot for later live exhibition in a freak show.

Meanwhile, Peggy is also attacked and tied up to a tree next to Joi. The Bigfoot creatures, it turns out, are the offspring of a larger, 12-foot tall male Bigfoot and have only been guarding the woman for him. "Dad" Bigfoot finally shows up and fights a big bear menacing the captured women, while they scream in terror.

Jasper, Elmer, and Rick trek through the woods until they reach the Bigfoot lair. "Dad" Bigfoot is gassed by Rick's bikers, and as planned gets put on display in Jasper's previously mentioned freak show. As it turns out, he is able to escape captivity rather quickly, while in the process stepping on local drunk, "Lucky Bob", killing him. "Dad" Bigfoot goes on a rampage through the town before finally returning to his cave. There, he eventually gets blown up by one of Rick's dynamite-wielding bikers.

His freak show prize now lost to him, Jasper paraphrases a line of dialog from the original King Kong (1933): "It was beauty that did him in". With "Dad" Bigfoot now dead, everybody returns to their normal lives.

Tabby: Watch this one! SLIME STYLE NINJA ART: BEWARE! THE BLOB!

Tabby fired a wave of slime and it formed into the Blob from the 1972 sequel to the 1958 movie The Blob. It was the Blob from BEWARE THE BLOB!

---

Picking up fifteen years after the events of the first movie, The Blob, an oil pipeline layer named Chester (Godfrey Cambridge) returns to his suburban Los Angeles home from the North Pole, bringing with him a small sample of a mysterious frozen substance uncovered by a bulldozer on a job site. The original release began with the scene of the bulldozer's encounter with the frozen Blob in the Arctic. Without this scene there is no explanation of Chester's job on the pipeline, or of what is in his container, or where did he obtain his sample from. Prior to taking the substance to a laboratory to be analyzed, he places the storage container with the substance in his freezer, but he and his wife Marianne (Marlene Clark) accidentally let it thaw, creating a second Blob. It starts by eating a fly, then a kitten, then Marianne, and then, in an intentional anachronism by the film makers, while Chester is watching a television broadcast of the film The Blob, it eats him, too.

Lisa (Gwynne Gilford), a friend, walks in to see Chester being consumed by the Blob. She escapes, but cannot get anyone to believe her, not even her boyfriend Bobby (Robert Walker Jr.). Meanwhile, the rapidly growing creature quietly preys upon the town. Some of its victims include a police officer and two hippies (Cindy Williams and Randy Stonehill) in a storm drain, a barber (Shelley Berman) and his client, transients (played by director Hagman, Burgess Meredith and Del Close), a Scoutmaster (Dick Van Patten), a farm full of chickens and horses, people in a gas station, and various townspeople who turn up "missing".

At one point, Lisa and Bobby find themselves trapped in Bobby's truck with the creature attempting to find a way inside. While panicking, the truck's air conditioning is accidentally switched on and the Blob retreats because of its vulnerability to cold.

The now-massive Blob then invades a bowling alley and a skating rink, consuming dozens more people in the process. It is finally stopped when Bobby activates the rink's ice mechanism, freezing it. While the frozen Blob is being filmed by a television crew, one of the crew's bright lights is positioned on the ground, melting a small portion of it, which oozes toward the sheriff and envelops his feet as he is speaking on camera to a nationwide television audience.

It grabbed Nixon and started eating him all over.

Kate Lloyd fired a wave of blood and it formed into the grotesque monsters from the 1982 nightmare movie THE THING!

n Antarctica, a Norwegian helicopter pursues a sled dog to an American research station. The Americans witness the Norwegian passenger accidentally blow up the helicopter and himself. The Norwegian pilot fires a rifle and shouts at the Americans, but they cannot understand him and he is shot dead in self-defense by station commander Garry. The American helicopter pilot, R.J. MacReady, and Dr. Copper leave to investigate the Norwegian base. Among the charred ruins and frozen corpses, they find the burned remains of a malformed humanoid which they recover to the American station. Their biologist, Blair, performs autopsies on the remains and finds a normal set of human organs.

Clark kennels the sled dog, and it soon metamorphoses and absorbs the station dogs. This disturbance alerts the team and Childs uses a flamethrower to incinerate the creature. Blair autopsies the new creature and learns that it can perfectly imitate other organisms. Recovered Norwegian data leads the Americans to a large excavation site containing a partially buried alien spacecraft, and a smaller, human-sized dig site. Norris estimates that the alien ship has been buried for at least 100,000 years. Blair grows paranoid that the creature could assimilate all life on Earth in a matter of years. The station implements controls to reduce the risk of assimilation.

The "dead," malformed humanoid creature assimilates an isolated Bennings, but Windows interrupts the process and MacReady burns the Bennings-Thing. Blair sabotages all the vehicles, kills the remaining sled dogs, and destroys the radio to prevent escape. The team imprisons him in a tool shed. Copper suggests a test to compare each member's blood against uncontaminated blood held in storage, but after learning that the blood stores have been destroyed, the men lose faith in Garry, and MacReady takes command.

MacReady, Windows and Nauls find Fuchs's burnt corpse and surmise he committed suicide to avoid assimilation. Windows returns to base while MacReady and Nauls investigate MacReady's shack. On their return, Nauls abandons MacReady in a snowstorm, believing he has been assimilated after finding his torn clothes in the shack. The team debate whether to allow MacReady inside, but he breaks in and holds the group at bay with dynamite. During the encounter, Norris appears to suffer a heart attack.

As Copper attempts to defibrillate Norris, his chest transforms into a large mouth and bites off Copper's arms, killing him. MacReady incinerates the Norris-Thing, but its head detaches and attempts to escape before also being burnt. MacReady is forced to kill Clark in self-defense when the latter lunges at him from behind with a knife. He hypothesizes that the Norris-Thing's head demonstrated that every part of the Thing is an individual life form with its own survival instinct. He sequentially tests blood samples with a heated piece of wire. Everyone passes the test except Palmer, whose blood jumps from the heat. Exposed, Palmer transforms and infects Windows, forcing MacReady to burn them both.

Childs is left on guard while the others go to test Blair. They find that Blair has escaped, and has been using vehicle components to assemble a small spacecraft. On their return, Childs is missing and the power generator is destroyed. MacReady speculates that the Thing intends to return to hibernation until a rescue team arrives. MacReady, Garry, and Nauls decide to detonate the entire station to destroy the Thing. As they set explosives, Blair kills Garry and Nauls disappears. Blair transforms into an enormous creature and destroys the detonator. MacReady triggers the explosives using a stick of dynamite, destroying the base.

MacReady sits nearby as the station burns. Childs returns, saying he became lost in the storm while pursuing Blair. Exhausted and slowly freezing to death, they acknowledge the futility of their distrust and share a bottle of scotch.

She takes a liking to him, but keeps her job a secret. Later, Etoile decides to take Christine dancing, but it turned away by Madame Tellier. He tries to sneak in by the window, but catches Christine in the middle of entertaining a client. He bursts through the window in a jealous rage, and attacks the client. Madame Tellier stops him, and chases him away. Christine confronts Etoile the next morning, and in the ensuing argument, she tells him about her history as an orphan until Madame Tellier took her in. Etoile asks Christine to marry him, but she tells him it would not work. That night, Etoile changes again, and kills clients leaving the brothel.

The attacks draw the interest of Professor Paul Cataflanque, a skilled forensic pathologist, who initially deduces that it was a wolf. He embarks on his own investigation against the protests of his friend, Inspector Gerard, and inspects the wolves in Etoile's zoo. Etoile's demonstration of their gentleness leaves Paul sceptical, as does the new evidence gathered. The evidence leads him to the brothel, and he questions Madame Tellier, who is put out by his requests to identify the bodies. He brings photographs of the victims, and she lies about having seen them. However, Christine sees them also, and Paul, noting her reaction, questions her in private. She admits to having had them as clients, but leaves Etoile out of her story.

Meanwhile, the Prefect of Police decides to make Paul's wolf theory official, and orders all zoos to kill their wolves. Etoile is given the grisly task, and he is beside himself with grief. Christine visits him, and leaves to get the zookeeper, thinking Etoile is sick. Etoile changes, and escapes into the sewer before she returns. With his rage and grief spurring his viciousness, Etoile goes on a killing spree, and hides in the sewers the next day. Paul discovers one of the victims is still alive, and revives her long enough to hear her speak of a creature neither a man nor a wolf. Paul's servant Boulon tells him of the werewolf tales from his countryside home, and Paul deduces the attacker will kill the next night. He interviews Christine again, and asks her to wait in Etoile's room. He gets a map of the sewers, and forges a silver bullet as a precaution.

That night, he goes down into the sewers, and encounters Etoile. Paul tries to reason with him, offering his help. Etoile is temporarily brought to sanity, but Gerard, warned by Boulon, attacks at the last minute. Etoile flees to the zoo, followed by Paul. Christine is shocked and frightened by Etoile's wolf form, but Etoile does not hurt her. Paul tries once more, but Gerard shoots Etoile with the silver bullet. Etoile dies, changing back into a man while Christine looks on in grief.

Nico: Watch this one! WOLF MOON STYLE NINJA ART: THE ISLAND OF DR. MOREAU!

Nico fired a wave of blue fire and it formed into the man-creatures from the 1977 movie THE ISLAND OF DR. MOREAU!

---

Ship's engineer Andrew Braddock (York) and two other men are floating in a lifeboat in the middle of the Pacific following the wreck of the ship Lady Vain. One dies at sea. After seventeen days at sea, Braddock and the other man land on an island, where the other man accompanying Braddock is promptly killed by animals. Braddock is nursed back to health in the compound governed by the mysterious scientist "Dr. Moreau" (Lancaster). Besides Moreau, the inhabitants of the compound include Moreau's associate, Montgomery

(Davenport), a mercenary; Moreau's mute, misshapen servant, M'Ling (Cravat); and a ravishing young woman named Maria (Carrera). Moreau warns Braddock not to leave the compound at night.

Moreau welcomes Braddock as an honored guest and willingly shares his fine library, but there are some strange goings-on. One day Braddock witnesses Moreau and Montgomery manhandling a chained creature who is clearly not quite human, and the island is home to more than just this one recites the laws Moreau passed on to them. Moreau explains that they are, in fact, the hybrid products of his experiments upon various species of wild animal. Braddock is both shocked and curious. Moreau explains that he is injecting the animals with a serum containing human genetic material. At times, the human/animal hybrids still have their animal instincts and don't quite behave like a human which sometimes enrages Moreau, feeling that his experiments haven't worked successfully. That night, as Braddock is reeling from learning the truth, Maria goes to his room where they have sex. It is implied that this is intended by Moreau.

The following day, Braddock takes a rifle and leaves the compound, determined to see exactly how the hybrid creatures live. He enters a cave and finds several of them (all male). Just as he is surrounded by them and about to use the rifle to defend himself, Moreau appears and restores order. The Sayer of the Law (Richard Basehart) is the only one of Moreau's experimental beasts who can speak; Moreau calls on him to utter the three laws (no going around on all fours, no eating of human flesh, no taking of other life) aloud to the other creatures. This reminds them that they must not attack Braddock.

After the Bull-Man (Bob Ozman) kills a tiger, Moreau intends to take it to the "house of pain", his laboratory, as punishment. The Bull-Man panics and runs. Braddock finds it in the jungle, badly injured, where it begs him to kill it rather than return it to the lab. Braddock shoots it, angering the man-beasts, as Braddock has broken the law of killing.

Convinced that Moreau is insane, Braddock prepares to leave the island with Maria. Moreau stops them and straps Braddock to the table in his lab. He then injects him with another serum so that he can hear Braddock describe the experience of becoming animalistic. Caged, Braddock struggles to maintain his humanity. When Montgomery objects to this treatment, Moreau shoots him in cold blood.

Outside the compound, the angry man-beasts turn on Moreau because by killing Montgomery, he has broken the very rule he expected them to follow. He is killed at the compound's gate while trying to whip his attackers into submission. The man-beasts, now overpowered by their primitive natures, go on a rampage to try and break into the compound and destroy the house of pain as the Sayer of the Law states "There is no law."

Braddock, still struggling to remain human, Maria, M'Ling, and the still-coherent and benign beastfolk servant women stave them off and engineer an escape through the compound. Eventually, the man-beasts break-in and the compound is burned. In the chaos, the wild animals which Moreau kept for his experiments are turned loose and a battle ensues between them and the hybrids. Most of the man-beasts are killed by the animals or consumed by the fire, the Sayer of the Law's throat torn out by a tiger, the Bear-Man tackled off a roof by a black panther, and the lion-man is mauled by a normal lion. During the final escape, M'Ling risks his life to save his companions from a lion and both fall into a pit trap.

Braddock and Maria manage to float away in the lifeboat that Braddock arrived in, but are followed by a Bear-Man (David Cass) who is one of the last man-beasts. After a battle with each other, Braddock kills the Bear-Man with a broken oar. Sometime later, they see a passing ship, and the serum has worn off, returning Braddock to his full human state as Maria looks on with catlike eyes.

At night, a carnivorous, shape-shifting alien named Kator lands in the woods of rural England. The vanguard of an invasion force, his mission is to evaluate the suitability of humans as a source of food for his species. Stumbling across Anderson and Sandy, a couple having a tryst in their parked car, he kills both and assumes the appearance of Anderson. The next morning, he encounters Jessica-Ann and Josephine, a lesbian couple who live in a nearby manor house. Although Jessica owns the property, having inherited it from her Canadian parents, the dominant of the pair is Jo, who is unusually possessive of Jessica and deeply suspicious of men. Simon, Jessica's boyfriend, has mysteriously disappeared. The women are vegetarians and live in seclusion with only a few chickens and a pet parrot, Wally, for company.

Calling himself Anders, and feigning an injured leg, Kator is taken in by Jessica and Jo. His arrival immediately causes friction between the two. Bored of her monotonous existence, Jessica welcomes the stranger's arrival. Jo, however, openly resents his presence and suggests that the socially-awkward Anders is an escapee from a psychiatric hospital (which she is herself). Later, having returned to the spot where he killed Anderson and Sandy, Kator kills and partly devours two policemen who are examining the couple's abandoned car. Back at the house, Jessica finds a knife and bloodstained clothes in a spare bedroom; recognising the latter as Simon's, she realises that he was murdered by Jo.

The next morning, Jo is furious to discover that all the chickens have been slaughtered. Blaming a local fox, she lays traps for the animal and goes after it with a rifle, assisted by Jessica and Kator. When the hunt fails, Kator tracks and kills the fox on his own and presents it to Jessica and Jo as a trophy. The trio celebrate with a champagne party for which Jo dresses Kator in drag. A subsequent game of hide-and-seek brings out more of the hunter in Kator. Later, Jo is disturbed to find the fox carcass stripped bare and realises that the animal was not caught in a trap as she and Jessica thought. Jessica angrily rejects her warnings about Anders, interpreting Jo's fear as jealousy and revealing that she knows the truth about Simon.

The next morning, Jo arms herself with her knife and stalks Kator as he hunts swans on a nearby river. Her attempt to eliminate him is thwarted when he starts to drown, alerting Jessica with his screams. Jessica and Jo rescue Kator and take him back to the house. While the two women clean themselves up, Kator kills and consumes Wally. Jessica tells Jo that she is no longer willing to be controlled and is leaving with Anders. Outraged, Jo knocks Jessica unconscious and runs into the woods to dig a grave for her. On waking, Jessica seduces Kator. As they start to have sex, Kator's predatory instincts are stirred, causing him to revert to his natural form and tear open Jessica's throat, killing her. Having returned to the house, Jo attempts to flee but falls into the open grave just as Kator catches up with her, and she screams as the scene fades to black.

Some time later, Kator leaves the house and calls his mother ship on an alien transceiver. Hungrily watching two girls walk along the river, he advises his superiors to dispatch more of his kind to Earth.

On the Berlin subway, a mysterious, masked man offers university student Cheryl two tickets to a free screening at the Metropol, an isolated and recently renovated local cinema. Cheryl talks her friend Kathy into going with her; at the theater, they meet two preppy college boys, George and Ken. Other attendees of the screening include a blind man and his guide daughter; a married couple; a boyfriend and girlfriend; and a pimp named Tony along with his two prostitutes. One of the prostitutes, Rosemary, scratches her face with a bizarre mask that is on display in the lobby. The film being shown is a violent, disturbing horror film about four teenagers who discover an old tomb and dig up the grave of a sixteenth-century fortune teller called Nostradamus. When the teenagers dig up Nostradamus's coffin, they find no body and instead an old book and a mask identical to the strange mask in the lobby. When one of the movie's characters puts the mask on and is scratched by it just like Rosemary was by its doppelganger, he then turns evil and slaughters his friends.

Feeling ill, Rosemary goes to the bathroom, where she transforms into a bloodthirsty, red-eyed demon like the one in the film. Rosemary attacks her friend, Carmen, who then transforms into a demon in front of the rest of the cinema-goers. The group of uninfected people race to any exit they can find, only to find that they have all been bricked up making escape impossible. Although they attempt to barricade themselves in the balcony, many are attacked and infected by the demons. One of the demons escapes into the city when four punks break into the building through a back entrance; the punks are soon transformed into demons as well.

In the cinema, only George and Cheryl remain uninfected. Using a display motorcycle and sword props from the foyer, they ride through the auditorium, slicing down many demons. George kills nearly all of them when suddenly, a helicopter crashes through the roof. George and Cheryl use an emergency grappling hook and winch to climb to the roof, where they are attacked by the mysterious man from the subway. They are able to kill him by impaling his head on an exposed bit of rebar. The two climb down to the street and discover that the demonic infection has spread throughout Berlin. They are then chased by a horde of demons before being picked up by a jeep of well-armed survivors. As they drive out of the city to safety, Cheryl (having been infected at some point in the theater) transforms into a demon. But before she can harm George, one of the survivalists shoots and kills her. As Cheryl's body collapses into the roadway, George and the survivalists drive out of the city.

Gar Seberg (Svenson) and his wife Ellen (Mimieux), return to his home town, a ski resort in the Colorado Rockies. Gar is a former Olympic skiing champion, and is looking for work. As they arrive, the town's annual Snow Carnival is spoiled by the disappearance of some vacationers. Resort owner Carrie Rill (Sylvia Sidney), fears losing business and tries to keep the disappearances a secret, but there are witnesses, who say that the culprit is a Yeti or Bigfoot/ Sasquatch. As it is revealed that the missing people were brutally killed, the local sheriff (Walker) spreads the story that there is a lone savage bear on the loose. Carrie's grandson Tony (Logan) gives Gar a job at the resort, but also tells him that he must stalk and kill the monster. Ellen was previously in television and had worked on a documentary about Sasquatch sightings, so Gar has an open mind and is reluctant to kill the beast-until he sees the remains of the first victim. Then the monster comes to town, killing the mother of the carnival queen and sending the town into a panic.

In the film's climax, Gar, Ellen, Tony and the sheriff go to the woods and track the monster. The creature attacks Gar, who shoots it, but the beast is still alive, so Gar picks up a ski pole and impales it, causing it to fall off the cliff and die.

Continuing after the end of the events of Godzilla vs. Mechagodzilla, Interpol agents, led by Inspector Kusaka, search for the pieces of Mechagodzilla at the bottom of the Okinawan Sea. Using the submarine Akatsuki, they hope to gather information on the robot's builders, the alien Simeons. The Akatsuki is suddenly attacked by a giant aquatic dinosaur called Titanosaurus and the crew vanishes.

Interpol starts an investigation into the incident. With the help of marine biologist Akira Ichinose, they trace Titanosaurus to a reclusive, mad scientist named Shinzô Mafune, who wants to destroy all mankind. While Ichinose is visiting his old home in the seaside forest of Manazuru, they meet Mafune's lone daughter, Katsura. She tells them that not only is her father dead, but she burned all of the notes about the giant dinosaur (at her father's request). Unbeknownst to them, Mafune is still alive and well. He is visited by his friend Tsuda, who is an aide to the alien leader Mugal. He is leading the project to quickly rebuild Mechagodzilla. Mugal offers their services to Mafune, so that his Titanosaurus and their Mechagodzilla 2 (which is even more powerful than the original) will be the ultimate weapons. They hope to wipe out mankind and rebuild the world for themselves, starting with Tokyo and branching out from there.

But things become complicated for both factions when Ichinose falls in love with Katsura and unwittingly gives her Interpol's information against Titanosaurus, the new Mechagodzilla and the aliens. It is also discovered that Katsura is actually a cyborg, due to undergoing surgery after nearly being killed during one of her father's experiments when she was a child, and Mugal still has uses for her. Meanwhile, Mafune is desperate to unleash Titanosaurus without the aliens' permission, so he releases it on Yokosuka one night. By then, Interpol discovers that supersonic waves are Titanosaurus' weakness. They have a supersonic wave oscillator ready, but Katsura sabotages the machine before they can use it. Fortunately, Godzilla arrives to fight off Titanosaurus and easily defeats him, causing him to retreat back to the sea.

Later, when Ichinose visits Katsura, he is captured by the aliens. Tied up, Ichinose can only watch as Mafune and the aliens unleash Mechagodzilla 2 and Titanosaurus on Tokyo, while Interpol struggles to repair their supersonic wave oscillator and the Japanese armed forces struggle to keep the two monsters at bay.

Katsura, while being controlled by Mugal, ignores Ichinose's pleas and controls both the dinosaur and the robot as they destroy the city.

Godzilla comes to the rescue, although at first he is outmatched by the two titans. While Interpol distracts Titanosaurus with the repaired supersonic wave oscillator, Godzilla is able to focus on attacking Mechagodzilla 2. Interpol agents infiltrate the aliens' hideout, rescue Ichinose, and kill Mafune and many of the aliens. The remaining aliens attempt to escape in their ships, but Godzilla shoots them down with his atomic heat ray. The wounded Katsura, while being embraced by Ichinose, shoots herself in order to destroy Mechagodzilla 2's control device (which had been implanted in her body earlier by the aliens). This allows Godzilla to destroy the robot, which short-circuits and is tossed by him into a huge chasm made by the battle, after which Godzilla blasts it with his atomic heat ray, causing it to explode into little pieces of metal again, which are then buried within the chasm at the same time. Godzilla, with the help of the oscillator, then defeats Titanosaurus and heads back to the sea.

Warren: Try this one on! CARNAGE STYLE NINJA ART: NIGHT OF THE LEPUS!

Warren fired a wave of blood and it formed into numerous giant rabbits from the 1972 movie NIGHT OF THE LEPUS!

---

Rancher Cole Hillman seeks the help of college president Elgin Clark to combat thousands of rabbits that have invaded the area after their natural predators, coyotes, were killed off. Elgin asks for the assistance of researchers Roy and Gerry Bennett because they respect Cole's wish to avoid using cyanide to poison the rabbits. Roy proposes using hormones to disrupt the rabbits' breeding cycle and takes some rabbits for experimentation. One is injected with a new serum believed to cause birth defects. However, the Bennetts' daughter Amanda loves the injected rabbit, so she switches it with one from the control group. Amanda is then given the injected rabbit as a pet, but it soon escapes.

While inspecting the rabbits' old burrowing areas, Cole and the Bennetts find a large, unusual animal track. Meanwhile, Cole's son Jackie and Amanda go to a gold mine to visit Jackie's friend Billy, but find him missing. Jackie finds more of the animal tracks in Billy's shed, while Amanda goes into the mine and runs into an enormous rabbit with blood on its face. Screaming in terror, she runs from the mine.

Mutilated bodies begin to crop up around town, including those of Billy, a truck driver, and a family of four. Elgin, the Bennetts, Cole, and Cole's two ranch hands Frank and Jud go to the mine to try to kill the rabbits with explosives. As Elgin and Cole set charges on top of the mine, Roy and Frank enter the shaft to get pictorial evidence. Outside, a rabbit surfaces and attacks Jud before Gerry can shoot it. Roy and Frank escape the rabbits in the mine and run outside as the explosives are detonated.

The explosives fail to kill the rabbits, and that night they attack Cole's ranch, killing Jud while Cole, Frank, Jackie, and Cole's housekeeper Dorothy escape into the storm shelter. The rabbits make their way to the general store, killing shopkeeper Mildred (Francesca Jarvis) and eating everyone else in the small town of Galanos they find before taking refuge in the buildings for the day. In the morning, Gerry and Amanda leave to avoid the coming press, but get stuck along a sandy stretch of road. Roy and Elgin update Sheriff Cody on the situation and, after realizing the rabbits have escaped the mine, call in the National Guard. As night falls, the rabbits leave Galanos to continue their rampage, making their way to the main town of Ajo and eating and killing everyone in their path. Cole proposes using a half-mile wide stretch of electrified railroad track as a fence to contain and kill the rabbits. They recruit a large group of people at a drive-in theater to help herd the rabbits with their car lights, with assistance from the machine gun fire of the National Guard.

Thousands of rabbits make their way into the trap, where they are shot and electrocuted. At the film's ending, Cole tells Roy that normal rabbits, as well as coyotes, have returned to the ranch.

The ending shows Roy and Gerry running on a grassy field where a normal rabbit is shown sitting on the grass before the end credits roll.

For 57 years, Ellen Ripley has been in stasis in an escape shuttle after destroying her ship, the Nostromo, to escape a lethal alien creature that slaughtered her crew. She is rescued and debriefed by her employers at the Weyland-Yutani Corporation, but they are skeptical of her claims that her crew found alien eggs in a derelict ship on the exomoon LV-426, as it is now the site of the terraforming colony Hadleys Hope.

After contact is lost with the colony, Weyland-Yutani representative Carter Burke and Colonial Marine Lieutenant Gorman ask Ripley to accompany them to investigate. Still traumatized from her alien encounter, she agrees on the condition that they exterminate the creatures. Aboard the spaceship USS Sulaco, she is introduced to the Colonial Marines and the android Bishop.

A dropship delivers the expedition to the surface of LV-426, where they find the colony deserted. Inside, they find makeshift barricades and battle signs, but no bodies; two live facehuggers in containment tanks; and a traumatized young girl nicknamed Newt, the sole survivor. The crew locates the colonists grouped beneath the fusion-powered atmosphere processing station. They head to the location, descending into corridors covered in alien secretions.

At the center of the station, the marines find the colonists cocooned, serving as incubators for the creatures' offspring. The marines kill an infant alien after it bursts from a colonist's chest, rousing multiple adult aliens who ambush the marines, killing or capturing many of them. When the inexperienced Gorman panics, Ripley assumes command, taking control of their armored personnel carrier, and rams the nest to rescue Corporal Hicks, and Privates Hudson and Vasquez. Hicks orders the dropship to recover the survivors, but a stowaway alien kills the pilots, causing it to crash into the station.

The remaining group barricades themselves inside the colony.

Ripley discovers that Burke had ordered the colonists to investigate the derelict spaceship containing the alien eggs, intending to become wealthy by recovering alien specimens for use as biological weapons. She threatens to expose him, but Bishop informs the group that the dropship crash damaged the power plant cooling system, and it will soon explode and destroy the colony. He volunteers to crawl through extensive piping conduits to reach the colony's transmitter and remotely pilot the Sulaco's remaining dropship to the surface.

Ripley and Newt fall asleep in the medical laboratory, awakening to find themselves locked in the room with the two facehuggers, which have been released from their tanks. Ripley triggers a fire alarm to alert the marines, who rescue them and kill the creatures. Ripley accuses Burke of releasing the facehuggers so that they would impregnate her and Newt, allowing him to smuggle the embryos past Earth's quarantine, and of planning to kill the rest of the marines so that no one could contradict his version of events. The power is suddenly cut, and aliens assault through the ceiling. In the ensuing firefight, Burke flees but is cornered by an alien and killed, while Hudson is captured after covering the others' retreat. Gorman and the injured Vasquez sacrifice themselves to stall the aliens; Hicks is injured, and Newt is captured.

Ripley and Hicks reach Bishop in the second dropship, but Ripley refuses to abandon Newt. The group travels to the processing station, allowing a heavily armed Ripley to enter the hive and rescue Newt. As they escape, the two encounter the alien queen in her egg chamber. When an egg begins to open, Ripley uses her flamethrower to destroy the eggs and the queen's ovipositor. Pursued by the enraged queen, Ripley and Newt reunite with Bishop and Hicks on the dropship. All four escape moments before the station explodes with the colony consumed by the nuclear blast.

On the Sulaco, the group is ambushed by the queen, who stowed away in the ship's landing gear. The queen tears Bishop in half and advances on Newt, but Ripley battles the creature using an exosuit cargo-loader and expels it through an airlock into space. Ripley, Newt, Hicks, and the critically damaged Bishop enter hypersleep for their return trip to Earth.

Miss Martin, the CEO of Tri-Oceanic Corp., hires geologist Steven Beck to supervise an undersea mining operation for three months. The crew consists of members Dr. Glen 'Doc' Thompson, Elizabeth 'Willie' Williams, Buzz 'Sixpack' Parrish, Justin Jones, Tony DeJesus Rodero, Bridget Bowman and G.P. Cobb. While working outside their deep sea station in a pressure suit, Sixpack discovers a Soviet shipwreck, Leviathan. The crew salvage a safe from Leviathan, finding records detailing the deaths of several crew members as well as a video log from the captain. Sixpack also finds a flask of vodka which he shares with Bowman. Doc and Beck review the captain's video, which describes puzzling medical problems amongst his crew. They also discover that Leviathan was scuttled.

The following morning, Sixpack feels sick and Doc discovers lesions along his back. He dies a few hours later, but Doc and Beck keep it quiet to avoid a panic. Doc checks the crew to confirm no one else is sick, but does not have the chance to examine Bowman. While Beck and Doc confer with Martin on the surface, Bowman begins feeling ill. She finds Sixpack's corpse, which is mutating and growing. When Bowman's hair starts falling out, she realizes the same thing is happening to her. Beck and Doc request emergency evacuation, but Martin reports a severe storm on the surface that will delay evacuation for 12 hours.

Doc finds that Bowman killed herself. Her body is taken to sickbay, where it merges with Sixpack's. When the crew discovers the mutating bodies, they decide to dump both of them in the ocean. As they are about to "flush" the cadavers, the body bag begins squirming. Believing someone inside may be alive, the crew opens it. The creature inside claws Cobb before they eject it. They realize that Leviathan was experimenting on its unwitting crew with mutagens. The mutagen was mixed with the vodka that the crew, and later Sixpack and Bowman, drank. The ship was scuttled when the experiment escaped control.

A tentacle was severed when the corpses were ejected; it mutates into a lamprey-like creature that attacks DeJesus in the kitchen. Jones seals the kitchen's pressure doors and goes for help. He asks Cobb to watch the door, but when he searches for a weapon, the creature assimilates DeJesus and rips its way out of the kitchen. It then grows tentacles that attack the crew.

The creature attacks the medical bay, devouring blood and plasma from the cooler. This inspires Beck to use a pint of his blood to attract the beast, then attempt to flush it the same way they did with the Sixpack and Bowman creature. Doc ejects the escape pods so that no one can escape and risk bringing the mutagen to the surface. Beck consults with Martin for emergency evacuation. Martin assures them that they will not be left behind, but that she cannot carry out the rescue because of a hurricane.

Cobb's injuries worsen, causing him to mutate and infect Doc. Williams escapes as Beck and Jones try trapping the creature. They escape to another part of the station. The crew tries accessing weather information through the computer, but it is blocked. Williams asks the computer for a financial report from the company and they discover that Tri-Oceanic Corporation has declared them dead, labeling it an accident.

The creature damages vital systems, causing the pressure to drop and an implosion to occur. They decide to use their dive suits to escape. The creature attacks them, but is crushed by the lift as Beck escapes. They make it to the surface, which is calm and sunny. As they are met by a Coast Guard helicopter, the mutant surfaces nearby and tries to take Jones. He keeps it from escaping at the cost of his own life, and Beck throws a demolition charge into the creature's mouth, causing it to explode.

After they are dropped off on a Tri-Oceanic oil drilling platform, the two survivors are greeted by Martin. Martin tells them she believed they would make it, smiling insincerely and asking how Beck feels. Beck punches Martin in the face, knocking her out, and then answers her question by saying "Better. A lot better."

Peter Venkman, Ray Stantz, and Egon Spengler are scientists at Columbia University investigating the paranormal. Following their first encounter with a ghost manifesting at the New York Public Library, the dean fires them and dismisses the credibility of their research. In response, they create "Ghostbusters", a paranormal investigation and elimination service. They convert a disused firehouse, develop high-tech equipment to capture and contain ghosts, and convert a combination car into the "Ectomobile" to support their business.

Seeing their television ad, a skeptical cellist, Dana Barrett, is initially dismissive but reluctantly calls them after a paranormal encounter in her kitchen. Recounting the event, she describes opening her refrigerator and seeing a creature that utters a single word: "Zuul." Venkman reassures her and becomes romantically interested, while Ray and Egon research her claims. Business is slow until they are hired to remove a ghost from the Sedgewick Hotel. There, Egon warns the group never to cross the energy streams of their proton pack weapons, as this could cause a catastrophic explosion. They capture their first ghost and deposit it in a special containment unit in the firehouse.

Soon their business booms as paranormal activity increases across

New York City. To cope with demand, they hire a fourth member, Winston Zeddemore. Suspicious of their operation, Walter Peck, an Environmental Protection Agency inspector, asks to evaluate their equipment but leaves after Venkman insults him. Privately, Egon warns the team the increase in supernatural activity is becoming dangerous and their equipment is at risk of failing under the stress.

Venkman meets with Dana. He shares that Zuul was a demigod worshiped as a servant to "Gozer the Gozerian," a shape-shifting god of destruction. He convinces Dana to discuss her case further over dinner. However, when Dana returns home, she is supernaturally assaulted and possessed by Zuul. In a nearby apartment, a nearly identical entity manifests, then chases and possesses her neighbor, Louis Tully. Venkman arrives and finds the possessed Dana/Zuul claiming to be "the Gatekeeper." Louis, also possessed, is found by police officers and claims he is "Vinz Clortho, the Keymaster of Gozer." The Ghostbusters agree they need to regroup but keep the pair separated.

Peck returns with law-enforcement and city workers to have the Ghostbusters arrested and orders the deactivation of their ghost containment system. Stressed beyond capacity, the shutdown causes an explosion that releases the captured ghosts, and the Ghostbusters are detained. Louis/Vinz manages to escape in the confusion and makes his way to the apartment building where he meets Dana/Zuul. In jail, Ray and Egon reveal that Dana's building is the true source of the supernatural increase. The architect was a genius and cult leader of Gozer-worshippers, who designed it to channel ghosts for the purpose of ending the world. Faced with chaos in the city, the Ghostbusters convince the mayor to release them over Peck's protests.

On the apartment building roof, Dana/Zuul and Louis/Vinz open the gate between dimensions and transform into supernatural creatures just as the Ghostbusters arrive. Gozer, in the form of a woman, arrives, and Ray attempts to reason with her first. When this fails, Gozer attacks, forcing the Ghostbusters to attempt to trap her, but she disappears. Her disembodied voice demands the Ghostbusters "choose the form of the destructor." Raymond inadvertently recalls a beloved corporate mascot from his childhood, and Gozer reappears in the form of a giant, "Stay Puft" marshmallow man that proceeds to attack the city. Egon tells the team to ignore his earlier advice and cross their proton energy streams at Gozer's portal. The resulting explosion destroys Gozer's marshmallow man form, banishes it from this dimension, and closes the portal. The Ghostbusters rescue Dana and Louis from the wreckage and are welcomed on the street as heroes.

Polly Pain: This is gonna really be sticky! CARNAGE STYLE NINJA ART: THE BLOB!

Polly fired a wave of blood and it formed into The Blob from the 1988 remake of the 1958 film THE BLOB!

---

A meteorite crashes near Arborville, California. An elderly transient discovers, within the sphere, a massive slime mold-like substance that adheres to his hand. Three high school students, Brian, Meg and Paul, take him to a hospital. After Brian leaves, Paul witnesses the lower half of the transient melting from exposure to the Blob. As he calls for help, the Blob drops on top of him. Meg arrives to see Paul being devoured by the growing Blob. While she tries freeing him, his arm dissolves off, Meg is thrown against a wall and knocked unconscious, and the Blob oozes out of the hospital.

After Brian and Meg have unsatisfactory encounters with the police, they meet at a diner where Meg tells Brian about the Blob. Brian's disbelief is shattered when the diner's handyman is pulled through a sink drain by the Blob. It pursues them to the diner's walk-in freezer, but the Blob retreats after entering the freezer. After consuming the diner's owner Fran Hewitt and Sheriff Geller, the Blob reenters the sewers. Meg and Brian return to the police station, where the dispatcher tells them Deputy Briggs is near the meteor-landing site. They discover a military operation led by a scientist, Dr. Meddows, who orders the town and the two teens quarantined. While Brian escapes, Meg is taken to town where she learns her younger brother, Kevin, is missing. Meg learns he and his friend, Eddie, sneaked into the movie theater. The Blob enters the theater, attacking the staff and audience. Meg arrives as the audience flees the theater, rescuing Eddie and Kevin.

Brian eavesdrops on Meddows and Jennings talking and learns that the Blob is a biological warfare experiment created during the Cold War, launched into space because it was so dangerous. Learning that the Blob has entered the sewers, Meddows decide to trap it there, even if that means allowing Meg, Kevin, and Eddie to die. Brian is discovered listening in and evades military personnel by driving his motorcycle into the sewers. In the sewers, Meg and Kevin flee from the Blob when it emerges and consumes Eddie. Kevin escapes by scaling a pipe to the surface, and Meg is saved by Brian, who confronts Meddows in front of the townsfolk and Briggs. After failing to convince everyone Brian is contaminated and must die, Meddows attempts to shoot him, but is killed by the Blob as it oozes into his chemical suit and drags him into the sewer. Then the Blob feasts upon the population, impervious to the military's attempts to stop it, killing Colonel Hargis and multiple others. The town's Reverend Meeker proclaims the scene to be the prophesied end of the world, after which a failed flamethrower attack on the Blob sets him ablaze. Meg saves him with a fire extinguisher, and in the process blasts the Blob with it. When the monster backs off, she realizes that the Blob cannot tolerate cold.

The survivors retreat to the town hall and hold the Blob off with furniture-barricades and fire extinguishers, but it is a losing battle; the Blob engulfs half the building and devours Briggs. Brian goes to the town's garage and gets a snow maker truck that has canisters of liquid nitrogen attached. As the Blob is about to consume Meg and her family, Brian shoots snow at the creature, which is angered and knocks the truck over. As the Blob surges toward Brian, Meg lures it away from him toward the canisters, which she has rigged with an explosive charge taken from a dying soldier. She tries getting clear, but snags her foot between two pieces of metal, trapping her. Brian regains consciousness and runs over to free her. The Blob is about to overrun them when the charge goes off, blowing up the canisters and covering the Blob in liquid nitrogen. The creature is flash-frozen into a mass of crystallized pieces. Moss Woodley has its remains stored in the town ice house.

Later, at a tent-meeting church service in a field, Meeker, disfigured by his burns and secretly driven insane, preaches a doomsday sermon resembling the Blob's attack. He has a still-living piece of the Blob, trapped inside a glass jar.

---

In the early 1960s, a three-girl "Greek chorus"-Crystal, Ronnette, and Chiffon-introduce the film, warning the audience that some horror is coming their way ("Prologue: Little Shop of Horrors"). Seymour Krelborn and his colleague, Audrey, work at Mushnik's Flower Shop in a run-down, rough neighborhood in New York City referred to as "Skid Row". They lament that they cannot escape the neighborhood ("Skid Row (Downtown)"). Struggling from a lack of customers, Mr. Mushnik decides to close the store, but Audrey suggests he may have more success by displaying an unusual plant that Seymour owns. Immediately attracting a customer, Seymour explains he bought the plant-which he dubbed "Audrey II"-from a Chinese flower shop during a solar eclipse ("Da-Doo"). Attracting business to Mushnik's shop, the plant soon starts to wither. Seymour accidentally pricks his finger, and discovers that Audrey II needs human blood to thrive ("Grow for Me").

Audrey II begins to grow rapidly and Seymour becomes a local celebrity. Meanwhile Audrey suffers at the hands of her abusive sadistic, boyfriend Orin Scrivello; however, she has feelings for Seymour and secretly dreams of running off with him to the suburbs ("Somewhere That's Green"). Seymour continues to feed Audrey II his own blood, draining his energy ("Some Fun Now"). Seymour soon attempts to ask Audrey out, but she turns him down because she has a date with Orin, who is revealed to be a dentist ("Dentist!"). After Seymour closes up shop, Audrey II begins to talk to Seymour, demanding more blood than Seymour can give. The plant proposes that Seymour murder someone in exchange for fame and fortune, as well as the ability to woo Audrey; Seymour initially refuses, but eventually agrees after witnessing Orin beating Audrey ("Feed Me (Git It!)").

After Orin finishes with his masochistic patient, Arthur Denton, who had requested "a long, slow, root canal", Seymour draws a revolver on Orin, but cannot bring himself to use it. Orin, who abuses nitrous oxide, puts on a type of venturi mask to receive a constant flow of the gas, but breaks the valve, and Seymour watches as he asphyxiates. Seymour dismembers Orin's body and feeds it to Audrey II, which has grown to enormous size, but is unknowingly witnessed by Mushnik, who flees in fear.

Audrey, feeling guilty over Orin's disappearance, is comforted by Seymour and the two admit their feelings for each other ("Suddenly, Seymour"). That night, Mushnik confronts Seymour about Orin's death and holds Seymour at gunpoint, blackmailing him into turning the plant over and leaving town. With no choice, Seymour begins to tell him how to care for Audrey II but before he can reveal the secret, the plant swallows Mushnik whole ("Suppertime").

Despite widespread success, Seymour worries about Audrey II's growth and unbridled appetite ("The Meek Shall Inherit"). Offered money and a contract for a botany TV show, Seymour becomes overwhelmed and decides to escape Skid Row with Audrey using money coming the next day, and leaving the plant to starve. After Audrey accepts Seymour's marriage proposal, Audrey II catches Seymour leaving and demands another meal: Seymour agrees, but insists on meat from a butcher. While Seymour is gone, the plant telephones Audrey, coaxes her into the shop, and then tries to eat her ("Suppertime II").

Seymour, returning in time to save Audrey, escapes the store with her. Explaining that he fed the plant to become successful and win Audrey's heart, Seymour discovers she has always loved him ("Suddenly, Seymour" (reprise)). Approached by an executive named Patrick Martin from a botanical company, Seymour is offered a contract to breed Audrey II and sell the saplings worldwide. Horrified by the idea, Seymour drives Martin away and realizes he must destroy Audrey II for the sake of humanity.

Returning to the shop, Seymour learns that Audrey II is actually an alien from outer space ("Mean Green Mother from Outer Space"). Audrey II traps Seymour and destroys the shop, but he grabs an exposed electrical cable and electrocutes it, resulting in an explosion. Leaving the destroyed shop, Seymour safely reunites with Audrey. The two wed and move to the suburbs. As they arrive at their new home, which is the one seen in Audrey's dreams, a smiling Audrey II bud can be seen among the flowers in their front yard.

Original/Cut ending

During production, director Oz shot a 23-minute ending based on the off-Broadway musical's ending. However, after audiences at the preview screenings did not react positively to it, the ending had to be rewritten and re-shot for the theatrical release with a happier ending.

In the cut ending, the plant attacks Audrey, in the process revealing to her that it also ate Orin and Mr. Mushnik. Seymour comes and pulls her from its jaws but is too late to save her, as she is mortally wounded. As she is dying she tells him what the plant said about Orin and Mushnik, and then Seymour confesses that he fed them to the plant. Audrey requests that Seymour feed her to the plant too so that Seymour can earn the success he deserves ("Somewhere That's Green" (reprise)). After fulfilling her dying wish, he attempts suicide by jumping off the roof of a building, only to be stopped by Patrick Martin. Martin offers to reproduce and sell Audrey IIs and has already grown a smaller Audrey II from one of the cuttings that he harvested earlier. He also warns Seymour that his consent is not necessary, as plants are considered to be in the public domain. Realizing Audrey II is planning global domination, Seymour climbs down from the roof with the resolution to destroy the plant. Returning to the shop, he confronts and tries to kill Audrey II, who tears down the shop, fishes him from the rubble and eats him alive. The plant then spits out Seymour's glasses and laughs victoriously ("Mean Green Mother from Outer Space)".

The three chorus girls appear in front of a large American flag and tell how although Audrey II buds became a worldwide consumer craze, the buds grew into an army of monstrous plants who began to take over the Earth. Giant Audrey II plants are shown destroying cities, toppling buildings, as well as eating people. The United States Army attempts to fight the buds as they ascend the Statue of Liberty and Audrey II eventually bursts through the movie screen and presumably eats the viewers ("Finale (Don't Feed The Plants)").

Seth Brundle, a brilliant but eccentric scientist, meets Veronica "Ronnie" Quaife, a science journalist, at a press event. He takes her back to his warehouse home and laboratory and shows her his invention: a set of "telepods" that allows instantaneous teleportation between pods. Seth convinces Ronnie to keep the invention secret in exchange for exclusive rights to the story, and she documents his work. Although the telepods can transport inanimate objects, they mutilate live tissue, which is demonstrated when a baboon is turned inside-out during an experiment.

Seth and Ronnie begin a relationship, and at the same time, he tries to figure out what went wrong with his telepods. After transporting two different cooked steaks, he founds out that the machine is creating a synthetic version of the object rather than the object itself. Seth is further inspired to reprogram the telepod to understand the makeup of living tissue, and he successfully teleports a second baboon. Ronnie departs before they can celebrate, and Seth worries that she is rekindling her relationship with her editor Stathis Borans; in reality, Ronnie has left to confront Stathis about a veiled threat, spurred by his jealousy of Seth, to publish the telepod story without her consent. Seth teleports himself alone, unaware that a housefly has slipped inside the transmitter pod with him. He emerges from the receiving pod seemingly normal.\

Seth and Ronnie reconcile. Seth exhibits increased strength, stamina, and sexual potency, which he believes is a result of the teleportation "purifying" his body. He has sugar cravings and Ronnie is concerned about Seth's deteriorating sanity and also the strange, bristly hairs growing from a wound on his back. Seth becomes arrogant and violent, insisting that the teleportation process is beneficial, and tries to force Ronnie to undergo teleportation. When she refuses, he abandons her, goes to a bar and partakes in an arm-wrestling match, where he leaves his opponent with a compound fracture. He meets a woman named Tawny and brings her back to his warehouse. They have intercourse, and Seth tries to coerce her into teleporting. Ronnie rescues her from teleportation. Seth throws Ronnie out, but when his fingernails begin falling off, he realizes something went wrong during his teleportation. He checks his computer's records and discovers that the telepod computer, confused by the presence of two lifeforms in the sending pod, fused him with the fly at the molecular-genetic level.

Seth continues to deteriorate, losing body parts and becoming less human in appearance. After several weeks of being too scared to contact Ronnie, he reconnects with her and says he is becoming a hybrid of human and insect. He has nicknamed this "Brundlefly". He has also begun vomiting digestive enzymes onto his food to dissolve it and has gained the ability to cling to walls and ceilings. He realizes he is losing his human reason and compassion, driven by primitive impulses he cannot control.\

Seth installs a fusion program into the telepod computer, planning to dilute the fly genes in his body with human DNA. Ronnie learns that she is pregnant by Seth and has a nightmare of giving birth to a giant maggot. She has Stathis persuade a doctor to perform an abortion in the middle of the night. Having overheard their conversation, Seth abducts Ronnie before the abortion can take place and begs her to carry the child to term, since it may be the last remnant of his humanity. Stathis breaks into Seth's lab with a shotgun, but Seth disarms him and uses his corrosive vomit to destroy Stathis' left hand and right leg, stopping just short of vomiting acid onto Stathis' face when Ronnie screams at him to stop.

Seth reveals his desperate plan to Ronnie: he will use the telepods to fuse himself and her, together with their unborn child, into one entity. As Seth drags her into one of the telepods, she accidentally rips off his jaw, triggering his final transformation into an insectoid-human creature, which bursts from Seth's decayed human skin. It traps Ronnie inside the first telepod and enters the other. The wounded Stathis uses his shotgun to sever the cables connecting Ronnie's telepod to the computer, allowing Ronnie to escape. Breaking out of its own pod just as the fusion process is activated, the creature is gruesomely fused with the metal door and cabling of telepod 2. As the deformed creature crawls out of the receiving pod, it silently begs Ronnie to end its suffering, and she tearfully fires the shotgun at Seth's head, blowing it to pieces.

Several months after the events of The Fly, Veronica Quaife gives birth to a larval sac and dies from shock. The sac splits open to reveal a seemingly normal baby boy. Anton Bartok, the owner of the company that financed Seth Brundle's teleportation experiments, adopts the child and names him Martin. Martin grows up in a clinical environment. His physical and mental maturity is highly accelerated, and he possesses a genius-level intellect, incredible reflexes, and no need for sleep. He knows he is aging faster than a normal human, but is unaware of the true cause, having been told his father died from the same rapid aging disease.

At age three, Martin has the physique of a 10-year-old and frequently sneaks around to explore the Bartok complex. He finds a room containing laboratory animals and befriends a dog. The next night, he brings it food but finds it missing. He enters an observation booth overlooking Bay 17. There, scientists have reassembled Brundle's Telepods, but have been unable to duplicate the programming that enabled them to teleport living subjects. An attempt to teleport the dog fails, leaving it horribly deformed. It maims one of the scientists, horrifying young Martin. Two years later, Martin's body has matured to that of a 25-year-old. On his fifth birthday, Bartok presents Martin with a bungalow on the Bartok facility's property. He also offers Martin a job: repair his father's Telepods. He apologizes about the dog and assures Martin that its suffering was brief. When Martin is uneasy about the proposition, Bartok shows him Veronica Quaife's videotapes, which documented Seth Brundle's progress with the Telepods. Seeing his father describe how the Telepods ostensibly improved and energized his body, Martin accepts Bartok's proposal.

As he works on the Telepods, Martin befriends an employee, Beth Logan. Beth invites Martin to a party at the specimens division, where he learns that the mutated dog is still kept alive and studied. Thinking Beth is aware of the dog's imprisonment, Martin argues with her, leaves the party, and goes to the animal's holding pen. The deformed dog, in terrible pain, still remembers Martin, and he tearfully euthanizes it with chloroform. Martin reconciles with Beth and rearrives at his father's "eureka" moment when he realizes the Telepods' computer need to be creative to analyze living flesh. Martin shows Beth his perfected Telepods by teleporting a kitten without harm. They become lovers, but Martin shows signs of his eventual mutation into a human-fly hybrid. Martin devises a potential cure for his condition, which involves swapping out his mutated genes for healthy human genes. Martin shelves this idea when he realizes the other person would be subject to a grotesque genetic disfigurement.

Eventually, Martin learns that Bartok has hidden cameras in his bungalow. Martin breaks into Bartok's records room, where he learns of his father's true fate. Bartok confronts Martin and explains that he has been waiting for his inevitable mutation. He reveals his plan to use Martin's body and the Telepods' potential for genetic manipulation for profit. Martin's insect genes fully awaken and his transformation into a human-insect hybrid begins, and he escapes from Bartok Industries. Bartok is unable to use the Telepods, as they are locked by a password. Martin also installed a computer virus which will erase the Telepods' programming if the wrong password is entered. Bartok orders a search for Martin.

Martin goes to Beth and explains the situation, and the two flee. They visit Veronica Quaife's old confidant, Stathis Borans, who confirms for Martin that the Telepods are his only chance for a cure. They keep running, but Martin's physical and emotional changes become too much for Beth to handle, and she eventually surrenders them both to Bartok. Without revealing the password, Martin becomes enveloped in a cocoon. Bartok interrogates Beth for the password, to no avail as Martin never told her what it was. Shortly after, the fully transformed Martin emerges from his cocoon and breaks into Bay 17. He grabs Bartok, forces him to type in the password, "Dad", and drags Bartok and himself into a Telepod. Martin gestures Beth to activate the gene-swapping sequence and, despite Bartok's protests, Beth complies. Martin is restored to a fully human form, and Bartok is transformed into a genetically deformed monstrosity. Deciding to keep him alive for study, the scientists imprison Bartok in the same pen he had kept the dog in. As he struggles to eat, Bartok notices a fly land on his bowl.

A poacher (Danny Trejo) hides from an unknown creature in his boat. While it breaks through the boat and attempts to catch the poacher, he commits suicide by shooting himself to prevent the beast from killing him.

Meanwhile, while shooting a documentary about a long-lost indigenous tribe known as the Shirishamas on the Amazon River, director Terri Flores (Jennifer Lopez) and members of her crew including cameraman and childhood friend Danny Rich (Ice Cube), production manager Denise Kalberg (Kari Wuhrer), Denise's boyfriend & sound engineer Gary Dixon (Owen Wilson), visionary Warren Westridge (Jonathan Hyde), anthropologist Professor Steven Cale (Eric Stoltz), and boat skipper Mateo (Vincent Castellanos) come across stranded Paraguayan snake hunter Paul Serone (Jon Voight) and help him, believing he knows how to find the tribe they are searching for.

Most of the crew are uncomfortable around Serone, and Cale clashes with him several times in regards to Shirishama lore. Later, while trying to free the boat's propeller from a rope, Cale is stung in the throat by a wasp inside his scuba regulator, which swells up his throat and leaves him unconscious. Serone performs an emergency cricothyrotomy, seemingly saving Cale's life. With that, Serone takes over as commander and captain of the boat and the crew. They are then forced to help him achieve his true goal: hunting down and capturing a giant record-breaking green anaconda he had been tracking.

Later, Mateo gets lost and is the first victim to be killed by the anaconda, which coils around him before it snaps his neck near the boat where the poacher had been killed. A photograph in an old newspaper reveals that Mateo, Serone, and the unnamed poacher were actually working together as a hunting pair to catch animals, including snakes. The others try to find him while Gary works alongside Serone, who promises if they help him find the anaconda, he will help them get out alive.

Later that night, the anaconda appears and attacks the boat crew. When Serone attempts to capture the snake alive, it coils around Gary and begins to crush him before killing and devouring him, causing Denise to mourn for the loss of her boyfriend. The survivors overcome Serone and tie him up for punishment. The next day, the boat becomes stuck at a waterfall, requiring Terri, Danny, and Westridge to enter the water to winch it loose. Denise confronts Serone and attempts to kill him in revenge for Gary's death, but he strangles her to death with his legs before dumping her corpse into the river.

When the anaconda returns, Westridge distracts the snake enough for Terri and Danny to return to the boat while he ascends the waterfall. Danny and the freed Serone battle, as Westridge is coiled by the anaconda. Before it can kill him, the tree supporting the anaconda breaks, sending the group into the water and waking up Cale in the process. With Westridge killed by the anaconda in the fall, the snake attacks Danny and coils itself around him, only for Terri to shoot it in the head. An enraged Serone attacks Terri, only to be stabbed with a tranquilizer dart by Cale, who soon loses consciousness again. Danny punches the drugged Serone, knocking him into the river.

However, Terri and Danny are soon captured when Serone catches up to them. He dumps a bucket of monkey blood on them and uses them as bait in an attempt to capture a second, much larger anaconda. The snake soon appears where it begins to coil itself around Terri and Danny and slowly suffocates them. They are caught in a net by Serone, but the snake breaks free. Serone himself tries to flee up a ladder, but the anaconda slinks up after him and brings it down. In time the beast uncoils itself, Serone tries again to flee only for Danny to raise his own net over him, giving the anaconda an opportunity to coil itself around Serone before suffocating him to death. As they are cutting their bonds Terri and Danny watch as the anaconda swallows Serone's body whole.

Terri retreats to a building and finds a nest full of newborn anacondas, but the snake arrives and after it regurgitates Serone's still twitching corpse, which seems to wink at Terri, it chases her up a smoke stack. Danny traps the anaconda by pinning its tail to the ground with a pickaxe and ignites a fire below the smoke shack which burns the snake. An explosion triggers which sends the burning anaconda flying out of the building and it plunges into the water, causing the snake to sink. As Terri and Danny recuperate on a nearby dock, the anaconda appears one final time. Somehow, Danny slams a splitting axe into the snake's head, finally killing it.

Afterwards, Terri and Danny reunite with Cale, who begins to revive on the boat. As the three remaining survivors float downriver, they suddenly locate the natives for whom they were previously searching. They realize that Serone was right and resume filming their documentary.

Valentine "Val" McKee and Earl Bassett are handymen working in Perfection, Nevada, an isolated settlement in the high desert east of the Sierra Nevada mountains. They eventually get tired of their jobs and leave for Bixby, the nearest town. As they leave, they discover the dead body of another resident, Edgar Deems, perched atop an electrical tower, still grasping the tower's crossbeams and his rifle. Jim Wallace, the town's doctor, determines that Edgar died of dehydration, apparently having been too afraid to climb down.

Later on, an unseen creature kills shepherd Fred and his flock of sheep. Val and Earl discover his severed head and believe that a serial killer is on the loose. Two construction workers ignore Val and Earl's warning and are killed by the same creature, causing a rock slide. Val and Earl try to find help after warning the residents, but find the phone lines are dead and that the rock slide has blocked the only road out of town. Out of sight, a snake-like creature wraps itself around their truck's rear axle, but is torn apart when Val stomps on the accelerator and drives away, and is discovered when they return to town.

Val and Earl borrow horses to ride to Bixby for help. They come upon Wallace and his wife's buried station wagon near their trailer, but the couple is missing (having been killed the previous night). As they press on, an enormous burrowing worm-like monster suddenly erupts out of the ground, revealing the snake-like creature to be one of the worm's many tentacled "tongues". Thrown from their horses, the men flee with the monster in pursuit. The chase ends when the eyeless creature crashes through the concrete wall of an aqueduct, dying from the impact. Rhonda LeBeck, a graduate student conducting seismology tests in the area, stumbles onto the scene; she deduces from previous readings that three other worms are in the area. Rhonda, Val, and Earl become trapped overnight atop a cluster of boulders near one of the worms, and surmise that the creatures hunt their prey by detecting seismic vibrations. The trio then find some discarded poles and use them to pole vault across some nearby boulders and eventually reach Rhonda's truck, narrowly escaping the creature.

After the three return to town, the worms attack and kill general store owner Walter Chang, forcing everyone to hide on the town's various rooftops. Meanwhile, survivalist couple Burt and Heather Gummer manage to kill one of the creatures after unwittingly luring it to their basement armory. In town, the two remaining worms attack the building foundations, knocking over a trailer belonging to Nestor before dragging him under and devouring him. Realizing they cannot stay in the town any longer, Earl, Rhonda, and Miguel distract the monsters while Val commandeers a track loader and chains a semi-trailer to the rear; the survivors use it to try to escape to a nearby mountain range. En route, both worms create a sinkhole trap that disables the track loader, and the survivors flee to some nearby boulders for safety. Earl then has an idea to lure in the worms and trick them into swallowing Burt's homemade pipe bombs. The strategy successfully kills one worm, but the last one spits a bomb back towards the survivors, forcing them to disperse as the explosion destroys all but one of the remaining bombs.

Val lures the final worm into chasing him to the edge of a cliff and then explodes the remaining bomb behind it, frightening the worm into charging through the cliff face, where it plummets to its death onto the rocks below. The group returns to town, where they call in the authorities to begin an investigation while Earl encourages Val to pursue a romantic relationship with Rhonda.

The film begins by following a tour group at a memorial museum dedicated to Nancy Archer. The patrons are shown a film with Dr. Loeb, who explains that the events surrounding Nancy Archer were true. Nancy was an heiress to her mother's fortune. Her father, Hamilton Cobb, hopes to use the money to gain control over the town they live in. Nancy sees her psychiatrist, Dr. Cushing, about her low self-esteem and bad marriage to Harry. Her husband frequently spends time with a beautiful mistress, Honey Parker, the town beautician, together with whom he discusses his plans to steal the family's business away from Nancy's father. Despite her attempts to confront Harry, Nancy cannot express her anger in a healthy manner, allowing both her husband and father to take advantage of her.

While driving one night out in the desert, she sees a UFO, which shines a bright light at her. Even though she knows she will be the town's laughing stock, she also knows what she saw was real. She finally convinces Harry to accompany her on another night time drive in the desert, but the UFO is nowhere in sight. Suddenly, the ship descends from the sky. Getting out of the car for a closer look, Nancy is trapped by a bright light and disappears along with the UFO. Harry quietly returns to town and does not even report the kidnapping to the local authorities, Sheriff Denby and deputy Charlie.

A dazed Nancy is later found atop Honey's salon and is brought home. Her father is suspicious that Harry left her out in the desert while Harry denies any wrongdoing. Harry accuses Hamilton of neglecting his own wife after she was locked away at a sanitarium. As the two men argue, Nancy loses her temper, shouting that she can speak for herself and her mother. Suddenly, to everyone's surprise, she begins to grow; her clothes tear and rip as her head goes smashing through the ceiling into the attic.

The next morning Nancy is relocated to a large stable. There she is introduced to Dr Loeb. He observed a hormonal surge that occurred during Nancy's growth. Scared, Nancy asks that he find a cure, while keeping it a secret. Unable to convince her to move to a "controlled, therapeutic environment", Dr Loeb explains to Harry that Nancy's condition is unique and precarious. The strain of her heart to sustain her new size would make any stress too dangerous for her. This gives Harry an idea to get rid of her.

As she grows, Nancy becomes more self-confident and strong-willed, empowered by her new strength over everyone else.

Eventually, she invites Harry to dinner and discuss her physical, mental and emotional growth. She thinks it will make their marriage stronger and she has a number of other ideas. However, Harry speculates that more stress will overload her heart and blood pressure and that she will die, leaving the family business and its money to him.

Harry, pretending to be unhinged by Nancy's suggestions (but carrying out his plan to overload her heart so that she dies), deliberately insults and angers her so much that she faints from the stress, crashing into the stable. Escaping to Honey's salon, he celebrates Nancy's apparent death by offering her Nancy's diamond necklace. Nancy wakes up and searches through the town for Harry. She passes a drive-through theater showing Attack of the 50 Foot Woman.

Finding Honey and Harry, Harry hides under the desk in pure fear. He crawls away, feeling more scared then he has ever felt; Nancy is back for revenge. Trying not to scream or cry, he runs to his car. Nancy follows him and dumps him in her hand. Capturing Harry, she flees into the desert with National Guard helicopters pursuing her. Stopped by some high voltage power lines and confronted by her father and the authorities, she asserts herself and announces her father's ambitions to buy out the town using her money.

Due to a miscommunication from the sheriff a sniper on the helicopter shoots Nancy. Taking a direct hit, she falls onto the power lines, but is rescued and taken away (with Harry still in her grip) by the UFO, proving her claims were real.

The crowds disperse, with Honey making a business agreement with Hamilton. Dr Cushing explains to the press that wherever Nancy is, she now has Harry all to herself. Inside the UFO, Harry is forced to undergo therapy with two other men under a tiny dome, watched over by Nancy and two other giantesses, and the spaceship flies away into the night.

She smashed and punched Nixon all over the place.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) Nice one lads! Watch this. EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: CARNOSAUR!

Edwayl fired a wave of earth and it formed into the dinosaurs from the 1993 movie CARNOSAUR!

---

Dr. Jane Tiptree has withdrawn from public life to conduct sequestered research for the Eunice Corporation. The DARPA is wary of her work with genetically modified chickens but cannot legally interfere in her research. While in transport, one of Tiptree's chickens hatches a reptilian creature which kills the driver and escapes. Meanwhile, near her laboratory in the small town of Climax, Nevada, the populace begin suffering from a mysterious illness with flu-like symptoms.

At a neighboring Eunice-owned quarry, watchman Doc Smith protects excavation equipment from environmentalists. He reports a trespasser, Ann Thrush, but Sheriff Fowler is investigating a series of gruesome killings, perpetrated by Tiptree's missing creature, a Deinonychus. Among the victims is the daughter of Eunice employee Jesse Paloma, but before he raises any suspicion to her research, Tiptree lures him into a laser-protected dinosaur pen where a fully grown Tyrannosaurus rex devours him.

Despite the deaths, Thrush and a group of activists handcuff themselves to excavation equipment in a form of protest. They are encountered by the Deinonychus and everyone except Thrush is slaughtered. Still in shock, Thrush is brought back by Doc to his trailer, where she survives another attack by the creature. Doc discovers a truck with two corpses belonging to Eunice and contacts Tiptree on the vehicle's radio, deducing the creature originated from her facility. As he approaches the lab, Fowler discovers a dinosaur embryo in a carton of eggs and takes it for investigation.

Doc infiltrates Tiptree's laboratory and, at gunpoint, she reveals her experiment subjects to him. The town's mysterious illness is caused by infected chicken eggs, which contain a lethal airborne virus and impregnate women with dinosaur embryos. Her objective is to exterminate the human race, which Tiptree faults as disastrous, and enable dinosaurs to repopulate the Earth. News of the town's deaths reach Eunice sponsors who trace it to Tiptree. In response, the government places the community under quarantine and resolves to kill civilians - infected or not - on sight.

With the illness rapidly spreading, Fowler responds to a disturbance at a kennel. He confronts the Deinonychus, but both he and the creature suffer fatal wounds in the exchange. Top governmental officials, in a secure underground bunker, also begin plotting the repopulation of the human race in response to the virus; they envision a new social order prograted by strict fertilization policies and artificial wombs. At the laboratory, Doc attempts to escape with a cure to the illness and mistakenly enters the dinosaur pen. Tiptree releases the T. rex which pursues Doc out of the facility. Infected herself, Tiptree births a dinosaur and succumbs to the illness.

Doc returns to Thrush, who has been exposed to the illness. The T. rex enters the quarry where Doc battles the creature using a Backhoe loader, impaling and killing the creature with Thrush's assistance. After injecting her with the serum, Doc is killed by government soldiers alerted to his presence, and both his and Thrush's bodies are burned.

The dinosaurs tore the rest of Nixon's robot body apart.

Me: Now for some teamwork!

Carly Carmine: Yeah!

Tori Hanson: Lets do it!

Sureshot: Yeah!

Sureshot used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and so did Tori Hanson. Sureshot had his Laser Light and Tori had her water powers enhanced 100-fold.

Scavenger used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and Leanbow used the Gigantion Cyber Planet Key. They enhanced Scavenger's laser pistol and Leanbow's Wolf Warrior powers 100-fold.

Tori Hanson and Sureshot: MAELSTROM LASER LIGHT BLAST!

Tori fired a massive wave of water and Sureshot fired a wave of laser light.

Scavenger and Leanbow: LASER WOLF BLAZE BLAST!

Scavenger fired a wave of lasers and Leanbow fired a wave of wolf fire!

Homer and Fry: DONUT PIZZA COMBOBLAST!

Homer fired a wave of donuts and Fry fired a wave of pizza.

Lisa Simpson and Leela: BUDDHA PLANET MEGAFORCE!

Lisa fired waves of energy in the shapes of the 7 Chakra Symbols and Leela fired a blast of planet energy.

Bart Simpson and Bender: AY CARAMBA ROBOT BURST!

Bart fired a wave of energy and Bender fired a massive robot blast.

Lori Jimenez and Amy Wong: FIRESTORM WAVELENGTH BLAST!

Lori fired a wave of fire and Amy fired a wave of energy.

Carly Carmine and Professor Farnsworth: HUMMINGBIRD KNOWLEDGE MEGABLAST!

Carly fired a wave of orange energy and Professor Farnsworth fired a wave of energy.

Laney and Michelle Jenkins: WOODSTORM ENERGY MEGABLAST!

Laney fired a wave of wood and Michelle fired a wave of energy.

The blasts all combined and they slammed into Nixon and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Fry: Consider yourself impeached, Nixon!

Me: You were president once and you will never be president again!

Fry, Leela, Bender, Michelle Jenkins, Amy Wong and Professor Farnsworth: PLANET EXPRESS MEGABLAST!

They fired a massive blast of energy and it slammed into Nixon and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nixon was defeated and he was down.

Me: This time you have lost.

I picked up his jar and he was mad at me. The Masters of Evil all regrouped.

Greiger: This was really interesting.

Me: It sure was. To tell you guys the truth, I never liked President Nixon after everything he did with Cambodia and Watergate.

Skinner: I never did like Nixon that much either.

William: Hey, neither did we.

Greiger: He really was a bad president.

Agura: Of course he was.

Me: He was probably the worst ever. But he's going to prison for a long, long time.

Webstor: Well, enjoy the rest of the year 3000.

The Masters of Evil teleported out.

Bender: That was so awesome!

Fry: It sure was! It was so awesome how you guys defeated Nixon.

Me: It sure was Fry and it was awesome helping you all. But I have a strong feeling that because we defeated one of your enemies, you'll be calling for us later on.

Fry: Yep.

Me: As long as evil exists in the universe, no one will be safe.

Bender: Yeah.

Me: I think I have a perfect solution where we can be ready to help you all.

I snapped my fingers and merged New New York with Gotham Royal York in the year 2020 and it was awesome to have the Planet Express with us.

Bender: (to the viewers) Don't be a bad president like Nixon or you will answer to my friends and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You said it Bender.

Nixon was defeated and disgraced and imprisoned in the Neptune Prison for traitors for eternity.

THE END

Another awesome chapter done and the first ever chapter for Futurama done.

Futurama was a really funny show and it was awesome! I didn't watch the whole series but it was mentioned several times in the Simpsons and Matt Groening made 2 awesome shows! It's an absolute darn shame that Futurama couldn't be on as long as The Simpsons. It was only on for 10 seasons and it got cancelled because of Fox's dumb tastes in it! But Futurama is just as funny and as awesome as The Simpsons! The reason I chose to go after President Nixon is because I found out that Futurama and The Simpsons creator Matt Groening had a very strong dislike towards President Nixon after everything that he did during his presidency with the Invasion of Cambodia and the Watergate Scandal. Nixon was not liked as a president back then. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the second chapter of Monster Allergy and we're gonna go after Zick's crazy aunt. Get ready for a battle of magic.

See you all tomorrow.

A Monster Tamer's Crazy Aunt

At the estate, we were looking at the portrait containing Marge Simpson and Bender was not happy with her.

Marge: Bender it's good to see you again.

Bender: Yeah I'll bet.

Bender was looking at Marge with incredible disdain.

Marge: Why are you looking at me like that?

Bender: (to Marge) Is it true, Marge? That you were in on Springfield's corruption?!

Marge: Bender-

Arixam: Might as well tell the truth, Marge. You're already in hot water.

Marge: I did it for money to help our family! I was in incredible debt and I turned to Mayor Quimby and Mr. Burns to help make everyone miserable so I can save the family!

Me: (Sarcastically) Lot of good that did.

Lincoln: And all it got was turning Springfield into a radioactive crater!

Me: And all you did was destroy the entire town's future.

Donkey (Shrek): Man, what happened to you, Marge? You were the love of Homer's life. And you used to treat Bart and Lisa with love!

Lisa Simpson: Mom, before we can even think about letting you out of that portrait, I want to know what the Hell you were thinking when you joined up with Burns and Quimby in corrupting Springfield?!

Marge: I did it to save our family! We were going through a lot of financial trouble and I needed money!

Me: You should've gotten a better job.

Bart: All you did was ruin it even more!

Laney: That's right.

Me: And now look what happened to you Marge. Because of your own selfishness in helping out with the corruption of Mayor Quimby and Mr. Burns, Springfield is now nothing more than a radioactive crater and erased from existence forever.

Joe Swanson: If you were alive you would be arrested right now.

Bender: I agree.

He picked up the portrait.

Ratbat: Bender, where are you going?

Bender: Giving Marge's portrait to Grouse. I bet he has the patience to put up with her nagging. Plus, he has former god of Mischeif with him.

Me: We'll go with you.

We went with him.

We arrived at Mr. Grouse's house and knocked on his door. Mr. Grouse answered.

Mr. Grouse: Oh hello everyone.

Me: Hello Mr. Grouse. Hey Loki. Sorry we haven't seen you all lately.

Mr. Grouse: We know how busy you are. And J.D. we're very sorry about what happened to you all because of Rotwood and his group.

Marvel Loki: (British Accent) Yeah it was not pleasant.

Me: We appreciate that. But thank goodness it's over with him.

Bender: We came to give you guys our portrait of Marge.

Loki: We don't want her.

Pointblank: What do you mean you don't want Marge?

Mr. Grouse: Sorry. I know how much she annoys you. But she'll annoy me and Loki as well.

Marvel Loki: I swear, if she tries nagging at me, I'll throw her in the garbage!

Me: I don't blame you. She nags a lot and it's enough to give you a headache.

Mr. Grouse: Yeah.

We were stuck with Marge until we could decide what to do.

* * *

We were then watching tv and playing card games. Some of us were in the backyard playing and I was meditating under the willow tree. Nico was watching the clouds and Laney was painting a landscape and Becky from Season 11 Episode 21 was with her painting. Same with Lisa Simpson. Lana was playing in the mud and Lola was having a tea party with Qin.

Lola: More tea Qin?

Qin: Sure Lola.

Lola poured her some London Darjeeling tea.

Laney: I'm sorry about what happened with you and Otto, Becky.

Becky (Simpsons): It's all right Laney. Thank you.

* * *

Becky works as a drive-through employee at Der Krazy Kraut in Springfield. She was engaged to Otto and they planned to hold a wedding at the Simpsons' house, where they use the leftovers from

Apu's wedding. While getting ready for her wedding, Becky admitted that she hated heavy metal rock music even when she has to go down the aisle to it. Otto goes off with his music and Marge decided to have Becky stay for a while.

During this time, Becky started doing housework and impressed Bart and Lisa. However, Marge Simpson was convinced by her sisters Patty and Selma that she will attempt to seduce her husband Homer and kill her, and she increasingly became paranoid of Becky. In fact, Becky did consider killing Marge, and stealing her family, but gave up after she couldn't find a shovel around the house. After Marge was declared insane for attempting to attack Becky, who she thought was kissing Homer when in fact she was doing CPR, Becky became temporarily in charge of the Simpson house.

Becky helped Bart shoot a horror film in the basement involving the entire family being chained up and Becky pretending to kill Homer (who is chained onto a table). By coincidence, Marge (who escaped from the Insane Asylum and finds out from the internet that Becky is in fact a good person) comes in and discovered her, and mistook the scene for a genuine murder attempt. However, Becky and the entire family explained to her, and Marge apologizes to Becky for mistrusting her. Although Becky did admit that she was trying to kill Marge, but backed out because although she found a good place to bury her, she couldn't choose a right shovel at the hardware store.

Becky was part of the angry mob that was trying to kill Homer Simpson during the Trappuccino incident. Sometime during the crisis, Becky reconciled with Otto as they were seen hugging each other when the dome was destroyed.

---

Laney: But you are a magnificent painter like me.

Becky (Simpsons): Thank you Laney.

Lynn was watching Baseball on TV in the living room.

Lynn: YEAH! Come on Detroit!

But then the alarm went off!

Lynn: Uh oh.

Lynn pressed a red button.

I just got finished when the alarm from Lynn went off.

Me: Uh oh. We have trouble.

We went back into the estate and on the computer we found out that Zick's great aunt Ermelia was causing trouble.

---

Emily Vermeer is Zick's aunt. She's very rich and uncaring to Zick's family. She later appears as the leader of the Anguanes, and is known to them as the Anguana of Er. Zick goes to her for the cure to Zob's curse. After multiple betrayals, she, unwillingly, tells Zick how to return Zob back to normal. She appears again to buy the captured monster in the cellar, but Zick quickly rejected the offers. She then sends the Anguanes to kidnap Zick and use him as a bargaining chip to make Zob work for her, yet they fail to capture him and end up fixing up the house next door, the Potato's house.

She reappears again in the second season, as an assistant of Moog Magister, the lord of the witches. She and her Anguanes along with their master attack the Armory to get the monsters from the crypt, but failed due to the intervention of the young Tamers and Zick. She was ordered by Moog Magister to pour a metamorphic potion on the bottled waters to turn Zick into a monster. They went back the Forest of Cham to celebrate their vengeance and plans, but it was short-lived when the Anguanes Fair was burned down due to the fight between Teddy and Bobby against Zick as a Bommerbang that later returned to normal with Elena's help. She appears again when she created a fear formula that makes anyone see frightening images, which causes panic in Oldmill on Halloween, and quickly uses it against Zick and Elena along with the monsters of the Barrymore house. However, her plans were foiled by Bombo along with Zick and Elena when they were cured by laughter, and she and the Anguanes had been affected by their own fear formula. When Zick and Elena along with Bowleg sneak into her house, she plans to turn the vampire to dust and use his ashes to make potions. When they manage to escape and Bowleg threatens her, she cooperates and makes an antidote to make Bowleg human again. When Bowleg was human again, she suddenly plans to turn them into lizards with her black book of spells, but Zick fires his energy Dom that destroys the black book and causes a fire that destroys her laboratory. After they escape her house, she plans to get revenge on them. She again along with the Anguanes help their master, Moog Magister, to cast a spell on Zick to create an illusion. Zick wakes from the illusion, and tries to capture him but got overpowered by him. When they help their master escape, they made their escapes too. She and the Anguanes try to please their Master by throwing a party to celebrate his 301st birthday, but Moog Magister ended up destroying the party and plans to kill all the Anguanes for their failure. She begs for Moog to give her one more chance to help get monsters, and she was able to bring Hector Sinistro. As she asks his master who was planning to leave, she was quickly killed by Moog for no longer being any use to him.

---

Me: Whoa! Your great aunt Emily is a witch?

Zick: Yeah but she's evil.

Zick went over her history and what we heard was shocking.

Maria: (to Zick) What kind of aunt treats her nephew so badly?

Me: A monster that's what and your aunt Emily falls into that category. And she's a witch and we've dealt with witches several times before.

Shannon: Yeah. Some of those witches were my ancestors.

Qin: Wow! You are descended from witches Shannon?

Shannon: Yep. I am a direct descendent of the Sanderson Sisters. Winnefred, Mary and Sarah Sanderson are my ancestors.

Qin: That's incredible. I heard that they were the most dangerous out of all the witches in Salem, Massachusetts from over 300 years ago.

Me: They were that dangerous.

Shannon: That's right.

Shannon showed Qin her mark of the witch-wiccan. It was half of the Celtic Tree of Life and half of the Star of Satan.

Shannon: This is the mark of my ancestral heritage. I'm what's called a Twilight Hybrid.

Qin: Wow! That is cool!

Lori: It sure is. We found out that we were descended from witches too. Our ancestor Loraine Loud was burned at the stake for witchcraft in Salem, Massachusetts over 300 years ago.

Qin gasped.

Qin: That's terrible!

Me: It was dark times back all those years ago. The Salem Witch Trials back in 1692 were one of the darkest times in all of Colonial America. We killed so many innocent people because we thought that they were affiliated with the Devil himself. But it was because we let fear and persecution control ourselves back then.

Qin: I know. I've read about the Salem Witch Trials and it was awful that so many people suffered through all that.

Me: It was. Normally I would respect my elders but in this kind of case I'm more than willing to make an exception. Lets get her!

We were off to face Zick's evil aunt Emily!

* * *

In the middle of the city we were looking for Emily.

Me: She's here somewhere.

Shannon: She's close. I sense her evil aura.

Fu: I feel it too.

Me: Stay sharp everyone.

Zick sneezed.

Me: Bless you Zick.

Zick: I think she's close.

Juniper Lee concentrated and she found an evil presence in a trash can 100 yards north from us.

Juniper Lee: There! (Points to the trash can!)

I fired an energy blast and it hit the trash can and exploded in a fireball!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Out of the explosion was Zick's evil great aunt EMILY!

Me: Emily you are under arrest!

Emily: Is that any way to greet your elders!?

Me: For your information your old prune, you are not my grandmother and you are a TERRIBLE AUNT TO ZICK!

Emily: Why you!?

Zick: (to Emily) You're not my aunt! Elena and Team Loud Phoenix Storm are more of a family to me then you are!

Me: That's right! Your days of witchcraft are over!

Waffle Woman, Leonard and Russ Cargill came out.

Me: Waffle Woman, Leonard and Russ Cargill.

Waffle Woman: Yep.

Lori: Looks like we have more pork to give to the homeless.

Leonard: Indeed.

William: Did you guys enjoy our pool party the other day?

Waffle Woman: Of course we did.

Leonard: I especially enjoyed doing a cannonball in the pool.

Me: It was fun.

Russ Cargill: Yes it was.

?: Don't forget about us!

We saw three figures come out and they were NIMROD THE SCARLET SENTINAL, AC and DÇ from episodes 17 & 18 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

With Zordon and Alpha missing in action, Lord Zedd decided to create a powerful monster from a statue in Angel Grove Park, dubbing it Nimrod the Scarlet Sentinel. Zedd used the confusion surrounding Zordon's disappearance and the discovery of Rita's space dumpster to allow Nimrod time to evolve into their final form.

Nimrod confronted the Rangers with Zack trying to cut her down but was taken down instead. Lord Zedd then threw a Growth Bomb and Nimrod grew before blasting the Rangers who shrugged it off and called for the Thunderzords. They formed the Thunder Megazord but Nimrod summoned two assistant monsters named AC and DC who combined their powers with her own and took out the Megazord. This devastating attack crippled the Megazord causing massive damage and taking it out of action, forcing the Rangers to retreat.

After Tommy gained the powers of the White Ranger, he was forced to fight Nimrod alone, as the other Zords were still being repaired by Billy and Trini and the others were fighting Putties over Rita's dumpster. Tommy arrived on scene and immediately summoned the new White Tigerzord which overwhelmed Nimrod with a bowl and then changed into Warrior Mode and easily overwhelmed Nimrod and took her down with a White Tiger Thunderbolt. However, Nimrod was not done and summoned AC and DC who overwhelmed the Tigerzord with jump slashes and all three unleashed a massive barrage of energy balls, knocking the Tigerzord back into Tiger Mode and ejecting Tommy from it.

Tommy managed to get the White Tigerzord back on its feet as the Red Dragon Thunderzord arrived, riding the Tigerzord into battle and turning the tide by cutting through the monsters. The Rangers then formed the new Mega Tigerzord which was completely immune to the same attack that took out the Thunder Megazord. AC and DC then took to the air to try and perform an aerial strike like they had on the regular Tigerzord before but were punched back into Nimrod, knocking all three down. Nimrod spent her final moments bickering with her thugs before the Mega Tigerzord powered up its finishing attack. Upon being struck by the Mega Tigerzord's Grid Strike attack, AC and DC vanished into oblivion while Nimrod fell to the ground and exploded.

---

Tommy Oliver: Nimrod the Scarlet Sentinal!

Nimrod: I think you Rangers also remember AC and DC.

AC: Did you miss us, Rangers?

DÇ: We're gonna mess you up real good!

Billy Cranston: AC!

Trini Kwan: DÇ!

Nimrod: Its been a long time White Ranger.

AC: Yeah!

DÇ: It sure has been a while.

Me: I remember all three of you! You were made from the statue in

Angel Grove Park and all three of you overpowered the Thunder Megazord. Tommy acquired his White Rangers Powers and you three were the first monsters ever to be beaten by him with them.

Nimrod: Very good memory on you.

DÇ: Mistress Vypra was right.

AC: You have a really good memory when you watched all of us on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode. But that was a wicked cool part to the series. Now it's time for action!

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it guys! IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

THUNDERCLAP!

Tommy Oliver: WHITE TIGER!

Zack Taylor: MASTODON!

Kimberly Ann Hart: PTERODACTYL!

Billy Cranston: TRICERATOPS!

Trini Kwan: SABER-TOOTHED TIGER!

Jason Lee Scott: TYRANNOSAURUS!

The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers transformed and they were ready!

Noah Carver: This one is gonna surprise you.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mighty Morphin!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into their Mighty Morphin Power Rangers forms!

Nimrod: What?! Two Mighty Morphin teams?!

Me: Surprised? Lets dance!

We went at them!

Tara was facing Waffle Woman!

Tara: Glad you all had fun with us at that pool party.

Waffle Woman: It was the most fun we've ever had.

She was knocked out.

Tara: You know what is just as good as waffles? French Toast.

---

Battle 2: Leonard

---

Lori was facing Leonard the King Pig.

Lori: This is gonna be a battle of pork.

Leonard: Yeah!

Leonard summoned hundreds of thousands of pig minions.

Lori: Time to bring home the bacon!

Lori formed a sword of pure wind and spread her wings and went at the Pig Minions and they went at her and then a massive explosion of wind was felt as Lori slashed and blew many of the minions around and Lori was turning them all into choice pork cuts and more and she was really piling on the pork for the homeless and us. She slashed them all over the place and more and she made over 750,000,000 pounds of pork for the homeless. She then kicked Leonard in the face and knocked him down!

Lori: That is literally good other white meat.

Battle 3: Russ Cargill

Girl Jordan was facing Russ Cargill.

Cargill: Lets make this a fight to remember.

Girl Jordan: I plan too.

Dustin Jordan was walking down the street and he saw Girl Jordan about to fight Russ Cargill.

He then saw Girl Jordan spread her wings and she was enveloped in a massive vortex of water that turned into a powerful dragon of water and when the vortex faded, he saw Girl Jordan in her Super Angel 30,000 Maelstrom Ocean Dragon form! She looked incredible to him!

Dustin Jordan: (Gasp) My little girl is now a fully grown woman.

He had tears streaming down his face as he smiled full of joy and pride.

Girl Jordan: (Older Voice) Lets dance.

Girl Jordan punched Cargill in the face and she kicked him in the face and fired blasts of water at him all over and they smashed him all over the place and knocked him down. Cargill got up and went at Girl Jordan and she dodged his strike and punched him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and knocked him out.

Girl Jordan: How's that for girl power.

Dustin Jordan: Girl Jordan?

She saw him.

Girl Jordan: Daddy?

Dustin Jordan: You look incredible. I didn't know you were given this kind of power as a result.

Girl Jordan: When I transform it turns me into an 18-year-old girl and I have incredible power.

Dustin Jordan: Wow. But sweetie I am so proud of you for being there for your friends on Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Girl Jordan: Thanks daddy.

Dustin Jordan: I guess I can't call you my little girl anymore.

Girl Jordan: But I will ALWAYS be your little girl daddy.

Dustin Jordan: That's true.

They hugged.

Battle 4: Nimrod, AC and DÇ

Nico, the Mighty Morphin Rangers and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Nimrod, AC and DÇ.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nimrod, AC and DÇ were destroyed.

Nico: Nimrod, AC and DÇ, all three of you have failed this world!

---

Battle 5: Aunt Emily the Evil Witch!

---

We regrouped and we were facing Emily.

Me: You are a TERRIBLE AUNT!

Zick: YEAH!

I went at her and punched her in the face and kicked her in the stomach. The fight paused for a brief second.

Me: (To the viewers) I know this is cruel and that we need to respect our elders. But like all the bad guys we've faced, Aunt Emily is a criminal and needs to be treated like one regardless of their age.

The fight resumed and I kicked her in the face and knocked out her dentures.

Nico: Emily Vermeer you have failed this city!

Nico fired energy waves at her and they hit her and exploded!

Nico: Yep. Really awesome!

Me: Time for some combo power!

Arixam: Lets do it!

Emily: Go on, Zick. Finish me.

Zick: No. I'm not gonna kill you. I'm gonna capture you just like I do with all the monsters that I face.

Zick then sucked Emily into his Monster Catcher and imprisoned her in a jar.

Me: That will hold her until we get her to the Saturn Insane Asylum.

I used my powers to strip her of her magic and powers.

The Masters of Evil came.

Russ Cargill: Wow. So Emily's trapped in there, huh?

Sarah Gunnerson: Yep. First time in a while that Zick's captured a monster that way.

Leonard: You were right, Zick. J.D. and the others are more of a family than you're so called Aunt.

Waffle Woman: I'm just glad you didn't bother wasting your breath to her on a rant like Tara and Raven did.

Zick: (laughs) Ok, that's true.

Me: Yep. We love Zick like a brother. Same with Elena.

Russ Cargill: Aww.

Leonard: See you all next time.

The Masters of Evil teleport out.

We were proud of Zick.

Me: Good job Zick and it was awesome seeing how you capture monsters.

Zick: It sure was.

Elena Potato: Yeah.

Me: But we're not out of the woods yet.

Nico: Yep.

Zick: (To the viewers) Never mess with witchcraft or other forces that no man can even understand or you will face us.

Me: You said it.

We went back home. Emily was sentenced to spend the remainder of her life in the Saturn Insane Asylum and she was also the cellmate of Lila Rossi. We got all of Emily's money and even her luxurious mansion and Zick and his family along with Elena and her family now live in it.

THE END

Another Awesome chapter done.

Zick's great aunt was awful and she didn't care about anyone but herself. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the 3rd episode of The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest and we're gonna do the episode DNA Doomsday and we're gonna go after a really awesome and really complex Organic Supercomputer made entirely out of living tissue. It's gonna be a really cool adventure.

See you all tomorrow.

Organic Supercomputer Doomsday

At the Odaiba Cemetery in Japan, I was looking at the grave of Sam Ichijouji, Ken's older brother that was killed in an accident. It was because of Sam that Ken turned into the Digimon Emperor and it was because of Ken's jealousy that Sam got into that accident. But I had a strong feeling that it was because of Myotismon possessing Yukio Oikawa that his brother died.

Me: Sam, I am sorry that you died. But your brother is back with your family and is doing much better now. Nico brought him back after he accidentally killed him. Now Ken needs you more than ever because he misses you.

I snapped my fingers and Sam Ichijouji was brought back to life in a powerful flash of light and he looked better than ever.

Sam Ichijouji: J.D. thank you for bringing me back.

Me: You're welcome Sam.

Later at the Ichijouji apartment, Ken was having dinner when the doorbell rang.

Mrs. Ichijouji: I'll get that.

She answered the door and she gasped in shock at seeing Sam back from the dead!

Sam Ichijouji: Hi mom. I'm back.

She hugged him and cried in so much joy!

Mrs. Ichijouji: (Crying) My Sam is back! But how!?

Me: (Offscreen) I brought him back.

I appeared.

Me: I heard from Nico about what happened to Sam a while back and I decided to bring him back.

Ken and Mr. Ichijouji hugged same for the first time in 8 years. It was a happy reunion. I was happy for them. After the Ichijouji's went through so much tragedy, I decided to heal their wounds.

Later we were with Vert and the Battle Force 5 and we were heading out to rescue Vert's dad.

Venom: What Battle Zone is your dad in?

Vert: He's in the Clockwork Battle Zone.

He opened a portal and we went through it and we were in the Clockwork Battle Zone! It looked like a universe where everything is covered in gears.

Kung Fu Panda Mantis: Man, I never knew that a Battle Zone would look like this!

Me: This is amazing!

Vert: Follow me.

We followed Vert and we found Jack Wheeler's car and we saw Jack Wheeler.

Ransack: Are you Jack Wheeler?

Jack Wheeler: That's right. Hey Vert!

Vert: Hey dad.

They hugged again.

Jack Wheeler: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same to you Jack. We came to take you back to Earth.

Jack Wheeler: Lets go.

He got into my car and we left the Clockwork Battle Zone through the portal.

Jack Wheeler: You realize that it's only a matter of time before Krytus finds me thank to this beacon.

Crosshairs: You don't have to worry about that. Krytus is a little frozen at the moment.

Me: Yeah he was banished to an ice planet and frozen for all eternity. But we will destroy him when the time comes. Lets get that beacon off of you.

We used powerful technology to remove the beacon and made him beacon-free.

* * *

Later we were on the Quest Sailboat and we were heading to an island in the Solomon Islands. It was a United States Military base called Fort Latimer and it was a very powerful military defense research institute.

Maria: Jonny, I hope this next bad guy of yours is more pleasant than the last one.

Jonny Quest: I know.

Me: One can hope. But this is a very advanced military research facility we're going to and it is incredibly powerful.

Dr. Quest: We're heading to Fort Latimer to visit my friend Dr. Leo Correll. For years he's been ahead of everyone in the field of biotechnology.

Me: I hope he's not like one of those fucked up mad scientists that we killed before Dr. Quest.

Dr. Quest: Don't worry J.D. Dr. Leo Correll is a good man. And if this new DNA Computer of his…

Jonny: Did you say DNA Computer?

Nico: Sounds science-fiction.

Dr. Quest: Leo calls them Genoprocessors. He uses genetic material to replace silicon chips. You see, in our bodies DNA stores information just like…

Hadji: (Indian Accent) The microprocessor in this laptop.

Me: Wow! That's very interesting.

Hadji: I am most interested in seeing this cyber hybrid.

Me: Same here.

Maria: Me too.

Jessie B.: Me too. It looks very interesting.

Race: Computers made from living tissue? Sounds like playing with fire to me doc.

Me: I agree with Race, Dr. Quest. After killing so many mad scientists that used biotechnology to destroy the world and the universe, I have developed a strong dislike towards the fields of bioscience.

Dr. Quest: I'm sure Leo knows what he's doing guys.

We arrived at the island and we were greeted General Conrad Axton, commander and chief of Fort Latimer.

General Axton: Dr. Quest and Team Loud Phoenix Storm, General Conrad Axton.

Me: (Salutes) Pleasure to meet you General.

General Axton: Welcome to Fort Latimer. Tightest security in the South Pacific.

Dr. Quest: Thank you General.

General Axton: So tight I thought about denying you port when I heard this slacker was aboard.

He was referring to Race.

Race: (Laughs and shakes his hand) Good to see you too General.

Me: I didn't know you two knew each other.

Race: Was part of his military a long time before I became part of Intelligence One.

Me: Wow.

Jessie B.: It's a big part of his career.

Race: The General then Colonel was my C.O. back in my enlisted days.

General Axton: We'll catch up later. I suppose you're anxious to see your friend the mad doctor, Dr. Correll.

Me: (Laughs) Yeah this new Genoprocessor he made has me intrigued.

Edd: Same here.

Hadji: What is his DNA Computer like General?

General Axton: Costly son. Costly.

Me: Boy it must've cost a very pretty penny from the entire United States Military Budget to make it.

General Axton: It did.

We were heading to the building where Dr. Correll kept the computer. Some of us were flying there.

Me: This place is amazing.

Maria: It sure is. It's our first time on a very powerful military base run by the government.

Lincoln: But this is so amazing.

Lisa Loud: Indeed it is elder brother. I do a lot of powerful experiments run by the governments of the world with grant money given to me by the world leaders.

General Axton: So you are the Lisa Loud we have heard about.

Me: That's her General. She may be only 4-years-old, but she has a powerful mind of Stephen Hawking caliber.

Nico: Yep.

Race: Maybe you should rename this place Fortified Latimer sir.

Jonny: Why the need for such high security General?

General Axton: There's some sensitive research being done on this little atoll son. Even got a live nuke here.

Me: A real nuclear missile? Wow.

General Axton: There's a prototype for a sub-oceanic nuclear missile silo right under our feet.

Me: Wow. An underwater nuclear missile silo.

Laney: Sounds dangerous.

Lana: Yeah.

Hadji: What a comforting thought.

Jonny: You said it Hadj. I love hearing "Nuclear Missile" and "Under our Feet" in the same sentence.

General Axton: Ah you all have nothing to worry about. Missile control is in Security Level A.

We saw a building behind an electrified fence.

Jonny: Electrified fencing.

Me: Very highly guarded.

General Axton: All sizzle no sting.

Me: Wow. Must be over 1 million volts of electricity.

General Axton: You hit the nail right on the head J.D. Why I can hardly get into Level A myself.

Me: Must be really tough.

General Axton: (Laughs) Yep and I've got the launch codes.

Laney: I'm worried.

Race: I know. I'm worried too.

We arrived at the building where Dr. Correll is working at and we pulled up and we saw two guards on the floor unresponsive.

Me: What the!?

General Axton: (Through the radio) This is Axton to base op. Possible Intruder. We got two down in Biotech Lab. Need Medivac Assistance on the double!

We went over and checked them out. I felt their wrists and there was a faint pulse.

Me: Faint pulse here.

Lincoln: I'm not picking up any neurological activity.

Dr. Quest: Leo.

We went into the building and we went into the building where the Genoprocessor was and we saw that the tank it was in was destroyed and empty.

We found Dr. Correll and his assistant Dr. Matthews on the floor unconscious and unresponsive and covered in some kind of green slime.

Dr. Quest: Leo.

I looked them over.

Me: Just like those two guards.

Laney: Something drained them of their energy.

Lisa Loud: This is completely baffling.

We saw that Rigor Mortis was starting to set in.

Me: Rigor Mortis has started setting in.

The doctor came in and was looking him over.

Dr. Quest: Well doctor?

Military Doctor: Just like the others I'm afraid. Faint pulse. No neurological response.

Dr. Quest: And the limb rigor?

Military Doctor: Would indicate that he has been this way for over a day.

Me: How is that possible?

General Axton: Yeah I was talking to him myself just an hour ago.

Military Doctor: I'll know more when I get them back to base medical and run some tests.

Dr. Quest: Let me know what you find Doctor.

They picked up the doctors body and took him to the hospital.

I saw some green slime on the floor.

Me: This green slime they were covered in might have something to do with it. Sakura, Varie, you had better go with them to heal them up.

Sakura Haruno: Right.

Varie: We'll get right on it.

They left.

Man: (On the radio) Base Op to General Axton. We have a guard down in Checkpoint A6. Retina and Palm ID show Dr. Leo Correll just entered A.

Me: How can that be General? We saw him laying here on the floor.

Nico: Unless he can be in two places at once.

General Axton: Put A on alert. Whoever it is, it isn't Correll. Up for a little security work Bannon?

Race: Sure you can trust us Slackers sir?

They left.

Me: Jonny we're gonna need your help on this. Nico you better go with them just to be on the safe side.

Nico: Right.

Nico flew with Race and the General.

We went with Dr. Quest and we were running some tests on what went down.

Me: What happened here Dr. Quest?

Jonny Quest: Yeah what's going on dad?

Dr. Quest: There appears to have been an overload. This container obviously held the Genoprocessor.

Me: That's what I think too.

Lisa Loud: Indeed.

Dr. Quest: And when it malfunctioned…

Jonny Quest: Some of the DNA stuff leaked out maybe onto Dr.

Correll and his assistant.

Me: I don't think so. I think the DNA Computer might have busted out somehow.

Lisa Loud: That could be a logical assumption.

Vince: But the question is how did it do it?

Dr. Quest took a sample of the green slime for analysis.

Dr. Quest: That is what I need to find out.

Jonny Quest: Dad, maybe we can find out what Dr. Correll was working on before his computer crashed.

Hadji: It will certainly put our hacking powers to the test.

Me: And test our technological ingenuity. Lets get to work.

We spliced some wires and got the computer back up and running and Dr. Quest was looking at the slime sample and it showed that there were DNA Fragments that were highly energized.

Dr. Quest: This genetic material consists of highly energized DNA Fragments designed to receive electrochemical impulses.

Me: That's unusual.

He put some of the sample into a syringe and turned on his watch. He put some of the sample on his watch and it sucked the energy from it.

Dr. Quest: Just as I surmised. The DNA has become so highly energized, it's able to drain the energy from my watch. Or a man.

Lincoln: That explains why we couldn't get any neurological response from those men.

Me: They've been drained of their Neurological Electrical Energy some how.

He called the Military Doctor and told them to give a mixture of electrolytic salts to the people that were drained.

Dr. Quest: Well that should keep them stabilized until I can find a way to reverse the process.

Me: Okay.

Jonny Quest: Guys we're online.

Hadji: Accessing last program entered by Dr. Correll.

Me: Lets see.

"Project:

Genoprocessor

DNA Computer

7543-AA4-2743

Objective

Determine Weaknesses in Island Security. Attempt to Breach Security and launch Sub-Oceanic Nuclear Missile…"

Wow.

Jonny Quest: But this is just a simulation right?

Dr. Quest: Unless the Genoprocessor didn't think so. I believe its decided to check out the security itself.

Me: Looks like it DID walk out of here.

Dr. Quest: That is a better word. But first it must've absorbed the genetic information of Leo to get through the checkpoint.

Me: Then we had better be careful. Anyone that DNA Computer touches will be absorbed and we can't blast it because we'll be killing the people inside it.

Vince: This is a dangerous situation. You better call Nico partner.

Me: Roger that.

Dillon: It's like Venjix all over again!

I did so.

Dr. Quest called the General.

Soldier: (On the phone) General Axton, I have Dr. Quest.

Dr. Quest: (On the phone) General, Dr. Correll's Genoprocessor is whats been breaching your security.

General Axton: Are you serious? That bowl of jelly is moving around!? Next thing you'll be telling me it's programmed to launch my nuke.

Dr. Quest: It is. It's headed for…

Jonny Quest: Barracks 12!

General Axton: What!? That's my launch team. Is there any way to stop it?

Dr. Quest: I'll think of something.

General Axton: Meet me at Barracks 12. I'll send a chopper.

In the monitoring building Nico and Race were looking around for the Genoprocessor.

Nico: It's here somewhere.

But then the alarm sounded and so did the air raid sirens!

Man: This is Base Op! General Axton has ordered Security Level A evacuated immediately!

Nico: Uh oh! Not a good sign. I think the Genoprocessor got General Axton and is impersonating him.

Race: I think you're right Nico.

They went into the monitoring room and found two more men down and covered in slime.

Nico: And it got these two as well.

On the security monitors they saw people running for their lives.

Me: (On the communicator) J.D. Knudson to Nico. Do you copy?

Nico: Nico here.

Me: The Genoprocessor has become sentient and is moving around to launch General Axton's underwater nuclear warhead. We are heading to Barracks 12 to see if we can stop it. Meet us there as soon as you can.

Nico: Affirmative.

We were flying to Barracks 12.

Pilot: General Axton has ordered this entire security area evacuated.

Me: I don't like the looks of this guys.

Jonny Quest: Guess he wasn't as hard to convince as I thought.

Laney: I've got a bad feeling about this.

Hadji: But if… I mean when we stop the Genoprocessor, what will happen to Dr. Correll and the others?

Naruto: Good question.

Dr. Quest: That's the good news Hadji. Since the processor replicated Dr. Correll's retinal print, I believe it stored all the electrical information from its victims intact.

Jonny Quest: So we have to stop the Processor but keep it in one piece.

Me: That's gonna be a problem.

On the security monitors Nico and Race saw the Genoprocessor grab two guards and it sapped them of their electrical energy and left them in a coma state.

Nico: Lets go!

Race and Nico ran fast and followed a slime trail and in a room they found the unresponsive body of General Axton.

Nico: General!

Race: Base Op. Where's Axton?

Base Op: Bannon?

Race: WHERE IS HE!?

Base Op: He's meeting Dr. Quest at Barracks 12!

Nico: Dr. Quest is in danger! Come on!

Nico picked up the unresponsive body of General Axton and they left for Barracks 12.

We went down the halls and we saw more DNA slime.

Me: More slime. It's here.

Bandit whimpered and we saw three more unresponsive people on the floor.

Pilot: They're part of the missile launch team.

Hadji: We are too late.

General Axton: Quickly Dr. Quest.

We saw General Axton.

General Axton: In here. We can stop the launch together.

Dr. Quest went up to the door.

Race and Nico came!

Race: Doc! No!

Nico: It's not who you think!

Tentacles grabbed Dr. Quest and drained him of his energy as he screamed in pain. I looked at the DNA Computer and I was amazed.

Me: Incredible!

I looked at the computer with my Data Eyes and what I saw was astounding. It was a computer made entirely out of organic tissue and it was really amazing!

Race was about to shoot it but Jonny stopped it.

Race: What does that thing want?

Nico: That's what I want to know.

Hadji: The Genoprocessor intends to launch General Axton's nuclear missile.

Jessie B: And we have to stop it!

Jonny Quest: And it lured dad here because it knew he was smart enough to stop it. So now it's up to us.

Me: That blob of jelly will pay.

Jonny Quest: What's the fastest way to missile command?

Pilot: Special elevator at the end of the barracks. But only Axton and the button team have access.

Vince: Maybe it'll work on me because my eyes act like a universal key card.

Race: Get a medivac unit here on the double.

Pilot: What do I tell Base Op?

Race: As little as possible. What we don't need are a bunch of trigger-happy G.I.'s down there.

Laney: That's the last thing we need.

Hadji: With this DNA computer, we are always one step behind.

Jonny Quest: First try Hadji. Sooner or later, we're gonna find a way to beat the program.

We walked up to the computer panel.

Computer: Authorized access only. Enter palm and retina print.

Vince put his hand on the retina scanner and scanned his eye.

Computer: Access approved.

The elevator opened

Me: Good work partner.

Vince: Thanks.

Nico: How did you know it would work?

Vince: The President of the United States encoded my Palm and Retina Print into every high security military base system for occasions like this whenever needed.

Me: Way to come through partner.

We arrived at the Missile Launch Room. We got to the panel and just as we were about to open it, we heard the alarms.

Computer: Control Room Lockdown. Access Denied on General Axton's command.

Jonny Quest: Guys he's starting the countdown!

We saw him grow a tentacle and it formed into multiple tentacles that pressed a lot of buttons.

Computer: Target Locked. Washington D.C. Enter Access Codes to commence countdown to launch.

Me: He's gonna blow up Washington D.C.!

Race: Abort the program General!

Jonny Quest: It's just a Computer Simulation!

Me: Yeah!

General Axton: Don't think that you can get in here to stop me guys! That door can withstand a thermonuclear blast. (Laughs) Access Denied.

Dr. Correll: My program cannot be stopped.

Me: We have to get in there and stop it.

The pilot came.

Pilot: Thought you guys could use some help.

Computer: Access Codes confirmed. Missile Launch in T-Minus 30 minutes.

Pilot: (Gasp) The underwater missile silos.

Me: I have an idea. We can blast that door down and we can distract it for Jonny so he can hook up some cables to it and his Questworld System and Hadji's laptop. Lincoln, you can short-circuit it's electrochemical makeup to keep it still long enough for us to work to get everyone out of there.

Lincoln: Right!

Race: You sound just like the doc.

Xaldin, King Hiss and Ms. Cantwell appeared.

Me: Xaldin, King Hiss and Ms. Cantwell.

Laney: We don't have time for this. We have to stop an Organic Supercomputer that's trying to blow up Washington D.C.

Xaldin: We actually hope you all can get rid of that Supercomputer.

William: Why's that?

King Hiss: Because it's too dangerous even for us.

Me: So we have seen but Dr. Correll did an amazing job in making it.

Ms. Cantwell: Yes it's really interesting.

Me: We got to hurry and stop it.

?: I hope so.

A figure came out and it was SPIT FLOWER from episode 24 of Mighty Morphin!

---

The Spit Flower was created by Finster. Finster told Rita that he possessed a very rare monster, the Spit Flower. Zordon told Rangers that the body of Spit Flower was like an armour with few weak places. Rita sent him to Earth. Spit Flower attacked Angel Grove and started eating flowers. When he ate flowers, they came out as a little biting monsters that drained energy of their targets. He also could fire energy from his tentacle. He encountered the Power Rangers. After the brief battle on the ground, Rita enlarged the monster who blasted the Rangers before Tommy showed up and knocked him down with a blast from his Dragon Dagger. The Rangers started fighting him with their Zords. In the giant fight Tommy was overwhelmed by the monster in his Dragonzord in Battle Mode when the monster caught it's staff and took down the Zord with it's draining flowers. The Zords were ineffective against him, so Zordon called them away. Then monster returned to human size and continued eating flowers and draining energy from people. However, in the Command Center, our heroes discovered his weak place, his spit sack. Kimberly fired at his sack with her Power Bow, weakening him and taking away his ability to create bitting flowers. The Rangers used their Power Blaster to finally destroy him with three blasts, even though the first blast seemed to knock down one of his claw arms.

---

Kimberly Ann Hart: Spit Flower!

Spit Flower: Long time no see rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to destroy the rangers and kill innocent people with those flowers.

Spit Flower: That's right. You know your Power Rangers monsters J.D. Mistress Vypra was right about you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Poison Ivy tried to control Spit Flower with her powers.

Spit Flower: (laughs) Sorry, Ivy! But Mistress Vypra made sure that your powers don't work on me! She doesn't want it to be too easy.

Poison Ivy: I had a feeling that Vypra would do that.

Me: Okay, you guys do your usual fights with them while we get everyone out of there.

Fu: I can make an Anti-Neurological Drain Shield to prevent the Genoprocessor from draining us.

Me: Good thinking Fu. Lets do it! If that door can with a Thermonuclear Blast then it can't withstand this.

I fired a Kamehameha Wave at the Door and it hit it and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The door was blown off of its frame and it fell down.

Noah Carver: Time to take this supercomputer apart!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Science Platoon Dynaman!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dynaman rangers and Fu formed Aura Shields around us all.

Xaldin: Be careful guys.

Me: Thanks Xaldin.

We went at the computer and I sat on the floor with the laptop in my lap.

Lori and Beast Boy went to face Xaldin, Leni went to face King Hiss, Lisa Simpson went to face Ms. Cantwell and Nico and the Megaforce Rangers went to face the Spit Flower.

---

Battle 1: Xaldin

---

Beast Boy and Lori were facing Xaldin.

Lori formed a spear of wind.

Xaldin: I hope these small halls will withstand us.

Lori: They will.

Beast Boy: Lets dance!

Beast Boy turned into a Rhinoceros and Lori was on his back and she slashed Xaldin all over with her spear and Beast Boy trampled him all over.

---

Battle 2: King Hiss

---

Leni was facing King Hiss.

Leni: This will totes be good.

King Hiss: Lets dance Leni.

Leni kicked him in the face and knocked him down.

Leni: Totes victory.

---

Battle 3: Ms. Cantwell

---

Lisa Simpson was facing Ms. Cantwell.

Lisa Simpson: Lets do this Cantwell.

Ms. Simpson: I plan to Stupid Lisa!

Lisa then kicked her in the face and knocked her down!

Lisa Simpson: I've said it before and I'll say it again. Ms. Hoover is a better teacher than you.

---

Battle 4: Spit Flower

---

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing The Spit Flower.

Nico: Lets dance!

Nico fired waves of energy and they hit the Spit Flower's flower sac and the Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over the place with incredible blasts. The Spit Flower fell down and exploded in a fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Spit Flower you have failed this world.

---

Battle 5: GENOPROCESSOR!

---

We were facing the Genoprocessor.

Me: Here we go.

We had Anti-Neurological Draining Shields around us.

Lincoln channelled lightning into the floors and stunned the Genoprocessor and Race hooked up a cable to it and to the laptop and Jonny was hooked up to it. He went into the computer.

Jonny Quest: J.D. I'm in.

Me: I can see it Jonny.

He formed an energy tendril from his arm and he started scanning the data inside a Neuro Cluster and the data I was getting on it was amazing. My data eyes were analyzing the data.

Jonny Quest: I can feel the energy. Are you getting anything?

Me: Wow! I sure am Jonny. I'm looking at the data of Dr. Correll. The data he used to make the Genoprocessor is incredible.

Jonny formed another tendril and it scanned another Neuro-Cluster.

Me: That one is Dr. Matthews, his assistant.

Lisa Loud: Amazing!

Jonny Quest: J.D. each one of these Neuro-clusters is a separate personality. Try transferring their energy to flash drive.

Me: On it.

I typed in a command and their data was transferred into a drive.

Me: Done.

Jonny Quest then saw Dr. Quest's data.

Me: That's Dr. Quest. Hold on doctor.

I transferred his data into the drive.

Me: Immune system incoming. I got this.

I typed in a command into the Genoprocessor and disabled its immune system.

Jonny found all the clusters and I transferred their data to the Flash Drive.

Me: Almost there.

Computer: T-Minus 2 minutes and counting.

Nico: We're running out of time.

Me: Almost there. We have one more Neuro-Cluster and that's General Axton.

Jonny scanned him and I pulled up the abort codes.

Me: Here's the codes. 2546 - 7598 - 4396.

Nico: I'm on it!

Nico went over to the computer and punched in the codes and the launch was stopped with 10 seconds left.

Computer: Countdown aborted.

Me: Good work Nico.

Jonny Quest: All the Neuro Clusters are in the flash drive.

Me: Roger that.

We got all the clusters out of there.

Me: Great! Now we can attack it!

Lincoln fired a wave of lightning and Linka and Luan fired waves of light. The blasts electrocuted and burned it.

Leni: This thing is totes disgusting! OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: THE MARY CELESTE!

Leni fired a wave of water and it formed into the legendary ghost ship The Mary Celeste and she rammed into the Genoprocessor and drenched it.

Xion: Take this one! OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: KAIRYU-SHIN!

Xion fired a wave of water and it formed into the Sea Dragon God Duel Monster, KAIRYU-SHIN and he blasted the Genoprocessor with powerful blasts of water and energy.

Intress: Watch this. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: YORMUNGARDE!

Intress fired a wave of water and it formed into the Duel Monster Yormungarde and it slammed into the Genoprocessor and drenched it.

Karai: (Japanese Accent) This will hurt. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: KUROSHIO CURRENT SLASH!

Karai fired blades of water and they cut the Genoprocessor all over.

Lily: This is gonna hurt. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: JÖRMUNGANDR

Tabby: And this. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: JENGU!

Becca: And this one. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: VODYANOY!

Woya: And this as well. WATER STYLE NINJA ART: LELAWALA!

Andropov: (Russian Accent) And this one comrades. WATER STYLE NINJA ART: RUSALKA!

Tshibangu: (Congo Accent) This too. WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TAHORATAKARAR!

Girl Jordan: And this. WATER STYLE NINJA ART: BÄCKAHÄSTEN!

Luna Loud: And this dudes! OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: KRAKEN!

Lily, Tabby, Becca, Woya, Andropov, Tshibangu, Girl Jordan and

Luna Loud: MAELSTROM STYLE NINJA ART: NAUTICAL LEGEND ASSAULT!

They fired a massive wave of water and it formed into the legendary creatures of legend.

Jörmungandr

In Norse mythology, Jörmungandr, also known as the Midgard (World) Serpent is a sea serpent, the middle child of the giantess Angrboða and Loki. According to the Prose Edda, Odin took Loki's three children by Angrboða-the wolf Fenrir, Hel, and Jörmungandr-and tossed Jörmungandr into the great ocean that encircles Midgard. The serpent grew so large that it was able to surround the earth and grasp its own tail. As a result, it received the name of the Midgard Serpent or World Serpent. When it releases its tail, Ragnarök will begin. Jörmungandr's arch-enemy is the thunder-god, Thor. It is an example of an ouroboros.

Jengu the Cameroon Water Spirit

A jengu is a water spirit in the traditional beliefs of the Sawa ethnic groups of Cameroon, particularly the Duala, Bakweri, Malimba, Batanga, Bakoko, Oroko People and related Sawa peoples. Among the Bakweri, the name is liengu (plural: maengu). Miengu are similar to Mami Wata spirits Bakoko the name is Bisima. The miengu's appearance differs from people to people, but they are typically said to be beautiful, mermaid-like figures with long hair and beautiful gap-teeth. They live in rivers and the sea and bring good fortune to those who worship them. They can also cure disease and act as intermediaries between worshippers and the world of spirits. For this reason, a jengu cult has long enjoyed popularity among the Duala peoples. Among the Bakweri, this cult is also an important part of a young girl's rite of passage into womanhood.

Vodyanoy the Slavic Water Spirit

In Slavic mythology, vodyanoy or vodyanoi is a male water spirit. Vodník (or in Germanized form: Hastrman), in Czech fairy tales, is the same creature as the Wassermann or nix of German fairy tales.

Vodyanoy is said to appear as a naked old man with a frog-like face, greenish beard, and long hair, with his body covered in algae and muck, usually covered in black fish scales. He has webbed paws instead of hands, a fish's tail, and eyes that burn like red-hot coals. He usually rides along his river on a half-sunk log, making loud splashes. Consequently, he is often dubbed "grandfather" or "forefather" by the local people. Local drownings are said to be the work of the vodyanoy (or rusalkas).

When angered, the vodyanoy breaks dams, washes down water mills, and drowns people and animals. (Consequently, fishermen, millers, and also bee-keepers make sacrifices to appease him.) He would drag down people to his underwater dwelling to serve him as slaves.

In the Russian North, is believed that vodyanoys have a ruler. He is an old man, armed with a club. He can rise to the sky sitting on a black cloud and creating new rivers and lakes. His name is the Tsar Vodyanik, or the Vodyan Tsar.

Lelawala the Ongiara Maid of the Mist

In Native American legend, Lelawala was a beautiful maiden of the peaceful tribe of the Ongiaras that was married off by her father to a king. However, she despised the old king, and longed to be with her true love He-No. He was the god of thunder and lurked in a cave beneath the Horseshoe Falls, a part of the Niagara Falls by the Great Lakes. She decided she wanted to find He-No at all cost, and as she paddled a canoe onto the Niagara River she was swept off the Falls. He-No had been watching and caught Lelawala while she fell. It is said they stayed together after that and their spirits still live in the caves beneath Niagara Falls to this day.

Rusalka the Slavic Water Spirit

In Slavic folklore, the rusalka (plural: rusalki; Cyrillic: русалка; Polish: rusałka) is a female entity, often malicious toward mankind and frequently associated with water. Folklorists have proposed a variety of origins for the entity, including that they may originally stem from Slavic paganism, where they may have been seen as benevolent spirits. Rusalki appear in a variety of media in modern popular culture, particularly in Slavic language-speaking countries, where they frequently resemble the concept of the mermaid.

Tahoratakarar the Polynesian Water Boy

In Polynesian mythology, a woman named Takua was once abducted by two evil spirits, and they stole the baby inside her. Than the sea rose, and the two spirits dissolved in a cloud. The boy, called Tahoratakarar, was raised by the sea itself. Other sea spirits built him a big boat that was tied to the Underworld. It sailed by night and stopped if someone died at sea, collecting his or her soul. The boat was known in myth as the Boat of Souls, or the Boat of the Dead. The myth resembles that of Charon in Greek mythology.

Bäckahästen the Norse Brook Horse

In Faroese, the word nykur refers specifically to a supernatural horse, described in one Faroese text thus:

The nykur dwells in water; at the bottom, down in the depths, he has his lair; from here he often goes onto land and it is not good to meet him.

Sometimes he is like a beautiful little horse which seems to be good and tame, and thus he lures people to draw near to him to pat him and stroke him along the back. But when they come to touch the tail, they become stuck fast to him and then he releases no-one, but he drags them with him to the bottom of the water.

Sometimes he encounters people in human form, as a handsome youth, to lure young women to himself, and promises them joy and gladness in his hall if they want to go along with him. But if they get a suspicion of who he is, when they are giving themselves away, such that they can call him by his true name - nykur - then he loses the power over them and must release them and go along into his waters.

It is said that the nykur can equally well change itself into the form of all quadrupedal animals, except that he does not know how to create the horn-points of a ram or a male lamb on himself.

But when he hasn't changed his form, he is like a horse, and it has come about that people gain power over him by carving a cross into his back and then they have been able to have him drag great stones by his tail down from the mountains to homesteads or houses. Some are still seen in Húsavík in Sandoy and on Eiði in Eysturoy and the big rocks that are gathered together there bear witness to how strong he is. At Takmýri in Sandoy, lies one huge rock, which they wanted to have him draw to Húsavík, but his tail broke here, and the stone remains there. One part of the nykur's tail, which was attached to the stone, is visible on it still.

The equivalent term in Continential Scandinavian languages is bäckahäst or bækhest ('brook horse'). It has a close parallel in the Scottish kelpie, and the Welsh Ceffyl Dŵr.

The bäckahäst was often described as a majestic white horse that would appear near rivers, particularly during foggy weather. Anyone who climbed onto its back would not be able to get off again. The horse would then jump into the river, drowning the rider. The brook horse could also be harnessed and made to plough, either because it was trying to trick a person or because the person had tricked the horse into it. The following tale is a good illustration of the brook horse:

A long time ago, there was a girl who was not only pretty but also big and strong. She worked as a maid on a farm by Lake Hjärtasjön in southern Nerike. She was ploughing with the farm's horse on one of the fields by the lake. It was springtime and beautiful weather. The birds chirped and the wagtails flitted in the tracks of the girl and the horse in order to pick worms. All of a sudden, a horse appeared out of the lake. It was big and beautiful, bright in colour and with large spots on the sides. The horse had a beautiful mane which fluttered in the wind and a tail that trailed on the ground. The horse pranced for the girl to show her how beautiful he was. The girl, however, knew that it was the brook horse and ignored it. Then the brook horse came closer and closer and finally he was so close that he could bite the farm horse in the mane. The girl hit the brook horse with the bridle and cried: "Disappear you scoundrel, or you'll have to plough so you'll never forget it." As soon as she had said this, the brook horse had changed places with the farm horse, and the brook horse started ploughing the field with such speed that soil and stones whirled in its wake, and the girl hung like a mitten from the plough. Faster than the cock crows seven times, the ploughing was finished and the brook horse headed for the lake, dragging both the plough and the girl. But the girl had a piece of steel in her pocket, and she made the sign of the cross. Immediately she fell down on the ground, and she saw the brook horse disappear into the lake with the plough. She heard a frustrated neighing when the brook horse understood that his trick had failed. Until this day, a deep track can be seen in the field.

The Kraken the Scandinavian Giant Octopus

The kraken is a legendary cephalopod-like sea monster of gigantic size in Scandinavian folklore. According to the Norse sagas, the kraken dwells off the coasts of Norway and Greenland and terrorizes nearby sailors. Authors over the years have postulated that the legend may have originated from sightings of giant squids that may grow to 13-15 meters (40-50 feet) in length. The sheer size and fearsome appearance attributed to the kraken have made it a common ocean-dwelling monster in various fictional works. The kraken has been the focus of many superstitious sailors passing the North Atlantic and especially sailors from the Nordic countries due to their proximity and its Scandinavian origin. Throughout the centuries the kraken has been a staple part of sailors' superstitions and mythos being heavily linked to sailors' ability of telling a tall tale.

The massive blast of water and the creatures pulverized the Genoprocessor all over the place with incredible fury and drenched it.

Me: Lets show some teamwork.

Ransack: With pleasure! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his seat blaster and turned it into a powerful cannon.

Venom: We are ready! MARVEL CYBER KEY POWER!

The Marvel Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and enhanced his Symbiote Powers 100-fold.

Crosshairs: Lets do it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his grenade launcher 100-fold.

Mantis (KFP): Lets do it! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm claw and enhanced his Kung Fu powers 100-fold.

Cybertron Ransack and Venom: LASER SYMBIOTE BLAST!

Cybertron Ransack fired laser blasts and Venom fired Symbiote globs.

Crosshairs and Kung Fu Panda Mantis: MANTIS GRENADE BARRAGE!

Mantis fired blasts of energy and Crosshairs fired blasts of grenades and the blasts hit the Genoprocessor and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Hadji: Time to end this monstrosity!

Lisa Loud: I couldn't agree more with you Hadji.

Jonny Quest: This is for dad! QUEST BLAST SURPRISE!

Jonny fired a blast of energy.

Hadji: INDIA QUEST BLAST!

Hadji fired a wave of orange, white and green energy

Jessie Bannon: FIRESTORM QUEST BLAST!

Jessie fired a wave of fire.

Lisa Loud: SCIENCE BLAST DISINTEGRATION BEAM!

Lisa Loud fired a wave of energy and the blasts all combined and they hit the Genoprocessor and reduced it into dust.

Me: Yeah! We did it!

Nico: Now lets restore everyone.

Me: Right.

We went to the Medivac hospital and we hooked up everyone to our computer with the Questworld system and we gave everyone their energy back and it worked.

Dr. Quest: What happened?

Me: Welcome back to the land of the living Dr. Quest.

Jonny Quest: Glad you're back dad.

Dr. Quest: What happened?

Me: We have quite a story for you.

We revealed everything that happened and how we defeated Dr. Correll's Genoprocessor.

General Axton: Wow. That is amazing son.

Nico: It sure was General.

Dr. Correll: Sorry my Genoprocessor caused you all so much trouble.

Me: Actually this proved to be a rather interesting experience for us Dr. Correll. Your Genoprocessor was amazingly well created and it was really something seeing it in action.

Nico: It was cool seeing a full fledge Organic Supercomputer at work.

Laney: We learned a lot about it.

Me: And General I'm sorry we went into your head to use your abort codes to stop the launch.

General Axton: You did what you had to do J.D. And you have the makings of an amazing soldier.

Me: (Chuckles) My grandfather used to be in the army when he fought in World War II and that means a lot to me General.

General Axton: I can tell.

Xaldin: I'm glad everyone is gonna be okay.

Me: We are too Xaldin.

Xaldin: You all made sure that supercomputer can't come back, right?

Jonny Quest: Of course we did.

Me: We obliterated it into nothing.

Cantwell: Good. The last thing we need is another SkyNet.

King Hiss then gave Nico something.

Nico: What's this?

King Hiss: The list of locations of the respawn chambers of Krytus and his team. Make sure to memorize it.

Nico: Thank you King Hiss.

The Masters of Evil then teleport out.

Me: This was really interesting for us. What turned into an interesting visit to see an Organic Supercomputer turned into a battle to stop it from blowing up Washington D.C.

Nico: It sure was.

Laney: But this was really cool though.

Lana: It sure was.

Lola: Yeah.

Lucy Loud: It was rather enjoyable.

Lynn: It sure was.

Jonny Quest: (To the viewers) Computers are very useful in anything. But you should be careful when using them for science.

Me: Especially if you're making them out of organic tissue.

We later went back home.

THE END

Another awesome Jonny Quest episode done.

DNA Doomsday has been a really awesome episode of The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest. Its been one of my favorite episodes from back when I was a kid. The next episode is Dark Sentinel and that one is gonna be interesting. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this one. This had to use a lot of brain power to stop a powerful organic supercomputer. Thanks guys. Next up is a funny chapter for where we face the evil Black Licorice Pirates from the Codename Kids Next Door episode Operation: L.I.C.O.R.I.C.E. and we're gonna be in a big fight to kill the evil Black John Licorice and his crew of cursed Black Licorice Pirates in a parody of the awesome movie Pirates of The Caribbean The Curse of The Black Pearl. It was a good episode but I HATE BLACK LICORICE! It tastes like you're eating candied onions! Out of all the kinds of candy I like, Black Licorice is not one of them.

See you all tomorrow.

The Curse of the Black Licorice

I HATE BLACK LICORICE!

In the estate, Nico was looking up where the Respawn Chambers of Krytus and his Team were located. Turns out they were located all over the multiverse.

Poison Ivy: (to Nico) Did you find out where each of the respawn chambers are?

Nico: I sure did. They are all over the Multiverse.

Nico marked down the locations of each one and there was a lot of them.

Me: Krytus and his team can pop up numerous times no matter how many times we kill them.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: No more. Lets head over there and get them.

We headed out to the Multiverse and we arrived through a portal.

Duncan: We should probably split up into groups to find each respawn chamber.

Me: Good idea Duncan. We can cover more ground this way. When you find each Respawn Chamber let me know.

Nico: Got it.

We split up we travelled all over the multiverse and found the Respawn Chambers. There were over 263 of them all together.

Nico: Found them.

Laney: Yep.

Crumplezone: All right. We found the respawn chambers. Now what?

Vert: Now we destroy them all at the same time.

Me: Lets do it!

Vert: Now!

We fired energy blasts at the respawn chambers and they all were exploding with incredible power!

Me: Try respawning now Krytus.

Spinner: It's about time we actually destroyed those respawn chambers!

Hardhead: Now when Krytus and his team eventually free themselves, we can destroy them without them resurrecting themselves.

Me: Yep and when we kill them we'll Hakai them out of existence forever.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Watch out Krytus, your days of existence are numbered.

* * *

Later that night at the Lake Huron Wharf was a really awesome Candy Tavern called The Candy Bar and Stickybeard and his crew go there all the time after pillaging candy from evil pirates. There we see Stickybeard and his pirates celebrating at the tavern drinking pure sugar.

Stickybeard's Pirate 1: A toast to the seven seas!

Stickybeard's Pirate 2: More sugar for me, me mateys!

Stickybeard's Pirate 3: Another here, man!

[Stickybeard is having a drinking contest with one of his pirates. His opponent shakes as he drank to much sugar and falls to the floor.]

Stickybeard: Who's next? Can no one eat sugar than old Stickybeard?

Numbuh 5: I can!

Numbuh 5 was there at the table and we were there as well.

[Stickybeard's pirates point their candy swords at Numbuh 5 and growl.]

We had our swords ready to slash them.

Stickybeard: Nice to see ye all at the Candy Bar, lads.

Me: Nice to see you too Stickybeard.

Numbuh 5: I didn't come here for sweet talk, I came for information.

[breaks the tip of one candy sword and swallows it] It's Henrietta. She is missin'.

Stickybeard: Isn't she really Heinrich Von Marzipan lass?

Numbuh 5: Nope. He's really Henrietta Von Marzipan. She was cursed by the Sacred Golden Caramels of Kandacrunchalan and was made into a greedy candy-obsessed bounty hunter.

Me: Yep. She was turned into a boy.

Stickybeard: I see. Blasted fool probably got herself in trouble with the Marshmallow Mayans again.

Numbuh 5: Nope. It has something to do with licorice. [holds out a piece of black licorice] Black licorice! [Stickybeard spits out his sugar]

Me: EW! I HATE BLACK LICORICE!

Nico: I hate Black Licorice too.

Mary Knudson: I can't stand that stuff either. I like the red licorice the best. But Black Licorice is definitely not on my list of favorite candy.

Laney: I can't stand black licorice. It tastes like you're eating Candied Onions.

Lana: YUCK!

Lola: Yeah I hate Black Licorice too.

Me: I think a lot of people hate that stuff. Ever notice in the supermarkets how no one ever touches that stuff and leaves it there on the shelves and takes the red stuff?

We nodded.

Numbuh 5: Yeah. And you're gonna tell me everything about it and you're gonna help me find Henrietta! That is unless you're sugar-free.

Stickybeard's Pirates: Ooh!

Lucy Loud: Uh oh.

Stickybeard: You know a candy pirate can't say no to a sugary challenge.

Numbuh 5: So, let's do it!

Stickybeard: 'Tis your blood sugar levels, lassie. Set us up!

[The bartender gives Numbuh 5 and Stickybeard two mugs full of sugar.]

Stickybeard: Now, ready… set… [drinks his sugar] Ha! Huh?

[It appears that Numbuh 5 drank hers before Stickybeard, which surprises them.]

Numbuh 5: Did you say something?

Stickybeard: Uh, two out of three?

Numbuh 5: No thanks. Now, spill it!

Stickybeard: Argh, very well.

Me: This is gonna be interesting.

[Stickybeard snaps his fingers and Chewy plays the horn on the beginning.]

We were told the story of the evil candy pirate Black John Licorice.

Stickybeard: OOOOOOOOOOOOOH! Once there was a pirate by the name of Black John, who'd do anything for candy, even steal it from his mom! When he sailed the suburbs through just to fill his candy coat until he stumbled off the island the coast of North Dakota!

Stickybeard's Pirates: And there he found Licorice! Licorice! Sweet, juicy and red! It grew like bamboo to the heavens it spread! Licorice! Licorice! As red as my beard! There were acres for all takers or so it appeared!

Stickybeard: But Ol' Black John wanted it all to himself. So he cut the stalks down and sailed off with his wealth! But his greed had a cost for him and all his crew. Some very bad things were to happen, who knew?

Stickybeard's Pirates: And that's when the licorice, licorice turned rancid and black! Was dead, no, not red, and tasted like (coughing and gagging). Licorice! Licorice! There's more yet to tell! Their bones, how they grow, turned to licorice as well!

Stickybeard: Cursed to be skeletons alive only at night! For by day, they collapse at the sun's early light. But at dusk, they arise, just barely alive, till one day they heard of a way to survive!

Madame Zin: Go back the island and plant there the seed! Lit moonlight upon it with soda and then feed!

Stickybeard's Pirates: And then we'll grow Licorice! Licorice! Sweet, juicy and red! The curse will reverse from your bones, it will shed. Licorice! Licorice! No longer so black! One seed's all you need to grow it all back!

Stickybeard: Soooooo, they sailed for the island with the seed that night. But, alas, stopped short when came morning's first light. It was the very same day that we came along, just my cabin boy and me, where we didn't belong. We climbed all the steps and walked 'round all the stumps and found there Black John and his skeleton clumps. Then Heinrich did something that shattered the calm: he snatched 'way the seed from John's bony ol' palm. Now, the sun, it went down and John sprung back to life, and grabbed for the seed with great anger and strife! But somehow, we escaped and sailed off in the night, not knowing that John followed and yelled out in spite:

Stickybeard's Pirates: Licorice! Licorice! I'll find you, my friend! My crew shall pursue on that, you can depend!

[Stickybeard and his pirates drink their sugar.]

Stickybeard: There ya have it, lads. But we defeated Black John and rescued Heinrich before you all were formed.

Me: Wow. That's an interesting story.

Nico: It sure is.

Lola: I remember that.

Yuko Tani: That's right.

Jack Sparrow: That is very similar to what happened with Captain Barbossa and his crew lads.

Me: I was just gonna point that out.

Laney: That is very similar to what happened in the Curse of The Black Pearl.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: Yep. But with Black Licorice. But I have a feeling I know what Black John Licorice is gonna do. They are after Henrietta to kill her for ruining their chance to get rid of their curse. We got to get there and fast! Lets go!

We were off to Red Stalk Isle in North Dakota and we were on Stickybeard's ship.

Numbuh One: You know, Stickybeard. I actually never thought me and the rest of Sector V would be hanging out with you on your ship willingly without us fighting each other.

Stickybeard: Aye. True lad.

Numbuh 362: That is really something.

Maria: You know, I have heard rumors that black licorice is one of the most powerful forms of dark matter in the universe.

William: Really?

Maria: Those are just rumors. But either way, black licorice is still gross.

Me: Well we don't know if it's true or not and probably never will.

Nico: Yeah.

Pirate: LAND HO!

We arrived at Red Stalk Isle in North Dakota.

Me: Target sighted.

On the island we saw Black John Licorice's ship and we saw BLACK JOHN LICORICE AND HIS CREW!

---

Black John Licorice is an undead pirate, that was once human, made out of black licorice who appears in Operation: L.I.C.O.R.I.C.E.. He was the captain of Stickybeard when he was young and loves candy above anything else.

He was voiced by Marc Graue.

Biography

When traveling in search of candy, Black John and his crew came upon an island of licorice trees, which they promptly cut down and stole. This cursed Black John and his crew, causing all of the stolen licorice to turn from red to black, and the pirates to become skeleton-like licorice figures alive only at night and collapse into piles of licorice bones by day.

Eventually, the Licorice Pirates went to a gypsy, who gave them a magical seed which would cause the licorice trees to grow back and break the curse. Before they could plant it, however, dawn broke and they became lifeless skeletons. Just before sunset that same day, Stickybeard and Heinrich Von Marzipan, his cabin boy at the time, came to the island, where they found the bones of the Licorice Pirates. Heinrich took the seed out of Black John's hand out of curiosity, just before the pirates came back to life and chased after Stickybeard and Heinrich before they managed to escape.

Later, while Heinrich was incarcerated in the KND Artic Prison, Black John appeared and kidnapped him/her. Heinrich reveals that he/she ate the seed, and Black John decides to plant him/her at the top of the licorice tree, causing the seed to grow in his/her stomach and killing him/her in the process. Before this can be done, however, Stickybeard and Numbuh 5 arrive at the island and rescue Heinrich, escaping when the morning arrives and the pirates "die".

However, at the very end of the episode, Black John's ship is seen heading towards the Arctic Prison for Heinrich once again.

---

Me: Prepare for battle!

We were ready for anything.

We arrived at the island and we flew and landed onto the island.

Jake: Time for these guys to walk the plank!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lost Galaxy!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Lost Galaxy rangers.

Black John Licorice: Are ya ready to be human again, me mateys?

Black John's Pirates: Aye, aye, captain!

Black John Licorice: Are ya ready to see sunlight and eat candy without dictation like black licorice?

Black John's Pirates: Aye, aye, captain!

Black John Licorice: Are ya ready to…

Stickybeard: Let the girl go!

Black John Licorice's Pirate 5: That's not my particular choice.

Black John Licorice: Well, if it isn't me old cabin boy, Stickyfuzz.

Stickybeard: I'm not your cabin boy anymore, John! And the name's Stickybeard now!

Black John Licorice: Aw, but you'll always be that cute, little, sweet-toothed kid with the peach fuzz on his lip to me. [sticks a lollipop in Stickybeard's mouth as his crew laughs] Now, off with ye! I'm busy here.

I grabbed Black John's Hand and broke it off.

Me: You are a disgusting freak of nature!

Dominique: (to Black John Licorice) I just want you to know that black licorice sucks ass!

Me: YEAH! I HATE BLACK LICORICE!

Nico: You are the most disgusting pirate ever!

Vince: I hate Black Licorice too.

Nico: Same with me!

Lincoln: Why couldn't you be made out of red licorice!?

Laney: Yeah!

Devack, Firefly and Snake came out.

Me: Devack, Firefly and Snake.

Snake: Yep.

Devack: So, you guys hate black licorice, huh?

Caitlin: Why? Do you guys like it?

Firefly: Fuck no! Who even invented it anyway?

Me: It was made in a British Monastery back in the 1500s and whoever invented black licorice should've been put in a maximum security insane asylum for the rest of their life.

Nico: Yeah.

A figure came out and it was JET STINGRAY!

Turbo Man: And you are?

Jet Stingray: Call me… Jet Stingray! (creates a vacuum from his right arm to pull Turbo Man in)

I fired an energy wave and blasted his arm off!

Me: Nice try.

Devack: Here's our arena for the fight.

He snapped his fingers and we were on another planet and it was a strange planet. It was the planet VULPIN!

---

Vulpin is a pitch black planet on the edge of the galaxy. The ecosystem of Vulpin is poisoned beyond repair and the Vulpimancers are one of few species that can live on Vulpin.

Due to Vulpin being pitch black, Vulpimancers have slowly lost eyes due to them not being used for a long time. They have been mutated due to the effects of the pollution. These mutations involve heightened hearing and other developed senses.

Living in the dark caves beneath the surface, Vulpimancers have no need for eyes and use their amazing sense of smell to "see".

Vilgax Attacks Timeline

In this timeline, Vulpin has enough light to see around and has a large processing plant of sorts, which filters the garbage and sludge (to a point at least).

History

Vulpin has long served as a dumping ground for hazardous materials far too dangerous for other worlds. The little that was once natural here long ago became corrupted by dangerous outside influences.

Society

Part penal colony, part toxic waste dump, whatever life does manage to survive among Vulpin's subzero temperatures and the poisoned forests must learn to adapt to the harshest of climates.

* * *

Me: Whoa! This is a weird planet.

Devack: It is. This is Wildmutt's home planet, Vulpin.

Me: Whoa! So this is the planet Vulpin. I was expecting it to be more forest-like. Not like a toxic waste dump.

Ben: Vulpin has been known as one of the big toxic waste dumps in the galaxy.

Nico: This planet is really freaky.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: I didn't think Wildmutt's home planet would be like this.

Ben: Yeah.

Lana: It's really cool though.

Lola: EW!

Me: Lets go get them guys!

We went at them.

* * *

Black John Licorice: I am not beaten yet!

Me: Actually you are and your time is up!

I pointed behind him and the sun was rising!

Black John Licorice: Huh? No! It-it can't be morning already!

[Black John Licorice's crew collapse and die.]

Black John Licorice: You'll pay for this! [takes out his sword] Ah! Ah! You! [trips has his body begins to fall apart]

Black John Licorice growls and crawls towards Numbuh 5 and Stickybeard. Stickybeard fills two mugs with sugar and gives one to Numbuh 5.

Black John Licorice: I'll get you for this!

Black John Licorice reaches out his hand, but he suddenly dies just before he can do anything.

Me: And to make sure that you never return.

I opened a portal and it lead to the surface of the sun and it sucked in Black John and his crew and completely obliterated them in an instant.

Lincoln: That's it for them.

Me: Yep. Good riddance to those black licorice fucksacks.

Mary Knudson: But I think this island needs its red licorice back.

Varie: Mine too.

Naruto: Yeah!

The Masters of Evil came.

Devack: Well, I for one am glad that those Black Licorice pirates are dealt with.

Eddy: I know, right?

Firefly: And it was kind of clever for some of you to use fire against them.

Lola: Thank you.

William: Out of curiosity, have you guys tried black licorice before?

Snake: Unfortunately, yes.

Nico: Oh. Just checking.

The Masters of Evil teleport out.

Me: Lets get Henrietta and head home.

We got Henrietta and headed back home.

Henrietta: (German Accent) Thank you all for saving me.

We arrived back home and made a candy garden for the Kids Next Door.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Operation L.I.C.O.R.I.C.E. is one of my favorite episodes of Codename KND and it was so funny and awesome! Also red licorice is one of my favorite candies. But the one candy I HATE above all others is BLACK LICORICE! YUCK! I HATE BLACK LICORICE! I can't stand that stuff! It tastes like you're eating candied onions. I tried Black Licorice once and it tasted so awful that I almost threw up. It was so gross! Now I am one of the numerous people that hate black licorice but love red licorice. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is a chapter for the old Saturday Night cartoon Underdog and we're gonna take down the evil Dr. Simon and make him pay for his crimes. THERE'S NO NEED TO FEAR, UNDERDOG IS HERE!

See you all tomorrow

UNDERDOG IS HERE!

In the middle of the city, we were walking to the awesome jewelry store where we got Sora's wedding ring that he got for Kairi.

Nico: I'm so nervous guys.

Me: I know man. But we helped Sora get his ring and we can help you get a ring just as beautiful for May.

Panda King: (Chinese Accent) Max was telling the truth before, Nico. If you don't propose to May soon, you may never get the chance.

Me: Panda King is right. But you always have us for support man.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Sarah (Ed Ed N Eddy): Are we going to the same store where Sora got Kairi's ring?

Me: We sure are Sarah.

Sarah Gunnerson: This is gonna be amazing. I've never been to this store before.

Lori Jimenez: You will love it Sarah. It has a lot of magnificent jewelry. Some of which looks like it belongs in a world famous art museum.

Aqua: It's true.

Laney: The jewelry here is amazing.

Me: Yep. And it's amazingly beautiful.

We arrived at Keyora's.

Me: Here we are guys. Keyora's Jewelry Emporium.

Aqua: The Jewelry in here is amazing Sarah and it's jewelry that is fit for a Queen.

Lola: It's true.

We went in.

Dealer: (Austrian Accent) Ah guten abend J.D. Welcome back.

Me: Danke my good man. Kairi loved her ring and it was so beautiful. We're here to get Nico a wedding ring for May.

Dealer: I haff just the thing for her.

We followed him and we saw a beautiful 18K Yellow Gold wedding ring and it had a bunch of beautiful white diamonds and it had three gems in it colored red, blue and green. In the red gem was a beautiful image of a Groudon behind a volcano, in the blue gem was an image of a Kyogre with a wave of water behind it and in the green gem was an image of a Rayquaza with clouds and the sky behind it. It also had all the badges of the Hoenn Pokemon League along the edge the ring: Stone, Knuckle, Dynamo, Heat, Balance, Feather, Mind and Rain.

Me: (Whistles) Wow. That one is just as beautiful as Kairi's ring.

Nico: It sure is.

Dealer: Ja. I call this one Hoenn Majesty. Just finished making it 4 days ago.

Me: It's perfect.

Nico: How much is it?

Dealer: Same price as the one bought earlier. $1,232,384.00.

Me: Perfect. This one will be on me man.

Nico: Thanks J.D.

Me: We'll take it.

Dealer: Excellent!

We bought it and left the store.

Nico showed it to the others.

Laney: That's beautiful.

Lola: Gorgeous!

Lana: Wow.

Naruto: It sure is beautiful.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Me: You ready man?

Nico: I sure am.

Weirdwolf: All right, boss. Go for it!

Me: We're right behind you man.

We went back to the estate.

May was on the sofa watching TV and she had Max and Manaphy with her.

We saw them.

Me: Okay man. Go for it.

Nico: Okay.

Nico went up to May.

Nico: May can I talk to you for a sec?

May: Sure Nico what's up?

She stood up.

Nico: I have something I want to ask you. Ever since I met you, you have been like the biggest light in my life and we have done it all ever since I joined Team Loud Phoenix Storm. And you have been the most amazing girlfriend I've ever had and that's why I want us to take our relationship further.

Nico got down on one knee and May gasped in shock and happiness as he showed her the ring he got.

Nico: May, I have loved you ever since I joined the team. Will you marry me?

May: Oh Nico! YES! I WILL MARRY YOU!

Nico was so happy and they hugged and kissed and we cheered wildly for them as he put the ring on her finger and they kissed passionately.

Me: Way to go Nico!

Vince: I'm so happy for them both!

Chromedome: I'm so happy for you two.

Cybertron Sideways: Way to go Boss!

Soundwave: Me too.

Crumplezone: Yeah.

Later we were watching one of Lana's favorite movies from 2007: Underdog. It was based on the old Saturday Night Cartoon and it was about an anthropomorphic dog that was given superpowers. His name is Shoeshine and he is also the canine superhero UNDERDOG!

---

The film opens with a slight introduction from the main hero of the film, Underdog who introduces the audience to himself, his arch-nemesis Simon Barsinister, and Barsinister's henchman Cad using some of the animated clips as seen from the original cartoon series. The film then enters into Capital City Town Hall, where a beagle on the police bomb squad sets off a false alarm after smelling a large ham (in some boxes near where the mayor was giving a speech). After being shunned by his fellow police canines, the beagle leaves in shame and is abducted off the street by Cad, who takes him to Simon's lab. Simon is bitter against the mayor, who has turned down his proposal for a type of genetic experimenting for the city, and plans to prove him wrong by testing his new serum on the beagle. However, Underdog escapes and runs amok in the lab, causing a fire and accidentally becoming exposed to a variety of DNA concoctions and chemicals that Simon developed, which modifies his DNA and gives him the strength to break through the metal door to the lab. After witnessing his work's "success" Simon is stunned when a burning monitor falls onto him, and Cad rushes to his aid.

Later, the beagle avoids an encounter with a large Rottweiler named Riff Raff and his lackeys. He is later hit by a car belonging to Dan Unger. However, thanks to the serum he absorbed, the beagle is unharmed and taken home by Dan, who names him Shoeshine the next day, after having his shoes licked by him. Dan introduces Shoeshine to his son Jack, though the boy is less than pleased by Shoeshine's presence, thanks to a wedge between father and son after Dan retired from the police force to spend more time with Jack, only to never actually get the time to be home with him. Jack leaves for school and Dan for work, leaving Shoeshine at the house alone, where he, still unaware of his new powers, accidentally makes a very large mess of the place. Jack comes home to the destruction and begins to clean up, complaining, to which Shoeshine claims it was an accident, leading to both of them realizing (to their shock) that Shoeshine can speak human language. Jack initially tries to get away from Shoeshine, but after they reach a park, the two begin to talk and bond a little when a friend of Jack's, Molly, walks over and introduces them to her Cavalier Spaniel, Polly, whom Shoeshine is smitten with on sight. After the girls leave, Jack and Shoeshine experiment with his powers through various habits of dogs.

Far away, Molly and Polly are being mugged by two men, and Shoeshine hears Molly's call for help and rushes to their aide, running faster than he has ever before, and discovering he can fly in the process. He rescues the two without them seeing him, and returns home with Jack, making him promise never to tell anyone about his powers, then helps his new friend try to clean up before Dan comes home. Cad shows up at the door with posters of Shoeshine, as Barsinister wants him back for his power, but Jack is able to get him to leave without suspecting anything just before Dan comes home to discover the mess. Meanwhile, Simon and Cad find a new lair beneath the city, then plan a robbery to get the funds they need to rebuild Simon's lab. Cad leads a band of thugs to rob a jewelry store, seen on the news by Shoeshine and Jack, who convinces Shoeshine to use his powers to save the hostages inside. Shoeshine consents, disguising himself with a fish kite so he won't be recognized, and saves the hostages, though Cad escapes with some of the stolen goods. From then on, Shoeshine adopts the alias Underdog, and becomes the city's resident superhero, donning a shrunken red sweater and blue cape as his disguise.

As Underdog enjoys being a hero, Simon's attempts to recreate his serum are unsuccessful time and time again, so he sends Cad to try and obtain a sample of Shoeshine's DNA, hoping to use it to recreate the serum. Shoeshine, meanwhile, is unsuccessful at trying to ask Polly out, but gets an idea when she reveals her crush on Underdog to him, prompting him to ask her on a date as Underdog, which goes successfully. Meanwhile, Cad's attempt to capture Underdog goes unsuccessful, but he does manage to obtain his collar, which has his name and address on it. Simon and Cad go to the house and kidnap Dan, making him believe they have Jack to subdue him, and force him to call for Shoeshine for help. Shoeshine hears Dan's cries, and he and Jack go to rescue him, only for Simon to use both Jack and Dan as hostages to convince Shoeshine to give up his DNA. Not wanting his family to be hurt, Shoeshine complies, and Barsinister makes a whole jar full of pills that contain Underdog's super powers. Simon convinces Shoeshine to take an antidote pill, turning him back into a normal beagle, then feeds the super pills to three German Shepherds he obtained and trained. He and Cad leave the family trapped in the sewers, but thanks to Dan's experience from the police force, he is able to set everyone free and they take off after Barsinister with a hypodermic filled with the super power antidote.

Meanwhile, Simon takes the Mayor hostage in city hall and instructs Cad to attach a bomb rigged with a mind control serum to the roof of the building. Molly and Polly follow Cad after witnessing him head through the service entrance. Shoeshine, meanwhile, smells the bomb Cad is carrying, at first doubting his nose, but decides to trust his instincts and heads inside the capitol building despite being powerless to confront Simon. During a short struggle (in which the mayor is knocked unconscious), Shoeshine accidentally rips open Simon's pocket, gaining access to the super pills and eating one, getting his powers back. He does battle with the three German Shepherds, whom he temporarily incapacitates after hearing Polly and Molly in danger, as they were captured by Cad and tied to the roof of the building beside the bomb. Enraged with Underdog's return to foil his plan, Simon eats one of the super pills and gains super powers himself, fighting Underdog until he distracts him with one of his natural instincts; chasing a Frisbee, which is actually a giant iron shield from a statue. Underdog is knocked down long enough for the German Shepherds to recover, but he convinces them that Simon isn't a good master by pointing out Simon's mistreatment of them (not even giving them real names). The German Shepherds turn on Simon, realizing their role is as man's best friend, not man's best slave, and restrain him with their strength while Shoeshine rushes to disarm the bomb.

The Mayor regains consciousness and stumbles outside, allowing Dan through the police barricade to deal with Simon by injecting the antidote into him. Shoeshine quickly dons his Underdog uniform again and flies to the top of the town hall, freeing Polly and Molly, then taking the bomb to a nearby park, where he digs a hole miles beneath the surface, and buries the bomb. He attempts to rush out of the hole before it detonates, but is caught in the blast halfway out and is blasted so high he reaches orbit, then falls back to the Earth, where he lands unconscious. Jack, Dan, and everyone in the crowd begin to mourn the fallen hero, but Underdog wakes up, singed, but unharmed much to everyone's joy. Dan is reinstated as a police officer, Simon and Cad go to jail, and Shoeshine returns to his normal life protecting the citizens of Capital City as Underdog.

The film closes with the citizens reciting the same phrases from the original cartoon, "Look, up in the Sky! It's a bird, it's a plane, it's a frog! (as one goofy citizen always comments)", to which Underdog replies, "Not bird, nor plane, nor even frog, it's just little old me, Underdog!".

THERE'S NO NEED TO FEAR! UNDERDOG IS HERE!

When criminals in this world appear,

And break the laws that they should fear,

And frighten all who see or hear,

The cry goes up both far and near for

Underdog,

Underdog,

Underdog,

Underdog .

Speed of lightning, roar of thunder,

Fighting all who rob or plunder

Underdog, Underdog, Underdog.

When in this world the headlines read

Of those who's hearts are filled with greed

And rob and steal from those in need.

To right this wrong with blinding speed goes

Underdog,

Underdog,

Underdog,

Underdog .

Speed of lightning, roar of thunder,

Fighting all who rob or plunder

Underdog, Underdog, Underdog.

When the movie was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That is so awesome!

Laney: I love Underdog. He's so cute and awesome.

Nico: And he's the toughest dog ever.

Our huskies all barked.

Naruto: Even the huskies agree.

Me: Yeah. But that madman Simon Bar Sinister is one fucked up monster. Underdog got his powers accidentally when he escaped his lab. Lets see what it says about him.

I pulled up the information about him.

---

Simon Bar Sinister is the main antagonist of the 2007 live action Disney film, Underdog.

He was portrayed by Peter Dinklage who later played Tyrion Lannister, Bolivar Trask, Captain Gutt, and Eddie Plant.

Underdog

Simon first appears when his henchman Cad Lackey brought to him a beagle named Shoeshine. Simon is vituperative and bitter against the mayor of Capitol City, who has turned down his proposal for a type of genetic experimenting for the city, and plans to prove him wrong by testing his new serum on the beagle. However, Shoeshine escapes and runs amok in the lab, causing a fire and accidentally becoming exposed to a variety of DNA concoctions and chemicals that Simon developed, which modifies his DNA and gives him the strength to break through the metal door to the lab. After witnessing his work's "success" Simon is stunned when a burning monitor falls onto him, and Cad rushes to his aid.

Simon then send Cad to have Shoeshine back for his powers. Cad shows up at the door of Jack's house with posters of Shoeshine, but Jack is able to get him to leave without suspecting anything just before Dan comes home to discover the mess. Meanwhile, Simon and Cad find a new lair beneath the city, then plan a robbery to get the funds they need to rebuild Simon's lab. Cad leads a band of thugs to rob a jewelry store, seen on the news by Shoeshine and Jack, who convinces Shoeshine to use his powers to save the hostages inside. Shoeshine consents, disguising himself with a fish kite so he won't be recognized, and saves the hostages, though Cad escapes with some of the stolen goods.

As Shoeshine, now named Underdog, becomes the hero of the city, Simon's attempts to recreate his serum are unsuccessful time and time again, so he sends Cad to try and obtain a sample of Underdog's DNA, hoping to use it to recreate the serum. Cad's attempt to capture Underdog goes unsuccessful, but he does manage to obtain his collar, which has his name and address on it. Simon and Cad go to the house and kidnap Dan, making him believe they have Jack to subdue him, and force him to call for Underdog for help. Underdog quickly hears Dan's cries, and he and Jack go to rescue him, only for Simon to use both Jack and Dan as hostages to convince Underdog to give up his DNA. Not wanting his family to be hurt, Underdog complies, and Barsinister makes a whole jar full of pills that contain Underdog's super powers. Simon convinces Underdog to take an antidote pill, turning him back into a normal beagle, then feeds the super pills to three German Shepherds he obtained and trained. He and Cad leave the family trapped in the sewers, but thanks to Dan's experience from the police force, he is able to set everyone free and they take off after Barsinister with a hypodermic filled with the super power antidote.

Simon takes the Mayor hostage in city hall and instructs Cad to attach a bomb rigged with a mind control serum to the roof of the building. Molly and Polly follow Cad after witnessing him head through the service entrance. Underdog, meanwhile, smells the bomb Cad is carrying, at first doubting his nose, but decides to trust his instincts and heads inside the capitol building despite being powerless to confront Simon. During a short struggle (in which the mayor is knocked unconscious), Underdog accidentally rips open Simon's pocket, gaining access to the super pills and eating one, getting his powers back. He does battle with the three German Shepherds, whom he temporarily incapacitates after hearing Polly and Molly in danger, as they were captured by Cad and tied to the roof of the building beside the bomb. Enraged with Underdog's return to foil his plan, Simon eats one of the super pills and gains super powers himself, fighting Underdog until he distracts him with one of his natural instincts; chasing a Frisbee, which is actually a giant iron shield from a statue. Underdog is knocked down long enough for the German Shepherds to recover, but he convinces them that Simon isn't a good master by pointing out Simon's mistreatment of them (not even giving them real names). The German Shepherds turn on Simon, realizing their role is as man's best friend, not man's best slave, and restrain him with their strength while Shoeshine rushes to disarm the bomb.

The Mayor regains consciousness and stumbles outside, allowing Dan through the police barricade to deal with Simon by injecting the antidote into him.

Afterwards, Simon Bar Sinister and his henchman Cad are sent to jail for their crimes.

Original cartoon version

Simon Bar Sinister is the main antagonist of the cartoon Underdog and the 2007 Disney live-action movie based on it where he was played by Peter Dinklage. He is a soft parody on Lex Luthor as Underdog is a soft parody to Superman. He sets out to the take over the world to become rich and powerful, an extremely common stereotypical trait of villains.

Biography

Not much is known about why Simon wants to take control over the world, as the only thing he seems to care about is money. In the episode "Go Snow", he screams out "I want money and power and money and power and money and power and money and power!".

He will always invent something using science fiction, and Underdog will always stop him after he is freed from an effect of what Simon has affected him with, such as turning him into snow or shrinking him. Underdog seems to be overconfident and will nevertheless ignore the danger of becoming affected of Simon's new weapon. Simon Bar Sinister's name refers to the game "Simon Says", in which Simon orders the people to do what he says using the advantage, as well as the bar sinister, a heraldic device.

Several advantages were threatening to turn them all into snowmen if they don't give him money or threatening to kill them from thirst by obtaining all the water in the world. Underdog always comes in to stop Simon, who is always confident that he will win. In the live-action film, Simon tried to mind-control people to do what he says, a reference to how he orders obedience in the cartoon.

One of his attempts at gaining obedience is (you guessed it) mind control. This is probably a reference to 催眠術 (pronounced saimin-jutsu) the Japanese translation of "hypnosis," which is often used in popular culture for mind control.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: This guy is really bad news!

Laney: Big time.

Me: Yep. Looks like we found our next target and we're gonna kill this monster.

Lincoln: We have another fucked up mad scientist running amok.

Rita: Lincoln! Don't use language like that!

Me: Aw it's all right Ms. Rita. It's how we call mad scientists and they have no right to live on Earth.

Rita: Oh. Okay.

Lana: But how are we gonna find him?

Me: I have a plan.

I gathered everyone together and we explained that we're gonna talk to Cad Lackey and Nico is gonna plant a tracer on him unsuspectingly and we'll find Simon's lair that way. GENIUS!

Me: It's genius. Lets go get Underdog first.

Nico: Okay.

We went to Underdog's house. We were at the house of the Unger Family and we met the famous Shoeshine.

Nico: It's nice to meet you and your family, Shoeshine. Or do you prefer Underdog?

Underdog: How did you know it was me?

Me: We have a reputation of naming real names of heroes that we know on TV and Comics and movies.

Underdog: I can see that.

Jack Unger: Me too. It's so awesome.

Me: We're going after Simon Bar Sinister and we're gonna kill him.

Jack Unger: Count me in.

Underdog: Lets do it.

We were off to the city.

* * *

Later we had an awesome van set up in the middle of town to avoid suspicion.

Me: Keep your eyes peeled for Cad Lackey.

Nico was looking through a periscope and he was keeping his eyes out for him.

Nico: I see him. He's coming out of the hardware store.

Me: Lets go.

We got out of the van and went up to him.

Me: Are you Cad Lackey?

Cad Lackey: (to me) Can't I go shopping for things like everyone else? Or is your vigilante complex not allowing me to do even that?

Me: No we just want to talk with you.

Nico: Look, Cad. You've pretty much taken so many orders from Bar Sinister. Don't you think it's time that you became the boss for a change.

Nico pat Cad on the back while secretly placing a tracer on him.

Cad Lackey: Oh thank you Nico. You're right I have been under a lot of pressure from him. I'll take it into some consideration.

Nico: You're welcome.

Cad Lackey left.

We went back into the van and we looked at the radar and we saw that he was moving north into the forest. We followed the signal and we arrived at an abandoned oil derrick located 5 miles off shore in Lake Huron.

Me: His hideout is all the way out in Lake Huron.

Nico: In an abandoned oil platform.

Lana: Wow.

Me: Lets get him guys.

We flew out to the oil derrick.

Simon Bar Sinister: Soon my plan will be ready and Underdog will be dead and the world will be mine.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Suddenly a massive fiery explosion blasted through the ceiling and a phoenix cry was heard. We landed in front of them.

Underdog: There's no need to fear! Underdog is here!

Me: Simon Bar Sinister, your time is up!

Simon Bar Sinister: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? How did you find me!?

Me: In a place called None of Your Fucking Business.

Leni: I thought we found you because of a tracer we put on Cad Lackey.

Me: Leni, quiet.

Simon Bar Sinister: So that's it!

Nico: It's over for you Simon. Prepare to die.

Simon Bar Sinister: I see there's only one way to settle this. (pushes Cad in front of us)

Nico: What are you doing?

Simon Bar Sinister: Kill Cad! He's the one who screwed up!

Me: No he'll go to jail. It's you that we have come to kill.

Dark Laser, Electro and the Springfield Mafia came out.

Me: Dark Laser, Electro and the Springfield Mafia.

Legs: Get in my way and I'll whack in the labonza.

Me: Get in MY way Legs and I'll kick you in the fucking balls.

Legs: WHAT!?

Louie: You're gonna wish you was never born!

Sora T.: Not if I rip your heads off first!

Dark Laser holds his hand out while concentrating.

Electro: Dude, what are you doing?

Dark Laser: I'm trying to see if I can use the Force.

Me: It takes practice.

?: That's a darn shame.

A figure came out and it was ROJOMON from episode 38 of Lost Galaxy!

Rojomon accompanied Captain Mutiny, Deviot and Barbarax to the desert on his planet where Leo Corbett and Damon Henderson were being held captive. Rojomon inquired if he could help destroy them, to which Mutiny agreed to when the other Galaxy Rangers arrived to free their friends. After Mutiny and the other general's departure, Leo morphed and summoned his Battlizer. Rojomon fired blasts of fire from his mouth at the approaching Ranger, resulting in explosions that went off behind Leo, but to no avail. Using the dual lasers, Leo destroyed Rojomon in one blast, leaving only a flaming hole in the ground where the monster once stood.

Leo Corbett: Rojomon!

Rojomon: Its been a while Rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were one of the monsters that held Leo and Damon captive and it was to destroy them!

Rojomon: Mistress Vypra was right. You have watched us on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode. And Trakeena is dead and you are looking at her killer. Me.

Rojomon: So you are the one that killed Trakeena.

Me: And I show no remorse for it. She deserved to die and if she does come back, she will pay dearly with a Hakai blast.

Rojomon: We'll see. (to Leo Corbett) You may have gotten lucky with your Battilizer the last time. But this time, I'm ready for you!

Me: We're ready for you as well Rojomon.

Troy: Time for us to get in gear!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: RPM!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the RPM Rangers.

Me: Lets dance!

We went at them.

Nico: That is so cool!

Naruto: Awesome.

Ayame: I can see that.

We then got a surprise visit from famous Greek and Mediterranean chef Cat Cora!

Cat Cora: It's an honor to have you all with us J.D.

Me: Wow! Cat Cora!

Lori: (Squeals) You are literally one of my favorite chefs.

Cat Cora: It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: I love all your food as much as all the food around the world.

Shaggy: So do I.

Scooby Doo: Me too.

We also got to meet famous Ethiopian Swedish chef Marcus Samuelsson and his wife famous supermodel Maya Haile.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) It's an honor to meet you Marcus.

Marcus Samuelsson: Same to all of you.

We got to meet many famous chefs from all over the world of cooking.

We even got to meet one of my favorite chefs, Emeril Lagasse and he is one of my favorite New Orleans creole chefs and Homer's favorite too.

We were told that Fred and Bobby's ancestral Edward DuFlay was a big time hero during the American Revolutionary War back over 230 years ago and he was widely known in history for letting the people fighting in the war eat at his restaurant. The British, French and even the American Revolutionists were all welcome to eat there because he had a sign on the restaurant that said All Are Welcome. Bobby Flay was given papers from his ancestor Edward DuFlay and more. But we had found out that Bobby Flay and the academy was having problems with the Red Ghost! It was a terrifying figure that was terrorizing the academy.

Shaggy: You don't have to offer us a Scooby Snack this time. Me and Scoob will help out free of charge.

William: I knew you two would step up to defend the food here.

Me: Yeah whenever food is on the line, they will help.

We walked around and looked for clues and we found some interesting clues and we found out that the ghost was a fake because he had feet. While we searched we found out that Edward DuFlay was no hero at all! He was really a spy for the British from over 230 years ago and he was no patriot, he was a TRAITOR! But we don't know the full extent of the details. Then we saw THE RED GHOST! HE WAS UGLY!

Nico: (to Red Ghost) Ivan Kragoff called. He wants his supervillain name back!

Nico punched the Red Ghost in the face and sent him crashing into the wall.

He got up and he roared furiously.

Roquefort, Number 7 and Patty & Selma appeared.

Me: Oh great. Cheese Shogun Roquefort, Number 7 and Patty & Selma.

Nico: (To Cheese Shogun Roquefort) First, all this food. And now, you show up? This must be my lucky day!

Cheese Shogun Roquefort (groans): Can't I participate in one battle without you planning to eat me?

Number 7: You knew what you were getting into when you joined up, Roquefort.

Me: He can't help it. When it comes to cheese, he can't get enough of the stuff.

Nico: (Drools)

Lisa Simpson: How's cousin Ling doing Aunt Selma?

Selma: She's doing great Lisa thank you.

Patty: She's being watched by Maggie while we fight. Whenever we have to face you, we bring Ling with us for Maggie to watch.

Me: Good thinking.

?: (Robotic Voice) This is gonna be interesting.

A figure came out and it was the SERIES 2 ROTOR BOT from episode 24 of R.P.M.!

---

After Tenaya 7 found the location of the Alphabet Soup dumping grounds, General Shifter & Kilobyte constructed this Rotor Bot to dig into the mountains and find the Alphabet Soup technology they were looking for.

The bot did manage to get into the mountains, but was then found by the Rangers. They tried blasting him, but he deflected the blast. That deflection ended up revealing the sealed away Paleo Zord. The bot was made giant size and the Rangers battled him with the SkyRev Megazord. They were about to finish him off with the Road Attack Zord, when the wild Paleo Zord attacked all of them. The Roto Bot took advantage of this distraction and managed to escape.

Robo Bot later returned with the Grinders, in search of the Paleo Zord in the forest. The Rangers battled the Grinders and the Red Ranger fought the attack bot. When the Paleo Zord came zooming through the forest, the bot tried to attack it, but ended up being knocked down.

He later returned in giant size and battled the Valvemax & Mach Megazords. He managed to defeat both of them, as well as the Lion

Hauler & Bear Crawler Zords. With the Rangers out of options, the Red Ranger showed up and tried to fight the monster with any Zords.

Luckily Dr. K managed to gain control over the Paleo Zord, thus allowing the Red Ranger to take command of the Zord. The Red Ranger formed the Paleo Max Megazord and destroyed the Rotor Bot with the Megazord's slash attacks.

---

Scott Truman: Series 2 Rotor Bot!

Rotor Bot: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were built to find the Alphabet Soup Dumping grounds and you ended up inadvertently awakening the Paleo Zord.

Rotor Bot: That's right. You have watched us on TV. You are a true fan of the Power Rangers, J.D.

Me: We all are and we never missed an episode.

Scott Truman: You're a machine without a creator, Rotor Bot. Venjix is gone for good!

For some reason, the Rotor Bot laughed.

Flynn McAllistair: (Scottish Accent) What's so funny?

Rotor Bot: Silly Rangers! Do you really think Venjix is destroyed?

Ziggy: Well, we did make that control tower fall on him. And we did destroy his robot factory. Why?

Rotor Bot: Let's just say that you're all in for a big surprise when you meet the Beast Morphers team!

Me: I have a strong feeling that Venjix is still out there. I remember watching on TV that Venjix was hiding in the RPM morpher of the Red Ranger.

Scott Truman saw that he wasn't there.

Scott Truman: He's not there.

Me: He must've moved on to somewhere else.

Summer Landsdown: Last chance, Rotor Bot! Is Venjix gone or not?

Rotor Bot: Oh, come now, Yellow Ranger. Why spoil the mystery?

Gia: Well, if you're not going to talk, then there's nothing more to discuss with you.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Storm!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed into the Ninja Storm Rangers!

Number 7: And I have just the planet for us to fight on so we don't damage this historical restaurant and masterpiece of American History.

Number 7 snapped her fingers and we were on a mountainous desert planet and the sky was dark red and it was a really cool planet as we have seen that it had 2 suns! We were on the home planet of the Tetramands, KHOROS!

---

Khoros, the home planet of the Tetramands, is a dusty and barbaric world where might makes right and survival is a constant struggle.

Due to constant conflicts, Khoros's culture has long since devolved, turning from a confederation of thriving city-states into scorched and boundless wastelands.

Nomadic tribes ruled by bloodthirsty warlords ceaselessly roam the landscape, seeking out ancient relics of Khoros' past glory, all in hopes of rediscovering the long lost secrets that will gain them an advantage over their enemies.

Species

Khoros is inhabited by giant and vicious predators, which is the reason Tetramands evolved to possess four arms and prodigious strength.

Tetramands use Zibosons as mounts for travel.

Sand Rippers are also seen in Khoros, but they are not used by Tetramands.

The wildlife on Khoros is some of the most dangerous in the universe.

---

Me: WOW! Look at this planet!

Nico: What is this world?

Number 7: This is the planet of the Tetramands, Khoros.

Me: Wow! So this is the planet Khoros. I didn't know it looked in every way like the planet Mars.

Laney: It sure does look like Mars except that it's in a Binary Star System.

Manny Armstrong: Wow! This is amazing! I've always wanted to see the world of my Tetramand heritage.

Shanan: It's amazing. It's a mountain planet and we're located over 40,000 light-years away from Earth.

Bobby Flay: This is amazing. I didn't know that you guys go to many planets all over the universe.

Me: We have seen things that no one ever thought possible Bobby.

Giada: This is amazing!

Nico: It sure is.

Natilee: And I have some new friends that can help us out.

Natilee showed that she had a ring on her right hand ring finger and it had a symbol that looked like the planet Pop Star, the homeworld of Kirby and his friends and she held up her hand to the sky.

(THE MYSTIC'S DREAM BY LOREENA MCKENNITT PLAYS)

Natilee: Make the powers of Dreams come true! ARISE DREAM CRUSADE!

A beam of rainbow light shined into the sky and a portal appeared and out came all of Kirby's awesome friends. Including King Dedede!

Natilee: That's right dad. We are now known as the Dream Crusade and I call them when needed to protect the dream world and the world all together.

Nico: Wow!

Naruto: That is cool!

Laney: It sure is.

Me: You have all of Kirby's friends and allies from over the course of 28 years on your team.

Natilee: Yep.

Nicole: Nice job sis. Kirby has been very popular for over 28 years.

Natilee: I know. Awesome games.

Kirby: Thanks Natilee.

Natilee: You're welcome. Lets get them guys!

Me: Yeah! Bobby, Giada, Marcus, everyone, you're all in for quite a show as we go into action.

Emeril: BAM! Show no mercy J.D.

Me: With pleasure Emeril.

We powered up and went at them.

Nico and Raven were facing Cheese Shogun Roquefort.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: Not hungry for cheese today Nico?

Nico: Not this time Roquefort. I had a huge dinner made by the world famous celebrity chefs and I am stuffed.

Raven: It's true. We had a really awesome dinner and it was the best we've ever had.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: Wow. That must've been an amazing dinner.

Nico: The best ever and man I am not eating for the rest of the day.

They laughed.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: (Laughs) That's good. Lets dance.

Laney fired waves of fire and burned him and Carol fired blasts of atomic energy and burned him all over and Natilee fired blasts of energy and they hit him and exploded!

Me: Hey Janeen, can you energize my sword?

Janeen: Coming at you J.D.

She fired a blast of Phazon Energy and it hit my sword blade and it formed the blade into an awesome and powerful sword with a blade of dark blue fire and it had energy levels that were incredible!

The Red Ghost was knocked down.

Me: Now for the unmasking.

We went back to Earth and we were ready to unmask him as we had him tied up.

Me: Now lets see who the Red Ghost really is.

Fred took off his mask and it was the Real Estate agent Bradley Blass!

Fred Jones: Bradley Blass.

Me: I knew it.

Daphne Blake: Of course! No wonder he wanted those parchment papers so badly.

Fred Jones: Papers that proved that chef Edward DuFlay, the Hero of Newport Cove wasn't a patriot at all. But was a spy for the British.

Everyone gasped.

Fred: You see, Blass was in a bind. He wanted to buy the inn cheap. But he didn't want to damage DuFlay's reputation and keep tourists away.

Bobby Flay: So he thought the Red Ghost scare would motivate me to sell.

Giada: But if Blass wanted to run this place, why scare all the tourists away?

Laney: That's what I would like to know.

Carly Carmine: Yeah.

Giada: As someone who studies real estate in their spare time, I can tell you that's weird.

Lana: I agree.

Velma: Because Ms. De Laurentiis, this man IS not in real estate or even named Bradley Blass.

Bradley Blass?: Well of course that's my name. This is preposterous!

A cat then ripped off another mask and it was the historian HENRY METCAFF!

Me: Henry Matcaff!

Daphne: The Historian!

Velma: Metcaff spent his life building a career around the story of Chef Edward as the Hero of Newport Cove. But at some point, he must've stumbled upon the truth.

Fred Jones: But he couldn't let it get out. The DuFlay Myth built this town, its family's and his own life's work. He needed to protect it.

Velma: Somewhere in his research, he found evidence that the Noseworthy's were right and that Edward DuFlay WAS a Traitor. And when he heard Chef Edward's descendant Bobby Flay was coming to town and restoring the place, he became frightened. Metcaff like Noseworthy believed the legend that hidden in the inn there was a set of personal papers written in Flay's hand that would incriminate him.

Daphne Blake: So it would only be a matter of time before someone found them.

Velma: But what Metcaff didn't know thanks to some 18th century invisible spy tactics, was that the handwritten personal papers were the very stack of parchment sheets Metcaff himself gave Bobby.

Me: Boy.

Metcaff: Not until I overheard you kids in the kitchen.

Velma: He didn't want his life's work to be in service to a turncoat. So he brought the Red Ghost to life to scare away guests, close the inn and keep the secret.

Metcaff: And I would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you…

Velma: Hold on. We're not quite there yet. There's one piece of information that even you don't know yet Henry. And it's something that even Bobby, Fred and the people of Newport Cove deserve to hear.

Bobby took the papers and turned on the burner.

Velma: We did a more in depth analysis of our cookie parchment and I believe that when we analyze the rest, we'll come to the same conclusion. You see, by studying the history books, we know exactly where General Washington's troops were and how they moved when this was written. But that's not what Chef Edward wrote here. The information here which was to be passed on to a British Soldier or Spy is false.

Me: How so Velma?

Man: Ooh this keeps getting better and better.

Velma: The people of Newport Cove will be glad to know that Chef Edward DuFlay WASN'T working for the British, but for General Washington himself who no doubt thought a respected chef would be the perfect man to feed his enemy fake intel to throw them off balance.

Me: So he was a False Spy back over 230 years ago.

Shaggy: Like, who knew?

Fred Jones: Then that means, Edward DuFlay was a Patriot.

Me: A TRUE Patriot.

Bobby Flay: And a hero.

Everyone cheered wildly.

Metcaff: DuFlay is innocent? But the red cloaks, the quadcopter, the electromagnetic, years of meticulous planning. It was all for nothing?

Daphne Blake: I wouldn't say it was all for nothing. The resort got a ton of free publicity

Shaggy: And the food's been out of this world!

Nico: It sure was.

Me: But we did manage to clear a historical figure of our country's histories name and bring the real bad guy to justice and you Metcaff, are looking at spending 20 to 40 years in prison.

Velma: Now you can say it.

Metcaff: And I would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you meddling kids!

Me: Meddling can be too much of a good thing.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: This was a good mystery though.

Number 7: Indeed it was.

Maria: Do you guys know if Venjix is gone or not?

Number 7: Actually, no. This is the first time we've even heard of the possibility of Venjix surviving.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: And we don't plan on reviving him anytime soon.

Dillion: Well, if he did survive, maybe we didn't do a good job at destroying him.

Selma: Look, maybe Venjix is still out there. Maybe Rotor Bot was just messing with you guys. Who knows? Either way, without his robot army, Venjix is gone for good.

Nico: (smiles) You know what? You're right. It would be pretty stupid of Venjix to resurface again anyway.

Patty: Now, there's the Team Loud Phoenix Storm we know.

Me: Thanks Patty. Before you leave, (Holds out a lighter) Light ya?

Selma: Thanks J.D.

I opened it and flicked it and lit it and lit their cigarettes and they puffed them.

Selma: Thanks J.D.

With that, the Masters of Evil then teleport out.

We later got ready to head home.

Bobby Flay: Guys I can't thank you all enough for saving the Inn and the family name.

Me: Aw it was nothing Bobby. But the biggest honor of all was getting to meet the famous chefs on TV and around the world.

Emeril: You are an awesome force to be loved J.D.

Me: Thanks Emeril. It was awesome.

Mary Knudson: It sure was. And we got to meet our heroes as a big bonus.

Me: Nico and May's wedding is coming up in Hawaii. Would you all like to cook for it at the reception?

Bobby Flay: I would be honored J.D.

Cat Cora: Me too.

We cheered.

Shaggy: (To the viewers) Food is my favorite thing in the world and solving mysteries involving food is just as awesome!

Me: You said it Shaggy.

We went back home.

THE END

---

Another awesome Scooby Doo mystery solved.

Scooby Doo and the Gourmet Ghost is an awesome movie from 2018 and it was awesome! We got to meet some of the world famous chefs from around the world and more. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is the epic battle with Van Bloot and Klay & Krystella and we're gonna make those freaks pay.

See you all tomorrow.

War with Van Bloot

At the Gotham Royal York Elementary School Gym, we were having another dodgeball game with the Masters of Evil and it was gonna be a good one.

It was gonna be awesome!

Dark Spicer: Here's your warning: Your asses are going to be kicked in this game!

Bender: Oh yeah? Well, you can bite my shiny metal ass!

Dark Spicer: (deadpans) I walked right into that one, didn't I?

Sandman: You sure did!

Me: Lets dance!

The whistle blew and the game began and we went and got some dodgeballs and threw them at each other and we were really going at each other.

Roger Smith: (avoids a dodgeball) You'll never take me alive!

He dodged more dodgeballs. I was dodging more dodgeballs like there was no tomorrow. I was using my gymnastics and acrobatic moves like no tomorrow. Doing flips, twists, cartwheels and more as I was dodging them with incredible speed and agility.

Rusty Spokes: Come on guys! SCORPION FORMATION!

Rusty, Zach, Liam, Lincoln, Clyde and Stella got into a Scorpion Formation and Stella threw balls at some of the masters and "stung" them by throwing dodgeballs at them and smashed them in their faces.

Girl Jordan threw dodgeballs at Vypra and one hit her in the face and Bart threw a bunch of balls at Leonard, Hydro Man, and Firefly and they hit them and knocked them down.

We were playing really well until it was down to me and Lord Drakkon.

Me: This is gonna be good.

Lord Drakkon: It sure is J.D.

Triggerhappy: This is gonna be close!

Nico: Come on J.D.! You can do it!

Lord Drakkon: Glad Nico is doing a lot better.

Me: I am too.

I threw a ball at him and he dodged it and I dodged his throw and he threw more balls and I dodged them and I grabbed 10 more balls and threw them all at once and they hit Lord Drakkon and knocked him down!

Coach Krupp: TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM WINS!

Everyone cheered wildly.

Highbrow: (wakes up) What did I miss?

Nico: One of the best games ever!

May: J.D. and everyone won!

Highbrow: Way to go guys!

We won an awesome trophy for our victory.

Later we went to Lynn's Table for a victory dinner and we invited the Masters of Evil to celebrate with us.

Me: A toast to an awesome Dodgeball game.

Everyone: (Clinks their glasses) HERE HERE!

Nico: Awesome game guys. This was a perfect way to get in shape before the war with Van Bloot.

Me: It sure is.

Lola: This was an awesome match though and playing dodgeball is always awesome.

Me: It sure is Lola. Also the next Dodgeball match will be with the Masters of Evil and the 5th Graders that Bart and his class hate.

Bart: Oh yeah. I remember them.

Laney: Those guys were mean.

Me: 3 of the kids were some of Bart's friends from his youth back when he got that scar.

Bart looked at his cocktail sword-shape scar. (Season 22 episode 10)

Bart: I'll never forget that.

Nico: I know.

Lisa Loud: This will be most enjoyable.

Dexter: Indeed it will.

Vypra: But it was really fun like always.

Luan: It sure was.

Luna Loud: Rockin dudes.

Laney: Yeah!

We were ready for anything.

Later we were at the Chaotic Central Hub and we were devising our battle plan for when we take down Van Bloot, Klay and Krystella.

Kaz: Alright. If I know Van Bloot, he'll usually be at Gothos Tower. And I've been there a few times in Perim and in Chaotic matches.

Me: Good, so you know Gothos Tower like the back of your hand.

Kaz: Yep.

Me: Perfect.

Francisca: This will be an awesome fight.

Flamberge: It sure will be an awesome one.

Lynn: We have to be ready for anything when we get there.

Lincoln: That's right and we have to know what is there.

Me: That's right.

Vince: We could just blow it up like we did with the City of the M'arrillians.

Me: We could but I have a much better idea. We're gonna go in and face Van Bloot in there.

Nico: Good idea.

Me: Kaz, who does Van Bloot have with him?

Kaz: Besides Klay and Krystella, he has Skithia, Krekk, Ghuul, Atrapol, Vyll, Klawam, Galmedar and Zamool

Sarah Gunnerson: This is gonna be rough.

Linka: But we have to be ready for whatever he has to throw at us.

Lana: That's right.

Raythor: Van Bloot has no honor like Phobos. Kaz told me a lot about him and how dangerous he is and that makes him no better than Phobos.

Me: Any guards that we have to worry about?

Kaz: No. All he has is his followers and Klay and Krystella.

Me: Good that will make it much easier and without a doubt, the Masters of Evil will be coming. But since they did their parts during the war with the M'arrillians and Simon and his goons, we'll be facing the Springfield Scumbags.

Homer: So it'll be half of our former town.

Me: Yep.

Nico: This is gonna be interesting.

Lori Jimenez: I heard that you all call Van Bloot the Perim version of Starscream.

Nico: That's right.

Laney: That's a clever term for him.

Lucy Loud: I agree.

Lynn: But we have to be ready for anything.

Luan: Yep. There's no Planning out of this. (Laughs) Get it?

Most of us laughed while everyone else sighed.

Me: (Laughs) Good one Luan!

Nico: (Laughs) That was funny!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Me: Well are we all ready to take the fight to Van Bloot?

Everyone was ready.

Me: Lets do it! Look out Klay, Krystella and Van Bloot. We're coming for you!

We went to Perim and we were in front of Gothos Tower, Home of Lord Van Bloot

---

Its stone walls are coloured pitch-black and sounds of a playing organ floats out of the stained-glass windows. Lord Van Bloot resides in Gothos Tower and is granted absolute Power in this location. Knowing every crack, corridor, wall, door in his dark gloomy house, Lord Van Bloot is granted Invisibility to deal extra damage or to frighten his opponents more.

All Creatures that aren't Lord Van Bloot shouldn't come near this place as they will lose Courage allowing the Invisible Lord Van Bloot to reach out and show them their doom.

Background Information

Lord Van Bloot can often be found in his private chamber at the pinnacle of Gothos Tower. There he schemes round-the-clock, desperately searching for some way to overthrow Chaor and seize control of the UnderWorld. Van Bloot has a special viewer in his chamber which he uses to spy on his enemies. He once lured Chaor to his tower, hoping to destroy the UnderWorld ruler. Things did not quite work out as planned. No matter. Van Bloot continues plotting…

---

Me: So that's Gothos Tower. It sure is creepy and it looks like a dark version of Elsa's Ice Castle.

Nico: It sure does.

Vince: Like a true castle from Hell.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und it is the creepiest I've ever seen.

Delizia: (Italian Accent) Si.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) Really creepy.

Maxxor, Chaor, and our friends of Perim all came.

Maxxor: Glad you all came.

Chaor: Now we can bring the end of Van Bloot.

Me: We sure can.

Irma Lair: We have to be ready for anything he can throw at us.

Lana: Right.

We went into Gothos Tower and it was creepy and scary.

Me: He sure likes it scary.

Chaor: He sure does.

Tom: Alright. Now, everyone be careful. Here, Van Bloot can use invisibility.

Me: Right. We'll need our infrared vision for it.

Lola: This is gonna be rough.

Sasuke: Yep.

We were inside and we were walking around and looking for Van Bloot.

Me: This place gives me the creeps.

Lily: It's really creepy here.

We kept walking around and it was starting to get creepier and creepier. We felt Van Bloot's energy and it was getting stronger and stronger as we got closer.

Me: I feel his energy and it's getting stronger.

Nico: We're getting close.

We arrived at a big set of doors and it was the way into the throne room.

Me: He sure likes big doors.

We pushed the doors open and in the throne room we saw LORD VAN BLOOT!

Lord Van Bloot is an antagonist from the television series and card game "Chaotic". His goal is to take over all of Perim (but first, the UnderWorld). He has had many conflicts with the UnderWorld Leader Chaor and a few conflicts with Maxxor, leader of the OverWorld.

In "Chaotic Shadow Warriors" he appears as the final boss with shadow versions of Takinom, Ulmar, Chaor and Nivenna.

Origins

Chaor's second-in-command, an UnderWorlder with plans to overthrow Chaor. He makes his home in the castle called Gothos Tower. Van bloot eventually ends up shoveling coal for the M'arrillians after he fled from the UnderWorld. Later, he's informed about the secrets of Dranikus Threshold by Klay. With the knowledge of the threshold in hand, he planned to use Dranikus Threshold to go back in time and conquer all of Perim. Najarin and creatures from the other tribes eventually manage to prevent that from happening.

Appearance

Lord Van Bloot resembles a male harpy mixed with a skeleton. He features blue skin that closely resembles bones, as well as a mechanical, red eye. His huge, black, feathery wings allow him to reach high speeds while in flight. He is seen wearing a fur loincloth and metal armguards. Most of his head remains shaven to further reinforce his skeletal-like appearance, but he does possess a long, slim, orange ponytail.

Personality

Lord Van Bloot is an authoritative and powerful Underworld Creature who thinks highly of himself. This high self image leaves him power-hungry, deceitful, and greedy as he tries to take the Underworld from Chaor. Lord Van Bloot is cunning, dexterous, manipulative, and intelligent, therefore his plans are usually nearly foolproof. Lord Van Bloot is a enemy of Chaor, due to all the conflict which always leads to Lord Van Bloot's defeat. Trying to be on the winning team in M'arrillian Invaders of the Chaotic series, he is controlled by the mind controlling Marillians.

Gothos Tower

Lord Van Bloot's base of operations is the nefarious Gothos Tower. A domain where he has absolute control, Bloot knows every nook and cranny of the tower, holding absolute power over it. He has a special viewer in his chamber which he uses to spy on his enemies.

Lord Van Bloot can often be found in his private chamber at the pinnacle of Gothos Tower. There he schemes round-the-clock, desperately searching for some way to overthrow Chaor and seize control of the underworld. He once unsuccessfully lured Chaor to his tower, hoping to destroy the underworld's ruler from there.

Character Origins

A bony Creature with great, dark wings on his back, Lord Van Bloot's eyes glow with an intense red flame. He is distrusted and reviled by all Tribes due to his lack of loyalty, honor, or any other redeeming personal qualities.

Lord Von Bloot can often be found in his private chamber at the pinnacle of Gothos Tower. There he schemes around the clock, desperately searching for some way to overthrow Chaor and seize control of the UnderWorld. Lord Van Bloot's banquets are renowned throughout Perim, and those (un)fortunate to merit an invitation will most likely have an unnerving experience. Van Bloot invites both allies and enemies to his banquets.

Permitted to act as second-in-command of the UnderWorld by Chaor, Lord Van Bloot has always sought something more. With the UnderWorld divided into loyalists to both Chaor and Lord Van Bloot, Van Bloot sought to usurp Chaor, and invited Chaor to Gothos Tower in order to discuss dividing up the UnderWorld between the two of them.

Lord Van Bloot then spied on Chaor, learning that he'd turned to a human, KidChaor, for help. KidChaor was tasked with battling Lord Van Bloot in Chaotic so as to figure out Van Bloot's strategy, so similarly, Lord Van Bloot sought out a Chaotic player allied with him, MattMeister. This way, Lord Van Bloot would also understand the strategic measures KidChaor would suggest to Chaor.

When the time came for the meeting to take place, Chaor was against ruling the UnderWorld on equal terms, and so Van Bloot attacked him. KidChaor arrived with Mugic provided by Takinom. When Van Bloot uses Discord of Disarming to get rid of the Spectral Viewer KidChaor had given Chaor, Chaor used Song of Obstruction. Van Bloot then proceeded to utilize another Discord of Disarming, to which KidChaor intended Chaor to use Notes of Neverwhere in response to - however, Van Bloot had prepared for this thanks to MattMeister, and had Refrain of Denial ready to use as well. While Van Bloot attempted to convince Chaor that he'd been betrayed by KidChaor, Chaor and Takinom had planned for this, and rather than Notes of Neverwhere - Takinom had given KidChaor Song of Fury to help Chaor defeat Van Bloot and force him, Krekk, and Skithia to bow before one true leader of the UnderWorld.

Later, Van Bloot obtained Decomposition Mugic and kidnapped Intress in order to lure Maxxor into a trap. When the Mugic appeared to have no effect on Maxxor, Van Bloot fled, not realizing that Decomposition had worked and was slowly sapping Maxxor's courage into a Colstone.

While Van Bloot spies on Najarin and Intress for Van Bloot via Krekk, he learns of the Colstone and makes for the Labyrinth of Linsic, which leads to the Colstone Sanctuary, where he comes face-to-face with MajorTom, who manages to evade Van Bloot's attacks long enough to reach the Colstone first.

When Van Bloot finally catches up with MajorTom in the Labyrith of Linsic, he sees the human give the Colstone to Chaor. Not willing to give up his prize without a fight, Van Bloot attacks the leader of the UnderWorld. After a quick battle, Van Bloot is brutally beaten by Chaor and forced to retreat, with Chaor opening the Colstone. Fortunately however, the Colstone did not belong to Maxxor, as MajorTom had taken two Colstones in anticipation of just this scenario.

After stealing a piece of BattleGear capable of developing Shadow Warrior copies of Creatures, Van Bloot ordered an attack on both the Mipedians in Al Mipidem and the OverWorlders in Bodal's Arsenal with Shadow Warriors from the opposing Tribes in an attempt to trigger all out war among the Tribes, with the Danians soon following in suit.

As the final measure of his scheme, Van Bloot and his Shadow Warriors attacked Chaor in Fear Valley, taking Chaor back to Gothos Tower as his prisoner. Here, Van Bloot is attacked by Maxxor, who proves to be no match for his Shadow Warriors. At this time, MajorTom arrives and challenges Lord Van Bloot with a Super Scanner he'd received from CodeMaster Crellan, using the holographic projections of Creatures to battle Van Bloot's Shadow Warriors. Despite this, MajorTom is no match for Van Bloot, who destroys the Super Scanner. Thinking he'd won, Van Bloot relished in his victory - only for MajorTom to reveal he'd assembled the seven pieces of the ancient Mugic destined to destroy the Shadow Creature-generating BattleGear. Passing the Mugic off to Maxxor, Van Bloot is defeated once more as the Mugic is cast, forcing Van Bloot to accept defeat and flee the scene.

After the discovery of the Creature Phelphor at Ice Pillar, Van Bloot was contacted by Khybon while under Phelphor's control and told that the Cothica lie behind the Doors of the Deepmines. Wasting no time, Van Bloot and Atrapol rallied his army and headed for the Doors to claim the Cothica, only to be intercepted by Chaor and Takinom. Even though Chaor and Takinom were no match for Van Bloot and his entire army, Chaor's forces soon join in on the action, as Chaor had merely been stalling until his army caught up.

Having suffered numerous defeats by Chaor's hand, Lord Van Bloot willingly allied with the M'arrillians after they were freed from the Doors to the Deepmines, allowing himself, as well as several of his soldiers - including Galmedar and Klawam to be brainwashed by Emna'ool and Phelphor. With aid from the M'arrillians, Lord Van Bloot was able to conquer UnderWorld City while Chaor, Takinom, Agitos, Chargola, Narfall, Illazar, and Rarran faced Milla'iin at the Marsh of Murk. Afterwards, Van Bloot sent his army to destroy Chaor, prompting the remaining Underworlders to swallow their pride and flee to the Overworld to join the Tribal Alliance, save for Chaor - who remained on the run near Rokhar Ravine due to having too many enemies in the Overworld.

After Aa'une was destroyed and all those brainwashed by the M'arrillians were freed from control, no where was safe for Van Bloot in the UnderWorld, not even Gothos Tower. Faced with no other option, Lord Van Bloot ventured beyond the Doors of the Deepmines, expecting to be welcomed among the ranks of the M'arrillians who remained. Instead, Van Bloot was subjugated to slavery by the Azaia, often working under the thumb of Thar'lyn.

While shoveling Burnstone into a furnace for Ri'oha's transmuting bath, Lord Van Bloot was approached by Krystella and Klayotic, who revealed to him that Dranakis Threshold acted as a portal through time. Hoping to conquer Perim of the past with his army, Van Bloot, Skithia, Krekk, and Atrapol lead Van Bloot's army toward Dranakis Threshold. There, Van Bloot and his army are confronted by Najarin, Frafdo, Akkrean, Akwi, and Gimwei, however the OverWorlders alone are no match for Van Bloot's entire army. Just when all seems lost, the OverWorlders are joined by Ghundac, a Danian, Habekh and Ninren, Mipedians, and Piddan, an UnderWorlder, who manage to turn the tide of the battle.

While the battle rages on, Van Bloot sneaks off to use Dranakis Threshold alone. Faced with no other option, Najarin uses Location Lament Mugic to destroy Dranakis Threshold, just before Van Bloot is about to be sent through time, defeating Van Bloot.

Desperate, Van Bloot seeks sanctuary with the Danians. With Kaizeph, City of Elements, restored to its former glory by the High Muges, Van Bloot asks that Aszil, the newly crowned Queen of the Danians, allow him access to the Earth quadrant of the city, in return for his services. Despite knowing well that Van Bloot cannot be trusted, Aszil accepts his offer, having plans of her own.

Me: Lord Van Bloot, so we meet at last and for the last time!

Van Bloot: Knudson. So glad you could join us. I really have to thank you for killing those M'arrillians. Now, after I kill you all, there's nothing stopping me from conquering Perim!

Klay: And me and Krystella are going to get Ultra Rare scans for our services to Van Bloot!

Tom Majors: Your time has come Klay!

Sarah Gunnerson: And yours too Krystella!

Chaor: I don't know what I was thinking when I made you my second in command Van Bloot! Now that is a mistake I tend to correct!

Me: You will pay for your crimes Van Bloot!

Van Bloot pulled out a certain Mugic.

Tom Majors: Is that the Decomposition Mugic?!

Van Bloot: Why, yes it is! Now, to do what I should've done the moment I made this. Decomposition, destroy Chaor!

Van Bloot used his Mugician to activate the Mugic and the resulting light headed towards Chaor's way.

We dodged the blast and I fired an energy blast at Van Bloot and it hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

The explosion sent him crashing into the wall!

Van Bloot got up.

Van Bloot: Now is there any need for violence? Can't there be a peace between us?

Nico: We shall have peace… We shall have peace when you answer for siding with the M'arrillians and the thousands you have slaughtered in their wake. We shall have peace when the lives of everyone here in Perim that died at your traitorous hands, whose bodies were strewn all over the place by you and your followers are avenged! When you hang over the gates of Underworld City for the sport of your own crows, we shall have peace!

Kaz: Your treachery has cost many lives and countless more are now at risk.

Me: But you can still end this pointless crusade to conquer Perim. You can still save them.

Van Bloot: I appreciate your vote of confidence. But I have some news for you.

He showed an image of a black shadow in the very darkness of the void.

Van Bloot: Something festers in the very heart of your world. Something that you don't know exists. But I have seen it. You know this evil force don't you Mysticons? Necrafa is soon going to return.

We gasped.

Van Bloot: Her energy is building now even as we speak. Even now, she continues to grow stronger. Her attack will come soon. You're all going to die.

Me: Then we'll be ready for her.

Zarya: That's right!

Ghuul then appeared.

Tom Majors: Ghuul!

Ghuul: Wait wait! I left Van Bloot!

Me: Liar!

Ghuul: I'm telling the truth! I left him after he sided with the M'arrillians.

Cole Evans then put his hand on my shoulder.

Cole: He's telling you the truth. He is showing it to you from his heart.

Me: All right.

Ghuul went to us.

The Springfield Scumbags all came.

Maria: So, all of the Springfield Scumbags are facing us this time?

Snake: We sure are. After all, we haven't had a battle in Perim yet.

Me: I had a feeling we would be facing you all.

?: They aren't the only ones.

We saw six figures come out and it was the EVIL NINJA STORM RANGERS from episode 30 of Ninja Storm!

---

When Tori Hanson unknowingly entered another dimension, she returned to Ninja Ops and discovered that the Rangers in this dimension were evil and they chased her out of Ninja Ops. She turned to hippie folk singers Marah and Kapri for help. They take her to see Mayor Lothor who refused to take any action against the Rangers because he was afraid of them. Tori had no choice but to take on the evil Rangers herself, but it did not go well for her. In the nick of time, Lothor appeared with his own special forces (which consisted of alternate versions of Lothor's group) to battle the renegade Rangers. The Rangers were defeated and forced to renounce their delinquent ways (and presumed sending in jail as well as their mentor.) Tori soon returned to her own dimension.

---

Tori Hanson: The Evil Ninja Storm Rangers!

Shane Clarke: They look like us!

Evil Shane: So, you guys are our goody two shoes selves?

Evil Tori: Ugh, I can't believe I would see myself as a good girl.

Tori Hanson: I knew there was an evil me somewhere. Why weren't you with your buddies when they were defeated the first time?

Me: I remember these guys! They were from a mirror universe where the Ninja Storm Rangers were bad and Lothar and his minions are the good guys.

Evil Dustin Brooks: That's right.

Evil Blake Bradley: You watched us on TV didn't you?

Me: Never missed an episode and the funny thing is that we've never seen the evil version of Tori with you.

Evil Hunter Bradley: So we have noticed.

Glumshakes: I've encountered something like this before guys.

Spyro: Really Glumshakes?

Glumshake: Yeah. I saw a mirror universe where Master Eon, Flynn, Persephone and the Mabu were evil and Lord Kaos and the trolls, Drow and our robots were the good guys.

Me: Talk about a huge switch. And we saw a mirror universe where we encountered the mirror counterparts of the Kids Next Door and they were the bad guys and the adults were the good guys.

Numbuh 1: Indeed we did.

Evil Cam Wattanabe: Very weird.

Another figure came out and it was PAPILLION! One of Sailor Moon's enemies.

---

She took the form of a woman who appeared to be half-butterfly, with insect-like eyes on the top of her head, antennae, and butterfly wings protruding from the sides of her head. She also wore the same necklace that Katrina had in her human form.

Information

To attack she summoned a swarm of butterflies to attack her enemies, or to shield herself. She was also capable of transforming her arm into a scythe and was capable of flying. She saw Sailor Venus and Sailor Moon both transform and followed after them onto a ship. She was eventually healed by Sailor Moon's Moon Healing Escalation with some reluctance.

Powers

Like other Youma made by Kunzite, she can take on her appearance of Katarina. She can fly. She can create a scythe weapon from her arm. She can summon small light butterflies which can restrain her victim and cause them pain.

---

Sailor Venus: Papillion!

Lisa Loud: Wow! You are an amazing creature.

Papillion: Why thank you.

Shanan: We never faced you. You're a Glaucusian from the planet Papillionus.

Papillion: That's right Shanan. I was told that you know several things about what species my comrades are.

Shanan: I know all about the entirety of all the life that exists in the universe.

Qin: What are the Glaucusians?

Shanan: They are butterfly humanoids from the planet Papillionus. It's a forest planet located 76,240 light-years away from Earth. They are a peaceful race that are widely known for their loving and healing nature and can only attack when provoked at a certain level. But it was destroyed when a massive gamma ray burst from a far away galaxy struck it and completely destroyed it.

We gasped.

Me: That's terrible!

Nico: How horrible! Gamma Ray Bursts pack as much explosive power as a supernova.

Lisa Loud: More explosive power than that 3rd elder brother. Gamma Ray Bursts pack as much explosive power as that of a high scale supernova star. The largest of these was back last year in 2019 when GRB 190114C exhibited the most powerful blast of any gamma ray burst, observed at 1 Tera Electron Volt - about one trillion times as much energy per photon as visible light and it was the largest explosion we've seen since the Big Bang.

Me: Wow! That's powerful.

Nico: Incredible. (Head sparks) Ouch.

Vince: But that is amazing that Gamma Ray Bursts and supernovas pack that much explosive power.

Papillion: Indeed.

Me: Now that we have the educational information out of the way, lets dance.

Troy: Let's see how Ninjas fare against Samurai!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Samurai!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Samurai Rangers.

Me: Split them up and take it took them.

Shane: Me, my team, and the Megaforce Rangers will help out against our evil twins.

Me: Okay.

We went at them.

Another awesome Chaotic Chapter done.

This is hopefully the last Chaotic Matchups chapter we'll have and this was an awesome chapter. NicoChan11 and JediAvatarOfShinobi gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Get ready for a high-flying adventure as we go into the awesome world of Planes from 2013 and it's gonna be awesome as we become the first humans in a world of anthropomorphic planes.

See you all tomorrow.

Into the World of Living Planes

In the estate we were watching TV and playing card games.

Vegeta: Bokrua, do you have a set date for your wedding?

Nico: I haven't set one yet but if I do you'll know.

Me: Okay.

Korra: Hey, Sarah. Do you want to try some Gushers?

Sarah Gunnerson: Sure.

She took a Gusher and tried it and it was really fruity.

Sarah Gunnerson: Fruity.

But then she started laughing uncontrollably.

Sarah Gunnerson: (laughs uncontrollably) What's going on?!

Blackarachnia: Relax. This is just part of the process.

Me: It's a funny process.

Sarah's skin on her face turned green with dark green stripes and her head started growing bigger and her hair fell out and her head grew to as big as a watermelon and it was just as heavy.

Cheetor: So, how do you feel?

Sarah Gunnerson: Fruity and sweet and my head is really heavy.

She fell to the floor with a heavy crash.

FWOMP!

Tom Majors: Your head turned into a watermelon.

Sarah Gunnerson: Really? Like in those funny Gushers commercials on TV?

Me: Yep. We saw those funny commercials where the kids heads would turn into fruit and we figured why not see if it can happen in real life.

May: And it works too.

Me: It's true.

May tried a Gusher and she started laughing uncontrollably and her skin on her face turned blue and her head got rounder and wider and her hair fell out and her head turned into a blueberry.

Tara had one and she laughed uncontrollably and her skin on her face turned dark red and her head got rounder and a stem grew out of the top of her head as her hair fell out. Her head turned into a cherry.

Jen's head turned into a green apple when she tried one, Yumi's head turned into an Orange and Gwen Tennyson's head turned into a coconut.

Sarah Gunnerson: That is funny. How long will this last?

Me: Usually lasts 10 minutes.

Sarah Gunnerson: Oh.

10 minutes later the Gushers wore off and the girls all laughed uncontrollably as their faces changed back and their hair grew back.

Sarah Gunnerson: (Dizzy) That was awesome and funny.

Yumi: It sure was.

Gwen Tennyson: But it was cool seeing what it was like having a head of coconut.

Jen: Yep. Same with an apple.

Nico: It was funny.

We laughed.

---

Later for movie time we were watching Planes from 2013 and it was awesome.

---

The movie starts with two jets soaring through the sky. From below comes Dusty Crophopper (Dane Cook). He challenges the two to a race, but they ignore him and fly away. He then zooms right past them to their amazement, though he wakes up from this fantasy and it is shown he is just crop-dusting a field with his employer Leadbottom (Cedric the Entertainer). Dusty expresses his desire to enter the Wings Across the Globe race, a competition where planes fly all around the world, but Leadbottom thinks he's better off where he's at.

Dusty meets up with his best friend, a fuel truck named Chug (Brad Garrett). Together, they practice flying for the race, but Dusty accidentally burns himself out. Their forklift friend Dottie (Teri Hatcher) knows what he has been doing, and she thinks Dusty is gonna get himself killed if he tries to race. Chug suggests asking an older war veteran plane, Skipper Riley (Stacy Keach), to help Dusty practice. They go see Skipper, but he almost instantly turns Dusty away.

The next day, Dusty, Chug, and Dottie go to the qualifiers to enter Dusty. There, they spot reigning champion Ripslinger (Roger Craig Smith), showing off for his fans. When Dusty steps up to qualify, he is mocked for being a crop duster and coming from a farm. He surprises nearly everybody as he flies through the course with well-practiced maneuvers, but he only ends up placing sixth. He and his friends leave disappointed.

The forklift commentator Roper (Sinbad) goes to visit Dusty the next day to tell him that one of the racers, Fonzarelli, has been disqualified for using illegal fuel, putting Dusty in the race. Skipper finds Dusty and tries to talk him out of the race, but Dusty insists that he wants to prove that he is more than just a crop duster. This convinces Skipper to train him. They spend some time together practicing, which starts out awful. Although Dusty starts improving, it goes sour when Skipper tries to get him to fly above 1000 feet. Dusty gets dizzy when he looks down, and he must reveal to Skipper that he is afraid of heights. Skipper is baffled, but they continue practicing anyway.

The time comes for the race, with the first leg starting in New York going to Iceland. Dusty meets the eccentric Mexican plane El Chupacabra (Carlos Alazraqui; "El Chu" for short), who quickly becomes friends with Dusty. Dusty also becomes smitten by a plane from India named Ishani (Priyanka Chopra), while El Chu falls for French-Canadian Rochelle (Julia Louis-Dreyfus). The racers fly off to Iceland, but since Dusty refuses to fly high with everybody else, he is in last place.

The second leg has the racers fly to Germany. A British plane named Bulldog (John Cleese) is blinded when oil from his propellers squirts in his eye. Dusty guides him down to safety, which earns him Bulldog's respect, but he is still in last place. The third leg takes them to India, where at one point, Dusty and Ishani have a romantic fly around the area. Ishani knows that she has fans who are counting on her to win. She offers some advice to Dusty on flying through a tunnel for the next leg, which has the racers fly to Nepal. Dusty encounters a tunnel and almost collides head-on with a train. He blacks out for a while, landing in Nepal, initially thinking he is dead. Turns out he has managed to place first. The other racers come in, and Dusty notices that Ishani has a new propeller from Ripslinger, leading him to realize she was setting him up for a loss. Ripslinger himself is displeased when he learns that he is now second behind Dusty.

When the racers land in Shanghai, El Chu expresses to Dusty that he is having trouble winning over Rochelle. She is not impressed with his pompous attempts at winning her over. He tries to serenade her with an aggressive rendition of "Love Machine", but Dusty tells him to take it down a notch. Some forklifts pull in and play a softer version of the song with El Chu singing along. This gets Rochelle's attention.

On the way to the next location, El Chu comes to Dusty with multiple lipstick stains on his face, meaning he and Rochelle are now together. The racers take off over the Pacific Ocean. While Dusty is flying, Ripslinger has his two henchmen, Ned and Zed (Gabriel Iglesias), sabotage Dusty by taking out his navigation antenna, leaving him lost across the ocean. He begins to run low on fuel as he is picked up by a group of planes known as the Jolly Wrenches. They take him to their carrier ship, the USS Flysenhower, where he lands and is able to refuel. He spots a wall of famed flyers, and starts looking for Skipper. He spots him but is surprised to see he only has one badge from one mission. He gets in touch with Chug and Dottie, who tell him that they are going to meet him in Mexico since Chug and Skipper's forklift Sparky (Danny Mann) have sold a lot of Dusty-themed merchandise. Dusty tries to ask Skipper about why he only has one mission logged, but Skipper avoids answering. The Jolly Wrenches make him fly out of there to beat the oncoming storm.

While flying in the storm, Dusty is distracted when he thinks about Skipper, and crashes into the ocean. He is rescued, and is met by his friends. However, he is badly damaged, and is told that he must pull out of the race. Speaking with Skipper about what he learned on the Flysenhower, it is revealed that on Skipper's first mission, his entire squadron was killed in action against an enemy battleship. Dusty then considers dropping out of the race, but Chug and Dottie encourage him to continue. Additionally, the friendly racers offer repair parts for Dusty so that he may continue to race alongside them. Dusty is fixed up and looking brand new, ready to re-enter.

On the final leg, Dusty manages to outfly the other racers, coming in behind Ripslinger, Ned and Zed. Ripslinger has his goons go sabotage Dusty again, but Skipper flies in to protect Dusty. He gets Ned and Zed away from him (at the cost of getting his Vertical Stabilizer damaged by Ripslinger) and tells Dusty to continue flying and forget about him, leaving him to catch up with Ripslinger. Dusty starts losing power, forcing him to tackle his fear of heights and soar high above Ripslinger. When they make it to the end of the track, Ripslinger slows down to pose for cameras, giving Dusty the opportunity to fly past him and cross the finish line. In his surprise, Ripslinger flies into some portable toilets, leaving him humiliated by being covered in oil slop. Everybody celebrates Dusty's victory, including Ishani, El Chu, and the other racers. Skipper rejoins the Navy, and Dusty is made an honorary Jolly Wrench. The two take off and race each other across the ocean.

It was an awesome movie that was like Cars except that it was for airplanes and when it was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That is so awesome!

Lightning McQueen: Aww yeah!

Mater: Really good movie.

Nico: It sure was.

Aqua: We never have been to the world of Planes from 2013.

Sora: I have a feeling we're gonna go to the world of Planes to stop Ripslinger.

Me: Well before we do that we have to find out more about Ripslinger.

I pulled up Ripslinger's information.

---

Ripslinger is the main antagonist in the 2013 Disney animated film Planes, the first installment of the spinoff series of the Cars franchise created by Pixar. He is Dusty Crophopper's rival.

He was voiced by Roger Craig Smith, who is best known for his most known role as the current voice of Sonic in the Sonic the Hedgehog franchise, and who also voiced Ocean Master in Young Justice and Deidara in the Naruto series.

With more wins than he can count and an abundance of fans, Ripslinger is wings-down the biggest name in air racing-and he knows it. But despite sky's-the-limit funding and the state-of-the-art equipment, the world champion still doesn't play fair-especially when it comes to a small-town plane with zero racing experience. Dusty doesn't belong in Ripslinger's sport and his mere presence makes the pro's fuel boil. And if Dusty's inexperience doesn't take him out of the race, Ripslinger's vast empire includes a couple of underhanded sidekicks to take care of business.

Appearance

Ripslinger is a customized hi-tech state-of-the-art carbon fiber racing plane with a wingspan of 26.2 feet (8 meters), painted green with black wings and fins, and a "flame" pattern on his headlights and doors. He also uses his racing team's Skyslicer Mark 5 propellers, his is a contra-rotation propeller with two blades on each prop.

Planes

Ripslinger was seen making green smoke around the airstrip and Dusty and Chug called him the Green Tornado. Ripslinger and his goons do not like Dusty Crophopper at all. Ripslinger was enjoying Hip Hop music and dismissed Dusty by calling him a farmboy. After Dusty saved Bulldog from an engine overheat he called Dusty a nice guy, in a sarcastic way. At the German oil hall he was whispering something to Ishani. In Shanghai, Ripslinger ordered his henchmen to break Dusty's antenna and he was so pleased about it. The next morning Ripslinger and his goons ambushed Dusty, using new parts donated from the other racers, Skipper had came to the rescue. Ripslinger ripped off Skipper's tail and Ripslinger got defeated by wrecking the porta-potties after his ego got the better of him, by unknowingly letting Dusty pass him. Ripslinger was later placed on a flatbed, covered in oil, and was taken to be repaired and cleaned.

We gasped.

Me: Whoa! He's like an Evil Sasuke in Plane form.

Lightning McQueen: I would call him a plane version of Chick Hicks.

Me: Just what I was thinking.

Vince: Looks like we have another arrogant monster to take down.

Laney: Yep. But this is gonna be so cool flying planes in the world of Planes.

Me: And the coolest part is that we're probably gonna see Ms. Rita in action when she flies a plane like when she learned from her father.

Rita: That's right!

Me: Lets head to the Garage so we can get our planes ready.

We went to the Garage.

---

In the Garage we got ready for an awesome adventure in the world of 2013's Planes and it was gonna be an awesome adventure. Once we got into our planes and started them, we were off and a portal opened up and we flew into the world of Planes 2013.

We arrived in Propwash Junction, the home of the Planes and it was a beautiful and magnificent place.

Me: Wow! So this is Propwash Junction. It's beautiful.

Nico: It sure is. This is so cool seeing the world of Planes from 2013.

Laney: It sure is. Wow!

Rita: This is so amazing! I didn't think a world like this was even possible.

We then saw a cropduster plane fly by us. It was Dusty Crophopper!

Dusty: Wow! Hey guys!

Me: Hey Dusty!

Dusty: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Maria: It's nice to meet you, Dusty.

Dusty: Same here. You guys have awesome planes.

Me: Thanks Dusty. It's awesome being here.

Sora: Same here.

Dusty: Wow! Sora it's an honor to meet the famous Keyblader.

Sora: Thanks Dusty.

Me: Are we the first ever humans to be here in Propwash Junction?

Dusty: As a matter of fact you are.

Laney: Awesome!

Lana: This is cool!

We landed in the airport of Propwash Junction and we were in awe.

Me: Wow.

Lola: This is amazing!

Dusty landed by us.

Dusty: What do you all think of Propwash Junction?

Me: Beautiful place. It's amazing that there's a world of Anthropomorphic Planes as well as Cars.

Lightning McQueen: It sure is awesome! Long time no see Dusty.

Dusty: Lightning McQueen! Wow! It's great to see you again.

Lightning McQueen: Same to you Dusty.

Dusty: I have heard about what happened to Chick Hicks and I'm glad he's gone.

Nico: We all are.

Lincoln: We sure are.

Me: Yep. He's now in our space prison Impound Lot.

Dusty: Sweet. Now we can put that arrogant jerk Ripslinger in the prison too.

Me: Yep. That's why we're here. To put that jerk in his place.

?: We'll see about that.

We turned and we saw RIPSLINGER!

Me: Well if it isn't Ripslinger.

Ripslinger: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Now I can prove that I am so much better than all of you combined.

Me: You are such a pathetic excuse of a plane. Your arrogance and overconfidence will be your undoing.

Nico: That's right. You have failed at being a plane and at being a machine.

Me: Yep.

Then we heard a bunch of supersonic fighter jets coming and we turned and saw 10 wicked cool fighter jets coming. It was the Masters of Evil and they were flying awesome fighter jets that were some of the coolest ever. They flew in an awesome formation and seven of the planes released rainbow color smoke and they formed the 7 Nazca Lines and the other three planes form the symbol of the Masters of Evil and it was awesome. They landed by us and got out. Dark Spicer, Vypra and Firefly had awesome planes. Out came all 7 Dark Signers and their planes had their Nazca Lines on each of their planes and they had lines of their colors.

Roman had the Spider Nazca Line and red lines on it and it looked a lot a Lockheed-Martin SR71 Blackbird and it had spider legs on top with powerful missiles and lasers on it. It said Roman Goodwin's Uru Spider Flyer.

Carly's plane had the Hummingbird Nazca Line and orange lines on it and it looked like an F117 Nighthawk and it had a hummingbird beak and tail feathers and it had missile launchers, lasers, machine guns, the works. It said Carly Carmine's Aslla Piscu Hummingbird

Speedflyer.

Devack's plane had the Monkey Nazca Line and yellow lines on it and it looked like Tupolev TU-28 and it had a monkey tail, monkey head and its fingers on the wings were laser, missile and machine guns. It said Devack's Cusillu Monkey Bomber.

Misty Tredwell's plane had the Lizard Nazca Line and green lines on it and it looked like a B2 Spirit Stealth Bomber and it had a lizards tail and lizard eyes and it had lasers, missiles, flamethrowers, machine guns, the works. It said Misty Tredwell's Ccarayhua Stealth Lizard.

Greiger's plane had the Killer Whale Nazca Line and indigo lines on it and it looked like a Tupolev Tu-160 bomber plane and it had a Killer Whale fin and it had every kind of advanced weaponry ever known. It said Greiger's Chacu Challhua Whale Bomber.

Rex Goodwin's plane had the Condor Nazca Line and violet lines on it and it looked like a B-52 Bomber plane and it had a Condor Beak, Condor Wings and Condor Tail Feathers and it had every kind of weapon ever known. It said Rex Goodwin's Wiraqocha Rasca Condor Fortress.

Vypra's plane looked like a Eurofighter Typhoon FGR4 German Fighter Jet and it had a picture of Queen Bansheera's face on the right wing with a no sign over it and it said Fuck Bansheera to Hell and it was equipped with all kinds of weapons and it said Vypra's Demonic Flystorm.

Dark Spicer's plane looked like a NASA X-15 Hypersonic Plane and it had all kinds of weapons. It said Dark Spicers Kickass Cruiser.

Firefly's plane looked like an X-33 Venturestar Space Shuttle modified for war and it had all kinds of weapons and more. It said

Firefly's Burning Flamerainer on it.

Carly Carmine: Hey guys!

Me: Wow! Those planes are so awesome!

Nico: Wow! You guys have your own planes now?!

Firefly: We sure do.

Dark Spicer: (to Dusty) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Dusty: Not if I kick yours first!

Bender: (To Dark Spicer) You can bite my shiny metal ass!

Carly Carmine: Do you like our planes, guys?

William: Actually, yeah. They look awesome!

Me: These planes are awesome!

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) They are amazing.

Dark Spicer: Glad you think so. I helped make them using Anti Matter and Gremlin Plague.

Vypra: Glad you like all of them.

Me: These planes are amazing. And Firefly your plane is an X-33 Venturestar Space Shuttle. That was an experimental Space Shuttle that NASA Scrapped that didn't make it passed the drawing board stages.

Firefly: I know. It's one of my favorite planes made by NASA.

Me: I can see that. It was cancelled because of the amount of money it would take to make it and it had a lot of problems with it.

Dark Spicer: Yeah but I corrected all those problems with Anti Matter and Gremlin Plague. And speaking of Antitrix aliens…

Dark Spicer turned into a mutant version of Bloxx. He had a red, black and blue ape and bird body with block spines and block wings on his back and he had wrecking ball shape fists.

Wreckingblock: Meet Wreckingblock.

Shanan: A Mutant Segmentasapien. Very interesting.

Eddy: Nice! Do you ever consider making lego sculptures with that form.

Wreckingblock: Actually, I'll consider that. (forms his hands into cannons and fires multiple explosive blocks at Inque)

Lincoln used the Force and sent the explosive blocks away and they exploded in the distance.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Nico: Wow! That was cool!

Dark Spicer: Watch this one.

Dark Spicer then turned into a mutant version of Gravattack and he looked like an asteroid floating off the ground and he had 9 smaller asteroids orbiting around him and he had big arms floating beside his main body and he had spines coming out of each ball and they were overflowing with elemental energy.

Orbittroyer: I call this form… Orbittroyer!

Me: Wow! That one is the coolest I've ever seen.

Shanan: A mutant Galilean. This is the coolest one ever.

Stone Man: You look like your own planet.

Me: More like he is his own Solar System.

Orbittroyer: I do, don't I? (uses gravikinesis to levitate Stone Man in the air and slam him down to the ground)

SMASH!

Stone: Ow.

?: That must've hurt.

A figure came out and it was CRUSTOR from episode 6 of Super Samurai!

---

Crustor is a fire/crust-themed Nighlok who Serrator gave the job to find the BullZord so that it can be part of a bigger plot that he has planned to split open the world. Crustor targeted a boy named Cody whose family had guarded the seal that contains the BullZord in a plot to gain control of the BullZord for Serrator. Crustor follows Cody to where the BullZord is sealed where he releases the BullZord. When the BullZord is freed and runs rampant, Crustor plans to find a way to capture the BullZord and Cody. Crustor orders Giant Moogers to capture the BullZord and Cody but to leave them unharmed. With the Samurai Megazord and the Claw Battlezord competing against them to capture the Bullzord, the Samurai Megazord mounts the BullZord and easily fends off the footsoldiers. When the Moogers fail, Crustor states that capturing the BullZord will be tough enough and tells Master Xandred that he will go after the BullZord again. Crustor and the Moogers track the BullZord and end up fighting the Samurai Rangers where Crustor proceeds to go after the BullZord with Jayden on his trail. Crustor infiltrates the BullZord as Jayden also enters the BullZord where he fights Crustor. As Jayden fights Crustor, the BullZord is heading straight towards the cliff. Upon knocking down Crustor, Jayden gives Cody a disk which combined with Cody's symbol power to tame the BullZord while he continues to fight Crustor. Jayden assumes his Super Samurai Mode and finishes off Crustor by knocking him out of the BullZord with the Super Blazing Strike. After the BullZord is tamed, Crustor grows to giant size but, after Cody gets to safety, Jayden ends up being congratulated by the Grand Shogun and transforming the BullZord into the Bull Megazord. Crustor tries to destroy the BullZord with his fire but it is unaffected and punches him back before knocking him down with the Shoulder Blasters. Although Crustor recovers, Jayden transforms into Shogun Mode and finishes off Crustor with a combination of the Revolving Laser Blaster and Final Strike attacks.

---

Jayden Shiba: Crustor!

Crustor: Its been a while Rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were gonna try to use the BullZord to destroy the world for Serrator.

Crustor: That's right.

Vypra: I told you he watched all of you on TV.

Crustor: I had no doubts.

Me: And you were the ugliest Nighlok that I remember seeing.

Kevin (Samurai): We beat you before Crustor and we can do it again.

Crustor: After I'm done with you Ranger, your BullZord is next!

Antonio: I thought you wanted to capture the BullZord.

Crustor: Like I said before, if I can't have the BullZord, no one can.

Me: Over our dead bodies. Looks like we're gonna be fighting in the air.

Troy: While J.D., Dusty, and the others fight in the sky, we'll fight on the ground!

Nico: Okay.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Techno Bionic Team!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Electronic Bioman Rangers.

Me: Lets do it!

Ripslinger: If it's a fight you want, I will give you one!

Ripslinger flew off.

Me: Lets do it!

Roman Goodwin: And it's not our turn so we'll help take down Ripslinger.

Me: Okay.

We got in our planes and we flew off! Luan flew after Vypra, Eddy flew after Dark Spicer, Lola flew after Firefly and the rest of us flew after Ripslinger. It was like we were entering one of those awesome World War I dogfights.

---

Airfight 1: Luan VS Vypra

---

Luan was flying her plane after Vypra in her plane.

Luan: Your plane is amazing Vypra. Dark Spicer did a great job on all of them.

Vypra: Thanks Luan. We also had to do Flight Simulator lessons to learn how to fly them.

Luan: That's totally coincidental. We had to do the same thing as well.

Vypra: Amazing. Lets dance.

Luan: Or in this case, lets fly! (Laughs) Yeah!

Luan had her weapons ready and so did Vypra.

Luan fired machine guns at Vypra and they hit her wings. Luan fired missiles and Vypra dodged them all and the missiles hit the ground and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Vypra: Nice shot Luan. You grazed me.

Dark Spicer: Eat my dust!

Eddy: Luckily I trained in Lisa's new G-Force Simulator for this.

Dark Spicer flew at over 4500 miles per hour or over Mach 6.

Eddy: Time for some hypersonic speed!

Eddy gunned it to over Mach 10 or 7100 miles per hour and he released a powerful Sonic Boom that shatter Dark Spicer's Plane and it exploded as Dark Spicer ejected and Eddy slowed down as Dark Spicer deployed his parachute.

Eddy had him land in his back cockpit.

Dark Spicer: Wow! A Mach 10 Sonic Boom blast. That was intense!

Eddy: It was. Lisa had us train in her G-Force Simulator before we tried our planes.

Dark Spicer: Good thing she prepared you all for this.

Eddy: Yep.

Airfight 3: Lola VS Firefly

Lola was flying her plane after Firefly.

Lola: Your Space Shuttle Plane is amazing Firefly.

Firefly: Thanks Lola.

Lola: Let see what it can do.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Firefly ejected as his plane exploded and he landed in Lola's plane.

Lola: Good fight. Sorry about your plane.

Firefly: No worries. We can salvage them and rebuild them.

Lola: Good.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Crustor fell down and exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

All that was left of Crustor was his sword.

Nico picked it up.

Nico: Hmm. Kaz might like using this as his weapon of choice.

Troy Burrows: Good idea Nico.

Nico: Lets help J.D. and the others.

Troy Burrows: Right!

The Megaforce Rangers summoned the Skyship and it was ready for action.

Airfight 4: Ripslinger

The Masters of Evil all regrouped.

Me: This was an awesome Airbattle.

Nico: It sure was.

Dark Spicer: That might be the first time any of you guys have used your planes.

Maria: I know. Most of the time, we usually use our cars.

Me: Yeah and First Time's for anything.

Firefly: It was even more enjoyable when me, Dark, and Vypra helped take Ripslinger down after our battles were done.

Akiza: It's actually the first time me and the other Signers have used planes before.

Vypra: Well, I'm glad you had fun with them.

Me: Thanks.

Impact Man: Another nice day at the beach.

Me: You said it. What a gorgeous and beautiful day.

Luna was playing Hawaiian Steel Drums to add excitement, Rin, Laney and Lisa were collecting seashells, Lynn and Lightning, May and Nico were playing volleyball, Ariel and her sisters and Melody and Lincoln were playing in the water and Lily, Lola and Lana were building sandcastles.

Me: What a beautiful day.

Varie: You said it.

Rachel S.D.: It's so gorgeous out here.

Celica: It sure is gorgeous.

Me: [I run off] Hey, girls! Look! [I was now covered in a mound of sand] I'm Sandy! [The girls laugh. I then form sand around my head and nose to look like Squidward and imitate his voice] Hey girls, who am I? [The Girls are still laughing. I pick up a sand phone] Hello, SpongeBob. Could you keep it down? I'm trying to be a brainless moron and a worthless talentless loser that's boring. [The girls continue laughing]

Celica: J.D.! (Laughs) [a doorbell rings, I walk in carrying sand pizza boxes and wearing a Krusty Krab sand hat]

Me: Did anyone order twenty pepperoni and sand pizzas? [Me and the girls laugh together.]

Lola: (Laughs) That is so funny!

Lana: (Laughs) So funny!

Luan: (Laughs) Good one J.D.!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was funny!

Lily: That was funny!

We were having an awesome time at the beach and having the most fun we've ever had in a while. I was putting lotion on Varie's back and Bobby and Vince both put lotion on Lori and Carol's backs. Nico makes sand castles with Lola, Lincoln, Lana and Laney; Lily lifts a bucket revealing an actual castle. It was a full scale replica of the Neuschwanstein Castle in Germany and the kids all loved it. I was surfing with Lynn and Lincoln and we were surfing on big beautiful waves on the lake and it was so much fun. The children from all over the beach play in the castle and Lori and Bobby give Lily a thumbs up. Me and Nico lift some anchors as Vince and Lori lifts anvils for weights. Me and Lori hula dance playing ukuleles.

Later we were having lunch.

Tara: Man this is the most fun we've ever had.

Beast Boy: You said it!

Nico: Boy I don't think we've ever had this much fun.

Me: Me neither.

Spiderman: My Spider Sense is detecting someone in trouble.

I looked around.

Me: I don't see anything.

Then I heard a scream.

Me: Uh oh! Sounds like we have someone in trouble!

Nico: (Points to some tall grass) It's coming from over there!

Me: Lets go!

We went over and we saw a girl that was very sexy waist deep in quicksand. It was Mai Shiranui of the Fatal Fury games!

---

Mai Shiranui is the granddaughter of Hanzo Shiranui, master of ninjitsu and Koppo-ken. Mai learned from her father the secrets of Ninjitsu. She had met Andy Bogard, during this time, who had come to train under her grandfather. Mai then had to take alternate courses from her grandfather's friend, Jubei Yamada in ninjitsu. At first, Mai was uninterested in Andy and only thought of him as another callous man only interested in his training. It wasn't until he gave her a present on her birthday that she saw him in another light and eventually fell in love with him.

She spends much of the series endlessly pursuing Andy and fantasizing about various daydreams about their wedding. When developers were asked about her whereabouts during Mark of the Wolves, they chose not to answer the question directly. However, they did divulge that she still loves Andy - as she always has - ten years later.

The King of Fighters

During nearly every King of Fighters tournament, Mai pesters Andy to enter and form a team with her. Upset at his refusals and choice to join a separate team, she forms an all-women team with the help of Yuri and King. In the following years, her teammates change, but she remains firm to enter the tournament to help encourage King and her fellow team members and to prove to Andy the error of his ways. In King of Fighters 99, she is finally able to join the tournament in the same team as Andy. However, the following tournament was asked to step out to allow Blue Mary to investigate a case. Denied again, she is angered by the request and joins the Women's team again and has remained a reoccurring member ever since. In the various team endings, she is often celebrating the team's victory at King's bar or fantasizing about Andy.

Mai did not participate in the KOF XI to search for Andy, who was busy at training his disciple, Hokutomaru. Later, Mai decides to enter the KOF XIII with her first KOF teammates, King and Yuri, as she felt that the KOF tournament isn't complete without her. She isn't upset at Andy while making her choice, content to enter a tournament with both her and him in it once more.

Lincoln: Oh no! Stay calm and don't move!

Mai Shiranui: Help me.

Tarantulas: We need to get her out of there!

Lincoln then spread his wings and flew over to her.

Lincoln: Grab my hand.

Mai Shiranui: (Reaches) I can't reach!

Lincoln: You can do it!

She then grabbed Lincoln's hand and Lincoln pulled as he flew and pulled her out of the quicksand.

Me: He did it!

Laney: Way to go Lincoln!

Sam Simpson: Looks like Lincoln has another fiancé in the future.

Clover: Yep.

Lincoln brought Mai over to us.

Rhinox: Are you ok?

Mai Shiranui: Yeah thanks to this brave boy here.

Me: That's Lincoln for you.

Mai Shiranui: Thank you all so much. My name is Mai Shiranui.

Me: Pleasure to meet you. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I'm J.D. Knudson, leader of the team.

We introduced ourselves.

Mai Shiranui: It's an honor to meet you all.

Nico: Same to you Mai.

Lincoln: Did you get sucked into our world through a dimensional vortex that took you to our universe?

Mai Shiranui: I think so.

Me: Our scanners probably picked it up while we were away on a mission. So we must've missed that.

Lori: Lets get you to the lake and clean you off.

Mai Shiranui: Good idea.

We got her to the lake and washed her off. And we made a sign by the quicksand pit that said DANGER! QUICKSAND! DO NOT STEP HERE!

Lola: Wow! I love your ninja outfit Mai.

Mai Shiranui: Thanks Lola.

Laney: What is the style of fighting you do?

Mai Shiranui: It's called Shiranui-Ryuu. It's my own style of fighting that was given to me by my grandfather.

She went over what it was.

Shiranui-ryuu Ninjutsu (不知火流忍術, Shiranui-ryū ninjutsu) is a form of Japanese martial art created by SNK and used in its fictional gaming universe, most notably by Mai Shiranui. The Shiranui style of ninja arts has been featured in the King of Fighters and Fatal Fury series of fighting games.

Description

Based on traditional Ninjutsu, the Shiranui-ryuu Ninjutsu is mostly featured in Mai Shiranui's fighting style. As traditional Ninjutsu, training in the Shiranui-ryuu school focuses on Ninja Jūhakkei, eighteen disciplines or aspects that represent the complete skillset a ninja is expected to have. The eighteen disciplines are:

Seishinteki kyōyō - spiritual refinement

Taijutsu - unarmed combat

Kenjutsu - sword techniques

Bōjutsu - stick and staff techniques

Sōjutsu - spear techniques

Naginatajutsu - naginata techniques

Kusarigamajutsu - kusarigama techniques

Shurikenjutsu - throwing weapons techniques

Kayakujutsu - pyrotechnics

Hensōjutsu - disguise and impersonation

Shinobi-iri - stealth and entering methods

Bajutsu - horsemanship

Sui-ren - water training

Bōryaku - tactics

Chōhō - espionage

Intonjutsu - escaping and concealment

Tenmon - meteorology

Chi-mon - geography

As seen in the practitioners fighting styles, the Shiranui-ryuu Ninjutsu has a special focus on the skill of Taijutsu, Kenjutsu, Shurikenjutsu and Kayakujutsu. The Taijutsu discipline is evident in all three practitioners basic fighting styles, with special attention given to speed, elbow strikes and acrobatic kicks. Speed is, in fact, a crucial part of the Shiranui school - Andy remarks that the Shiranui style has such speed that he can cut through shadows. Kenjutsu is seen in Hokutomaru's moves with a wooden sword/stick. Shurikenjutsu is present in both Hokutomaru's and Mai's fighting styles, with the first specializing in throwing concealed shurikens and kunais, and the latter using the skill for her throwing fans. Kayakujutsu may be the explanation for the practitioners fire abilities, since all three have ways to employ fire in their moves. This is believed to be a spiritual power, probably achieved with training in the Seishinteki kyōyō discipline. Mai's ability to change clothes in one swift movement may come from training in the Shiranui style of Hensōjutsu, which may also be used for creating illusory quasi-real constructs as the babies she uses to taunt Andy in many of their special intros. Intonjutsu is also used extensively by both Mai and Hokutomaru. Mai can conceal an indefinite number of paper fans in her skin-revealing outfit making it look like there's absolutely nothing hidden on her. Hokutomaru also does this with his shuriken, kunai, and even with smoke bombs and dynamites.

It also important to note that female practitioners of the style tend to follow the Kunoichi way of wearing clothes that would distract their opponents by showing a considerable amount of skin, as is the case with Mai. The idea behind the Kunoichi way is also to make a man underestimate the ninja and go easy on her, while she could fight at her full power and defeat the opponent quickly. Tessenjutsu, the art of the Japanese war fan, may also be included as one of the learning disciplines, on which Mai chooses to specialize.

Me: Whoa! That is so cool!

Nico: It sure is.

Me: That sounds very similar to the ways of the Shinobi.

Laney: It sure does.

Mai Shiranui: I know.

Me: Do you have any awesome powers?

Mai Shiranui: I sure do. Watch this.

She formed a ball of fire in her hands and threw it at a rock in the middle of the lake and it exploded with incredible power! Blowing the Rock to dust.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared, the entire rock was completely blown to dust.

Me: Whoa! That was powerful!

Lincoln: Wow! That was amazing!

Nico: Holy cow!

Mai Shiranui: I have the abilities of fire at my command. But I can't use fire that's not mine.

Me: Wow. But watch this one.

I got up and faced a rock in the middle of the lake.

Me: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: DRAGON FLAME RASENSHURIKEN!

I formed a fire Rasenshuriken and it had a dragon spinning around it and I threw it at the rock and it slammed into it and exploded in a massive pillar of fire that incinerated the rock into nothing!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared, all that was left of the rock was nothing but a huge crater in the lake that filled up with water.

Mai Shiranui: Wow! That was amazing!

Nico: We know all kinds of awesome techniques.

Naruto: Me and my village trained them to us.

Sakura Haruno: Yep. We're shinobi from the Hidden Leaf Village.

Fu: We know a massive multitude of techniques that are incredibly powerful and we use them to defeat our enemies in battle.

Rhinox: It comes with the job description when we fight to protect the world and the universe.

Silverbolt (Beast Wars Combiner): It sure does. It's a great style.

Mai Shiranui: I can see that. Can you teach me?

Me: It's not an easy process. But sure.

Lincoln: I can teach you how to diversify your skills and make your skills unpredictable.

Mai Shiranui: Thanks Lincoln.

Laney: Hey what's that over there?

We looked and we saw a perfectly constructed sandcastle in the sand about 1 mile north.

Me: Wow! Whoever built that castle has amazing skill.

Numbuh 4: (Australian Accent) I know that castle all too well. That's the castle of King Sandy.

Lola: We haven't faced him.

Yuko Tani: No we haven't. But he is a kid that is no older than Lola & Lana and he wanted to marry Numbuh 3 and make her his queen.

Yuko Tani went over his history.

---

King Sandy is a young boy who thinks he is a king and has a crush on Numbuh 3, who he considers his "princess", and later, his "queen". He is served by the "Knights of the Round Towel", who are actually his older cousins.

He was voiced by James Arnold Taylor.

History

Sandy first appeared in Operation: B.E.A.C.H., residing in an oversized sandcastle. He meets Numbuh 3 when his Knights bring him to his sand castle stating that she was found building a castle of her own on the beach.

He is intrigued by her beauty and asks her to be his queen - Numbuh 3, who believes this is all a fun game, says yes, when she doesn't realize he is serious.

He returned in Operation: K.A.S.T.L.E, his castle this time located "Rainbow Monkey Happy Sugar Land", and tries to force Numbuh 3 to marry him, threatening to dump several Rainbow Monkeys into a pot of boiling nacho cheese as blackmail to pressure her into marrying him. She is forced to agree to his terms. By the end of the episode, however, Sandy abandons his pursuit of Numbuh 3 and falls in love with her sister Mushi Sanban, who, unlike the latter, returns his feelings.

He also appears in the online game based on Operation: K.A.S.T.L.E Rainbow Monkey Rundown

---

We gasped!

Me: So Sandy is a kid with a major crush on Kuki?

Numbuh 2: Yeah but now he's in love with Numbuh 3's little sister Mushi.

Numbuh 3: (GROWLS FEROCIOUSLY!)

Me: (GULPS) Scary.

Laney: I do not like that look in her eyes.

Mai Shiranui: I can tell that there is some bad blood between her and her little sister.

Numbuh 2: Yeah ever since an incident that I busted Mushi for. I'm a really good detective as well as the 2x4 Technology Officer of Sector V. Let me tell you how it happened.

Numbuh 2 went over the history of Mushi and what the incident that happened with it.

Numbuh 2: Rainbow Monkeys. Some say they're filled with love. Others say they that every one is made from a great big rainbow. But I say they're nothing but trouble. For instance, I was once at a dinner party where a little girl decided that if she couldn't have her sisters Posh-Party Rainbow Monkey, then no one would. And when a certain detective caught her doing the deed, she paid the price: Grounded for Life with no hope for TV. Everyone thought that was the end of the story. But not me. Some kids just don't know when to leave things buried. Some kids want REVENGE!

---

Mushi Sanban is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. She is the evil younger sister of Numbuh 3 who loves everything she loves, but turns them all into horrific destruction after turning to the dark side.

Personality

Like her sister, Mushi is very childish and overly happy. Unlike her sister however, beneath her outward personality she has a very sinister and conniving personality, despite her age.

History

Her true colors are revealed in "C.L.U.E.S." was when her family were going to a dinner party being host by Numbuh 2's mother to the Gilligan's house over one night. Mushi was jealous because her sister had a Posh Party Rainbow Monkey which sighed every time someone gave it a hug because she wanted that doll all to herself.

She decided that if she couldn't have that doll, then no one else would and when the lights went out, she took it from her sister and hugged it but she forgot one thing: The Posh Party Rainbow Monkey comes with deep care and share sighing. So she brutally stabbed the Posh Party Rainbow Monkey with a dinner fork which is found out by Hoagie. As a result, she was grounded for life with no hope for TV.

Later in "Operation: S.P.A.N.K.E.N.S.T.I.N.E.", Mushi digs up the Rainbow Monkey doll from its burial site at Plush Meadows Stuffed Animal Cemetery and brought it back to life as a Spankenstine Monster using Count Spankulot's powers, and sent it after Numbuh 2 as revenge for the previous incident. However, she was grounded and spanked by Count Spankulot for this, but is then seen escaping from her room with King Sandy.

---

We gasped.

Me: So Mushi will stop at nothing to kill Numbuh 2!

Yuko Tani: That's terrible!

Me: No kidding! But we can't kill Mushi or King Sandy. It goes against our code and I think grounding someone at that age like Mushi for that long is considered overkill.

Nico: No kidding. I wouldn't ground Poromon or Poliwag for that long.

May: Me neither with Manaphy.

Maria: Same with Horsea.

Me: We're gonna have to have a talk with Numbuh 3's parents when we're done here. But first we have to rescue Mushi.

Nico: Good idea and we can have her dark side removed from her and imprison it in the Pluto Prison.

Me: Good plan.

Numbuh 3: I have a better idea. How about we don't save Mushi?!

Numbuh 1: (Scolding Voice) Numbuh 3!

Numbuh 3: Did you all take stupid pills this morning? Did you forget what she did in the past? And now, you're saying we should forget all that?

Numbuh 2: Well, she is your sister.

Numbuh 3: Was my sister. You guys can go save her. I won't. Heck, I won't even mind if you guys Hakai her!

We gasped at hearing that.

Me: (Scolding voice) Numbuh 3! How can you say that!? She's just a little kid half your age! We can't kill a child like Mushi or King Sandy. It goes against our code. If we do that, then we won't be any better than those barbarians that have plagued our planet for centuries during the Dark Ages. They mercilessly slaughtered and massacred innocent people regardless of gender and age! Men, Women, Children, it didn't matter to them and they slaughtered them without a single shred of remorse or compassion! And we will not resort to that! EVER! I know there is still bad blood between you and your sister for what she did to you in the past. But like it or not, she is part of your family just like your friends in Sector V.

Numbuh 362: I agree with J.D., Numbuh 3. She did help you in the past when Cree was running around in that prison transport.

Yuko Tani: I remember that.

Cree: I do too. That was rough.

Me: And Mushi loves Rainbow Monkeys as much as you and Numbuh 86.

Numbuh 86: (Scottish Accent) I can't argue with that.

Me: Yep. But lets go. This is gonna be rough but may God forgive us for hurting a kid like Sandy.

Numbuh 3: I'll go. But I won't like it.

Me: Good.

Numbuh 3: But she is my sister and you guys are right. I do need to forgive her for what she did.

Me: Good. Lets go.

We were off to King Sandy's castle.

---

King Sandy was sitting on his throne and Mushi was with him.

The doors to his throne room opened and we came in and saw KING SANDY!

Me: King Sandy the Dusty, I presume?

King Sandy: Team Loud Phoenix Storm, welcome. It's an honor to meet you all and I see you have Kuki with you.

Numbuh 3: Hmph!

Me: I just find it very creepy that a 6-year-old kid would want to marry a 10-year-old girl regardless of it being a pretend wedding. Er no offense to any of you.

Everyone said none taken.

King Sandy: THE KING DOES NOT PRETEND!

Yuko Tani: You're gonna wish it was pretend when we're done with you.

Lincoln: That's right!

King Sandy: I, I understand you all. You guys had a chance to kill me before and you didn't take it - I bet right now you're wishing you had. I've hurt - a LOT of people, I've raised an army, made sure your KND buddies didn't detect me, and it's not even the 4th of July yet!

Mushi: Show them what we have planned, honey.

I saw the electric chair.

King Sandy: (sits on electric chair) Okay. Okay. So. What my sweetheart holds in her hand is - a heart monitor. Once she clamps it on, every beat of her vacant little heart will charge the battery on this electric chair. And when it's fully charged (makes gesture) BZZZZZ! So either you kill Mushi -

Numbuh 4: Are you nuts?! We're not killing her!

Mushi: But you will. You're all going to fight me with all your resolve. Or you'll die. Someone's going to die: You, me or Sandy. The question of which one of us it is - is in your hands.

Troy: We won't kill you, Mushi. We're going to save you!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Animal Supersquad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Super Beast Squadron Maskman Rangers.

Me: We aren't gonna kill either one of you and neither one of us will die! Killing kids goes against our code.

I snapped my fingers the heart monitor went into my hands and I crushed it with my strength.

King Sandy: KNIGHTS OF THE ROUND TOWEL!

King Sandy's older cousins the Knights of the Round Towel appeared and I kicked their faces and knocked them out with one kick.

Me: Poorly trained.

But then my Signer Mark started to glow.

Me: Uh oh.

Misty Tredwell, Koragg and Hydro Man then appeared.

Me: Misty Tredwell, Koragg and Hydro Man.

Koragg: Nice to see you all here.

Hydro Man: Did you guys spend the entire morning at the beach?

Maria: Actually, yes. We did.

Misty Tredwell: Good to know. We're really sorry about this whole mess. This whole electric chair thing wasn't what we had planned.

Me: I can tell. What happened with that really caught us off guard.

Misty Tredwell: And I know just the planet where we can fight on so we don't get hurt in this castle.

Misty snapped her fingers and we then saw that we were on a wicked cool storm planet and we saw that there were nasty electrical storms and we saw that it was home to XLR8's species, the Kinecelerans and we saw that we were on the planet Kinet!

---

Kinet is the home planet of the Kinecelerans. Kinet is a light blue planet that appears to have 2 moons.

Species

The dominant species of Kinet are the Kinecelerans, who need to be constantly moving because Kinet is full of dangerous electrical storms.

Kinet also contains mollusks, where the Kinecelerans get their roller balls (that are actually pearls) from.

Landscape

Kinet has shown to possess an urban city, a canyon, and a jungle.

---

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! Look at this planet.

Ben: It's amazing. This must be the planet Kinet.

Misty Tredwell: It is. It's home to the Kinecelerans, XLR8's species.

Me: Wow! So this is the Planet Kinet.

THUNDERCLAP!

We saw lightning flash in the skies at an incredible rate and the level of voltage it had was phenomenal.

Me: Wow! The storms on this planet are extremely violent.

Nico: No kidding.

Helen Wheels: This is amazing! I always wondered what the world of my Kineceleran heritage was like. This is an amazing world.

Me: It sure is.

Then a figure came out and we saw that it was the mole Maverick Robot, SLASH BEAST!

Slash Beast: Slash Beast at your service! (charges in Slash Man's direction to attack with his claws)

I kicked him in the face and knocked him down.

Me: Lets do this!

We went at them!

---

Battle 1: Misty Tredwell

---

Persephone was facing Misty Tredwell.

Misty Tredwell: This is gonna be interesting.

Persephone: It sure will be.

Misty Tredwell: I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CCARAYHUA, DRAGON QUEEN OF TRAGIC ENDINGS, REPTILIANNE HYDRA, REPTILIANNE NAGA, REPTILIANNE VASKII, REPTILIANNE SERVANT, REPTILIANNE GARDNA, EVIL DRAGON ANANTA, SKREECH, REPTILIANNE MEDUSA, and REPTILIANNE GORGON!

Misty Tredwell summoned said monsters.

Persephone: Amazing selection.

Misty Tredwell: Indeed.

Persephone: Watch this. I summon ARCHLORD KRISTYA, GUARDIAN EATOS, ATHENA, TETHYS, GODDESS OF LIGHT, VICTORIA, VALKYRIE ERSTE, VALKYRIE ZWEITE, VICTORIA, SOUL OF PURITY AND LIGHT, WINGWEAVER, ELEMENT VALKYRIE, SPIRIT OF THE HARP, HONEST, SPLENDID VENUS, and TIME MAIDEN!

Misty Tredwell: Amazing selection on your part.

Persephone: Thanks. Angels have always fascinated me ever since I was little before I became a goth.

Misty Tredwell: I can see that. Lets do this.

Misty flared up a dark green aura.

Persephone flared up her green aura.

Persephone: Lets.

They went at each other and Persephone kicked Misty in the face and flipped back and fired waves of green fire at her and Misty fired blasts of green energy and the blasts collided and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOMMMM!

Persephone kicked Misty in the stomach and dealt her a powerful uppercut and sent her flying and she fired waves of green fire and the blasts hit her and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked her down and Persephone's monsters fired blasts of energy and light at Misty's monsters and destroyed them in powerful explosions!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Persephone: Yeah!

---

Battle 2: Mushi Sanban

---

Numbuh 3 was facing her own little sister Mushi.

Numbuh 3: Mushi I don't want to do this to you. But you have given me no choice.

Mushi: You are such a hogger of the Rainbow Monkeys!

Numbuh 3 then started glowing in a green aura and she was getting stronger and stronger and stronger. Suddenly a massive explosion of light and green energy exploded high into the sky and it took the form of the mighty Jade Dragon which symbolizes supernatural power, wisdom, strength, and hidden knowledge. When it was done, Numbuh 3 was forever changed. She looked like she was 16 years old and She had longer black hair, emerald green eyes, her sweater revealed her shoulders and she had a black tank top underneath her sweater and she had blue shorts and green socks and she had black tennis shoes. She had a sleeveless green trench coat on with the leaves of the jungle in the front, the symbol of the dragon with the number 3 in its claws and on the back of the trench coat was Rainbow Monkey Island and she had the kanji for Kuki Sanban, Warrior of the Peace of the Jade Dragon and Defender of Rainbow Monkey Island on the back over the island. 玉龍の平和の戦士、レインボーモンキーアイランドの擁護者、久喜三番 She also had angel wings made of jade crystal and leaves. She had become a SUPER ANGEL 20,000 JADE DRAGON RAINBOW!

Mushi was shocked and in a state of fear!

Mushi: Kuki!? What happened to you!?

Numbuh 3: (Older Voice) A change that made me stronger. It's time to show you a lesson in Humility.

Numbuh 3 placed her hands on the ground and vines wrapped around Mushi and tied her up.

Mushi: LET ME GO!

Numbuh 3: You will be relieved of this monster that you have become Mushi. You may have done wrong in the past, but you are still my sister.

Numbuh 3 fired a wave of green light and chanted an incantation and Mushi screamed in pain as a blob of darkness came out of Mushi and separated from her and formed into ANOTHER MUSHI but with evil red eyes!

Numbuh 3: You will never torment my family again!

Numbuh 3 touched the ground and entombed the evil Mushi in a prison of emerald crystal and she beamed it to Pluto Prison.

Numbuh 3 then caught Mushi as she fell and Mushi saw her and then she hugged her and broke down crying into her chest hard.

Mushi: (Crying) I'M SO SORRY MUSHI! I AM SO SORRY I DID ALL THOSE TERRIBLE THINGS TO YOU!

Numbuh 3: It's not your fault Mushi. It's not your fault.

---

Battle 3: Hydro Man

Sarah Gunnerson: This is gonna be good.

Koragg: Indeed it will be. Lets make it a match of honor.

Sarah formed a sword of fire in her hands and Koragg unsheathed his sword.

Sarah Gunnerson: Lets do it.

They went at each other and engaged in a massive and powerful sword fight and sparks were flying all over the place as they clashed and Sarah fired blasts of lava and fire and Koragg fired blasts of wolf fire and blades of energy and Sarah did the same and the blasts collided and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Sarah popped out of the explosion and kicked him in the face and slashed him in the chest and fired blasts of earth and they exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Koragg was knocked down.

Sarah Gunnerson: Yeah!

---

Battle 6: KING SANDY!

---

We regrouped and we were facing King Sandy.

Me: It's over for you King Sandy.

King Sandy: We'll see about that.

Numbuh 3: I won't let you hurt me or Mushi ever again!

We gasped in shock as we saw the transformation of Numbuh 3!

Me: Whoa!

Numbuh 5: Kuki!? Is that you!?

Numbuh 3: It still is me Abigail. I just transformed into a better person.

Mushi was on her back in a carrier made of vines and she was still crying.

Numbuh 362: Mushi was saved?

Numbuh 3: She has been saved. I removed her dark side and sent it to the Pluto Prison.

Nico: Good riddance.

Mai Shiranui: This is amazing!

Me: Yep. Lets get this monster. It's time for an overdue spanking on King Sandy.

Lori: I will literally turn this brat into a human pretzel!

Ronnie Anne: Save seconds for me!

Numbuh 1: KIDS NEXT DOOR! BATTLESTATIONS!

We went at King Sandy and I kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach and Nico kicked him in the face and fired blasts of energy and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted him all over and Helen Wheels went at him with incredible speed and smashed him all over the place and more. Lola fired blasts of fire and burned him all over and Laney formed a whip of bramble vines and lashed his back all over and Lana fired blasts of ice and froze him all over and Lily and Luna fired blasts of water and Mai Shiranui fired blasts of fire at him and burned him all over the place and it REALLY HURT! KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

King Sandy was beaten and defeated.

Me: It's over for you Sandy. Your reign of terror is over.

I tied him up.

King Sandy: (scoffs) Even after all this, you're still not killing me?

Me: No we aren't going to kill you. Like we said, that goes against our code and if we do kill kids like you then we'll be no better than those barbarians from over the centuries that have ruthlessly slaughtered countless innocent men, women and children without a single shred of remorse or compassion.

King Sandy: Mm. You do have a point.

The Masters of Evil came and we were back on Earth.

Me: Good fight. But King Sandy here is in a lot of trouble when he gets home.

Misty Tredwell: I can see that.

Koragg: (To Numbuh 3) Are you not happy to have your sister back?

Numbuh 3: (looks at the unconscious Mushi) Do I even want her back?

Hydro Man: Look, even after everything she did, she's still your sister.

Misty Tredwell: Hydro Man's right. You should cherish the times you have with Mushi from this moment forward. (looks down) I know I should've spent more time with my brother before he died.

Numbuh 3: I guess you're right.

Me: I think I can arrange that.

I snapped my fingers and then Misty heard a voice she hadn't heard in a long time since she became a Dark Signer.

?: Misty?

Misty gasped and she turned and saw her little brother Toby Tredwell alive and back from the dead!

Misty Tredwell: (Tears up) Toby? Is it really you?

Toby: It sure is me sis. I'm back thanks to J.D.

Misty Tredwell: TOBY!

She ran over and hugged hugged him for the first time in a while and she was crying in so much happiness. Misty had her heart fully healed and her soul was repaired.

Misty Tredwell: (Crying) I've missed you so much Toby!

Toby: I missed you too sis. J.D. thank you for bringing me back to Misty.

Me: It's no problem Toby. What Sayer did to you was completely unforgivable. I think we should've killed that monster instead of just letting him rot in prison.

Hydro Man: I think he deserves far worse than that.

Luna Loud: I agree.

Misty Tredwell: I have so much catching up to do with you Toby.

Toby: I know sis.

Misty went over to me and then I got a surprising shock. I was kissed full on the lips from Misty Tredwell and I gladly returned it.

We broke away and Misty was smiling with tears streaming down her face.

Misty Tredwell: Thank you so much J.D.

Me: You're welcome Misty.

Hydro Man: You're one lucky guy J.D.

Koragg: But Kuki be sure to take Misty's advice seriously.

Sandman: You won't regret it, Kuki.

The Masters of Evil and Toby teleport out.

Nico: That was a good thing you did J.D.

Me: Well I couldn't let Misty be without her brother. She was really hurting inside and plus I want Sayer to be in for a nasty shock when he sees Toby back from the dead.

Laney: Good thinking.

Me: Well this was an awesome day at the beach. Lets head home.

We went back home. But before we went home we made a pit stop to the Sanban residence.

Me: Your house is really nice Kuki.

Numbuh 3: Thanks J.D.

We knocked on the door and Kani Sanban answer.

Kani Sanban: (Japanese Accent) Oh hello everyone.

Me: Good day to you Mr. Sanban.

Kani: It's an honor to meet all of you. What brings you all here?

Me: Well we wanted to talk to you about Mushi.

Numbuh 3 showed Mushi on her back.

Numbuh 3: Hey dad.

Kani: (Gasp) Kuki? What happened to you? You became a teenager.

Numbuh 3: It's a long and complicated story dad.

We went inside and explained everything. Numbuh 3's mom Genki was shocked too!

Genki: So whenever you fully power up you change into teenagers?

Me: It's pretty strange but it happens.

Laney: But it's really something.

Nico: It sure is.

Numbuh 3: But mom, we also came here to talk about the punishment you gave to Mushi.

Me: Yeah. That's another reason why we're here. Hoagie told us what happened and we thought that Mushi getting a punishment of Grounded for Life like that is very extreme and a punishment like that is considered overkill. In my opinion it's far too harsh for a girl like Mushi.

Kani: Oh maybe you're right. I was taking my parenting skills too far.

Genki: No you weren't Kani. You were just being a loving father. But that punishment was going overboard. Mushi will be grounded for just a week.

Me: Good. That's more like it.

May: Yeah.

Me: I'm sorry Mushi did that to Kuki. Ever since that incident with Mrs. Gilligan, Kuki had a huge vendetta against Mushi. Bad Blood.

Genki: I don't blame her.

Numbuh 3: But I'll be a better big sister to her from now on and I will start sharing.

Genki: I'm glad.

Me: Great.

Nico: Awesome.

Sandman: (To the viewers) Sharing is caring and it is a perfect way to bond with friends and family.

Me: It sure is. Lets head home.

We later went back home. Mai Shiranui was made an honorary member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. But some people didn't get off with a light slap on the wrist. King Sandy got dropped off at his home and when we revealed his parents everything, he paid the price: Grounded for Life with no hope for TV or dessert.

THE END

Another awesome Kids Next Door chapter done.

King Sandy from Codename: Kids Next Door was a funny villain and a silly kid and king. This was an awesome day at the beach turned into an awesome adventure! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up for the 4th of July tomorrow is an adventure into the American Revolutionary War where we help Colonel Benjamin Martin take on the evil Redcoats of the British in the Siege of Yorktown!

See you all tomorrow.

Independence Day Fun and Battles

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY 2020 EVERYONE!

---

At the estate we were getting ready for a very special and very important day. It was July 4th, 2020 and it was the 244th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence which gave us our freedom this day on July 4th, 1776.

Horsea, Poliwag, Manaphy, and Poromon: HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY, EVERYBODY!

Francis: Same to you guys!

Me: 244 years of Freedom. It was on this day 244 years ago when we were made a free country.

Lincoln: Yep. So awesome.

We were hanging up red, white and blue decorations and we had the food for the barbecue ready. We had all kinds of meats ready for smoking and cooking. Condiments and more.

Nico: This is gonna be so cool!

Laney: I know. My favorite part of the 4th of July is the barbecues and the history as well as the fireworks.

Nico: Mine too Laney.

Sophocles: Muscle Man, do you know where we can get fireworks?

Muscle Man: I sure do. There's an awesome fireworks shop that I know in the middle of town.

Sophocles: Cool!

Laney: Lets go get the fireworks while everything is getting set up.

Nico: Okay.

Muscle Man, Rattrap, Waspinator, Nico and Laney went to town to get the fireworks.

Muscle Man: Did I ever tell you guys how me and some of the park workers got fireworks?

Waspinator: Waspinator want to hear more!

Muscle Man: It was a funny story.

Muscle Man told them about what happened when the 4th of July came for them.

---

On the morning of the Fourth of July, Muscle Man attempts a bouncing firework trick, with Mordecai, Rigby, and Hi-Five Ghost as his audience. He pulls it off, but a spark from one of the fireworks winds up igniting the master fuse, setting off all the fireworks. The sight of this enrages Benson, who, in his rage, says that Muscle Man has ruined the Fourth of July. However, when Muscle Man convinces him he can get more before sundown, Benson agrees, on the condition that he, Mordecai, Rigby and Hi-Five Ghost will all be fired if he is unable to get them, despite it being all Muscle Man's fault, before driving off.

The four drive to a warehouse in the desert, the "South of the Line", which, according to Rigby, sells fireworks, as well as the supposedly spicy-hot, South-of-the-Line Chili Rellenos. Muscle Man explains that the owner, Hector, is a friend of his, and also sells fireworks on the down-low. The four are taken inside by the criminal employees to meet Hector, who is initially happy to see Muscle Man, but quickly becomes angry when they ask for the fireworks. He reluctantly agrees to sell them a box of fireworks, but at double price, due to the purchase being last-minute. The gang couldn't afford a whole box, so they ask for a single, powerful firework, "El Diablo", but Hector refuses, saying that the firework would kill him if it was lit, After Muscle Man begs him for help, he agrees to give them the box of fireworks, but only if the gang can deliver a package with no questions asked.

The gang are successful in the delivery, but while waiting for another package to deliver to Hector, Rigby gets anxious, and opens the back door, which leads to the chili relleno factory. They then find out that the package they delivered was a box of gunpowder, the secret ingredient added to each chili relleno for spice. When Armando, the man they delivered the gunpowder to, spots them, the gang are bagged up and brought back to Hector's warehouse.

The gang are unbagged as they are chained to a bench, with Hector waiting. Hector lectures the gang with the fact that each chili relleno contains more gunpowder than is approved by the FDA, and that he is going to kill them for discovering the secret. He then lights an improvised explosive made from the chili rellenos, and goes to the neighboring room to watch through a window with his thugs. However, the gang then blows up the bench by turning around and having the chili rellenos explode behind their backs, and then flee, but not before Rigby steals the El Diablo firework, and Muscle Man uses a chili relleno as another improvised explosive that destroys the warehouse. As they flee, Rigby notices that the sun is going down, which prompts Muscle Man to hit the accelerator, just as the roof of the cart is burning.

At the park, a huge crowd has gathered for the fireworks and are beginning to grow restless. Benson announces over a microphone for them to remain patient. When the gang arrive, Benson is furious they only got one firework, and fires them all. Hector suddenly appears, having survived the explosion (though with exposed robotic body parts, a la The Terminator). He holds the six at gunpoint, and states that he's going to kill them all, one by one, starting with Benson. The gang of four then begin to insult Hector's chili rellenos. However, Hector aims towards them instead and shoots a firework. The gang, plus six, jump out of the way, causing the firework to hit the El Diablo, and set it off, revealing its true form as the South of the Line Chili Rellenos mascot. It does tricks for the adoring crowd, and then turns to Hector. The mascot then pulls out a shotgun and shoots Hector several times with fireworks, catapulting him through the air, and landing him on his billboard, where he explodes, setting off every firework in the warehouse.

Everyone cheers as they watch the spectacular show. Benson then agrees to rehire Mordecai, Rigby, Muscle Man and Hi-Five Ghost, on the condition that they must replace all the grass they burnt. The episode ends as Muscle Man says he knows a guy who sells "real cheap sod".

---

Laney: Wow! That was intense!

Nico: It sure was. But if Hector does come back we will be ready for him and it'll be his last.

Muscle Man: Yep.

They arrived at the Firework Shop called El Diablo Fireworks and Rockets. They went in.

Casey Jones is the owner of the shop.

Casey Jones: Hey guys!

Nico: Hey Casey. Happy Independence Day.

Casey Jones: Same to you.

Muscle Man: We came to get some awesome fireworks man.

Casey Jones: Sure thing. Look around.

They did so and bought all kinds of fireworks: Roman Candles, pop bottle rockets, M80s, and so much more. Even those awesome big fireworks known in awesome firework shows and they even bought the biggest firework ever called THE ULTIMATE BOMB!

Later we had everything set up and Nico and everyone else came back.

Nico: Hey guys.

Me: Hey guys. Wow! You guys got all kinds of fireworks. Those will be perfect at dark.

Nico: Yep.

Rattrap: Hey, Muscle Man. This time, how about not setting off the fireworks until it's time, huh?

Muscle Man: I will.

We got everything ready and we also had a really awesome outdoor movie theater set up for when we watch our movie for Independence Day. The Masters of Evil all then arrived.

Vypra: Hey guys.

Luan: Hey Vypra.

Me: Happy Independence Day to you all.

Dark Spicer: Same to you.

Hydro Man: This is gonna be awesome.

Laney: Mom went to go get our sister Leena from the nuthouse for the holiday.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) I didn't know you had another sister.

Me: Well she is not with us because she has Schizophrenia. Rita had her committed to the insane asylum because she was hurting Lincoln and they diagnosed her with Schizophrenia and they had her committed there.

Carly Carmine: Oh man. I'm so sorry.

Me: It's not all bad for her. Leena came to terms with her illness and she realized how dangerous she was. But we arranged for her to have some time with us on the major holidays.

Misty Tredwell: That's cool.

Toby: I'm glad.

Me: Are you and Toby fully caught up Misty?

Misty Tredwell: We sure are and it's great having him back.

Me: Aw think nothing of it.

Professor Calamitous: J.D. this is my daughter Beautiful Gorgeous.

I saw a beautiful young woman that looked so much like a James Bond Villainous and she reminded me of Xenia Onatopp from Goldeneye. It was BEAUTIFUL GORGEOUS.

---

Gorgeous first appeared in the two-part episode "Operation: Jet Fusion", when Jimmy and his friends, Carl and Sheen, were assigned to save a secret organization's best agent, the boys' favorite actor, Jet Fusion. During their mission, they get rescued after swimming a long time in the Atlantic Ocean by Gorgeous. At first, she acts kindly and flirty with them, but once Carl states they're spies, she reveals her killer personality and tries to murder them, but Jimmy uses a magnet to trap her in her boat as they escape. Later, at Mount Everest, Calamitous reveals Gorgeous is his daughter, and tells her to put Jimmy and Fusion in a trap, but he hypnotizes her into standing still and he and jet make their way out. Gorgeous, when Calamitous awakens her from the trance she was in, is later seen falling down Mount Everest along with her father in a giant snowball, only to fall straightly into a community of police-related monks who arrest both on the spot.

She is later seen trying to actually marry Jet Fusion, much to the boys' shock. However, it is another one of her schemes, this time for Jimmy: she brainwashes Jet Fusion to go berserk every time someone says "I have the ring", and when Jimmy discovers her plan, she, in revenge for hypnotizing her, hypnotizes him too forget his suspicions in order to make him be the one to say the line, so he will be tore to pieces by Fusion, making him the culprit and be arrested. However, Carl and Sheen make him remember Gorgeous' plan and they make the whole church sing "I have the ring", snapping Fusion out of his trance. He then arrests Beautiful Gorgeous again, still feeling a little saddened.

Later, she appears in "League of Villains" as a supporting antagonist where she, along with her father Finbarr Calamitous, King Goobot, Grandma Taters, Eustace Strych, Baby Eddie, Junkman and the three space bandits form the League of Villains to get revenge on Jimmy Neutron for foiling their evil plans. She is first seen in the ship with the other villains saying she broke out of prison and later she is seen still on the ship with the Junkman while the other villains look for Jimmy. Later, when Jimmy is captured by the villains, she is seen in the jury during Jimmy's trial. She and the Junkman are later affected by the love potion and start kissing each other, disgusting the other villains, especially Professor Calamitous. She is finally shown with the other villains being attacked by a T-Rex.

Me: Wow it's a pleasure to meet you Beautiful.

Beautiful Gorgeous: Same to you J.D. Father told me so much about you all.

Me: I'm sure. After today we may have a new arch nemesis for you.

Beautiful Gorgeous: Rita sounds perfect for me.

Me: I think so too.

Beautiful Gorgeous: Look, whatever's going on between you and my Dad's group, I'd appreciate if you leave me out of it. But you can still take Junkman out. I always was disgusted by him.

Me: I can tell. But if we see him he will be destroyed.

Beautiful Gorgeous: Thank you.

Me: Also you remind me of Xenia Onatopp from the James Bond movie GoldenEye.

Beautiful Gorgeous: I do look like her don't I?

Me: Beautiful, Charismatic and very dangerous.

We laughed.

Rita came into the driveway and she had Leena with her.

Rita: Here we are sweetie.

Leena: Wow! Our house is massive!

Rita: We've made a lot of upgrades ever since we became Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Leena: Amazing.

They got out and we saw Leena.

Leena: Hey dad. It's been a while.

Lynn Sr.: I know sweetie.

They hugged for the first time in 8 years.

Lynn Sr.: I'm sorry I couldn't come and visit you.

Leena: I know dad. J.D. told me everything and it's gonna be cool hanging with you for the holidays.

Me: We arranged for Leena to hang with us on the major holidays. She goes back to the Mental Hospital tomorrow.

Vypra: I see.

Leena: Don't worry, I have my medication with me for today.

Me: Good.

We got everything ready for our barbecue and more and Laney, Lynn Sr. and Lily were at the barbecuer and smoker cooking the meats and it was awesome.

Ned Flanders: This is a hi-didilly ho of an amazing party J.D.

Me: It sure is Ned.

Homer: But it's all good food.

Me: The fireworks are gonna be just as good.

Later we got to serving the food and we had all kinds of smoked meats and smoked vegetables for Lisa Simpson and Jared. We had ham, hamburgers, sausages, steak, chicken, bacon, drumsticks, ribs and more. We also had coleslaw, potato salad, baked beans, macaroni salad, fruit, vegetables and so much more. Nico was having a 7 pound smoked meat sandwich and it was loaded with 10 different kinds of smoked meats and 4 kinds of barbecue sauce. Homer had his own barbecuer and it was the one he had from Season 27 episode 2. It was a cool beehive shaped barbecuer he got called The Hive and it was awesome! It was awesome.

Me: Boy Homer, you cook really good barbecue.

Homer: Thanks J.D.

Lisa Simpson: Mmm. Smokey carrots.

Jared: Really delicious.

Laney: (Drools) It's so delicious.

We were having all kinds of awesome food and more. Later we were stuffed and more.

Me: Ahh. Boy am I stuffed.

Laney: Me too.

Lincoln: Some of the best barbecue we've ever had.

Comic Book Guy: Me too. Best. Barbecue. Ever.

Me: I'm glad you all liked it.

Skinner: It was really delicious.

Me: Awesome.

Later we got ready for movie time and we were watching Mel Gibson's movie from the year 2000: The Patriot.

During the American Revolutionary War in 1776, Captain Benjamin Martin, a veteran of the French and Indian War and a widower with seven children, is called to Charleston to vote in the South Carolina General Assembly on a levy supporting the Continental Army. Fearing war against Great Britain, Benjamin abstains; the vote is nonetheless passed and, against his father's wishes, Benjamin's eldest son Gabriel joins the Continentals.

Four years later, Charleston falls to the British and a wounded Gabriel returns home carrying dispatches. The Martins care for both British and American wounded from a nearby battle, before British Dragoons, led by Colonel William Tavington, arrive, capture Gabriel with the intention of hanging him as a spy, and take captive the African American free men and women who work on Benjamin's land. When Benjamin's second son Thomas tries to free Gabriel, he is shot and killed by Tavington, who then orders the Martins' house burned, and wounded Americans executed. After the British leave, Benjamin gives his next two eldest sons rifles, and they ambush the British unit escorting the captive Gabriel. Benjamin skillfully, yet brutally, kills many soldiers with his tomahawk. A British survivor tells Tavington of the attack, earning Benjamin the moniker of the "Ghost". Gabriel decides to rejoin the Continentals and Benjamin soon follows, leaving the younger children in the care of Benjamin's sister-in-law, Charlotte. On their way to the Continental Army's camp, they witness the southern Continental Army under General Horatio Gates engaging the British Army. Benjamin recognizes the foolishness of the action, having served in the British Army; sure enough, the Continentals are decisively routed.

Benjamin meets his former commanding officer, Colonel Harry Burwell, who makes him colonel of the local colonial militia due to his combat experience and also places Gabriel under Benjamin's command. Benjamin is tasked with keeping Lord Cornwallis's regiments pinned south through guerrilla warfare. French Major Jean Villeneuve helps train the militia and promises more French aid.

Gabriel asks why Villeneuve and others often mention Benjamin's participation in an incident at Fort Wilderness. Benjamin, having been hesitant to answer the question up to now, finally tells his son. Benjamin had been fighting in the British Army in the previous war when he and several other soldiers discovered a French atrocity against the British. The enraged men caught up with the French at Fort Wilderness and slowly, methodically butchered all but two of them. The survivors were forced to admit what happened to their Cherokee allies and to bring their comrades' heads as proof. Benjamin reveals that he has been haunted by guilt ever since.

Benjamin's militia harasses British supply lines, even capturing some of Cornwallis' personal effects and his two Great Danes, and burn half the bridges and ferries leading to Charleston. Lord Cornwallis blames Tavington for creating this reaction with his brutal tactics. However, irritated at the lack of progress, and insulted by Benjamin's clever ploy to free some of the captured militia, Cornwallis reluctantly allows Tavington to stop Benjamin by any means necessary.

With the reluctant aid of the Loyalist Captain Wilkins, Tavington learns the identities of some militia members and attacks their families and burns their homes. Benjamin's family flees Charlotte's plantation as it is burned to live in a Gullah settlement with former black slaves. There, Gabriel marries his betrothed Anne. Tavington's brigade rides into the town that supplies the militia. He assembles all the townspeople, including Anne, into the church, promising freedom in exchange for the whereabouts of the rebels. After their location is given, he has the doors barricaded, and orders the church to be burned, killing everyone inside. When they discover the tragedy, Gabriel and several other soldiers race to attack Tavington's encampment. In the ensuing battle, Gabriel shoots Tavington, but Tavington mortally wounds Gabriel before fleeing. Benjamin arrives soon thereafter, only to have another of his sons die in his arms.

Benjamin mourns and wavers in his commitment to continue fighting, but is resolved when reminded of his son's dedication to the cause by finding an American flag he repaired. Martin's militia, along with a larger Continental Army regiment, confronts Cornwallis' regiment in a decisive battle at the Battle of Cowpens. The British appear to have the upper hand until Benjamin rallies the troops forward against their lines and Tavington rushes to attack him. The two fight and Tavington attains the upper hand, delivering several wounds to Benjamin. Benjamin slumps to his knees, and Tavington prepares to deliver the coup de grâce. At the last second, Benjamin dodges the attack and stabs Tavington, avenging his sons' deaths. The battle is a Continental victory, and Cornwallis sounds the retreat.

After many retreats, Cornwallis is besieged at Yorktown, Virginia where he surrenders to the surrounding Continental Army and the long-awaited French naval force. After the conflict ends, Benjamin returns with his family, with Charlotte carrying their new baby, and discovers his militia soldiers rebuilding his homestead in their old town road.

---

We saw the brutal parts of the war from over 240 years ago and it was making Nico cry when he saw Tavington do all those despicable crimes to Benjamin Martin and his entire family. May comforted him. When the movie was done we were shocked that the British could be that despicable back then over 240 years ago.

Electro: Aw, dude. I thought the British were bad back then but this is even worse!

Me: Blame King George III for that. He didn't want us to be free back then all those years ago.

Carly Carmine: What was the primary cause of the Revolutionary War all those years ago?

Me: Believe it or not, Opposition of Britain's control of us during the 18th Century. The war started in 1773 with the Boston Tea Party. Get ready for some history.

Jessie K.: I'll tell it dad.

Jessie then revealed the full extent of the history of the American Revolutionary War.

---

The American Revolutionary War (1775-1783), also known as the American War of Independence, was initiated by the thirteen original colonies against the Kingdom of Great Britain over their objection to Parliament's direct taxation and its lack of colonial representation. The overthrow of British rule established the United States of America as the first republic in modern history extending over a large territory.

Early British policy for empire in North America was one of salutary neglect. It largely left the settlers there alone to govern themselves. After 1763 Britain gained a new expanded Empire, and Parliament turned to the Navigation Acts to increase revenues. That provoked unrest among the Thirteen Colonies that continued into the next decade. To punish the 1773 Boston Tea Party, Parliament's Intolerable Acts closed the port of Boston and suspended their colonial legislature, as Royal Governors then did elsewhere. Twelve colonial house assemblies sent delegates to the First Continental Congress. It coordinated a systematic boycott of British goods, then called for a second congress. The Second Continental Congress appointed George Washington in June 1775 as its commander in chief to create a Continental Army and to oversee the Siege of Boston. Their July 1775 Olive Branch Petition was answered by King George III with a Proclamation of Rebellion. Congress then passed the Declaration of Independence in July 1776.

After evicting the British from Boston in 1775, Congress then sponsored an attack on British Quebec, but it failed. The British commander in chief, General Sir William Howe then launched a British counter- offensive, capturing New York City. Washington retaliated with harassing attacks at Trenton and Princeton. In 1777, the British launched an invasion from Quebec to isolate New England. Howe's 1777-78 Philadelphia campaign captured the city. But the British lost an army at Saratoga in October 1777. At Valley Forge that winter, Washington built a professional army. The American victory at Saratoga convinced the French to enter into treaties for trade and to defend US independence from Britain in 1778.

Spanish Louisiana Governor Bernardo Gálvez cleared British forces from Spanish territory. This allowed supplies north from the Spanish and American privateers for the 1779 Virginia militia conquest of Western Quebec (later the US Northwest Territory). He then expelled British forces from Mobile, Alabama and Pensacola, cutting off British military assistance to their Indian allies in the interior South. Howe's replacement, General Sir Henry Clinton, then mounted a 1778 "Southern strategy" from Charleston. After initial success taking Savannah, their losses at King's Mountain and Cowpens led to the British southern army retreat to Yorktown. A decisive French naval victory brought the October 1781 surrender of the second British army lost in the American Revolution.

In early 1782, Parliament voted to end all offensive operations in America, and in December 1782 George III spoke from the British throne for US independence. In April 1783, Congress accepted the British- proposed treaty that met its peace demands including independence and sovereignty west to the Mississippi River. On September 3, 1783, the Treaty of Paris was signed between Great Britain and the United States, recognizing the United States, making peace between the two nations, and formally ending the American Revolution.

We were shocked.

Laney: Wow. It's awful that all that happened all those years ago.

Me: I know. From 1775 to 1783 for 8 years, 4 months and 15 days, it was a brutal war that decided the fate of America.

Nico: And it was thanks to the help of France that we won.

Lincoln: Why did the French help us back then?

Me: The French hated England for the humiliating defeat that they dealt them during the Seven Years War from 1756 to 1763. So they decided to help us by forming a huge blockade with their navy to prevent the British from escaping or entering.

Lana: That's good that they helped us.

Lola: It sure was. Marinette your country did a big service for us back then.

Marinette: That's right.

Lincoln: But what William Tavington did to Benjamin Martin's family was unforgivable.

Nico: No kidding. What he did makes my blood boil and his crimes are pure evil.

Me: It was over 240 years ago. But I agree with you Nico. Lets see what it says about him.

I pulled up his information.

Colonel William Tavington, simply known as William Tavington, is the main antagonist in the 2000 historical war film The Patriot.

He was portrayed by Jason Isaacs, who also portrayed Lucius Malfoy in the Harry Potter films, Captain Hook in the 2003 film Peter Pan, Zhao in Avatar: The Last Airbender, Satan in the Castlevania: Lords of Shadow video game and its sequel, and Dick Dastardly in Scoob!.

When a young man named Gabriel Martin signs up to join the Continental Army during the American Revolution in 1776, he is eventually forced to return home to his father, a French and Indian War veteran named Benjamin, and his six siblings following the Siege of Charleston. The wounded Gabriel is accompanied by many British and American soldiers who were also injured during the battle, but as Benjamin and his family take care of them, Tavington and his Dragoons appear in an attempt to arrest Gabriel. When Benjamin's son Thomas tries to free Gabriel from Tavington's men, Tavington shoots him dead. As Benjamin grieves for his son, Tavington has his house burned down and orders every wounded American soldier to be executed. Benjamin and his other two sons, Nathan and Samuel, track the redcoats holding Gabriel and brutally murder them. Tavington hears this news from a lone survivor, though he is unable to discover who is behind the massacre and labels the assailant as the "Ghost".

Benjamin is soon given the rank of colonel by his former commanding officer, Colonel Harry Burwell, and he and Gabriel then plan to fight the British forces. Lord Cornwallis, a general in the British army and who Tavington is serving under, discovers that the "Ghost" and his followers have been attacking his units, stealing his belongings (including his two Great Danes given to him by King George III) and destroying his ferries heading to Charleston. An irritated Cornwallis blames Tavington for provoking the attackers with his brutal mannerisms, yet Tavington manages to persuade Cornwallis to allow him to use these mannerisms to deal with them. Tavington goes out in search of the identities of some of the assailants and kills their families before burning their houses down. He discovers Benjamin's identity and travels to the house of Benjamin's sister-in-law, Charlotte, who is looking after his children. Tavington and his men search the house but Charlotte and the children manage to hide from them. Tavington later rides to the town that supplies Benjamin's forces and assembles its inhabitants within the church, claiming that they will be forgiven for their actions if they reveal to him where Benjamin's secret hideout is located. One man reveals the location to him but Tavington has the church burned down anyway, killing everyone inside, including Gabriel's new wife Anne.

Gabriel hears word of Tavington's slaughter and furiously attacks him and his men at their encampment. When only Tavington remains, Gabriel shoots him and he collapses to the ground. Unsure if he is dead or not, Gabriel approaches the body in an attempt to stab him, only to have Tavington rise up and stab Gabriel himself before fleeing. Benjamin arrives and cradles his dying son in his arms, but manages to gather enough strength to continue fighting after being reminded of Gabriel's dedication to the cause.

Benjamin, his followers, and a Continental Army regiment later attack Cornwallis' forces in a grueling battle, during which Tavington targets Benjamin personally. Benjamin manages to knock Tavington off his horse and prepares to shoot him, but ends up hitting him in the shoulder after an explosion distracts his aim. Tavington attacks Benjamin with a sword and despite Benjamin's attempts to block him, he is soon beaten and Tavington prepares to deliver the final blow. However, Benjamin ducks just in time and grabs a bayonet lying nearby before stabbing Tavington in the gut. Tavington stumbles and gasps, and Benjamin finally avenges his two sons by stabbing Tavington once more through the throat, killing him.

---

We gasped.

Me: Now it's personal.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Nothing good ever comes from war. All it does is bring death, destruction, chaos and pain.

Vince: That's right.

Me: Also I found out a couple of years ago that I am descended from William Bradford in the American Revolutionary War.

Everyone gasped.

Lincoln: Wow! That is amazing!

Me: Yep. My grandmother Jo Knudson from my dad's side is a member of the D.A.R.

Vince: The Daughters of the American Revolution.

Me: Yep. I am a direct descendant of William Bradford. He was an Attorney General for Philadelphia that fought during the Battle of Trenton.

(True in real life)

Laney: Wow! That's incredible.

Lana: It sure is.

Lola: Incredible.

Me: Lets head to the simulator and take down Tavington!

Nico: Yeah!

Everyone cheered.

Toby: This is gonna be so cool!

Me: Yep.

We went to the simulator for a big battle in the American Revolutionary War.

---

In the Simulator we got ready for an awesome battle in the American Revolution. We were gonna head back in time essentially. The Simulator activated and we were in the American Revolution in South Carolina in 1781.

Me: Here we are guys. South Carolina, 1781.

We saw that there wasn't much in America from back in the 18th Century. It was mostly trees and small villages.

Laney: Wow. It's just like I have read.

Lola: It's beautiful.

Nico: It's much different than what it is in the 21st century.

Myotismon: It sure is.

Me: We're gonna have to change our appearances to adapt to this time.

I snapped my fingers and changed our clothes to those of the American Minutemen of the 1700s.

Me: Nice.

Nico: I look awesome. I've always wondered how it would be to wear clothes like these.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja.

Me: Hunter you're gonna have to disguise your voice so they don't find out you're German. They'll think you're part of the Hessians from the Battle of Trenton.

Hunter: Ja. (Clears throat) (Philadelphia Accent) How's this?

Me: Perfect. How did you learn how to do that?

Hunter: I watched a lot of movies about Philadelphia.

Me: Awesome.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) Better do the same thing as well. (Clears throat) (New York Accent) This should do just fine.

Me: Perfect. Lets go.

We went to Charleston and we saw that it was a small town.

Me: Charleston, South Carolina. It's amazing that it was this small back then.

Dark Spicer: It's amazing back then.

We got to the outskirts of Charleston and we saw Benjamin Martin being confronted by COLONEL WILLIAM TAVINGTON!

Me: There he is. Lets go!

We went to Benjamin Martin and faced him!

Me: Colonel William Tavington.

Nico: You will pay for your crimes!

Dark Spicer: Here's your warning: Your fucking ass is about to be kicked!

Me: Yeah!

Laney: Big time!

Benjamin Martin: Before this war is over, I'm going to kill you.

Colonel William Tavington: (British Accent) Why wait? (Dark Spicer pulls out his blaster) You better shoot me right now because the next time I see any of you, you'll be joining that stupid boy.

Me: He's in Heaven and you'll be going to Hell!

Tavington rode off on his horse.

Me: We'll face him again.

Benjamin Martin: Thanks for helping me.

Me: You're welcome. Sorry we should introduce ourselves. I'm James Dean Knudson and we all are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

We introduced ourselves.

Benjamin Martin: Amazing.

Me: This also sounds crazy but we are also not from this time. We came here from 240 years into the future from the year 2020.

Benjamin Martin: That's incredible. I appreciate you all for coming to help us win the war.

Nico: We'll gladly do what we can to help out.

Marinette: Yeah.

Chloe Bourgeois: We won't let the British take America.

Adrien: That's right.

Benjamin Martin: You all are true American heroes to our country.

Me: Thank you.

But then we smelled something.

Bane: Do any of you smell smoke?

Me: Yeah I sure do.

Carly Carmine: It's coming from that church!

We saw a church completely on fire.

Nico: Oh no!

Nico flew in there and busted inside and got all the people inside it out of it before it burned to the ground.

Me: Way to go Nico!

Lana: Good save!

Vypra: It sure was.

Anne Howard was coughing.

Benjamin Martin: Are you all right Anne?

Anne Howard: Thanks to this brave young man here.

Nico: It was no trouble.

Me: Now Tavington has dug his own grave.

Benjamin Martin: He sure has.

Nico: The Martin kids are gonna be all right.

Benjamin Martin: Thank you so much Nico.

Nico: You're welcome.

Me: Now it's personal.

We then went to the Battle of Cowpens, a decisive factor during the American Revolutionary War and it was located near Cowpens, South Carolina.

Me: This is it guys.

Misty Tredwell: Toby, stay with the Martin kids. Take out any Redcoats that go near them.

Toby: Got it sis!

I hand Toby a Muzzleloader rifle and it had some gunpowder and some lead ball bullets.

Me: Do you know how to use a Muzzleloader, Toby?

A thoroughfare for freedom beat

Across the wilderness!

America! America!

God mend thine every flaw,

Confirm thy soul in self-control,

Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved

In liberating strife,

Who more than self their country loved

And mercy more than life!

America! America!

May God thy gold refine,

Till all success be nobleness,

And every gain divine!

O beautiful for patriot dream

That sees beyond the years

Thine alabaster cities gleam

Undimmed by human tears!

America! America!

God shed His grace on thee

And crown thy good with brotherhood

From sea to shining sea!

Wrath of the Dark Avatar

In the backyard, I was meditating by the tree and Nico and the girls were by the lake. The girls were gonna try their shark forms to catch some fish.

Maria: You girls sure you wanna hunt for fish as sharks?

Sarah Gunnerson: We're positive.

Gwen Tennyson: This is gonna be fun.

Tara: It sure will.

Nico: Okay.

Raven: Just don't give in to your shark minds. We don't want another rampage.

Nico: Yeah.

Tara: We'll be all right.

The girls then transformed into their shark forms.

Energon Scorponok: Do you girls still have your minds so far?

Jen: So far yes.

Tara: Lets do it girls.

Girls: SHARK DIVE!

They dove into the water.

Nico: While we wait I think it would be awesome to give Qin her own Miraculous.

Marinette: Good idea Nico.

Qin was sitting under the tree reading a book. She was reading a mystery book. Mysteries have always been her favorite.

Qin: What in the world has that monster done?

Nico: Hey Qin?

Qin: Yeah Nico?

Nico: I think it would be awesome if you have your own Miraculous.

Qin: Really like you, Marinette, J.D. and everyone?

Nico: Yep.

Marinette: I think the Mermaid Miraculous will be perfect for you.

Qin: Cool!

Marinette opened a box and it had a beautiful bracelet and out of it came a beautiful mermaid Miraculous. Her name was Merus.

Merus: Hello I'm Merus, the Mermaid Miraculous.

Qin: It's a pleasure to meet you. I'm Qin Chen.

Merus: It's a pleasure to meet you too Qin.

Nico: Try her out Qin.

Qin: Okay. Merus can I see what happens when we become like Marinette and the team?

Merus: Sure.

Qin: Okay. Here we go.

She put on the bracelet.

Qin: MERUS, SPLASH DOWN!

The bracelet glowed and Qin then glowed and she had an awesome aqua blue sleeveless body suit, fin arm bands appeared on her arms, her hair had aqua blue highlights in it and her sclera in her eyes turned aqua blue, she also had a deadly and powerful aqua blue trident in her arms and she spun it around. Fin leg bands appeared on her legs and a beautiful sleeveless ocean trench coat appeared and it had a mermaid on the back and it had the kanji for Qin Chen, Mermaid of the Ocean Flame of the Mermaid of Justice on the back. 正義の人魚の海の炎の人魚、秦陳 She even had her wings changed from dark green to aqua blue and they had blue fire on them and some of the feathers were made of water. She now has the power to breathe underwater, talk to fish and move through the water unimpeded like Aquaman. In this form she is known as Ocean Storm!

Qin: Wow! I look amazing!

Nico: You sure do Qin.

Laney: So beautiful.

Lana: Yeah.

The girls came back.

Tara: Hey guys we're back.

Cerebros: What fish did you girls get?

Gwen Tennyson: We caught salmon and trout.

Nico: Those will be perfect for tonight's dinner.

Tara: Cool. (Sees Qin) Wow! Qin you look amazing!

Qin: Thanks Tara. I now have my own Miraculous.

Laney: It's true.

I just finished meditating.

Me: Hey guys. Have fun?

Nico: We sure did. The girls caught all kinds of fish for dinner in their shark forms.

Me: Cool! Those will be perfect for dinner.

Laney: Yep.

Lynn then came out with a panicked look.

Lynn: Guys we've got trouble!

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the computer and we saw that Korra's evil uncle Unalaq was up to no good and causing trouble! Also we saw that he was going to annihilate the entirety of the human race and was gonna release the evil spirit of darkness Vaatu to do it! Starting with Korra!

---

Unalaq is one of the two main antagonists (alongside Vaatu) of Book 2: Spirits and a posthumous antagonist of Book 3: Change in the Legend of Korra. He is Korra's uncle and second archenemy, the younger brother of Tonraq (Korra's father), and the father of the twins Desna and Eska. Though he initially seemed to be a well-meaning individual who offers to train Avatar Korra in the ways of the Spirits, his villainous side was revealed when it's learned that he was the one responsible for the banishment of his brother Tonraq from the Northern Water Tribe. His villainy becomes even more apparent when it is revealed that he is working for Vaatu. He was also the first (and only) Dark Avatar for a day.

He was voiced by Adrian LaTourelle.

Past

Unalaq was the second child to be born to the Chief of the Northern Water Tribe, his brother Tonraq being the first. As he was growing up, Unalaq took a fascination towards the Spirits, as well as their ways. It was also revealed that Unalaq was always jealous of his older brother, Tonraq, and that he wanted to become the Chief of the Northern Water Tribe. So as to become next in line, Unalaq devised a plan to get his brother banished. Unalaq hired a small army of Barbarians to attack the Northern Water Tribe. After the Barbarians managed to get Tonraq's attention, they were to retreat to a Spiritual Forest, to which Tonraq destroyed the forest to find them. Later that night, after Tonraq captured the Barbarians, angry Spirits attacked the Northern Water Tribe. With his knowledge of the Spirits, Unalaq managed to subdue all of them with ease and pinned the blame of the attack on Tonraq destroying the forest. Enraged, the Chief of the Northern Water Tribe, their father, banished Tonraq to the Southern Water Tribe. With his brother banished, Unalaq became next in line to become Chief of the Northern Water Tribe.

At one point Unalaq joined the anarchist organization known as the Order of the Red Lotus, which opposed the Order of the White Lotus for becoming servant to the Avatar. As years went by, Unalaq eventually became the Chief of the Northern Water Tribe, got married, and eventually had two kids, the twins Desna and Eska. Unalaq eventually found out that his brother was the father of the latest Avatar - Korra.

Unalaq planned to have Korra join the Red Lotus and indoctrinate her into their beliefs so that she would release Vatuu and instructed four members of the organization, Zaheer, Ghazan, P'Li, and Ming-Hua to kidnap his niece. Unalaq secretely planned to backstab his fellow Red Lotus members and take Vaatu's power for himself. The kidnapping failed when Fire Lord Zuko, Tenzin, Tonraq, and Sokka interfered. Unalaq assisted in the imprisonment of his fellow Red Lotus members to prevent anyone from knowing about his involvement in the kidnapping.

Becoming Korra's Teacher

6 months after Korra defeated Amon, Unalaq and his children came to visit his family at the Southern Water Tribe, while attending the Glacier Spirits Festival. He stated that he was disappointed on how the Southern Tribe forgotten about the Spirits, and certain traditional ways. During the Festival, Unalaq was attempting to convince Korra to be his student so he could teach her about the spirits, how to tame angry Spirits, and the Spirit World. But both Tenzin and Tonraq didn't want her to be taught by him. That night, an Angry Spirit attacked the festival. Korra and her friends were proven to be no match for the Spirit, but then Unalaq appears out of nowhere and managed to tame the spirit. Impressed by Unalaq, Korra accepted his offer, much to her father's disapproval. Unalaq told Korra that in order to calm the Spirits, they would have to journey to the Everstorm to restore the Southern Lights. After a while, Unalaq, Korra, her friends and Tonraq reached the Spiritual Forest. Unalaq explained that she was the only one who could enter the forest and unlock the spirit portal.

Controlling the Southern Water Tribe

After Korra successfully unlocked the portal between the Human World and the Spiritual World, Unalaq told her that it wasn't over yet. The next morning, Soldiers of the Northern Water Tribe arrived at the shores of the Southern Water Tribes. Unalaq told Korra that more work needed to be done before the two tribes could truly be reunited again. While they were discussing this, the soldiers created blockades to prevent any citizen of the Southern Water Tribe from escaping, nor for anyone to enter the South Pole. This caused tension between the North and the South to point where there have been rumors of war. Unalaq stated that all of this was necessary to unite the two tribes. One night, Southern Rebels attacked Unalaq in his sleep and attempted to assassinate him. Korra managed to rescue her uncle and capture all of the rebels. At first, Unalaq was considering banishment for their crime, but Korra recommended a trial to the assassins, to which Unalaq agreed. The next morning however, Unalaq, along with a small group of Northern Water Tribe Soldiers appeared at the door of Korra's home. Unalaq stated that Tonraq and Senna, Korra's mother, were under arrest for attempted assassination.

The Trial

Korra's parents and the Southern Rebels were put on trial. Unalaq told Korra that he personally hired the "fairest" judge he could find, Judge Hotah. Despite this, all except for Senna were found guilty for the act of treason, and the crime for treason is punished by death. Enraged, Korra threatened to kill the judge if he didn't change the sentence. With that gesture, Unalaq managed to "convince" the Judge to reconsider the sentence. With that, Hotah lowered the sentence to life in prison.

Unalaq Revealed

Later that day, Korra chased down Hotah and confronted him. He told her that the trial was rigged by Unalaq. He also told her that Unalaq did this so that he could earn Korra's trust and get his brother out of their way. Hotah even said that Unalaq was responsible for Tonraq's banishment in the first place. After finding out, Korra and her friends went to Tonraq's prison cell to break him out, only to find out that his cell was empty. Just then Unalaq appeared and told her that both Tonraq and the rebels were sent away, via a ship heading to the north. Confronting Unalaq about his selfish and underhanded deeds, Korra renounced him as her teacher and demanded that he recall the prison ship, reminding him that he still needed her to open the northern spirit portal. However, Unalaq confessed that he no longer needed her, revealing he had only been exploiting her into thinking that. This caused the Avatar to attack him out of sheer anger and fury. Both Korra and Mako confronted Unalaq, but Unalaq proved to be a powerful waterbender. After a while, Korra unleashed a powerful gust of wind to push Unalaq back. With that distraction, Korra and her friends ran off to save Tonraq and the rebels.

However, it was revealed that Unalaq still needed Korra to open the northern spirit portal. So he sent Eska and Desna to find and capture the Avatar alive. Upon learning of Korra's apparent demise at the hands of Dark Spirits, he was disappointed with his children's failure but also decided that they could open the Spirit Portal through other means.

Vaatu's Enforcer

It was later revealed that Unalaq is working for Vaatu, who told him that Korra was in fact alive and was coming for him in the Spirit World. Upon Korra's arrival to the Spirit World, Unalaq kidnaps Jinora (who had come with Korra), with a little help from Wan Shi Tong, and threatens to kill her and destroy her soul if she does not open the Spirit Portal for him, forcing Korra to open the portal. He then tries to kill Korra after she opens it but fails.

Shortly after the spirit portals were opened, Unalaq returned to the real world to fight off the remaining Southern Rebels. With the help of the Dark Spirits, Unalaq was able to defeat the Rebels, either by capturing them, or severally injuring them. However, Tonraq showed up in hopes he can defeat his brother. Despite his best efforts, Tonraq was easily outmatched by Unalaq. With the Southern Rebels out of commission, Unalaq focused on having both of his troops and the Dark Spirits guard the Southern Spirit Portal, knowing that Korra would show up to close the portal. Upon having nearly everyone captured, Unalaq reveals his full intention; he wants to merge with Vaatu so he can become a Dark Avatar, just as Wan had done with Raava. Tonraq begs him to reconsider, but to no avail.

Dark Avatar and Demise

Upon Harmonic Convergence, Vaatu was released, and merged with Unalaq to become a Dark Avatar. Upon a destructive battle between the two Avatars, Unalaq/Vaatu proceeded to rip Raava out of Korra, destroying both Raava and Korra's connection to past Avatars. He proceeded to Republic City where he would lay waste in order to bring about a new world order. While seemingly unstoppable, Korra returned for a second battle with him as a giant spirit (much like Unalaq/Vaatu). During the battle, Jinora's spirit manifested inside Unalaq/Vaatu, creating (and pulling out) a small light that was used to recreate Raava. Raava and Korra then proceeded to use the spirit purification ritual on Unalaq/Vaatu, causing them to vanish. Although Vaatu will eventually be recreated the same way as Raava, Unalaq is no more. Because Unalaq died in the "Dark Avatar State", there would be no successor after Unalaq.

Legacy

Korra's Hallucination

Unalaq returned in Book 3: Change as one of Korra's hallucinations. When Korra was poisoned by the red Lotus, Korra hallucinated Ghazan's head turning into Unalaq's, telling her the time of the avatar is over, and urged her to give up and enter the avatar state.

Toph's Opinion

Unalaq was mentioned by Toph, when she explains to Korra that even through Unalaq fought for the wrong side, his intentions of uniting the physical realm and the spirit realm together again, were a reasonable motive. One that Korra chose to carry on, by keeping the Spirit Portals open. Unalaq's dream of a world were both humans and spirits lived together had come true.

Powers and Abilities

Waterbending: Unalaq is a powerful waterbending master, capable of fighting with only a small amout of ambient water at his disposal. His style is varied and aggressive, ranging from water whips, spouts, waves, as well as ice drills and dagger techniques. However, Unalaq's trademark ability lies in his mastery of healing techniques, being one of the few male waterbenders that can use water to heal wounds. Unalaq has adapted this ability into a unique "Spiritbending" technique which could calm or provoke spirits. When Unalaq is in the Spirit World, he can use this technique to even corrupt human souls, which results in the death of that human in the process.

Dark Avatar Powers: As the Dark Avatar, Unalaq's already powerful abilities are magnified, being powerful enough to waterbend the frozen landscape of the South Pole to create ice fissures and enormous waves. Unalaq also gains access to all of Vaatu's spiritual powers, manifesting in his own version of the Avatar State. Unalaq could also transform into an enormous spirit form (a combination of his own body and Vaatu's) that rendered him impervious to most attacks and gave him immense strength.

Vaatu

Vaatu is the evil spirit of chaos and darkness and the overarching antagonist of the entire Avatar franchise specifically being one of the two main antagonists (alongside Unalaq) of Book 2: Spirits in The Legend of Korra. He fought the first Avatar Wan 10,000 years ago and attempted to destroy the world.

He was voiced by Jonathan Adams.

Vaatu first appeared engaged in battle with his opposite number, Raava. Attracting the attention of a then wandering Wan, Vaatu convinced Wan that Raava was the instigator of the conflict and was oppressing him. Falling for his ruse, Wan freed Vaatu from Raava's grasp, allowing him to flee. Once freed, Vaatu wasted little time corrupting Spirits and turning them into Dark Spirits, also planning to cause 10,000 years of darkness on Earth.

Wan, realizing his mistake, tried to help Raava defeat Vaatu and the two traveled the world, with Wan learning all four elements so as to better help Raava fight Vaatu. With Raava's help, Wan was able to master them all. Unfortunately during that time, Vaatu had been harnessing the Spirit's anger to become stronger while simultaneously making Raava weaker, also creating more and more Dark Spirits.

Raava explained that in a year, Vaatu would use the Harmonic Convergence to make Raava disappear forever and allow him full power. When the time of Harmonic Convergence came, Wan engaged Vaatu in battle, but Vaatu was far too powerful to be defeated. Raava entered Wan's body and the fight resumed, only for Vaatu to triumph anyway. At that moment the Harmonic Convergence occurred but before Vaatu could complete his plan, Wan used the Harmonic Convergence to merge Raava with his soul forever, making Wan the very first Avatar. Wan was able to then seal Vaatu in a tree and sealed away the Spirit World, putting an end to Vaatu's threat for 10,000 years.

However, as of The Legend of Korra, Vaatu had made efforts to bring to about his return, corrupting Spirits into Dark Spirits and also enlisting the help of Unalaq to free him. Unalaq had convinced Korra to open both the Northern Portal and the Southern Portal, and so upon Harmonic Convergence, Vaatu not only escaped, but also merged with Unalaq to become the first Dark Avatar.

Unalaq/Vaatu proceed to attack the Avatar, rip Raava out of Korra, destroy Raava (temporarily, as one cannot exist without the other) effectively destroying the Avatar cycle, and attack Republic City. When Korra faced them a second time, Jinora's spirit pulled a small light out of Unalaq/Vaatu, recreating Raava. Raava and Korra merge once again, performing the spirit purification ritual in Unalaq/Vaatu, causing them to vanish.

Since one cannot exist without the other, Vaatu will eventually be recreated the same way Raava was, to the next Harmonic Convergence in 10.000 years. His host (Unalaq), however, remains deceased. Additionally, since Unalaq died in the Dark Avatar state, Vatuu will not be reincarnated into a human form.

Vaatu returned in Book 3: Change as one of Korra's hallucinations. When Korra was poisoned by the red Lotus, Korra hallucinated Ming-Hua turning into Vaatu, which later floats up to Korra's face, telling her she is too weak to resist the poison and he is stronger then ever. Emphasizing the futility of her resistance, he urged her to just let go and enter the avatar state.

Personality

Vaatu is fairly perfunctory and two-dimensional, as he is consumed by his single-minded and pertinacious objective to destroy Raava and bring about 10,000 years of darkness upon the arrival of Harmonic Convergence. His apparent distaste for Raava is intrinsic to his very nature as her spiritual and extramundane counterpart, though it is further exacerbated when Raava managed to keep him in check and later, after having merged with Wan, sealed him in the Tree of Time, fueling his desire for revenge. Apart from wanting to destroy Raava forever, he follows the similarly narrow path of spreading chaos and destruction, since these are the very things that he personifies and give him strength.

Despite spreading chaos by default, Vaatu exudes an ironic calm, never losing focus of his goal or panicking, even in the face of certain defeat. He patiently bids his time in the Tree of Time for 10,000 years, waiting for someone to free him. He is jaunty, confident, and effervescent in his abilities and his pride waxes to pure arrogance when he deals with humans, a race which he contemptuously disdains, being far older and more powerful than they are, and thinking that no human could ever be a match for him. Even though Avatar Wan defeated him, he refused to acknowledge Wan's reincarnation, Korra, and only refers to Raava when speaking to her. The only human that he seems to acknowledge was his human ally, Unalaq, whom he treats fairly and without contempt, even when Unalaq believed that he had failed Vaatu. This fact further shows that (despite being an innately destructive being)

Vaatu is coolly deceptive, fraudulent, calculating, manipulative, temperamental, and unscrupulous, able to put aside his prejudice toward humans to suit his overall goals, even going so far as to merge with one to get even with Raava, turning her own strategy against her. Even in the beginning, while Raava was extremely disdainful and antipathetic of Wan's interference, Vaatu was also extremely appreciative, insightful, and sagacious enough in his desperation to manipulate Wan's love of spirits and trick him into freeing himself from Raava's grasp.

Powers and Abilities

As the spirit of chaos and darkness, Vaatu has the ability to magnify the negative emotions inside other spirits, swaying them to give in to the darker sides of their natures. In turn, he feeds on chaos and anarchy, increasing in both size and power. His airy and transparent body allows him to fly and be unharmed when it is severed by an attack, though it has enough substance to enter physical combat and produce kinetic force. He also has the ability to shoot purple energy blasts from his "face". In his battle with Korra, and later in his assault on Republic City, he also demonstrated the ability to generate vegetation infused with spiritual energy that can take a life of its own by shoving his tentacles into the earth and making vines and other plants grow.

Like his counterpart, Raava, Vaatu is effectively immortal and inextinguishable, having lived for 10,000 years. If he is overcome by Raava, he can gradually reform himself from the vestigial darkness within her. Though they have been separated for 10,000 years, Vaatu still has a connection with Raava, and was able to sense her presence once Korra entered the Spirit World. Vaatu is also fully capable of binding himself with a human being, which was exemplified during the Harmonic Convergence of 171 AG as he merged with Unalaq, thereby producing the Dark Avatar. This merge also allowed Vaatu to gain control of Unalaq's ability to waterbend, though unlike Raava, Vaatu's presence in Unalaq's body manifested itself on the outside, and exhibited more sentience, as both he and Unalaq spoke in unison.

Mortal Enemies

Raava: His polar opposite who fused with Wan and every Avatar afterwards. Out of revenge, he destroys Raava, ensuring that the Avatar would be too helpless to defeat him. Later, she returns just in time as Korra manages to defeat him.

Wan: First Avatar to defeat him.

Korra: Bane of his existence.

---

We gasped in shock! Unalaq is pure evil and Vaatu is 100 times worse than Voldemort.

Me: How can Unalaq be so evil!?

Lincoln: He sent Korra's parents to prison forever! But we have to get them out of there!

Me: And we have to kill Vaatu.

Korra: No we can't.

Me: Why? He's pure evil.

Korra: Because one can't exist without the other.

Aang: That's right. Ever since the time of Avatar Wan, Vaatu has been battling Raava the Spirit of Light in an endless battle. They are like two sides of the same coin. Forever connected. Battling endlessly.

Me: So it's a Kami-Piccolo situation. Kill one and they both die and we'll also destroy the Avatar Cycle.

Korra: That's right.

Nicole: So we'll have to seal him into the Book of Vile Darkness.

Me: That's right.

Laney: I would call Unalaq the Danzō Shimura of the Southern Water Tribe.

Naruto: That's what I was thinking.

Sasuke: That's a really good comparison.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: Lets get over there and tear him apart!

We were off to Antarctica!

---

SOUTHERN WATER TRIBE, ANTARCTICA

---

Unalaq was working on the ritual to release Vaatu!

Unalaq: Lets not keep Vaatu waiting any longer.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion exploded in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed in the village and we were facing UNALAQ!

Korra: Unalaq you don't know what you're doing!

Unalaq: I know exactly what I'm doing Korra.

Aang: You don't have any idea how dangerous Vaatu is!

Unalaq: Oh, come now, Avatar. I merely just open the Northern spirit portal. It's what happens next you have to worry about.

Korra: Unalaq, you release Vaatu and eight million people die!

Unalaq: It's going to be more then that. I was going to enjoy Vaatu's rampage from a safe distance. But since you're here, what do you say we settle things once and for all?

Me: Why are you doing this Unalaq!?

Unalaq: You think what Avatar Wan did was good? Driving almost all the spirits from this world? The Avatar hasn't brought balance, only chaos.

Me: That's total bullshit!

Nico: Yeah!

Korra: The Avatar is to maintain balance!

Unalaq: You call yourself the bridge between the worlds, but there shouldn't be a bridge. We should live together as one. It's true that when Wan fused with Raava he tipped the scales in her favor. But this time I'll be here to even the playing field. When Harmonic Convergence comes I will fuse with Vaatu and together we will become the new avatar. A Dark Avatar, your era is over.

Me: You are completely out of your fucking mind!

Aang: That's right!

Unalaq: That's your opinion. Now my destiny comes.

He used Spiritbending and opened the Southern Spirit Portal and it was immense power! Then a dark figure came out and it was a terrifying spirit. It was VAATU THE SPIRIT OF DARKNESS!

Aang: NO!

Me: OH FUCK ME SIDEWAYS!

Unalaq: Vaatu!

Vaatu: At last. I am free! I lived ten-thousand lifetimes before the first of your kind crawled out of the mud. It was I who broke through the divide that separated the plane of Spirits from the material world. To hate me is to give me breath. To fight me is to give me strength. Now prepare to face oblivion!

Troy: You won't be free for long, Vaatu!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ranger J Platoon!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Battle Field J Rangers!

Lord Drakkon, Myotismon and Rex Goodwin appeared.

Me: Lord Drakkon, Myotismon and Rex Goodwin.

Nico: Oh boy.

William: Did you guys enjoy Independence Day?

Drakkon: Of course we did.

Myotismon: I liked that song we sung together.

Me: That was America the Beautiful.

Another figure came out and it was FROST WALRUS!

Frost Walrus: Call me… Frost Walrus! (launches ice blades directly from his shoulders at Blizzard Man)

Lana fired waves of ice at the blades and destroyed them.

Unalaq: Before we fight, (to Azula) Princess Azula. You and your brother were once the most feared Firebenders in history.

Azula: What are you trying to say?

Unalaq: You and your brother should join me. When Vaatu is done, the three of us could rule what's left of this world together!

Zuko: Not gonna happen!

Me: So you can take your offer and shove it up your fucking ass!

Unalaq: Very well then. Lets become the Dark Avatar my lord.

Vaatu: So be it.

Vaatu merged with Unalaq and the red symbol of Vaatu appeared on his chest and his eyes were glowing red and overflowing with PURE UNRESTRAINED EVIL!

Laney: WHOA! Look at his eyes!

Me: His power is unreal! He's just as evil and powerful as Broly!

Goku: No kidding!

Dark Avatar: (Demonic Voice) Now your time has come.

Me: Lord Drakkon, Myotismon, we'll have to do our usual battles after we take down Vaatu and Unalaq. Right now we have to stop the Dark Avatar from destroying the world.

Lord Drakkon: I agree.

Myotismon: He sure looks dangerous!

Rex Goodwin: This is gonna get ugly really fast.

Me: Lets power up and take him down!

I then powered up into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix form and we powered up to full power!

Korra: I have stopped you before and I can stop you again!

Korra then merged with Raava and her power was equal to the Dark Avatar!

Me: (Divine Fiery Voice) Time for our power to show no limits on this monster!

Nico: Lets get him!

Vince: YEAH!

Korra: (Divine Voice) I've had it with you Unalaq.

We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach with devastating forced and fired blasts of fire and energy at him and Nico fired energy blasts at him and the blasts all hit him and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Unalaq got up and he was enraged. But he calmed down and faced me. He was badly beaten up and mangled.

Dark Avatar: So it's you.

Me: Huh?

Dark Avatar: I've known about you all along.

Me: What the hell are you talking about?

Dark Avatar: (Laughs) I mean I've been expecting you, ever since I've heard about you throwing Ozai in prison and killing another version of him and Azula. Your power was getting stronger and stronger with each fight and I must admit that I am impressed with how far you've come J.D. Even all over the universe I could sense your power growing exponentially. I knew you would one day face me as the Dark Avatar. Opposites attract one another. (Laughs) Yes. Yes. I've been waiting thousands of years to face you. Ever since Avatar Wan sealed me away, I've been waiting for you for thousands of years to destroy you. I cannot allow a power greater than mine to exist.

Me: Hmm. To tell you the truth, I've been waiting to face you as well. Ever since I killed Amon of the Equalists, I could sense that something evil was taking place in another part of the world and I've been ready for this ever since. My powers have evolved in more ways than you could ever possibly imagine. I'm sorry your feelings are hurt but I don't think you have much of a choice. With our omnipotent power still growing, the scales have always been tipped in our favor.

Piccolo: Vaatu has known about J.D. all along. He felt his power growing stronger and stronger with each of our fights and has been preparing for this.

Nico: Not good!

Vince: But J.D. always came through for everyone.

Laney: Yes he has.

Aang: Now to seal your bending for good, Unalaq!

Aang sealed Unalaq's bending forever and rendered him powerless!

Vaatu: NO!

He went for Aang to stop him. But we stood in Vaatu's way.

Me: You are not welcome here Vaatu!

Zuko: That's right!

Nicole opened the Book of Vile Darkness and it began sucking in Vaatu!

Vaatu: NO! I WON'T BE DEFEATED AND IMPRISONED AGAIN!

Team Avatar's: ELEMENTAL MEGABLAST FORCE!

We powered down.

Unalaq was unconscious.

Me: That was intense. Now we can have our regular battles.

Lord Drakkon: Good.

Myotismon: Lets do it.

We got ready.

Battle 1: Lord Drakkon

I was facing Lord Drakkon.

Me: Glad you had fun with us on Independence Day.

Lord Drakkon: It was really good barbecue and good food.

Me: It was. Especially the battle with Tavington.

Lord Drakkon: Yep.

Me: Lets do it.

I unsheathed my sword and Lord Drakkon unsheathed his and we went at each other and clashed violently and sparks were flying all over the place and I kicked him in the face and knocked him down.

We got Frost Walrus's powers and weapons.

Nico: Yeah!

Troy Burrows: Mega Rangers, that's a Mega win.

---

Later we regrouped and Unalaq got up and he was dizzy and disoriented. The Masters of Evil came and Unalaq looked at them.

Unalaq: Please! Help me!

Rex Goodwin: Why should we? You tried to release Vaatu onto the world without our permission!

Drakkon: As far as we're concerned, you can stay locked up!

Myotismon: (to us) He's all yours.

Me: Thank you.

The Masters of Evil teleport out.

Me: You know Unalaq, we should kill you for everything you've done. But that would be too easy. So we have a much better punishment for you.

Unalaq: Oh no.

Scene transits to the Neptune Prison and Unalaq is thrown into his prison cell forever.

(JAIL DOORS SHUT)

He saw that he wasn't the only one there.

Ozai: What are you in for?

Unalaq: Oh no.

We later went back to the estate.

Me: Another awesome victory.

Korra: Yep.

Aang: (To the viewers) Never mess with the powers of the Spirit World or you will face us at our full power.

Me: Yep.

We had an awesome rest.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Unalaq from Legend of Korra was beyond a shadow of a doubt the most evil of them all. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Get ready to be grossed out as we do a silly land version episode of the SpongeBob episode NASTY PATTY and it's gonna be really funny as we thought we killed the Health Inspector.

See you all tomorrow.

NASTY BURGER!

Chapter opens up to a dark and stormy night in Gotham Royal York.

Narrator: (French Accent) Oh, a dark and stormy night. It's nights like these that remind me of the time Lily and Lynn Sr. thought they killed a health inspector. [laughs evilly. Stormy night becomes calm day] It was a bright and sunny morning at the Team Loud Phoenix Storm estate.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

A massive explosion went off behind the estate and it shows that I was training with Master Goku. He was in his Super Saiyan 4 form and I was in my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix form and we were sparring and really training all over the place and more.

Goku: Good J.D.!

Me: (Divine Fiery Voice) HYAH!

I kicked at Goku and he blocked it and he was sweating like a pig and more!

I was training hard at an incredible level and more.

Later we took a break and powered down and then I sensed a faint but incredibly evil power!

Me: Whoa! Do you feel that Master Goku?

Goku: Yeah I sure do.

?: That power is from me!

We turned and we saw QUEEN BANSHEERA back from the dead!

---

Queen Bansheera (simply known as Bansheera) is the Queen of Demons and the main antagonist of Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue and the archenemy of Carter Grayson, the Red Lightspeed Rescue Ranger.

She was voiced by Diane Salinger.

Queen Bansheera is the evil matriarch of the Demons and mother of Impus/Prince Olympius. She was in parts unknown when Diabolico and his band were freed, and later returned and gave orders in a spiritual form at the beginning of the series. Bansheera eventually returned in a mangled bodily form after an attempt by Spellbinder to bring her into the human world due to the Lightspeed Rangers tampering. She eventually gained a ghastly final form by absorbing Vypra's life energy.

Bansheera set out to conquer the world, and proved far more ruthless than Diabolico or Olympius. Bansheera also had no regard for her minions (even her own son) and used them for her own gain. She absorbed Vypra to regain her original form, forced Diabolico to destroy Loki, left her own son in the Shadow World, and nearly destroyed the Rangers. Despite Diabolico telling the Red Lightspeed to strike where her heart should be, she continued to menace the Rangers. She eventually turned Diabolico and Olympius into Super Demons, but they were defeated.

She attempted to open the gateway to the Shadow World to unleash all of its fallen monsters. Taking over the Aquabase and the Omega Megazord, she was close to succeeding. However, Bansheera ended up suspended above the Demon World portal by Carter Grayson. The spirit of a vengeful Diabolico appeared, pulling her inside, where she was attacked by the undead monsters, much to Diabolico's satisfaction as he witnesses the downfall of his former queen.

Personality and Traits

Queen Bansheera could be described as traitorous, ruthless, cruel, sadistic, and insane. Nothing short of being obsessive and pathological, Bansheera would go to any lengths of returning to power and became notorious for sacrificing her minions to achieve her agenda. The first most significant realization of Bansheera's obsession is expressing how pleased she was that Diabolico, Vypra, and Loki had imprisoned her son Olympius in the Shadow World, seeing her own son as expendable just as her other minions. After she had consumed Vypra's energy to obtain her full body, Bansheera became dangerously unstable with power. The Rangers and her demon minions were unsafe from her madness. But much to her credit, Bansheera did prove to be a loving mother when Olympius was still the infant Impus. When she returned to the Skull Cavern after a long and unexplained absence, she expressed her joy in seeing Impus again. Also, considering that Impus had for some time had a longing for his mother Queen Bansheera, further proves the Queen's nurturing side. She is shown to expect her forces to remain loyal no matter what. When Diabolical's spirit returned one last time, she was expecting him to help her, despite the fact she made him kill his best friend. According to Ryan in the episode The Cobra Strikes, "she's worse than 10 Diabolicos".

---

Me: Queen Bansheera!

Goku: It's the real one this time!

Bansheera: J.D. Knudson. I'm here to kill you for trying to destroy me. (smirks evilly) Is now a bad time?

Me: With you Banseeha everything is a bad time. But I have some people here who would like to have a word with you

Goku: You will pay for your crimes Bansheera!

Nico: (Offscreen) I agree!

Nico and everyone arrived.

Queen Bansheera: So the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers are now part of your team J.D.

Me: That's right.

Carter Grayson: I thought we were rid of you forever Bansheera!

Chad Lee: Coming here was the biggest mistake you've ever done!

Joel Rawling: And we stopped you before and we can stop you again!

?: I agree.

A light came down and it was a friend the rangers know. It was DIABOLICO!

---

Diabolico is a powerful demon leader and major antagonist turned anti hero of Power Rangers: Lightspeed Rescue.

Taking Ryan

Some time before the beginning of the series, Captain Mitchell and his two children, Dana and Ryan, got in a car crash and were left hanging over a cliff, clinging to a tree root. While Mitchell had a secure grip on Dana, Ryan was hanging onto his foot and was about to fall when Diabolico appeared before Captain Mitchell in spirit form and said that he would save his son, but only if Ryan would belong to him afterwards. Though at first he refused, the Captain agreed when his son began to fall and, after catching the boy, Diabolico told Mitchell that he wouldn't see him again until his twentieth birthday. Afterwards, the Demon Lord trained Ryan as a warrior so as to use him as a soldier of the demons.

Release and Battle with the Rangers

Diabolico was eventually freed along with the rest of the demons and he lead them in attacks on Mariner Bay. However his plans failed constantly thanks to the Power Rangers and Queen Bansheera threatened to take his Star Power and give it to her son, Impus. Diabolico considered killing the demon infant at one point, but he lost the chance to do so. After the destruction of his monster, Troika, the demon grew to giant size to destroy the Power Rangers himself and proved able to easily match the Rangers. However they formed the Lightspeed Solarzord and destroyed Diabolico by absorbing one of his blasts and using the energy to charge their cannons, the blast from which annihilated him. The Star Power left the explosion and came to Impus, transforming him into Olympius.

Revival

However Diabolico was brought back by Vypra and Loki, who had almost been destroyed by Olympius' monster, Vilevine. He returned to Queen Bansheera's side to try and regain favor with her and get back his Star Power. At one point, Diabolico succeeded in trapping Olympius in the Shadow World, where all the destroyed demons dwelled. The Demon Prince escaped and Bansheera forced the demon to destroy his longtime friend, Loki, as a punishment. Diabolico turned on his Queen and told the Red Ranger where he should strike her to destroy her, but Bansheera survived.

Final Battle with the Rangers

Diabolico attempted to flee from the Demon Queen but was defeated by Olympius in vengeance. After being brought back to Bansheera, he was transformed into a mindless slave and the two attacked the Power Rangers. However the Red Ranger managed to free Diabolico and he turned on Olympius after giving the Rangers the key to the tomb where the demons had been imprisoned. He was destroyed by the Demon Prince, who was in turn destroyed by the Rangers, but Bansheera resurrected them both as Super Demons. Despite their power, the two were destroyed by the Power Rangers new Lifeforce Megazord. Later, during the final battle with Bansheera, she and the Red Ranger were stuck suspended over the Shadow World. Diabolico's spirit appeared and freed Carter before pulling Bansheera down, enacting his final revenge.

Personality

Despite being a diabolical villain, Diabolico cares deeply for his comrades, especially Loki. When he was forced to shoot Loki and destroyed him along with the rangers, he ultimately defects from Queen Bansheera's side and ultimately became a short-lived and impermanent ally of the rangers. In the season finale, he was able to exact his revenge, helping the rangers destroy Queen Bansheera once and for all.

Diabolico is evidently considered to be a good friend by Loki and Vypra as well as they both mourned him when he was killed by the rangers. Even though he lied to Ryan to manipulate him, he did seem to care about Ryan and wanted him to rule by his side when the rangers were destroyed. He even refers to him as Ryan during his their time together. When Ryan solidify his loyalty to the rangers over him, he stops calling Ryan by his name and simply called him the Titanium Ranger.

Powers and Abilities

Diabolico is able to appear in a spirit form, doing so even when he was imprisoned and can also create storms. He is also able to fire energy blasts and wields a skull themed, two bladed staff in combat. Diabolico has also demonstrated a strange ability to detach his right hand and grab his opponent with it, then bring the rest of his body towards them. Even without the Star Power, Diabolico is quite powerful, almost able to best Olympius in their first encounter. With the Star Power, he is extremely powerful, able to use one of his energy beams to cut a hole through the Supertrain Megazord. After becoming a Super Demon, Diabolico became even more powerful, wielding a large jewel-encrusted sword in combat.

---

Me: Diabolico!

Diabolico: It's an honor to finally meet you J.D. I have seen you all do so many great things.

Me: I'll never forget how you helped destroy Queen Bansheera before.

Diabolico: How long has it been by the way?

Me: Over 20 years.

Diabolico: It really has been a while.

Loki and Vypra and the Masters of Evil all then appeared!

Loki (Power Rangers): Looks like we arrived just in time!

Diabolico: It's good to see you again my friend.

Loki: Diabolico!

Vypra: You're back!

They went over to him and hugged him for the first time in 20 years. Then they turned and faced Bansheera and they had eyes burning with rage.

Me: If I were you Bansheera, I would start praying.

Nico: Because you pissed off three of your top Generals.

Vince: That were once loyal to you.

Vypra: You killed me Bansheera.

Loki (Power Rangers): And me!

Bansheera: Vypra. Why don't you come serve me again? Like a good girll?

Vypra: You mean like a good dog? That's all I am to you, isn't it? Just an attack dog.

Bansheera: Oh, you know that's not true. Yes, you can be impulsive most of the time. But that's why you're one of my favorites.

Vypra: You're right. I can be impulsive. But I'm no one's pet, Bansheera. Not anymore. I'm head bitch now!

Me: She is now the leader of the Masters of Evil and you are never gonna be welcome here on Earth or anywhere else Bansheera.

Firefly: You guys don't mind if we have some fun with Bansheera before you Hakai her, do you?

Nico: Go right ahead. I'm gonna go take a nap. Wake me up when you're done.

Me: Okay.

May went to nap with him.

Me: Nico and May are getting hitched in a few days.

Loki (Power Rangers): I heard about that. Tell them congratulations.

Me: I'll relay the message.

I then tied up Bansheera and she was completely helpless.

Me: There's a saying we have here on Earth Bansheera.

Queen Bansheera: What is it?

Me: It's Payback Time!

Dark Spicer: Here's your warning: your ass is about to be kicked!

Laney: Big time!

The Masters of Evil then tortured and mutilated Bansheera all over the place with indiscriminate fury. Captain Mitchell and Ms. Fairweather were blasting and torturing Bansheera as well.

Vypra and the Masters of Evil tortured Bansheera for a whole hour. At first, Vypra had a blast torturing Bansheera. But now, she was getting bored.

Vypra: (bored) Take that. (stabs Bansheera with her sword) And that. (stabs her again) You know, I thought this would be a lot of fun. But now, I'm starting to get bored of this. (to Vanitas) What's wrong with me?

Bansheera: You're an ungrateful bitch who doesn't know her place!

Vypra: (stabs Bansheera again) I wasn't asking you!

Vanitas: Maybe, you're having a mid life crisis.

Me: It has been over 20 years.

Loki (Power Rangers): That could be the case.

Me: Are you guys satisfied?

They nodded.

Me: All right we'll take it from here. Ready Carter?

Carter Grayson: You bet. Ready guys?

They agreed.

Me: Nico we're done torturing.

Nico: (Wakes up) Huh? Oh okay.

Lightspeed Rescue Rangers: LIGHTSPEED RESCUE!

Ryan Mitchell: TITANIUM POWER!

The Lightspeed Rescue Rangers all transformed and they were ready.

Me: Now you are history. RESCUE BIRD!

The Rescue Bird launched and it came to us and we put it together into the Unilaser!

Me: This is the weapon of your demise. I'm channeling Hakai energy into it.

Chad Lee: Awesome!

Joel Rawling: You know what to do right J.D.?

Me: Watched you guys all the time and saw you do it several times.

Ryan had his Titanium blaster ready to fire.

Me: Ready guys?

Carter Grayson: Yep.

Me: Say Hi to Olympius for us when you see him in Oblivion.

Chad and Joel: Ready.

Dana and Kelsey: Aim!

Me and Carter: And FIRE!

We fired blasts of purple and silver energy and the blasts hit Bansheera and she exploded with incredible power in a massive fiery explosion and she screamed in excruciating agony as she was being completely obliterated. She was completely erased from existence for all eternity as if she was never born at all.

Me: Enjoy oblivion Bansheera.

Vypra: Good riddance.

Loki (Power Rangers): Yeah.

Diabolico: At least we never have to see her again.

Naruto: Yep.

We did Vypra, Dark Spicer, Loki and Diabolico a good service by erasing Bansheera, the most ruthless and most evil queen that ever lived from their lives forever. Vypra may be a demon but she is just as human as all of us. Same with Loki. Diabolico went back to Heaven.

[scene cuts to Lynn's Table where we were having a celebratory lunch and a man drives up and stops in front of the restaurant. The camera zooms into his badge that reads 'Health Inspector']

Lynn Sr.: [Chopping onions] (Smells something) That smells like… [gasps]… the health inspector! [Lynn Sr. runs up to Lily] Wash your hands, clean the floors, change your underwear! The health inspector's here!

Lincoln: The Health Inspector!?

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Uh oh!

[They are peeking out the kitchen window at the health inspector, who is writing on a clipboard]

Lynn Sr.: If he finds one health violation, he'll close us down for good. We've got to do everything in our power to make sure he passes my restaurant.

Lincoln: But, dad, there's no reason to worry. [eyes widen] Your restaurant is the most perfect place in the universe.

Lynn Sr.: You really haven't got any brains at all, have you, son?

Lori: Dad I know you're worried. But we'll be all right.

Lynn Sr.: You're right sweetie. [pushes Lincoln out the door] Just go out there and give him what he needs. Pour on the charm. Sweet talk him. [Lincoln walks up to the health inspector, who is still writing on his clipboard at the table]

Lincoln: What can I get for you good sir?

Health Inspector Dennis: I'm going to need you to bring me one of everything on the menu.

Laney: Wow you must be hungry.

Health Inspector Dennis: I have a really big appetite.

Lincoln: [walking backwards back into the kitchen] Excellent choice good sir. Coming right up! [Lincoln enters the kitchen, where everyone waits] He wants one of everything.

Lana: Wow!

Lola: He must be really hungry!

Lily: No kidding.

Lynn Sr.: Then we'll give him a smorgasbord! [holds up a tray of a burger, a drink, some fries, and a dessert] The future of Lynn's Table is at stake! [Everyone then runs up to the health inspector]

Lincoln: Try the Loaded Leni Dog, sir! [stuffs it in the inspector's mouth]

Lynn Sr.: The Buttered Lynn-ichini Alfredo are a touch of heaven. [stuffs it in the inspector's mouth]

Lola: The Powdered Lolaghetti is exquisite. [stuffs it in the inspector's mouth]

Nico: Fresh Double Dutch Chocolate Pudding? [stuffs it in the inspector's mouth]

Laney: More Diet Red Zone? [stuffs it in the inspector's mouth]

Lily: Some Fried Creole? [stuffs it in the inspector's mouth]

Health Inspector Dennis: Please, everyone! [swallows all the food in his mouth] Leave me to finish my work in peace. [clicks his pen, which is actually a fork that comes out. Later, the health inspector has eaten everything on the table and belches]

Lincoln: And did the gracious inspector enjoy his meal?

Health Inspector Dennis: [writes on his clipboard] So far, so good. Everything is really delicious.

Lincoln: Recipes made by J.D. Knudson, his daughter Mary and my dad.

Health Inspector Dennis: Really delicious. Probably the best in my career. I just need to try a plain Lynn-Burger and my inspection will be finished.

Lincoln: [open kitchen door] He says if he gets one more Lynn-Burger, he'll pass us for the inspection!

Lynn Sr.: [picks up Lincoln] Do you know what this means, son? We're in the clear! [both dance off then leapfrog over each other, across the screen then do the can-can in dresses until a news report comes on tv]

Johnny Elaine: We interrupt this can-can for a special news bulletin. Be on the lookout for a man, who's been passing himself off as a health inspector in order to obtain free food. That's all for now. [Lynn Sr. gets angry]

Lynn Sr.: [Yells] Free food?!

Lincoln: Maybe we oughta tell our guy about the phony impostor.

Lynn Sr.: You silly boy, he is the impostor! We've been duped!

Lincoln: Duped?!

Lynn Sr.: Bamboozled!

Lincoln: We've been smeckledorfed!

Lynn Sr.: That's not even a word, and I agree with ya!

Laney: It makes sense.

Jack Atlas: I agree.

[They all look through the kitchen window at the health inspector, who is wiping his mouth off, finishing his drink, and cleaning his teeth with a toothpick]

Lynn Sr.: Look at him. I bet he never changes his underpants.

Lincoln: I bet he bites fingernails from old people.

Lynn Sr.: I bet his mom bought him that hat. [holds up a Lynn-Burger] If that impostor wants a Lynn-Burger, then by God, we'll give him one. [flicks the top bun off and puts a some volcano sauce on the burger] You're dancin' with the Lynn man now! Join me, guys, or you're grounded!

Lincoln: It doesn't seem right… [holds up a bottle of pickled horseradish]… but it feels so good! [dumps a spoonful on the burger] Pickled horseradish: the gnarliest stuff in the world.

Lana: Yeah!

Lynn Sr.: Oh, hold on, I've got a jar of toenail clippings in my office! [runs off as Lana drops the burger in the toilet]

Lana: Oops, I dropped it in the toilet! [Lynn runs in with a smelly sock]

Lynn: Well, fish it out, and I'll dry it with my gym socks! [scene cuts to showing a disgusting Lynn-Burger with what appears to be a pimpled bun and green meat and all kinds of rotten stuff that smelled horrible!]

Lynn Sr.: Why, that's the most diabolical Lynn-Burger ever spawned! [Everyone is wearing clothespins on their noses]

Lily: I call it the 'Nasty Burger'. [both laugh]

VOMITVILLE!

Nico: Guys, are you sure you want to give the inspector that patty? Once you do this, there's no going back!

Lily: It'll get rid of him.

Health Inspector Dennis: Hey, hurry up with that patty! [Lincoln runs in with the burger]

Lincoln: [speaking quickly] Here you are, sir, enjoy. [runs back into the kitchen]

Health Inspector Dennis: Ah, hello, delicious. Come to papa. [as he is about to eat it, a fly flies into his throat, choking him]

Lynn Sr.: [listening from the kitchen] Listen, he ate it! [everyone looks out from the kitchen window] Oh, look at him choke! [they laugh] Look at him suffer! [they keep laughing.] Did you see that, guys? Oh man, that look on his face. [Health Inspector Dennis slips on some packets of condiments and bangs his head on the table, knocking him out. The fly exits his mouth. Everyone is still laughing. Another TV bulletin comes on]

Johnny Elaine: We interrupt your laughter at other people's expense to bring you this news flash. The fake inspector has been captured. Here is his picture. [picture is shown on the TV] If a health inspector comes to your restaurant and he's not this guy, he's real.

Lana: That's a relief.

Lily: Phew, that's a relief, eh, guys? I'm sure our guy will understand if we just explain the situation. Then we can all have a good laugh about it. But where have I seen this before?

Lynn Sr.: [gasps] I don't think he'll be laughing guys.

Lincoln: Why, dad?

Lynn Sr.: Because that patty killed him! [They all scream, check the inspector again, then scream again]

UH OH!

Lily: Dad, what are we gonna do?

Lynn Sr.: What's this "we" stuff? You fed him the tainted patty. Looks like it's the stony lonesome for you!

Lincoln: But you told us to give it to him!

Lynn Sr.: Well, you could've talked me out of it!

Lincoln: You're right, dad, I'm guilty. I'll never survive in prison, they'll mop up the floor with me.

Jack Atlas: I wouldn't want to be you guys right now.

Lana: Hey, you're just as involved in this as we are!

Lola: Yeah! You were in the room when we made that nasty burger! That makes you an accomplice!

[Lynn Sr. grabs him]

Lynn Sr.: Get a hold of yourself, guys! We've got to get rid of this body before anyone sees it. We've got to take it out and bury it.

Lola: Okay.

[scene cuts to everyone on a muddy hill.]

Lincoln: [disgusted] Eww, gross, germs, it's all icky and corpse-y!

Lola: How do you think I feel about this!? This is Lucy's job!

Lincoln: [gagging and shrieking while constantly spraying it with disinfectant] Eww… eww… [Lincoln and Lola are dragging the body by a tissue]

Lynn Sr.: This should be far enough. Now, get diggin'! [hands Lana a shovel]

Lana: Right dad. [while digging a big hole, his shovel hits something]

Lynn Sr.: What's the holdup down there?

Lana: There's a big rock in the way!

Lynn Sr.: Well, toss it out and get back to diggin'!

Lana: [salutes] Aye aye, sir! [grunting as she tosses the huge rock behind her]

Health Inspector Dennis: Oh… where am I?

BONK!

Health Inspector Dennis: [grunts as the rock hits him in the head knocking him out again, groans]

Lynn Sr.: Something isn't quite right.

Lana: What do you mean, dad? [health inspector's head is out of the ground]

Lynn Sr.:: His head's stickin' out!

Lincoln: [Lincoln covers his head with more dirt] Sorry, dad. I thought he might need some air.

Lynn Sr.: They don't need air where he's going.

Dark Spicer and Carly Carmine then appeared.

Dark Spicer: Guys, what are you doing?

Carly Carmine: Is that a dead body?

Eddy: Dude, this isn't what it looks like!

Carly Carmine: It seems to us that you killed a health inspector. I know you might hate certain villains but I didn't think you'd kill an innocent person!

Dark Spicer: I don't know whether to be shocked or impressed.

Jack Atlas: We thought he was a criminal out to get free food and we killed him because of it.

Dark Spicer: Whoa. I heard about that on the news.

Carly Carmine: I see.

Maria: Guys, you can't tell anyone about this! If this gets out to the public, it'll prove people like Lila Rossi and Justice Lord Superman right!

Dark Spicer: Our lips are sealed.

Carly Carmine: Now, let's just hope no one else finds us.

Lincoln: Shouldn't we say a few words on his behalf?

Lynn Sr.: Uhh, he was a credit to health inspectors everywhere, and, uh…

Lily: [bawling] What a brave man, going in the line of duty like that! Why… why… why?! [Lynn Sr. grabs Lily]

Lynn Sr.: Listen here, ya little one. No one, and I mean no one can ever know about this. It'll be the end of you, it'll be the end of me. And worst of all, it'll be the end of all of us!

Carly Carmine: Jack, what if Tom and Sheila find out about the dead health inspector? I don't want you to go to prison.

Jack Atlas: If it comes to that, then I'll accept my consequences.

Running would only make things worse.

Lana: Wow.

Officer Tom Lair: [shines a flashlight on them] Stop right where you all are! Oh hey guys. Didn't recognize you there.

Sheila Castille: How have you all been?

Jack Atlas: Good.

Officer Tom Lair: I'm afraid we're going to have to arrest all of you. [Lincoln hangs on Lynn Sr.]

Lincoln: Dad! I'm too young to go to jail! [Lynn Sr. covers his mouth]

Lynn Sr.: And what would be the charges?

Officer Tom Lair: For not being at Lynn's Table to whip us up a couple of dee… licious plates of food! [both police officers laugh. Lynn Sr. laughs nervously]

Lynn Sr.: Laugh, son. [Lincoln and everyone laughs. It rains. The rain washes away the dirt burying the health inspector and he slides down the hill]

Sheila Castille: Put that muddy shovel in the trunk and we'll give you all a ride back. [Everyone is still laughing until Lynn Sr. hits thm. Lynn Sr. opens the trunk and Lily puts the shovel in it]

Lynn Sr.: Guys, listen carefully: We're just getting a lift back to the restaurant. I need you all to stay calm and don't lose your cool, understand? [Lily looks down and goes in shock]

Lily: Can I lose my cool now?

Lynn Sr.: Why? [Lily points to the health inspector, who has now slid down the hill. They scream, Lynn Sr. grabs the body and gives it to Lola] Put him in the trunk, Lola! I'll keep the cops busy.

Officer Tom Lair: What's the holdup back there? [Lynn Sr. starts talking to him as a distraction]

Lola: Oh, God! Get away! [throws the inspector in the trunk then sprays herself with disinfectant.] Ooh… ahh-ahh… [Slams the trunk on the health inspector, who was waking up] A-hem… Okay! All set back here. Nothing unusual about a muddy shovel in the trunk. [laughs nervously]

Lynn: All set. [Everyone slides in almost motionlessly]

Lily: Ahh… [starts to shake]

Sheila Castille: You okay there, Lily?

Lynn Sr.: Ooh, he gets carsick real easy.

Officer Tom Lair: Well, buckle up and we'll drive real smooth-like. [drives off]

Lynn Sr.: Now listen, guys, when we get to the Lynn's Table I want you to take that [winks] shovel and bring it around to the back entrance and stuff… er… I mean, stow it in the freezer. Un-der-stand?

Lincoln: I understand, Mr. Krabs, but what do you want me to do with the bo… [is about to say "body"]

Lynn Sr.: [grabs Lincoln's lips]… ttles of soda! Bottles of soda, Same thing, put 'em in the freezer. [Sheila stares at them funny. They laugh. Scene cuts to the Lynn's Table where Lincoln and Lily is bringing the body to the back]

Lily: Oh, man, this is so gross! [tries to open the door, but there is a lock] The back door is locked! What am we gonna do?! [scene cuts to inside the restaurant with Tom Lair and Sheila Castille laughing. Lily enters with a big Krusty Krab hat where the health inspector is in it]

Lynn Sr.: Hey there Lily. Heh. I thought you were out back taking care of that [angrily] shovel! [twitches & winks his eyes]

Lily: Well, the back door was locked, so I came around here… eh. [his hat sags over, and Lily puts it back in position] So if you'll excuse me, I'm gonna go put my hat in the freezer now. [walks to the kitchen very carefully]

Lynn Sr.: Okey-dokey, SpongeBob.

Officer Tom Lair: Is that kid okay?

Officer Sheila Castille: He's actin' a little funny.

Lynn Sr.: Funny? Oh. Yeah. [laughs] He's a real cut-up, that one. He knows how to keep the crew in stitches. Good one, Lily! Always on, that one. There's no "off" on his funny switch. [laughs, Lily stumbles with the Health Inspector in his hat as Tom Lair and Sheila Castille, and Lynn Sr. look on] Oh, ah, oh stop it. Oh, you're, you're killin' me. [laughs, Lily is trying to get through a door but his hat is too big. Lynn Sr. bangs the cash drawer open] Oh! Look, I almost forgot! It's Open Cash Register Night! First two customers get all the money in the cash register! [hands out the money. Lily gets his hat inside the kitchen]

Officer Tom Lair: [listens to his walkie-talkie] 86 those patties, Lynn. We just got a call about a bunch of ghouls burying a stiff over by Shallow Grave Road.

Sheila Castille: I want a soda. [Lynn Sr. gives her one]

Lynn Sr.: Here's your soda. Always a pleasure to serve the folks in blue. Well, goodbye now.

Sheila Castille: Hey, there's no ice.

Lynn Sr.: [nervous] Ice? Ice? You want ice? Is that what you want, you want ice? Is that what you want? [Lily slides on screen]

Lily: The dark deed you requested is done, dad.

Sheila Castille: [walks to the kitchen] I'll get it myself. Ice is in the freezer, ri…? [Lynn Sr. runs to block the freezer door]

Lynn Sr.: There is no ice! There's never been any ice. Ice is just a myth!

Sheila Castille: Step aside. You guys are all acting like you've committed a murder!

Lynn Sr.: Okay! I confess! [points to Lily] Lily killed him!

Lily: What?! You can't pin this whole rap on me!

Lynn Sr.: She was insane, out of control. She would've killed me too if you two hadn't come along.

Lily: It was all dad's idea.

Lynn Sr.: Put her down now, she's a mad dog!

Lily: He wears curlers to bed!

Lynn Sr.: Wait! It's not what you think!

Sheila Castille: What are you all talking about?

Lynn Sr.: We killed a health inspector! Buried him and then stuffed his body in the freezer!

Dark Spicer: Wait! Lily and the others didn't kill the Health Inspector. Me and Carly did!

Tom Lair: Say what?

Carly Carmine: That's right. We killed the Health Inspector. Not Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Sheila Castille: Why?

Dark Spicer: Because me and Carly fucking hate Health Inspectors! They're a menace to restaurants everywhere!

Carly Carmine: Yep! And you know what? If another Health Inspector comes by, we'll kill him too! Fuck yeah!

Jack Atlas: (shocked) Carly…

Sheila Castilee: You mean he's in here? [opens the freezer, but it's empty]

Lana: It's empty?

Lola: But he was in here.

Sheila Castille: Is this some kind of a joke?

Lynn Sr.: Yeah… a joke! [Lily giggles]

Sheila Castille: Say, maybe he turned into a zombie and walked out. [everyone laughs. Just then a fish walks up moaning]

They start screaming!

Lily: [screams] It's the zombie! [the inspector turns the lights on]

Health Inspector Dennis: Hey, you guys…

CLANG!

Tom Lair: [hits the inspector on the head with an anchor] Take that, you zombie! [inspector now has a huge bump on his head]

Sheila Castille: I'll take it from here.

BLAM!

Sheila Castille: [hits the inspector on the head with a barrel] Die, zombie!

Tom Lair: Good police work, Officer Sheila. Hey, this guy's not a zombie. He's just an ordinary health inspector.

OOPS!

Health Inspector Dennis: Yes. And at the risk of being hit again, I'd like to present you with this. [gives Lynn Sr. and everyone a note with the word 'pass' on it checked]

Lincoln: Hey, guys, look. We passed the inspection!

Everyone: Hooray! [everyone walks out of the kitchen]

Lynn Sr.: Come on everyone! Free food for everyone!

Health Inspector Dennis: [tries to crawl out] Oh, boy, I'd like a a burger. [door slams in his face. Scene cuts to outside where it's stormy again]

Narrator: Well, that's the story. Yes, they are all idiots, aren't they?

Later we were talking to the Health Inspector at our table as Varie was tending to his his injuries.

Me: Sorry about what happened to you. They thought you were a criminal posing as a health inspector to get free food.

Health Inspector Dennis: I understand J.D. But I had no idea there was an imposter going around.

Lily: Wow.

Me: But thank goodness I caught him.

Nico: Good.

Jack Atlas: Carly, you were willing to go to jail for me. Why?

Carly Carmine: Because you don't deserve to go to jail. If you did, I don't know what I would do with my self.

Jack Atlas: Oh Carly.

They then kissed.

THE END

Another SpongeBob Land Episode done.

Nasty Patty was an awesome and really funny episode! If I ate a burger like the Nasty Patty, I would hurl my guts out for years. It aired on March 1st, 2002 and it was really funny! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is the awesome SpongeBob episode SpongeBob SquarePants VS The Big One and we're going to have the Neptune Crusaders face a really rare surfing event to get back to Bikini Bottom and it's gonna be awesome meeting J.K.L. who was voiced by Johnny Depp. SURFS UP DUDES!

See you all tomorrow.

Neptune Crusaders VS The Big One

We were over in Tennessee to see the treehouse of the Sector N Kids Next Door. We were told that Mandy knows this treehouse and we decided to check it out.

Me: So you went to this treehouse before Mandy?

Mandy: Yep. But you're gonna be surprised when you see it.

Me: Okay.

We arrived at the Sector N Treehouse and we were shocked to see that the treehouse looked so much like Mandy's Head.

---

They first appeared in Operation: M.A.C.A.R.R.O.N.I. where Sector V had traded the Toiletnator with adult-captured Numbuh 13. None of the members of this Sector seem to like Numbuh 13. When Sector V had a transmission to Sector N, they were happy as ever without Numbuh 13, who supposedly has bad luck. It's also interesting to note that this sector seemed to want to go to any length to make it so that Numbuh 13 wouldn't be returned to them, even faking emergencies to prevent it.

The different operatives were seen seated at the Kids Next Door Super Convention Center in Operation: I.T. before and after the game of tag was played.

In Operation: Z.E.R.O., they appeared at the end with all of Kids Next Door operatives.

This sector also attended the 2x4 Technology Convention (Operation: S.C.I.E.N.C.E.), but their project was not shown in the episode. Numbuh 13 can be assumed to not have attended, but left behind for safety reasons.

Sector N is also seen in Operation: M.O.O.N. where they helped stage the fake moon landing on Kids Next Door Fake Moon Set.

In The Grim Adventures of the KND, the Sector N treehouse was attacked by the Delightful Reaper and at least Numbuh 14 was merged into the being.

The last time Sector N is seen is in Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S. where they participated in the scavenging hunt. Numbuh 13 stole a box of cookies from Laura Limpin, prompting her to transform into The Big Badolescent.

---

Me: Why does the treehouse look so much like your head Mandy?

Mandy: (Nervous laughter) I had a nasty powertrip when we met the Kids Next Door.

Me: Wow. But it looks really cool this way.

It was really cool and we met Sector V's friends from Nashville, Numbuh's 13 thru 16 and they were really nice and awesome members of the Kids Next Door and more. Thanks to forming the TLPS-KND Federation we no longer have to Decommission members of the Kids Next Door and we have them form into the next step: Working for us.

Later we went back home.

---

At the estate, we were watching TV and I was reading a book.

Then the doorbell rang.

Lori: I'll get it.

Lori went and got it and she opened the door and saw that it was her cousin Sergeant Eric Loud of the United States Navy Seals. He looks like a male version of Lori. His blond hair was in the same style as hers and it was in a cronmage and he had a sailors outfit on and he had a bunch of medals on him including the Medal of Honor.

He also had a bunch of bags with him.

Eric Loud: Hey cousin.

Lori: Cousin Eric!

They hugged!

Eric Loud: It's great to see you too cousin.

Eric came in.

Lori: Guys look who's literally here.

We saw Eric Loud.

Sheila Castille: Eric!

Eric Loud: Hey Sheila!

They hugged for the first time since their vacation.

Landon: Big brother!

Han: Welcome home big bro!

They hugged him.

Eric Loud: Hey guys. It's good to be home.

Lynn Sr.: Welcome home kiddo.

Eric Loud: Hey Uncle Lynn. It's good to be home.

Me: Sergeant Eric Loud. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Eric Loud: Same to you J.D. It's an honor to meet you. Sheila told me so much about you and how you helped her and her friends out.

Me: I don't like to brag.

Nico: Hi. You must be Eric Loud.

Eric Loud: I sure am. Nico Chan it's a pleasure to meet you.

Nico: Same here.

Eric Loud: I heard about what happened to you all because of Rotwood and I am so sorry about what happened.

Nico: It's all right Eric but thank you.

Later we were talking to Eric.

May: How did you and Sheila first meet?

Eric Loud: That is an interesting story. We met when Sheila was touring Pearl Harbor and I took her on an awesome plane flight around the island in a P52 Mustang.

Me: That's one of my dads favorite airplanes, the Flying Tigers are the P52 Mustangs.

Eric Loud: Yep. She had such an awesome time in it.

Sheila: It was awesome and it was so cool!

Laney: That's awesome.

Lana: It sure is.

Leonardo: I remember when me and my brothers first met Sheila.

Eric Loud: What was she like?

Michelangelo: She was a mindless spider monster who tried to eat us.

Raph: (facepalms) Way to be blunt, Mikey!

Me: That was the adventure where we cured her.

Eric Loud: I remember she told me about that. That is amazing.

Me: It sure is. We also gave her the ability to change at will.

Eric Loud: Wow.

Donatello: Has Sheila shown you her Shredlegs form at all?

Eric Loud: She sure did. I didn't mind that she had to be naked when she changed.

Me: Shredlegs is a Uintahzian Rockspider from the planet Uintahzia. It's located in the Andromeda Galaxy.

Eric Loud: Wow.

Lola: It sure is an amazing planet.

Lily: We've seen many kinds of planets and more.

Eric Loud: That's what I heard.

Eric told us that they had an awesome time in Hawaii. But another big thing that he told us was how he killed the leader of Al Qaeda and how he avenged all of the 3,000 people whose lives were slaughtered in 2001. He is a true war hero in the War On Terror.

---

Later at the Krusty Krab, us and the Neptune Crusaders and SpongeBob were sweating like pigs and SpongeBob's foot makes a slurping sound as he sucked in all the sweat.

Squilliam: [sweating] If it gets any hotter in here, we're gonna have to put fried calamari on the menu.

Nico: I know. It's really hot.

Lana: I'm not complaining.

Me: It's really hot.

Molly Malloy: It sure is.

Nico: Yeah.

Lana was using her ice powers to cool down.

Lana: I can't believe that it gets this hot down here.

SpongeBob: It's a good thing that new ceiling fan Mr. Krabs installed earlier is still working. [The fan stops]

Lana: Uh oh.

Naruto: It's out.

Mr. Krabs: Were you talking to me, guys?

Nico: I don't know.

SpongeBob: Mr. Krabs. The f-f…

Mr. Krabs: Good word, boy! Don't sneak up on me like that.

Cleo: He didn't.

SpongeBob: The fan… it…

Mr. Krabs: You're not wearing shoes, lad. You're not going Section 8 on me, are ya?

SpongeBob: I was wearing shoes. They… It's so hot, they melted off.

It shows that his shoes were melted off in a black puddle of crud.

Nico: Ouch.

Mr. Krabs: Melted off?

Laney: The fan stopped working.

Mr. Krabs: Huh?

Lily: I think Mr. Krabs forgot to pay the electric bill again.

SpongeBob: Mr. Krabs, you didn't… forget… to pay the power bill again, did you?

Mr. Krabs: Of course not! Here. Just fan yourself with some of this junk mail I keep finding in me mail box. [gives SpongeBob the "junk mail," which says: Power Bill Final Notice]

Lily: He forgot to pay the Power Bill.

Nico: I got this.

Nico wrote a check for the Power Company for $9,000,000.00

SpongeBob: [fans himself]

Varie: I know. It's really hot.

Mr. Krabs: That reminds me. Where are all the customers?

Squilliam: Probably out enjoying this beautiful day where it was meant to be enjoyed.

Mr. Krabs: Could you be a little more specific?

Squilliam: They're at the beach.

Mr. Krabs: Boys, I forgot to tell ya! Close up shop. We're going to the beach today!

They cheered.

Squilliam: Hallelujah!

[SpongeBob rips off his square pants revealing a blue swimsuit, innertube, waterwings and snorkel. The scene cuts to Goo Lagoon]

Mr. Krabs: Ahoy there!

Nat: Whoa!

Nico: Ahoy there good sir.

Mr. Krabs: My name is Eugene Krabs and I would like to know if I could interest either one of you in a fresh, delicious…

SpongeBob: [picks up a Krabby Patty with his spatula]

Mr. Krabs: Krabby Patty, fresh off the grill!

Frank: Are they free?

Mr. Krabs: Yes! Today, they're only three dollars! Each.

Frank: Sounds great. But I left my wallet up on the sand.

Squilliam: I told you!

Sandy: Yeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee

SpongeBob: What?

Rikki: Whoa!

Sandy: -eeeeeeeeeeeeeee-

Frank: [shrugs]

Sandy: -eeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee-haw! I love the beach!

SpongeBob: Oh, that noise was Sandy.

Luna: Hey Sandy.

Sandy: Y'all be careful! Looks like some big waves a-comin'!

Squilliam: Can't wait to start surfing.

Mr. Krabs: Be careful lass.

Sandy: Cowabunga!

Squilliam: What next?

Patrick: [pops up from underwater]

SpongeBob: Aloha, Patrick!

Nico: Hey Patrick.

Patrick: Hey guys.

SpongeBob: How'd you like to be our first customer in over seventeen working days?

Patrick: I'd love to!

Lana: Awesome!

Mr. Krabs: Squilliam, show him the menu.

Squilliam: [holds up the menu]

Patrick: Uh, I can't quite see it from here. I'll just have to climb on board.

SpongeBob: Ha, ha, ha! That's a good one Patrick: on-board! Whoa!

[Patrick is trying to climb onto the surfboard]

Nico: WHOA! WHOA!

Mr. Krabs: Careful! You're gonna capsize us!

Patrick: Almost up! [shaking the board all over the place]

Squilliam: OH NO!

Patrick: [waving arms uncontrollably. This moves the surfboard] Whoa, whoa, whoa! Eeeeeeee!

SpongeBob: Patrick! Look out!

Sandy: [riding a wave] Locals only!

Lily: Everyone is welcome!

Lincoln: Yeah!

Patrick: What'd she say?

Nico: INCOMING!

[all crash]

Mr. Krabs: Aaaaaaaaahhhhh! [hugs his cash register] Aaaaahhhhhh!

SpongeBob, Patrick, and Squilliam: Aaaaaaaaaaaahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!

Neptune Crusaders, Nico, SpongeBob and Patrick: [hug Squilliam] Aaaaaaaaaaaahhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!

Sandy: Wipeouuuuuuuuuuuuut! [lands on an island]

Mr. Krabs: Yaaaaaaaaaaaaaah! [lands in the middle of the ocean] Wha? Where'd the beach go? These waters are calm. Too calm. [Dark clouds fill the sky] Black sky. [Blood shoots out of the water] Water spouts… of blood. [Three donuts fall from the sky. Krabs takes a bite of one] Jelly donuts falling from the sky. What could this mean? There's only one logical answer. I've landed right in the middle of Dutchman's Triangle. Right above Davy Jones' Locker. In the Devil's Galley. [another donut falls from the sky. The scene cuts to an island. Not the one Sandy landed on, but an island]

Awesome Eddie: Guys, look!

The Neptune Crusaders were on another island.

SpongeBob: [uses seaweed to draw in the sand]

Squilliam: SpongeBob, what are you doing with that seaweed?

SpongeBob: Just dragging it around.

Nico: Man this is cool being on an island.

Lana: Yeah.

Nokama: It's neat though.

Gali: I'll say.

Twitch: Hey there, home-dads.

SpongeBob: Huh?

Twitch: Welcome to our remote island.

Emma: Island?

SpongeBob: Island?

Squilliam: Island?

[Patrick is snoring]

Twitch: That's right, kemo sabe. Island. Although, we sometimes refer to it as an… island.

SpongeBob: We were just at Goo Lagoon selling Krabby Patties when this big wave hit us. Now we're on an island?

Twitch: The ocean works in mysterious ways.

Gali: It sure does.

Lana: Yep.

Lily: Amazing.

Awesome Eddie: And waves.

Twitch: Mysterious waves.

Island wanderers: [fold hands] Om. [except for Silent Stan but he does put his hands together]

Patrick: [folds hands] Om.

Lily: (Folds Hands) Om.

SpongeBob: How did you guys get here?

Gali: That's what we were wondering.

Twitch: Oh, we've been here since we dropped out of junior college. This is Awesome Eddie, Big G…

Chip: Hi.

Twitch: Chip, and Silent Stan.

[Silent Stan makes a "Shocka!" sign since he can't talk]

Twitch: And I'm Twitch.

SpongeBob: Why do they call you Twitch?

Twitch: [twitches] What?

SpongeBob: Never mind.

Lily: I've seen that before.

[The scene cuts to either later that day or a few days later]

SpongeBob: So what did you say this house is made from again?

Twitch: Guano.

Lana: It's bat poop.

Squilliam: Clever

SpongeBob: Well, it's been fun hanging out with you guys, but Mr. Krabs didn't give us the day off. So we gotta get back to Goo Lagoon.

Twitch: Yo, you're miles from the tourist track now, dudes.

Awesome Eddie: Yeah. The only way back is to surf there.

SpongeBob: [scared] O-only way… back… surfing… Bikini Bottom? [screams] Aaaaahhhhhh! [starts running in circles around the fire] I don't know how to surf! [starts crying]

Awesome Eddie: Whoa, chill out, little dude. We can teach you.

SpongeBob: [stops running and crying] Cool!

Lily: My big brother Lincoln is a surfer. He surfed the largest and biggest and rarest wave in the world.

Laney: He sure did.

Nico: Yep.

Twitch: Neat!

[The scene cuts to a scene where Twitch is teaching SpongeBob and Patrick to surf. A narrator speaks]

Narrator: Ah, learning how to surf. To some it comes as easily as eating an ice cream cone on a hot day.

[Twitch gives Squilliam, SpongeBob and Patrick each a surfboard]

Narrator: Others…

[SpongeBob and Patrick take bites out of their surfboards]

Narrator:… to them, it's like eating an ice cream cone… on a cold day. Sometimes, in surfing, it's the approach that's most important.

SpongeBob and Patrick: [throw their boards into the water]

Narrator: And sometimes, it's the retreat.

[Squilliam, SpongeBob and Patrick's surfboards get hit by a wave and are knocked back to shore. Everyone runs away from the flying surfboards, screaming.. Squilliam, SpongeBob, Patrick and Twitch are sitting on surfboards]

Narrator: Once in a life-time, that perfect wave comes along. Not too big, not too small, and the surfer has to act fast…

Twitch: Go!

Narrator:… or he stands to miss the ride of his life.

SpongeBob: Hey, Patrick! Wanna see something cool?

Patrick: You bet!

SpongeBob: Down here! [goes underwater with Patrick] See? It's a picture of Squilliam!

Patrick: Wow.

Narrator: But all in all, in life, it's not whether we win or lose, but whether we get totally stoked.

SpongeBob and Patrick: [running around while yelling, "Loo, loo, loo!" over and over again.. The scene cuts back to the house made of guano]

Twitch: Well, dudes, I give up.

Awesome Eddie: What?

Twitch: These ho-dads are impossible to teach. [twitches] Especially the one on the end over there. [points to Squilliam, whose head is wet and has seaweed on it. Big G coughs]

Awesome Eddie: What's that?

[Big G coughs again]

Awesome Eddie: Oh, no. There's no way, dude. He'd never do it.

[Big G coughs again]

SpongeBob: What's he saying?

Twitch: He reminded us that there is one dude who could possibly teach you. If you can find him.

Gali: Who?

Varie: Who?

SpongeBob: Who?

Twitch: His name [twitches] is Jack Kahuna Laguna. Or JKL, for short.

Laney: Nice name.

Awesome Eddie and Chip: Amen. [Big G coughs]

Twitch: We say that legend says that JKL was last seen up-river at the Kahmamoku Cove, where every wave is perfect.

Squilliam: Wow.

Lily: This will be interesting.

Patrick: Will there be nachos there? [Squilliam facepalms. The scene cuts to the river that the Neptune Crusaders, SpongeBob, Patrick, and Squilliam are about to go into]

SpongeBob: Thanks again for letting us borrow these surfboards, Twitch.

Twitch: [twitches] No problem. And just keep following the river straight up until you hit Kahmamoku Cove. Can't miss it.

Lily: Right.

SpongeBob: How far up stream did you say it was?

Twitch: Well, we don't know cause we've never ever been there.

Awesome Eddie: We're definitely afraid of this river and wouldn't even set foot in it if you paid us.

Twitch: Yeah, interpret that any way you want.

Later at Goo Lagoon, Dark Spicer and the Masters of Evil came. They were asking where we were.

Dark Spicer: What do you mean J.D. and the others are missing!?

Fred: We don't know. They vanished.

Carly Carmine: I hope Jack is all right.

Dark Spicer: Feralhound can find them.

Dark Spicer turned into Feralhound

Feralhound was sniffing out our scent.

Vanitas: Find anything yet?

He was sniffing.

Feralhound: Found them!

They founded Dark Spicer as he ran onto the water and they followed him.

[Later Sandy is shown lying on a beach]

Sandy: Oh, where am I? Where is everybody? I'm stranded. SpongeBob, guys, where are you?!

[As a song plays, SpongeBob, Patrick, and Squilliam paddle themselves slowly up-river. Eventually, they come across a waterfall. Patrick takes a picture of it and SpongeBob stares at it, admiringly. Squilliam sits on his surfboard. Then, they go down a waterfall. They scream and land. At the bottom SpongeBob and Patrick laugh while Squilliam sits, enjoying the beauty and scenery of the island.]

I'll make a beeline for the treeline. Getting back to nature always does me good. I'll make a beeline for the treeline, I just can't wait to get back in the woods. And if I need to close my eyes and dream, Of some quite mountain or stream, That's when I make the beeline for the treeline.

Me: It's so beautiful here.

Laney: It sure is.

Nico: Yeah.

Naruto: It's breathtaking here.

Lily: It sure is.

SpongeBob: Could you pull over here? I gotta tie my shoe.

Lily: Okay.

SpongeBob: [walks through a bush and comes across a sign that says, Welcome to Kahmamoku Cove, Home of J.K.L., ESO] Welcome to Kahmamoku Cove! JKL! Guys! Guys! I found the Cove! [giggles]

Me: Cool!

Laney: Lets go see.

Lori: Okay

Squilliam: I bet this guy won't even be here.

Vince: We won't know until we look.

SpongeBob: Oh, don't worry, guys. He'll be here.

Lily: Yeah.

Squilliam: We don't even know what he looks like.

Nico: I bet he's as ugly as Squidward was.

SpongeBob: You've got to stop judging people by the way they look. [close-up on his face. He is very ugly and a Donkey Brays in the background]

Squilliam: [grossed out] You're right.

Patrick: [pointing to a hut] Look!

We saw his hut.

[a really long surfboard begins to emerge from the hut]

SpongeBob: It's him!

Squilliam: [Wow. The surfboard continues to come out. It is revealed to be huge] Oh, my- [faints. A man emerges from the hut]

Me: Wow.

SpongeBob: It's JKL! [Gulps] Hail O great swami of the Gnarly Pounders! We seek audience with thee.

Me: J.K.L. it's an honor.

Patrick: Plus, we wanna talk to you.

SpongeBob: Will you teach us how to surf, O great one, so we may get back home? [JKL says nothing]

Patrick: Uh…

Lily: Can you please teach us how to surf like my brother Lincoln?

Patrick: I kinda like staring at him.

[Jack Kahuna Laguna jumps into the water with his surfboard. Everyone, SpongeBob, Patrick, and Squilliam stare at him. Dolphins jump near the back of JKL's surfboard. Lily, SpongeBob and Patrick start to tear up]

SpongeBob: I've never seen anything more beautiful. Have you, Patrick?

Patrick: Not since I saw my first triple-layer cheese cake.

Lily: Amazing!

JKL: That… was your first lesson. [returns to his hut]

Squilliam: It was so magical.

JKL: [magically returns to the water. we then see him playing his drums] Just keep breathing.

Lily: Okay.

[The scene cuts to Mr. Krabs sitting on half a surfboard in the middle of the ocean. He has put a piece of seaweed on the top of his cash register. He has also grown a gray beard] [makes gibberish noises]

Mr. Krabs: [pulls a shell out of the water] Look, Cashy! [breaks the shell in half and connects them to the sides of the seaweed]

Earrings! Well, Cashy, I guess the Devil's Galley isn't so bad. As long as that Flying Dutchman doesn't appear and stick us in Davy Jones' Locker! But that won't happen, will it Cashy? [Cashy's drawer shoots out and hits the Flying Dutchman in the head who's flying by]

Flying Dutchman: Ow!

Mr. Krabs: Arrrgh! It's the Flying Dutchman!

Flying Dutchman: [drops his groceries] Aaahhh! It's some guy I've never seen before! Argh! Who be disturbing the Flying Dutchman's walk home from the convenience store? You even spilled me milk!

Mr. Krabs: I thought you were trapped in the Ghost Zone?

Flying Dutchmen: I got out.

Mr. Krabs: Well, there ain't no use crying over it. [Lightning bolts shoot everywhere] Yah! Don't worry, Cashy! I'll protect ye!

[The scene cuts to the island where SpongeBob and his friends are. They are sitting around a fire]

SpongeBob: Isn't Jack Kahuna Laguna the most totally awesome surf guru you've ever met, guys?

Laney: He is awesome!

Lincoln: He sure is.

[JKL walks by the fire and sits down with his drums]

Squilliam: Wow.

SpongeBob: Quiet, Squilliam! I think we're about to receive another lesson.

JKL: [plays his drums. Eventually, he stops, lifts his hands to the air, then plays the drums again] Just… keep breathing. [returns to his hut]

Me: Okay.

Squilliam: His surf lessons are amazing.

Dawn (Total Drama): And his aura is amazing.

Laney: It sure is.

Bridgette: Yep.

SpongeBob: Would it make you feel better if I went and talked to him?

Nico: Go for it.

Later SpongeBob came out.

Laney: Did you talk to him?

SpongeBob: Yup.

Squilliam: And?

SpongeBob: He said we just have to stare into this fire all night, and the secrets will be revealed.

Me: I understand.

Vypra: Hey guys!

We saw Vypra and everyone.

Me: Vypra, everyone.

Vypra: There you are! Do you know how long we were looking for you guys?!

Me: We got stranded out here and we're gonna try to surf back to Goo Lagoon.

Hydro Man: Your worries are over. We'll just teleport you guys and us out of here.

Me: No guys. We're gonna surf the entire way back. This'll be a really cool experience for us.

Lincoln: That's right. I surfed Humungadunga and I want all of us to surf back.

Laney: Yeah.

Lily: It's gonna be awesome.

[The scene cuts to Sandy's island]

Sandy: Well, Sandy, using only your bare hands and the resources found on this deserted island, you have not only survived, but thrived. You've built a five star hotel, a steam-powered generator, a car that runs on coconut milk, and even a espresso bar. I almost don't wanna leave. But I miss Bikini Bottom. Now I can find SpongeBob and the gang and fly us right back. [climbs into and activates her helicopter] Acorn 1 to Tower. Request clearance.

Dennis: Roger, Acorn 1. You are clear for take-off.

[Sandy flies away. The scene cuts to Mr. Krabs, the Flying Dutchman, and Cashy]

Mr. Krabs: Oh, please, Mr. Dutchman! I didn't mean to spill your groceries!

Flying Dutchman: Well, normally, I wouldn't mind, but I'm a little low on cash this month, and I have no way to pay for more. Unless you have some money I can borrow.

Mr. Krabs: No, I… [Dutchman grabs Cashy] Cashy! Please! Cashy is the closest thing to a friend I've ever had!

[The scene cuts to one of the islands. A wave washes up on Squilliam]

Squilliam: Oh, oh. Please tell me you all didn't stare into that fire all night.

Me: We did.

Nico: Wow.

Lily: It's breathtaking.

SpongeBob and Patrick: [tired from staring all night] Okay…

Squilliam: That's all right.

[SpongeBob and Patrick are knocked out]

Laney: Wow.

[Suddenly A storm of lightning starts. JKL runs away]

SpongeBob: Where's he going?! Come on! [chases after JKL. Everyone follows SpongeBob. Everyone, the Masters of Evil, SpongeBob and Patrick are running, but Squilliam is walking. SpongeBob and Patrick climb up a cliff]

SpongeBob: [gets shocked by lightning] [screams] Ahhhhhhhhhh!

Patrick: Look! He's on top of that big… drinking fountain!

Me: Those are ruins. I don't like the looks of this storm guys.

[Squilliam climbs the cliff. SpongeBob and Patrick climb the pyramid. Squilliam follows]

SpongeBob: JKL! Is this the next part of our training?

JKL: [hands in the air. He says this in a strange, echoing voice] Uh…

SpongeBob, Patrick, and Squilliam: [screaming in some way]

JKL: These clouds. They can only mean one thing.

Me: They must be a really bad omen.

Patrick: Increased chance of precipitation? [it starts raining]

JKL: Yes. Every thousand years or so, the planets align in such a way that a perfect wave is formed.

SpongeBob: A perfect wave?

Nico: A perfect wave?

Lincoln: A perfect wave?

JKL: The world's biggest, fastest, longest, gnarliest, most totally awesome, perfect wave. They call it… the Big One.

Me: Wow!

Lincoln: Like Humungadunga.

Laney: This is gonna be awesome.

Patrick: Hey, that's what they used to call me!

JKL: It's probably the only wave big enough for you to ride all the way back to Bikini Bottom. You'll have to catch it, or you'll be stuck here… forever. [Huge lightning bolts flash] The Big One is almost upon us.

Me: Looks like we're in for one helluva challenge guys.

[The scene cuts to Mr. Krabs and the Flying Dutchman fighting over Cashy]

Mr. Krabs: Please! Please, Mr. Dutchman! Let Cashy go! I promise I'll never soil your waters again!

Flying Dutchman: Ya promise?

Mr. Krabs: Oh, yes. I promise on my dear Aunt Sally's false teeth.

Flying Dutchman: [angry] Liar! [Huge lightning bolts flash. Storm clouds hover and waves emerge from the water]

Mr. Krabs: What?

Flying Dutchman: Your Aunt Sally doesn't wear false teeth!

Mr. Krabs: How do you know?

Flying Dutchman: Because I dated her in high school!

Mr. Krabs: [Gasp!] No! [Dutchman takes Cashy]

Flying Dutchman: Whoops! [accidentally throws Cashy]

Sandy: This weather sure is dangerous! I better be careful! [Cashy hits the helicopter's windshield] May Day! May Day! I'm goin' down! Repeat: Down!

Flying Dutchman: And now, just to make sure this never happens again, I'm gonna send you on a little trip down the- [Sandy's helicopter hits him in the head] -Ooh ow, ooh ow! Ooh!

Mr. Krabs: Uh… where is that, exactly? [Dutchman lands on him. They both go underwater]

Sandy: [spinning out of control] May Day!

Mr. Krabs: [pops up from underwater] Oh, all alone again. [Cashy pops up from the water] Cashy!

Flying Dutchman: [lands at the bottom of the ocean. A sock lands on his face] Oh, what the… a tube sock? But that means…

Standing in front of him was legendary lead singer of The Monkees, Davy Jones himself!

Davy Jones: Yeah, that's right, baby! Welcome… to my locker! Ha ha ha ha ha ha! For a day-dream believer and a homecoming queen! [throws a sock at the Flying Dutchman. That same song plays. The scene cuts to Kahmamoku Cove]

JKL: Get ready, dudes. It's coming.

Me: I see it.

Squilliam: I am very sorry about what Squiddy tried to do, Nico.

Nico: It's fine, Squilliam. I'm just sorry that we had to resort to Hakaiing him out of existence.

Squilliam: I know but I can tell that he had it coming.

Me: This is gonna be awesome dudes.

SpongeBob: JKL, thanks for teaching us how to surf.

Me: Yeah.

JKL: Little dudes, I didn't teach you anything you didn't already know.

Me: I know. But you are an amazing teacher.

Squilliam: Here it comes!

SpongeBob: Well, JKL, I guess this is good-bye.

Me: We'll miss you.

JKL: Wait. There's something I forgot to tell you. In return for its awesomeness, the Big One always demands a sacrifice. And one of you… will not return.

We gasped.

Nico: Oh man.

Vypra: Hefty price.

[We all surf toward the Big One]

SpongeBob: Keep paddling, Patrick!

Patrick: This wind feels like broken glass mixed with razor blades!

Me: Here it comes guys!

SpongeBob: It's… the Big One!

It was a massive wave as tall as a 100 story skyscraper!

Me: WHOA!

Big One: Ha ha ha ha ha! [grabs Patrick's surfboard]

Patrick: No!

Big One: [puts salt on the surfboard and takes a bite of it] Errrrrrrrrrrrrrrgggggggggggg!

Patrick: Hey, I was gonna eat that!

SpongeBob: Patrick, grab on!

Big One: [stares at Squlliam]

Squilliam: [panics] Aaaaaaaaaahhhhhhhhhhhhhh! [jumps on SpongeBob and Patrick's surfboard]

SpongeBob: Hang on, Squilliam! This is it!

Patrick: Time for those lessons to pay off!

Squidward: Look! That's Mr. Krabs down there!

Me: I see him.

Carly: We got to save him!

Mr. Krabs: You like it when I comb your hair, don't ya, Cashy?

SpongeBob: Mr. Krabs! Hop on or you'll be stuck here forever!

Mr. Krabs: Who said that?

Me: We did!

Mr. Krabs: Oh hey guys! [gets buried by the Big One]

SpongeBob: Mr. Krabs! I never even got a chance to tell him that I…

JKL: [on his huge surfboard] Looking for this?

SpongeBob: JKL! And Mr. Krabs!

Me: Thank goodness!

Misty Tredwell: Yeah!

Mr. Krabs: And Cashy! [jumps on the other surfboard. Then, he drops Cashy] Cashy!

[JKL dives off his surfboard]

SpongeBob: JKL!

Lincoln: NO!

[Cashy lands in the Big One's mouth. JKL follows]

SpongeBob: No!

JKL: Little dude… I was born to do this. [winks, waves good-bye, and is swallowed]

Big One: [burps]

Me: He's a true hero.

Squilliam: I guess the Big One prefers a high-protein meal.

Patrick: Now what are we gonna do?

SpongeBob: [plays JKL's drums. The storm clouds clear away and reveals a picture of JKL's face.

Me: Thank you JKL. Thank you. (Tear slides down my face)

Vypra: He's a true hero.

Laney: Yeah.

Maria: This is so much fun!

Horsea: Yeah!

Lincoln: It's so awesome!

Laney: Yeah! Woo-hoo!

Lana: I love surfing!

Lily: WEEEEE!

Lori: Bobby is literally not gonna believe this!

Leni: It's totes fun!

Luna: ROCKIN DUDES!

Luan: It surfs to conga! (Laughs) Get it?

Me: Love the jokes Luan.

The scene cuts to Goo Lagoon, where Nat and Shubie are lying on beach towels]

Nat: You hear a noise?

[Sandy crashes down in her helicopter]

Lifeguard: Everybody, look! A You-foe! [meaning UFO]

Jimmy-Gus: A spaceman!

Harold\Bill: [holding a pitchfork] Don't make any funny moves, spaceman! You're not conquering our world without a fight!

Sandy: [slaps the pitchfork] I'm not a spaceman, you dunder-head! It's me, Sandy! SpongeBob's girlfriend.

Beach goers: [act bored]

Sandy: Shucks. Now I'll never find SpongeBob and Patrick.

Gus: Who?

Sandy: My friends. They went surfing and never returned.

Gus: Is one of them, like, a little square dude with big teeth?

Nat: And a pink starfish and one the famous Squilliam?

Harold: And a bunch of them Team Loud Phoenix Storm and the Neptune Crusaders?

Sandy: You some kinda mind-reader?

Gus: No. [points at SpongeBob, Patrick, Squilliam, and Mr. Krabs]

People: Welcome home! [cheering]

Me: WOW!

Vypra: Wow. What a party.

SpongeBob: Hey, Twitch!

Twitch: [twitches] Grab a guitar, dude! Let's party!

Me: Yeah!

Big G: [coughs. Then, music starts]

Patrick: I love this song!

Mindy: Me too! Thank goodness you're all right Patrick.

Patrick: Aww.

Mr. Krabs: [laughs]

Mrs. Puff: I'm glad you're safe honey bunch.

Mr. Krabs: Thanks my little shrimp boat.

Squilliam: Look!

[JKL surfs in on a giant wave]

SpongeBob: JKL!

Me: He's alive!

Nico: Thank goodness.

JKL: Just keep breathing. [holds up Cashy]

Mr. Krabs: Cashy!

Maria: Did you enjoy the surfing, Horsea?

Horsea: I loved it!

May: It was so much fun.

SpongeBob: Turn it up, Chip! [Chip plays his saxophone harder.]

Me: This is so much fun!

Davy Jones: That's right!

Me: (Gasp) No way! Davy Jones, the Lead Singer of the Monkees!

Nico: AWESOME!

Luna: ROCKIN! I love all your songs dude!

Davy Jones: It's an honor to meet you mates.

Me: You are one of my favorite singers and it's an awesome honor to meet you.

Davy Jones: Same to you J.D. I love all your adventures baby!

Laney: We don't like to brag.

Me: Lets dance!

We had an awesome and fun time on the beaches of Goo Lagoon.

We later went back home and it was the most awesome time we have ever had.

Another awesome SpongeBob Episode done!

SpongeBob Squarepants VS The Big One is one of my all time favorite episodes from SpongeBob and it was awesome! It aired on April 17th, 2009 and it was one of the most highly acclaimed episodes ever known to the viewers. And it's one of the best ever! Johnny Depp did a great job voicing J.K.L. in the episode and it was awesome that such a high-paying star could do it. Also it was really funny seeing famous British lead singer of The Monkees, the late Davy Jones on it and it was awesome! This chapter was made as a tribute to him. Davy Jones was an awesome singer and he was really funny!

R.I.P. Davy Jones, December 30, 1945 - February 29, 2012

NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. It was one of the best chapters we've done. Next up is the second enemy of My Life As A Teenage Robot - The Armageddroid and we're gonna destroy that mondo robot and we're gonna have a surprise happen between Jack Atlas and Carly as well as send that giant robot to the scrapheap.

See you all tomorrow.

Enter the Armagedroid!

We were over in Washington D.C. at the special museum for the Kids Next Door called the Kids Next Door Seriously Cool Museum of Artifacts and Stuff. It was a really awesome Treehouse and Museum where all the famous events of KND history are shown to the world. When we formed the TLPS-KND Federation, we opened it completely to the public and to the world except to the adult villains that are still at large.

---

The Kids Next Door Seriously Cool Museum of Artifacts and Stuff is a Museum of Kids Next Door artifacts, 2x4 Technology and wax statues of villains, with a gift shop and a snack bar. Numbuh 101 is the head curator there.

In Operation: Z.E.R.O., Numbuh 0's recommissioning device is stored in there. It plays a major part in Operation: Z.E.R.O.

Also, if important emergency breakdown situations where villains attack the museum occur, there's a switch to call for Sector V's assistance.

A diorama of the missing Sector Z. It was destroyed by Crazy Old Cat Lady's cats.

The Recommissioning Module, repaired by Numbuh 86 and stolen by Father. It was later destroyed and repaired again. It was said Numbuh 86 repaired it to recommission Sector V since Chad betrayed the KND.

The KNDNA Tracker built by Numbuh 101.

Cemented-Statue Blocks.

Wax statues of KND villains. They were somehow replaced by their real counterparts, who used their position to stage an attack on the museum.

Big Brother's Big Brother's pants

KND ships, such as the P.I.P.E.P.O.D., M.O.S.Q.U.I.T.T.O.H., H.O.V.E.R.A.F.T., S.T.A.R.W.R.E.C.K. and a Kite Bomber

Random items: a large hammer, a tree stump, a cooking pan, a cogwheel, a space helmet and a cinder block.

A Limpet Mind

An old cannon, which Numbuh 363 used against The Proper Patrol.

A wooden helicopter, a road roller and a tanking ship.

Numbuh 5's Blurpleberry Supreme.

Numbuh 4's report that defeated Valerie.

Numbuh 1's Rainbow Monkey briefs from Operation: B.U.T.T..

* * *

With us was the Museum's curator Matthew A.K.A. Numbuh 101. And we also had Carly Carmine and Misty Tredwell and Toby were with us. Carly was not feeling well for some reason.

Nico: Wow! This is an awesome museum!

Laney: It sure is. I didn't know the Kids Next Door had an awesome museum like this.

Lincoln: It's really cool.

We saw statues of the villains that we all faced.

Yuko Tani: I know all these villains all too well.

Lola: So do I.

Numbuh 4: Yep. This is my arch nemesis, The Toiletnator.

Qin: So he's the Toiletnator.

Yuko Tani: Yep. He is not one of the Kids Next Door's most dangerous enemies. He was mostly kept around for comic relief.

Laney: He was a lame bad guy.

Yuko went over his history.

---

The Toiletnator (real name: Lou Pottingsworth III) is a recurring joke character from Codename: Kids Next Door. He is obviously a toilet-themed supervillain, a motif that has unclear justifications even compared to the show's other villains. He is seen as a non-threat by KND operatives everywhere and shunned by other villains to the point that they take deliberate measures to keep him away from their villainous meetings. Despite all of this, he is incredibly enthusiastic and jubilant about being a villain and completely oblivious to the fact that no one wants him. His "powers" include several toilet-related abilities such as shooting toilet paper from his arms.

He was voiced by Dee Bradley Baker.

In the episode "Operation: F.L.U.S.H.", Toiletnator decides to prove himself worthy to the other villains by defeating the KND in their treehouse. However, because the members of Sector V were away at the time, the other villains had already taken over the treehouse without resistance and as a result the empowered Toiletnator defeats his own allies, mistaking them for the kids, who arrive right afterwards just when his sudden burst of competence wears off.

In the comic story "Operation: H.I.S.T.O.R.I.E.", Toiletnator's origin is revealed: he'd once been Lou Pottingsworth III, an executive for Evil Adult Industries, before he was assigned by Father himself to become part of the company's operation to mass-produce their new vegitable: "asparigross". But when the Kids Next Door attacked the factory building site, Lou hid in a porti-potty and was trapped in there for several days when it was knocked under a large mass of rubble, forced to eat nothing but urinal cakes. There, he was visited by "The Almighty Protector of Potty" (some form of toilet god), who'd chosen him to be its knight (the only reason being that he'd been the only one to use the bathroom in a while) and bestowed him with toilet-based powers, which he used to punish kids who wrote on the bathroom walls, missused toilet paper, and forgot to flush. The comic also revealed that the Toiletnator is actually Numbuh 4's uncle and Mr. Beetles long lost twin brother.

Numbuh 4: Yeah and I found out something really strange. (Pulls out a comic) Lincoln showed me this comic book earlier and I found out that Lou Pottingsworth III A.K.A. The Toiletnator is also my uncle. My fathers long lost twin brother.

We gasped!

Me: Whoa!

Nico: That's a huge revelation.

Me: No kidding. We're gonna have to talk to Mr. Beatles later on.

Mushi: No kidding.

We then saw a statue of a strange mad scientist with a turtle shell. It was PROFESSOR XXXL!

Yuko Tani: Professor XXXL. He's another comic relief villain.

Lola: But we found out that he's also trying to invent the perfect snow cone.

Numbuh 1: And he did. It was really perfect.

Me: What was the flavor?

Numbuh 1: Tropical Fruit. And it was perfect.

Me: Wow! That must've been really perfect.

Yuko Tani: He's also a very funny guy. But he's a great scientist.

Yuko went over his history.

---

Professor XXXL (pronounced "Triple Extra Large") is a villain from Codename: Kids Next Door. He is an insane, round-shaped scientist whose main goal is to create the perfect snowcone and is known for frequently mutating himself, having different animal parts in each of his appearances (such as a lobster claw, turtle shell and octopus tentacles). He is also bent on destroying the PTA (Parent-Teacher Organization) for some strange reason. He is a true villain.

He was voiced by Frank Welker.

History

While the Professor's actual goals are harmless, if not "good" by the show's standards (centered on the interests of children), his bizarre methods of reaching them, psychopathic tendencies and overall sinister demeanor make him much more dangerous than helpful and create the illusion that he is actually evil and out to harm children like the show's other villains, which is what causes him to be at odds with the KND; in both episodes where he is the main antagonist (Operation: A.R.C.T.I.C. and Operation: C.O.L.L.E.G.E.), the only reason the kids are fighting him is because they mistakenly believe he is behind some evil plot and attack him, causing the Professor to retaliate and ruining his snowcone experiments in the process, angering him further.

Trivia

Professor XXXL is in fact a leftover character from Mr. Warburton's previous failed pilot, "Kenny and the Chimp", from which the Kids Next Door originated as an idea and the pilot of which features the Professor, is included in the first episode of the show's run alongside the KND pilot. This may be the reason for the character's rather out-of-place role in the show.

The five main protagonists of KND were initially planned to be antagonists in "Kenny and the Chimp" where Professor XXXL debuted in before the pilot was scrapped.

---

Laney: So he frequently mutates himself?

Yuko Tani: Yeah it's really weird. When we first encountered him he had a turtle shell.

Lola: It was gross.

Luan: That sure leaves you Sheel-shocked! (Laughs) Get it?

We laughed at Luan's funny joke.

Me: (Laughs) That's a good one!

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one!

Carly Carmine: (Laughs) That was funny!

Toby: (Laughs) That was a good one! I didn't know Luan was so funny.

Misty Tredwell: Luan is really funny Toby.

We then arrived at the statues of the P.T.O.O.E.Y.

Yuko Tani: The Parent Teachers Organization Of Eradicating Youngsters.

Qin: So these are the P.T.O.O.E.Y. Squad.

Yuko Tani: Yep. They are an evil version of the Parent Teachers Association. They hate kids with a vengeance.

Lola: And they were the first ever villains I killed when I started helping the Kids Next Door.

Qin: Wow!

Lola: Yep. The Principal, Mad Dad, The Terrible Tutor, Midwestern Mom and the Heli-Teacher.

Yuko Tani went over their history.

---

The Parent Teacher Organization Of Eradicating Youngsters, or

PTOOEY, is an organization of five adult villains including both parents and teachers, as their name implies. Their aim is to have grown-ups rule the world without any interference from the Kids Next Door.

Members

The group consist of the following:

Principal, a school principal and the leader of the group, who can fly but seems to do little else.

Mad Dad, an abusive father figure who is angry with a child's poor grades, even if they aren't theirs.

The Terrible Tutor, a school tutor who can fly and shoot textbooks from his sleeves.

Heli-Teacher, an old woman possessing a flying chair.

Midwestern Mom, a wrestler-like mother figure.

Biography

The organization managed to gather personal information on the members of Sector V, their treehouse and several of their enemies. They compiled this data into a folder which they delivered to Father, but later fell into the hands of the Delightful Children From Down the Lane (Top Secret Files).

The PTOOEY launched an organized attack on Sector V where several of their members breached the premises of the treehouse. Principle was quickly shot down by a laser in the treehouse's defense system. Mad Dad launched himself through one of the treehouse's windows and jumped at Numbuh 4, but Numbuh 4 was prepared and hit him with his S.P.L.A.N.K.E.R.. The next to attack was the Terrible Tutor, who proved little match for Numbuh 3's T.H.U.M.P.E.R.. Heli-Teacher followed up against Numbuh 2, who merely sent a bone flying at her and had no effect on the airborne teacher. She flew in through the window while laughing to herself, not expecting Numbuh 5 to shoot down her flying chair and throw her out. Lastly came Midwestern Mom, but she was knocked down seconds later by the Energized Fly Swatter. With the whole group defeated, the Principle called for them all to retreat (Operation: N.O.-P.O.W.U.H.).

With their opposition to the Kids Next Door, the PTOOEY was invited to a secret meeting of villains at the local movie theater by Mr. Boss to help come up with a new plan to take down the pro-kid organization. They joined in on laughing at how stupid Numbuh 4 was and tried to help capture Numbuh 4 after he fled from Big Brother's hands. They chased after Numbuh 4 riding on a cart with wheels, but slipped in mustard on the floor and got covered in ice cream when Numbuh 4 crashed his cart in the door (Operation: M.O.V.I.E.).

The members of the PTOOEY were later invited to Mr. Wink and Mr. Fibb's annual "We Hate The Kids Next Door" barbecue at their house. While enjoying themselves with the other adults, the barbecue got interrupted by the appearance of Sector V. The villains paused their barbecue to chase after the five kids, but could not catch up to them in their M.E.G.A.R.A.G.E. (Operation: A.F.L.O.A.T.).

The Principle appeared in Chester's dream after Chester was put under the control of his Happy Headband (Operation: U.T.O.P.I.A.). The Principle and Chester later drank coffee together at the Villain Cafe, before the Toiletnator interrupted all the guests by loudly announcing his intent to take down the Kids Next Door (Operation: F.L.U.S.H.).

The Terrible Tutor got invited by Mr. Boss to a big macaroni and cheese dinner, with macaroni stolen from the Macaroni Museum of Art. Unfortunately, Mr. Boss was only able to accidentally grab Numbuh 13 on his way out, and not any macaroni, thereby leaving the villains hungry (Operation: M.A.C.A.R.R.O.N.I.).

The Principle and Mad Dad were among the many villains inside of Mr. Boss' Submarine at the Grand Canyon, hiding in the sea of Rainbow Munchies and milk readied for the annual Kids Next Door celebration. They prepared themselves for a surprise attack on the KND, but the Toiletnator flushed down all the milk and took away their element of surprise (Operation: C.A.N.Y.O.N.).

Midwestern Mom and her new coleslaw bees were recently defeated by Sector V before Numbuh 362 called a global KND meeting at the Kids Next Door Super Convention Center. Numbuh 1 speculated that she called the meeting to commend Sector V for this feat (Operation: I.T.).

The whole PTOOEY were present at the Convention Center to witness the return of Grandfather, and subsequently got turned into Senior Citi-zombies. They returned to normal after Grandfather's defeat (Operation: Z.E.R.O.). They all also attended the annual Villains' Choice Awards at the Dormant Volcano, where they got covered in snot thanks to Sector V setting off all of Common Cold's snot explosives (Operation: A.W.A.R.D.S.).

---

Qin: Whoa! I would not want to have Mad Dad as my father.

Me: No one does and he is the kind of man I would kill without a single shred of remorse.

Nico: Me too.

Next we came to the statue of Gramma Stuffum.

Yuki Tani: Gramma Stuffum.

Numbuh 2: She makes really good food. But it's too fattening even for me.

Qin: So she's Gramma Stuffum.

Yuko Tani: Yep. She is an old woman that force feeds children so they'll be fat and helpless.

Yuko went over the history of Gramma Stuffum.

---

Gramma Stuffum is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. She is a fat old lady obsessed with force-feeding her disgusting food to children to fatten them up, believing that a child that is too fat to move can't get into trouble. She speaks with a German accent.

She was voiced by Grey Delisle, who also voiced Asajj Ventress in Star Wars: Clone Wars.

History

She first appeared in Operation: N.O.-P.O.W.U.H., in which she was interviewed by The Delightful Children From Down The Lane, who wanted to find a villain to bring havoc upon the KND. They convinced her to do so by saying their foes were famished. Gramma Stuffum then attacks Sector V Treehouse with her food army while their power is out. She is able to fatten Numbuh 1, Numbuh 3, Numbuh 4 and Numbuh 5 into a state of helplessness, but Numbuh 2, who has an enormous appetite and is more tolerant of her disgusting dishes, proves much more difficult to subdue. When he is finally full and about to give up, the Hamsters return and eat the rest of her food. Numbuh 2 then fires Gramma Stuffum back to the Delightful Mansion From Down The Lane, where she decides to feed the Delightful Children.

She appeared again in Operation: F.O.O.D.F.I.T.E., She is apparently revealed to be a cafeteria chef at Gallagher Elementary. During lunch period, the members of Sector V have an extended battle with her and her food, which is implied to be a regular occurrence during lunchtime. Gramma Stuffum then summons the monstrous Slamwich, which overwhelms the children until the super-powered hamster Joaquin appears and eats it. During the battle sequences are lyrically altered versions of the GWAR songs "The Private Pain of Techno Destructo" and "Gor-Gor". GWAR provided the music for this episode under the name "RAWG". After her defeat, she tells them to prepare for lunch the next day and Numbuh 4 throws a chicken leg at her, hitting her in the head as he tells her to get a real cookbook.

Trivia

Gramma Stuffum is one of the few villains to win at the end of the episode since her debut alongside Count Spankulot in the series.

Qin: Whoa!

Nico: Yeah and I may eat a lot of food but if I ate that much I would explode.

Laney: I know.

Next we went to the statue of Count Spankulot.

Yuko Tani: Count Spankulot.

Qin: He looks so much like a vampire.

Lucy Loud: And he gives all vampires a really bad name.

Yuko Tani: But he is an honorable vampire. He's more like a vigilante anti-hero.

Yuko went over his history.

Count Spankulot is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is a vampire who exists to spank naughty children who have violated rules. He appears to his victims in a terrifying way and announces their crimes and his name before he proceeds to punish them. Count Spankulot speaks with a deep Romanian accent.

He was voiced by Daran Norris.

His first and only appearance in season one was in the episode Operation: C.A.N.N.O.N. where he, among several other villains, attacks the Sector V Treehouse while its defensive systems are down and spanks Hoagie, Kuki, Wallabee and Abigail for not paying library fines before disappearing in a cloud of smoke.

In his first major appearance, Operation: S.P.A.N.K., it is revealed that Count Spankulot was sent to prison after mistakenly spanking an innocent child named Carlos, and after being released, resolves to now use his powers to help children rather than punish them. When he sees the Kids Next Door fighting Mister Wink and Mister

Fibb, he forcibly joins Sector V, who make no complaints about this so as not to invoke his wrath.

After several missions, in which Count Spankulot proves to be more harm than good, the team decides that they must find a way to get rid of him. On a mission one night, they take Count Spankulot to a house that they claim belongs to Wink and Fibb and tell him to go inside and spank them. He does so, only to realize that the house actually belongs to the Judge who had sentenced him to prison after the previous incident, and that he has been spanking him and his wife.

At the trial, the furious judge sentences Spankulot to an absurdly long prison term "WITH NO CHANCE OF PAROLE, EVER, EVER!", and the KND apologise to him for this unfortunate "accident". Kuki, not understanding that they are supposed to be lying, then reveals the true nature of the event to Spankulot while also revealing they were responsible for the incident with Carlos, so he begins furiously spanking them on the spot.

In Operation: L.O.C.K.D.O.W.N., Count Spankulot carries out his revenge on the KND by using his hypnotic powers to lure Nigel to the prison he was incarcerated in, then turning him into a spank-happy vampire like himself, and later, having him do the same to the other Sector V operatives, as well as Kuki's Big Bottom Rainbow Monkey Doll, while the treehouse is on complete lockdown during the night. It is explained here that Count Spankulot can turn other people into vampires by spanking the victim with his bare hands, which is why he, along with every other Spank-Happy Vampire, normally wears gloves, creating the Spank-Happy Vampire Army. The only way a victim can cure himself/herself of the Spank-Happy spell is to spank back the vampire that spanked him/her, or spank the original Spank-Happy Vampire (Count Spankulot himself), which is how the members of Sector V return to normal at the end of the episode.

In Operation: V.I.D.E.O.G.A.M.E., Count Spankulot turns the KND into vampires much like in Operation: L.O.C.K.D.O.W.N. (only Abigail is transformed instead of Wallabee) and is fought as a boss in the level Operation: S.P.A.N.K.A.R.I.F.F.I.C..

In Operation: S.P.A.N.K.E.N.S.T.I.N.E., before he could administer a spanking to Mushi Sanban for "murdering" Kuki's Posh Party Rainbow Monkey Doll in Operation: C.L.U.E.S., Mushi used an evil machine on him to revive the Rainbow Monkey Doll as an undead monster. He is later seen at the Sanban's dinner party, reminiscing on the old days with Lydia Gilligan.

Count Spankulot was last seen in Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S., in which the greedy Harvey accuses Sector V of stealing his medallion, which Sector V disputes by pointing out they shot The Count down, resulting in Count Spankulot Sector V a severe spanking, while Harvey leaves them to their fate.

---

Qin: Boy he really took the law into his own hands.

Laney: He sure did. But he is helping for the right cause even if it is weird.

Yuko Tani: Yeah.

We then went to a statue of Mr. Fulbright A.K.A. Mr. Boss, Numbuh 86's father.

Yuko Tani: Mr. Boss.

Laney: That still shocks me that Numbuh 86's dad is one of Sector V's enemies.

Lana: No kidding.

Lola: Yeah but we can never bring ourselves to kill the father of one of our friends in the Kids Next Door.

Lynn: That's good.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: At least we're keeping our eyes on him.

Naruto: And if he tries anything he will be in trouble.

Me: Yep. You said it bro.

Yuko went over his history.

---

Mr. Boss is a corrupt, child-hating, corporate executive who acts as the de-facto leader of the KND's standard rogue's gallery. He is the tertiary antagonist of the series. He sometimes serves as Father's second-in-command.

Early life

Mr. Boss was born and raised in the United States, and moved to Ireland around the time he met Mrs. Fulbright. Together they had three kids: Fanny, Paddy and Shaunie. Shortly after the birth of their second son, the family moved back to the United States where Mr. Boss became the boss at Werk Co..

Fighting the Kids Next Door

In Operation: D.A.D.D.Y., Numbuh 1 describes Mr. Boss as his sector's arch-nemesis (probably because Grandfather, Father and the Delightful Children From Down The Lane would all be considered enemies of the entire organization, rather than just Sector V). He is the second in Command of the villians after Father.

Mr. Boss first appeared in Operation: O.F.F.I.C.E., in which he attempts to send all his employee's daughters, including Numbuh 3, to Pluto so that his workers wouldn't have any children to go home to and could spend more time serving him. His plans are foiled by Numbuh 3 and Numbuh 4, who fortunately had been brought to work by his father despite it being "Bring your daughter to work day".

Mr. Boss is often the holder for mass gatherings of villains, such as those in Operation: M.O.V.I.E. and Operation: F.L.U.S.H., where he and his guests attempt to formulate plans to destroy the Kids Next Door.

Another major plan of his was stealing the Rainbow Monkey Lisa, and attempting to eat it in Operation: M.A.C.A.R.R.O.N.I. His plan was stopped by Numbuh 13, who did so by destroying the macaroni painting, creating the same end result of the painting's loss.

In Operation: D.A.D.D.Y., it is revealed that Mr. Boss is the father of Numbuh 86, as well as her two brothers Patrick and Shaunie Fulbright. He insists on giving his kids haircuts himself rather than paying to get their hair cut by a professional (with disastrous results). He and his daughter apparently did not know of each others agenda's at all prior to this incident. Mr. Boss at first tried to deny his villainous nature to his daughter until Numbuh 1 reminded him of his plan to send his employees' daughters to Pluto. His response was, "Not my daughter, I love my kids! It's everyone else's I hate." However Boss allowed his kids to remain KND agents rather than see them cry, as long as he could continue fighting them with his friends. He was at the Convention Center in Operation: Z.E.R.O. and a participant in the scavenger hunt in Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S..

Qin: (Gasp) He gave Numbuh 85 of Sector W a really bad haircut!?

Numbuh 1: Yeah look.

He showed us and we screamed in shock and my hair stood up in fright.

Me: SWEET MOTHERFUCKING PILES OF SHIT!

Nico: THAT IS A HAIRCUT ATROCITY!

Luan: Talk about a bad hair day. (Laughs) But seriously, that is horrible!

Lincoln: No kidding.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: Where's Patty now?

Numbuh 1: He's still in Sector HH crying his eyes out over what happened with him.

Me: We'll have to console him when we're done here.

Next we went to the statue of Mr. Angelo Fizz, leader of the Soda Control Team.

Yuko Tani: We haven't faced Mr. Fizz yet. He's the leader of the Soda Control Team and he and his team enforce the new Soda Control Act.

Numbuh 2: He's also my Arch Nemesis.

Me: What is this Soda Control Act?

Numbuh 1: It's an anti-soda drinking law that says that no one under the age of 13 is allowed to have soda.

Me: That's like an illegal version of the 18th Amendment of the United States Constitution, the Prohibition of the Sale and Distribution of Alcohol.

Nico: Yeah that is nuts.

Yuko Tani: No kidding and he's one of the villains we have yet to face.

Vince: Yuko told me all about Mr. Fizz and I'm working with the President to repeal the Soda Control Act.

Laney: Good.

Yuko went over his history.

---

Mr. Angelo Fizz is a minor antagonist from Codename: Kids Next Door. He is Numbuh 2's arch-nemesis.

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett, who also provided the voices of Major Man and Professor Dick Hardly in The PowerPuff Girls.

Mr. Fizz is the Hispanic head of the Soda Control Board. He raised the legal soda drinking age to 13 meaning children were banned from consuming it. He enforces this law strongly and dedicates himself to remove the underground soda bars and their suppliers, one of whom being Numbuh 2 of the Kids Next Door. Despite his occupation, Fizz himself is seemingly addicted to soda which possibly provides him an incentive to prevent children from drinking soda. He utilizes many soda based weaponry most notably his combat suit consisting of mostly soda barrels and bottles. He is tall and thin and dons purple shades and white suit with grey suit attire adorned by a red tie and big white shoes. His more notable characteristics are his chin and mustache.

Codename: Kids Next Door

Mr. Fizz debuted in Operation: P.O.P. He catches Numbuh 2 illegally selling soda to an illegal underground soda bar. After his men destroy the bar, he takes Numbuh 2 into questioning. Despite capturing Numbuh 2's fellow operatives, Numbuh 2 refuses to divulge any information. After the children begin ranting angrily, he storms out for a drink. Once getting a drink he looks through the observation window to find the KND escaping. He sends the guards after them but to no avail. Whilst attempting to escape from the Soda Control Board, the heroes discover a factory in which children are getting stuffed into bottles. While they are in shock, Mr. Fizz appears and reveals his plan to keep control over the children. The Kids Next Door rant angrily at Fizz causing him to go beserk. He bellows "soda" and encases himself in his soda based combat suit. He unleashes rivers of soda onto the children. Whilst Fizz battling on the conveyor belt, Numbuh 2 switches the belt on and off, shaking him rapidly. After the belt is stopped Fizz swears vengance however, before he can enact his revenge, the carbonation in his soda bubbles over leading his suit to explode. Afterwards, while the children are enjoying the soda, Fizz, under the watchful eye of Numbuh 2, searches for Numbuh 5 in all the bottles.

Mr. Fizz returns in Operation S.I.X in another attempt to defeat Numbuh 2. He has his spy, Lt. Seltzer, infiltrate an underground soda bar where Numbuh 2 and Numbuh 3 are recieving a mission. Once Fizz is informed by Seltzer of 2's plans, he sends guards to capture the heroes. However they are subdued by Robobradley while 2 and 3 escape. Once they are on the road, Fizz himself pursues them in a Soda Control Board Carbonator. He almost captures them until Robobradley breaks into the carbonator and releases his smell onto Fizz and his minions. However as Mr. Fizz has Anosmia (an ability to percieve odours) he is not affected. Fizz catches the skunk but is distracted by an oncoming Carbonater manned by Lt. Seltzer and his men. They crash causing a large soda explosion. This does not stop Fizz as he and his men immediately continue pursuing the heroes in soda related cars. They surround them and Fizz is almost catching up to the truck, however Numbuh 2 initiates the turbo boost created a large distance between them. Whilst Numbuh 2 attempts to deploy the PowerPack emergency brake, Fizz kicks him off the truck and laughs while he hangs on to Robobradley. Numbuh 3 drives the truck into a hippopotamus ranch and Mr. Fizz gloats about he will defeat Numbuh 2 on top of his contraband. Numbuh 3 abandons the wheel to save Robobradley and the truck bounces of a hippopotamus sending Fizz flying. He then finds the heroes at the Yipper Youth Club Playtime Pizza Palace and gloats that he finally caught Numbuh 2 redhanded with millions of barrels of soda. However they discover that the contents of the truck was The Delightful Children From Down The Lane's birthday cake. As they escape, Numbuh 2 realises the roadblock was to stop him from delivering the cake. He optimistically acknowledges that at least they were not caught with any soda, but Numbuh 3 returns with one giving Fizz a devious look on his face.

Fizz also makes other cameo appearances in other episodes.

Operation S.O.D.A

Mr. Fizz was the main antagonist of the gameboy advance's Operation S.O.D.A. The plot of the game is that the anti-child senate passed the Soda Control Act prohibiting children under the age of 13 from drinking soda. The Kids Next Door are outraged and decide to rebel against the act by providing soda to children secretly (which in real life could never be passed legally as it violates the right for young children to drink soda, which the U.S. constitution forbids laws that violate the rights of others). The game consists of mission where the player goes up against members of the Soda Control Board in order to deliver soda or to disrupt Fizz's plans. Mr. Fizz himself his the final boss of the game. After the battle, the volcano erupts and washes away Fizz's soda.

---

Lincoln: Whoa!

Qin: He's a monster!

Nico: It's like the Roaring 20s all over again.

Me: But with Soda. It was because of the 18th Amendment that organized crime was on the rise and gave birth to some of the most fearsome mob bosses in history.

Bai Tza: All people that we killed and hate with a vengeance.

Laney: Yep.

Next we went to the statue of Knightbrace!

Lola: Knightbrace, the Dental Vigilante.

Lana: He looks ugly.

Nico: He sure does.

Numbuh 1: I can't believe that Mr. Jelly became like this.

Yuko Tani: Me neither.

Cree: I've known Mr. Jelly for a long time and he makes really good candy.

Lincoln: Wow.

Yuko Tani: Rita is a dentist and he doesn't take the laws of dentistry into his hands like he did.

Qin: No kidding.

Rita: He gives all dentists everywhere a really bad name.

Lola: He sure does.

Yuko went over his history.

---

Knightbrace, real name Mr. Jelly, is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is an oral health-themed villain who attacks children at night and forcibly performs painful and unnecessary dental and orthodontic procedures on them. He is one of the most frequently recurring villains of the series alongside Toiletnator, Count Spankulot, and Stickybeard.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny who also voiced the Common Cold and Chester in the same series.

Origin

Knightbrace's true identity is Mr. Jelly. Mr. Jelly had dreamed of being a dentist all his life, but used extreme methods and was kicked out of dental school for trying to put braces on babies. He was then forced to work in his family's candy store, thus damaging kid's teeth rather than cleaning them. This ultimately drove him over the edge. He thus became Knightbrace and sought out to repair the damage he'd done. Knightbrace wears a dark blue/purple costume with a tooth on the front and a large halo-shaped retainer; this causes him to speak with a lisp. He also wields an extremely large toothbrush, clubbing the Kids Next Door with it and even using it to pole vault. He considers himself to be a vigilante similar to Batman, styling himself the Enamel Avenger.

Codename: Kids Next Door

Knightbrace first appeared in Operation: T.E.E.T.H.. Sector V first became aware of Knightbrace when he was encountered by Numbuh 3 while she was walking home one night after a trip to Mr. Jelly's candy store; the entire team went back to the candy store with her because her teeth got whitened to an extreme level. On the way back, Knightbrace launched a sneak attack on Numbuh 4 and nobody noticed until they reached the Sector V Treehouse, whereupon they found Numbuh 4 tied up with giant braces that stuck out very far and within minutes both Numbuh 2 and Numbuh 5 were also attacked and tied together with floss. The KND initially assumed him to be Dr. Sigmund Teef, a dentist who had offered them free checkups (and been rudely refused) earlier that day. When the villain is unmasked by Numbuh 1, he and his team are shocked to learn his true identity to be Mr. Jelly. Dr. Teef, who had been awakened by the noisy fighting, then walks into the room, at which point Knightbrace's past is revealed. Dr. Teef saves the KND from Knightbrace by giving him taffy, his "delicious weakness". Apparently, even Knightbrace has an occasional sweet tooth, despite his hatred of cavity-inducing foods.

In Operation: F.L.U.S.H., Toiletnator believes Knightbrace to be Numbuh 4, who he considers to be his arch-nemesis, when he attacks his fellow villains at the Sector V Treehouse and violently disposes of him. When he does this to Knightbrace, a view of the treehouse shaking violently is shown on screen with a rumbling sound affect.

In Operation: A.W.A.R.D.S., Knightbrace is the host of the Villain's Choice Awards. As his clothes are stolen by Numbuh 4 during the episode, he is forced to appear onstage in his underwear. He was to read the winner of Best Villain award, but was caught up in the fighting before it could be revealed.

In Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S., Knightbrace is believed to have been tie-ified by a Queen Neck Tie along with Potty Mouth while at the tieland common shopping mall. It's unknown what happened to him after this, mostly he either got eaten alive or more likely he was tie-ified and it is not confirmed if he and Potty Mouth will return back to their normal selves.

Qin: Whoa! But he deserved to die.

Laney: Yep.

Next we went to the statue of Chester.

Numbuh 1: Chester.

Yuko Tani: We haven't faced him yet. But he is one greedy S.O.B. that will be destroyed.

Nico: He sure looks like it.

Yuko went over his history.

---

Chester is a recurring villain in Codename: Kids Next Door, who first appears in "Operation: C.A.M.P.", where he was an evil camp counselor who brainwashed children and made them produce wholesale lanyards and wallets for him to sell. In subsequent episodes, his character was built upon from this, making him into a man who forms a variety of elaborate money-making schemes which all involve harming children.

Unlike other villains on the show, who generally stand for "adult supremacy" and mainly target the Kids Next Door and other rebellious youngsters, Chester is motivated simply by monetary greed and harms completely innocent children, making him one of the more vile villains in the series. By far his worst atrocity of all was in "Operation: F.A.S.T.-F.O.O.D.", in which he ran a hamburger restaurant where he intended to lure children, kill them and feed them as burgers to anthropomorphic sharks. Fortunately, Chester was stopped before he could take any victims by Numbuh 3, who had been sent to buy the team's lunch.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny.

History

He first appeared in "Operation: C.A.M.P.", in which he is the councilor of "Camp Lemmeouttaheah", where kids are brainwashed into making wallets and lanyards for Chester to sell. With the help from their new teammate Bradley and his parents, the KND defeated Chester and set the campers free.

In "Operation: F.A.S.T.-F.O.O.D.", Chester enacts what is undoubtedly his most despicable plan ever (and possibly the most gruesome operation of any villain in the entire series, and obviously crossed the Moral Event Horizon): opening a fast food restaurant called Burger Frenzy, where kids visiting the restaurant are captured and used as the meat on burgers which are then sold to sharks. This horrific plan was stopped by Numbuh 3 during her birthday "mission" of picking up lunch.

In "Operation: U.T.O.P.I.A.", Chester creates the "Happy Headband", which traps the victim in a virtual reality in which they experience a personal paradise. However, the device can be adjusted to turn the dream "sour". He intended to sell it to parents as a product designed to keep children under control. The Happy Headband was tested on Numbuh 1, who eventually escapes using the jet boots he is wearing in real life. He then puts the Happy Headband on Chester. In Chester's fantasy, he has defeated Numbuh 1 and finds himself in a room surrounded by a cheering crowd of his fellow villains. Mr. Boss then awards Chester a check for "a buhmillion dollars" for his victory. At the end of the episode Numbuh 4 turned the dial to Sour at which point Chester realized that he was wearing his own headband.

In "Operation: S.A.F.A.R.I.", Chester disguises himself as "Dr. Phineas Sharp", a doctor who gives vaccination shots for "Moosebumps". he used Nurse Jumbo, a needle hating elephant who quit working for Chester after receiving repeated vaccinations by mistake due to Chesters poor aim and Numbuh 1's quick foot work. However, the shots he gives actually cause Moosebumps, which literally turns the victim into a moose. Chester intends to saw off the antlers of his victims and use them to make "Chester's Marvelous Moosicles". Though at the end of the episode it's revealed the entire episode was the paranoid ramblings of Numbuh 1 who was trying, and failing, to explain to his mother why he shouldn't get his moosebumps shot, in the final shot of the episode it's revealed that Chester is the secretary for the real doctor.

---

We gasped.

Qin: I can't believe Chester will do anything for a major quick buck.

Numbuh 1: He's just that greedy.

Laney: Yep.

We then arrived at the statue of the most ruthless villain of them all. The Burning rucksack FATHER!

Yuko Tani: Father.

Nico: Benedict Uno. Who would've thought that Numbuh 1's own uncle was trying to wipe out the entire human race by killing all the children in the world.

Laney: Completely inhuman. He's like HIM!

Lana: Yeah!

Me: No kidding.

Yuko told us all about his history.

---

Benedict "Father" Uno is the archnemesis of the KND and the main antagonist of the series. His ultimate goal is to destroy the Kids Next Door so that adults can rule the world unopposed.

Father resides at the Delightful Mansion From Down The Lane with his brainwashed children, the Delightful Children From Down the Lane. Father usually sends other villains to carry out his work and rarely attacks the KND himself, and is thus much less often seen than the Delightful Children, though he appears in a few episodes without the Delightful Children appearing. He was first seen in Operation: G.R.O.W.-U.P., the Season 1 finale and the first 30 minute episode of the series.

It is revealed in Operation: Z.E.R.O. that Father's true identity is Benedict Uno (also called Ben for short), the brother of Monty Uno and thus the uncle of Numbuh 1.

Pre-Series

As a child in Great Britain, Benedict Uno was terrified of his own father, being extremely obedient despite his dislike for the man.

When Monty Uno decided to rebel against Grandfather, Benedict insisted that they would stand no chance against him, and, as a result of his cowardice, he did not join Monty in the uprising, which ultimately did prove successful.

Sometime between this incident and the present day of the series, Benedict took up his father's mantle as the king of evil and ultimate oppressor of children, became a demonic being similar to Grandfather, and vowed to destroy the Kids Next Door. He also moved to the United States.

Ultimate Evil

At one point, Father created the Delightfulization Chamber, a device designed to turn any kid into a mindlessly obedient and perfectly behaved child (most likely as a precaution for what happened between Monty and Grandfather, from happening to him). The first working Delightfulization Chamber was used on Sector Z. During the Delightfulization Process, the machine blew a fuse for reasons unknown, caused it to explode, and amplified its effects "eleventy billion-fold", which created the Delightful Children From Down The Lane, who from then on, would be Father's "children" and most powerful allies.

Other notable minions of Father include the Ice Cream Men, Six-Gum Gang and the Teen Ninjas, including his apprentice, Cree Lincoln and his captain, Chad Dickson. Father does not directly control the majority of the KND's rogues gallery, but frequently employs the services of other villains who, while otherwise operating independently, are readily willing to serve him.

Even the Delightful Children frequently appear without Father. Father is occasionally seen attending the villain meetings of Mr. Boss, who regularly functions as a leader of the series' lesser villains or as a second-in-command. In Operation: C.A.K.E.D.-F.O.U.R. and the comic story Operation: H.I.S.T.O.R.I.E., Father is said to be the head of a company called "Evil Adult Industries Inc."

It is also implied that Father employs several children similar to the DCFDTL throughout the world, as shown in the Interesting Twins From Beneath the Mountain and Rowdy Hooligans From Across the Square.

Battling the Kids Next Door

Father is mentioned for the first time by name only in Operation: Z.O.O.

Father was first encountered by Sector V in Operation: G.R.O.W.-U.P., in which he admonishes the DCFDTL for their repeated failures against the KND. He allows his children to use the "Really Really Incredibly Destructive Machine" to destroy the Sector V Treehouse; in the process, the Delightful Children also manage to transform Numbuh 1 into an adult with the Age Cigar. The remaining members of Sector V infiltrate the Delightful Mansion From Down The Lane to retrieve the cigar, with Numbuh 1 (now "Mr. Uno" the ice cream man) joining them to defeat the Delightful Children.

Sarcastically applauding Uno's success at defeating "a bunch of little kids", Father attacked with his devastating fire powers, but Sector V was able to triumph by covering him with all the ice cream in Mr. Uno's truck. As Numbuh 1 de-aged himself back to his old self and escaped with his team, Father could only lie on the floor, weakly ordering the DCFDTL to get his sweater.

His second major appearance was in Operation: G.R.A.D.U.A.T.E.S., the culmination of a story arc consisting of several loosely-related episodes. Here, he activates a device which creates a rapidly-expanding energy field that turns all KND operatives caught in it into animals. However, the field's reliance on the KND Code Module for its targets backfires when Tommy Gilligan decommissions himself, gaining immunity to the energy field. He proceeds to upload the DNA of the DCFDTL - and Father himself - into the KND Code Module, making them viable targets for their own weapon. Transformed into a panther, Father was locked in his own mansion's cages, allowing Tommy to free his trapped comrades and destroy the device producing the energy field. With the energy field gone, Father returned to normal, but the KND were long gone by the time he escaped his own prison.

Although Tommy's actions defeated him at the time, Father's failed scheme would bear surprising fruit in Operation: I.T. With his DNA in the Code Module, he was technically a KND operative; thus, he was able to infiltrate their Moon Base. Coincidentally, he arrived during the annual competition for leadership (a worldwide game of Tag, since nobody actually wanted the job), and Numbuh 2 was using the Code Module to track his fellow operatives. Currently "It", with ten seconds left to get rid of the status, Numbuh 2 threw open a door and blindly tagged the person behind it - unfortunately for him, Father was that person. As the villain gloated, the clock struck noon, officially making Father the Supreme Leader of the KND.

Convening the irate Operatives in the KND Super Convention Center, Father explained how his DNA was loaded into the Code Module by Tommy, thereby making him a member despite his age and decidedly anti-kid sympathies. Numbuh 86 and her team attempted to decommission him on the spot, but Father invented a new rule on the spot that prevented her from doing so. After the Decommissioning Squad stood down, Father claimed that he had turned over a new leaf; thus, he declared his intent to destroy all broccoli in the world. This action won most of the Operatives' trust, allowing him to dismiss them to their treehouses with minimal resistance. However, it was a ploy to put his foes in the way of his real aim: by infecting the KND Treehouse Central Root System with a "patent pending broccoli virus", Father planned to transform all treehouses into broccoli farms, thereby weakening the KND Operatives and providing enough broccoli to feed every kid in the world.

Numbuh 1 and Numbuh 362 attempted to trick Father into making them Supreme Leader - by complimenting him and offering advice on being Supreme Leader, respectively - but the villain was not fooled, that is, until he bragged about how he was carelessly tagged by Numbuh 2 and demonstrated on Numbuh 362, at which point 362 panicked and tagged the DCFDTL, who then panicked and tagged Father again, but in the process successfully started another game of tag. Father then created an army of clones to attack and confuse them until his status became permanent at noon.

However, his statement that no one liked broccoli proved to be his undoing: no happier about Father's plan than the KND, the Delightful Children returned the Code Module to the Operatives, who used it to track the real Father and eliminate his clones. For his last defense, Father attempted to protect himself with a solid wall of broccoli, only for Numbuh 362 to heroically chew through the mass, pin down Father, and threaten him with a piece of broccoli unless he relinquished his authority by tagging her. After Father and the Delightful Children were removed from the base, their DNA was extracted from the Code Module to prevent a repeat of the incident.

Grandfather Reborn

As the secondary antagonist in Operation: Z.E.R.O., Father employs the help of nearly every villain in the universe and organizes a massive attack on the Kids Next Door Seriously Cool Museum of Artifacts and Stuff, which appears to be a diversion for Stickybeard's armada to attack the Moon Base. However, the museum is Father's true target; more specifically, the seemingly-broken Recommissioning Module.

Back at the Convention Center, Father reveals that the Module is actually fully functional (having been repaired by Numbuh 86 to restore the memories of Sector V in the aftermath of Operation: E.N.D.), but requires the DNA of a current KND Operative to activate. Fortunately, Numbuh 1 arrives to reclaim the device, allowing Father to extract one of his boogers after Cree immobilizes him. As another Teen Ninja traps the rest of Sector V, Father taunts Numbuh 1 with the fact that he was counting on his attempt to retrieve the module, gleefully declaring that his failure will spell the end of the Kids Next Door.

With the Recommissioning Module activated, Father uses it to restore the Grandfather's memories, intending to rule the world alongside him. Instead, Grandfather calls his son a failure and orders him to leave, correctly pointing out that Father only restored him because he couldn't beat the KND himself. Dejected, Father tosses the Recommissioning Module in the trash and heads back home to wallow in self-loathing. Consequently, he is not transformed into a Senior Citizombie, and his home becomes one of the only places in the world left unchanged by Grandfather's powers.

Towards the end of the movie, the newly-reawakened Numbuh 0 goes to his brother for help and offers him a second chance to stand up to their father alongside him. Father ultimately accepts the offer, and during the confrontation with Grandfather, goes into a violent rage against his abusive father, only to immediately and abruptly abandon the fight due to a lack of willpower, saying that he no longer cares about anyone or anything else in the world at this point. At the end of the film, after the Kids Next Door Moonbase is launched at Grandfather, Father is seen in the kitchen of his partially-destroyed mansion. Looking over his shoulder at the carnage, the villain declares that he hates everyone, before returning his attention to his table.

Later Confrontations

In Operation: M.U.N.C.H.I.E.S., Father appears as one of the many villains shopping at the Supervillains Supermarket & Deli. He is the first character to claim the last box of Rainbow Munchies, only to be interrupted by Mr. Boss, Count Spankulot, and Sector V in rapid succession. This leads to a massive free-for-all as everyone in the store scrambles to buy the cereal, with Father being taken out early on when the kids trap him in a barbecue. However, Father frees himself in time to cut off the kids' escape, incinerating their ship (stolen from Stickybeard). After being briefly distracted by a sea of popcorn - popped by proximity to his flames - Father demanded the cereal from Numbuh 5, only to realize that Knightbrace had purchased it in the confusion. He insisted that Knightbrace share the Rainbow Munchies with him, only to learn that the dental-themed fiend actually planned to destroy the cereal. Infuriated at this callous disregard for Rainbow Munchies, Father formed a brief truce with Sector V and the other villains in order to beat up Knightbrace; afterwards, he was seen contentedly eating a bowl of Rainbow Munchies with the other characters.

Father was also involved in some of the later and more elaborate "C.A.K.E.D." episodes, namely Operation: C.A.K.E.D.-F.O.U.R. and Operation: C.A.K.E.D.-F.I.V.E.. In the latter, his ancestors, the Annoyingly Cute Triplets Who Lived Upon the Hill and their mother, who is Father's great-grandmother, are mentioned.

In Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S. (the series finale), Father turns into a Dragon after losing his pipe during the episode's climax. At the end of the story, it is revealed that he is the person interviewing the now-grown up members of Sector V in the present day, but it's revealed that Numbuhs 2 thru 5 had simply tricked Father into thinking that Numbuh 1 was still off in outer space somewhere as part of the Galactic KND, because through a phone call between Numbuhs 5 and 1 reveals that by this point, Numbuh 1 (now an adult) has returned to Earth, and was implied to be waiting for his old teammates on the KND-Moonbase. The whole setup was done most likely to get rid of Father by having go into space after his nephew to finally retrieve his missing pipe after all these years.

Qin gasped in absolute horror.

Qin: That's insane!

Me: He's what I call a Genocidal Parent. If he wiped out all the children in the world, we would all have no future.

Nico: Mankind would be totally extinct.

Me: That's why we had to kill him.

Lincoln: Yep.

Nico: But he deserved to be Hakaied.

Laney: Yeah!

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Guys I have something to say to Carly.

Me: Okay.

Jack Atlas: Carly, you have been one of my biggest supporters since the adventures we went on as the Signers all began and I have something to ask.

He then got down on one knee and showed a beautiful ring made of 18K Rose Gold and it had one side of it covered in red diamonds and the other was covered in orange diamonds and the face had Jack's Red Wings Signer Mark and Carly's Orange Hummingbird

Nazca Line and it was a beautiful ring. It also said J&C Forever on it. Carly gasped in shock and she had tears of joy coming down her face.

Jack Atlas: Carly Carmine, will you marry me?

Carly Carmine: OH YES I WILL JACK! YES I WILL!

Carly hugged Jack and kissed him passionately!

We cheered wildly for him!

Me: Way to go Jack!

Nico: I'm so happy for them.

Laney: Me too.

Numbuh 1: I'm happy for them.

Hunter: (German Accent) Wunderbar! Congratulations to you both!

Me: So awesome.

Carly Carmine: And Jack, I have something else too.

She then pulled out a home pregnancy test and it showed two lines for positive!

Shanan: I don't believe it!

Jack Atlas: (Gasp) I'm gonna be a father!?

Carly Carmine: You sure are.

Jack Atlas: OH CARLY!

They hugged and kissed even more!

We cheered even more for them!

Laney: We'll have to go to the doctor later on to find out if Carly is expecting a boy or girl.

Qin: Yeah.

Misty Tredwell: I'm so happy for Carly and Jack.

Nico: Me too.

Persephone: Same here.

Haiku: I am too.

Me: Nigel, how did The Adult Villains come into being?

Nico: Can you tell us?

Numbuh 1: I would be honored.

He activated his computer and we were taken on a journey into THE ORIGIN OF ADULTS!

Computer: Now, accessing historical databases.

[The clicker moves to the files that reads "The Age of Spinach," "The Origin of the KND," and "The Creation of Adults." The clicker clicks on "The Creation of Adults" file.]

Computer: You have selected historical file number 7-23-68: The Creation of Adults.

[Then the scene changes to the planet Earth and children are playing.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: In the beginning, there were children. And for a time, it was pretty cool. The kids played on the beaches, explored the wild forests, and relaxed in the fields. The world was their big, endless playground.

Girl: [throws leaves] Over here!

[We see children building treehouses, jumping on the beds, and throwing toilet paper.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: They built themselves simple treehouses and they lived without rules or naptimes. But it was not long before they became bored as children do.

[The children are now sitting around doing nothing.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: Soon, their perfect society gave way to laziness.

[A kid throws a soda can. Then we see the children, in scientific outfits, using a machine in order to create the first adult.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: Thus, did children decide to create adults in their own image. Only fatter, funnier looking, and bigger so they can reach cereal boxes on high shelves.

[They turn the knobs to make the adult fat, funny, and bigger. Then they fired the laser at the experiments and the first adult is fully created. The adult appeared as an old man with dorky glasses and a funny face. The adult looks at the kids and the kids start laughing at him. The adult smiled and soon more adults were created.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: The children dressed the adults in stupid outfits so they could laugh at them. And gave them goofy names like Mr. Pluppet.

[The traffic light clings.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: The adults, loyal and eager to please, worked tirelessly to do the children's bidding. Making them peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, cleaning up all of their messes, and building larger and more elaborate treehouses for children to play in.

[One adult is seen hammering a nail. He hits his thumb with the hammer and screams in pain. The children laugh at the man's agony.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: And yet, the adults got no respect from children. These strange short-legged creatures with snot running down their noses. With the adults already overworked and given no time to themselves, the children demanded that they construct the coolest monument yet. A grand treehouse. One larger than all of the treehouses before it. That all of kiddom could live in and play. And they called it the Super-Double-Mega-Tripple-Treehouse. The adults worked endlessly around the clock to keep this seemingly impossible vision while still keeping up with their cooking, lawn mowing, and attending to their children's wills. Like playing horsey.

Kid in cowboy outfit: [riding on Mr. Wigglestein] Yee-haw! Woo-woo-woo-woo! Whoa! Giddy-yap, boy! Whoo-hoo! Ride 'em!

Narrator/Numbuh 1: It was not long before seeds of dissent took root.

[Mr. Wigglestein loses his temper. Then we see him at his trial.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: Mr. Wigglestein. A name that will never be forgotten. He was the first of his kind to rise up against children in what would come to be known as the really bad that happened. At Mr. Wigglestein's trial, the prosecution argued for a child's right to play horsey whenever and as much as he or she wanted. But Mr. Wigglestein testified that he'd had a rough day at work and just didn't feel like playing horsey. Pressed to the point of madness by his child's constant whining, Mr. Wigglestein finally snapped. In a blind rage, he grabbed the child and rapidly paddled his bottom with his hand. This new rather stingy act was from then on called spanking and forever changed the relationship between kids and adults. The furious leaders of children quickly ordered the immediate exile of Mr. Wigglestein and every one of his kind from every treehouse on the planet. Banished from Childland, the adults set off to find their own promised land. A place without treehouses where children wouldn't always complain and jump up and down on the bed. A place they could call home. They christened this new place Cleveland and in time it prospered. The adults build suburban houses, went to lecture series, and ate liverwurst sandwiches.

[We see the adults running a factory making Rainbow Monkeys.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: Eventually, their industries bred products that not even childhood could resist. And they called them toys. But the adults demand for money, made it difficult for children to obtain these toys without having to stoop to tasks like delivering newspapers and mowing lawns for the adults. The children were outraged. Why should they be forced to pay for the adults' creations when the adults were creations of their own? Many among wish to simply take the toys, but knew they could not do so. So long as adults have the painful threat of spanking over them. So, the children devised a desperate act. One that kids will attempt a gain in the future with similarly disastrous results. The destruction of coffee. The adults' energy source. Without it, the children could march right into Cleveland and take the toys from the cranky and powerless adults.

[We see the children flying in their planes, launching water balloons to attack Cleveland.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: The prolonged bombing of Cleveland's coffee shops lasted for weeks. But unlike the children delicately and shoddily crafted treehouses, the adult coffee shops had nothing to fear from water balloons.

[The adults take out umbrellas and look up angrily at the sky. We then see Mr. Wigglestein, aka Father, leading a conference.]

Father: Fellow adults, the age of children is over!

Narrator/Numbuh 1: Outraged at the children's unwarranted attack, the adults decided that children needed what they called the Big Time Out.

[The Time Out sign blinks on and off on the screen. Then we see the children at the Super-Double-Mega-Tripple-Treehouse gathering and preparing for war against the adults. They waited and waited until they see the adults arrive in a giant robot with multiple arms.]

Leader: CHARGE!

[The children charge towards the robot at full speed while some fired water balloons with the water cannons. But to their surprise, it turns out that there is more than one robot with multiple arms. The children are completely outnumbered.]

Leader: RUN AWAY LIKE LITTLE GIRLS!

[The children turn and ran for their lives. Several robots grabbed some of the kids and start spanking them with the robots' arms. The children in planes attempt to attack the robots from above by dropping water balloons. However, it wasn't enough. The robots grabbed the planes and shakes the children out. The robots crush the planes and proceed in spanking the kids.]

Boy: Oh, that stings! Oh, it hurts! Oh, the pain! Oh, that's gonna leave a mark!

Leader: Pull back! Pull back! Retreat! Retreat!

[The robots destroy the water cannons.]

Boy: The stinginess! Ah! The stinginess! Oh, my-

[The robots chop down the treehouses.]

Narrator/Numbuh 1: Thus, did Cleveland's troops advanced outward in every direction. And one by one, the treehouses of children fell. It was not long before childhood's greatest monument, the very symbol of their greed, came under attack and the children ran away.

[A rocket that contains every children on the planet launches into the sky. All of the adults cheer.]

Woman: Ha, ha! Victory!

Man: That hurt them more than it hurt me!

Narrator/Numbuh 1: With the fall of the Super-Double-Mega-Tripple-Treehouse, the children fell back to the only remaining place where they could escape the powerful adults. The moon. Satisfied with their victory over the Earth, the adults allowed the children to live on the moon where they could make all the noise they wanted. And stay up all night eating candy and watching cartoons. And for a time, it wasn't so bad. But it was not long before children began to yearn for the oceans they once swam in, the forests they once explored, and the toys they once played with on Earth. It was at this very same time that adults fell victim to the same sins of laziness and greed that had befallen the children before them. They missed having kids doing chores for them. Taking out their trash and shoveling snow from their driveways. So, the adult ambassadors came to the moon base with plans for a civil, stable relationship with children. One where they could all live on the Earth in harmony and equality. The children decided to willingly return to the Earth and live together with adults in small groupings called families. Children and adults could finally live together as equals. Or could they?! Soon afterwards, the adults created places to imprison children called schools. Where they drained out all of our memories so that we forget we created them. And if that wasn't bad enough, they invented homework and after-school activities to control us even more. And do you hear that bzzz coming from the fluorescent lights above your heads?! That's the adult microwave cranial gullifiyer slowly turning our brains into milkshakes! And the stuff they serve on Thursdays in the cafeteria?! It's Rainbow Monkey! They're making us eat Rainbow Monkey! And then they make you brush your teeth! Because if your teeth rot out, then they can implant the sub-molar tracking devices they use! It's so they would know if you escaped! It's a lie! Everything you know is a lie!

Me: WHOA! that's incredible!

Laney: So adults were born from that one incident.

Numbuh 2: Yes.

Numbuh 1: Yes. It's awful. That's why we have to kill all the adult villains.

Lana: And we will.

Me: So Cleveland, Ohio is their main city. But if it's war they want, we'll give them a holocaust.

Nico: Yeah.

---

We then went over to Sector HH which was in the KND Moonbase and we saw Paddy with a bucket on his head. Shaunie, his little brother was with him comforting him.

Numbuh 1: Hey Paddy are you doing all right?

Paddy was crying.

I sat down on his bed.

Me: I'm sorry your hair got cut like that. The TLPS-KND Federation gives you their condolences for this.

Paddy: Thanks J.D.

Lincoln: Yeah your dad is a lousy barber.

Laney: He sure is.

Me: But I can give you your hair back.

Paddy: You can?

Me: I sure can. I used magic to make my hair indestructible and stay like this forever.

Paddy: Wow.

Me: You ready to have your hair back?

Paddy: You bet!

I snapped my fingers and regrew his hair to what it was before and used magic to make his hair indestructible like mine.

Paddy was so happy and he hugged me.

---

Later we were at the Island of Mata Nui, the Home of the Toa.

Gali: It's good to be home.

Nokama: It sure is good to be home.

Lewa: It sure is.

Amorpho: I don't believe I've ever been to Mata Nui before.

Nico: We did go to Metru Nui but we never saw the whole island before.

Laney: It's true. Now we have an opportunity to see the island before we head home and get ready for our next mission.

We got to exploring the whole island.

---

The origins of Mata Nui began with the Great Spirit it was named after. A duty the Great Spirit was tasked with accomplishing was the observation of other worlds. This was to be accomplished by Mata Nui landing on a planet and concealing his face under an island of stone and local flora by means of Energized Protodermis.

When Makuta Teridax used a Makuta Virus to bring the Great Spirit into a deep slumber, he crashed on Aqua Magna. The sudden landing caused a malfunction in his camouflage systems, which, along with leaking Energized Protodermis, created the island paradise of Mata Nui.

The Toa Metru traveled in a Vahki Transport, dubbed the Lhikan, to the island above through tunnels from the Great Barrier to "the island above" with five Matoran asleep in spheres. While on the island at this time, the Toa Metru searched it for possible locations to build villages for Matoran. They later traveled back down to Metru Nui to claim the rest of the spheres.

Later, they came back with the rest of the sleeping Matoran from Metru Nui. They awakened the Matoran, sacrificing their Toa Power in the process and becoming Turaga, and each element of Matoran built a Koro in a region of Mata Nui that reflected their element, in the locations that the Turaga had earlier designated.

Only a year later, after Teridax's promise with Vakama to not harm the Matoran expired, Makuta controlled the wildlife with Infected Kanohi masks, and turned them against the Matoran, making living on Mata Nui extremely dangerous. For nearly a thousand years thereafter, the war between Teridax's Rahi and the local Matoran coninued.

In 999 AGC the Toa Mata finally arrived after being unwittingly summoned by Takua. They collected the masks Vakama had placed about the island, then entered Teridax's lair and defeated him.

As revenge for his defeat, he awakened the Bohrok, creatures programmed to clear the life off of the camouflage covering Mata Nui's face. Because they were awakened, they believed that it was time to begin their mission, and destroyed as much of the island Mata Nui as they could before the Toa stopped them by sealing their leaders, the Bahrag, in a Toa Seal. However, once the Toa stopped them, they fell into tubes of Energized Protodermis, which transformed them into Toa Nuva.

Soon after the sealing of the Bahrag, the Bohrok-Kal, six elite Bohrok, were unleashed. They were programmed with the mission to free the Bahrag if needed. The six then traveled to each Koro, taking the six Nuva Symbols and returning to the Bahrag's lair to free them. However, the capture of the Nuva Symbols left the Toa without elemental powers, leaving the six heroes incapable of defeating the Kal. Once they arrived at the Bahrag's lair, Tahu tried using the Kanohi Vahi, which he received from Vakama, on the Kal, slowing them down but not stopping them. However, the Toa then channeled their elemental powers through the Nuva Symbols and into the Bohrok-Kal, overloading them with power and destroying them, their Krana-Kal surviving.

After Takua discovered the Kanohi Avohkii, Teridax sent his Rahkshi to find Takua in an effort to prevent him from becoming Takanuva. After all these threats, Mata Nui was badly damaged, and Takanuva rediscovered Metru Nui after Teridax was defeated. The Turaga then proceeded to tell the Matoran and Toa the legends of Metru Nui, and the population of Mata Nui returned to their original home.

After the Matoran had returned to Metru Nui, the Toa Nuva released the Bahrag from their prison so that the Bohrok swarms could resume their task of restoring Mata Nui to its "former state".

When the Great Spirit was finally awoken (with Makuta's mind), he lifted his head and destroyed the island as he rose from his resting place. The remains of the island sank into the ocean depths.

Regions of Mata Nui

The island was divided up into six "Wahi", or regions, one for each Element. Each Wahi has a "Koro," which itself has a "Suva" dedicated to the region's patron Toa. It is also said that each region has a "Kini" temple for its Toa, though little is known about them.

The villages were home to the Matoran people, each led by a Turaga elder, and, in the final year before returning to Metru Nui, guarded by a Toa.

Ta-Wahi

Ta-Wahi was a volcanic zone. It had a beach that Tahu landed on. Kapura usually practiced in the Charred Forest. Ta-Koro resided in the center of a lava lake, but it was destroyed by Rahkshi and sank into the Lake of Fire.

Ga-Wahi

Ga-Wahi was the region of Water. Ga-Koro was located on the coast of Ga-Wahi. One of Metru Nui's "suns" is in Lake Naho.

Le-Wahi

Le-Wahi was mainly jungle and swamp. Le-Koro was a treetop village.

Onu-Wahi

Onu-Wahi was an underground network of tunnels that spread underneath Mata Nui. The Onu-Koro Highway connected many of the Wahi.

Po-Wahi

Po-Wahi was a large desert at the north of Mata Nui.

Ko-Wahi

Ko-Wahi was the frozen region of Mount Ihu. It was connected to Ta-Wahi via cable that led though the Tren Krom Break. The village of Ko-Koro is located underneath a glacier here. One of Metru Nui's sunholes was located somewhere in Mount Ihu.

The Kingdom

In "the Kingdom" alternate timeline, Mata Nui had died and remained dead, and most- if not all- of the Matoran Universe was made uninhabitable via flooding and mutagen. However, the numerous species of the Matoran Universe were evacuated to the island of Mata Nui, which was outside of the Universe and therefore relatively safe.

Having sealed off all entrances into the Matoran Universe with light barriers to prevent the Makuta or any other beings of shadow from leaving, the Takanuva of this universe then formed a new society on the island of Mata Nui; knowing that none of the species from the dead universe could survive alone, he brought them all together, and over ten millennia they built the Kingdom; a sprawling mega-city originating from the island of Mata Nui and expanded via artificial landmasses, inhabited by all manner of species all working together in harmony. For his efforts, Takanuva was made leader of this city, and he used his Toa power to create a new set of Toa to help protect it. Now a Turaga, he formed a Council of most of the leaders of the species inhabiting the Kingdom.

By the time the main universe's Takanuva was sent there, however, the original island (being part of the now dead Matoran Universe's exterior) was in danger of collapsing and taking at least part, if not all, of the Kingdom with it. While Onua and others have tried to stabilize it, Turaga Takanuva notes that they will have to abandon it eventually, moving elsewhere on Aqua Magna or possibly "to the stars" via an unmentioned project by Nuju and Nuparu. The eventual fate of the island is unknown.

Trypticon: (sees Tarakava) What are you looking at?

The Tarakava hissed at Trypticon.

Hulk: Hulk think Mata Nui cool.

Cybertron Metroplex: (Scottish Accent) It's a good thing Teridax is dead lads.

Tahu: But there have been rumors about villainous groups like the Piraka and the Barraki.

Me: Then we'll be ready for them when the time comes.

We saw the zones of each area of Mata Nui. First we saw the volcanic area Ta-Wahi.

---

Geographic features of Ta-Wahi are principally influenced by Mangai Volcano; embellished by molten lava flows which forge the region's terrain. Caverns, ravines and falls are carved by the fluctuating torrent, leaving jagged formations of igneous rock and polished cliffs - such as Ta-Koro's surrounding Lake of Fire.

Despite the seemingly inhospitable terrain, the plains of Ta-Wahi were capable of sustaining life; the volcanic region was once home to a large, lush forest. However, after a major battle between Jala's Ta-Koro Guard and Teridax's armies of infected Rahi, the forest was set ablaze, leaving the trees twisted and black; this now-dark and dangerous place became known as the Charred Forest, and few Ta-Matoran ventured into its depths unless they were hunting Rahi. A sole exception was Kapura, who was frequently seen there practising.

At Ta-Wahi's edge was an unnamed beach with volcanic sand and steep black cliffs; carved into one such cliff was a statue of a face representing Mata Nui (which concealed a portal into the Bohrok Nest). When facing the sea, to one's left was another cliff that extended out into the sea; a staircase was carved into the side of this formation, so one could access the Amaja Circle and the mysterious Great Telescope at the cliff's summit.

History

Ta-Wahi was created when Mata Nui's camouflage systems malfunctioned after crash-landing on Aqua Magna. An island was formed over his face, and energised protodermis created vegetation.

When the Toa Metru first arrived on Mata Nui, they scouted the island for possible locations to build villages for the rescued Matoran to live in once they were awakened. Toa Vakama found the hot climate of the volcanic region around the Mangai Volcano to be reminiscent of Ta-Metru, and decided upon a rock located in the shadow of the Mangai Volcano to be the location of his "Ta-Koro."

The Toa later returned, this time with all the Matoran pods from Metru Nui, and sacrificed their Toa Power to awaken the Matoran. The new Turaga Vakama then led the Ta-Matoran to the location he chose for Ta-Koro. The village was then built by the efforts of the Ta-Matoran.

After one year of peace, Makuta Teridax, who was hiding away in Mangaia, began enslaving Rahi using infected Kanohi masks. The six Wahi were then faced with multiple Rahi attacks.

After over nine centuries of Rahi attacks, the Toa Mata were summoned to Mata Nui by Takua. Tahu, after rebuilding himself, journeyed toward the Charred Forest. Tahu was then caught in a trap, which was created to capture Rahi. Tahu then freed himself using his fire powers, and the Ta-Matoran tried fighting back, but their attempt was stopped by Vakama.

Kopaka, who had journeyed to Ta-Wahi to find his Kanohi Pakari located on a small island across a lake of lava. He eventually got across by freezing a spring of water, then used the ice as a boat. However, the ice didn't last in the return trip, and Kopaka, using his new Pakari, jumped across. His jump wasn't far enough, but he was saved by Lewa.

The Bohrok-Kal Tahnok-Kal arrived in Ta-Koro following the imprisoning of the Bahrag. He stole Tahu's Nuva Symbol and nearly awakened the Bahrag with the other five Bohrok-Kal, but were stopped by the Toa Nuva.

Some time after, Takua had gone off on his own right before the Kolhii Tournament. He had managed to cross a river of lava and reached a pedestal on the other side, a rock on top of it. The rock then fell into the lava, and the Kanohi Avohkii emerged. Takua tried crossing the river again, by floating across the lava, but failed, though he was saved by Tahu Nuva.

After Ga-Koro won the Kolhii Tournament, the Kanohi fell out of Takua's pack. The Matoran, Turaga, and Pohatu, Tahu, and Gali then followed the Turaga to the Ta-Suva, where Nokama translated the text on the back of the mask.

After sending Takua and Jaller off to find the prophesized seventh Toa, three of Teridax's Rahkshi, Lerahk, Panrahk, and Guurahk, attacked Ta-Koro to find and destroy the Avohkii and the herald. This resulted in the enitre village of Ta-Koro sinking into the lava of Mangai Volcano.

The inhabitants of Mata Nui later left the island after the entrance to Metru Nui was discovered. The Toa Nuva later released the Bahrag from their Toa Seal, and the Bohrok cleaned the island.

Ta-Wahi was destroyed when Mata Nui awakened and his face pushed through the surface of the island.

Me: Wow! So this is Ta-Wahi.

Tahu: Indeed my brother. It's where I live and it's where my power comes from.

Lana: It sure is amazing.

Nico: Yeah.

Next we were over in the Island region of Mata Nui called Ga-Wahi.

---

Most of what was considered Ga-Wahi was underwater, but there were also grasslands and white-sand beaches on the western half of it, ultimately touching the Mangai and Mount Ihu. The northern side was lined with high sandstone cliffs, from which Naho falls constantly flowed. Floating on the sea was the village of Ga-Koro, which was constructed from bamboo and extremely durable plants resembling lily pads and seaweed. A bridge connected the village to the beach. The seas below Ga-Koro were abundant with all sorts of life, being home to (among other creatures) Takea sharks, schools of Ruki fish, Keras crabs and even the fierce Tarakava lizards.

History

Minutes after the Great Cataclysm, Ga-Wahi formed as a part of Mata Nui. Several days later, the Toa Metru arrived in search of a new home for the Matoran of Metru Nui. Nokama decided Ga-Wahi would be a suitable place for the Ga-Matoran - the large amount of water made it reminiscent of Ga-Metru.

Later, the Visorak on Metru Nui drove several Rahi from that city to the island of Mata Nui, including several to Ga-Wahi. Eventually the Toa Metru returned with the amnesiac Matoran of Metru Nui, became Turaga, and started a new life on Mata Nui.

Nokama and her Ga-Matoran found a lake that they named after the late Toa Mangai Naho. There, they built a village of durable lily pads that they called Ga-Koro, meaning "Water Village". They named the location itself Ga-Wahi, meaning "Water Region".

In 1 AGC, Teridax came to the island of Mata Nui and began infecting Rahi and using them to keep the Matoran from returning to Metru Nui. This went on for hundreds of years. In 1000 AGC, Gali and the other Toa Mata arrived on the island. Gali became Ga-Wahi's protector after arriving on Mata Nui.

MNOG Ga-WahiAfter the Toa Mata defeated Makuta, he unleashed the Bohrok onto the island. The Bohrok had originally been purposed to clear the camouflaging flora when the Great Spirit destroyed the island upon leaving the planet he was currently observing from. However, they had now been awakened when they were not intended to and began to destroy Ga-Wahi and the other regions of the island even while there were still living beings in it. Eventually, the Toa Mata sent the Bohrok swarms back to sleep, right as a swarm of Pahrak were about to decimate Ga-Koro. After the Bohrok Wars, a deep vault was dug on the shores of Ga-Wahi to seal in the Krana captured from the deactivated Pahrak, never to be opened again.

After the coming of the seventh Toa and the rediscovery of Metru Nui, Ga-Wahi was abandoned as the Matoran left for Metru Nui.

When the Toa Nuva later freed the Bohrok swarms so they could do their job at the right time, Ga-Wahi was laid bare. A few days later, when the Great Spirit Mata Nui was finally awakened and stood up, Ga-Wahi fell off of his face and into the Endless Ocean, destroying it.

Luna Loud: Wow! This is rockin dudes!

Sophie Casterwill: (British Accent) It sure is really beautiful here.

Lok: I wouldn't mind coming here for a vacation.

Zhalia: Me neither.

Laney: It's beautiful.

Gali: That's my home for you. It's for the water and it is my power.

Next we were in the jungles of Le-Wahi

---

The region was distinguished primarily by being almost entirely lush forest and jungle, with trees that reached incredible heights and beautiful plantlife. It was also home to almost as much fauna as there was flora, being populated by all sorts of Rahi, from birds like the Gukko and Kewa to large quadrupeds like the Ash Bear. The village of Le-Koro was located in its treetops, where the Le-Matoran thrived.

History

Le-Wahi was formed along with the rest of the island when the Great Spirit was rendered unconscious by the machinations of Makuta, and fell face-up into the seas of Aqua Magna; his malfunctioning camouflage systems caused the island to form over his face.

Air village 4

Shortly after this Great Cataclysm, the Toa Metru would arrive on the newly-created island with the rescued Matoran of Metru Nui, and make the island their new home. After exploring the new environment, Toa Matau found the southern jungle area he dubbed Le-Wahi to be the most appealing for the people of Air, as its dense trees and vines mimicked the chaotic nature of the Le-Matoran's original home of Le-Metru. Later, after sacrificing his Toa Power to reawaken the Matoran, the now-Turaga Matau helped his people construct the village of Le-Koro high in the treetops of Le-Wahi.

Dark Time

For some time, the Le-Matoran enjoyed a life of peace, prosperity, and happiness. However, after 100 years, Teridax returned to attack them, infecting hordes of Rahi with his dark influence and unleashing them on the Matoran; this period of turmoil came to be known as the Dark Time. At one point during this time, Turaga Matau himself was captured by a flock of infected Kewa birds and held against his will in their nest; fortunately, a wandering Ta-Matoran known as Takua arrived in Le-Wahi, and saved the Turaga of Air.

After healing the Vuata Maca Tree with a crystal, the traveler also found a Toa Stone that Matau had hidden long ago inside a false tree, and after finding five other such stones hidden in the other regions of Mata Nui, assembled them at Kini-Nui. This created an explosion that sent Takua flying through the air, ultimately crashing into the sands of Ta-Wahi beach and losing his memory. Unbeknownst to the Matoran, the explosion had been a signal summoning six large canisters to the shores of each island region. The one that reached Le-Wahi's Kanae Bay bore Lewa, the Toa of Air.

Quest for the Masks

The first mask Lewa found a Kakama was located at the bottom of an underwater cave in Le-Wahi. However, his foot got caught in a tangle of seaweed, and the Toa of Air would have drowned had he not had his Air Axe to cut through them and the newfound speed granted by the Kakama to rocket to the water's surface. Immediately, afterward, however, he was suddenly attacked by an ambushing Nui-Rama, and a Muaka appeared to finish him off; only with the help of Toa Onua of Earth was Lewa able to survive.

Another Kakama - this one belonging to Tahu, the Toa of Fire - was also located in Le-Wahi, stuck high up in a large tree. Tahu and his companions, Gali and Onua, tried several different ways of retrieving the mask, but Tahu grew impatient and used his Fire Sword to burn the tree down. Though this was successful, it also set several neighboring trees ablaze, forcing an angered Gali to put out the flames with her water powers.

The Battle of Le-Wahi

At some point toward the end of the Toa's quest, Le-Wahi became the site of a major battle when Makuta assaulted Le-Koro with a massive swarm of infected Nui-Rama, abducting Matau and most of the village's Matoran and forcing them to work in the Nui-Rama Hive. Even Lewa himself was captured, and had his mask replaced with an infected one, enslaving him to Makuta's will. Only a small handful of Le-Matoran - including the Gukko Force Commander Kongu, Navigator Tamaru, and the Musicians Sanso and Makani.

Shortly after the first attack, Takua returned to the village and met the remaining Le-Matoran, only for the Rama-swarms to begin another attack on the village only minutes later. In a daring move, Kongu led a rescue mission by Kewa bird into the hive, with himself leading the attack on Ka, his pet Kahu, while Takua rode behind as second, bringing down any Nui-Rama that tried to stop them. They ultimately made it into the hive, but the rescue attempt was short-lived, as a green blur knocked them out of the sky, grounding and injuring Ka. Speaking to a broken-spirited Matau, Takua learned that even Lewa had fallen victim to the swarms, and under Makuta's influence was now an even bigger threat than any swarm of Nui-Rama.

Seconds after the conversation, Lewa himself appeared (now in a blank-eyed, zombie-like state due to the stained and pitted mask on his face), followed by a large Nui-Kopen (which held Lewa's mask in two of its claws). What he and the swarm leader would have done to the Matoran is unknown, however, because at that moment Onua burst through the earth to confront the possessed Lewa. A vicious battle ensued between the Toa of Earth and Air, which ultimately ended when Onua used a Noble Matatu to telekinetically knock Lewa's infected mask off with a Hoto Bug. He then used the Matatu to snatch Lewa's real mask from the Nui-Kopen's grasp and return it to the weakened Toa. Now freed from Makuta's enslavement and with his powers fully restored, Lewa leaped aboard the Kopen, and manipulated it via Komau to help rescue the captured Le-Koronans, along with Takua and Taipu. After returning to Le-Koro, Matau, the Le-Matoran and Taipu all celebrated their newfound freedom, while the two Toa resumed their quest and Takua continued his own journey.

The Bohrok War

Later, Le-Wahi and its inhabitants would again fall victim to another attack, this time by the swarms of the Bohrok. Lehvak and Nuhvok laid waste to the region, dissolving flora with acid and levelling trees. They even destroyed Le-Koro, and Matau and all but two of the Le-Matoran were captured by the Bohrok. Their masks were then replaced with Krana, making them all mindless drones of the Bohrok. Shortly afterward, Lewa returned to his home from Ta-Koro to discover that his entire village had fallen to the Bohrok. The Krana-controlled Le-Matoran and Matau pled for Lewa to free them, claiming that the Krana's hold over them was limited to their bodies and not their minds. However, as he tried to help them, the Le-Koronans all overpowered him and replaced his own Golden Kanohi with a Krana Za.

Worried for Lewa's safety, Onua ventured into Le-Wahi, only to be attacked by the Krana-possessed Toa himself. This time, however, Lewa had the upper hand, as the Krana Za's telepathic power meant that he could anticipate any attack Onua thought of initiating. Lewa was on the verge of finishing off the Toa of Earth, but Onua managed to appeal to Lewa's true nature. Finding himself unable to kill his brother, and managed to overpower the Krana and rip it off his own face.

Meanwhile, the two sole Matoran who escaped the Bohrok attack, Kongu and Tamaru, set up camp somewhere with Takua, Nuparu and the newly-founded Boxor Squad. Together, they devised a plan to free the other Le-Koronans: Since the Nuhvok were invincible in close quarters, Tamaru and Kongu lured them out of the dense jungle and into a clearing; here, they were seemingly cornered by the Bohrok and the infected Matoran (led by a Za-wearing Matau), but suddenly holes opened up in the earth beneath the controlled Matoran, trapping them and allowing the free Matoran waiting below to remove their Krana, while Nuparu's new Boxors advanced from their hiding spots to deal with the Nuhvok.

After the Toa Mata ultimately defeated the Bohrok swarms, they were exposed to energized protodermis and transformed into enhanced versions of themselves, becoming the Toa Nuva - as a result, a unique symbol for each Toa appeared in each Koro's Suva, including the shrine in Le-Koro. The village itself was rebuilt and expanded, but it would be a while before Le-Wahi's ravaged ecosystem recovered, and the swamps below remained dark and fearful places where few Matoran dared go.

The Coming of the Kal

Shortly after being transformed by energized Protodermis, the now-Toa Nuva chose Le-Wahi as a location to test their newly-enhanced powers in a mock battle. However, the duel soon became personal between Tahu and Kopaka, and Gali was forced to cut the exercise short.

Not much later, six silver-colored Bohrok were seen infiltrating each village around Mata Nui, and stealing their Nuva Symbols - as a result, the Toa Nuva lost their elemental powers. While wandering through Le-Wahi, Tahu Nuva, Takua and Jala found the now-powerless Lewa sprawled in a bush; he had been flying after the black-and-silver Bohrok who had stolen his symbol but had suddenly found himself unable to control the air on which he flew. He was the first of the Toa Nuva to join the powerless Tahu in their quest to defeat the Bohrok-Kal.

Later in the struggle, Gali, Kopaka and Lewa joined to form Wairuha Nuva in an attempt to stop Gahlok, Kohrak and Lehvak-Kal; however, they were soon overpowered and separated when the three elite Bohrok joined to form Bohrok-Kal Kaita Ja.

The Quest for the Seventh Toa

Takua and Jaller would later travel again through Le-Wahi (this time aboard Pewku, Takua's pet Ussal Crab) in their search for the Seventh Toa. However, they were attacked by an Ash Bear known as Graalok; fortunately, they were saved by Lewa, who explained that the bear was simply protecting her territory, calmed the Rahi and gently sent her away. He then summoned a native Gukko bird to carry them to Ko-Wahi.

The Awakening of Mata Nui

In order to prepare for the Great Spirit's awakening, the Toa Nuva were forced to free the Bahrag from the prison they had placed them in years ago, and unleash the Bohrok swarms again to wipe the island of Mata Nui clean of all obstructions. Le-Wahi was stripped of all vegetation, and later completely shattered by Mata Nui's massive head rising from the depths of the sea.

---

Laney: Wow! This is amazing here.

Lewa: It's my home but it's beautiful.

Sam Manson: It sure is.

Next we were over in the cave area Onu-Wahi. It was a beautiful underground cave area.

---

When viewed from above, Onu-Wahi appeared to be nothing but barren, rocky terrain. However, underneath this rocky roof was a massive network of tunnels and caves large and small. Many of these tunnels extended to other regions of Mata Nui (with the sole exception of Ga-Wahi, and their convenience allowed for many traders to come from many villages to sell their wares - whether they be Po-Matoran carvings, Ta-Koronan-made torches or even fresh-caught Ruki fish imported from Ga-Koro.

The underground region was also ideal for Onu-Matoran mining, with the earth yielding abundant quantities of valuable minerals and resources such as ores, lightstones and protodermis. One of the largest ones - aptly named the Great Mine - went so far down that it reached the very bottom of Mata Nui, and had multiple levels around its sides.

As prosperous as Onu-Wahi was, being underground it was also very dark - thus, it was necessary for Matoran-inhabited/travelled areas to be lit by lightstones (or torches, if lightstones were unavailable). The region was so vast that many of its tunnels still remained unexplored, and were often inhabited by dangerous dark-dwelling Rahi such as the vicious Kofo-Jaga and the mysterious Vatuka creature. It was not uncommon for an unfortunate miner to be digging and unwittingly break through into an entire nest of the fiery scorpion Rahi; thus, Turaga Whenua often had to be on hand with his Drill of Onua to detect such nests. However, Onu-Wahi was also home to some friendly Rahi - the naturally-affectionate Ussal was chief among them, and were often kept as pets. The loyal crabs were also used for transport and helped with mining. The Ussalry, Onu-Koro's primary military force, also used the Ussal crabs as mounts.

While the Onu-Matoran were able to drain much of the water after the Gahlok attack, many of the lower levels of Onu-Wahi remained flooded, and could only be accessed with an Air Bladder or two on hand.

History

Onu-Wahi was created on Aqua Magna during the Great Cataclysm, when Mata Nui was rendered comatose by Makuta. After he collapsed face-up, into the seas of Aqua Magna, his camouflage system malfunctioned, creating an island over his submerged face.

When the Toa Metru first scouted the island to pick the locations for the Matoran's villages, this underground region would come to be known as Onu-Wahi after Whenua discovered the system of caves. When the Matoran of Metru Nui were later brought to Mata Nui, the now-Turaga Whenua and the Onu-Matoran chose a particularly enormous cavern as the main site to built their new village of Onu-Koro. Over time, the Onu-Matoran built numerous mines around Onu-Wahi, as a means of harvesting the precious minerals abundant in Onu-Wahi.

The Dark Times and the Quest for the Masks

For a while, the Onu-Matoran enjoyed peace and prosperity in Onu-Wahi; however, after a year of peace Makuta returned to plague the islanders of Mata Nui, enslaving the island's Rahi with infected masks and using them to attack the villages. After 900 years of Makuta's shadow, a wandering Matoran accidentally summoned the Toa Mata's canisters to the island. One such capsule, carrying the Toa Mata of Earth, Onua, washed up on Onu-Wahi's beach. After awakening and rebuilding himself, he travelled deeper into Onu-Wahi, eventually stumbling upon the village of Onu-Koro. Here, he met the village's Turaga, Whenua, who informed him of their plight, the Toa's destiny to save them from said plight, and the Great Kanohi masks hidden around the island they would need to collect in order to do so.

During the Toa's quest for these masks, the Matoran of Onu-Wahi would be plagued with a series of problems - one such problem was a magma pump leak in one of the Onu-Matoran's biggest lightstone mines; the magma flooded the tunnel, preventing the miners from reaching the other side to mine more lightstones.

As a result, lightstone supply ran short in the other areas of Onu-Wahi, forcing Onu-Matoran to rely on inferior torches for lighting. As an additional consequence, most of the miners went on strike, refusing to work in the insufficient light. Another problem surfaced when miners working in the lowest level of the Great Mine came across a Wahi-spanning layer made of some unknown organic substance that could not be penetrated by any form of digging equipment, which was topped by a strange disk covered with strange symbols. Fortunately, Takua happened to venture again into the region of Earth. First, he managed to cross the magma flood on a Lavaboard given to him by Turaga Vakama and activate the pump on the other end, draining the magma. Now that the Cavern of Light was accessible, Onu-Wahi could be lit once more, and miners were able to resume work.

Later, he consulted the Ga-Matoran astrologer Nixie about the strange disk; she identified it as a sundial, and gave Takua a gnomon she had found in Mount Ihu. Returning to the site of the giant sundial, Takua fitted the gnomon into its center and used his lightstone to cast a shadow on the sundial's four-o'clock mark - this caused the sundial to somehow open up, forming a passageway down through the layer and into a strange white chamber with a pedestal in its center topped by a hovering gold Hau.

Later, Tahu ventured into Onu-Wahi in search of Great Kanohi, and happened to come across a Kanohi Mask of X-Ray Vision that was hidden in one of Onu-Wahi's deepest caves, at the end of a long narrow bridge spanning a deep chasm.

After the Battle of Kini-Nui, this mask suddenly disappeared, and Onepu was sent to summon Takua. Riding back to Onu-Koro on the Ussal crab Puku, Takua returned to the strange chamber, and discovered after pressing a button that appeared in the now-empty pedestal's side that the sundial was actually an entrance into the shadowy lair of Makuta.

The Bohrok War

When Makuta first awakened the Bohrok swarms, Onu-Wahi was attacked by a swarms of Gahlok and Nuhvok; the Onu-Matoran were forced to evacuate the rapidly-flooding caves, but three ended up being trapped in a cave: Onepu, Taipu, and the inventor Nuparu. The three Onu-Matoran were initially frightened when they saw that the cave also contained a Gahlok, but quickly realized that it was inanimate, due to the loss of its Krana. Taipu and Onepu quickly set about trying to dig their way out, but Nuparu examined the deactivated Gahlok, and was suddenly struck with an idea. Enlisting the help of his two fellow Onu-Matoran, Nuparu disassembled the mechanical shell and, using the pieces from it and other spare parts, invented a vehicle that could knock the Krana from Bohrok with its powerful arms. Dubbing his invention "Boxor", Nuparu manned its controls and broke out of the cave. Confronted by a group of Gahlok, the Boxor made short work of the bug-like machines.

Discovery of the Mask of Light and the search for the Seventh Toa

After the Bohrok-Kal crisis, the Ga-Matoran Hahli ventured into Onu-Wahi to compete against the Onu-Koro Kohlii Team. Following the discovery of the Mask of Light, Takua would return to Onu-Wahi, this time with his friend, Jaller, during their quest for the Seventh Toa.

Destruction

Onu-Wahi was abandoned after the Matoran returned to Metru Nui, and the region was destroyed when Mata Nui awakened.

---

Me: Wow! This cave system is amazing.

Lynn: It sure is.

Tara: I wouldn't mind calling it home.

Nico: Yeah.

Onua: That's my home for you. It's a beautiful place and it's amazing.

Lynn: Yeah.

Next we were over in the deserts of Po-Wahi.

---

Po-Wahi's terrain was largely formed by the Motara Desert, a massive expanse of sand that covered a large part of Mata Nui's northern area. Where there was not sand, there were steep sandstone cliffs, mesas and canyons. Several paths had been carved by Po-Matoran to guide travelers through Po-Wahi; one known path led to Po-Koro's main entrance, another led to an underground highway into Onu-Koro, a third path led to Po-Koro's coastline, Leva Bay, while the fourth led into the Quarry.

The rocky landscape of Po-Wahi was also dotted by a number of tunnels and caves on its outskirts; one such cave was the location where the Turaga of Mata Nui hid all the Kraata they had captured on the island and placed in stasis. Another one led into the Bohrok Nest, and was where the Bohrok-Kal went to free the Bahrag.

History

Po-Wahi was created when Mata Nui crashed on Aqua Magna. His malfunctioning camouflage system formed an island formed over his face, and energized protodermis created the landscape of the island.

After the Toa Metru brought the Matoran to Mata Nui, they scouted the island for areas where villages could be built for the rescued Matoran population. Onewa happened upon this region made entirely of sandy desert and rocky canyons. He dubbed this region of stone "Po-Wahi", and chose Po-Wahi as the perfect site to build a village for the Po-Matoran. After sacrificing his Toa Power to revive the Matoran, the now-Turaga Onewa led the Po-Matoran to the site he had found before, and together they constructed the village of Po-Koro, which they would come to call home for centuries to come.

When Pohatu arrived on Mata Nui, his canister washed up on Po-Wahi's Leva Bay; from there, he ventured deeper through Po-Wahi's deserts, and ultimately finding Po-Koro. There, Onewa told Pohatu about his quest to find his Kanohi and defeat Makuta Teridax.

During the Bohrok invasion, Po-Koro was attacked by Tahnok. The Toa managed to trap a few in Tiro Canyon, but another swarm attacked Po-Koro, and the Stone. After the Toa Mata sealed the Bahrag and became Toa Nuva, Po-Koro was reconstructed and a Nuva Symbol appeared over Pohatu's Suva.

A Bohrok-Kal later arrived in the village and stole Pohatu's Nuva Symbol, leaving him without his elemental powers. The symbols were later recovered by the Toa Nuva and returned to their respective Koro.

After the path to Metru Nui was revealed, Po-Wahi was abandoned. The Bohrok swarms were later unleashed again, and everything in Po-Wahi was leveled.

When Mata Nui was reawakened, his face broke through the island of Mata Nui, destroying Po-Wahi.

---

Pohatu: How do you all like my home?

Nico: It's amazing.

Gaara: It reminds me of the Hidden Sand Village.

Laney: It sure does. It's amazing.

Lastly we were over in the icy mountain of Ko-Wahi. It was a really cold place and it was amazing.

---

Ko-Wahi was created on Aqua Magna during the Great Cataclysm, when Mata Nui was rendered comatose by Makuta. After he collapsed face-up, into the seas of Aqua Magna, his camouflage system malfunctioned, creating an island over his submerged face. One region of the landmass rose up into high, icy cliffs and snow-covered peaks.

When the Toa Metru first scouted the island to pick the locations for the Matoran's villages, this snowy region area would come to be known as Ko-Wahi. Nuju decided upon an icy peak on top of Mount Ihu as the site for the new Ko-Matoran village. When the Matoran of Metru Nui were later brought to Mata Nui, Turaga Nuju led the Ko-Matoran to an area near Mount Ihu's peak, and here they built the village of Ko-Koro.

When the Toa Mata arrived on Mata Nui, Kopaka journeyed here to find his Hau, the Great Mask of Shielding. It was also here that Kopaka met Pohatu, the Toa of Stone.

After the defeat of the Bohrok, Kopaka became a Toa Nuva and his Nuva Symbol appeared in Ko-Koro. One of the Bohrok-Kal later journeyed to the city to retrieve the Nuva Symbol so they could all awaken the Bahrag, but the attempt failed, and the symbols were returned.

When the Matoran migrated back to Metru Nui, Ko-Wahi was abandoned. The Toa Nuva later came back to awaken the Bohrok swarms to prepare for Mata Nui's awakening. The area was then leveled by the Bohrok.

Ko-Wahi was permanently destroyed when Mata Nui finally awakened.

---

Me: Man is it cold up here.

Lana: I like it.

Killer Frost: Me too. It's amazing.

Nico: This is amazing though.

Kopaka: It sure is. That's my home for you.

We also saw the villages of each region.

---

Ta-Koro

After arriving on Mata Nui, Vakama chose Ta-Koro's location, keeping a good defense in mind. The village was then constructed after the Toa returned with the rescued Matoran. After the village was constructed and with his promised year of peace expired, Teridax arrived at the island with Infected Kanohi and Rahi.

After the construction of Ta-Koro, Takua was banished from the village, during which he found the Toa Stones. In the end, Takua returned to Ta-Koro.

Ta-Koro gate

During the Bohrok invasion, a swarm of Pahrak and Kohrak attacked Ta-Koro in an attempt to clean the area. One Matoran had managed to slip away to Kini-Nui to warn the Toa Mata of the attack. The Toa then used the Kakama power of their Golden Kanohi to speed to the village and put a stop to the oncoming swarm. In the aftermath of the Bohrok Wars, Ta-Koro was rebuilt and expanded greatly.

During the search for the seventh Toa, Teridax released three Rahkshi to find the Avohkii and destroy the herald to the mask. They began their search at Ta-Koro, destroying the village as they did so.

Gali and Tahu attempted to stop them, but failed and Tahu was infected by Lerahk, the Rahkshi of Poison. In the end, the Ta-Matoran and Vakama escaped and the village sank into the lava.

Ga-Koro

The location of Ga-Koro was discovered by Toa Nokama when the Toa Metru first arrived on the island of Mata Nui in the aftermath of the Great Cataclysm, with only the small handful of Matoran that they had been able to rescue from Metru Nui. When the Toa Metru later brought the rest of the Matoran to the island via Airship and sacrificed their power to revive them, the now-Turaga Nokama led the Ga-Matoran to the beach of Naho Bay. On its waters, they built the village of Ga-Koro using large durable plants and pieces salvaged from the airships. Eventually, the Ga-Matoran built boats to trade with other villages, and profited both from fishing and boat-building.

The Dark Time

For the first year, the Ga-Matoran lived in peace and prosperity, but after the period expired, Makuta Teridax attacked Mata Nui using infected Rahi, and the Ga-Matoran and Nokama fought to defend the village for almost a thousand years. Hope came in the form of the Toa Mata's arrival, but soon after the village was attacked by a Tarakava and heavily damaged; the villagers of Ga-Koro barricaded themselves in a large hut, but the Tarakava destroyed the pump keeping it afloat, and the Ga-Koronans were trapped underwater in the hut. Fortunately, one Ga-Matoran, Maku, happened to have been spying on Huki in Po-Koro at the time, and thus escaped being attacked. After seeing what happened to her village, she frantically enlisted the help of an amnesiac Takua to free her people while she went to find Gali, Toa of Water. Takua eventually succeeded in fixing the pump, but just as the hut resurfaced and the Ga-Matoran escaped, the Tarakava returned to strike again; in the nick of time, however, Gali arrived, and defended her people from the Rahi; after a grueling battle, the Water Toa managed to defeat the Tarakava by removing its infected mask. After the ordeal, peace of a sort returned to Ga-Koro, and the Ga-Matoran began to rebuild their damaged village.

Shortly after the Toa traveled to Kini-Nui, Ga-Koro came under siege again by huge numbers of Rahi. Fortunately, the village had been fortified in advance, and the Matoran managed to hold off the attacks.

The Bohrok War

Ga-Koro came under attack again toward the end of the Bohrok's first attempt to cleanse Mata Nui. A swarm of Pahrak gathered outside the gates, and the village prepared to fight with the aid of Takua, Jala and a number of Nuparu's newly-invented Boxor. GakorobattleThe Po-Matoran fled to the village of water from the Tahnok attacks on Po-Koro, and ended up aiding in the defense as well. The Pahrak damaged much of the village, and the Boxors proved useless against the Bohrok when they were knocked off their platforms and sank to the bottom of the sea. The Onu-Matoran driving them were saved from drowning by the Ga-Matoran, but the villagers were eventually cornered by the Bohrok. Fortunately, before the Matoran and two Turaga could be killed by the Pahrak, the creatures were stopped by the Toa's defeat of the Bahrag. The village was then rebuilt and expanded with the aid of the Krana-less Bohrok.

A short time afterward, a Bohrok-Kal attacked the village and stole Gali's Nuva Symbol which was kept there. Eventually the Toa Nuva stopped the Bohrok-Kal and returned the Nuva Symbol to Ga-Koro. After the Matoran were rebuilt at Kini-Nui, Ga-Koro was closed off from the mainland for a month while the Turaga met at Kini-Nui. Soon afterward, the village hosted the Ga-Koro/Onu-Koro Kolhii match, with Ga-Koro's winning.

The village was abandoned after the rediscovery of Metru Nui, and later destroyed when the Bohrok were awakened a second time by the Toa Nuva.

Le-Koro

The location of Le-Koro was chosen by Toa Matau during the first journey of the Toa Metru to the island of Mata Nui. When the Toa Metru gave up their Toa power to awaken the Matoran, Turaga Matau led the Le-Matoran to the location of Le-Koro.

When Toa Lewa arrived in Le-Koro, Matau told him about his quest to find his six Kanohi masks and defeat Makuta Teridax.

Teridax frequently sent Rahi, mostly Nui-Rama, to attack Le-Koro, but it was defended by the Gukko Force, led by Kongu. When Takua arrived in Le-Koro, the Nui-Rama attacked the village. Kongu asked Takua to fly with him as his disk thrower was captured by the Nui Rama. Takua accepted, and they flew toward the hive, only to be captured by the Nui-Rama as well. Takua then discovered that Matau had been captured also. They were rescued by Onua after he freed Lewa from the control of Teridax.

After Teridax awakened the Bohrok early, a swarm of Lehvak managed to enslave almost every Matoran and Turaga Matau. The Matoran then overpowered Lewa and enslaved him too. Tamaru and Kongu, who managed to escape the Bohrok, made a plan with Nuparu, who invented the Boxors, and together they saved the enslaved Matoran.

Le-Koro was abandoned after the Matoran, Toa Nuva, and Turaga left for Metru Nui. When the Toa Nuva returned to Mata Nui to release the Bahrag, the Bohrok swarms destroyed Le-Koro and cleared the plantlife off of the rest of Le-Wahi.

Le-Koro mainly consisted of trees, bushes, grass, swamps, wetlands, and many other plant-covered areas. It is in the southern part of Mata Nui. The houses were all in the trees and made of wood and vines. At the edge of the village, Ko-Wahi began. The village itself, however, was in Le-Wahi. The village was stripped bare of wildlife and trees once the Bohrok were reawakened, however.

Onu-Koro

The location of Onu-Koro was selected by Whenua when the Toa Metru first arrived on the island of Mata Nui in the aftermath of the Great Cataclysm, with only the small handful of Matoran that they had been able to rescue from Metru Nui. When the Toa Metru later brought the rest of the Matoran to the island and sacrificed their power to revive them, the now-Turaga Whenua led the Onu-Matoran to the location of what would become their new village. There, they used pieces salvaged from the Airships the Toa had used in the rescue to construct huts for themselves, and the underground city was later lit with lightstones they found in the tunnels.

In the following year of peace, Onu-Koro prospered; existing tunnels were expanded by Onu-Matoran miners using both pickaxes and advanced mining equipment developed by their engineers, and new ones were dug until Onu-Koro had passages extending to almost every other village on the island. The earth of Onu-Wahi also yielded many useful materials, such as protodermis, precious ores and lightstones, and a vast quantity of mines were dug deep into Mata Nui's underground to harvest these minerals. Soon, Onu-Koro became a center of trade on Mata Nui, with traders coming from all regions of the island to sell their wares at the earth village's marketplace.

The period of peace and prosperity came to an end, however, after the year expired, and Makuta emerged from hiding to attack the Matoran of Mata Nui with infected Kanohi-wearing Rahi. For almost a thousand years, the Onu-Matoran were forced to defend their city from any Rahi, and miners often ran the risk of being attacked by Rahi hiding in the unlit portions of Onu-Wahi, such as the vicious Kofo-Jaga and Kuma-Nui.

Hope eventually came in the form of Toa Onua's canister, but new problems quickly arose after the Toa of Earth's arrival: A rogue lava flow filled the tunnel from which Onu-Matoran accessed their main lightstone-mining site; without a sufficient supply of lightstones, Onu-Koro was plunged into darkness, and the Onu-Matoran were forced to rely on the inferior light of torches to keep Onu-Koro semi-lit and protected from Rahi attacks. In addition, diggers in the lowest level of the Great Mine came across a Wahi-spanning layer made of some unknown organic substance that could not be penetrated by any form of digging equipment, which was topped by a strange disk covered with symbols. Fortunately, Takua happened to venture again into the region of Earth. First, he managed to cross the magma flood on a Lavaboard given to him by Turaga Vakama and activate the pump on the other end, draining the magma. Now that the Cavern of Light was accessible, Onu-Wahi could be lit once more, and miners were able to resume work. Later, Takua learned from an astrologer named Nixie that the disk miners couldn't pass was a giant sundial, and after inserting the gnomon she gave him into the disk's center and shining a lightstone on it until its shadow was touching the four-o'clock mark, he managed to open a secret passage beneath the disk. However, this later turned out to be an entrance to Makuta's lair, and the Great Mine was evacuated until the passage was sealed again.

After the Bohrok were awakened, Nuhvok attacked the village. However, Onua was able to trick them into retreating. Shortly afterward, the village was attacked and flooded by Gahlok, but not before being evacuated. Only three Matoran were unable to escape: Onepu, Taipu and an inventor named Nuparu. Trapped in a cave as the Gahlok continued to destroy the area, Nuparu became inspired by an empty Bohrok shell nearby, and used its parts to invent the Boxor, a powerful vehicle that could knock the Krana out of Bohrok with its powerful arms. Nuparu used it to break out of the cave, and proceeded to defeat the Gahlok.

When the Toa Mata were transformed into Toa Nuva, Onua's Nuva Symbol appeared in Onu-Koro. Shortly afterward, however, it was stolen by a Bohrok-Kal, thus stripping Onua of his Elemental Powers. The Nuva Symbol was returned to the village after the Bohrok-Kal were defeated.

Shortly after the Mask of Light was discovered, Pohatu travelled to Onu-Koro to tell Onua and his people of the good news. However, shortly after the announcement and Takua's simultaneous arrival, the village was attacked by three Rahkshi: Turahk, Kurahk, and Vorahk. The resulting battle between the two Toa and Makuta's sons resulted in a major cave-in, and the Onu-Matoran were forced to evacuate. Onua and Pohatu and some of the Matoran were buried underneath the rubble, but Kopaka arrived to dig out the chief miner and then help free them. The village was completely deserted by the Onu-Matoran when they returned to Metru Nui, and it was later destroyed by the reawakened Bohrok swarms.

Po-Koro

While the Toa Metru were on Mata Nui for the first time, they explored the island for possible locations of Matoran villages. Onewa searched in the desert region of the island until he found a suitable location for his "Po-Koro."

After all the Matoran were gathered and awakened on Mata Nui, Turaga Onewa led the Po-Matoran to the site of what would soon become Po-Koro. Later, the Matoran Ahkmou, who had, through an accident, been left near Metru Nui, arrived in the village; nobody questioned his sudden appearance except for Onewa, who told him not to reveal Metru Nui to the Matoran. Ahkmou then started selling infected Comet Balls. The whole Koro thus became infected.

Takua was in Po-Koro at the time and thus began investigating the mysterious sickness. He soon found out that the Comet Balls were infected when he made his way into a Nui-Jaga nest under one of the massive heads Hafu sculpted in the Path of Prophecies. Takua was then aided by Pohatu who had been temporary blinded and together they caused the cave to collapse thus destroying the Nui-Jaga nest, the source of the disease, and saved the village. After the incident, the Po-Matoran threw all the remaining Comet Balls into the sea.

Po-Koro was later attacked by the Bohrok during the Bohrok War. As the Bohrok were marching towards Po-Koro, Hafu unwillingly destroyed the gigantic statues, which he had spent weeks carving, thus sealing the Koro. Hafu would have been killed by the Bohrok if Pohatu had not appeared and saved him with Hewkii. The Po-Matoran then fled the Koro, starting towards the sea and then sailed to Ga-Koro, which was also under attack by Bohrok. After the Bohrok were defeated, they all returned to Po-Koro to rebuild it.

Later, after the great Kohlii tournament (in which the Po-Matoran advanced to the finals but eventually lost), the Mask of Light was discovered. Takua and Jaller from Ta-Koro then went looking for the "Seventh Toa" as the Turaga commanded. After Takua had realized that he was the Toa of Light, he transformed himself into Takanuva and defeated Teridax; afterward, he merged with the Makuta to form Takutanuva and opened the gate to Metru Nui before being crushed by it. With the island rediscovered, the Po-Matoran left Po-Koro so they could return to their long-forgotten home, Metru Nui.

Later, the abandoned Po-Koro was destroyed by the Bohrok when the Toa Nuva released them.

Ko-Koro

The location of Ko-Koro was chosen by Toa Nuju after the events of the Great Cataclysm, when the Ko-Matoran were awakened by the Turaga. The Ko-Matoran, led by Nuju, traveled midwest until arriving on Mount Ihu and founding a village near its peak.

After a year of peace on Mata Nui, the village began suffering from Teridax's infected Rahi attacks. The constant harassment continued for many centuries. However, the Ko-Matoran were able to defend themselves from the Rahi until the arrival of the Toa Mata. Toa Kopaka soon arrived in the village and went into Mangaia with the other Toa Mata to fight Teridax. The Rahi attacks ceased after his defeat.

When the Bohrok swarms were awakened by Teridax, a swarm of Tahnok arrived in Ko-Koro, partially destroying it. After the war, however, the damaged section of Ko-Koro was reconstructed.

After the imprisonment of the Bahrag, Nuhvok-Kal and Kohrak-Kal attacked the village, stealing Kopaka's Nuva Symbol from the village's Suva. The symbol was later recovered and returned to the Suva.

Ko-Koro was partially damaged by the Rahkshi as they were searching for the Kanohi Avohkii and the Herald of the Seventh Toa. After the defeat of Makuta Teridax and Metru Nui was rediscovered, the Ko-Matoran departed, leaving Ko-Koro abandoned.

It was eventually destroyed by the reawakened Bohrok once the Toa Nuva freed the Bahrag queens.

Ko-Koro was located in the forbidding landscape of Ko-Wahi, where it was hidden beneath an enormous chunk of solid ice that separated two glaciers and surrounded by large crevasses. The village itself had a single gate facing a massive crevasse, which was guarded at all times by the Sanctum Guard. The only other known entrance was a tunnel that led from the Sanctum to the Drifts, also called the Wastes by the Matoran. Inside the village, the Matoran lived in either huts built of ice on the ground, or in rooms carved into the glaciers that surrounded the village.

The most famous location in Ko-Koro was the Sanctum, which contained the Wall of Prophecy.

---

We later went back home.

---

Later at the estate we were watching TV and reading books.

Me: Sure is quiet.

Nico: Yep.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that the ARMAGEDROID has kidnapped Nora Wakeman!

---

Armagedroid is a recurring antagonist in Nickelodeon tv show My Life as a Teenage Robot. Armagedroid is a 100 foot-tall android created by Dr. Nora Wakeman (also the creator of XJ-9/Jenny.). He first appeared in the episode of the same name.

He was voiced by Kevin Michael Richardson, who also played Joker in The Batman, Lobo and Tartarus.

First Intergalactic War

His original purpose was to destroy all alien weaponry during "The First Intergalactic War", but eventually became mad with power and destroyed ANY weapon that crossed his path. He is one of Jenny's few enemies that not only she couldn't defeat alone, but almost killed her twice in the process. After Armagedroid, Nora stated that she started the XJ series to replace him.

Return

Armagedroid returns from his lava trap and attacks Tremorton. He starts taking Jenny's weapons. Eventually he was defeated due to taking in a powerful enough explosive to destroy his body and launch his head into space due to Nora and Jenny's quick thinking.

Second Return

Armagedroid was revived by Killgore. Later, Jenny and Killgore are inside his rebuilt body as he continues to quest to destroy all weapons. Eventually, Armagedroid is defeated as he is reminded technically he is a weapon himself and his body is full of weapons. Realizing this, he starts to tear his body apart and activated his own self destruct function to destroy himself and all his weapons.

---

Me: WHOA! That is a deadly robot.

Jenny Wakeman: The Armagedroid is back!?

Nico: Sounds like you know this monster.

Jenny Wakeman: I do. He was a terrible robot that was made to destroy all alien weapons during the 1st Intergalactic War. But then it became mad with power and began to destroy any weapon that crossed his path. I couldn't defeat the Armagedroid alone and he nearly killed me twice in the process.

Me: He must be really tough. Lets get him!

We set out to get him.

---

On the outskirts of the city, The Armagedroid had Nora Wakeman in his hands and he was really out for blood.

Armagedroid: Now you will feel the same pain as I have given to others.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion formed in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed in front of the Armagedroid.

Me: So you are the Armagedroid.

Armagedroid: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I've heard a lot of things about you.

Me: It's mutual.

Nico: This is gonna be your last day alive!

Me: You better let Nora go, Armagedroid! Or…

Armagedroid: (with Nora in his grasp) Or what, Knudson? What will you do? You'll Hakai me like you did to Barty Crouch Jr.? (to Jenny Wakeman) I knew you were dangerous before, XJ9. But I never expected you to assist Team Loud Phoenix Storm in ending several lives!

Jenny Wakeman: If you harm my mom in any way-

Armagedroid: Nora Wakeman will remain unharmed. Provided that you stop what you all are doing.

Nico: What do you mean by that?

Armagedroid: You know what I mean, Saiyan! Stop recklessly changing the world to how you want it to be! Go back to fighting criminals and leaving them for the police! Follow these demands and Nora Wakeman remains alive. Otherwise, she will suffer the consequences with her life.

Before we could make a move, Armagedroid teleported out with Nora.

Maria: I think Armagedroid wants us to stop our usual methods of dealing with villains as well as stop changing the world for the better.

Lola: Well, I say we don't follow his demands, bust into where he's hiding, and tear him apart!

May: We try to do that and he'll crush Jenny's mom like a grape. We need to be smart about this.

Nico: Well, when you guys come up with a solid plan that's not reckless, let me know. I'm gonna be washing my face.

Me: Okay.

He went to the bathroom and washed his face and then Larxene, Xaldin and Devack appeared.

Nico came back with his face dripping wet.

Me: Larxene, Xaldin and Devack.

Devack: It's us.

Larxene: I just want you to know that we didn't tell Armagedroid to kidnap Jenny's mom.

Nico: You didn't?

Xaldin: I've learned from my mistakes in kidnapping Belle. Armagedroid chose to kidnap Nora Wakeman on his own terms, not ours.

Me: I had a feeling he did. But we can fight you guys while we fight the Armagedroid.

Larxene: Agreed.

Me: Lets go.

We were off to the Armagedroid's hideout. It was in an abandoned 1000 foot warehouse that was scheduled to do be destroyed tomorrow.

Armagedroid: This is gonna be good as I destroy this entire planet and reduce all of its human population and weapons into dust.

Then a massive fiery explosion blasted through the roof of the warehouse and a phoenix cry was heard. We went in and I kicked the Armagedroid in the face with devastating force and knocked him down with a tremendous crash!

We landed and stood ready to fight him and Lincoln freed Nora from his hand.

Nora Wakeman: Thanks Lincoln.

Lincoln: You're welcome Nora.

Scarlett: Are you ok, Nora?

Nora Wakeman: I'll be fine. Thank you.

Jenny Wakeman: Mom. Thank goodness you're all right.

Nora Wakeman: Indeed XJ9. I'm safe.

Me: Now it's time to destroy what you have created.

A figure came out and it was WEB SPIDER!

Toad Man: You're a new one. Who are you supposed to be?

Web Spider: Call me… Web Spider! (shoots robotic spiders from his "abdomen" part at Toad Man)

Leni fired blasts of gravity lightning at the spiders and destroyed them in fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Troy Burrows: It's Armageddon for you, Armagedroid!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Goggle V Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Goggle V Rangers from 1983.

Me: Lets dance!

We powered up and went at the Armagedroid and the Masters of Evil.

---

Battle 1: Devack

---

Dante was facing Devack.

Dante: This is gonna be as good as always.

Devack: Indeed it is. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CUSILLU!

He summoned the Monkey Earthbound Immortal Cusillu!

Dante: I only need one dragon to beat you this time. I summon FIVE-HEADED DRAGON!

Dante summoned the FIVE-HEADED DRAGON!

Dante: Lets dance!

Dante flew at him and kicked him in the face and flipped over him and blasted his back with yellow fire blasts and they hit him and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Dante kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the back of the head and knocked him down as his Five-Headed Dragon fired blasts of fire, water, wind, earth and Darkness at Cusillu and the blast slammed into him and exploded! Destroying Cusillu.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Devack was defeated.

Dante: Awesome.

---

Battle 2: Larxene

---

Lincoln and Volcana were facing Larxene.

Lincoln: Lets get this electrified party started.

A massive thunderstorm built overhead outside and Lincoln transformed as lightning struck all over and thunder crashed all over the place. Lincoln flared up his aura with incredible power as lightning struck all over the place with incredible power!

THUNDERCLAP! THUNDERCLAP! THUNDERCLAP!

The power from the storm was unbelievable as lightning was illuminating the warehouse!

Then in a massive flash of lightning Lincoln transformed! Lincoln transformed into his Super Angel 20,000 Supercell Lightning Thunderbird form! Lightning flashed and flickered all over the place with incredible power and Lincoln went at Larxene with the speed of incredible flashes of lightning and punched her in the stomach and kicked her in the back of the head and lightning flashed and formed out of each of their punches with incredible power! Thunder and lightning crashed and flashed all over with place with incredible power! They went at each other with incredible speed and power and punched and kicked and slashed at each other with unbelievable power and speed! Lincoln kicked Larxene in the face and lightning flashed out of the impact of his punch and she threw kunai at him and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning at her and electrocuted her all over the place and Larxene fired waves of lightning and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Lincoln then kicked Larxene in her face and kneed her in her stomach and headbutt her all over the place with incredible power! Lincoln then kicked her in her face and backed away and flared up his orange aura and Larxene flared up her yellow lightning aura and they went at each other and clasped hands as lightning surged through them all over and lightning flashed and thunder crashed outside all over the place and the area shook with incredible power as thunder crashed everywhere.

---

Volcana: Wow! What power! I can't believe that Lincoln and Larxene have that much power when it comes to lightning.

Lincoln kicked Larxene and knocked her down and Volcana fired a massive blast of fire and burned her and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted her all over the place.

Larxene then fell down knocked out.

---

Battle 3: Xaldin

---

Beast Boy and Lori were facing Xaldin. Lori still holds a grudge to what Xaldin did with Belle and Beast.

Lori: I still hold a grudge over what you did to Belle and Beast, Xaldin.

Xaldin: I know you hate me for what I did but it was in the past.

Lori: You'll find that I am literally not the kind to bury the hatchet that easily.

Lori then transformed into her Super Angel 10,000 Hurricane Eagle.

Lori: I have gotten stronger since my fight you the last time. Now you will face the power of a hurricane and more.

Lori then summoned one of her spears and she went at him and Xaldin clashed with her as massive tornadoes of wind blew all over the place with incredible power and fury and Lori fired massive blasts of wind and blew Xaldin all over the place with incredible power and wind and more and it blew him all over the place and Beast Boy fired blasts of energy and they formed into a swarm of deadly piranha and they chewed Xaldin all over and Lori slashed him all over with her spears and more and Xaldin was knocked down.

Beast Boy: Take that dude.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Yeah!

---

We regrouped and we were facing the 100-foot tall Armagedroid!

Me: You will pay for your crimes Armagedroid!

Nico: Yeah!

We powered up to full power and we went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in his oversized chest and knocked him down and smashed his chest in with incredible force and more and Nico fired energy blasts and Laney and Lola fired blasts of fire and burned him and Lincoln fired waves of lightning and electrocuted him and Lana fired waves of ice lightning and Lucy Loud fired waves of black lightning and electrocuted and froze the Armagedroid and more. Loderool, Nivenna, Seeryn, and Nom all blasted him all over the place with their powers and more.

Jenny Wakeman: Try this one! METAL STYLE NINJA ART: SLADEBOT MEGABARRAGE!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Tuck: Try this one! PLUTONIUM STYLE NINJA ART: ATOMIC LASER DISMANTLER!

Tuck fired a wave of blue energy and it slammed into the Armagedroid and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now for some teamwork!

Hulk: HULK SMASH ROBOT!

Amorpho: Lets do it!

Hulk and Amorpho used the Gigantion Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Hulk's strength and Amorpho's powers 100-fold.

Tryptocon and Metroplex used the Gigantion Cyber Planet Keys as well and they enhanced Tryptocon's Destructo Beam 100-fold and turned Metroplex's war club into a giant axe.

Hulk and Amorpho: SMASHING GHOST MEGAPUNCH!

Hulk fired a wave of gamma ray energy and Amorpho fired waves of ecto-energy.

Tryptocon and Cybertron Metroplex: DESTRUCTO BEAM AXEPUNCH!

Tryptocon fired waves of Destructo Energy and Metroplex threw his axe.

Metroplex and Hulk: SMASHING AXE MEGAPUCH!

Metroplex threw his axe and Hulk fired a smashing fist blast.

Trypticon and Amorpho: DESTRUCTO ECTO-RAY!

Trypticon and Amorpho fired waves of energy.

Jenny and me: WAVELENGTH MEGABLAST!

Me and Jenny fired blasts of energy on the electromagnetic wavelength.

Nora Wakeman and Lisa Loud: GENIUS MEGABLAST BURST!

Nora and Lisa fired massive blasts of psychic energy.

The blasts all combined and they slammed into the Armageddroid and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Armagedroid was down.

Me: Now you are going to be dismantled!

Armagedroid: Not quite!

He pressed a button on his chest and a timer was set for 1 minute.

Armagedroid: I am now going to self-destruct now! If I can't have this planet no one can! In 1 minute I will explode and take this whole planet with me with the power of 1,000 Trillion Teratons of TNT!

We gasped! That was enough power to destroy the entire planet 10,000 times! It was also enough power to destroy the entire solar system!

Me: Not if I have anything to say about it!

I snapped my fingers and teleported him.

Nico: Where did you send him to?

Me: (Sinister smirk)

I had him sent to the Book of Vile Darkness dimension and he exploded with incredible power and the Book Of Vile Darkness released a huge and tremendous belch!

BBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUU

Lincoln: (Imitating the Mask) (Italian Accent) That's a Spicy Meataball!

We laughed hysterically!

Me: (Laughs) That was funny!

Nico: That always cracks me up!

The Masters of Evil came.

Me: I take it Carly told you about her being pregnant.

Larxene: She sure did.

Maria: So you want Carly to stay with us for a while?

Larxene: Well, we thought it would be best if she was with Jack, the love of her life.

William: How long is she due?

Devack: A few weeks at the most.

Nico: Alright, then. We'll let you know when she's about to give birth.

Xaldin: Thank you.

Me: She can always stay with us and head to you guys for her job.

Xaldin: That's true. But we'll see you shortly Carly.

Carly Carmine: See you around guys.

The Masters of Evil teleport out.

Me: Well we destroyed the Armagedroid and saved the world.

Nico: We sure did.

Laney: Yep.

Jenny Wakeman: (To the viewers) Never build robots that are designed to destroy or there will be terrible consequences.

Me: Yep.

We went back home.

THE END

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

Armagedroid from My Life As A Teenage Robot was awesome and Kevin Michael Richardson did a great job voicing him. Awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Next up is the first chapter of the Nickelodeon cartoon EL TIGRE! Get ready as we take down the evil Cuervo and stop her from making off with Manny in Miracle City in Miracle City in Juarez, Mexico.

See you all tomorrow.

The Mexican Superhero

In the crime-filled cesspool of the city of Miracle City in Juarez, Mexico, we were walking around the city. It was located just a short hop across the United States Mexico Border from El Paso, Texas.

---

Miracle City is the main location where most of the events in El Tigre: The Adventures of Manny Rivera take place. With how many locations show up in the series, it is safe to say the city is very large in size. The reason the city is called Miracle City is because of how it still stays a decent city despite the high crime rate. The creator allusions his childhood town Mexico City with Miracle City. Probably the most iconic aspect of Miracle City is the big active volcano that stays in the middle of the city.

---

It was a really cool city but loaded with crime. It had a crime rate that was twice as much as New York City. Making it one of the most lawless towns in the world.

Ember McLean: So, this is Miracle City?

Rhino: Sure looks like it.

Me: Hard to imagine that it's right across the border from El Paso, Texas.

Lincoln: Really short drive.

Laney: From what I was told by my pen pal Frida, Miracle City is one of the worst places to live in the world because of the high crime rate. It's one of the most lawless towns in the world and it's really dangerous.

Nico: It sure is an interesting town though.

Naruto: It sure is. But I didn't think it had an active volcano in the middle of the town.

Blossom (Adult): Townsville has a volcano in its part and it's very coincidental for Miracle City to have one.

Sam Simpson: And now Los Angeles has a volcano where the La Brea Tar Pits used to be.

Me: It would be really scary if every city around the country had an active volcano.

Lana: It sure would.

Lola: Yeah.

I then started thinking. I wondered why we couldn't find Venjix and why he was so hard to find.

Me: Hmm.

I looked up Venjix's signature on the satellites and scanned for him on Earth and in the dimension Evox is in and it turned up nothing.

Me: The scans are picking up nothing. Venjix is nowhere to be seen. That means he and Evox must've either been destroyed or sent to another dimension.

Lucy Loud: Let me consult the spirits.

Lucy meditated and she consulted the spirits for the whereabouts of Venjix and Evox. She found out that Venjix and Ebon were in the afterlife. They were both destroyed!

Lucy Loud: Gasp! Venjix and Ebon are both destroyed and deceased. They are burning in the fire of hell.

Me: Whoa! The Beast Morpher Rangers must've done them both in.

Nico: Saves us the trouble from having to do so.

Suddenly we heard a Cougar Roar and we saw the famous superhero of Miracle City, Manny Rivera A.K.A. EL TIGRE! And with him was his best friend and girlfriend Frida Suárez and she had beautiful neon blue hair. And with them was El Tigre's grandfather Granpapi Rivera A.K.A. Puma Loco and Manny's father Rodolfo Rivera A.K.A. White Pantera!

El Tigre: Whoa! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Frida: It's an honor to meet all of you.

Me: Wow! You're the legendary Super Anti-Hero Manny Rivera A.K.A. El Tigre!

Nico: Awesome!

Frida: Laney is that you?

Laney: It sure is Frida. It's great to meet you in person.

Frida: It's so awesome to meet you too.

They hugged.

White Pantera: It's an honor to meet you amigos.

Puma Loco: We heard so many awesome things about you all.

Me: Aren't you the supervillain Puma Loco?

Puma Loco: Si.

Ronnie Anne: How come you aren't part of the Masters of Evil?

Puma Loco: They offered but I decided not to join them.

Laney: I see.

El Tigre: Sorry I was late meeting you guys. I fought El Oso and had him sent to the Miracle City Jail.

Elena: It's ok, Manny.

Me: But it is awesome to meet you El Tigre.

Lola: (annoyed) Well, that's another villain spared, I guess.

El Tigre: What are you talking about?

Lori: (angrily) Don't you get it? El Oso isn't going to get a major punishment at all. They'll just throw him in jail only to have him break out. Then he'll be literally back on the streets causing destruction in no time!

Me: (Scolding) LORI!

El Tigre: Look, I get what you're saying. And I approve of your methods when it comes to bad guys. But Miracle City isn't ready for that yet.

Lynn: (growls) Neither was Gotham before J.D. met us. And because of that, the Joker killed millions of people before he died at our hands! Maybe you would realize the world's better off without some villains if you weren't busy trying to decide whether to be a hero or a villain. And guess what? If El Oso kills anyone the next time he breaks out, that blood is on your hands!

Nico: Look, girls. We have to give him some time to adjust to our methods, not force them on him. Besides, do you know you three are acting like right now? I'll give you a hint. They start with "Justice" and end with "Lords".

Puma Loco: (to Lola, Lori, and Lynn) Ok. It's obvious you three are getting angry. (brings out chair) So, here's a chair you can throw at the wall to let out all of that stress.

Lori: Thank you.

Lori then grabbed the chair and threw it!

SMASH!

The chair shattered into a million pieces and was destroyed.

Lori: Man that literally felt good.

Puma Loco: (to Carly) What are you doing here, Carly? Are you here to recruit me for the Masters of Evil? Because I already said no to Vypra's offer.

Thunderblast: Relax. Carly's not here to do that.

Me: She's on Maternal Leave for a while because she's pregnant with Jack's baby. She's also getting married in a few days.

Puma Loco: I'm so happy for you guys!

Me: We all are.

El Tigre: So what brings you all here?

Me: We're here to bring justice to one of your most dangerous enemies: The Black Cuervo.

I pulled out her wanted poster and went over her history.

---

Black Cuervo is one of the recurring antagonists from the cartoon series El Tigre on Nickelodeon.

She was voiced by Candi Milo.

History

Black Cuervo is the youngest daughter of a family of supervillains. Manny is picking the right cardboard for Frida's piñata when he spots a police chase outside. Black Cuervo is on the run and wreaking havoc at the same time. Seeing Mrs. Chichita nearby (who is oblivious to what's going on), he transforms into El Tigre and saves her. He then goes to confront Black Cuervo and is surprised to see that she is a girl. He then takes off after her, and the two land on a building. When she first met El Tigre, she tricked him into wreaking havoc on Miracle City with her. She was scolded by her family when she developed a crush on El Tigre. Her real name is Zoe Aves, who bullied Frida for years.

Series

She first appears "Enter the Cuervo" when Frida invited the whole school except Zoe. due to there rival back in preschool. after Frida left, Zoe swears revenge on her for not inviting her. by planning to use Manny. When Manny spots a police chase, where black Cuervo was on the run. after that, El Tigre confronts Her, only to figure out that she is a girl. Later, however, after picking up a cardboard for the piñata, he stops to meet with Black Cuervo on the top of the roof. As El Tigre, he tells her about his promise. She thinks he's a goody-goody, but he insists he is the "baddest macho in all of Miracle City". the two then go off to mischief to cause mischief together.

This later caused Manny & Frida to have an argument, which at the end Frida uninvited Manny. as Zoe gleefully succeeded her plan. Black Cuervo meets El Tigre watching sadly from the rooftop, and persuades him to ruin Frida's night. They proceed it until he spots Frida wearing a belt buckle he made her. Realizing what a bad friend he's been, he turns on Cuervo and they battle until El Tigre successfully defeats her with the Spinning Armadillo.

She calls her two allies Voltura & Lady Gobbler (Who is her mother & grandmother) to take her away and swears revenge on El Tigre (whom she now has feelings for).

in "Fool Speed Ahead", she is one of the villains who were competing in the annual event: Miracle City Supervillain Grand Prix. & is later defeated by Puma Loco & El Tigre.

in "Clash of The Titan", Black Cuervo makes a cameo along with various supervillains & later defeated by Titanium Titan (who pretended to become a superhero again).

in "The Good, The Bad, The El Tigre, Black Cuervo appeared along with various supervillains. later, she was later one of the villains chained up (Alongside Cactus Kid, Senor Siniestro, El Oso, El Mal Verde, El Tarantula, Comrade Chaos, & Mano Negra, Lady Gobber, & Dr. Chipotle Sr.) as part of Django's Plan. it is unknown why she is Sartana's enemy. Later, she is later freed along with the rest of the supervillains, thanks to El Tigre.

In "Tigre + Cuervo Forever", Manny uses Black Cuervo to get information about what the Flock of Fury is doing, later Manny (as El Tigre) accidentally reveals to his father that he was pretended to like Cuervo just to get information. this causes Black Cuervo (who is Zoe), to tried to destroy him for it, however, El Tigre apologizes to her & tells her that he's going make it up to her. Zoe asks how is he going to do that, he answers since they are fighting, he going to make her win, this angers Zoe who later defeats Manny. at the end of the episode, it's revealed that she still likes him.

In "The Cuervo Project", Zoe partnered with Manny & Frida fo there Science fair project, and there project was to be a volcano. Frida tells Manny that would be a good idea, & that she wants Zoe to fall into the volcano, while Zoe hears Frida. Zoe's plan was not to reveal her secret identity.

---

Me: We're gonna capture her and bring her to our space prisons.

Frida: (disappointed) So, you guys aren't going to kill Black Cuervo? (to Lola, Lori, and Lynn) Not even you guys?

Optimus: Of course not. Sorry if you're disappointed.

Lola: I admit that we killed Morbucks before. But that was a special case.

Me: Same with the teenagers of the evil Satanic Organization: B.R.A.T.

Timmy Turner: I remember that.

Lori: Even the three of us literally have limits.

Me: Yeah it goes against our code to kill kids. Only if the situation calls for it do kids like Morbucks deserve death. But it's very rare.

Lynn: (to El Tigre) And Manny? We're sorry if we were harsh to you back there. I admit that we were out of line.

El Tigre: It's cool. I think I'm ready to adjust to your methods anyway.

Frida: Aww. So, I baked these cupcakes for nothing?

Ed: I'll eat the cupcakes!

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

Ed ate the cupcakes anyway.

Me: Okay here's what we do.

I gathered everyone around and we explained that the plan was to let Cuervo play video games with us at the arcade and when she takes the bait, we'll pretend like she played us for fools and then go after her.

Nico: That's a brilliant plan.

Lincoln: It's brilliant and perfect.

Laney: Yeah.

We put our plan into action and went to the arcade and we were playing video games. Then in came Captain Cold and Zoe Aves A.K.A. THE BLACK CUERVO!

Frida: Hello Zoe.

Black Cuervo: Frida.

Captain Cold: Nice to see all of you here.

Black Cuervo: Can't me and Snart play some arcade games before my last battle? (to you) That ism if your vigilante complex will allow it.

Maria: Oh, what the Hell? We'll even play them with you.

Nicole: Been wanting to have some competition anyway.

Black Cuervo: Bring it on.

Nicole: The Goddess of Video Gaming loves a great challenge.

Nicole and Black Cuervo were having a big competition. They were playing games like mad and Nicole was beating Zoe in every video game and earning the top top top high score where Zoe got the top high score. The result of Nicole's playing was turning all of their video games into melted glue and Nicole was raking in the tickets like there was no tomorrow. Nicole was also playing 10 games all at once with her hands and octopus tentacles and it was a great experience. When Nicole was done she had beaten Zoe and Captain Cold at all kinds of games.

Nicole: Beat that!

Black Cuervo: I hate you.

Nicole's aura flared up with incredible force and it made her more powerful than ever.

Nicole: Thanks for the power boost.

Maria: Man, when it comes to playing video games Nicole is unstoppable.

Lily: That's my teacher for you.

Lincoln: Nicole is an awesome master of video games.

Laney: Yep.

Nico: What are the odds of beating all these video games all at once?

Lisa Loud: Approximately 129,293,202 to 1.

Nico: Wow! Nicole just beat those staggering odds.

Me: That's my girl.

William: That was actually a lot of fun.

Captain Cold: Glad you thought so.

Nico: Now, what were we doing again?

Black Cuervo: (smirks) You were gonna go with Manny and Frida to tour the rest of Miracle City?

Eddy: Ok. Thanks for reminding us!

We walked away while Captain Cold and Black Cuervo made a run for it. But that's when we realized something.

Nico: HEY! WAIT A MINUTE!

Me: Just like we planned. After her.

We chased after her.

---

Later on the outskirts of the city Zoe as the Black Cuervo was talking to Roman and Loki.

Roman: How did it go?

Black Cuervo: Pretty good! They were so easy to fool. I guess they don't use their brains at all when it comes to fighting crime.

Loki: I wouldn't underestimate them just yet.

Captain Cold: Any word on what's happening in Coral Harbor in Toronto?

Loki: Well, Evox just bit the dust.

Roman: I think we all know who Evox really is.

Loki: Either way, his Robotrons are ours for the taking! And maybe Robo Blaze and Robo Roxy if we're feeling generous.

Roman: We definitely won't recruit Scrozzle though.

Black Cuervo: Well, I still can't wait to meet Evox's forces.

Captain Cold: Sorry, kid. But you're not going to get that chance.

Black Cuervo: Why not? Even with Team Loud Phoenix Storm helping El Tigre, he's still not smart enough to even tie his own shoes.

Captain Cold: You sure about that?

Me: (offscreen) I knew Black Cuervo hired you guys.

They saw us.

Loki (Power Rangers): So you all heard us.

Me: Yep. And it looks like we were right about what happened to Evox. But did you all know that he and Venjix are both destroyed?

Loki: We sure did. And they deserved it. But also we have Evox's Robotrons now in our forces.

Me: I see. There's a new Power Rangers series coming out in 2021 and it's gonna be good.

Laney: It sure is.

Roman: It looks like it.

Me: Before we fight we have to ask one question.

Static: How exactly do you guys stay active with monetary methods?

Roman: Simple. We do bounty hunting jobs.

Maria: Really?

Captain Cold: Hey, even we've got to make an honest living somehow.

Me: I bet it was the same for the Legion Of Doom before they disbanded.

Captain Cold: That's right.

Naruto: Bounty Hunting is very profitable. Take it from me because Shinobi do a lot of bounty hunting.

Me: That's right bro.

But then a figure came out and it was CRESCENT GRIZZLY!

El Tigre: El Oso?

Crescent Grizzly: I'm not El Oso. I'm Crescent Grizzly! (fires three small crescent shots from his hand at Guts Man)

Luan fired blasts of light and obliterated the crescent shots.

Troy: Time to show you how we go into our superhero attire, Manny.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Royal Flush Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the J.A.K.Q. Rangers!

El Tigre: Time for some El Tigre!

He spun his belt buckle and he transformed into EL TIGRE!

COUGAR ROAR!

Frida: YEAH!

Me: Lets power up and get them!

We powered up and transformed and we went at them.

Battle 1: Roman Goodwin

On the Duel Runner Arena as it was racing across the Spider Nazca Line, Bertrand and Nicole were facing Roman Goodwin.

Roman: Two of you this time.

Nicole: Figured we could make it two on one matches like before.

Roman: Understandable.

Bertrand: It was getting rather boring facing you by ourselves.

Roman: True. Lets do this. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL URU!

He summoned the Spider Earthbound Immortal Uru!

Nicole: These monsters pack a wallop from 530 million years ago. I summon PALEOZOIC OLENOIDES, DINOMISCHUS, CANADIA, ELDONIA, HALLUCIGENIA, LEANCHOILIA, MARRELLA, PIKAIA, ANOMALOCARIS, and OPABINIA!

Nicole summoned said monsters and they looked like creatures from the Cambrian Period.

Roman: Interesting selection.

Nicole: These are monsters that are based on creatures from the oceans of the Cambrian Period. They lived over 530 million years ago and they were around when the planet was still in its infancy and most of the life on Earth was in the ocean back then.

Roman: I see.

Bertrand: Most impressive. Here's my selection. I summon EVOLTILE CASINERIO, ELGINERO, GEPHYRO, LAGOSUCHO, MEGACHIRELLA, NAJASHO, ODONTO, PLEURO, and WESTLO! EVOLSAUR CERATO, DARWINO, DIPLO, ELIAS, PELTA, TERIAS, and VULCANO! And I summon EVOLZAR DOLKKA, LAGGIA and SOLDA!

Bertrand summoned said monsters and they all were monsters based on creatures from the Mesozoic Era and the Carboniferous Period and the Devonian Period.

Roman: Amazing selection!

Nicole: They sure are. You're looking at monsters based on creatures within a temporal range from 375 million to 66 million years ago. The Devonian Period to the Cretaceous Period.

Roman: Very interesting. Amazing selection out of both of you.

Nicole: Thanks. Lets dance.

Bertrand: Lets.

Roman: Indeed.

They went at him and Bertrand flared up his red aura and Roman flared up his Dark Red aura and Nicole flared up her purple aura and Nicole punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Bertrand punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the face and fired blasts of red fire at him and Nicole fired a dragon of star energy and it slammed into Roman and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Bertrand fired waves of red fire and the blasts slammed into Roman and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosions knocked him down as the monsters fired blasts of fire and energy and they slammed into Uru and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Uru was destroyed.

Bertrand: Nice.

Nicole: It sure was.

May was facing Loki of Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue.

Loki: I heard the big day is tomorrow for you and Nico. Congratulations to you both.

May: Thanks Loki.

Loki: You're welcome and give Nico my congratulations.

May: I will.

May went at him and kicked him in the face and fired blasts of ice fire and ice energy and Loki fired waves of lightning and the blasts collided and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

May fired waves of ice fire at him and the blasts hit him and froze him in a block of ice.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOMMMMMM!

Qin then popped out of the smoke and kicked Captain Cold in the face and knocked him out.

---

Battle 4: Crescent Grizzly

---

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Crescent Grizzly!

Nico: Lets dance you bear head.

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers fired waves of fire and energy and the blasts hit Crescent Grizzly and blew him into a million pieces and we all got his weapons and abilities.

Nico: Crescent Grizzly you have failed this world.

---

Battle 5: Black Cuervo

---

We regrouped and we were facing BLACK CUERVO!

Me: It's over Zoe. You will never torment Manny or Frida again.

Frida: YEAH! This time you pay for your crimes you witch!

Black Cuervo: Come and get me.

I punched her in the face and kicked her in the stomach and punched her in the back of the head and Nico and Vince kicked and blasted her with fire and energy and crystal and burned her all over the place and Lincoln and Linka fired waves of lightning and the blasts electrocuted her all over the place and Lana and Sam fired blasts of fire and ice and froze and burned her. Carol fired waves of atomic energy and burned her all over the place. Wamma, Illexia, Aszil, Rothar, and Olkiex used their powers and techniques and blasted her all over with incredible power and burned and singed her all over the place and more.

El Tigre: You are a monster Zoe! TIGER STYLE NINJA ART: TROPICAL TIGER MEGASLASH!

El Tigre had his claws ready and he roared ferociously and slashed Black Cuervo all over with incredible fury and ferocity and more and cut her all over the place.

Frida: I've had it with you Zoe! LEOPARD STYLE NINJA ART: FEROCIOUS SPIRIT LEOPARD SLASH!

Frida fired a wave of energy and it formed into a ferocious leopard and it slashed Black Cuervo all over the place.

Me: Time for some teamwork!

Optimus Prime: With pleasure!

Static: Yeah!

Optimus Prime used the Autobot Cyber Planet Key and Static used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and they enhanced Optimus's Ion Blaster and Static's lightning powers 100-fold.

Thunderblast and Rhino both used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they turned Thunderblast's Rocket Launcher into a bigger Rocket Launcher and enhanced Rhino's strength 100-fold.

Optimus Prime and Static: LIGHTNING ION MEGABLAST!

Optimus Prime fired waves of ion energy and Static fired waves of lightning.

Thunderblast and Rhino: THUNDERING RHINO SUPERSMASH!

Thunderblast fired waves of energy and Rhino ran at Black Cuervo.

El Tigre and Frida: FEROCIOUS CAT MEGA SAVAGERY!

El Tigre and Frida fired waves of energy and they formed into ferocious cats.

Lana and Linka: SUBZERO LIGHTNING MEGABLAST!

Lana fired ice lightning and Linika fired lightning!

The blasts combined and they slammed into Black Cuervo and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

El Tigre: You are a Bruhah! TIGER ROAR FIRESTORM!

El Tigre fired waves of fire and it formed into a tiger.

Frida: And a demon from El Diablo! LEOPARD ROAR MEGABLAST!

Frida fired waves of energy and it formed into a ferocious leopard and the blasts slammed into Black Cuervo and burned her all over and more.

Frida: THIS IS FOR ALL THE PAIN YOU CAUSED ME!

Frida then jumped her and started punching and kicking and ferociously pulverizing Black Cuervo all over with extreme brutality and smashed her face in all over the place with incredible fury in a ferocious fight cloud!

Juleka and El Tigre grabbed her by her arms!

Frida: LET ME GO! I WILL KILL THAT RUTHLESS WITCH FOR EVERYTHING SHE DID TO ME!

El Tigre: Frida killing her is not worth it!

Juleka: That's right Frida! Zoe gives all goths everywhere a really bad name. She deserves to be thrown in jail.

Frida: (Seething) (Calms down) I hope she dies in prison.

Me: She will.

We went up to her and we saw that Black Cuervo was badly hurt and beaten to within an inch of your life.

Black Cuervo: (chuckles weakly) I want you to remember this moment, El Tigre. I want you to never forget this moment. The day when you resorted to beating people to near death for the 'greater good.'

El Tigre: Hey, you know I would never mean to-

Black Cuervo: No. That's right, El Tigre. It's not your fault. You just follow Team Loud Phoenix Storm's example and find someone else whom you can easily stick the blame on. Face it, Manny Rivera. You're no longer a hero. You're a villain. Just like me!

Me: YOU SHUT UP! You have no idea how wrong you are Zoe. Manny comes from a family where his dad is a famous legendary superhero and his grandfather is a villain. Every day he has to deal with a conflicting family and one side is where he is a hero and the other is where he is a villain.

Puma Loco: That's right! I love Manny as a grandson and I can't rush him to become evil. He is a great boy and more. But I love him like my own son.

Me: That's right. And as long as we're here, Manny will be a good hero with our support and help.

Black Cuervo: You are wrong! Go on, J.D. Do it. Hakai me. But I promise that I won't scream as you end my existence for good!

Me: No. You are not worth killing Zoe. Besides, you're a kid and killing kids goes against our code. It's prison for you Zoe. For life.

We stripped her of her powers and gear and the Kids Next Door took her to the Uranus Prison for all eternity.

Later the Masters of Evil regrouped.

Captain Cold: I didn't like that little brat.

Me: I don't think anybody did.

Loki: (to Puma Luco) It's a shame that you're not going to join the Masters of Evil. You would've stayed close to Manny considering that the Masters of Evil and Team Loud Phoenix Storm are frenemies.

Puma Loco: Look. I'm a bad guy. But I'm not a BAD guy. Besides, family like Manny is very important to me. Much more important then criminal activities.

Captain Cold: You sure you don't want to change your mind?

Puma Loco: Snart. I've made my decision. Please don't try and change it.

Roman: Well, if you do change your mind, just call us.

Puma Loco: Trust me. I won't.

The Masters of Evil then teleport out.

Me: It was awesome helping you out Manny.

El Tigre: It sure was J.D. and it was awesome how you are so powerful.

Me: We don't like to brag. But that witch deserves to spend the rest of her life in prison.

Nico: I agree. Black Cuervo has failed this city.

Frida: Good riddance. At least we never have to see that ugly witch again.

Laney: You said it Frida. But it was so awesome meeting my pen pal for the first time.

Frida: Same here Laney.

Me: Lets move Miracle City to Gotham Royal York. How about that?

Nico: Good idea.

We moved the whole city and the volcano to Gotham Royal York and Frida and Manny's middle school was now part of Lynn's middle school.

El Tigre: (To the viewers) Always pick your fights carefully and always fight for the side of good no matter what. I will always be there for Team Loud Phoenix Storm and be there for Frida and my family.

Me: Well said Manny.

We went back home.

We were over in Coral Harbor in Toronto, Canada and it was an awesome and incredible place.

Me: So this is Coral Harbor. It's hard to imagine that it's part of Toronto, Canada.

Plant Man: I can't believe we're actually in Coral Harbor.

Gwen (TD): It's gonna be so cool to meet the Beast Morpher Rangers.

Nico: It sure is.

Me: We've waited over a year and a half to meet them.

Carly Carmine: This is gonna be awesome!

Laney: It sure is.

Lana: We watched them on TV and it was hard to imagine that Evox was also the evil Venjix.

Scott Truman: Hard to imagine that the Beast Morpher Rangers destroyed him for us.

Me: Yeah. Hard to imagine that Evox and Venjix were both one in the same.

Lincoln: Really shocking!

Flynn McAllister: (Scottish Accent) It's good that we'll never see those monsters again lads.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) You said it Flynn.

Me: At least the Beast Morphers saved us the trouble of having us to hunt them down to kill them.

Nico: Yep.

Vince: Good riddance.

We arrived at the Riptide Gym where the Beast Morpher Rangers love to hang out.

We saw the Beast Morpher Rangers training hard in Martial Arts and we saw them doing all kinds of moves and more.

Me: Wow! Devon is really good.

Vince: He sure is.

When it was done they saw us.

Devon Daniels: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Ravi Shaw: It's such an honor to meet all of you.

Me: It's an honor to meet all of you as well.

Zoey Reeves: We love all of your adventures and we saw all of your take on all of the bad guys.

Me: Well we don't like to brag but it's what we do to keep the universe and everyone safe from evil. Our job is neverending and we have to do everything we can to keep everyone safe. With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility.

Nate Silva: That is true.

Steel: But it is awesome that you all are amazing heroes.

Me: Thanks guys.

Jason Lee Scott: It's good to see you guys again.

Devon Daniels: Same to you Jason.

Me: I remember you guys met the Mighty Morphin Rangers, the Dino Thunder Rangers and the Dino Charge Rangers.

Connor McKnight: We sure did. It's great to see you guys again.

Ravi Shaw: Same to you Connor.

Tyler Navarro: Great to see you all.

Zoey Reeves: Yeah.

Me: There are more rangers than just them though. We have 26 years of Power Rangers with us now.

Nate Silva: Wow!

Steel: That's amazing!

Me: Yep. From 1993 and ongoing the Power Rangers are still coming. It was Japan that started them back in 1975. So we have 45 years of Rangers. Most of them have retired. But they helped us one last time in the Battle of Thanos.

Devon Daniels: Wow!

Ravi Shaw: Amazing!

Me: Lets have them introduce themselves.

Tommy Oliver: I'm Tommy Oliver, leader of the Mighty Morphin Rangers.

Laney: He's the Green Dragon, White Tiger, Red Zeo and Black Dino Thunder Power Rangers.

Me: He was on 4 teams.

Devon Michaels: Wow! It's a pleasure to meet you.

Tommy Oliver: Same here.

T.J. Johnson: We are the Turbo Power Rangers. I'm T.J. Johnson, leader of the Turbo Power Rangers from 1997.

Andros: I'm Andros, leader of the In Space Power Rangers from 1998.

Connor McKnight: You already know me. The Dino Thunder Rangers are from 2004.

Jack Landors: I'm Jack Landors, leader of the S.P.D. Power Rangers from 2005.

Me: S.P.D. stands for Space Patrol Delta. It's a special interstellar police force.

Zoey Reeves: Wow!

Nick Russell: I'm Nick Russell, leader of the Mystic Force Power Rangers from 2006.

Mack Hartford: I'm Mack Hartford, leader of the Operation Overdrive Rangers from 2007.

Casey Rhodes: I'm Casey Rhodes, leader of the Jungle Fury Power Rangers from 2008.

Scott Truman: I'm Scott Truman, leader of the R.P.M. Power Rangers from 2009.

Me: You met his father Colonel Truman right?

Devon Daniels: We sure did.

Me: Venjix is the one that destroyed much of the R.P.M. Rangers world and we blew up his entire factory with our superlaser. The R.P.M. rangers came from a nasty Post-Apocalyptic Earth that was decimated because of Venjix.

Nate Silva: We heard about that. That's awful.

Laney: It was.

Zoey Reeves: What does R.P.M. stand for?

Me: It stands for Racing Performance Machines.

Devon Michaels: Wow!

Jayden Shiba: I'm Jayden Shiba, leader of the Samurai Rangers from 2011 and 2012.

Troy Burrows: I'm Troy Burrows, leader of the Megaforce Rangers from 2013 to 2014.

Me: And the coolest part about the Megaforce Rangers is they have the power to utilize the abilities and powers of all the rangers from over the course of 45 years. Both here in America and in Japan.

Devon Daniels: Wow! That's amazing!

Nico: It sure is.

Me: To celebrate the Power Rangers 20th Anniversary they had all the American Power Rangers from over the course of 20 years join forces to take down the army of the Armada. It was one of the most epic battles we've ever seen on TV.

Lori: Literally amazing.

Kimberly Ann Hart: One of the most incredible we've ever had.

Taylor Earhart: Unforgettable.

Devon Daniels: Wow! That's incredible!

Nico: Completely unforgettable. One of the most epic fights ever.

Tyler Navarro: You know me. We are the Dino Charge Power Rangers from 2015 and 2016.

Devon Navarro: Yep.

Brody Romero: And I'm Brody Romero, leader of the Ninja Steel

Power Rangers from 2017 and 2018.

Devon Navarro: It's such an honor to meet all of you.

Trini Kwan: Same here.

Me: We made a branch team of Team Loud Phoenix Storm for all the Power Rangers. We call it the Power Rangers Superarmy. It has all the powers of every single Power Rangers Team from over the course of 45+ Years.

Ravi Shaw: Amazing!

Me: We waited a year and a half for meeting you all. We've also come to recruit you.

Devon Daniels: We gladly will join you.

Me: Awesome!

Carly Carmine: That's right.

Next thing Carly knew, Devon put handcuffs on her hands.

Devon Daniels: You're going to jail for a very long time.

Roxy: I'll go call the police! (leaves to call the cops)

Aslla piscu's card fell to the ground and Steel picked it up before looking at it.

Blaze: Steel? You ok?

Steel didn't say anything as he stared at the Earthbound Immortal's card.

Nate Silva: Steel! Snap out of it.

Steel: (snaps out of it) Whoa! Sorry, bro. I was amazed by the artwork of this card.

Nate Silva: Well, don't stare at it too long. It might suck your soul out.

Steel: C'mon! I'm sure that's only in a Shadow Duel.

Zoey Reeves: Guys, don't you think it's weird that Carly's not even fighting back?

Jean Grey: There's actually a good reason for that.

Me: She's pregnant and she's on maternal leave from her team and our frenemies the Masters of Evil. You saw our adventures and saw how the Masters of Evil helped us from time to time right?

Devon Daniels: We sure did.

Roxy: I didn't know about that. Sorry about that.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) She's also the love of my life and we're getting married in a few days.

Devon Daniels: Congratulations!

Jack Atlas: Thanks mate.

Commander Shaw: Hans Rotwood visited us the other day and told us that Lex Luthor had initiated a mind transfer to take over your bodies. He also said that it would explain the merciless behavior towards most villains and recklessness.

Me: That is a total crock of bullshit.

Mixmaster: You didn't believe him, did you?

Devon Daniels: (scoffs) Of course not. You guys destroy most villains just like we destroy Robotrons. And just like most Power Rangers teams destroy most monsters.

Steel: And Luthor didn't even get close to you guys to initiate a mind transfer.

Me: Thank goodness. And wouldn't do so anyway. He died of extreme Kryptonite Poisoning and his soul is now burning in Hell.

Commander Cruz: Let me show you Evox's second in command.

We were lead to the Morph X tower and we met Evox's second in command SCROZZLE!

---

Scrozzle is a robotic inventor who serves as the secondary antagonist in Power Rangers Beast Morphers. He is the de-facto ruler of the Cyber Dimension, being its only inhabitant along with his Tronics. After Evox's arrival, he pledges loyalty to the computer virus and provides him, Blaze, and Roxy with various technology such as the Tronics as well as the ability to create Robotrons.

He was voiced by Campbell Cooley, who also voices a bunch of other monsters.

Prior to the events of Beast Morphers, Scrozzle fled to the Cyber Dimension to hide from a being named Vargoyle and built an army of Tronics and Gigadrones to help defend him.

After Blaze and Roxy are transported to the Cyber Dimension, they are greeted by Scrozzle, declaring himself the leader of the dimension and tries to intimidate them into bowing down using four Tronics. However, Evox materializes from the supercomputer and vaporizes the four Tronics. Scrozzle falls to his knees and begs Evox to spare him. Evox demands Scrozzle help him escape the dimension. Scrozzle says he has a teleporter, but it doesn't have any power. Roxy gives him a vial of Morph-X, which the inventor says is enough to transport him and the avatars, but not a being of Evox's power. Evox then commands him and Blaze to retrieve more.

The duo are able to retrieve a sample of Morph-X but are met by the rangers. Scrozzle then creates his first Robotron, Cycletron, from a stack of tires to fight the rangers. After the rangers morph, Scrozzle panics, and Blaze tells Cycletron to fight the rangers while he and Scrozzle return to the Cyber Dimension with the stolen Morph-X. After Cycletron is destroyed, Scrozzle sends an Alpha type Gigadrone dubbed the Cycledrone to Earth. However, it is defeated with the Beast Racer Zord Battle Mode.

* * *

Me: Scrozzle, so we meet at last.

Scrozzle: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I've heard many big things about you all.

Me: It's mutual.

Scrozzle: (to Carly) Carly, thank goodness Vypra sent you! Get me out of here!

Carly Carmine: Fat chance of that happening! We don't want villains who are useless in battle.

Jazz: You should be glad we're just going to leave you in that cell!

Me: That's right!

Ben and Betty the Beast Morphers version of Bulk and Skull came.

Ben: You guys are gonna love this.

But then they stepped on a banana peel and slipped on it and they crashed into the wall!

CRASH!

Me: OOHHHH! Man that gag is old. But that must've hurt.

Luan: No kidding. That is really Ap-pealing! (Laughs) Get it?

Most of us laughed while everyone else groaned.

* * *

Later at the estate we were looking through Nico's Goosebumps Books and trying to find a good target.

Me: Hmm. How about The Headless Ghost?

Nico: Lets save that one for later.

Nico then picked up another book.

Nico: Ghost Camp?

Me: Lets save that one for later. Hmm.

I picked a good one.

Me: How about this one? Werewolf Skin?

Nico: That was a good one! That was really creepy and it was also one that ends in a cliffhanger.

Me: Okay we have our next target. Werewolf Skin it is.

Laney: With your power as J.D. the Nocturnal and as Wolf Moon, you'll make those evil pelts pay.

Me: I appreciate that. Looks like we're headed for Wolf Creek, Oregon.

Nico: This is gonna be interesting.

We were off to Wolf Creek, Oregon.

WOLF CREEK, OREGON

We arrived in Wolf Creek, Oregon and it was an interesting old style town. It was a small town located in Southwestern Oregon.

Me: Wolf Creek, Oregon.

Lincoln: It's a beautiful town.

Lana: It sure is. How will we find Alex Hunter?

Lola: In a small town like this he could be anywhere.

Me: Follow me.

We went to Alex Hunter's house and we saw that it was a nice small house about the size of the Loud House before we upgraded to our mansion.

Lincoln: It looks like the size of our old house.

Laney: It sure does.

We found Alex taking pictures with his camera.

Lily: He's a photographer like me.

Lori: He has a really good hobby.

We went up to him.

Me: Alex Hunter?

Alex Hunter: Yes? (Saw us) WOW! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here.

We saw the nasty wound on his chest.

Me: WHOA! That is a nasty wound.

Nico: Geez! How did you get that?

Alex Hunter: Hannah Stoneman bit me. She's a werewolf.

Me: Ouch! You are now cursed I think.

Alex Hunter: Yeah. I'm now a werewolf.

Me: Well the next Full Moon isn't until August 3rd.

Nico: That's a relief. But I think the Werewolf Skins were infused with dark magic.

Vince: How do werewolf skins even come into being?

Alex Hunter: I found out that Werewolves shed their skins and they come alive.

Me: They shed skins like snakes? Weird.

Alex Hunter: I know. (Sees the Beast Morpher Rangers) Are you guys the Beast Morphers team?

Devon Daniels: Yep. Kept you waiting, huh?

Me: For about a year and a half.

Alex Hunter: But how are we gonna destroy the Werewolf Skins?

Me: You leave that to us. We have the power to do so. Also since the Full Moon doesn't come out until August and the moonlight will stop them, we're gonna have to wait. Or I have a better solution.

I pulled out the Lunar Locket.

Omi: (Tibetan Accent) The Lunar Locket. Good idea J.D. We can make the moon full so that we'll weaken them and destroy them.

Me: After we weaken them with our battles.

Landon: Right.

Edwayl: We can do it lads.

Me: Lets get ready.

Devon Daniels: Alright. Let's do this!

Devon and Troy: It's morphin time!

Megaforce Rangers: Super Mega Mode!

The Megaforce Rangers went into their Super Megaforce Mode!

Beast Morphers Rangers: Activate Beast Power!

The Beast Morpher Rangers transformed!

Beast Morpher Rangers: UNLEASH THE BEAST!

We got ready and as night came we had the werewolf skins from all over town ready. Vypra, Saïx, Kalin and Greiger then appeared.

Me: Vypra, Saïx, Kalin and Greiger.

Devon Daniels: So you're Vypra, leader of the Masters of Evil?

Vypra: Of course I am.

Kalin: And she's a damn good boss!

Greiger: Sorry we couldn't get a Robotron to come.

Me: No worries. But next time you will.

Vypra: We have a new friend with us.

?: That's right.

A figure came and it was MITSUAAMI!

---

Kunzite brainwashed Kariko and the others in an attempt to find out who Sailor Moon really was, but when Minako got some of Usagi's hair on her hair, Mitsuaami mistook her for Sailor Moon. Her attacks involved using a deadly blowdryer, a sprayer that shoots scissors, a razor that was like a chainsaw, and a nail file. She was eventually healed by Sailor Moon, turning her back into the several people she was created from.

---

Sailor Moon: Mitsuaami!

Mitsuaami: I'm gonna enjoy cutting all of your hair!

Steel: Sorry! I like my hair just the way it is!

Shanan: I might have known that you would bring out a Barbitorian.

Qin: What is a Barbitorian?

Shanan: They are a ruthless race of Hair Barber aliens from the planet Barbitus located 83,200 light-years from Earth. They slaughter their people in vicious gladiatorial fights like they did back over 2600 years ago in Roman Empire Italy and they slaughter without a single shred of remorse, guilt of empathy. It's a brutal and vicious world. But it was destroyed when a rogue planet slammed into it and completely reduced it to nothing.

Mitsuaami: That's right Shanan. I heard that you know so much about what kind of creatures my comrades are.

Shanan: I have an infinitely vast knowledge of every living thing in the entire universe.

Vypra: I didn't know about that.

Me: Very wicked.

Then we saw the Werewolf Skins come alive and they were growling ferociously and then they howled at the sky!

AAAWWWWWWWOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now lets do this!

Nico: They are out for blood!

?: WAIT!

We saw a girl coming and it was Hannah Stoneman. She was the girl that bit Alex.

Alex Hunter: (Bitterly) Hannah.

Me: Alex I think she wants to redeem herself.

Hannah Stoneman: That's right. Alex I'm so sorry I bit you. I can't believe I did that.

Vypra: Lets take this fight to another planet.

Vypra snapped her fingers and we were on a swamp planet. It was the swamp planet LEPIDOPTERRA!

---

With its advanced and highly specialized ecosystem, Lepidopterra is a generally peaceful swamp planet whose numerous species live among a fantastic variety of giant plants.

Life

Residing in a complex of giant hives each ruled by its own queen, Lepidopterrans are the predominant inhabitants on Lepidopterra.

Life on Lepidopterra is seasonal and every species does its part to make sure the flora continues to produce its fruit so that all can live together in harmony as they have for countless years.

History

Lepidopterra first appeared in a flashback in Of Predators and Prey: Part 2, where Khyber was battling a Buglizard and scanned its DNA for the Nemetrix.

---

Me: Wow! Look at this planet!

Nico: It's a swamp planet.

Laney: Sure is weird here.

Lana: Cool!

Lola: What is this planet?

Vypra: This is the planet Lepidopterra. It's the home of the Lepidopterran's. Stinkfly's species.

Me: Wow! So this is the planet Lepidopterra.

Ben: I've always wondered what Stinkfly's home planet looked like.

Riley: It sure is a strange place. I didn't know it would be like this.

Papillion: Me neither. It's amazing here.

Julie Yamamoto: It's a strange swamp planet.

Laney: Really neat.

Alex Hunter: This is so cool! I always wanted to see what an alien planet is like.

Hannah Stoneman: Me too!

Shanan: We're now 6,800 light-years away from Earth. It's amazing that it's out here.

Me: Lets take these monsters down! Kibal! Lets HOWL!

Troy: Devon, you're about to see a Legendary Mode up close.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Wild Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Wild Force Rangers!

Devon Daniels: Cool!

Zoey Reeves: Awesome!

I turned into Wolf Moon and we went at them!

Battle 1: Vypra

Luan was facing Vypra.

Luan: This should be most enlightening Vypra.

Vypra: It will be good.

Luan formed a sword of light and Vypra unsheathed her sword and it glowed with a blade of darkness and they went at each other and clashed ferociously and sparks were flying all over the place with incredible power and more and they clashed and clashed and clashed. Luan then kicked Vypra in the stomach and punched her in the face and knocked her out.

Luan: Yeah!

---

Battle 2: Saïx

---

Carol was facing Saïx.

Saïx: This will be most amusing.

Carol: It will be amusing.

Carol formed a powerful broadsword made of pure atomic energy and it was glowing atomic blue and Saïx activated his berserker mode and they went at each other roaring at the tops of their lungs with incredible fury and they clashed with incredible power in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

They viciously went at each other with unbelievable fury at an incredible level and punched and kicked at each other with incredible power. Carol dodged all of his punches and kicks and swings and it was incredibly powerful as they were setting the whole landscape on fire. They then went at each other roaring at the top of their lungs and Carol and Saïx slammed their legs together and a massively powerful explosion of fire and atomic energy exploded out with incredible power and set much of the landscape on fire and it sent Saïx flying and he crashed through numerous trees and he landed on the ground and the trees crushed him and knocked him out.

Carol: Wow! What a fight.

Battle 3: Greiger

Boris and Hannah Fairchild were facing Greiger.

Boris: This is gonna be a good one.

Greiger: It sure is.

Hannah Fairchild: Lets see how the power of the Sacred Beasts fairs against the power of the Earthbound Immortals.

Greiger: Looking forward to it. I summoned EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CHACU CHALLHUA!

He summoned the Killer Whale Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua!

Boris: You go first Hannah.

Hannah Fairchild: Thank you. Such a gentleman.

She activated her Duel Disk. It was one of those Orichalcos Duel Disk.

Hannah Fairchild: I summon URIA, LORD OF SEARING FLAMES, TWIN-HEADED FIRE DRAGON, FIRE PRINCESS, ROYAL FIRESTORM GUARDS, SOLAR FLARE DRAGON, SPIRIT OF FLAMES, GAIA SOUL THE COMBUSTIBLE COLLECTIVE, OLD ENTITY CTHUGUA, INARI FIRE, HELIOS - THE PRIMORDIAL SUN, HELIOS TRICE MEGISTUS, INFERNAL FLAME EMPEROR, LADY ASSAILANT OF FLAMES, FLAME RULER and INVASION OF FLAMES!

Hannah summoned said monsters in a massive wall of fire and it was an army of Fire Monsters!

Greiger: Impressive selection.

Hannah Fairchild: I can summon more than just the Three Sacred

Beast Cards. I have to diversify my styles to keep my enemies guessing.

Greiger: Good move.

Hannah Fairchild: I'm not done yet. We'll play on their field. I activate the field spell MOLTEN DESTRUCTION!

Hannah activated the Field Spell and it turned the area into a Volcano Field.

Hannah Fairchild: And I equip myself with DIVINE SWORD - PHOENIX BLADE and SALAMANDRA!

Hannah equipped herself with said cards and she was ready.

Boris: Awesome! I summon the Crystal Beasts of Light and Darkness! I summon CRYSTAL BEASTS RUBY CARBUNCLE, AMBER MAMMOTH, TOPAZ TIGER, EMERALD TORTOISE, SAPPHIRE PEGASUS, COBALT EAGLE and AMETHYST TIGER!

Boris: And I summon the mighty (Echoing) RAINBOW DRAGON!

He summoned the Almighty Rainbow Dragon!

Hannah Fairchild: Wow!

Greiger: Amazing selection. You know your monsters.

Boris: Thanks.

Hannah Fairchild: Lets dance.

They went at Greiger and Hannah slashed him with her sword and fired a blast of fire from it and it formed into a dragon of pure fire and it slammed into Greiger and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Hannah fired blasts of fire and Boris fired waves of indigo fire and they slammed into Greiger and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Hannah and Boris's monsters fired blasts of energy and fire and they slammed into Chacu Challhua and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Chacu Challhua was defeated and Greiger was knocked down.

---

Battle 4: Kalin

---

Morpheus was facing Kalin.

Kalin: How is Carly doing?

Morpheus: She is getting big. But she's doing well.

Kalin: Good. Lets do it.

Morpheus: No need for our monsters this time. Lets use our fists.

Kalin: All righty.

Morpheus flew at him and kicked Kalin in the face and knocked him down.

Morpheus: That was fun.

---

Battle 5: Mitsuaami

---

Shanan and Leni were facing Mitsuaami.

Shanan: I'm gonna cut your power Mitsuaami.

Mitsuaami: We'll see about that.

Leni: We totes will!

Mitsuaami threw a pair of scissors and it slashed Shanan's face on her right cheek and blood dripped down her face.

Shanan: Nice throw. Now lets see how you like this!

Shanan teleported and kicked her in the face and sent her crashing into a tree. But then Mitsuaami got up and pumped up a deadly razor arm and it was running like a chainsaw!

Shanan: Uh oh!

She came at them and smashed the ground they were on and it was powerful! She then swung it and slashed Leni in her right arm and she screamed in excruciating pain as blood was pouring out of her arm!

It was a nasty wound!

Shanan fired a massive energy wave and it slammed into Mitsuaami and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Shanan went over to Leni and she was crying her eyes out in so much pain.

Shanan: Hang on Leni we'll get that wound looked at and healed.

Shanan then ripped her shirt and tied it around her wound and Leni screamed in pain.

Leni: AAAAAAHHH! IT HURTS!

Shanan: I know Leni. Just keep applying pressure to it.

---

Battle 6: The Werewolf Skins!

---

We regrouped and we were facing the WEREWOLF SKINS!

Maria: I hope to have you wolves as normal pelts after we waste you!

Me: Yeah!

We went at the Werewolf Skins and I slashed one with my scythe and fired a blast of blue fire at them and burned them and Laney fired blasts of fire and Nico fired waves of fire and Lincoln and Linka and Lola fired blasts of lightning and fire and the skins were electrocuted and burned all over and Lana fired blasts of ice lightning and froze them in ice and Lucy fired blasts of dark lightning and electrocuted them all over the place and Lynn and Luan fired blasts of light and lava and burned them and Landon fired blasts of wind and Lisa fired gears at the Skins and burned and blew them around.

Riggan: This is gonna be a good one. FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: GUIDANCE OF THE GREAT STAG!

Riggan fired a wave of leaves and wood and it formed into the beautiful and majestic Great Stag Deer and it was beautiful and he stabbed a bunch of Werewolf Skins with their antlers.

Swassa: This one will hurt. FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: MARCH OF THE DEER!

Plant Man and Mixmaster used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Plant Man's Plant Powers and Mixmaster's infrared cannon 100-fold.

Jazz and Jean Grey used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Jazz's Photon Ray and Jean Grey's Psychic Powers 100-fold.

Me: Time for some primal power!

I growled and I transformed. My skin grew fur and my hands had deadly claws that formed on my fingernails and toenails and my eyes turned glowing neon yellow and my teeth turned into fangs and my ears turned into wolf ears. I had transformed into J.D. THE NOCTURNAL!

The pelts were down but not out!

We went back to Earth.

Me: The Full Moon knocks them out. LUNAR LOCKET!

I activated the Lunar Locket and the Moon turned into the Full Moon and the Werewolf Skins were now powerless and lifeless.

Nico: These pelts will never terrorize the world again.

Nico chanted a powerful magic incantation and it removed the dark magic that gave them life and he sent it into the River of Fire. The werewolf skins were now just harmless pelts and Nico removed the curse of the werewolf from the whole town of Wolf Creek.

Me: That was a close one.

Maria picked up the wolf pelts and I reverted back and the Masters of Evil came.

Devon Daniels: Ok. I guess we can accept you guys as frenemies from this point forward.

Vypra: Glad to hear it.

Greiger: Especially since Carly's pregnant and Nico and May's wedding is about to happen in a week or two.

Ravi: Just as long as you guys don't even think about resurrecting Evox.

Saïx: Don't you mean Venjix?

Steel: You know what we mean!

Kalin: Relax! We're not bringing back that virus even if you paid us to.

William: Glad to hear it.

Me: Good. But if he DOES come back we'll be ready for him.

The Masters of Evil then teleported out.

Alex Hunter: This was awesome!

Hannah Stoneman: It was awesome helping you all.

Me: Glad you all had fun. But you have to remember that with Great Power comes Great Responsibility.

Alex Hunter: I know. (To the viewers) Never mess around with evil werewolf artifacts. Or Team Loud Phoenix Storm will stop you.

Me: Yep.

We went back home and Alex Hunter and Hannah Stoneman were made members of the Goosebumps Monster Busters.

THE END

Another Goosebumps Book done.

Werewolf Skin was a freaky one. It was creepy and awesome! The next Goosebumps book is the Haunted Car and that one is gonna be very similar to what happened in the movie Christine.

NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is the awesome Japanese Animated movie by Hayao Miyazaki Spirited Away and we're going to take down the evil witch that nearly destroyed Chihiro Ogino's life and make her pay for her crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Rescue and Battle in the Spirit World

At the estate, I was reading the newspaper and it was getting interesting.

Me: Lets see here. "Team Loud Phoenix Storm does it again. M.A.D. Physician who had Ties with the evil Organization M.A.D. was captured and jailed for life." Good riddance.

I read more and more stories and then Jack Atlas, Carly who had a huge belly now and Laney and Lily came back from the doctor.

Me: Hey guys. How did the appointment go?

Laney: Carly is really excited!

Carly Carmine: I'm expecting Triplet girls!

Me: WOW!

Lori: Triplets!? (Squeals) I'm literally excited for you Carly.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) We all are and I'm excited to be a father.

Lana: It's gonna be awesome!

Lola: It sure is.

Me: When is she due?

Jack Atlas: In 5 weeks.

Me: Wow. We're counting down the days.

Then we heard groans coming from Nico's room!

Me: Uh oh! Sound like Nico's in trouble.

We went up to his room and we saw him curled up on his bed in a fetal position.

Star Man: You ok, dude?

Nico: No! (STOMACH GRUMBLES) I have pain radiating from my navel to my lower right abdomen. I'm nauseated and feverish. I think I have cholera.

Maria: There's no way you could've gotten cholera.

Nico: Well, if it's not cholera, then based on an Internet search, the other explanations could be Hirschsprung's Disease, botulism, a 30-foot tapeworm or accidental ingestion of chrysanthemum blossoms.

May: How do you know all that?

Nico: Lisa been teaching me this stuff. (STOMACH GRUMBLES) Oh, God, my belly!

Maria: Have you ever had your appendix out?

Nico: I haven't. I've been meaning to, but who has the time?

Me: Let's get you to the infirmary.

Nico: So this is how it ends. I find it ironic that after fighting bad guys for a long time, getting blown up, shot at, and beaten up, I die thanks to my appendix betraying me!

Irma: Funny how things turn out, huh?

Nico: (STOMACH GRUMBLES) Oh, God, I think it's about to burst!

FFFAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRTTTTTTTTT!

Nico: (Blushes) Oh, that's right. I had Brussel Sprouts for dinner.

Me: (Coughs and Gags) Oh man! That is rank! And I thought Lori's farts smelled bad!

Lori: (Offended) HEY!

Me: Well they do!

Later Nico was eating more and more Brussel Sprouts and as he was playing video games with me and then he released another rank fart and it smelled horrible! Same thing with everyone that he came into contact with. With Lori while helping her with her Trigonometry Homework, Leni with her clothes making, Luna with her jams, Luan with her jokes, Lynn with basketball, Lincoln with comics, Linka with her stuffed animals, Lucy with her poems, Laney with her art, Lana with her working on Vanzilla, Lola at a tea party, Lisa with her experiments and Lily with her photography. It was mega bad.

Later Nico just fell on the ground while jogging with Jen and Shrapnel.

Shrapnel: You ok, boss?

Nico: I'm fine.

Jen: Let me help you up.

Nico: Thank you.

Jen helped him up and then he farted.

FAAAAAAAARRRRRRRTTTTTT!

Shrapnel: Ok, I think you may need to cut back on the Brussel sprouts!

Later we had a meeting and talked about Nico's really bad flatulence and we decided to have Nico stay back from our next mission until he gets this Brussel Sprout problem under control.

Nico: You want me to stay back!?

Me: I'm sorry Nico but I'm afraid this is for your own good. Until you get this toxic flatulence under control, you have to stay back.

Nico: (offended) I see. I get how it is now. You want me to stay behind on the next mission so you guys will be free to be reckless and angry. Is that it?!

Me: Nico-

Nico: Well, it's not like I have a choice right now! (Storms out of the room)

G1 Bumblebee: You sure you guys made the right decision?

Me: Not really sure.

---

Later we were watching a movie and it was the first movie from Ghibli Studios that we were watching. We were watching Hayao Miyazaki's Spirited Away and it was an awesome movie from 2001.

---

Ten-year-old Chihiro Ogino and her parents are traveling to their new home when her father decides to take a shortcut. The family's car stops in front of a tunnel leading to what appears to be an abandoned amusement park which Chihiro's father insists on exploring, despite his daughter's protest. They find a seemingly empty restaurant still stocked with food, which Chihiro's parents immediately begin to eat. While exploring further, Chihiro finds an exquisite bathhouse and meets a boy named Haku, who warns her to return across the riverbed before sunset. However, Chihiro discovers too late that her parents have metamorphosed into pigs, and she is unable to cross the now-flooded river.

Haku finds Chihiro and has her ask for a job from the bathhouse's boiler-man, Kamaji, a yōkai commanding the susuwatari. Kamaji refuses to hire her and asks worker Lin to send Chihiro to Yubaba, the witch who runs the bathhouse. Yubaba tries to frighten Chihiro away, but she persists, so Yubaba gives Chihiro a contract to work for her. Yubaba takes away the second kanji of her name, Chihiro (千尋), (Great Depth), 尋 (Fathom), renaming her Sen (千), Thousand. While visiting her parents' pigpen, Haku gives Sen a goodbye card she had with her, and Sen realizes that she had already forgotten her real name. Haku warns her that Yubaba controls people by taking their names, and that if she forgets hers like he has forgotten his, she will not be able to leave the spirit world.

Sen faces discrimination from the other workers because she is still a human and not a spirit; only Haku and Lin show sympathy for her. While working, she invites a silent creature named No-Face inside, believing him to be a customer. A "stink spirit" arrives as Sen's first customer, and she discovers he is the spirit of a polluted river. In gratitude for cleaning him, he gives Sen a magic emetic dumpling. Meanwhile, No-Face imitates the gold left behind by the stink spirit and tempts a worker with gold, then swallows him. He demands food and begins tipping expensively. He swallows two more workers when they interfere with his conversation with Sen.

Sen sees paper Shikigami attacking a Japanese dragon and recognizes the dragon as Haku metamorphosed. When a grievously injured Haku crashes into Yubaba's penthouse, Sen follows him upstairs. A shikigami that stowed away on her back shapeshifts into Zeniba, Yubaba's twin sister. She mutates Yubaba's son, Boh, into a mouse, creates a decoy Boh, and mutates Yubaba's harpy into a tiny, flylike bird. Zeniba tells Sen that Haku has stolen a magic golden seal from her, and warns Sen that it carries a deadly curse. Haku attacks the shikigami, which eliminates Zeniba's hologram. He falls into the boiler room with Sen, Boh, and the harpy on his back, where Sen feeds him part of the dumpling she had intended to give her parents, causing him to vomit both the seal and a black slug, which Sen crushes with her foot.

With Haku unconscious, Sen resolves to return the seal and apologize to Zeniba. Sen confronts No-Face, who is now massive, and feeds him the rest of the dumpling. No-Face follows Sen out of the bathhouse, steadily regurgitating everything he has eaten. Sen, No-Face, Boh, and the harpy travel to see Zeniba with train tickets given to her by Kamaji. Yubaba orders that Sen's parents be slaughtered, but Haku reveals that Boh is missing and offers to retrieve him if Yubaba releases Sen and her parents. Yubaba agrees, but only if Sen can pass a final test.

Sen, No-Face, Boh, and the harpy meet with Zeniba, who reveals that Sen's love for Haku broke her curse and that Yubaba used the black slug to take control over Haku. Haku appears at Zeniba's home in his dragon form and flies Sen, Boh, and the harpy to the bathhouse. No-Face decides to stay behind and become Zeniba's spinner. In mid-flight, Sen recalls falling years ago into the Kohaku River and being washed safely ashore, correctly guessing Haku's real identity as the spirit of the Kohaku River (ニギハヤミ コハクヌシ (饒速水琥珀主/饒速水小白主), Nigihayami Kohakunushi, lit. "master of the swift-flowing amber [river]" or "master of the swift-flowing little white [river]"). When they arrive at the bathhouse, Yubaba forces Sen to identify her parents from among a group of pigs in order to break their curse. After Sen answers correctly that none of the pigs are her parents, her contract disappears and she is given back her real name. Haku takes her to the now-dry riverbed and vows to meet her again. Chihiro crosses the riverbed to her restored parents, who do not remember anything after eating at the restaurant stall. They walk back through the tunnel until they reach their car, now covered in dust and leaves. Before getting in, Chihiro is shown to still be wearing the hairband No-Face, Boh, and the harpy spun for her at Zeniba's home.

---

We absolutely detested the way she was treated by Yubaba and more and we were really happy for her that she beat her and regained her family and more. Chihiro was an awesome force and more. She was a true hero for saving her family and Haku. When the movie was done we cheered wildly!

Me: So awesome!

Nico: This is one of my all time favorite movies!

Lori: Literally an awesome movie.

Roxy Santiago: You said it mommy.

Laney: It's awesome how Chihiro saved her parents and showed that monster Yubaba a thing or two.

Me: Yep.

Yusuke: I'm glad she did. Also the Spirit World put out a huge hit on Yubaba.

Boton: (British Accent) It's true. King Enma hates Yubaba with a vengeance and decided to put a stop to her crimes.

Boton pulled out a wanted poster of her and showed it to us. She was a B Class demon out to ruin the spirits of the Spirit and Human worlds.

Me: Wow! She is that dangerous.

Lola: Looks like my Penpal is gonna need our help.

Lily: Chihiro is your penpal Lols?

Lola: She sure is. And she is a very kind and awesome friend.

Cornelia: Sounds like me and Megan.

Megan McAllister: Yeah.

Me: Lets see what it says about Yubaba.

I pulled up her information.

---

Yubaba is the main antagonist of Hayao Miyazaki's 12th animated feature film Spirited Away. The character makes her first appearance when she is met by Chihiro Ogino.

She is a greedy witch, the proprietor of the Bathhouse, the identical twin sister of Zeniba and the mother of Boh. She has a bird servant affectionately referred to by fans as Yu-Bird, an apprentice by the nickname of Haku, Spirit-like pets named Kashira and is the employer of countless other bathhouse workers.

She was voiced by Mari Natsuki in the original Japanese dubbed version. In the English dubbed version, she was voiced by the late Suzanne Pleshette in her final role, who also played Dr. Rachel Walters in A Twist of the Knife, and Zira in Disney's The Lion King 2: Simba's Pride.

Background

Yubaba is an elderly witch with an inhumanly large head and nose, who supervises the bathhouse. Yubaba has an overbearing, ostentatious and authoritarian personality, but does show a soft side toward her giant baby, Boh (whom she spoils beyond belief). Yubaba lives in opulent quarters and is only interested in taking care of guests for money. Despite being rather despicable and repugnant, Yubaba is not completely without human traits, and seems to warm up to Chihiro somewhat by the end of the movie.

Yubaba has a twin sister named Zeniba. Although identical in appearance, their personalities are almost polar opposites, Yubaba being merciless and greedy while Zeniba is generous and kind, though Zeniba is very vengeful when someone tries to steal her magic seal.

Meeting Chihiro

Not introduced until after being mentioned by both Haku and Kamajii, Yubaba quickly establishes herself as a very terrifying authoritarian figure to Chihiro during their first face-to-face meeting (Yubaba is first heard in this scene talking through the gargoyle knocker on the door to her office). During her interview with Chihiro, she uses various methods to intimidate Chihiro into speaking about those who have helped her, and is quite annoyed that the latter repeatedly asks for a job, forcing Yubaba to make good on an oath to give anyone a job who asks for one. Calling Chihiro stupid, useless and spoiled, Yubaba's tirade ends abruptly with one of Boh's tantrums, during which she reluctantly gives a contract to Chihiro. Remarking on how beautiful (and long) Chihiro's name is, Yubaba quickly removes several characters from the signature, renaming Chihiro "Sen". She is then seen ordering a very stoic and distant Haku to take Chihiro to the lower floors.

Yubaba is next seen in the movie as a bird. By wrapping herself up in a cloak, she transforms her body into one similar to a bird's and flies off into the distance, allowing Haku to visit Chihiro without interference.

She returns to realize that a "stink spirit" is trying to walk into the bathhouse during the rain and orders her workers to chase the spirit away. Realizing later that the guest is in fact not a stink spirit, she orders Chihiro to serve him. After Chihiro successfully removed large amounts of junk and debris from the spirit, Yubaba hugged her in happiness, revealing that the dirty spirit was actually a River Spirit, and a very wealthy and powerful figure in the Spirit Realm. Some time later, she orders Haku to steal a golden seal from Zeniba.

With No-Face causing an uproar in the bathhouse, Yubaba angrily blames Chihiro on the phone for letting No-Face in, and promptly tells her subordinates to dispose of Haku, who was gravely injured after being cursed by Zeniba and of no use to her anymore. She is then seen coming out of a rampaging No-Face's guest room and quickly dismisses her (then transformed) son, Boh, for being a "dirty mouse" and pushes Chihiro in the room to face No-Face alone.

As No-Face regurgitates all the food and other matter he has eaten whilst chasing Chihiro, Yubaba remarks that what No-Face has done is unforgivable and tosses a fireball at him only to be puked on by the monstrous spirit.

Final Defeat

She is next seen in her office having washed herself. Realizing that "Boh" was really just the Three Heads and that the "gold" she received from No-Face was merely mud, she storms into Boh's room looking for her son and asks Haku, with blazing anger, where her son is. When told he was at Zeniba's place, Yubaba immediately extinguishes the flames in her mouth and seats herself in a chair, striking a deal with Haku to have him return Boh in exchange for Chihiro's freedom.

She is then seen pacing on the bridge entrance to The Bathhouse with a contract in her hand, waiting for Chihiro and Haku's return with her son. Having completed her deal with Haku and with the contract destroyed, Yubaba spitefully tells Chihiro to leave. Unlike her workers and son, Yubaba does not bid a friendly farewell to Chihiro, but nonetheless remains to see her off. And as Chihiro and Haku leave, Yubaba is briefly seen to turn and give an impressed smile.

Appearance

Yubaba is Zeniba's twin sister and, as such, is almost completely identical to her. She has an inhumanly large figure and a large mound of discolored hair combed into a bun-like style. Her age is never stated, but Yubaba is very wrinkly. She has dark brown eyes accentuated with lavender eye shadow as well as a prominent crooked nose drawing attention to a bindi-like mole between her eyebrows. She also wears golden earrings identical to those of her twin sister's. Unlike her sister, Yubaba is not shown with glasses in the film.

Personality

As the main antagonist of the film, Yubaba is extremely overbearing, intimidating and authoritatian. Like many other workers of her infamous bathhouse, Yubaba obsesses greedily over gold and is shown to be willing to view gold as a priority over her own family (especially Zeniba, whom she expresses hatred for). However, she has in some instances shown a greatly quantitative amount of motherly care for her son Boh, and is seen completely devastated when the latter states that he "won't like [her] anymore" if she continues to treat Chihiro (Sen) unfairly towards the end of the film.

She is quite selfish and frugal (when it comes to workers), having given herself an opulent office with immeasurable amounts of unoccupied space and her many workers a single cramped room as living space. From the other side, however, she also readily takes both disgusting and dangerous tasks herself (like meeting the stinking Unnamed River Spirit or attempting to shield her workers from the rampaging No-Face). She also appears to be highly professional in these tasks.

Her magical capabilities have allowed her to "steal" the names of her workers, binding them in a contract to her bathhouse forever unless they manage to miraculously recall their full names (the only two people seen doing so are Haku and Chihiro, both of which relied on each other to remember). She is also seen to be able to spit fire when angered to a certain extent (seen when Haku mentions that her precious son Boh has been "taken" from her).

While her attributes are seen as incredibly antagonistic in the film, Yubaba has occasionally shown several redeeming qualities, such as her willingness to praise Chihiro after her excellent work with helping the Unnamed River Spirit and motherly softness for her son Boh. In the end she simply places gold over most things, causing others to disagree with her due to their varying mindsets.

Powers and Abilities

Yubaba is a powerful and feared witch who displays a vast array of magical powers, including:

Curses: Yubaba's dark magic involves casting curses including Name-Stealing and Mind Domination and more that she can possibly do.

Magical projectiles: She fires a blast of energy at No-Face, though it doesn't seem to do any damage to him.

Stealing one's true name: She can take away one's name and replace it with a more convenient one. The true name will be forgotten by everyone, including the victim, who will be forever trapped in the spirit world at Yubaba's service.

Telekinesis: She can remotely open doors and move people and objects.

Metamorphosis: She can turn humans into animals and possibly do the opposite as well. Yubaba can drape herself in a cloak resembling a large bird.

Mind domination: She injects Haku with a parasite, apparently to ensure his loyalty.

Flight: Yubaba can fly, both in her normal form and in her bird form.

Speed: Yubaba can run and fly at great speeds.

We gasped in shock!

Me: Yubaba is a monster!

Nico: I've always hated Yubaba because she's a total bitch.

Naruto: I don't blame you. I hate her too.

Laney: Me too.

Me: But lets head on over to Japan and take that witch down for good!

Everyone: YEAH!

Me: I know it's rough but we can't have you gassing up everything Nico.

Nico: I understand.

We went off to Japan. But little did we know that Nico was following us.

TOKYO, JAPAN

We arrived in Tokyo, Japan and we were right outside the house of Chihiro Ogino. We saw her working in her garden. She was now a 17 year old girl still living with her parents and she was now working hard to protect her family no matter what.

Me: Excuse me.

Chihiro saw us.

Me: Are you Chihiro Ogino?

Chihiro: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! (Bows) It's such an honor to meet you all and yes I am Chihiro Ogino.

Me: (Bows) Pleasure to meet you too Chihiro.

Lola: Hey Chihiro. It's a pleasure to meet you in person.

Chihiro: Lola!

They hugged.

Chihiro: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Lola: It's awesome having you as a penpal.

Laney: We watched your awesome movie Spirited Away and it is awesome!

Me: It sure is. We love how you bravely saved your parents from the evil Yubaba.

Chihiro: I know. I can't believe we accidentally wound up in the Spirit World.

Kuwabara: That is pretty unusual.

Yukina: I believe it.

Hiei: It sure is weird.

Chihiro: I'm glad you're all here. Because I think my parents went into the Spirit World again.

Me: Looks like we got here just in time.

Chihiro: Yes. Where's Nico? Isn't he usually with you?

Me: He's having a day off because he has really bad gas. He eats Brussel Sprouts and it gives him really bad gas.

Chihiro: Oh man.

Lori: Yeah.

Lola: Can you lead us to the door that leads into the Spirit World?

Chihiro: Of course. Be right back.

She went back into her house and she put on a beautiful red warrior Kimono and she had a magical Samurai Katana on her left hip.

Me: Nice outfit.

Chihiro: Thanks J.D. I found it shortly after I rescued my family and I trained very powerfully to protect my family.

Lola: Wow! You were busy.

Chihiro: Thanks. I've mastered an ancient style called the Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū 飛天御剣流.

Me: The Heavenly Flying Sword Style.

Jared: I know that style. That's a powerful Samurai Sword Technique Style that was made during the Sengoku Dynasty of the 16th Century.

Chihiro: That's right. How did you know about that?

Jared: I've learned a lot about the Samurai Fighting Styles during most of my training.

Jared went over the power of the Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū.

---

Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū is an ancient kenjutsu style from the Sengoku Jidai, developed to allow a single samurai to defeat numerous foes single-handedly, created by Hiko Seijūrō I. Rooted in the concept of ichi no tachi, or to strike in a single blow, practitioners of this style use a combination of immense speed and agility, battōjutsu, and acquired, observation-based pseudo-clairvoyance that permits a practitioner to anticipate an opponent's movements. Both offensive and defensive maneuvers are executed with minimal movement to increase a practitioner's ability to counter-attack and to conserve energy. As such, made with efficiency and spareness of exertion in the face of warfare scale battles yet with powerful and coordinated movements to easily fell threats in long and undetermined periods of time, it is among one of the strongest and oldest kenjutsu styles in Japan, once known as the signature style that defined Hiko Seijūrō The I as The Man Who Could Cut One Hundred In One Stroke.

The style commonly has the user keep one hand on the sheath at all times and stresses two-step attacks to ensure that the practitioner is never off guard while executing said attacks and allows the user to use the sheath as a shield to block attacks. Practitioners are also trained in honing their senses and to recognize movement, as well as to react in kind with their opponent's emotional disposition to efficiently fend them off accurately, a process in short that can be called "utilizing one's ki" or the internal way of the martial arts, allowing the practitioner to dynamically flow in turn with their opponent's own energy and use their own pace against them. Arguably, its most well-known trait is the surreal speed practitioners of this style use in battle (known as Shinsoku, or Godspeed), allowing the user to accelerate, maneuver, and strike at speeds most eyes are unable to properly follow. This allows the user to close considerable distance in seconds and strike down enemies before they can react. Despite each successor to this style becoming true masters of its teachings and skills, rarely have any of them be able to use this style to true perfection and bring out its full potential. Only Hiko Seijūrō I and XIII (and in the anime only Amakusa Shōgo) are able to surpass the normal limits of this style, such as going beyond god-speed without the need of battōjutsu strikes, letting them accelerate to speeds faster than the human eye can detect.

The techniques of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū have only been held by a select few through the course of its entire history. In the face of its tremendous power as a style, this is due to its adherence to the strict yet responsible practice of isshi soden, which involves a single master training a single apprentice exclusively. This master-apprentice dynamic continues to point of succession in which the apprentice graduates into his mastery through a special rite of passage, in which they inherit the style's secret technique (ōgi) and the mantle of "Hiko Seijūrō". This process, however, results in the death of the current master at the hands of the apprentice who must use of the this secret technique - Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki - against them. Succession also awards the newly-appointed master an heirloom mantle which acts as the certification of mastery. This special mantle is also weighted which enables the master to continuously train their strength when worn, even with everyday activities.

Due to its tremendous power and speed, Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū has been nicknamed "The Black Ship of the Land" in that it would almost certainly secure absolute victory for whichever side might wield it in a conflict. In light of this probability, the practitioners of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū have historically maintained the independence of any and all political entities, stressing highly the importance of wielding its expertise in the name of their fellow man. Under this duty, all generations of practitioners receive a great deal of insight regarding the human condition from the school's teachings. This includes instruction regarding the relativism of morality and the idea that perceptions of good and evil are not absolute; a potentially "good" human being can have any number of beliefs that may not mesh with those of the practitioner without necessarily being wrong. Other core tenants of the style include the idea the art of swordsmanship ultimately amounts to nothing more than a way to kill other human beings, regardless of the practitioner's intentions or beliefs, and that the Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū should never be used to improve a practitioner's social standing, acquire wealth, or obtain political power. Finally, while heirs are encouraged to protect the innocent, the defenseless, and less fortunate, the Hiten Mitsurugi school encourages its users to understand even foes to garner accurate judgement and resolve conflict with mercy and the least amount of violence, while in more extreme cases, ultimately permits its practitioners to execute individuals whom they deem to be truly deserving of death.

As powerful as it may be, Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū can also be detrimental to its practitioners. Medically speaking, the physical demands for Hiten Mitsurugi are tremendous. For anyone ill-equipped, such as Himura Kenshin, simply employing their techniques causes cumulative, physical damage to their body. According to the physician Takani Megumi, the style is essentially a "superman's sword art", requiring someone with an incredibly athletic body to use effectively in the long term. Normally, the training provided during apprenticeship enables a practitioner to condition themselves properly.

In turn, Hiko Seijūrō XIII is an example of the necessary conditioning for practitioners of the style to perform without incurring the cumulative trauma from regular usage, having developed an extraordinarily resilient physique with an incredible musculature over years in tenure as a Hiten Mitsurugi master proper. Himura Kenshin, by comparison, having left his training early, stunted his body's development resulting in a leaner, more fragile frame which culminated into progressive issues after mastering the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki. After using the technique only seven times, he caused irreparable damage to his muscle tissue, decimating the agility and speed needed to exercise the more advanced techniques of the Hiten Mitsurugi. Furthermore, due to the immense stress imposed on the body, along with one not having the proper physique necessary to use the sword style to its fullest in the long run, continuous use can result in the user eventually being crippled and eventually no longer capable of using the style without it posing a risk to their life.

But, with proper and regular training, the style serves as a veritable "fountain of youth" enabling practitioners to suppress the ageing process. Kenshin, for instance, at nearly thirty years old, looks almost no different from the way he looked while in his late teens and his master, Hiko Seijūrō XIII, is 43 years old but looks exactly the same as he did when he was in his mid-twenties.

Techniques

Ryūtsuisen (龍槌閃, Dragon Hammer Flash) - Usually initiated by a powerful jump, this technique places its user above the opponent, thus opening up more vulnerabilities in the latter. This technique's practitioner uses the momentum of his fall to strengthen a two-handed sword swing that brings his blade down on his enemy's head or shoulder. Ryūtsuisen is arguably Kenshin's favourite attack, as once noted by Kamiya Kaoru.

Ryūtsuisen ● Zan (龍槌閃・惨, Dragon Hammer Flash: Disaster) - Beginning in the same way as Ryūtsuisen, the user positions the sword as to initiate a downward stab to the head instead of a downward swing. Kenshin is first shown using this against Shigekura Jūbei in the manga (though in the Trust & Betrayal OVA, he performs an upward stab instead since he does not jump in the air).

Ryūkansen (龍巻閃, Dragon Coil Flash) - Most effective when surrounded by enemies as this technique has the user spin to attack in all directions. It can also be used as a counterattack against a thrust or charge, one sidesteps a forward-moving opponent and moves past them. In doing so, one spins in a full circle, adding momentum and centrifugal force to the strength of the sword swing, which is then aimed at either the opponent's back or the back of the neck. The first two kanji used can also be read as tatsumaki, a Japanese term for "waterspout" or "tornado", and is often written with two different kanji used for "ryū/tatsu" (竜巻 as opposed to 龍巻).

Ryūkansen and its variations can also be performed as battōjutsu techniques, as seen in the video games Ishin Gekitōhen, Meiji Kenkaku Rōmantan - Enjō! Kyōto Rinne, Jump Super Stars, Jump Ultimate Stars, J-Stars Victory Vs. and Jump Force.

Ryūkansen ● Tsumuji (龍巻閃・旋, Dragon Coil Flash: Hair Whirl) - One of the variations of Ryūkansen, Ryūkansen Tsumuji, like its other variations, is most effective as a counter attack (seen when used to defeat Sawagejō Chō: Cho-the Sword Hunter), but can be used as an offensive attack. Unlike the original, Tsumuji involves a forward horizontal spin in a drilling motion like a torpedo, from which the user is able to strike at the opponent's midsection while in flight. Tsumuji is the full kun'yomi reading of the kanji 旋, which is usually used as a term for "the whirl on top of one's head".

In J-Stars Victory Vs. and Jump Force, two variations are used: the usual head-on version for his weak-strong combo finisher, dash attack and sheathed blade state strong attack (where it is unnamed) for the former game, and a version where Kenshin tumbles around past his target through the air with a single slash when used as the second input to his neutral special move sequence in the former game (or as his second heavy attack string input in the latter game).

Ryūkansen ● Kogarashi (龍巻閃・凩, Dragon Coil Flash: Wintry Wind) - An alternate version used in Kenshin's Five Hit Combo against Shishio. Involves a single small side-step coupled with a 90-degree pivot turn inward and a back handed slash that quickly blasts the foe away; unlike the original version which is a full 180-degree full spin and slash. The Kogarashi is the quickest of the four variations, however, the weakest as well. It is the ideal Counter Attack when dealing with a faster or unreadable attack (as seen when used against Han'nya of the Oniwabanshu, due to his 'Shin-wan Spell'). Depending on the form of media (mainly the video games), Kogarashi can be performed as either a simple mid-way-stopping slash, or a full-coverage wide-slash; either way, it only involves a mere single turn. Kogarashi is a unique climate that is only in Japan.

Ryūkansen ● Arashi (龍巻閃・嵐, Dragon Coil Flash: Storm/Tempest) - A variation of the normal Ryūkansen, this technique places the swordsman in a full rolling somersault slash while attacking, making it an effective counterattack against downward slash attacks and/or from above. The attack often varies with its momentum in its appearances, and in some cases (such as in J-Stars Victory Vs. and Jump Force compared to both Jump Super/Ultimate Stars), the attack can possibly hit more than once to shred apart the opposition. However, as seen in most other media, this is the only Ryūkansen variation that cannot be performed from battōjutsu. In the PSP game Meiji Kenkaku Rōmantan Saisen, Kenshin performs this variation standalone in midair where he somersaults stationary and ends it with a falling slash, similar to a Ryūtsuisen. While in Jump Force, when used as Kenshin's final heavy attack string input, he is able to move forward through the air with it with the same animation used in J-Stars Victory Vs. as such.

Ryūshōsen (龍翔閃, Dragon Soar Flash) - The opposite of Ryūtsuisen, Ryūshōsen is a rising attack meant to strike the jaw from below. For additional power, one uses one's free arm to apply force to the back of the blade and utilizes a powerful upward jump during the attack akin to an anti-air attack. Originally this move was designed to slice into the opponent's chin and kill them, but Kenshin has since modified the technique to strike with the sword's side; consequently, Senkaku, Shishio and Aoshi have all survived the attack, though the very former was instantly knocked out by it.

Ryūtsui ● Shōsen (龍槌・翔閃, Dragon Hammer-Soar Flash) - A combination of Ryūtsuisen and Ryūshōsen, Ryūtsui-Shōsen begins with the powerful jump and supported upswing of Ryūshōsen, giving the leap enough power to pass one's opponent in mid-air, and on the returning drop, Ryūtsuisen is performed. it is unknown if this move can be performed effectively without using a sakabatō, as the initial Ryūtsuisen would already be fatal if landed correctly with a normal katana. It can also work the other way around at times, where the Ryūtsuisen performed first instead, followed by a reversal-slash styled Ryūshōsen, in the case of Jump Super Stars, Jump Ultimate Stars and J-Stars Victory Vs., which also acts as the starter of his "five-hit combo" against Shishio Makoto.

Ryūsōsen (龍巣閃, Dragon Nest Flash) - A massive flurry of strikes delivered to the opponent. The sheer speed of the slashes makes this technique difficult to counter or defend, and is considered best to wear down more sturdy and enduring opponents with (Seen during Kenshin's battle against Sagara Sanosuke). There is an alternate version called:

Ryūsōsen ● Garami (龍巣閃・咬, Dragon Nest Flash: Gnawing) - A technique that which targets the foe's head.

Doryūsen (土龍閃, Earth/Land Dragon Flash) - A ranged attack, Doryūsen strikes an opponent outside of the user's range by striking the ground and sending earthen debris at said opponent with knockout force.

Kuzuryūsen (九頭龍閃, Nine-Head Dragon Flash) - A dashing attack that uses Shinsoku (Godspeed) to simultaneously strike all nine vital spots on the foe's body from a normal kendō stance, as each of these nine points are the main targets for different swordstyles (only different styles target different ones). It is said to be unavoidable and nearly unblockable, and is taught as a prerequisite for the succession technique. It is also Hiko Seijūrō XIII's signature move. Users who are faster than the Hiten Mitsurugi, however, are able to evade the attack head-on, as seen with Sōjirō. The strength of the move's "nine heads" will differ greatly depending on the speed, force and even weight of the user. Kenshin's Kuzuryūsen is powerful but is countered at one point by Yukishiro Enishi, due to the speed being matched, while Hiko's Kuzuryūsen easily overcame Kenshin's due to Hiko's weight advantage. And Hiko's God-like Strength allows him to instantly down the immense Fuji despite such a huge weight disadvantage and not being able to perform the attack at godspeed due to the wearing of the Heirloom weighted cloak.

The nine heads of the targets are in counterclockwise while looking towards the target from the user's view (shown more clearly from Kenshin's viewpoint when used in J-Stars Victory Vs.):

Karatake (唐竹/幹竹, Tang Bamboo/Tree Trunk Bamboo) Aimed at the above head with the downward strike: 壱 (ichi, one)

Sakagesagiri (逆袈裟切り, Inverted Kasaya Cutter) Aimed at right shoulder diagonally: 弐 (ni, two)

Sakakaze (逆風, Inverted Wind) Aimed at groin area from below via upward stroke, or straight from front: 伍 (go, five)

Tsuki/Shitotsu (刺突, Thrusting/Thorn Thrust) Aimed at center of the chest, at breastbone: 玖 (kyū, nine)

Ironically, the attack in some cases can be avoided entirely when out of attack range (such as jumping over it in J-Stars Victory Vs. and Jump Force or even blocked in the case of the Jump Stars games on the DS); but regardless, trying to avoid and/or block the attack head-on is impossible most of these cases meaning it must be avoided entirely; as aforementioned only Sōjirō was able avoid the attack head-on in this case.

In the manga re-telling, Tokuhitsuban (Rurouni Kenshin: Restoration), this technique is referred as the ōgi (secret skill/ technique) of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū, being called Kokonotsu Kashira no Ryū no Hirameki, which is an alternative kun'yomi or native Japanese form of reading of the technique's original name (九頭龍閃, ここのつ かしら の りゅう の ひらめき).

Hiten Mugen Zan (飛天無限斬, Flying Heaven Infinity Slash) - An ancient and seemingly lost move used by the original Hiko Seijūrō, Hiten Mugen Zan is a mighty charging onslaught of unrivaled power. Requiring the prerequisite of attaining the capability of natural beyond Shinsoku without the use of battojutsu, the user performs a myriad series of slashes that accelerate faster than other rapid slashing techniques like the Ryūsōsen, and are executed to beyond the spectrum of visible motion the naked eye can detect within splits of a second. Due to the nature of the required speed and force required to naturally accelerate beyond Shinsoku, pushing the user to the limits of their bodily ability, the final slash is augmented with such strength that it creates such tremendous impact capable of smashing, shifting, and razing the nearby earth before the user and crush rock, and the force with which the blade lands into the earth with is powerful enough to send its foe flying into the air, before the attack's full effects can take hold. In the eyes of bystanders, the sheer immeasurable execution speed of the technique gives the impression the final slash is seen as the only single slash delivered by the user, and in turn makes the collateral damage the attack leaves behind as the only spectacle of its evidence of performance. The move is first seen used by Hiko Seijuro in the Sengoku Period during the wars of Kitakata and Nagumo as the technique that singlehandedly earns the odds for inevitable victory for his domain of Kitakata, as the killing blow to the despotic leading Nagumo damiyo warlord Hirosaki Iwano.

Battōjutsu techniques

Sōryūsen (双龍閃, Twin Dragon Flash) - Seemingly a simple Battōjutsu strike, Sōryūsen is the first of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū's two-step Battōjutsu moves. After the first strike with the quickened sword, the user wields the empty sheath along the same path as a blunt weapon. After the sword strike lands, the sheath strike delivers a pulverizing blow capable of crushing bone and shattering wood, but if the sword strike misses, the sheath strike acts as powerful insurance, preventing an opponent's attack and delivering a crushing blow when it's least expected. This move is first seen being used by Kenshin against Udō Jin-e.

Sōryūsen ● Ikazuchi (双龍閃・雷, Twin Dragon Flash: Thunder) - An alternate form of Sōryūsen wherein the sword is wielded while still inside the sheath. The first strike is made with the sheathed sword and, once it makes contact and occupies the opponent's sword, the sword is drawn using Battōjutsu for a second strike. While the original Sōryūsen is designed to make two strikes for versatile mobility in the heat of confrontation, Sōryūsen Ikazuchi appears designed with the assumption that the first strike will be blocked, and uses the full combined mass of a sheathed sword to strike to catch foes off guard and unbalance them vulnerable for the second strike. This move is first seen being used by Hiko Seijūrō XIII against Himura Kenshin.

Hiryūsen (飛龍閃, Flying Dragon Flash) - After assuming a Battōjutsu stance, one rotates one's body rapidly and then stops, aiming the sheath at one's target. The force shoots the sword's grip out of the sheath like an arrow, allowing one to strike a target outside of one's zone and reach. As a battōjutsu move and as one that requires one's sword to be shot at the enemy, it can be assumed that accurate aim is required for this move (or else the weapon can easily be lost), and that the sheath can then be used as a melee weapon in a second strike, but the latter is not seen. Hiryūsen is first seen being used by Kenshin against Isurugi Raijūta only in the manga.

Ryūmeisen (龍鳴閃, Dragon Cry Flash) - An unusual technique in which one uses the Godspeed of Battōjutsu to sheathe the sword rather than to draw it in a practice known as Shinsoku Nōtōjutsu (神速納刀術, Godspeed Sheathed Blade Technique). The speed and force create a miniature sonic boom that can be used to temporarily stun opponents with particularly sensitive or acute hearing by affecting their auditory nerves. This move is only seen once, used by Kenshin against Yukishiro Enishi. While this attack would normally only deafen the target for a while, due to Enishi's unusually sensitive nervous system, Ryūmeisen managed to affect his equilibrium as well. In Jump Super Stars and Jump Ultimate Stars, it paralyzes the target for no damage instead.

Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki (天翔龍閃 (Original Translation: 天翔ける竜の閃き), Flash of the Heavenly Soaring Dragon) - The secret ultimate technique, a.k.a. the ōgi (奥義, secret skill) of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū, Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki is a powerful Battōjutsu technique whose secret lies in discovering both the significance and insignificance of one's life, the penultimate requirement needed to master the Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū.

Though its form is that of any other Battōjutsu strike, the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki differs in that - while a normal strike is performed by drawing the katana from its sheath on one side while stepping forward with the opposite foot, using a single step, this strike adds yet another step (a second step) mid-draw with the foot adjacent to the sheath (creating a Stutter-Step) which momentarily creates an instantaneous acceleration to the forward-charge as well as the sword draw. Meanwhile, the range of the attack is increased and the timing of the attack changes slightly, which can throw off the opponent.

Although truly, a super-sword attack, it endangers the user by possibly putting the adjacent leg into the free sword's path and draws one even closer to an opponent's sword than usual, but on the other hand, boosts the speed of the sword draw to beyond-Godspeed and even greater is the boost in force of the strike. By realizing one's insignificance and risking life and limb to protect something else while, at the same time, taking one's own, fragile human life into consideration, the user is able to step into the small margin behind one's own drawn sword and in front of the sword of one's opponent without fail, delivering a beyond-godspeed blow of monstrous power.

Additionally, like other Battōjutsu moves of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū, Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki is a two-step move and, if its secret should be anticipated and the strike itself blocked or dodged, the second step comes immediately into effect. The immense force of the enhanced draw cuts the air in front of it and creates a powerful vacuum in its wake as the deflected air rushes back into place. Any opponent able to deflect or dodge the first swing will automatically be subject to this vacuum and inexorably pulled closer to the user, all the while this vacuum creates intense winds powerful enough to overwhelm and catch their opponents off balance. With the great amount of force being applied to the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki, a missed swing leads naturally into an accelerated spin of such centripetal force akin to the Ryūkansen. The added momentum of the spin in addition to the pulling force of the vacuum on both side results in a second strike that greatly dwarfs the first in power. This is best explained to Kaoru by Hiko Seijūrō XIII: "Even if you avoid the fangs of the flying dragon the gusting winds strip away the freedom of movement and the claws would rip you apart".

Although the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki is one of the most powerful and profound attacks of the series, to learn such a technique is not without its weaknesses, cost and consequence. Those who learn the ways of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū, and walks its path long enough to learn this technique, must undergo a final test, to be pitted against their master's unrestrained Kuzuryūsen, placing them in a true life or death situation. Faced with life or death, the student must perform the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki without flaw, being the only attack in the repertoire of Hiten Mitsurugi that surpasses the Kuzuryūsen in speed and execution- else the apprentice fails and is ultimately slain for naught. Should they succeed, they will have mastered both this technique, and how it is a testament, the entire style of Hiten Mitsurugi itself, but at the cost of the preceding master's life.

While the attack is incredibly powerful and seemingly undefeatable, the basis of Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki, the fighter's will to live and compassion for others allowing them to stand on the edge of life or death, must be strong, free, and unwavering of any doubt and turmoil that lies in the heart of the user. This state of mind is the only condition that will allow the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki to be executed flawlessly and guarantee their victory, as being out of this state only allows the user to execute lesser and flawed versions of the ultimate technique (as is the case when Kenshin faces Yukishiro Enishi and his Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki fails for the first and only time against the Watōjutsu ōgi Kufuku Zettousei).

The Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki is first seen being used by Kenshin against Hiko Seijūrō XIII, and his master is the only known master in the school's history to have survived the final trial. Its second strike is first seen being used by Kenshin against Shishio Makoto. Yukishiro Enishi is the only other opponent who has faced this technique twice.

In the manga, it was stated the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki can kill even when wielding a sakabatō. In the anime, it was not stated directly, but it was hinted when Seijurō explained why he didn't die from being hit with the attack.

In the manga re-telling, Tokuhitsuban (Rurouni Kenshin: Restoration), this technique is referred as the "fastest of all battōjutsu", but not as the ōgi of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū, being called Tenshōryūsen, which is the on'yomi or Chinese adopted pronunciation alternative form of reading of the technique's original name (天翔龍閃, てんしょりゅうせん).

Anime-only Techniques

Karyūsen (渦龍閃, Vortex Dragon Flash) - A seemingly improvised battōjutsu technique used by Kenshin in his duel with Takimi Shigure. Wrapping his wounded arm and sheath to the belt and taking the stance for the Amakakeru Ryū no Hirameki, Kenshin leaps high into the air, and begins a free-fall. Knowing there is no stability while airborne, Kenshin utilizes the free-fall to multiply the torque of his rotating body to accelerate the draw of his sword for the decisive strike. This technique is more accurately akin to a battōjutsu variant of Ryūkansen: Tsumuji, in that it uses the body's centripetal force to counter any adversary's assault with a lightning-swift counterattack accelerated by the controlled head on the momentum of the user. Sagara Sanosuke was the one to coin the name "Kenshin-Ryū: Kaiten Battōjutsu" (Kenshin-Style: Rotating Battōjutsu).

Rairyūsen (雷龍閃, Thunder Dragon Flash) - A technique invented by Amakusa Shōgo. The technique involves using one's chi and swordsman's spirit, forming a light from the sword in a style of a violent thunderstorm, attacking opponents by overwhelmingly striking their sight with such sensory overload to the point that it knocks them out. Should it be used to its full intensity, the Rairyūsen rids them of their eyesight forever leaving them with grey-empty eyes; unless the one blinded can overcome the Rairyūsen's user in an Amakakeru Ryū No Hirameki clash in a test of true spirit, it is only then their eyesight will return. Kenshin was first hit by this, but quickly adjusted to being blind, and eventually overcame Shōgo in their eventual clash.

Anime-only "Secret Dance of the Umbrella" Circus Techniques

An improvised version of the Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū, used with an umbrella when Kenshin and the group were entertaining a large crowd to help Marimo prepare for her cannon launch main act against the Sumidaya entertaining group. Comedic and humorously entertaining in its style, yet as effective as the real art, the Secret Dance of the Umbrella is also likely used to provide a front to maintain the secrecy of Hiten Mitsurugi-ryū's real repertoire with a deal of humility.

Umbrella Spin - Kenshin immediately opens the umbrella, and faces the top in front of him, spinning it. At such a velocity, the umbrella can deflect various projectiles, including razor-sharp knives and blades.

Ball Throw - Used with a heavy rubber ball, Kenshin makes an upward swing, using it to send forward a ball to his unsuspecting opponent with the umbrella.

Wild Boar Evasion - When faced with a charging enemy, Kenshin swipes a feint at the eyes when the opponent is at such a range where the umbrella barely touches the opponent's face. When distracted, Kenshin then immediately uses the opportunity to go to behind or aside the rushing opponent.

Umbrella Drop - Leaping up into the air, Kenshin then comes back down and swings a downwards smack on to the opponent. This more or less is a comedic toned down version of the Ryutsūisen used with an umbrella.

Other techniques

Hiten no Yomi (飛天の読み, Flying Heaven's Reading) - A battōjutsu counterattack technique only seen in Jump Super Stars and Jump Ultimate Stars, where Kenshin readies himself in an upright battōjutsu stance as he nearly reaches for his sword. If he is hit during the stance, he'll instantly strike with a single fast-slash which has him re-sheathing his sword, akin to iaidō. Used as his Special Attack B via his 4 Koma version in the said games.

Hiten Gorengeki (飛天五連撃, Flying Heaven Five Chain Attack) - A named version of Kenshin's "five-hit combo" vs. Shishio Makoto in Jump Super Stars and Jump Ultimate Stars, where he performs a Ryūtsuisen, Ryūshōsen, then the three Ryūkansen variations (Kogarashi, Tsumuji then Arashi) in that order (used as either his Special Attack A in Jump Super Stars or Special Attack B in Jump Ultimate Stars, both as his 6 Koma version). Can also be replicated in J-Stars Victory Vs. when done from either version of his Ryūshōsen (which can only be done from either the midair attack or the fourth input strong-strong-weak combo version of the Ryūtsuisen in that said game). Though in Jump Force, only the Ryūkansen portions of the chain attack are reused (animation-wise) as Kenshin's heavy attack string.

We were amazed.

Me: Wow! That is lethal.

Naruto: No kidding.

Laney: Amazing.

Jared: Yep. I studied these techniques and they pack a devastating punch.

Chihiro: They sure do. (Holds up sword) This is the legendary Sakabatō sword that once belonged to the famous Kenshin Himura. He was known as the legendary Hitokiri Battōsai.

Jared: The Manslayers.

Chihiro: Exactly.

Me: Kenshin Himura was a powerful and invincible samurai and a true man of honor.

Chihiro demonstrated some of her sword moves for us and she was really swift and deadly with the sword and style and she was really powerful as well. She cut a bunch of trees down with one deadly swipe. The sword was so razor sharp that it swift and powerful.

Me: Wow!

Laney: Amazing!

Lola: She is good!

Lana: Incredible!

When it was done we were amazed.

Me: Wow! Well done Chihiro.

Chihiro: Thank you J.D. I also know about how to use Fire Style Jutsu as well.

Sasuke: Impressive. What level would you say you are at in terms of power?

Chihiro: Not really sure. Most of my techniques are ones that I picked up on the fly in Magna, TV and in your adventures.

Me: Wow! You have a photographic memory.

Chihiro: Yes.

Me: Good work. We'll have to see them in action when we get there.

Lynn: This is gonna be awesome.

Me: Lets roll.

We were off and we arrived at the gate that brought Chihiro and her parents into the spirit world. We went through what looked like an old train station that looked like it wasn't used in years.

Me: Wow. It's an old train station.

Laney: Looks like no one has been in here for years.

Yusuke: Sure looks old.

Kuwabara: I'm picking up Spirit Energy in here.

Keiko: I feel it too.

Boton: This is a gateway into the spirit world. It looks like an old run down train station but it is a gateway into the spirit world.

Me: Wow.

Chihiro: I can feel the energy too. We're getting close.

Me: Yeah.

We got out of the gate and we saw that we were in what looked like a carnival.

Me: It's some kind of carnival.

Chihiro: It's all a front to attract people to eat here.

Laney: I remember that.

We saw huge piles of meat and pork on the table of one of the stands.

Nicole: Look at all that meat!

Chihiro: Don't eat it or you will be turned into a pig. It's a terrible curse that turned my parents into pigs when I was here the last time.

Me: Oh man. I remember seeing that in the movie.

Laney: Yeah.

Nicole: It won't effect me. My powers are far too strong to be cursed.

Nicole ate and ate and ate and ate and ate and ate and ate until she was full.

Nicole: Ahh. BBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUURRRRRRRRRRRPPPPPPPPPP

Geoff: Nice one!

Nicole: Pardon me.

Laney: Wow! That's a lot of meat even for you.

Nicole: I know and I'm stuffed.

Me: Now that you've had your little snack lets go.

We arrived at the bridge that Chihiro knows and we crossed it and went into a temple and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow! This building reminds me of a cool temple I saw from over in Taiwan in pictures.

Atchara: (Thai Accent) It sure is. It looks like the Jiufen Old Street buildings. They looks so much like that.

Chihiro: They sure do.

?: Chihiro!

We turned and we saw a boy that Chihiro knows. It was the Spirit of the Kohaku River, A.K.A. Haku!

Chihiro: Haku!

They went and hugged for the first time in 7 years.

Haku: It's great to see you again Chihiro.

Chihiro: I've missed you so much Haku.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Haku.

Haku: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here. We came here to kill Yubaba.

Haku: Good. I will gladly help you all kill that witch.

Me: Awesome.

We went into the temple and we saw Chihiro's friends Lin, No Face, Kamaji, Zeniba, Aogaeru and Boh. It was awesome!

Chihiro: It's great to see all of you again!

Boh: Same to you Chihiro.

Aogaeru: You are doing well.

Chihiro: I know.

Lin: It's great to see you again Chihiro.

Zeniba: So what brings you back to the Spirit World?

Chihiro: We came to rescue my parents and take down Yubaba.

Me: That's right.

They saw us.

Lin: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Aogaeru: It's an honor to meet all of you.

Me: Same here.

Chihiro: Let me show you all the Pig Pen.

We followed Chihiro and we were at the Pig Corral and we saw numerous pigs there and we saw that they were all cursed people.

Me: This is insane! Yubaba must be stopped at all costs.

Hiei: I agree. She is a demon on steroids.

Me: Let me see here.

I concentrated and sensed for Chihiro's parents auras and I found them.

Me: (Points to two pigs) Those two there.

I snapped my fingers and they reverted back instantly and they were human again.

Chihiro: MOM! DAD!

She went and hugged them!

Yūko: Chihiro!

Akio: Thank goodness you're safe.

Me: You were turned into Pigs. You're here in the Spirit World.

I revealed everything and Akio and Yūko were shocked.

Yūko: Wow.

Akio: I can't believe that we're here in the spirit world.

Me: It's not your fault. You wound up in here by accident. But after we kill the evil witch Yubaba, we'll free everyone and get you out of here.

Akio: Thank you J.D.

Me: Lets go.

Chihiro: Thank you all so much for saving my parents!

Me: It was no trouble Chihiro. Now lets get Yubaba.

Everyone: YEAH!

We went to the building she was in and she was doing more and more paperwork.

Yubaba: So that Lin is up to no good.

Then her name disappeared from the paper and freed her and then it bursted into flames.

Yubaba: What!? This isn't my doing.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted the door down and a phoenix cry was heard and then we came in and we were ready to fight!

Me: The game is over Yubaba!

Yusuke: Time for you to pay for your crimes!

Yubaba: Well, it's a pleasure to finally meet you, Team Loud Phoenix Storm. (smirks) Or should I say, Lex Luthor?

Lincoln: What the Hell are you talking about?!

Yubaba: (laughs) Oh, don't play dumb with me, Lex. Rotwood told me that you used a mind transfer to put your mind into the bodies of Knudson and his friends. At first, I didn't believe it. But the more I thought about it, the more it made sense. You kill most villains just to get rid of the competition. And you're reckless because you always were the arrogant one.

Lincoln: You shut the fuck up right now!

Yubaba: Say what you want, Luthor. But we all know the truth. You can do as much good deeds as you please. But you will never be Team Loud Phoenix Storm or any kind of hero for that matter!

Me: Lex Luthor is dead. He died of extreme Kryptonite Poisoning on his way to one of our prisons.

Laney: Rotwood is dead too. He was Hakaied forever.

Then Professor Calamitous, Cheese Shogun Roquefort and Katnappe came.

Me: Professor Calamitous, Roquefort and Katnappe.

Calamitous: It seems you're all short one Saiyan.

Laney: Nico's at the estate because he's come down with some gas due to some brussel sprouts.

Katnappe: (in disbelief) Are you serious? Nico's been through more serious crap before. And he's one of the most powerful out of all of you. And you guys make him take the day off because he got a little gassy?!

Me: His gas smells worse than Lori's.

Lori: (Offended) HEY!

Me: Well it does! Now we have to fight Yubaba.

Nico: (Offscreen) Not without me you won't.

We turned and we saw him.

Me: Nico, I thought I told you to stay back because of your gas.

Nico: Sorry, guys. I know you told me to stay at the estate. But I couldn't let you guys take on Yubaba by yourselves!

Me: Well you arrived in time. I was wrong to keep you back. Lets get that bitch!

Bell Org then appeared.

Me: Bell Org!

Bell Org: Been a while guys.

Me: We can't thank you enough for helping us a while back.

Bell Org: It was nothing. Lets have fun shall we? BELL TRAPPER!

Bell Org just trapped Nico in a bell.

Bell Org: I know this won't hold you for long. But it'll at least give you some privacy to get all of those farts out.

Nico: Thank you.

Chihiro: Yubaba, you will pay for hurting me and my family! I will never forgive you for your crimes.

Yubaba: Then come and get me.

Troy: Time to get some more magic in this fight!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mystic Force!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed into the Mystic Force Rangers!

Devon Michaels: Lets do it guys! IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

Beast Morpher Rangers: ACTIVATE BEAST POWER!

The Beast Morpher Rangers transformed into their ranger forms.

Beast Morpher Rangers: UNLEASH THE BEAST!

Me: Lets get her!

We went at them!

Battle 1: Katnappe

Starfire kicked her in the face and knocked her out.

Starfire: Clorbag.

Battle 2: Professor Calamitous

Lisa Loud was facing Professor Calamitous.

Lisa Loud: This is gonna be one scientific fight to remember.

Professor Calamitous: Indeed.

Lisa formed a ray blaster and fired it at Professor Calamitous and the blasts hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Professor Calamitous was knocked out.

Lisa Loud: My science is far more superior.

Battle 3: Cheese Shogun Roquefort

Raven was facing Cheese Shogun Roquefort.

Raven: No cheese ninjas this time for Nico. He ate a lot of Brussel Sprouts and they gave him really bad gas.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: I don't blame him. Is he on a big health kick or something?

Raven: He told me that he was eating too much cheese and decided to eat Brussel Sprouts only. But he has to learn how to eat everything in moderation.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: I can tell. I hope he gets better.

Raven: Me too. Lets do it.

Raven fired waves of darkness and they smashed into Roquefort and knocked him around all over and knocked him out.

Raven: Nice.

---

Battle 4: Bell Org

---

Me and the Megaforce and Beast Morpher Rangers were facing the Bell Org.

Me: This is gonna be good.

Bell Org: And I'll give you my hammer when we're done here.

Me: Thank you.

I fired energy blasts and the Megaforce and Beast Morpher Rangers fired energy blasts and they hit the Bell Org and he was being overwhelmed.

But then Nico had huge gas.

Nico: Uh oh!

FFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRTTTTTTTTTTTTT

The Bell lifted off of him like a rocket and trapped the Bell Org inside it and he dropped his hammer.

Me: Now for the fun part like on TV.

I took his hammer and banged the bell!

BONG BONG BONG BONG BONG BONG!

I smashed the bell and activated my capture mode on my S.P.D. Morpher and captured the Bell Org into a prison card.

Me: Yeah!

Bell Org: Prison for me is better than being destroyed.

Me: Yep.

I picked up the card and put it in my pocket.

Devon Michaels: Virus Eliminated.

Me: Yep.

Battle 5: Yubaba!

We regrouped and we were facing Yubaba!

Me: You are finished Yubaba!

Yubaba: We'll see about that Luthor!

But then she saw Lucy Loud and she started thinking that she was her Great Grandmother Harriet!

Yubaba: YOU! HARRIET LOUD! YOU RUINED MY LIFE! YOU MADE MY LIFE A LIVING HELL AND MADE ME AN AMATEUR WITH NO HEART! NOW I WILL KILL YOU!

Me: I didn't know that you had a bad history with the Loud's Great Grandmother.

Yubaba: SHUT YOUR FUCKING TRAP!

Me: Make me you fucking old crone!

Lucy Loud: (to Yubaba) I might not be Great Grandma Harriet. But I possess all of her supernatural abilities and her strong sense of justice. So, still think that me and my friends are really Lex Luthor's mind implanted into our bodies?

Yubaba: Yes!

Lucy Loud then transformed into her Super Angel 20,000 Darkness Vampire Raven and she was ready to make her pay.

Lucy Loud: (Older Voice) Now you will pay.

She unsheathed her sword and we went at her and I punched her in the face and kicked her in the stomach and fired blasts of fire and Lola fired waves of fire and burned her and Nico fired waves of lightning and Lincoln and Linka fired waves of lightning and the blasts electrocuted her and I bashed Yubaba all over with the hammer and bashed her brains out and Hiei slashed her all over with his Sword of The Darkness Flame and Kuwabara slashed her all over with his Spirit Sword and Kuwabara lashed her with his whip and Lana blasted her with ice lightning and froze him.

See you all tomorrow.

An Evil Demon in Oregon

At the estate we were having an awesome Baby Shower for Carly Carmine. She was due at any day now with 3 baby girls and we were all excited for her. It was the first ever baby shower we ever had for one of the members of the Masters of Evil and everyone in the Masters of Evil was there. Everyone had brought all sorts of gifts, there was all kinds of food and even music provided by Luna and Lily and more.

Me: This is an awesome baby shower.

Vypra: It sure is. It's the first ever baby shower we had for one of us.

Laney: It sure is.

Lola: I'm so amazed and I'm so happy for Carly.

Lana: We all are. I can't wait to see her kids when they come out.

Vexen: Me too.

Firefly: I'm so excited for both Carly and Jack.

Myotismon: Me too.

Misty Tredwell: I am too. Ever since me and Carly became Dark Signers a long time ago, we became close like sisters.

Me: That's awesome Misty.

Toby: I'm glad sis.

Carol was talking to Carly.

Carol: I'm so happy for you Carly. We can't wait to see your baby girls.

Carly Carmine: I know. Me too Carol. It's so awesome that I'm gonna be a mom.

Nico: I find it really weird that you had to eat ice cream covered in sunflower seeds and sour cream for your unusual cravings.

Vince: That is really weird.

Carly Carmine: It's normal but I'm not complaining.

Lincoln: I know. I helped mom deal with it a lot. Usually she would have REALLY weird cravings. One time she had Ice Cream with black licorice, tartar sauce and garlic.

Nico: YUCK!

Linka: Oh that is disgusting.

Lynn: No kidding.

Lori: Yeah that was literally disgusting.

Leni: Totes.

Me: That IS really disgusting.

Vince: No kidding.

Lana: Cool.

Misty Tredwell: Oh Lana.

Toby: Does she really like all kinds of gross things?

Me: You have no idea.

Then we heard a scream followed by a glass shattering!

Xion: What was that sound?

Demona: Carly, are you about to give birth now?!

Carly Carmine: Yeah! My water broke! It's time!

Me: Oh man!

Sailor Moon: We have to get you to a hospital!

Me: Lets go guys! Everyone man your stations! Lincoln, get Jack! Lori, call the hospital! Start your breathing.

Carly did so and we loaded her into Vanzilla and I put on a siren hat and we went to the hospital fast!

We got her out when we arrived and rusher her into the deliver room.

---

Later we were waiting in the delivery waiting room. Some of us were reading books, playing card games and even texting on our phones. Lori texted all our friends all over to let them know and we even had Carly's friends from Neo Domino City over. Carol and Misty Tredwell were in the delivery room with Carly. I was playing Go Fish with Lisa.

Me: Hmm. Got any 9's?

Lisa: Negative J.D. Go fish.

Me: Darn.

I drew a card.

Carly Carmine: (Screaming from the delivery room) JACK ATLAS, THIS IS ALL YOUR FAULT! IF YOU GET ME PREGNANT AGAIN I WILL CHOP YOUR BALLS OFF, SHOVE THEM UP YOUR ASS, AND RIP YOUR EYES OUT AND SHOVE THEM SO DOWN YOUR FUCKING THROAT THAT YOU'LL SEE INSIDE YOUR INTESTINES!

Me: WHOA!

Jack Atlas was shaking in fear.

Bludgeon: Easy, Jack. That's just the labor pains talking.

Me: Yeah we know what that's like.

Vince: Carol went through the exact same thing.

Me: Same with Kairi and Tara.

Tara: Yeah and it was not pretty.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) I see.

Xaldin: Now I see what you all were talking about when Kairi went into labor.

Dr. Light: Yikes.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) Sorry you're going through this señor Jack.

Jack Atlas: No worries.

Me: It's part of the natural process though.

We heard the Screaming stop.

In the delivery room, Carly was exhausted and covered in sweat. Lady Tsunade came out with Carly's babies.

Lady Tsunade: Congratulations Carly, you gave birth to 3 adorable healthy baby girls.

She and Sakura Haruno had them in their hands.

Sakura Haruno: They are so adorable girls.

She handed them to Carol, Misty Tredwell and Carly each.

Carol: Oh they are so adorable.

Misty Tredwell: They sure are.

Carly Carmine: My babies.

Lady Tsunade: Oh they are so precious.

Sakura Haruno: They sure are.

Carly: My babies are so adorable.

The first baby had Carly's black hair and blue eyes. The second baby had Jack's blond hair and Carly's orange eyes and the third baby had Carly's black hair and 1 blue and 1 orange eye.

Carol: They are so adorable.

Misty Tredwell: They sure are.

Misty saw that they had Signer and Dark Signer marks on their arms. The first baby had the Wings Mark of the Dragon on her right arm and the Mark of the Tree Nazca Line on the left arm. The 2nd one had the same mark as Jack Atlas and the Heron Nazca Line Mark and the third one had the Wings Mark and the Serpent Nazca Line.

Misty Tredwell: Look guys. They have Jack's Wings Dragon Mark on one arm and they have different Dark Signer marks on the other arm.

Carol: They sure do. I know those symbols. This one is the Heron.

Misty Tredwell: This one is the Tree.

Carly Carmine: And this one is the Serpent.

Carol: Wow. So they are now Half Signer Half Dark Signer. Interesting. And we'll see new Earthbound Immortals and new Signer Dragons appear soon.

Misty Tredwell: Yeah.

Later Carly was in a wheelchair and Carol and Misty Tredwell came out and we saw the babies.

Me: Oh Carly they are so adorable.

Lincoln: They are adorable.

Laney: They sure are.

Nico: What did you name them?

Carly Carmine: First we found out that they are half Signer and half Dark Signer.

We saw the marks on their arms and we were shocked.

Me: The Heron, Tree and Serpent Nazca Lines.

Nico: And they are Signers too?

Vince: Wow.

Me: No kidding.

Carly Carmine: The one with the Heron Mark is Faye. The one with the Tree Mark is Faith and the one with the Serpent Mark is Fiona.

Jack Atlas: Those are amazing names.

Lori: Literally awesome.

Ironhide: I guess you're gonna be heading back to the Masters of Evil HQ, Carly. Shame. We really did like having you around.

Me: Lets not rush her Ironhide. She has to recover for a couple of days before going back into the fray.

Ironhide: Okay.

We later went back home and had Carly go into our Nursery for some recuperation and bonding with her babies.

Me: If you need anything Carly, let us know.

Carly Carmine: I will.

I left and I had the alarm system silent.

Later in the Living Room we were watching TV and playing card game. Suddenly I saw three lights appear on the coffee table and they formed into the Heron, Serpent and Tree Nazca Lines and turned into three Yu-Gi-Oh Cards. They were the Heron, Tree and Serpent Earthbound Immortals.

Me: Whoa! The Heron, Tree and Serpent Earthbound Immortal cards.

Nico and me looked at them.

Me: Earthbound Immortal Ccgojuru. That name means Tree in the Quechua language.

Nico: Earthbound Immortal Huacachina Kon.

Me: Huacachina means Hidden Lagoon and it is also the name of a small village located is Southwestern Peru. It's located near the city of Ica.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Earthbound Immortal Cuauhcoatl. That's the name of someone that's attested in the San Diego Amanalco, in the Tenochtitlan City in 1563.

Nico: Interesting.

Me: When Carly's kids come of age we'll give these to them since they have the corresponding Nazca Lines for them.

Lori: Good idea.

Me: And we'll have to wait and see what Signer Dragons they'll get as well.

Nico: Yeah.

Then the alarm went off silently. It was just a beeping red light.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that there was a strange supernatural disturbance going on over in the Springfield Radioactive Crate.

Me: Looks like we're heading back to the Springfield Crater.

Nico: I'm surprised that crater hasn't been covered and built over yet.

Me: It's uninhabitable lands. It'll be like that for the next 1,000,000 years. It's like Chernobyl, Ukraine. Lets head out!

We were off to the Springfield Radioactive Crater.

---

Springfield Radioactive Crater, Oregon.

---

We arrived at the Springfield Radioactive Crater and it was a desolate and really dangerous place with a lot of bad memories.

Me: Wow. It's just hard to imagine that it's this ruined here.

Laney: I know. It's awful that Springfield is now this. But that town deserved to be completely eradicated.

Lily: Yeah.

Me: Like I said, Springfield has been filled with nothing but powerhungry fools and corrupt megalomaniacal mega-douchebags.

Nico: Well said.

Bender: Wow. It's amazing that this place used to be Springfield. Hard to imagine that the town I know from this time was really a cesspool of corruption and evil.

Lola: Yeah but it brought all that on itself.

Nico: Yep.

Vince: But it deserved to be destroyed.

Lana: Yeah.

Brittney: I sense an evil force coming.

She concentrated and sensed that it was coming from behind us!

Brittney: Behind us!

We turned and we saw the EVIL DEMON!

---

The Evil Demon appeared in the three part mini series The Tale of the Silver Sight. He was portrayed by special Guest star Ryan Cooley.

Biography

The Evil Demon, was a malevolent being of pure evil. Throughout time, he had been summoned time and time again. He was usually summoned, when a great deal of negative emotions were building up. Emotions such as conflict, greed, lust, envy, betrayal. Also it can be assumed that again time and time again, it just gets impatient and shows up when it wants too.

He was an extremely powerful demon. He might have looked like an innocent Victorian Era waif kid, all tattered and torn and down on his luck. However this was all a facade to make him appear seemingly innocent and sweet. At any given time, he could transform into a terrifying demon and scare his victims to death. He could also create powerful illusions and animate objects to life.

He was a devoted servant for a pure evil charm known as The Silver Sight. Throughout time, encountered many people. Then he tested their strength and wits through a series of illusions and deadly traps. He would then award them the Silver Sight. Then he would advise each person to let it know who their enemies were. He conned them into thinking the charm would make their enemies disappear. When he would actually trap their enemies souls into the charm for eternity. When doing this, he would help strengthen the power of the charm.

In 1937, he met a group of teenagers known as The Midnight Society, they were Gene, Laing Candle, Bruce McGorrill, Donna Tilton and Eleanor Gregory. He then passed the Silver Charm onto them. However, he didn't inform them at the time that the charm was evil. Also that everything that wished for would have serious consequences. When the five teenagers finally realized it was evil, Bruce McGorrill decided to hide the charm. Then the day after Bruce hid the charm, the Demon killed him by making him fall off of a roller coaster.

Then for over the next sixty years, there was peace. The Silver sight was hidden and no more souls were being captured. Then one night in 1999, the Demon got impatient and returned. Gene sensed his presence and tried to stop him alone. Then when he found him, the Demon scared him so badly he died from a heart attack. Gary saw all of this happen in his dream, almost like it was a warning.

Then Gary got together with his brother Tucker. Then along with his friends Andy, Quinn, Megan and Vange they decided to hunt down the Silver Sight and destroy it one and for all. They found out that Bruce McGorrill had recorded a record. Then he broke it into five pieces to reveal where he had hidden the charm.

The Demon made things very difficult for them. Tucker already had his Grandpa Gene's piece so was trying to find the second piece. It was in General Laing Candle's mansion. He soon realized it was inside a room full of dummies dressed in various soldier and combats outfits He animated the dummies to life, attacking Tucker. Tucker fought them off and out ran the and got the second piece. Then he transformed into a vicious dog and chased after Quinn, but Quinn out ran him with Donna's piece just in time.

Then when Andy lowered Vange down a well to find Bob's piece, He transformed into frightening ghost. He scared her out of her skin, but she got out in time with the record piece. Also he tried to put the blame on General Laing Candle, making it looked like he chased Megan down in the sewer when she was getting Eleanor's piece. When the truth was, he was just trying to help them.

Finally the Midnight Society found out where the Silver Sight was hidden. He then came out and proudly congratulated them on finding it. He then encouraged them to use it to get rid of their enemies. When General Laing Candle showed uo just in time to try and stop him. The Demon then tried to trick Gary into thinking

General was their enemy and to use it on him. He then got very pushy, impatient and rude. Gary then remembered that what Bob's piece of the record said. That they should always try to know who their true enemy is.

The Demon laughed manically thinking he was about to capture another soul. Then suddenly Gary used it on him, he was shocked and screamed for mercy. Then he began aging rapidly losing all of his powers and he died. Also the Silver Sight lost all of its powers and vanished. Then all of the souls it had captured throughout the centuries were freed at last. Gary knew he was the true enemy, because if he hadn't have been, he never would have asked them to use the charm in the first place.

---

Brittney: Oh shit. This guy is a demon. And he is not a very smart one.

He roared ferociously.

Maria: (to the Demon) You know what the downside is with dealing with non-talking baddies like you? No witty banter!

The demon roared ferociously!

I held up a cross of Jesus Christ to it.

Me: THE POWER OF CHRIST COMPELS YOU!

It hissed and roared in pain and it was in excruciating agony.

Then the Common Cold, Selma & Patty and Russ Cargill appeared. With Selma & Patty was their pet iguana Jub Jub.

Me: Russ Cargill, Selma & Patty and the Common Cold.

Common Cold: (Nasally) Yes that's right.

Selma: Before we fight, I want one of you to watch Jub Jub. (hands Jub Jub to Laney)

Laney: Why?

Russ Cargill: Selma needs someone to take care of Jub Jub during the battle. He needs some exercise.

Laney: Oh.

Lana: I can show you how to take care of him Laney.

Laney: Thanks Lana.

Patty: How does she know so much about taking care of lizards?

Me: Lana has lots of reptiles at home. She has all kinds of them. Lizards, snakes, turtles, frogs, all kinds.

Selma: Wow. That's impressive.

Russ Cargill: It sure is. So you all Really did destroy Springfield.

Me: We sure did as you can see by it being nothing more than a radioactive crater. It deserved to be destroyed.

Russ Cargill: I believe it.

?: It was a worthless town!

A figure came out and it was WARMAX of the 4 Barbarian Beasts from episodes 18 thru 20 of Mystic Force!

---

Warmax was a samurai-themed monster and was one of the four Barbarian Beasts that was freed by Imperious. He was the first Barbarian Beast to fight the Rangers. He was one of the main antagonists of the first part of the episode "Dark Wish".

Warmax was one of the four Barbarian Beasts that did not fight with honor, and were sealed away in the Oblivion. However, Imperious set them all free, and commanded them to do his bidding. When he was freed, Warmax bumped into Koragg and demanded for him to apologize (even though he was the one that bumped into him), he refuses and Warmax proceeded to attack him before being stopped by the Knight Wolf, Warmax then decided to left Koragg. Warmax was first of Barbarian Beasts who battled with the Rangers in a field. The Mystic Rangers encountered Warmax in the field. With his sword, and dark lightning attacks, he was more than a match for the Mystic Rangers. Warmax brutally beaten all rangers in battle, even heavily wounding Xander and Chip. After battling some, Warmax grew to the giant size, forcing the Rangers to fight him with the Mystic Titans and the Solar Streak Megazord. In the giant form Warmax was even more powerful and easily defeated Mystic Titans. But then Xander returned and finally destroyed the monster using his Mystic Minotaur's Axe Attack.

---

Nick Russell: Warmax!

Warmax: Long time no see rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were one of the 4 Barbarian Beasts and you overwhelmed the rangers with ease.

Warmax: That's right. Very good memory on you. Mistress Vypra was right about you.

Me: So I have seen. Never missed an episode. But where are the rest of the Barbarian Beasts? Usually they are with you.

Warmax: We're coming out one at a time.

Me: I see.

Warmax: (to Leanbow) I never did like that honor nonsense of yours when you were working for the Master. And now, I get to annihilate you since we're now on opposite sides!

Leanbow: We'll see about that!

?: And I will Gladly KILL ALL OF YOU TO GET REVENGE!

Me: Oh shit on me and fuck me sideways.

A figure came out and it was DEFOE! BACK FROM THE DEAD!

---

DeFoe was a scheming, self-proclaimed mastermind. He lead a small force for the Organization alongside his right-hand man, Grier, under orders to track down a journal in Lok's possession and to halt the actions of the Huntik Foundation against them. He would stop at nothing to see that his missions were completed, although sometimes this meant putting his own men in peril to do so.

Little is known about DeFoe's background, but his rocket-like rise through the Organization hierarchy is legendary amongst Suits. Within a matter of months, DeFoe was promoted through Suit rankings to be a prominent leader of his own squad.

Under the Professor, one of DeFoe's earlier missions was to retrieve Eathon Lambert's journal, although the mission ended with the journal being all but destroyed.

DeFoe then ordered Grier to find the biggest Venice Huntik Library because he knew that the Huntik team needed to research Eathon's journal. DeFoe later attacked the library, breaking through by pouring acid on the door's knob. Though he failed to retrieve the journal he manages to learn the Huntik team's next move.

After DeFoe learned that the Huntik team is going to Prague, Czech Republic, to get the Titan Metagolem he ambushed the Huntik team when they were going to retrieve the Jodis Lore's Key, He successfully obtained the key and went to the Golem's Attic, Where he tried to bond with the Titan Metagolem but failed due to Dante's interference so DeFoe retreated because Dante had bonded with Metagolem.

Afterwards, DeFoe's team was sent to retrieve the Amulets of the re-awakening Titans. In the Cave of the Gargoyle on the outskirts of Rouen, France, DeFoe managed to retrieve and bond with Gar-Ghoul.

DeFoe then was ordered by the Professor to retrieve the Ring of Arc. He then had a rematch between Dante's Caliban and DeFoe's "new friend," his Gar-Ghoul, but Dante fled with the other's to the catacombs.

DeFoe was later placed in charge of obtaining the Ring of Arc, but failed thanks to Dante's team. Because of this failure, he was removed from his duties, by Rassimov as the Professor was too furious to lay eyes on him. DeFoe swears that he will bring Dante's end with or without the Organization.

His removal was temporary, as he was later reinstated by Rassimov after nearly destroying the Organization's training machine while training. DeFoe was then given a mission to retrieve the Amulet of King Basilisk, but he again failed due to the intervention of Dante's team.

DeFoe was then ordered simply to deliver the Sword of Saint George to Prague, Czech Republic. The Sword contained the Titan Lindorm, but The Organization considered DeFoe to be unworthy to bond with the Titan. Unsatisfied at simply being a "delivery boy," he went to Greece after receiving word from his spies that Dante Vale was sighted there in order to kill Dante. DeFoe, however, failed, resulting in Lok bonding with Lindorm and DeFoe's Amulets being taken by the Huntik Foundation.

While starting to plan his next attack on Dante Vale, Defoe was tragically murdered by his own right-hand man, Grier, by order of the Professor, who thought Defoe to be incapable of carrying out his orders.

Personality

Known for his high expectations, efficiency, and sadistic obsession with acid and many different kinds of poisons, DeFoe is feared by friend and foe alike, he also has a slippery habit of escaping and leaving his suits to do his dirty work for him from time to time. He seems to look down upon his subordinates. He harbors a strong and obsessive hatred for Dante Vale, being willing to put a mission at risk to defeat him. Dante stated that he himself does not know the reason for DeFoe's grudge, but DeFoe will try anything, even if it endangers his mission, to kill Dante Vale. He also seems to have a huge ego, and thinks he is better than others, due to his having an easy life, as stated by Zhalia. But he does not have much in the way of fight skills and that more than likely contributes to his failures against Dante Vale. Also he appears to be impulsive, as evidenced by his attack on Dante Vale, when Dante, Zhalia, Lok, Sophie and Cherit were exploring the sunken ship from the Argo Fleet. He also seems to hold his grudge against Dante Vale above his missions. He apparenly also throws temper tantrums when things don't go his way, as shown when Grier carried him away.

Abilities

With endless hatred, DeFoe pursues Dante and friends using his squad of Suit operatives and his own Seeker abilities. His choice spells are an array of acidic and poisonous powers, and Kreutalk, his signature Titan, is capable of burning through anything in its way with the venomous acid it spits. In addition to his powers, DeFoe typically carried a silver vial of acid that he would often use to threaten his enemies up close.

---

DeFoe: Guess who's back, Huntik!

Me: DeFoe! I can't believe that you wouldn't stay dead even after I killed you and send you off to Hell.

DeFoe: I will kill you if it's the last thing I do J.D.! You ruined my life and now I will kill you just like you killed me!

Then he flared up a powerful pitch black aura and he was now 10,000 times more powerful than he was before!

Me: WHOA! He has gotten stronger!

Sophie Casterwill: (British Accent) I've had it with this fuckup!

Me: Me too.

Troy: Time to put down a demon!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitzkrieg!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Changeman Rangers.

Me: Lets get them!

A massive and violent lightning storm was building over us to show the extreme power of the fight that was coming. We went at them.

Battle 1: Russ Cargill

Girl Jordan was facing Russ Cargill.

Girl Jordan: Now things are gonna be interesting.

Russ Cargill: Lets see what you are made of.

Girl Jordan then was enveloped in a massive vortex of water and it formed into a powerful dragon of water and she transformed into her Super Angel 30,000 Maelstrom Ocean Dragon form.

Girl Jordan: (Older Voice) This is gonna be a good fight.

Russ Cargill: It sure will be.

Girl Jordan then teleported and kicked Russ in the stomach and she punched him in the face and kicked him in the back of the head and kneed him in the chin and knocked him down. Russ Cargill was knocked out.

Girl Jordan: Good fight.

Battle 2: Common Cold

Robin was facing the Common Cold.

Robin: Now lets see how you like me now.

Common Cold: (Nasally) Lets do it! (Sneezes)

Robin: Bless you.

Robin kicked him in the face and bashed him all over the place with his staff and knocked him out.

Robin: Now I need to clean this.

---

Battle 3: Selma & Patty

---

Mandee was facing Selma & Patty.

Mandee: Lets dance you two.

Selma: With pleasure.

Patty: Lets do it.

Mandee spread her wings of fire and fired blasts of fire at them and burned them and knocked them down and out.

Mandee: Now that is awesome.

---

Battle 4: Warmax

---

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Warmax.

Nico: This is gonna be good.

Warmax: Yes it will.

Nico: You over powered the Mystic Force Rangers. But lets see how you fair against Power Rangers that have over 27+ years of Ranger Powers at their command.

Warmax: WHAT!?

Nico fired an energy blast and the Megaforce Rangers fired energy blasts at Warmax and the blasts hit them and exploded!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Warmax: NO! THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING!

He then fell down and exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Warmax, you have failed this universe.

Troy Burrows: That's telling him.

All that was left of Warmax was his sword and Nico picked that up and kept it as a trophy.

---

Battle 5: DeFoe

---

A raging and powerful lightning storm was building over us as me and Sophie were facing DeFoe back from the dead.

I looked at DeFoe with a smirk and DeFoe looked at me with a malevolent face that was overflowing with extreme rage and fury.

Me: You have gotten more powerful than when we fought the last time DeFoe.

DeFoe: SHUT YOUR FUCKING TRAP!

Me: Make me you worthless fuckup. Also for the record, I'm not the same as I was when we fought the last time. I'm now more powerful than ever before.

DeFoe: What do you mean?

I then flared up my fire aura and I was enveloped in a massive vortex of fire and it formed into a powerful Phoenix and then when it cleared I was now in my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix. When DeFoe saw this, he was shocked and infuriated!

Me: (Divine Fiery Voice) Didn't expect this did you?

DeFoe: (ENRAGED GROWLING) I DON'T CARE HOW POWERFUL YOU ARE! I WILL KILL YOU FOR RUINING EVERYTHING!

Me: You are just as pathetic as you were when I killed all your friends and teammates.

DeFoe: SHUT YOUR FUCKING MOUTH! I WILL MAKE SURE THAT YOU NEVER SPEAK TO ME AGAIN! YOU'RE FINISHED!

He flew at me with incredible speed and I flew at him with incredible speed and then we punched at each other and released a massive fiery explosion of incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I punched DeFoe in the face and kicked him in the stomach with devastating force and sent him crashing into a rock and then he got up and fired a massive blast of Augerfrost Energy at me and I fired a massive blast of fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion set much of the crater on fire and I popped out of the smoke from the explosion and kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach with devastating force and flipped over him and kicked him in the back and sent him flying and then he rebounded and fired massive Boltflare blasts at me and I dodged them and the blasts hit the ground and exploded into massive fiery explosions of fire and set more of the crater on fire and I teleported and kneed him in the nose and he had blood pouring down his face.

Me: Give up DeFoe.

He was growling with incredible fury.

Me: What's the matter? Has your confidence finally dropped like when I killed all your friends? You know your run can't last forever. Not while Team Loud Phoenix Storm is on watch and we will always be on watch. It's not much fun being hunted down isn't it DeFoe? Being hunted just like how you hunted me, Dante Vale and Huntik and tried several times to kill us and failed. And now look at you. You were killed by me and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm when we blew up the Organization. Just like when I killed all of your friends and the Professor and I show no remorse for killing scumfucking shit like you. It hurts doesn't it? You are a worthless pile of fucking shit just like the Organization was when we destroyed them. Does it hurt!?

Then DeFoe WENT BALLISTIC! He screamed in incredibly relentless fury and went at me with incredible speed and he teleported and punched at me and I blocked his punch and massive thunderous shockwaves came out from his punch and I kicked him in the face.

DeFoe: I HATE YOU!

My aura flared up with incredible power and he roared with incredible fury and he went at me and punched and kicked at me several times with incredible fury and ferocity and I dodged all his strikes like they were nothing. Then DeFoe flared up a massive pitch black aura of incredible power and he went at me with incredible speed and I was blocking all his moves with incredible speed and power and then I went at him and kicked him and punched him in the face and stomach and fired a massive blast of fire and burned him all over the place with incredible fury and more.

Then I fired blasts of energy and they hit him all over and exploded with incredible power and Lightning from the storm clouds struck all over the place and more.

Sophie then saw that DeFoe was losing.

Me: I've had it with you DeFoe. You have caused nothing but pain and suffering in your senseless quest to conquer the world and look where that got you. All it got you was a one way ticket to the darkness of Hell burning for all eternity.

Sophie looked at DeFoe with incredible disdain.

Sophie Casterwill: (In her head) DeFoe, you have hunted me and my friends to the ends of the Earth all just to kill us and you ruined so many lives including those of my family. I will never forgive you for your crimes. I will make sure that you suffer for every single one of them! I won't let you ruin my life anymore!

But then something snapped in her.

I sensed her power building.

Me: Huh?

Sophie Casterwill: (Out Loud) AND I WILL NEVER LET YOU HURT ANYONE ELSE AGAIN!

Sophie then screamed like a madman and a massive explosion of fire exploded out of the ground around her and she was enveloped in a massive red aura and fire was swirling all around her and her power was increasing exponentially at an astronomical level and the ground was shaking extremely violently as red lightning struck at an incredible rate at 100 strikes per second and it was unbelievable!

Me: WHOA! WHAT POWER!

Sophie then released the massively full extent of her power in an incredible amount of rage and in a massive explosion of fire equal to that of 1,000 megatons of TNT, she was forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI BY JO BLANKENBURG PLAYS AT 1:35)

When the smoke cleared, Sophie had changed dramatically. She had red long hair in a braided ponytail, she had a phoenix symbol emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she had a sleeveless fire trench coat with the kanji for Sophie Casterwill, Fury of the Phoenix of Life, Fire and Rebirth on the back.

ソフィーキャスターウィル、「生命のフェニックスの怒り」、「火と再生」

She had a sword with a fire blade on her left hip and she had wings made entirely out of pure fire. She was now a SUPER ANGEL 30,000 PHOENIX SPIRITFORCE FIRE!

Me: WHOA! Sophie you look incredible!

DeFoe: What the!?

Sophie Casterwill: Thank you J.D. Now I have a score to settle with DeFoe.

She looked at DeFoe with incredible fury!

Sophie Casterwill: I will never forgive you for your crimes DeFoe!

She then unsheathed her sword and flew at DeFoe and slashed his head off with incredible force and sent his severed head flying and then she fired a blast of fire at his head and body as his blood sprayed out of him and incinerated him into nothing but a pile of ashes!

Me: Unbelievable!

Sophie Casterwill: Send him back to Hell, J.D.

Me: With pleasure Sophie. But DeFoe, you are too dangerous for Hell to even accept. You deserve a much better place.

Sophie Casterwill: Word of advice, Defoe? Stay dead this time!

His evil spirit then appeared and I sent him into the Book of Vile Darkness.

DeFoe: DAMN YOU J.D.!

He was gone for good and I powered down.

Lok then came and he saw Sophie.

Lok: Sophie!? Wow! You look amazing!

Sophie: Thanks Lok. And this is for you.

She then hugged him and kissed him full on the lips and I was happy for them.

Lok: Does this mean that we're…?

Sophie: Yes. We are now boyfriend and girlfriend.

Me: I'm so happy for you both.

Lok: Thanks J.D.

Me: Thank Sophie. She helped send DeFoe into the Book of Vile Darkness for good. She has now ascended to new heights.

Lok: We're now free of him for good.

Me: Lets hope. But if he ever does come back he will be Hakaied out of existence forever.

Lok: Yeah.

Me: Lets go help the others take down the demon.

Me: Good riddance.

Me: All packed.

Me, Varie and Xerneas went down to the living room.

Me: Well we're off to Hawaii for some much needed rest and relaxation.

Nico: Have fun guys.

Me: We won't be back for a week and it'll be good to have some rest after everything that happened. Nico, you're in charge while we're gone.

Nico: (Salutes) You can count on me sir!

Me: Good. Well that's it guys we got to go. We'll see you all in a week.

Everyone: Bye J.D.

Hunter: (German Accent) Auf Wiedersehen mien friend.

Lori: We'll see you soon.

Varie: Yep.

Xerneas: It's gonna be fun.

Vince: See you all soon.

I waved back.

Nico was placed in charge for the whole week while I was away.

Later Nico, Beast Boy and Vince, the Loud Kids, Aqua, Sora and the Transformers were heading to Keyora's Jewelry Emporium for getting Beast Boy an awesome Ring for him proposing to Tara.

Beast Boy: I'm really nervous about this guys.

Nico: I know man but like how J.D. did with Sora and me you have me with you as support.

Jazz: That's right man.

Lincoln: We'll help you get an awesome ring for Tara.

Beast Boy: Thanks guys.

They arrived at the awesome Jewelry store and went in.

Store Clerk: (German Accent) Ah welcome back. Where's J.D.? Usually he's with all of you?

Nico: He's on a vacation over in Hawaii for the next week because he needs some rest.

Store Clerk: Ah I don't blame him. You all here to get another ring?

They were shown an awesome 18 Karat Yellow Gold ring and it had a picture of the world on the face made of diamonds, emeralds and sapphires and it also had the symbol of the Teen Titans on it as well as a heart above it. It also said G.L. + T.M., Love of Animals and Earth forever.

Nico: (Whistles) That's beautiful.

Store Clerk: Und it's perfect for Beast Boy und Tara.

Beast Boy: It's beautiful. I'll take it.

Nico: And it'll be on me.

Store Clerk: Excellent.

They bought the ring and went back to the estate.

Jazz: So what does the ring look like?

Beast Boy showed them and it was beautiful.

Lori: Wow! That is literally perfect.

Leni: That is totes beautiful.

Luna Loud: It's rockin dudes.

Lynn: Yeah!

Nico: You can do this Beast Boy.

Beast Boy: I know.

Back at the estate, Tara and her children Selena and Gloria were watching TV. They were watching a documentary about the famous Crystal Caves in the Chihuahua Desert in Mexico and they were seeing house thousands of years of geothermal activity from deep in the Earth's Crust made an incredible spectacle of the Earth.

Tara: Sure.

She stood up.

Tara: What is it?

Beast Boy: Tara, ever since you became a Teen Titan, I feel like we've gotten more closer and closer and the reason I want to ask this is well…

He then shocked Tara by getting down on 1 knee and showing the ring to her. Tara had tears streaming down her face.

Beast Boy: Tara Markov, will you marry me?

Tara: Oh GAR! YES I WILL! YES I WILL!

They hugged and they kissed passionately as everyone cheered wildly for them as Beast Boy put the ring on Tara's finger.

Nico: Way to go Beast Boy!

Gloria and Selena hugged them and so did Tara's sister and brother.

LUCHAVILLE, SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Later everyone was over in the Southern California town of Luchaville and it was a town located in Southern California next to the Baja California Peninsula and it centered around the awesome Mexican Wrestling Sport, ¡Lucha Libre!

Nico: Wow! This is so awesome!

Lynn: I didn't know there was even a town centered around Lucha Libre.

Lincoln: Me neither. This is awesome!

Laney: This is amazing.

Anna: I've heard about this town. Everyone that lives here is Lucha Libre wrestler and they wear awesome masks for this place.

Vince: Wow!

Carol: This is awesome!

Later they went into the school of ¡Lucha-Libre! called the Foremost World-Renowned International School of Lucha.

Venom: So, this is the school of Lucha?

Nico: This is awesome!

Lana: It sure is. I didn't know there was a school for Luchadores in training.

Ronnie Anne: This is amazing!

Everyone saw them and then they were greeted by the three awesome friends of the school, Rikochet, Buena Girl and The Flea!

Rikochet: (Spanish Accent) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet all of you!

Nico: It's a pleasure to meet you too.

Rikochet: My name is Rikochet.

Buena Girl: My name is Buena Girl.

The Flea: And I am the Flea.

Nico: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Syd Chang: This is an awesome school you all have here.

Buena Girl: It sure is.

The Flea: Where's J.D.?

Rikochet: Isn't J.D. supposed to be with you guys?

Ravi: He, Xerneas, and Varie are on vacation. So, Nico's in charge.

Rikochet: I see. He needed some R&R right?

Nico: Yep. So he left me in charge for the week.

The Flea: I see.

?: Hey Rikochet!

Rikochet: Oh no.

A Luchadore bully came up and it was CINDY SLAM!

* * *

Cindy Slam, is a violent, tall masked wrestler who hates just about everything and can get angry very easily. It is unknown exactly why she is so angry all the time. Most of her appearances in the first two seasons had her growling most of the time with her only line being "This isn't my diary." in a sweet little girl's voice, but in season 3, she started talking regularly more often with a southern accent deeper than her original. Despite her southern accent, The first time she talked she had an accent. Her signature move, the Cindy Slammer, is to turn her hands into brick walls and crush her opponent. Her first voice is done by Kimberly Brooks and her second voice is done by Candi Milo.

Appearence

She has a short black pony tail and pale skin. She wears a purple mask with a red V with red around the eyes, and a black shirt with purple sleeves with the word "Grr!" on it, purple underwear tights with red sleeves with yellow stars on them, and white boots.

* * *

Cindy Slam: Give me all your money Rikochet!

Nico: Hey! What the hell is your problem?

Cindy gasped when she saw them.

Cindy Slam: Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: That's right Cindy, I know you can be angry most of the time. But, maybe instead of being a bully, you can use that anger in more useful ways.

Cindy Slam: Such as?

Nico: For starters, you can use that anger to fight bad guys. What do you think?

Cindy Slam: That's not a bad idea. But where's J.D.? Usually he's with you guys.

Nico: He, Varie and Xerneas are on vacation and won't be back till next week so they left me in charge till they get back.

Cindy Slam: Ah. Needed some rest after everything that happened with Rotwood and all that.

Lincoln: How did you know about that?

Buena Girl: It's right here in the Luchadore Times.

She showed them a newspaper and it said Nico Chan Loco Because of Rotwood Plot.

Nico: That's about right.

Laney: Yeah that was a terrible time for us.

Rikochet: We're very sorry that happened to all of you.

The Flea: Yeah.

Buena Girl: But thank goodness you all came because we're having problems with the Luchabot 3000.

Nico: Can you tell us about what that is?

Rikochet: I sure can.

Rikochet went over the history of the Luchabot and they were shocked.

Nico: Looks like we got here just in time.

Lola: (sighs) Well, it's clear you don't need me, Lori, or Lynn anymore.

Hook: What do you mean?

Lori: Well, Nico managed to get Cindy Slam to change her bullying ways just by using words. And I bet his non-reckless plan will literally bring down the Luchabot effectively.

Lynn: But you know what? That's fine. The three of us will just go back to the Estate and stay there the rest of the day.

Nico: No girls you are much needed for this as much as anyone else on the team. You girls are just as important to the team as all of us are.

Naruto: That's right. Like my awesome bro said "With Great Power comes Great Responsibility." And like I say "I never give up and I never go back on my word. That's my ninja way."

Lola: Awesome.

Lori: You're right! We won't quit.

Lynn: That's right!

Nico: Okay now here's my plan to take down the Luchabot.

Nico huddled everyone together and revealed that they were gonna sneak up behind it and punched it to give it a knockout punch and then with their powers they will destroy it.

Ratchet: This is perfect! The Luchabot won't know what hit it!

?: (Techno Voice) I disagree.

They turned and they saw THE LUCHABOT 3000!

Lincoln: You got to be kidding me! That little tinker toy is the Luchabot!?

Laney: This will be too easy.

Rikochet: Don't let his appearance deceive you Laney. He's really dangerous.

Luchabot: You being temporary leader is most illogical, Nicolas Chan.

Nico: Why? I mean, in just a few hours, I convinced the bullies at the school of Lucha to change their ways, develop a plan to take you down, and snuck up on you when you weren't looking.

Luchabot: While reckless, J.D. Knudson's leadership leads Team Loud Phoenix Storm to victory all the time. You will never be the leader that he is!

Those words start to stair something up in him.

Nico: (starting to doubt himself) Are you right? Am I really not leadership material?

?: (Australian Accent) I don't agree with what he said.

Then a figure came out and it was VALON!

---

Valon is one of Dartz's three main henchmen in Yu-Gi-Oh!. He is a part of Doma where he would also work along with Rafael and Amelda. He only appeared in Season 4 (except for two cameos in Season 5) Waking the Dragons and therefore only appeared in the anime. He speaks with a stylized cockney accent in the English dub, which is commonly mistaken for an Australian one.

He was voiced by Marc Thompson.

Biography

Valon grew up as an orphan in a church that was burned down by a street gang who also killed the nun who took care of him (this entire sequence involving the church and the nun was cut from the 4Kids dub due to the violence and religious references that were present). He then attacked and assaulted the gang and that got him sent to prison (detention center in the 4Kids dub). Dartz was the one who paid the gang to burn down the church (framed Valon in the 4Kids dub) and Valon was sent to an island where he was forced to duel the other prisoners in Orichalcos duels and he was the winner, imprisoning the other prisoners' souls inside the cards and joined Dartz.

Valon's deck has an armor theme, where he uses the armor to attack enemy monsters himself. He fell in love with Mai Valentine and stopped the duel between her and Joseph Wheeler. He dueled Rebecca Hawkins and Duke Devlin, easily defeating them without losing a life point. But as he did not play the Seal of Orichalcos they did not lose their souls. He later dueled Joseph in an empty lot which turned into a final struggle between their armor. Joseph won and Valon's soul was taken by the Orichalcos.

He was released when The Great Leviathan was destroyed and had two cameo appearances near the end of Season 5.

---

Heidi: Valon!

Mai Valentine: Valon. It's great to see you again.

Valon: Good to see you again too Mai. And Heidi, thank you so much for saving me from the Great Leviathan mate.

Heidi: You're welcome Valon.

Joey Wheeler: I didn't expect to see you here Valon.

Valon: It has been a while Wheeler and you did a really good duel with me.

Joey Wheeler: It was a really good duel though.

Nico: You guys know him?

Heidi: We do Nico. He used to be one of Dartz's minions and he's one of the countless people I saved from the Great Leviathan when Dartz was gonna destroy the Earth and he's one of the people that Dartz brainwashed. But he's a great duelist and he is very honorable.

Lana: Wow.

Heidi: You should see the kind of deck he uses though.

Valon: That's right. You'll see it in action soon.

Nico then dropped to the floor in grief again.

Luchabot: Now, to retreat while they are distracted.

Valon: (to the others) Sorry, mates. But we'll have to continue this another time!

With that, the two of them retreat.

Lynn: C'mon, Nico! Now isn't the time to beat yourself up. We can still catch those two!

Nico: Don't you guys get it?! The Luchabot was right! I'll never be the leader that J.D. is! And J.D. wouldn't have let the Luchabot and Valon get away! Some leader I turned out to be.

Having enough of this, the Headmistress slapped Nico across the face.

Headmistress: Get ahold of yourself, Nico! You are not in any way a bad leader!

Nico: That's easy for you to say! You actually run this school perfectly!

Headmistress: (sighs) You're wrong. I am not perfect. I've made some mistakes. But let me tell you why I think you are a good leader.

Nico: (sarcastically) Hey, I'm all ears. I mean, it's not like there are two bad guys on the loose right now!

Laney: Nico you are a great leader and J.D. made you his second-in-command for a very good reason. It's to protect all of us from doing stupid things.

Bane, Carly and Leonard appeared.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) That's right señor Nico.

Nico: Oh hey guys.

Kid 1: Wow! Is that Bane!

Kid 2: It sure is!

Kid 3: WOW!

Kid 4: Bane! Wow! This is awesome!

Kid 5: Bane it's an honor!

Maria: Looks like you have some fans, Bane.

Bane: Indeed I do.

Carly Carmine: It's good to be out on the field again.

Lana: It sure is Carly.

Naruto: Don't worry guys, I left some clones behind to look after Carly's kids while we are out.

Lincoln: Good thinking Naruto.

Nicole: Way to come through bro.

Leonard: Nico, would fighting us help raise your spirits?

Nico: Oh, why not? As long as Rikochet can get a chance to fight Bane.

Rikochet: It would be an honor!

?: I'll fight too.

A figure came out and it was DARK NECROBAT!

Shade Man: And you are?

Dark Necrobat: Call me… Dark Necrobat! (summons a Batton to attack Shade Man)

Lucy fired blasts of black lightning and neutralized the blasts.

?: Let me help out too.

They turned and they saw Ronnie Anne's favorite ¡Lucha-Libre! Wrestling hero, LA TORMENTA!

Ronnie Anne: NO WAY! LA TORMENTA!

Lincoln: 10 time Lucha-Libre World Champion La Tormenta!?

Lynn: AWESOME!

Syd Chang: Awesome!

La Tormenta: Si. It's an honor to meet you all.

Nico: Ronnie Anne told me so much about you. It's an honor to meet the famous 10 time champion.

La Tormenta: Same to you Nico. And Nico, I'm sorry you are down but you can't let a little thing like the Luchabot get you down. He is wrong. J.D. would want you to keep going and never give up no matter what. It's what he would want even if he's on vacation.

Nico: (Determined) You're right! Phooey on that little tinker toy! I will not let a worthless little tinker toy take me down and take down my Saiyan Pride! He will be dismantled and put away forever!

Bane: That's the spirit!

Leonard: Yeah!

Carly Carmine: Yeah!

Nico: Lets get him!

Emma: Let's show this robot the true meaning of ¡Lucha-libre!

Rikochet: And that is HONOR! FAMILY! TRADITION!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Electronic Brigade!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Denziman Rangers from 1980.

Nico: Lets go!

Misty Tredwell appeared.

Misty Tredwell: Let me help you all out.

Nico: Thanks Misty.

They went to the stadium for the Lucha Libre gym!

---

In the Lucha Libre stadium they got ready and it was gonna be an awesome fight!

They saw the Luchabot in the center of the ring and they snuck up from above and jumped onto it and sent it crashing through the floor of the ring and the Luchabot was ready.

Nico: You can take what you said and shove it up your fat pineapple-eating fucking ass!

Luchabot: So you all want to fight.

Valon: I knew you all had it in you.

Nico: Me and Misty will face you.

Valon: Ready for anything mate.

Lynn was now Lunatic Lynn and Lincoln was now Loco Lincoln!

Rikochet: Nice Luchadore masks guys.

Lynn: Thanks Rikochet.

Nico: Lets get them!

Rikochet: I'll help Laney.

Buena Girl: I'll help Haiku.

The Flea: And I'll help Lori.

Nico: Cool. Lets get them!

They powered up and went at them.

---

Battle 1: Bane

---

Laney and Rikochet were facing Bane.

Laney: This is gonna be awesome!

Bane: It will be fun.

Bane pressed a button on his device and it pumped Venom into him and he bulked up to huge levels and his strength and endurance was stronger than ever!

Rikochet: Ay, basura!

Laney: I've faced him before. Follow my lead.

Laney transformed into her Super Angel 20,000 form and she was ready for a fight!

Laney: (Older Voice) Now things are getting good.

Laney and Rikochet went at him and Laney kicked Bane in the stomach and Rikochet kicked him in the head.

Rikochet: Laney kick me right at him! PULVERIZING PINBALL!

Rikochet turned into a ball and Laney kicked him hard and he went at Bane fasted than a bullet fired from a gun and a cannonball shot out of a cannon and he smashed into Bane's face and knocked him down with incredible force!

Laney: Uno, dos, tres, YOU'RE OUT!

Rikochet: That was awesome Laney!

Laney: That was our combo called the Comet-Flying Soccer Ball.

Rikochet: Amazing name!

Laney: Thank you.

---

Battle 2: Carly Carmine

---

Haiku and Buena Girl were facing Carly Carmine.

Buena Girl: I heard you have 3 adorable children now Carly.

Carly Carmine: I sure do.

Buena Girl: Congratulations to you.

Carly Carmine: Thank you Buena Girl.

Buena Girl: Denada.

Haiku: Lets do it.

Carly Carmine: Right. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL ASLLA PISCU, and FORTUNE LADIES FIRE, WATER, EARTH, WIND, LIGHT and DARK!

She summoned Said monsters.

Haiku: I think I'll summon something for this occasion. I summon the mighty Gladiator Beasts! I summon GLADIATOR BEAST DARIUS, ANDAL, TYGERIUS, SECUTOR, TORAX, SAMNITE, MURMILLO, DIMACARI, HOPLOMUS, SPARTACUS, BESTIARI, RETIARI, HERAKLINOS, EQUESTE, ALEXANDER, AUGUSTUS, ESSEDARII, NOXIUS, OCTAVIUS, VESPASIUS, SAGITTARI, NEROKIUS, GAIODIAZ and DRAGASES!

She summoned said monsters and they were incredible!

Carly Carmine: Wow! I never heard of the Gladiator Beasts.

Haiku: They are beast creatures and they are based off of the famous Gladiators from the Roman Empire from over 3,000 years ago.

Carly Carmine: Amazing!

Haiku: It sure is. Lets dance.

Haiku and Buena Girl went at Carly and Haiku fired waves of Orange Energy and Carly fired blasts of orange energy and the blasts collided and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Buena Girl: BUENA BULLDOZER OF TRUTH!

She morphed and turned into a Bulldozer and pushed Carly and the Gladiator Beasts blasted and smashed Aslla Piscu and the Fortune Ladies and they all exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Carly was knocked down.

Haiku: Uno, dos, tres. You're Out!

Buena Girl: Buena!

Haiku: Oh yeah.

---

Battle 3: Leonard the King Pig

---

Lori and The Flea were facing Leonard the King Pig and he had a massive army of pig minions this time.

Lori: Lets do this!

Flea: This is gonna be awesome!

Leonard: Lets do it!

Lori formed a sword of wind and she and the Flea went at Leonard and the Pig Minions and slashed them all over the place and more and they turned the pig minions into pork cuts for the homeless.

Flea: Watch this one. BLAZING TURKEY OF GLORY!

Flea turned into a roasted turkey with its butt of fire and he charged and slammed into Leonard and burned him all over and he sent him crashing into the ground with incredible force. He was knocked out.

Lori: Uno, dos, tres. You're out!

Flea: Yeah!

---

Battle 4: Valon

---

Nico, Alexis and Misty were facing Valon.

Nico: Lets do this Valon.

Valon: I plan to mates. First I activate THE SEAL OF ORICHALCOS!

He activated the Seal of Orichalcos and a green circle with Enochian Runes appeared and landed with them in it. It formed a Unicursal Hexagram and the fight was on!

Nico: WHOA! This is insane!

Misty Tredwell: So this is what it's like to see the Seal of Orichalcos.

Valon: Indeed it is.

They saw a dark aura around Valon and then he lifted his head and he had the Seal of Orichalcos glowing in the middle of his forehead and his eyes were glowing red with pure evil!

Nico: WHOA!

Alexis Rhodes: So this is what it's like to face a duelist under the power of the Seal of Orichalcos.

Misty Tredwell: Valon what the hell happened to you!?

Nico: The Negative Energy coming off of him is mind boggling!

Alexis Rhodes: No kidding.

Valon: That's right mates and you are now going to see what I can do. I summon PSYCHIC ARMOR HEAD and activate ARMOR GRAVITATION!

He summoned said monster and he activated said Spell Card and he also summoned BLACK HOLE SHIELD, BIG BANG BLOW, OVER BOOST and ADVANCED SHIELD and he merged with them and he was ready for some serious pain!

Nico: OH THAT IS AWESOME!

Misty Tredwell: That is amazing that you can have armor like that.

Valon: Thank you mates.

Nico: Now I see what Joey was up against when he faced you. You packed an incredible wallop when you faced him.

Valon: That's right.

Misty Tredwell: We're gonna have to fight fire with fire on this one Nico. I have an awesome idea. I activate my AURA ARMOR!

Misty activated the Aura Armor Trap Card and she was now in the armor.

Misty Tredwell: Watch this one. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CCARAYHUA!

She summoned the Lizard Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua.

Valon: So that's your famous Lizard Earthbound Immortal.

Misty Tredwell: That's right. And watch this one. I activate EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL ARMOR GRAVITATION!

She activated said spell card and Ccarayhua merged with Misty and she was now an awesomely cool new monster called LADY WARRIOR OF CCARAYHUA! It looked like an awesome lizard armor suit and Ccarayhua's head was a helmet, his body and legs were body armor and leg armor and his tail and claws were a deadly thorn whip! She was now a Level 12 Dark Monster with 5000 ATK and 4500 DEF and she had a very deadly effect!

Nico: WHOA! Misty this is so cool for you!

Alexis Rhodes: This is amazing!

Misty Tredwell: Thanks guys. I call this form the Lady Warrior of Ccarayhua.

Nico: It's amazing. I wonder what J.D. would say if he saw you like this.

Misty Tredwell: I'm sure he would be impressed.

Alexis Rhodes: Just what I was thinking.

Valon: That is most impressive mate. Wheeler had a very similar form like this called Lord of Red. It was a good battle.

Nico: That's what I heard. I don't need armor for this. I equip myself with LIGHTNING BLADE!

Nico activated said card and he had a sword of lightning in his hands.

Nico: Nice!

Alexis Rhodes: And I equip myself with SWORD OF SPARKLES and SILVER WING!

Alexis had a powerful sword appear in her hands and then she sprouted shimmering glowing angel wings and they were incredibly dazzling.

Jaden, Heidi, Toby and May were watching.

Heidi: Wow! This is amazing!

Jaden: Get your game on guys!

Toby: Wow! Sis you look awesome in that armor!

Misty Tredwell: Thanks bro.

Valon: So that's your brother Toby. I thought he was dead.

Heidi: He was until grandpa resurrected him.

May: We were horrified when we found out that Sayer killed him.

Toby: Yeah and now I have my awesome sis back. Show him no mercy sis!

Misty Tredwell: With pleasure.

Nico: Shall we dance Valon?

Valon: Lets mate.

They went at each other and Nico slashed him in the chest with the sword and Valon punched at him and he dodged his punch and kicked him in the chest and Misty slashed him with her whip and her effect activated. Any monster she lashes is instantly destroyed on contact no matter how strong.

Alexis flew at amazing speed and she slashed Valon all over and Nico kicked him in the face and slashed his arm with his sword and Misty lashed Valon all over and destroyed his armor and Valon was down.

Valon: You beat me. Good bye.

Heidi: Oh no!

The Seal of Orichalcos was about to take him but Heidi ran fast and punched the seal and destroyed it in an instant! Saving him from being taken by it.

Valon: You saved me.

Heidi reached her hand out to him.

Heidi: Because you put up a really good fight and my father told me that there's no honor in letting your opponent die when they put up a really good fight. You fought very valiantly against Joey and you spared Duke Devlin and Rebecca Hawkins when you challenged them and that shows that you are very honorable. And you fought valiantly against Nico and Misty and that shows that you are honorable. And Mai told me that you saved her when Joey beat her and that shows that there is some good in you. You have a good heart after everything you went through and you are also on the road to redemption.

Valon was touched.

Valon: Thank you Heidi.

He took her hand and Mai went over and hugged him.

Mai Valentine: I'm glad you're safe Valon.

Valon: Thanks to Heidi and everyone.

Alexis Rhodes: You were awesome Valon.

Nico: You are a good fighter Valon.

Valon: Thanks mate.

Nico and Valon shook hands.

Valon: Just so you know I did not have any part in demoralizing you.

Nico: I know Valon. I know.

---

Battle 5: Dark Necrobat

---

Everyone got his abilities and weapons.

Troy Burrows: Mega Rangers, that's a Mega Win.

---

Battle 6: LUCHABOT 3000

---

They regrouped and were facing the Luchabot 3000!

Flea: I kicked your metal butt before! I can do it again!

Luchabot: That is highly illogical.

Nico: SHUT UP!

They went at the Luchabot and Nico punched him in the face and kicked him from behind and Vince and Carol fired blasts of atomic energy and light and Lincoln, Linka and Fiona fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted him all over and Lynn and Lincoln pile-drive him and smashed him all over the place and so did Rikochet, Buena Girl and Flea and smashed him all over and Cindy Slam smashed him viciously. Najarin, Lystone, Mudeenu, Kamangareth, and Gintanai blasted him and smashed him all over the place.

Lana fired a wave of yellow energy.

Shanan: TECH STYLE NINJA ART: MEN OF IRON!

Shanan fired a wave of energy and it formed into the Robot Suits from Warhammer 40K.

The blasts all hit the Luchabot all at once and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion destroyed the ring.

Nico: Time for some teamwork!

Ravi Shaw: I've always wanted to try the Cyber Planet Key powers.

Ratchet: It's really awesome.

Venom: Yep.

Ravi used the Beast Morpher Cyber Planet Key and Ratchet used the Autobot Cyber Planet Key. Ravi had his gorilla strength and Ratchet had his Photon Blaster enhanced 100-fold.

Hook used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and Venom used the Marvel Cyber Planet Key. They enhanced Hook's Rocket Launcher and Venom's Symbiote Powers 100-fold.
